But I tell you that you play around, and you play around, and you play around as if you had forever to do this thing. I have called you unto Me and called you unto Me and called you unto Me. And I tell you this night you have still not prepared your hearts for the coming of My son. You have still not prepared your hearts for this great harvest that I am going to be pouring out upon My people.

I tell you My people you are not ready to minister salvation to the lost and the dying world because you are still playing with the things of this world. You are still holding onto the things of the flesh. Let go I say! Let go My children! If you do not let go the enemy is truly going to consume you. You wonder what is going on around about you. The enemy is trying and he has come and he is consuming everything in his path. And I tell you that there is things' going on in the spirit realm that you cannot comprehend at this time. There are things going on in the heavenly realm that I cannot explain to you, because you are not prepared for what I am about to do.

I tell you I am coming! I am coming! I am coming saith the lord and I am going to do a great and mighty works in this earth, are you going to get yourself prepared? Are you going to get yourself prepared for this great and mighty works that I am going to do. I have been looking to and fro. I have been looking to and fro and I cannot find the people that would do this great and mighty works for Me. Come this night I say, come this night and shed your filthy garments. Let Me wash you white as snow and let Me do the great and the perfect work within you that needs to be done for the great coming of My son saith the Lord. I am going to hold you accountable. I am going to hold you accountable for the souls that do not get saved. Why are you like the foolish virgins? Why will you not comprehend the times? Look around about you, what do you see, trouble on every side. I tell you My people wars and rumors of war. I tell you My people the signs are all around about but you still are not comprehending what I am about to do saith the lord.

I hear the lord say it is time we quit dancing with the devil and it is time we place our hands to the plow and we keep them there. And it is time we go forward and do the great and mighty works he has called us forth to do.

Matthew 25: 1-13

1. "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
2. "Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
3. "Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them,
4. "but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5. "But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.
6. "And at midnight a cry was heard: `Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!'
7. "Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.
8. "And the foolish said to the wise, `Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'
9. "But the wise answered, saying, `No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.'
10. "And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.
11. "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, `Lord, Lord, open to us!'
12. "But he answered and said, `Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.'
13. "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

I Corinthians 3:1-3:
1. And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ.
2. I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able;
3. for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?

Matthew 16:1-3

1. Then the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven.
2. He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, `It will be fair weather, for the sky is red';
3. "and in the morning, `It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times.

Luke 9:62
62. But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

There is something powerful going on in the spirit realm. I can't explain it and I won't even try. I am just telling you saints (I know I know) that we are about ready to encounter God in a way that we are really not prepared to encounter him.

Saints, we must get it together.
joshua2000@delaware.net

In Times of Pain

Luz Cintrón

I know through all my Savior lives and reigns up high and reigns within in darkness as within the light
His love is hope
His presence might.

I know the tears that roll down here cross through the pain cuts through the fear
I know He lives and reigns up high
His love is sure
His presence mine.

O Lamb Of God
I love You still and Your embrace is all I need Don't ever open up Your arms they are my shelter Lamb of Life.

Although I'm blind and blame speaks near although the silence speaks of fear
My heart is resting on His side from where the blood and water rise.

Rise me with You
O Lamb of Love envelop in currents that flow unhindered by my guilty shame the debt is paid
Your love remains.

Oh Lamb of God
Sweet Lamb of Fire
My Precious Love
my Sweet Delight
Desire of my soul and heart
You have my best always in mind.

I trusted You
I trust you still
I know Your thoughts are life for me in water and in blood I'm dressed forever cleansed forever safe.

Your servant in His love;
Luz C. Cintrón

Incensing the Serpent

Conrad Lampan

It is alarming to see how all things magical, even with a "witchy" side if you let me, are creeping into the church. My wife and I continually receive emails and tapes from many different sources invariably focusing on things like wells of water that carry power, or places that are "charged" with power, and anointing oils that carry more power because they are made with spices brought from Jerusalem, and some are even more powerful because they were made on site in a cave under the place where some saint preached under the wall of some ancient city in Israel (forgive my irony). By the way, the oil to which James refers that was used to anoint the sick was plain, flat, regular, common olive oil.

My question in all this is: where in the world is the power of Jesus? If I expect anything miraculous to happen the source of it is the Holy Spirit, the Power of the Blood, and the name of Jesus. It is true that Jesus used different stuff when He healed people: He used mud, He used spit, He commanded a washing, and other things; however He never said anything in the line of "this is holy mud". To put the focus in the elements used as say point of contact leads us into very murky and dangerous waters.

We find a very interesting passage about this in the story of the "healing serpent" in Israel. In 2 Kings 18:4 (KJV) we read

"He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan."

Imagine, this was Hezekiah the king, hundreds of years after the bronze serpent was lifted by Moses the people were still burning incense to it! They were worshipping the means God used to bring healing when as a result of their sin they were attacked by real snakes. They have turned what God used, a means to an end into a magical object that required worship! That was witchcraft, rebellion!

The bad news is that similar things are happening in the church today, not only that some people are focusing in the elements or even in the anointed individuals God uses instead of focusing on the Person who is the source of power; but even worse some people are incorporating into the church activities and rituals that are taken from pagan rituals. My God, how can a Christian draw "inspiration" or power from pagan, evil, demonic sources? We need to realize that anything and I mean anything no matter how it looks, no matter how shiny or golden it appears to be, anything that comes from the world into the church is demonic in origin and aim to take us away from Jesus. The world in any form has no business in the church.

It is particularly dangerous when in our efforts and desire for revival we start digging into the past to find the source of power, instead of realizing the our source of power is here and now in the Person of the Holy Spirit, available to every one who would pay the price of surrendering to His will.

We can surely learn from past revivals, we can learn from the achievements and from the errors, but we enter into quicksand when we try to dig up "powers from past to present". When we do it we can be in dire danger of bringing stuff from the past that does not belong in here, opening doors to a revival of "all things evil". There are some in the church that seem to think that all things past are good (this is a basic of the New Age movement) and spend their time digging up spiritual things from the past, interconnecting them, and analyzing them to the extent of making a science out of the whole process. Knowledge that does not come from the Lord is not good.

For God's sake friends, let us not incorporate witchcraft in the church. Magic belong somewhere else not in Christian meetings. I know that some will be offended by this article, those who cherish their "stuff" might be even angry because of this note. However, let me tell you something that the Lord is clearly saying: it is time for the church to be cleansed from anything and everything that has been added which is not from God. It is time for repentance. If we have done things our way, we need to repent at once.

Evan Roberts who was used of God to spark a revival in Wales in 1904 said the clue was "Confess any known sin, and get rid of anything doubtful" in your life. We want revival, so let us go to the same fountain the revivalists of the past had. What did the Apostles, Luther, Roberts, Finney, Campbell, and countless others that were used of God in revival? Prayer, The Scriptures, Intimacy with God, Centered in Jesus, and a message of repentance.

There is power in the Blood of Jesus, there is power in the Name of Jesus, there is power in the Holy Spirit; we certainly need no other source much less one that taps into the wells of evil.

Be Blessed

Conrad Lampan Center for Revival Studies Wales - Argentina - United States Email: crs@revivalstudies.org Phone: 01633 220 940 Website: www.revivalstudies.org

* To check our archives for past messages or other articles please feel free to visit us at our main website:

http://www.revivalstudies.org/archive/

Is The Seed Still In The Barn

Glywn McInnes

Haggai2:10.
24-9-2004

Cruising through the book of Haggai this morning, came across the similar date mentioned in relation to the condition of a nation which could be paralleled to several nations of the Western style, in these days !
Am aware that the Hebrew calendars give different alignments to the calendars used by other cultures, but the similarity of dates,- and timing of my reading of this passage could point to the possible fitness of His 'word' in today's times, and conditions.

"IS THE SEED STILL IN THE BARN ?"

" As yet, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit; --- but from this day, My people, I am blessing you with the abilities to speak forth My Word as 'seed' to the hearts and minds of those who have caused the work of their hands to become unclean,- and even that which they offer to Me here, as their own sacrifice of praise, their 'tithes' and offerings, along with the manifold fruit of their supposed 'God-given' works;- yes, even these are unclean and bespoiled !
They have made it appear that good is evil; and evil is good,- and so they pontificate, and make pompous speeches along the lines of their own understandings of My Word !

My Word does not have writing 'between the lines', My people !

My Word does not leave room for compromise with the world's way of thinking and doing !

My Word is in fact the 'Seed' that should be sown amongst those who are desperately searching for the answers that it gives,- those who need My guidelines to show them the Way, the Truth, and the Life !

But there are those who, by their own private interpretation, scatter seeds that are not from My Spirit !
They draw many to themselves by offering an 'unclean - love' scenario, - because the people would have it so,- and these scenarios are based on the wisdom that does not come down from Heaven through My Spirit , but is earthy, sensual and demonic in the extreme !

While all this continues, My Word,- the true 'seed', languishes in the barns of those who are in dread of facing up to the world's debaters;- in dread of being called 'outspoken' by those who claim deeper insights to the 'real-world', -those who are not committed to My ways, but have twisted words to gain an effect !

So then, My people; I will shake heaven and earth; I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; I will overthrow the 'carts of evil' that the mistaken ones drag about, as they boast of their sin and say in their error,' We are in the Temple, we are in the Temple;- we can not be judged by you who do not understand us !'
For in truth, My people, I have already judged them, and even now I await their repentance, and I cry out to them through you and the 'seed' that you take from the barn. My ears are open to your words of intercession, but I may not hear if you continue to keep the seed in the barn !

Open the doors, and let King of Truth come into the field to sow the good seed !

Open the doors of the barns; so that the harvest can be bountiful !

Open the doors for the seed to emerge !

The Treasury of Hail
Glywn McInnes

"Zero" Conditions In Wellington, (New Zealand)

28/08/2004 12:32 PM
NewstalkZB

The Wellington region is reeling under yet another bitter southerly storm

High winds and rough seas have forced the cancellation of sailings by the fast ferry Lynx.
The Rimutaka Hill road has been closed off and on by snow - at the moment it is passable with caution - and the capital has been pounded by giant hail stones.

One the size of a golf ball broke a motorcyclist's helmet visor.

****

Have you entered the treasury of snow, or seen the treasury of hail,
Which I have reserved for the time of trouble,- for the day of battle and war?" Job 38 :22&23

" See the battle, My people !

See the site of the battle; - the 'high places' of power in your land !
Though you have protested and made your point regarding the incoming 'floods' of the enemy,- the battle is far from over !

Now, you will see the enemy's stand that is set against you !

Now, you will observe the 'cloud' of false witnesses that have been raised up to pull you down;- the enemy has asked to sift you as wheat;- to test your sincerity;- to fathom the depths of your commitment to Me !

Take on, - and brighten your weapons that I have given you !
Stand fast, under the pressure that is about to come upon you and yours !
The enemy's aim is to take no prisoners; he comes to kill, - scatter;- and destroy at all costs !
Be vigilant, be alert, stand your ground !
But, My people, do not despair, for I am with you !
Behold the hail and the snow;- signs that you are not alone in this battle !

Yes, your God will fight alongside you !
Yes, My arm is mighty to save !
Yes, you will overcome and pass the test !

But I need to hear your voice, My people ! I need to hear the voices of your men-of-war as they rise up and call to me !
Call to Me, and I will know that you are prepared to stand against the foe, with your God at your side !

The Lord of Hosts is My Name !
Is anything too difficult for Me ? "

It's Time
Sylvia Deall

2004 - It's Time!

I keep hearing "it's time!"

Time for the warriors to arise for the skirmishes of the past that have been as training are now becoming the prelude to the final battle. The enemy plays for keeps and he is not fooling around. The army of God must arise. Must take their stand. This is not a time for training. That has already taken place. The seasoned warriors are to lead the troops to war. The captain of the Lord of Hosts is at the ready. The trumpet soon will sound.

It's time. Time to fill the lamps with oil. Time to purify the heart. Time to be done with all lesser things. Time to be radically His. Time to be radically obedient. Time to be radically sensitive to His voice. Time to be done with milk and to feed on the meat. Time to put aside childhood and to walk in maturity. Time to look the enemy in the face and take aim. Time to no longer be the target but to target the enemy of our souls. redeem the time.

Make good use of that which is left. Apply the lessons of the past. Walk in His holiness. Walk in His victory. Walk in His strength. Walk in His grace. Walk in His glory. Walk in His power.

Stand ready. Stand prepared. He has prepared you. He has trained your hands for battle. He is calling His army together, setting you in place. Stand shoulder to shoulder with those He has placed you alongside. Stand as one! Rejoice in where He places you. Stand ready...stand firm. Stand in absolute submission to the Lord of lords.

Stand... your waist girded with truth, your heart covered by His righteousness, your feet planted on His gospel of peace, your faith though small as a grain of mustard seed strong to move mountains as your shield, your head covered by salvation, the word of God in your heart and on your lips.

Stand with His high praise sounding forth. Stand ready to march forth to war. To take the land. to see His glory poured out upon the earth.

It's time!

Sylvia Deall
Sylviajdeall@aol.com
Sydney, Australia

It Takes More Than Talent
John Paul Jackson

It takes people with godly character and habits to effectively advance the Kingdom of God. While there are many talented and anointed leaders, those who have a foundation of godly character (moral excellence) will lead more than by their words; they model by their lifestyle in ways that are truly transformational. It is who we are -- more than what we know -- that inspires genuine change in another person's life.

Each of us must decide to take the necessary steps to strengthen our own moral legacy. We must practice what we preach. We must realize that moral excellence can only be built through Bible study, quiet times with God, and a history of making "right choices" -- or what I like to call "hidden victories." Such hidden victories occur when you do the "right" thing -- pay your taxes, tithe, show kindness to your wife and children, bless someone who has hurt you -- even when no one sees you except God. A history of "hidden victories" will insure long-term success in the Kingdom.

4 Components of Godly Character

As I have studied Scripture and meditated on God's view of character, I have concluded that four components provide evidence of godly character: love, integrity, maturity, and an abundance mentality.

1. Love is essential to every ministry. The Apostle Paul wrote: "If I speak God's Word with power, revealing all His mysteries and making everything plain as day, and if I have faith that says to a mountain, 'Jump,' and it jumps, but I don't love, I'm nothing" (1 Corinthians 13:2, The Message). Throughout God's Kingdom, there have been generations of "gifted nothings" -- people who have done miraculous work but who never truly understood the need for intimacy with God.

2. Integrity is the act of being honest at all times. We must forge a foundation of trust with those whom we are mentoring, equipping, and leading. If we have integrity, our words will be remembered, because others will have seen that our actions match our words. Jesus had the highest level of integrity possible; His disciples knew that Jesus practiced what He preached.

3. Maturity involves sound reasoning and decision-making. When a person has walked through the trials and fires of life, spiritual maturity is developed. God says in Isaiah 48:10, "Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction." This furnace is at full flame when we are off the platform, living our lives away from the public eye. It takes the private testing of God to see a person's character solidify and mature.

4. Abundance mentality sees God as having so much talent and anointing to give that no individual could have it all. The mind-set of abundance is about demonstrating humility -- it's not about us, but about God and His Kingdom. Anything less will breed jealousy. We must have a heart that blesses the gifts others have, knowing that all gifts are given by God to help others and to advance God's Kingdom.

"Only Through Him Can We Help Others Reach Their God-Given Destiny"

God wants us to live today in such a way that will inspire others tomorrow. He has a vantage point of what will be, not just what is, or has been.

Many of us have been content to grasp at slivers of spiritual insights, but the Holy Spirit wants to give us fuller concepts of God and His ways.

We must develop an ever-growing godly character and walk in greater integrity and maturity so that we can understand God's plans and visions for others. The Lord, by helping us practice our private victories, can make our lives a lasting and public contribution to His eternal Kingdom. Only through Him can we help others reach their God-given destiny.

John Paul Jackson
www.streamsministries.com
posted from:
"THE ELIJAH LIST PUBLICATIONS"
elijahlist@qwest.net

It's Time To Take It Up A Notch!

Elizabeth Lyke

Feb 24, 2004

Lighthouse Prophecy Discussion
Dear List Members,

While I recovered ever so quickly from my surgery, I contracted the flu after returning home and stayed grounded for another week, but to the glory of God. As I lay quietly for almost two weeks, I heard the gentle voice of the Spirit say much of what is written in this correspondence from Elizabeth. It is well worth reading...Clay.

Content: Dear Clay,

I have been edified and strengthened by your writings on subjects I am deeply concerned about. I have to tell you, though, your time framing is not right as to when God began leading saints out of the organized churches. Ten years is far too recent. I left organized Christianity 27 years ago, along with others who caught a vision for the restoration of the Body of Christ.

Ever hear of Charles P. Schmitt (wife, Dotty)? My foundation was built on the likes of him and others in the 70s who saw it all then. We didn't get seduced by the WOF & Prosperity heresy or the shepherding movement because the vision of restoration opens one's eyes to such a degree as to not be fooled by such deceitfulness. It is good to see others like you who have this vision and are having an impact on those just now having their eyes opened to the harlotry of organized Christianity. It is this very harlot that will be our greatest enemy in the years ahead, not so much overtly like some are expecting, but in terms of discrediting us to those saints who feel a tug toward us, but will ask for the advise of their "pastor", and thus there will grow a movement of the enemy within organizations that will consist of sermons and books and conferences of "warning" against those who have come out.

They will say we comprise a new cult. And the worst will be that some who do come out will indeed become cult like in their ways, making us look even more dangerous. Tender souls will not know which way to turn. The lines will be too obscured. It is imperative we warn our brothers and sisters now, that all who will, will come out. It is the time of the angel putting in the sickle and separating sheep from goats. This generation of the millennium is THE generation that will usher in the second coming of Jesus, that true shepherd, to whom be glory forever. We older saints, who are already equipped, have been groomed for their sake. We are to teach and build this generation of "strong young men" and women, to pass the torch as Rick Joyner would say. May the Lord Jesus bless all your efforts in gaining souls for this glorious cause.

Contact Information :
elizabeth lyke
lykefamily@myexcel.com
615-731-3131

Responses Take It Up A Notch Various
Feb 25, 2004
Dear List Members,

Elizabeth's posting has garnered various responses, some of which sadly, I have been asked not to publish. The ones who have allowed me to publish their remarks offer insight into the seemingly endless questions relating to "the system" - stay or leave, laity clergy divide, submissiveness to church authority, one fold versus five fold, Word of Faith versus Surrender teaching, In church/out of church, organized church versus cell groups, etc., etc.,

It seems everybody has an opinion and seemingly valid points, yet I offer little of hard fast substance to the myriad of questions that surround this worldwide phenomenon, except this one: ANYONE WHO THINKS THEY CAN SUBMIT TO "THE SYSTEM" AND NOT BECOME A STRONG CANDIDATE FOR DECEPTION IS ALREADY DECEIVED. "Even the very elect (of God) will be deceived, were it possible." The warnings are being shouted from the housetops, and as is obvious from some of these postings, these warnings didn't just start recently!

The World's System is corrupt, and the World's System operates most of the world's organizations, governments, businesses, and the lives of people, and yes, to those who think it isn't so; the world's system has found a home in many, IF NOT MOST churches. While I agree that this same system can find its way into home groups just as with the institutional church, it is my simple observation that "the system" has seen considerably more influence in the church than in situations (home groups, cell groups) that allow the full five fold ministry to operate. No, we are not to turn our backs on those caught inside this system, to the contrary: As Carole so eloquently points out in her response here, we are to be a bridge of truth that guides people to Jesus, whereever He may be.

Again, please remember, it is not the people we stand against here - it is the corrupt system that imprisons them, keeping them from their destiny and purpose in God.

The continuing debate and discussion surrounding this topic is beginning to birth settling truth. Let us all embrace the truth when we see it, and let us all, with all humility, seek deeper understanding as to Father's love and direction...Clay.

Clay,

I find myself weeping after reading this post. I realize a work that God has been doing in my heart for years ... and I didn't even realize it. Even when I was a young child (probably early teens) and properly indoctrinated into the "correct" Southern Baptist ways, I questioned the need for denominations. Much to my religious parents dismay, I questioned making people a disciple of a particular "church" rather than allowing them to be a disciple of Jesus and follow His leading. I understand now that Father didn't want me to follow after a denomination, but after Him. I really thought I was stepping into something "of the Spirit" when I left the traditional denominations and joined the charasmatic church; however, I soon realized they were more steeped in religion that traditional churches.

I've had a couple of very significant dreams concerning the "church." Again, the Lord was speaking the same thing to me ... just through a different means. He is showing each of us a facet of His heart ... and the needs among His people ... and is giving us different strategies for ministering to those needs. Religious strongholds make people believe they must be submissive, must remain loyal or have a responsibility to the church. Some, sadly to say, believe there's no alternative and that they are powerless to do anything. God allows dk and I to share the truth with people in traditional churches. I feel that it is imperative that we tend the bridges with the relationships he has blessed us with. When we have a bridge solidly constructed of truth and trust, they will cross that bridge and seek counsel from us ... and not a system. Then we can point them to Him! Blessings, Carole

----

Dear Clay,
Praise the Lord for your swift recovery. I just wanted to add to what Elizabeth said, that I have some on my mailing list who were called out ever further back than 27 years. This is not a new thing, just more of His 'acceleration' in all that He is doing.

Blessings,

Olivia Long

faithbuildersministries@the-i.net

Is it possible that those in the Shepherding movement, prosperity movement, and others, were all searching for Christ?

Is it possible that some of those who have pursued anything less than the Truth awakened to their error?

Is it possible that some are called to remain in the church, while others are called to leave the church?

Is it possible that the angels will do the sifting on their time, not our time?

If so, then there is hope for the church! If not, we are breeding modern day Pharisees from any camp.

David C. MacDonald, D.O.
President, Liberty Health Group
----

the problem with this is that home churches and cell groups can be just as corrupt as an organized group of people who meet in a building that happens to be bigger than a living room. just because someone meets in a large facility does not a corrupt group make. i find alot of people do not like larger group meetings and like home churches because it allows for less or no accountability in the body. but from what i can see in scripture, we are supposed to all be accountable to each other, and sometimes people split off from a church not because they want to find the truth, but because they are running from it, and are rebelling against it.

of course, this may not be the case with all home groups. regardless of where i meet, it doesn't make me corrupt- what makes me corrupt is walking in error before God, whether i am in a home cell group or in a church house building. from what i see in the word, you can never get away from a certain amount of organization, not even in a cell group. if an older person is teaching or mentoring me, they are in a sense, over me, and i don't think they would want someone to come in and take over the group as a new christian. that's still a structure, and it's still an organized church, just a lot smaller in size, and not within the walls of a large facility. they are still teaching doctrines, which may or may not be truth at all, and to say that home churches are the answer is just ignorant. i have seen and heard as much corruption and deception and lies being taught in "unorganized" churches as i have in "structured chuches".

JL

Dear Clay,
Take it up a notch couldnt be more true. Im seeing it first hand and it is shocking..(just when I thought I couldnt be more shocked by WOF) people are openly being "marked" for having a difference of opinion and told to stay away from any who come against the teaching of the pastor.

The authority teaching is ringing a "Hitler" sound in my ear. I recently heard of a church who's pastor said that unless you are hooked into a church, the blood of Jesus avails you nothing. The person who told me is a pretty straight shooter but its so crazy one has a hard time believing these things are being spoken! I believe God is angry. I know I am. Very very dangerous and hurtful to those who buy into it. What else can we pray but the very words of our crucified Lord... "not my will, but yours be done"

David P.

Feb 27, 2004
Dear List Members,

These discussions are fruitful and reveal the various levels of understanding and individual growth that we all are walking in. Several comments from the postings here infer that all this talk about "the system" is unimportant, and that we should talk about solutions rather than the problem. We have been very direct with what has been written on this discussion list repeatedly, and on our www.lighthouseprophecy.com website. The greatest single problem confronting the Church today is "the system" that it is submitted to. The solution has always been offered in simple terms, "Come out of her!"

I live in the world, but I am not of it! I can be around the "world's system" but not of it! I once profited wildly from the World's System. It served me well and I served it, but later I was saved and filled with God's Spirit. Something changed. What worked before would no longer work! I was powerless UNTIL I changed systems. The same will prove so for the Church.

Yet, even with the Holy Ghost in me, it has taken years to even be able to discern the World's System when I see it. From now being able to discern it, I now know enough to get away from participating in its ways. God has mercifully allowed me to see first hand the effects of the world's system - Every time I touch it I am turned upside down (Notice I write this in the present tense - I have still much to learn).

Years and years of painful experiences began to cause me to drift toward "the Kingdom's Way" of doing things. The battle that raged in me constantly was the World's System and its ways (my life long indoctrination), versus the Kingdom of God and the ways of the Kingdom (a new way of doing things).

Though much of what I have learned is in business, the Spirit is the same - church house out house, my house your house; it operates where it is welcomed. I now am more successful at walking in the Kingdom and following Kingdom ways. Perhaps we should, in the near future, open discussions that would contrast The World's System and The Kingdom's Way.

Those who naively think the "World's System" is not in what we call "church," will one day have a wakeup call! To those who think that they can stay in this perverted system and fulfill God's plan, again I predict a future wake up call.

Again, I think you will enjoy the comments...Clay

Dear Clay & friends
I love your (Clay's) teachings as I find them honest and direct. It is time for us to not beat around the bush anymore, but drive out what religion (that same spirit that persecuted & crucified Christ in the name of God)!

God is revealing to me presently more about the deceitfulness of some of the so called teachings we have received and examples we have followed. The deception is huge. We have "organisationalised" our love for God and it now is very cold in many churches....... I love God's church (the people) and I do not wish to slander any ministry or movement. I'm in the charismatic movement myself! But let me tell you that so-called principles are taught to death and our relationship with Christ, Him crucified and our death to let Him live through us are hardly or never mentioned.

It is time for everyone that calls themselves a Christian to return to their first love: Jesus Christ! Not loyalty to a ministry (fellowshipping there is OK) or a man or woman, but faithfulness to Him and the work of the cross in us! God looks on the heart! Then why on earth are we taught about systems and rules only? Our heart condition is vital. Prosperity and benefits is the teaching of our day. God doesn't want to benefit you. He wants to kill you for your benefit!!! And when you have died, He can trust you with the benefits; not before! And when you arrive here, the benefits no longer matter!

We need to snap out of our church membership pride and snap into Him where we can truly say: I love

Him with all my heart, soul and strength. I love my neighbor like myself, and I have died so that I can live for Him. Relationship with Him is everything and should be the foundation of all other relationships and expectations. We need to snap out of our right to rewards and let Him be our reward!! Be a dead man walking. Not a flesh wanting to manipulate God through His principles to do your will. It won't work. This works: Not my will, but Yours. And then you die on that cross! Gal 2:20 Don't only call on the pastor on a Sunday morning. Here is God's phone number: Jer 33:3 and He answers every time! He is calling us to seek Him with all our hearts. Jer 29:11- Go there and be blessed! The road is narrow and those that go on it few.

Lastly, God wants a personal relationship and dwell in the individual called His church. What is it with this idol called an organisation we so worship?! God help us!

O and, Daniel's friends were thrown in the fire refusing to bow to the idol, but they were delivered and promoted. So expect persecution to bow. Expect persecution for refusing. Know that God delivers those faithful to Him alone. Those are His Kings and Priests that rule with servant hearts.

Get your eyes of man! It brings a curse. Life for and unto Jesus and live! No idols please! God bless you!

Gerdi Marais

Sadly I think you are all getting too wound up in these issues. If each believer simply kept their eyes firmly on Jesus and focussed on Him These problems would all disappear. We should be teaching the church (whoever they maybe) to die to oneself and submit themselves to the spirit of the living God. To have Patience with all men and to grow the gifts of the spirit in their walk with the Lord and develop the fruit of the spirit as their character in Christ.

Rob

Clay,
I was a little discouraged to see my brothers and sisters focus so much on the system, I believe that we spend too much time focusing on the problem instead of the remedy. I think it is important to understand our role in being called out of the conventional church; I believe God has called us to be the restorers of the breach. I don’t think it is a secret that the conventional church has gotten out of the will of God. But God has called a faithful few to restore the church back to him, if we continue to focus on what they are not doing or who has been called out for the longest we are no better than they are and God will have to raise another nation to save us.

God is just looking for some people that will render service to him. We are nothing more than vessels; I like to think of it as two cups sitting on a table, one cup can’t talk to the other cup and say I don’t like the way you serve, they just sit on the table waiting patiently to be used by the master.

Clay,
To be honest I don't consider myself qualified enough to speak on this subject. However, as I was reading the Holy Spirit kept saying "you all must follow me for I am the Spirit of Truth". What has the Spirit of Truth spoken to you? These are critical times for the "Body of Christ" because everybody is looking for validation. Everybody wants to know if what they believe or percieve is right. We are sometimes more concerned about being in the right "system" than following the leading of the Holy Spirit. I think sometimes we don't believe that the Holy Spirit is here to lead and guide us into all TRUTH.

I am going to be honest and expose my situation.

I desire to come out, but my motive and heart reasoning is not quiet Christ centered at this moment. I have allowed self to become aggravated with people (how prideful of me). However, the Holy Spirit wants to place love where my aggravation is. God is teaching me how to ground myself in love for His people. I dont know if you have ever seen someone who has come out of the "system" and had no love for the people of God and all they had was negative things to say, (well that was me).

So now I am allowing God to bridge His heart with my heart that I may bridge my heart with His people. Then and only then will I know how to pray according to the Fathers will for His Chruch. He is teaching me how to discern the strongholds not the people within the system. Until then I am getting understanding of truth from ministries like the one God has birth through you and others. But most of all I have a divine connection with my Father and I just choose to believe that when I am in error or need strength or need the truth reveal to me, he will be right there.

May God bless us all as we desire to draw closer to Him and become as His Son was in the earth.

We must take up our cross (which crucifies not just the flesh but our motives) and follow the Holy Spirit, more than we follow man and even our own thoughts.

TGM, Pray much for me

Dear Clay,
Glad to hear that you are in full recovery mode!

The majority of those still remaining in the system are fully aware that vast numbers of believers are increasingly departing from our many religious systems. The numbers of 'out-of-church' believers are growing at an amazing rate of acceleration. This must be a real encouragement to those who have been outside for years.

The leaders in the system are increasingly acknowledging that this 'coming out' is a move of the Holy Spirit. But...because many have not yet gained the revelation that the religious ways we have built upon for centuries is false, they are expecting these 'called-out ones' to eventually return to the system. It won't be happening. Oh yes, there are always some who will return to their own vomit, but the majority who have responded to the Lord's call to 'come out' will never again be deceived by equating intimacy with Him with sitting in a building once or twice a week. The very thought of returning to such lifeless, empty religious practices horrifies them.

Many who are teaching that these 'called-out' ones will eventually return to the system, are using the exodus from Egypt, and the entering of the promised land for Scriptural proof. They are using these biblical accounts inaccurately, and this kind of teaching has become a stumbling block to many who have been led into the valley of decision by the Spirit of God.

These ones teach that eventually all called-out ones will be faced with leaving their wilderness place and entering the promised land. This is true. The Spirit does have a destiny laid out for all those who will trust Him to lead and guide them every step of the way. But, according to Scripture, His promised land was not the place of bondage that He brought them out of, but a place they had never been before. Teachers err when they attempt to equate 'entering the promised land' with a 'returning to the system'.

The Hebrews were delivered from their place of bondage, Egypt. They never returned to Egypt, to the place He brought them out of. In fact, whenever the Hebrews longed for the comforts of Egypt, and talked about going back, the Lord God got very angry with them.

It is true that only a few entered the promised land, and that the majority died in the wilderness. But, NONE of them ever returned to the Egypt He brought them out of. Neither will the vast majority of 'called-out' ones return to the places of bondage He has called us out of today. If you were to ask these called-out ones whether or not they would rather die in the wilderness or return to Egypt (their place of bondage), they would choose death in the wilderness any day! These ones will no longer partake of what the Lord has revealed to be an abomination to Him. To do so, would be complete and utter disobedience to the indwelling Spirit of God.

There is no longer any loyalty towards Egypt left in the hearts of those He has delivered from its bondage. Their only desire is to follow their Commander wherever He wants to lead them. They will embrace everyone who crosses His bridge of deliverance and joins them on their journey to His true promised land, but they will never dishonor His Word or His Spirit by longing for, or returning to, the lies and the bondage that He has set them free from.

Blessings to all,
Lorraine Costain

Re: Taking it up a Notch
One list member said...

"Is it possible that some are called to remain in the church, while others are called to leave the church? "

I'm not sure it is possible to "leave" the church? You are either a part of it or not. The church is simply built on revelation knowedge of truth (Christ). (As Jesus pointed out to Peter when the Father gave him a revelation knowledge that Jesus was the Christ the Son of the living God.)

So with that said, I believe the issue at hand is simply one of revelation knowledge of truth. Can a person who has received a great revelation knowledge of truth (Christ) have true fellowship with those who have a lesser revelation. As Paul proclaimed...what fellowship has light with darkness.

I've tried it, and unless the lesser truth is willing to humble themselves and embrace the greater truth they will reject it and cast you out as rebellious and divisive. Pride will always demand submission to the level of truth that it has. This is why Catholicism rejects Protestantism, and why Protestantism will reject much of what is coming forth as truth in this hour. There are also underlying subconscious issues of power and control veiled behind the pretense of protecting the flock.

It is the same with our relationship with Christ. To the degree that we walk in truth, is to the same degree that we have true fellowship with Him. The less truth we have, the less true fellowship (union) we can experience with Him. This is why God seeks those who will worship Him in spirit and truth. To the degree that we walk in the truth is to the same degree that we can truly worship Him.

Now, the greater truth always requires an understanding of the lesser truth. In other words, while I can't always come into agreement with those walking in lesser truth, I can certainly love them as Christ does and understand the truth that our Father alone possesses the power of illuminating our understanding or leaving us in places of spiritual darkness.

The ironic thing is, the Lord uses those walking in lesser truth to birth forth a people who will walk in greater truth. When you see it for what it is, it actually gives you a heart of gratitude for those whom the Lord is choosing to leave in a place of darkened understanding to serve as a stepping stone for bringing others forward into a greater revelation knowledge of the truth. With this understanding, the Father then gives us authority to effectively intercede for those still in darkness, which is the very heart of Christ.

Anyhow, this is my current level of understanding. And as always, that is subject to change based on a further revelation of the truth.

Mike

After reading the responses I'm reminded of a saying "You can't drive a ten-ton truck of truth over a 1/2 inch bridge of love". I think many of us have been waiting with our "trucks of truth" but haven't developed that bridge of love that can carry the weight.

May God give us wisdom and grace to deliver His truth.

Brenda King

Dear Clay,
I would like to add to what Elizabeth and Olivia have said about the time frame for those who left the denominational system with the revelation of the Oneness of the Body of Christ, Revealing of the Sons of God, and Restoration. For us, it was 58 years ago. I believe there has been, in every generation, a "coming out" of the established systems. At the time, we felt pretty much alone and ostracized by the religious community. So we are happy, as we approach the end of the age, to see many others now receiving the vision.

It is so human to, over time, develop certain customs and become somewhat self-centered. But by the Grace of God, He has enabled us to continue to walk in Love concerning all true members of the Body of Christ, regardless of who or where they are, and to continue to remain open to whatever Truth He chooses to guide us into. We have confidence that Christ is building His Church, perfecting the work He has begun in each member, purging and purifying His Sons, and preparing for His Kingdom in the earth.

Three statements of the Apostle Paul have stood out for me (considering all that circumcision and uncircumcision symbolizes in our day):-

"For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a NEW CREATION." (Gal. 6:15) "For in Christ neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but FAITH WORKING THRU LOVE." (Gal. 5:6) "Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but THE KEEPING OF THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD," (1 Cor. 7:19) which are, in a word, LOVE FOR GOD, and LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER.

"A new commandment I give unto you, That you love one another; AS I have loved you, that YOU ALSO love one another. By THIS shall all know that you are my disciples, if you have LOVE ONE TO ANOTHER." (John 13:34,35)

We are also becoming more and more aware that that LOVE of which He speaks is AGAPE - Unconditional and Sacrificial!

E. Moores
----

dear brothers and sisters

the world system is corrupt, to know that is to understand that satan is the god of this world; he works through most if not all church buildings for we are the true church, a church without wood and steel but of flesh and bones and spirit and what is sifting of angels mean?

angels don't sift anything but are the messengers of god they do his bidding and also remember that the church is us not a building. a local church is a building to go to and be with other Christians but remember that you can be anywhere at any time to worship and have fellowship with god.

churches today almost claim that in there building is where you find god and worship god and be close to god. we need to warn those who think they can be in a false church or listen to a false teacher, and be in gods will. false churches are everywhere and so are false teachers, satans messengers come as a messenger of light. they use half truths just as there father the devil does.

I've been asked many times that can you be a catholic or a Muslim or a Buddhist or etc.. and be a Christian? my answer is no !!!

you can not serve 2 masters, you cant serve Rome and Christ; yes Catholics and others can turn from there false church and return to Christ but until they "get out from among them" they will be serving satan not Christ!

we must love the people, but hate the sin we are in the last days and the groom will be returning for his bride very soon.

stand firm in him and he will stand firm in you!!

in Christ
jeff o

---

in response to the article "Take It Up A Notch", some people wrote that in home or cell groups there must still be a chain of command or authority. I disagree with that because Jesus says "If two or more are gathered in His name He shall be in the mist" So if it is Just my husband, me and the Holy Spirit then Jesus is the authority and the Holy Spirit teaches all things........... yours in Christ...........Donna s.

Wow. I don't know what to say except Thank God.

I've been 'out of church' for about 5 years now. You'd think I committed the worst kind of sin to hear others tell it. And tell it they do. I left my husband b/c he was in a cult. I considered it dangerous. Then we divorced. That really made church folks unhappy. Where is the body of Christ? I'm beginning to find it. For real. Thanks for letting it fly in the face of what I'm sure must be a lot of opposition. Tina

---

Dear Clay,
Praise Yahshua for your quick recovery, and for your 'enforced' time down, which encouraged you to seek Him deeply! (Sometimes we need that extra time down.)

Although I am very new at the discussion you are having here...people being led out from the 'harlot church', I would like to add 'my two cents ' worth by telling a little of my story. If it is applicable in any way, you may share it.

I have only been a Christian for 5 years, after being raised from birth in the cult of Christian Science. My family is related to Brigham Young as well, so first we started 'the fall' in Mormonism, then jumped to C.S. This cultic involvement has been going on since the 1850's in my family. That said, I was the only one in my nuclear family to leave CS and receive Jesus as Lord.

As an individual just 'coming out' from heavy lifelong cult training, I was totally thrilled about the Christian church! I couldn't wait to tell my testimony, and sing and dance with others about the Lord! After all, it was a miracle that I had been rescued and saved by Him! I was eager to learn and read the Word of God in a way I had never done, and to be taught. This is an important point: I was totally ready to be teachable.

I began my search for churches in a tiny Charismatic church: I quickly fell in love with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and was continually amazed by them in operation. To this day, to me, this is one of the great riches of Elohim...the correct operation of the gifts of Ruach ha Kodesh.

But my trouble with the 'church' began when I began to feel manipulated by a particular pastor (by this time I had bounced around to several churches, learning valuable lessons, and also seeing humanity at its best, and worst, in each different place). He and his wife were 'start-up' pastors of a church that has had a lot of turnover of pastors, and very little success.

When I came to this start-up church, I was still searching, and was a very young, but eager Christian. I had always been willing to give liberally of my time and effort at each church I had 'joined' or participated in, and was a 'people ' person. This new pastor had a 'certain, specific vision' for his church, and I quickly learned that either I 'fit in' to this vision, or not be on the pastors 'trusted' list.

Consequently, I worked my fingers to the bone, doing everything and anything that this man and his wife wanted, and feeling as though I was dying a slow death spiritually.

The Lord has clearly, without a shadow of a doubt, told me that my call in the Body is to be an intercessor/prayer warrior, and all during the time that I was teaching Sunday School, or serving the senior luncheon, or ushering, or tending to 'Youth Night' or leading the Children's Church in the Christmas song performance, I was crying out to be used in THAT capacity! I was clear with this pastor that this was what God told me my job was, and that I really desired to be doing that, rather than all these other things. But the response was guilt-inducing "Be obedient to God's move here", "All I hear from you is "I want to do this, or I want to do that", "Either you are for us, or against us." He would say these things 'kindly', but the message was loud and clear; stay working with your head down, and we'll reward you soon enough.

I felt continually as though I had to do just 'one more task' to prove myself, and THEN maybe I could do what my heart needed to: Just pray and intercede for this church...just to be still and really hear what directions the Holy Spirit was giving this particular body, also how to engage in correct spiritual warfare for this church: it had some heavy duty spiritual strongholds over it like a Jezebel spirit, doubt and unbelief, and a spiritual deadness, that truly needed to be confronted by a wise and sincere group of prayer warriors in order to be uprooted. I wanted to be one of those people!

But, task after task kept rolling in, and my insecurity and pride kept me saying 'yes'. (I realize that I should have said 'NO' earlier, but I felt that I was being tested to fully qualify for what my heart desired..) So I kept on working until I couldn't do it any longer. I went to the pastor and his wife and told them I was taking time off to pray and think about the direction that Jesus wanted me to go in. This is when literally everything blew in all directions. They were not pleased to hear this, and began the heavy duty guilt. When that didn't work (but I felt horrible about these tactics anyway), they basically shunned me. Wouldn't talk to me, or look at me, at church, or even in small group prayer meetings (that was really uncomfortable!) And this only because after a full year's worth of work, I needed some time off.

Well, things got so uncomfortable for me that I felt I couldn't bear to stay any longer. After a lot of soul searching and prayer, I went to the pastors and told them of my decision. They did send me out with a blessing, and through the help of the Lord alone, we did make some small degree of peace.

Although this happened over 2 years ago, I am still healing from this experience. I am still needing to forgive and ask for full blessing over this church. Yashua is helping me to do just this. Thank You Lord!

At first glance, this story might not seem to have much in common with what you all have been discussing, but I believe the points are the same: If I had been allowed to be 'used' as a vessel in the capacity that God desired, I believe much of the pain I felt could have been avoided. If the pastor hadn't felt so compelled to have his church run his particular way, he might have been more open to the full flow and use of the 5 fold ministry. Instead he became all-powerful, and created a 'bottleneck" where the 5 fold ministry and operation of the Gifts were squelched. The heavy controlling Jezebel spirit over this church DID NOT want the gifts to be in operation, or the 'power-equalizing' of the 5 fold to take place. I believe that, plus a spirit of pride in myself (unfortunately), was what I was up against.

Yahweh has powerfully used this painful experience in my life. I have become more humble in my spirit, and more quickly aware of the spirit of pride when it attempts to dominate me or others. Unfortunately, perhaps, I have become much less trusting of pastors! I was very trusting and naive before, and just assumed that the pastor was going to know and understand my heart, and not let me get hurt. Well, in this situation, he was the one who seemed like he was trying ' to break my spirit'. That is what this experience actually felt like: like my spirit was being destroyed within me. It was a horrible, frightening, drowning feeling!

I feel that the harlot churches need for posterity, popularity, programs, MONEY, and personal exaltation of pastors has truly 'killed' many a valuable spirit among us. Not that our Loving and Awesome Lord can't restore these walking dead; He CAN! But that souls are dying in the church today, BY THE HAND OF THE CHURCH...when God's command is the shelter, nurture and protect these sheep? To me this is criminal...and it is all because the church, in it's organization, has sold itself out to the world, and is not following the simplicity, beauty, and sheer power of Yahshua's commands.

Thank you, Clay, for your ministry. I am a beginner, but Yahshua is guiding and directing me into His presence in His way. I know I will 'grow' quickly, and be used for much good in His kingdom.

Your Sister In Christ,
Lauren

It Will Be A Place Of Rejoicing

Judy Curmi

10-29-2004

It will be a place of rejoicing. Where rocks and briars once grew, now new Life will spring forth, abundant Life, overflowing Life, flowing with my power and my authority.*

The voices that distracted you will cease, for you will surely shout them down. The torture of your soul will cease for you will be encompassed in a veritable ocean of my mighty Love.

No longer will the former things serve as a bondage for you, for I will break every bond and snap every yoke that has crushed you under its weight. Watch and see what I will do, for I am not a small, little picayune god. I am full of might and power, mighty in battle and mighty in Love.

No longer will the enemy hold you down or keep from fruition the Plans that I have for you. Watch and see what I will do for you, sons and daughters of the Most High God, for my name is above every name and every knee, without exception, must bow to me.

My Plans are going forward. My Plans will be fulfilled. That which I have purposed will be delayed no longer, for I AM has spoken it forth. Do not be dismayed by what you see in the natural world, but know that my hand is at work. Every startling event, every “disaster” will be for a greater good, that which I have purposed and desired.

You are not to get caught up in the acrimony and the bedlam. You are not to let your heart fail you. Instead you are to rest in ME, fully assured that I will bring things to a most satisfactory conclusion in my perfect timing.

You will walk in my might and my power. You will walk in my mighty Love, as multitudes are set free from the bondage of sin and death.

I AM OPENING THE DOOR NOW. Walk through it into your destiny, fully assured that the Great I AM walks with you every step of the way. Watch and see what I will do. Watch and be astounded. Rejoice with an exceedingly great joy for your deliverance is at hand!
Love, Your Abba

Isa. 35 The parched wilderness shall be glad, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus. It shall rejoice like a mountain goat; the glory and honor of Lebanon shall be given to it. The excellency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord and the excellency of our God, an admonition and comfort for the weak, for a Savior is coming to save them*

Strengthen the weak hands and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, Be strong; fear not; behold, your God the avenger is coming, even God the Savior is coming to save you.

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart and the tongue of the dumb shall be loosed; for the waters are bursting forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. And the desolate land shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water; in the habitation of dragons shall grown grass with reeds and rushes.

And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; and there shall be no road beside it; fools shall not err therein.

No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it; they shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk therein; And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Picayune: Of little value or importance; paltry*

Acrimony: Bitterness or ill-natured animosity, especially in speech or manner; rancorous

I Will Be A Wall Of Protection To My People
Stephen Hanson

June, 5, 2004

> ISA 35:6 Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy. Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.
> ISA 43:19 See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland.
> ISA 43:20 The wild animals honor me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the desert and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen,
> ISA 32:2 Each man will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land.

"There will be streams in the desert; you will find streams there. Out of the dry land will come streams that will give you water. Out of the dry land will come forth my spirit. My spirit will feed and nourish my people. But I tell you, a time is coming when the desert will become a safe haven. For the world will be at war. Those that find rest will run to the desert. It will be a source of protection from the enemy. I will be their source, and I will be their protection, says the Lord. My people will be brought to safety in times of need. In all my holy mountain, I will look down upon my people. In the near future, you will understand the impact of this more. I will be a wall of protection to my people. "

Stephen Hanson

The Battle That Rises From The East
Stephen Hanson

(This message below concerns a coming siege for our land. Understand that while these passages below deal with a future war that is to break-out and culminate with the land of Israel, I believe these verses also can apply to our land as well. There are difficult days ahead for us, but God will be a place of refuge for those who put their trust in Him. Let us not be swayed by soothing and pleasing words that pretend to speak of other things that are come. Rather, let us judge these things and find ourselves prepared and ready.)

June 2, 2004

EZE 38:1 The word of the LORD came to me: [2] "Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; prophesy against him [3] and say: `This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. [4] I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army--your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords. [5] Persia, Cush and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets, [6] also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops--the many nations with you.

" `Get ready; be prepared, you and all the hordes gathered about you, and take command of them. [8] After many days you will be called to arms. In future years you will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety. [9] You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

[20] They were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses' bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia. Rev. 14. 20

"I tell you that a coming storm is coming. On the swift wings of the wind it will come. But I tell you that I have provide places of refuge for my people. A devastation is coming that will spread across the land. I tell you that your land will be trampled upon by foreigners. For the walls of protection will not prevent these things from coming. But as I have said, I will be a refuge for my people. These times will come to fruition suddenly. You who prophesy great things for America and this land, are wrong. You who prophesy great wealth that is to come, are wrong. Surely, I am a God of the future and I care for everyone of you, but my book must be laid open."

"Great hordes and armies are coming. They come from the east and they make plans for war. An ancient land they come from. I tell you that China will join forces with Russia. When your gaze is upon other things then it will suddenly come into action. I tell you that these things are spoken of in my word. They are clearly outlined in the book of Ezkiel. I always leave a resource for my people to prepare for."

(The Lord showed me horses with riders upon them. My gaze was upon the horses' heads because a liquid began to fill-up in the midst around these horses and riders. They were in the midst of a great battle of some kind. I began to realize that it was blood that was rising to the nostrils and heads of the horses, because the battle had become very fierce.)

Stephen Hanson

1323 Shasta Dr. Colorado Spgs. CO. 80910

To help support this ministry, go to the link below or simply use the mailing address below. If some can support monthly, it is greatly appreciated. Thank you.
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth/PayPalform.html

It Will Be Worth It!

Victoria Boyson

To those who overcome in the midst of adversity will He give increased authority (Rev. 2:26). You have indeed been tried by the fires of hell, yet you have remained steadfast.

As you thrust yourself into the bosom of your Father, you walk away having learned the secrets of His heart. You are no longer as easily beguiled or overwrought by the enemy, but you see now with the eyes of heaven. You are made sober in spirit, yet gentle as a dove.

God Never Said It Would Be Easy! Have you been attacked by the enemy? Have you been hit so hard that you've wanted to die? Has someone torn your heart out and trampled on it? Have you been betrayed, lied about or robbed? God never said this life would be easy, He only said that a life lived for Him would be worth the battle!

Every battle worth fighting is difficult. It was not easy for Jesus to die for the sins of the world. It was not easy for the early Christians to die for their faith, or for the pilgrims to come to America to find religious freedom. What they faced was not easy for them, but it was worth it! And we thank God for them.

The people knew that they were not fighting their battles for themselves alone, but for those their lives would affect. The forefathers of the United States had a dream of a great nation, and they fought and died for their dream.

God had a dream of making us a part of His family: Jesus died to bring that dream to life. It was extremely difficult, but we were worth it to Him.

Never Give Up!

It is always easier to give up; to leave your ministry, church or family, but it is often the easy road that leads to destruction. The seemingly shortest or easiest path is usually a mistake. Hold your ground, stay on course and you will have a great victory...if you do not give up.

At times, when I have gone to the Lord with my pains or complaints, He will speak this short simple phrase to me, "Did you think it would be easy?" The Lord has given us a great destiny to fulfill, but He never promised that it would be easy.

In fact, He told us it would be difficult. He said, "In this world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33).

Sometimes in the midst of the trial we are facing we get discouraged and disheartened. It is easy to think we have had more than our share of attacks. But in those times we need to be reminded that God knows of our difficulties and He is not panicked.

He knew it wouldn't be easy for us, but He knew that if we did not give up, we would win. And the victory that we would enjoy would be well worth the fight.

There will always be someone who thinks they could do your job better than you. They feel as though they are more anointed than you and it seems there is no end to their criticisms. Of course the enemy tries his very best to convince you that they are right in their opinions, but they are NOT!

You must hold your ground! If you give up your position in the body of Christ the place you've held is then left unprotected and others will suffer.

God has you where you are for a reason, someone has to hold that position. You do not know how many lives that you are affecting just by being where you are. What you are doing is important. It is important for your own personal well-being as a child of God, and to others.

Your battle is not for you alone, but for the kingdom of heaven. Your fight of faith is for the Lover of your soul, and that others may know of Him and love Him too.

Elijah's Despair

After the prophet Elijah had the prophets of Baal killed with a sword (1Kings 18:40), King Ahab told his wife Jezebel what Elijah had done. "Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, 'So may the gods do to me and even more, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time'" (1 Kings 19:2).

After hearing her threat, Elijah was afraid and ran for his life into the wilderness. He was filled with hopelessness and despair (1 Kings 19:10). After one of the greatest victories of his life, he felt like a failure. He felt overwhelmed by the evil of his day and hopeless to overcome it.

The enemy can at times come in like a flood and tear apart our faith, leaving us discouraged and feeling hopeless to fight it. We may lose sight of our vision because of the pain we feel, just as Elijah lost sight of all that God had done through him (1 Kings 19:4). He lost his focus and was not able to see the true picture of what God was doing through him and he felt like a failure.

Elijah lived his life in obedience to God, doing great things for Him. Yet he wanted to die because of the despair he felt. Maybe Elijah did not do all that he wanted to do for God, but he did do what God wanted him to do. He needed to be reminded of the truth of his situation to shake off the hopelessness he felt. And so do we.

I have felt much like Elijah. I have experienced the sting of the enemy and felt the hopelessness he can bring. But somehow, with God by my side, I made it through that time. Step by carefully placed step I walked together with God out of Satan's death trap. I found myself being carried by God through my fiery trial, and what I thought would be the end of me was really only the beginning of more of Him.

When you feel like you will go crazy, but don't; when you know that Satan wanted you dead, but you're not; when you want to give up, but continue on...that is when you begin to know God as He truly is. You know He is holding you, and carrying you through.

When I read in 1 Kings 19:4-7 of how the angel of the Lord brought Elijah bread and water from heaven while he rested under the juniper tree, I see the power of our loving Father to restore us. After the touch of the Lord, Elijah was sustained for the next forty days as he journeyed to the mountain of the Lord (v.10), where he met with God.

Elijah continued to remind God of his trouble, but God responded by telling him to return to his position of authority (1 Kings 19:15). We see in God's instructions to Elijah to anoint Hazael as king over Aram, Jehu as king over Israel and Elisha as his successor not only His plan of victory over evil (1 King 19:17), but an increase in authority given to Elijah to carry out His plan. God did not pity Elijah, but restored him and sent him back to fulfill the plans that He had for him.

We Will Be Victorious

Indeed, you have been treated unjustly; they have lied about you and cursed you. Jesus said they would speak evil against us (Matthew 10:25). He told us that we would be persecuted because of Him.

But He also said we would receive a rich reward for every lie, curse or unjust act we have faced for His sake (Matthew 5:11). Yes, He did warn us of what we would face, but He also said it worth it.

It is worth it because we will be victorious!

Someday we will all be together with our Lord and we will see our enemy for what he truly is. We will wonder then how it was even possible for him to cause us trouble. We will marvel at what a forlorn creature he is, the rejected of heaven. (Is. 14:19; Luke 10:18).

In 1 Peter 5:8, Satan is described as a roaring lion. He is indeed a roaring lion and with his roar he unleashes accusation, intimidation and deception, because he knows that if we are able, even for a moment, to see him as he really is, we will no longer fear him.

Our enemy is defeated! He is a toothless lion who makes a lot of noise! Jesus is our victor and it is He who has removed the sting of death from our enemy (Luke 10:18-20), taking out his teeth.

He has given us His victory and there is now more power in even the youngest babe in Christ than there is in Satan's whole demon lair. "Greater is HE who is in you, than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Do not listen to the lies of the enemy. He will try to intimidate you, but he has no real power over those who are in Christ.

Do not listen to the voices of intimidation, manipulation, and condemnation, because your heavenly Father loves you and He is fighting for you.

Beloved, it will be worth it!

Victoria Boyson www.boyson.org

It Will Be Worth It!

Victoria Boyson

To those who overcome in the midst of adversity will He give increased authority (Rev. 2:26). You have indeed been tried by the fires of hell, yet you have remained steadfast.

As you thrust yourself into the bosom of your Father, you walk away having learned the secrets of His heart. You are no longer as easily beguiled or overwrought by the enemy, but you see now with the eyes of heaven. You are made sober in spirit, yet gentle as a dove.

God Never Said It Would Be Easy! Have you been attacked by the enemy? Have you been hit so hard that you've wanted to die? Has someone torn your heart out and trampled on it? Have you been betrayed, lied about or robbed? God never said this life would be easy, He only said that a life lived for Him would be worth the battle!

Every battle worth fighting is difficult. It was not easy for Jesus to die for the sins of the world. It was not easy for the early Christians to die for their faith, or for the pilgrims to come to America to find religious freedom. What they faced was not easy for them, but it was worth it! And we thank God for them.

The people knew that they were not fighting their battles for themselves alone, but for those their lives would affect. The forefathers of the United States had a dream of a great nation, and they fought and died for their dream.

God had a dream of making us a part of His family: Jesus died to bring that dream to life. It was extremely difficult, but we were worth it to Him.

Never Give Up!

It is always easier to give up; to leave your ministry, church or family, but it is often the easy road that leads to destruction. The seemingly shortest or easiest path is usually a mistake. Hold your ground, stay on course and you will have a great victory...if you do not give up.

At times, when I have gone to the Lord with my pains or complaints, He will speak this short simple phrase to me, "Did you think it would be easy?" The Lord has given us a great destiny to fulfill, but He never promised that it would be easy.

In fact, He told us it would be difficult. He said, "In this world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33).

Sometimes in the midst of the trial we are facing we get discouraged and disheartened. It is easy to think we have had more than our share of attacks. But in those times we need to be reminded that God knows of our difficulties and He is not panicked.

He knew it wouldn't be easy for us, but He knew that if we did not give up, we would win. And the victory that we would enjoy would be well worth the fight.

There will always be someone who thinks they could do your job better than you. They feel as though they are more anointed than you and it seems there is no end to their criticisms. Of course the enemy tries his very best to convince you that they are right in their opinions, but they are NOT!

You must hold your ground! If you give up your position in the body of Christ the place you've held is then left unprotected and others will suffer.

God has you where you are for a reason, someone has to hold that position. You do not know how many lives that you are affecting just by being where you are. What you are doing is important. It is important for your own personal well-being as a child of God, and to others.

Your battle is not for you alone, but for the kingdom of heaven. Your fight of faith is for the Lover of your soul, and that others may know of Him and love Him too.

Elijah's Despair

After the prophet Elijah had the prophets of Baal killed with a sword (1Kings 18:40), King Ahab told his wife Jezebel what Elijah had done. "Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, 'So may the gods do to me and even more, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time'" (1 Kings 19:2).

After hearing her threat, Elijah was afraid and ran for his life into the wilderness. He was filled with hopelessness and despair (1 Kings 19:10). After one of the greatest victories of his life, he felt like a failure. He felt overwhelmed by the evil of his day and hopeless to overcome it.

The enemy can at times come in like a flood and tear apart our faith, leaving us discouraged and feeling hopeless to fight it. We may lose sight of our vision because of the pain we feel, just as Elijah lost sight of all that God had done through him (1 Kings 19:4). He lost his focus and was not able to see the true picture of what God was doing through him and he felt like a failure.

Elijah lived his life in obedience to God, doing great things for Him. Yet he wanted to die because of the despair he felt. Maybe Elijah did not do all that he wanted to do for God, but he did do what God wanted him to do. He needed to be reminded of the truth of his situation to shake off the hopelessness he felt. And so do we.

I have felt much like Elijah. I have experienced the sting of the enemy and felt the hopelessness he can bring. But somehow, with God by my side, I made it through that time. Step by carefully placed step I walked together with God out of Satan's death trap. I found myself being carried by God through my fiery trial, and what I thought would be the end of me was really only the beginning of more of Him.

When you feel like you will go crazy, but don't; when you know that Satan wanted you dead, but you're not; when you want to give up, but continue on...that is when you begin to know God as He truly is. You know He is holding you, and carrying you through.

When I read in 1 Kings 19:4-7 of how the angel of the Lord brought Elijah bread and water from heaven while he rested under the juniper tree, I see the power of our loving Father to restore us. After the touch of the Lord, Elijah was sustained for the next forty days as he journeyed to the mountain of the Lord (v.10), where he met with God.

Elijah continued to remind God of his trouble, but God responded by telling him to return to his position of authority (1 Kings 19:15). We see in God's instructions to Elijah to anoint Hazael as king over Aram, Jehu as king over Israel and Elisha as his successor not only His plan of victory over evil (1 King 19:17), but an increase in authority given to Elijah to carry out His plan. God did not pity Elijah, but restored him and sent him back to fulfill the plans that He had for him.

We Will Be Victorious

Indeed, you have been treated unjustly; they have lied about you and cursed you. Jesus said they would speak evil against us (Matthew 10:25). He told us that we would be persecuted because of Him.

But He also said we would receive a rich reward for every lie, curse or unjust act we have faced for His sake (Matthew 5:11). Yes, He did warn us of what we would face, but He also said it worth it.

It is worth it because we will be victorious!

Someday we will all be together with our Lord and we will see our enemy for what he truly is. We will wonder then how it was even possible for him to cause us trouble. We will marvel at what a forlorn creature he is, the rejected of heaven. (Is. 14:19; Luke 10:18).

In 1 Peter 5:8, Satan is described as a roaring lion. He is indeed a roaring lion and with his roar he unleashes accusation, intimidation and deception, because he knows that if we are able, even for a moment, to see him as he really is, we will no longer fear him.

Our enemy is defeated! He is a toothless lion who makes a lot of noise! Jesus is our victor and it is He who has removed the sting of death from our enemy (Luke 10:18-20), taking out his teeth.

He has given us His victory and there is now more power in even the youngest babe in Christ than there is in Satan's whole demon lair. "Greater is HE who is in you, than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Do not listen to the lies of the enemy. He will try to intimidate you, but he has no real power over those who are in Christ.

Do not listen to the voices of intimidation, manipulation, and condemnation, because your heavenly Father loves you and He is fighting for you.

Beloved, it will be worth it!

Victoria Boyson www.boyson.org

I Will Divide Iraq
David Dreiling

November 20, 2004 - Last week, the Lord gave me a word that I felt was appropriate for you to review. I was at the Aglow International Conference.

I awoke on Friday morning, November 12, the day after Arafat's death. As I began my morning prayers, the Lord interrupted me with this statement, "I will divide Iraq."

As you can imagine, I was struck with such a statement. I began praying and asking God what He meant by that. I felt like the Lord led me to the obvious passage in Daniel 5:

Daniel 5:25-28
25 "And this is the inscription that was written: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of each word. MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it; 27 TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting; 28 PERES: Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians." (NKJV)

As I prayed about it, I felt that God was simply saying Baghdad's rule over that area of the world is coming to an end.
"BAGHDAD HAS CONFOUNDED THE NATIONS...BUT I HAVE JUDGED THE PRINCE OF IRAQ"

What He said was...

"Baghdad has confounded the nations. Baghdad has confounded the leaders of the world. Baghdad has confounded America, and even confounded my people. Baghdad has confounded the President, but I have judged the Prince of Iraq, and I, the Lord, will divide his country and give it to those more worthy. The Kurds will get a state. They will quickly normalize relations with Israel. This will mark of the first small visible fulfillment of Isaiah 19. The more moderate Arab states will follow in this in a variety of ways, and Israel shall have a short season of increased legitimacy."

I asked the Lord, "What about verse 28, where it talks about dividing between the Medes and Persians? Does that apply now?"

God responded and said that the Kurds are the current day Medes, and that both the Persians and the Southern Iraqis are Shiites. So, in that sense, the kingdom is to be divided between the Medes and the Persians. The Lord went on to say that the death of Arafat is a new beginning. We will see the raising up of more moderate Palestinian voices and the wall will be finished. Just as Arafat died on 11/11, so as Isaiah 11:11 states that the Lord will raise His hand the second time for Israel.

This is a window of opportunity for peace, and God will not allow the ungodly railings of the few in Baghdad to thwart His plans and purposes.

Blessings to all,

David Dreiling
daviddreiling@comcast.net

I Will Double You

Francis Frangipane

Much of the work God does guiding us to our destiny unfolds in our lives unnoticed until the time of its manifestation. Seemingly insignificant aspects of our lives suddenly bloom into profound realities, filling our consciousness with the fragrance of the Lord's presence. The natural is transformed by the supernatural, leaving us forever changed.

These "God-moments" reveal that the Lord has been intimately aware of us and, long before we recognized Him, He had been working in our lives. I've told the story before, but it's worth repeating. It was in the spring of 1971 when I had a most significant encounter with the Lord. It was at this time that He first spoke to me of my future. It began with a life-changing dream. In the midst of great darkness, the Lord revealed there would be a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The next morning, as I contemplated the vision, for the first time in my young Christian life I read Isaiah 60:1-3 and then Matthew 14. Both these texts confirmed in dramatic detail the truth of my night vision. The Isaiah text spoke of nations coming to Christ while Matthew's story chronicled Jesus feeding the multitudes with the bread and fish.

The God-moment peaked as I read that Jesus had blessed and broke the bread. Suddenly, it occurred to me that my last name, Frangipane, actually meant "to break bread." Throughout my life this long last name had been a nuisance. Yet now, coupled with the dream and the promise from Isaiah, the story of Christ taking "broken bread" to feed multitudes became a personal encouragement to me.

Later that morning, I related the vision and the Lord's promise from Isaiah 60 to my wife, Denise. I then told her about the feeding of the five thousand, mentioning that God would use us like Jesus used the loaves and fish to feed the multitudes. I also explained that Frangipane, in fact, meant "to break bread." Since she now had my last name, God had included her in my calling. In childlike wonder, she replied that this destiny would not only be about me. She then informed me of the meaning of her maiden name, Piscitelli. It meant "little fishes."

Those Whom He Foreknew

The fact that the Lord would quietly orchestrate our lives, and then confirm His promise in the very meaning of our names still fills our souls with awe. I imagine that a similar sense of awe struck King Josiah when, as a young man, he discovered his name in the scriptures. Indeed, his kingship had been foretold 350 years previously by a prophet in Israel; the man of God even described the actual tasks Josiah would fulfill (1 Kings 13:2). The revelation of having been foreknown by God caused Josiah to become, perhaps, the most zealous of all of Israel's kings.

This same awe must have struck King Cyrus of Persia when he discovered that the God of Israel had foretold of his leadership, by name, 150 years prior to his birth (Isaiah 44:28). The knowledge that we have been predestined by God to accomplish great things for Him, that He actually calls His sheep by name, adds great zeal to our souls.

Certainly, David must have felt this sense of awe when he wrote,

"O LORD, You have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You understand my thought from afar. You scrutinize my path and my lying down, and are intimately acquainted with all my ways . . . Behold, O LORD, You know it all. You have enclosed me behind and before, and laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is too high, I cannot attain to it" (Psalm 139:1-6).

Whether or not your name has a significant meaning in it, however, is not the issue. You are significant. God chose you in Christ before the foundation of the world; He has written your name in heaven (Eph 1:3; Rev 21:27). Even at this very moment the Holy Spirit continues to work in you His predetermined plan. At the proper time, the miracle of God's activity will emerge in your life like precision clockwork.

Recent Elections

As we approached elections in the USA, it struck me as inconceivable that the destiny of President Bush would not also have been foreordained by the Almighty. I noticed that he is often identified by his middled initial, "W." Yet, even as I listened to the President's supporters chant, "four more years," it occurred to me that the President's middle initial, "W," when spoken phonetically, actually says Double You, as in "I will double your time in office four more years."

Of course, the Lord didn't need a prophetic play on words to escort this President into office. Yet, with the re-election of President Bush, I've realized something else: he was given four more years on the strength of evangelical Christians. In fact, "moral values" was the leading reason people voted for President Bush! In the midst of a shaky economy and a difficult war in Iraq, the desire for righteousness determined the outcome of this nation!

Many politicians on both sides of the aisle have ignored the traditional values of faith and family. Sen. Dodd, D-Conn., admitted, "We have lost the ability to connect with people's value systems and we're going to have to work to get that back." Rep. Pomeroy, D-N.D., said "I think that the Democratic party nationally is perceived as being out of step with mainstream values. I want our party to do a better job of speaking to matters of faith and family."

I think it is vital that evangelical Christians divorce ourselves from gloating or any expression of self-righteousness. It is imperative that, while others are searching for answers, we truly represent Christ's heart. Let us speak with humility of our values and then, with wisdom, lead others to Jesus, our source of all virtue.

Beloved, both Republicans and Democrats, as well as the news and entertainment media, are all realizing that something powerful is awakening in America. They had a first glimpse when The Passion of the Christ came out; they were staggered by the effect of praying, voting Christians during this last election. Now, it is time to pray this advance forward.

As I've often said since January, 2004, we are in a year of release. The constrictions we been experiencing are not death throes, but birth pangs; they are not part of what restricts us, but releases us. Indeed, there is a destiny unfolding, not just for George W. Bush, but for the body of Christ in America. I believe that the Lord is in the process of answering our prayers and increasing our effectiveness. Concerning His anointing on our lives, He says, "I will double you

I Will Mix The Old and The New

Patsy Shelton

There are many things on the horizon that have yet to be seen, and have yet to be spoken forth into this natural realm. But the noise of My thunder is about to resound throughout the earth. I have stood still for a short season, and laid the groundwork of this New Day, but now My instruction for the building of the “new thing,” in the earth is about to be spoken forth.

How I have waited and longed for this generation, even a people that would be real and not phony. A people that would be filled with My Spirit, but not be high and mighty. A people that are not so spiritual that they are of no earthly good. Ordinary people that will walk on the high places of the earth but that will walk humbly before their God.

And these have an ear to hear what My Spirit is saying today, not to the apostate church, but to a church that will begin to flow in unity and unison. Even though they may not be gathered all together in one place, they are all flowing in the same stream of My Spirit, and that stream is flowing from My throne and from under the door of a heavenly sanctuary.

As I am tearing down the religious system, I have been at the same time raising up the glorious church without spot and wrinkle. Ah, she is still in the infancy stage, but she is coming forth in all her beauty, as a Bride adorned for her Bridegroom.

And there are many of no significance, according to man, that are gathering together, and I am in their presence. My Spirit has the freedom to manifest My presence in whatever manner He chooses. They have made room for Him, yielding to Him, and He is free to do in their midst whatever He chooses to do. They have no agendas, and no plans but have a yearning and a longing to see the power of their God manifested in the earth.

In previous seasons I have raised us the Tabernacle of David, a place of praise and worship but in this New Day, I will raise up the house of Jacob, where I will once again teach My Ways, and My people will walk in My paths. Out of Zion the law shall go forth and the word of the Lord from the New Jerusalem. And I will reign over the House of Jacob forever, and to My Kingdom there will be no end.

The house of Jacob shall be a fire; but the house of Esau shall be stubble. And their children shall be the work of My hands, in their midst. They will hallow My name and hallow the Holy One of Jacob, and fear the God of Israel. Those that erred in spirit will come to understanding, and those that complained will learn doctrine.

And I will renew the covenant’s of old that I swore by their fathers, and I will do for this generation that which I have never done before. For this generation will see the fulfillment of the covenants that I made in days gone by. This people, are My people, and I am their God. They walk humbly before Me, but My anointing and power will flow through them.

I will even complete that which I started long ago, and that which I have longed to bring to My people even their inheritance. This is the generation, and this is the people that will possess the land and the promises. Even the promises made to the House of Jacob.

I will mix the old, and the new. The covenants of the old will be fulfilled and the Spirit life of the new will bring a new completeness and wholeness to this generation that no other generation has ever known.
pattiluepeacock@aol.com

I Will Restore

Shirley Lise

I Will Restore The Years The Locusts Have Eaten
riverpub@sgci.com
March 11, 2004

Increase is coming your way. I will expand your borders, extend your tent pegs, and move you out of the comfort zone. I will spark within you an interest in those things assigned to you. I will stir up within you great desire, so gain momentum, gain confidence, and move forward in the revelation. Gain ground. Take back from the enemy what has been stolen.

I will restore the years the locusts have eaten. Do not listen to the accuser. Do not open an ear to those who would try to negate what I have shown you. I have spoken, and it shall come to pass! Holy is My name, and I am leading your youth into holy living. They shall give an account of the wonderful things that I have done in their lives and give all glory to Me. Watch to see how I cut down the tree of self-will, how I take an axe to the root. Watch how I dismantle hierarchies of power that seek to dethrone Me and bring exaltation to men. Have I not said that I will deal with the evil doer? I will cut down the pedestal from which man is able to perform his will, and I shall strip naked those who function by the power of the flesh to interfere with what I have proclaimed forth. Do not be surprised when you see these standing naked amongst men. I shall put to nothing the attempts of evil men to control and manipulate.

This is the day of release into newness. I am releasing those who have been bound, breaking ropes that bind, and setting the captives free. I have arisen and am warring on behalf of those who have been beaten down and removed from the inner court, considered an outcast. I will, indeed, bring restoration into the lives of those who were forsaken and considered unworthy. As a matter of fact, says the Lord, I am campaigning against those who have caused these to stumble, and will make a display of My splendor as these are raised to life in this day. I shall breathe My breath of life into them and they shall come alive. And I shall fan into flame a desire within them to run in the direction of My choosing.

Eye has not seen and ear has not heard of the wonderful things I have in store for those who love Me. This is the day when your youth shall run with the flame burning deep within them and nothing is able to dampen the fire. Watch to see how I harness the resources needed for that which lies ahead. Watch how I supernaturally transfer funds from one account to the next. Watch how I visit your household with abundant blessing.

I am putting funds into your hands for this work of the ministry, to bless and release finances to those in need, to channel the blessing, to be a conduit of resources. Do not marvel. I have spoken these things to your Spirit in the past, and am only confirming what I have already promised. Cash will come flowing in. Resources will be released. I am at work to unlock resources that have been tied up.

House the wanderer, make provision for the needs of others. Provide abundantly for those of your own household and you shall see the blessing multiplied outwardly.

I Am Releasing Favor To You
Shirley Lise

I am breaking apart the hierarchy that has been at work. I am disassembling strongholds. Make room for My miracles. This is a day of great grandeur for those who have put their trust in Me, and a day of joy and gladness for those who know the Lord their God.

Rest in Me. Rest in My loving arms. I am moving out on your behalf, addressing issues that have come about. Trust in Me and do not let the enemy side-track you. Do not listen to the lies. I have given you My grace to see you through. I have invested time into your circumstances. I have built a hedge of protection round about you and given you My power to ward off the darts of the enemy. I have given you strength beyond comprehension and I will lead you out and on into the depths of My Spirit. Though many say they are in control, I am the One who sees all and who changes and arranges things, so pick up speed and run the race undaunted.

I have provided you with all that you stand in need of. I have given you insight into those things that are at war with My Spirit, and I am coming to bring the haughty to their knees. I will pull out from under them the rug, the platform from which they perform and I will address issues of the heart. Jesus saves and He will bring salvation to your household. He will bring you into the free flow of the Spirit of the living God. Just acknowledge Me and do not bow down to the pressures of the ungodly.

I will dethrone kings and raise up the lowly. I will break apart the web of lies that has held captives and release them into liberty in My spirit, says the Lord. I will make a covenant with My Beloved. I will introduce to them the beatitudes, understanding of what it means to walk humbly with the Lord their God.

This is a day to rejoice. I will bless you beyond all you could think or ask. I will lead you into the promises, one by one, and you will rejoice when you see what I have done. I have spoken to you about division, about separating the wheat from the chaff, about decisions regarding moves. Be ready to “let go” of those things and people who are a hindrance to your movement on into the fullness of the calling upon your life and I will take you on and into the full inheritance. I will bring you into the full scope of the ministry of Christ. I will preach the gospel via your mouth. I will fill it with words of truth, words of wisdom from the Heavenly Father.

I have fully-equipped you to press into the call. I will mobilize you, set your feet to music, and thrust you on and into the mandate. I will propel you forward and into the depths of what I am doing. So get ready, for I am releasing favor to you. Go with the flow. Make the break from contentment and let My Spirit stir you up and propel you on.

Shirley Lise
http://ns1.sgci.com/~riverpub/
riverpub@sgci.com

I Will Cause You To Flourish
Shirley Lise

riverpub@sgci.com
March 10, 2004
Prosper and be in good health. Come into the full revelation of Christ. Come into the abundant blessing that is yours in Christ. Come into the River of Life flowing from the throne room of God. Come into understanding. Come into prosperity!

I will cause My goodness to abound toward you. I will cause My power to reside within you. Do not think you are without hope, without direction. I have established you upon the Rock of Christ and you shall go on in the call to be a light to those in darkness.

I will cause you to flourish in the ministry of Christ. Everywhere your feet tread, you will take the land. Everywhere you go, you will be given opportunity to be a witness of My love, of My word. Do not think others do not see the light that radiates forth. They see it and will be drawn by it.

Harness the resources being released to you. Hook them up for productivity. I will cause you to move forward in those things that I have spoken about. Increase your borders. Move out in all directions. Perfect is My timing. Perfect are My ways. Perfect is the word of the Lord. It shall bear fruit for the kingdom!

I Will Set The Captives Free

Yolanda Ballard

I AM calling forth My bride to be strong. I AM admonishing you to receive those who are weak. Receive all with the power of My love. Don't overcompensate for the many weaknesses that you might be seeing in your character at this point by putting on a mask and covering over your need to be set free.

For there are many in My body who are struggling so. They have not dealt with the roots that sin has built up from their past life. For many are struggling with pornography. Don't be hush-hush up about this subject. My people need to be set free and the enemy is taking advantage because he knows he can. He knows if he can stay hidden, he will have the power to keep My people in bondage.

Come forth, My holy ones, and express your need to be set free. Don't hide behind the shame and the condemnation that so many are feeling for this is what is causing you to come under even severer attack from the enemy.

Sin is sin and there is not different levels like with the mortal sin teaching some have experienced. For what did I say adultery is but to lust after a woman in your heart. And what is murder but to be angry with your brother. I look at the heart not what you do on the outside.

What I tell you today is to come forth and be open to those I will lead you to for My church is not a group of healthy people already set free when they come in but is a hospital where I can perform heart surgery through the power of My Holy Spirit. Let Me slay you so that you may lay under My power that I may bring to the surface those issues that need to be uprooted. Let Me purge you that you may be clean through and through by the fire of My love. For no unclean being can dwell where My fire is. I will burn them out if you allow Me to.

Be open with Me. Do not be ashamed for I love you. I see you pure and already set free. I see you through the power of My blood. For I died for you that the enemy would not have a hold on you. But you must choose life, and you must choose blessings. You must choose to live the crucified life that I may fill you with My life. I love you, My children. I see you clean and holy and separated from the evil one and his ways. I see you as mighty overcomers, My vessels of righteousness, the set-apart ones.

So rise up in My glory this day. Bow before My feet and worship Me for the victory. Reach out and touch the hem of My garment. Do not let any spirit of religiosity bind you from receiving life or giving life. Don't be offended by this message for it is a much needed one. It is time to grow up and be the Bride I called you to be. Love one another. See others who are struggling the way I see them. See them through the eyes of faith. Do not mark them as hopeless, for that is a curse in itself. Come and bless the brethren. Treat them as you would have them treat you. Yes, do unto others as you would have them do unto you. That is the Golden Rule that continues to stand this day throughout eternity.

I called you to love and only then will you conquer the foe. Be aware of the tools the enemy uses for he is subtle. For it is the little foxes that spoil the vine. I AM the vine: you are the branches. There is no life outside of Me. You cannot make it on your own for only I can do the impossible. I admonish you this day to receive those who are struggling. See them through the eyes of faith for all are vulnerable to the same sins. No one is better than the next.

Humble yourselves before Me and I will lift you up as one. When one is struggling, you all are struggling. Do your part by being strong in Me and praise Me for I began the work, and I AM faithful to complete it.

Receive this message and be aware for there will be those who will come forth, and the evil one will try to cut them off, but do not allow it. Be strong! Let My love overcome the wicked one and My light overcome the darkness. Allow My Spirit to flow to set the captives free this day.

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

I Will Walk Among You

Bill Burns

Jan 19, 2004

I call to you today to say that I will walk among you in this season. There are many who need My healing touch, but also need My compassion. Broken hearts need to be mended and fears removed in order to move in the realm of expectation for the glory that is now to come.

I come today as your Healer, for My Spirit has been sent among you to strengthen you and release the gifts of healing, but I will also visit you with great compassion in the days ahead. There will be times even as you go about your daily duties that suddenly you shall feel My overwhelming love and compassion that will renew, strengthen, and prepare you for the journey that is before you.

There are many that I have called into positions of ministry who have not yet arrived, and even have come to a place of unbelief of that which I have spoken in times past. But, as My compassion surrounds you and as My love lifts you, you will know surely the words that were spoken by Me and the words which were not of Me. You will embrace the true word, and you shall see it come to pass even in this season, says the Lord.

I have great love and compassion for those who have been wounded, but I cannot leave you there. You are needed in the kingdom for the Father's purposes. I come as the Lord of Restoration to strengthen you and prepare you. What lies ahead is an exciting time, a glorious time, but at times it will be difficult. Yet it will also be easy, for I shall carry you Myself. If you abide in My love and My compassion and My glory, you will look back on this time in years to come and say, "There, in that season, the Lord did begin to visit His people."

Faith Tabernacle
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, Colorado 80459
Teaching tapes at http://ft111.com/resource.htm

In Your Fullness Of Times

Olivia Long

faithbuildersmins@sbcglobal.net

May 30, 2004

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit." John 20:19-22

*"When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.* All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them." Acts 2:1-4

Beloved, My plan for you is clear. I have watched as many of you have been groping as a blind man but know that there is no groping in the plans of the I AM. The enemy has taunted you in order to give you a slave mentality, saying there is no escape for you. He has sought to hold you in a vice grip of bondage in the physical, the mental and the emotional ... he has achieved a degree of success because you have thought and acted as slaves when Jesus made it possible for you to be free - but he is not above the Name of My Son and he is a defeated foe. I have laid My plan but you must be willing to lay down your plans for Mine. Many of you currently feel that you don't fit anywhere. The enemy seeks to distract you and to steal the calling on your life but I have overcome him, says the Lord. But you must do your part, you must stand firm. The enemy would try to delay the calling but My timing is always right! In the fullness of time I brought forth My Son and in the fullness of time I bring forth My Faithful Ones and you are now entering your fullness of times. Beloved, it is time to take the I AM very seriously, nothing is just happenstance. You are in the timeframe in which your Kinsman Redeemer will prove Himself mightily on your behalf.

There is coming a release in the spiritual realm. I say again, a release. As in the natural, the water breaks in birthing so a release in the spiritual. My Beloved, call forth your ministries, call forth your finances, call forth your healings, call forth everything that is needed for the calling on your life. There is a release, call them forth. The enemy has tried to abort the ministry upon your lives and he is trying to destroy this birthing that I have for you. He says there is no baby, there is no ministry, there are no finances, there is no healing - there is no plan that all has been a false pregnancy in your mind and imagination. But I say unto you, what I have spoken to you is TRUTH and satan is a liar and a deceiver. I, the Lord Your God speaks to you and says the baby has been born and I AM coming to place the mother and baby fully into the place I have prepared for you. My plans for you shall not die, the ministry shall not die, it is Mine, therefore it CANNOT die. It is time for the fullness of My most holy will and purpose for your life to come forth in ways that will thrill you and empower you to handle 'everything' that I shall place in your hands. You are entering My fullness of time for your lives and you will see My presence come over you as you have never encountered before.

It is your fullness of times, ask and it shall be given to you. Seek and you shall find. Knock and the door shall be opened. Ask for specific needs to be met... Yes, I know your needs but My word says that anyone who asks will receive. My Child, faith is the key that opens the door and faith comes by hearing the Word and I have given you the word this day. Speak My Word and watch your faith grow and every need met.

The extraordinary is about to happen! I AM about to pay some glorious visitations upon My faithful ones. As in Pentecost of old, it is not the first time that My Beloved has acted together as I breathed my breath upon you. But now you shall see the Holy Spirit In FORCE to join those of Mine together. Many of you have felt as though you were dead but now you will see Me breathe LIFE into you during your fullness of times. I will clean up any areas that are in disrepair and this will be a quick work. I say again THIS WILL BE A QUICK WORK and I will restore ALL that has been lost and more! I AM about to demonstrate in your life just what I can do and you will see that Your Lord and Savior really does care about you. Behold, it is the fullness of time in your life. Expect from this day forward new energy and a fresh commitment as I give a fresh Baptism of Fire, a Fire that will bring fresh air into your life , to empower and to warm. My deliverance is upon you and you will carry My deliverance forward for others. Behold, a sound is about to come forth, the sound of a mighty rushing wind and My faithful ones will hear as you stand IN YOUR FULLNESS OF TIMES.

Joseph Anointing

Matt Sorger

2004, Joseph Anointing Released
The Joseph Anointing - Part 1

Recently while ministering in a Signs and Wonders Conference in New Mexico with Todd Bentley and Keith Miller the Lord gave me a prophetic word for 2004. He said that 2004 would be a year of great release. The anointing that was released on Joseph in the book of Genesis would be released on the church this year. In Genesis 30:22-24 we see Josephs name first mentioned. Here God remembers Rachel in her barrenness and opens her womb. She conceives and bears a son, Joseph and declares God has taken away my reproach. The literal interpretation of Joseph is He Will Add. The shame of the past is being removed. God is removing the shame and reproach off His church and is replacing it with great fruitfulness. 2004 will be a year of great increase, release and favor on the church. Josephs very name speaks of this increase.

Whenever God is about to show up on the scene in a significant way He raises up prophetic voices to help prepare the way of His coming. These voices are called forerunners. They catch the heart of God and run with it. God uses men and women who will co-labor with Him to see the Kingdom of God established in the earth in the hearts of people. He's looking for those who will align their hearts and minds with His. These forerunners are being released to do great exploits and accomplish great things for the Kingdom.

SPIRITUAL PROMOTION AND INCREASE TO SERVE GOD AND OTHERS

Joseph was a forerunner. He was sent ahead of his family into Egypt to help prepare provisions for them in a time of great famine. He was placed by God into a position of great influence and authority, the second in command over all the land of Egypt (Gen. 41:41-44). But that power was not given to him so he could serve his own means. It was so he could fulfill the will and purposes of God and serve His people. In the world many times people obtain power and authority to serve themselves and increase their own fame and wealth. In the Kingdom God grants His power and authority to us so that we will serve not only His purposes but other people. The greatest in the Kingdom is the servant of all (Mt. 20:26). God promotes servant hood.

God is releasing a Joseph anointing on His people for spiritual promotion and increase. Corporately the Body of Christ will experience a great release with a divine commissioning into their God-given purpose, call and destiny. We are in a season where God is releasing the Josephs, those who will walk with God in great spiritual authority, power and influence. They are being sent ahead as forerunners to help prepare the way.

THE FULFILLMENT OF DREAMS AND VISIONS

With the Joseph anointing there is also a fulfillment of dreams and visions. There are many who have received dreams and visions from the Lord, even in their youth. With spiritual promotion there comes a fulfillment of the dreams and visions God has given. At the age of 17 Joseph received a dream of greatness (Gen 37). He prophetically saw a time of increase and promotion coming in his life. But we know the story of how he was first hated by his brothers, thrown into a pit, sold as a slave, falsely accused and them thrown in to a dungeon. It wasn't until he was 30 years old that the vision came to pass. That was 13 years of hard testing waiting for the promise to be fulfilled (Psa. 105:17-19). I believe 30 is a significant year. It was at the age of 30 that the priests in the Old Testament began their priestly duties. It was also at the age of 30 that Jesus began His earthly ministry.

There are Josephs who have been prepared in the secret place of testing for the last 10 or so years and are now being released and commissioned by the hand of God into their God-given calls and destinies. It was exactly 13 years ago that I received a prophetic word from the Lord about the call and plan of God for my life. He told me that He was raising up a new breed of leaders. There would be no model for us to carbon copy or follow. We would need to be so sensitive and in tune with His voice in order to know the way to go and to walk in the new thing that He would do. But he also told me that the top of His priority list for me was the refinement of my character that my roots would go down so deep in Him that when success came I would be firmly rooted in Him. This year I turned 30 and with that I was released fulltime into the ministry He had called me to walk in, a healing revival ministry of signs, wonders and miracles. I had been active in ministry for many years serving as an associate pastor, walking through seasons of great testing and refinement. But when Gods timing came I was released to travel the nations in mass miracle crusades and in a ministry of healing revival. It was the moment of release. But I believe even the events in my own life are a picture of what God is doing in the corporate Body of Christ. There are many Josephs who have had to walk through many tests and have passed with flying colors bringing them into a season of divine promotion and increase in the purposes of God.

The Joseph Anointing Part 2

GODS SOVEREIGN PLAN OVERRULES THE ACTIONS OF MAN

Gen. 45:4-8 and Gen 50:20

It wasn't God who threw Joseph into the pit and sold him into slavery. It was the jealousy of man. But God used what man did to position Joseph for a divine promotion! The action of Joseph's brothers sent Joseph on a journey that would go from bad to worse. But no matter what negative circumstances surrounded Joseph, Gods hand of favor and blessing was on him. Even in the midst of the most difficult circumstances Gods favor caused him to rise to the top. Gods purposes for Joseph superseded the purposes of man. God used the negative circumstances to place Joseph in a position where he could be promoted into his true calling.

I've seen this happen even in my own journey of following the call of God on my life. God would take the negative actions of man to position me into a place where increase and promotion could come. Many times our limited human perspectives are so small we cant see or understand how God can bring to pass His purposes or turn a negative situation around for good. But Gods ways are truly bigger than our ways and it is often in hindsight that we see how the hand of God has moved in such a marvelous way. Remember it doesn't matter what man does to you. Mans actions do not determine your future or destiny in God. Rather its your response to those actions that determine how far you will go. God is looking for the right response which is always unconditional love and forgiveness.

YOUR ATTITUDE DETERMINES YOUR ALTITUDE

Joseph kept his heart pure and undefiled from bitterness and resentment. He chose to walk in love and forgiveness. When you choose to love and bless no matter what happens to you, God will always bless and bring increase into your life. If we keep our hearts pure nothing can hold the favor and blessing of God back. Those that have kept a pure heart through their seasons of testing will now experience great reward, blessing and favor. They will see the hand of God bring divine commendation on them. Not only will they receive favor with God but favor with man as God increases and promotes by His sovereign choosing.

Some of you have been going through some difficult circumstances over the past 10 years. You might have even grown weary in well doing. You haven't been able to see the higher plan of God. But in the midst of it all you must understand that God has allowed those things simply to get you in the right place for the right time so that you could inherit the fullness of His promise for your life. But remember, that inheritance is not for you alone, its given so that you can serve others and see His will established in the earth. Jesus came to fulfill the will of His Father (Jn. 5:30). The same is true for us.

JOSEPH WAS SEPARATE FROM HIS BRETHREN

Gen 49:26

There is a mark of separation coming on Gods servants. Joseph was separated, not even by his own choice. From birth there was a divine favor bestowed upon him that seemed to separate him from the crowd. Sometimes this favor caused others to be jealous and envious even hurtful in their attitudes and actions toward him. But the mark of separation was there. And so it is true for you and for me. God has separated us from the world and has placed His hand of favor upon us. We are separate unto God. To be a forerunner, to be a voice for God, you must be set apart. You must be separated from the voices of this world to hear the voice of God. This separation includes a lifestyle of holiness, purity and innocence. Be excellent at what is good and innocent of evil (Rom. 16:19). There is a mark of innocence that will be upon Gods people. We will be pure in thought, word and deed. This purity of heart will release great blessing and protection from evil in the days ahead. It will also release great provision with supernatural wisdom as it did for Joseph when a famine hit the land. No matter how dry or desolate it is around us we will rest in the abundant provision of the Lord both spiritually and physically.

THE IMPORTANCE OF CHARACTER

Character is important. Its the wine skin that holds the wine. Without character we will not be able to carry the degree of power and authority the Lord wants to bestow upon us. Cracks in the wineskin, un dealt with areas of personal character and integrity can cause the wineskin to burst losing the wine that it held. Throughout history this has proven to be true as great men and women of God have fallen prematurely because of some un surrendered area in their heart. God is raising the standard of personal integrity in the church to avoid unnecessary casualties of war. And God requires the glory. Paul Cain once shared about a conversation he had with Kathryn Kulman. She said Paul, its easy to give God the glory when you know you are getting some for yourself. God wants all the glory. That's why we must always remember that we must have the same degree of humility as we have power and authority if not more. This is our safeguard against compromise and premature failure.

The Joseph Anointing - Part 3

JOSEPH WAS THE YOUNGEST

Joseph was the youngest of his brothers at the time God gave him the dream of greatness. God often chooses what looks like the least in the eyes of the world. He did the same with David and Gideon along with many others. God looks at the heart, not at outward qualifications. Its your heart for God that qualifies you for promotion.

There are many in the church about to undergo a shift even in the circumstances they've been in because the time of promotion has come. This promotion may even be a surprise to some people because they've been judging by the external and not by the heart. Sometimes we miss the heart because we are so preoccupied with external packages. We must see ourselves and others with Gods perspective not ours.

GET READY FOR A SUDDENLY

Joseph's promotion came as a suddenly of God. In a single day he went from the dungeon to being second in command over the entire nation of Egypt. There was sudden promotion and increase. When you least expect it the hand of God will move and you will be suddenly thrust forward into the fulfillment of Gods dream and vision for your life. This happened to me this year. God required me to step out in faith to pursue the healing revival call on my life. I had to resign my position as Associate Pastor of the church I had been a part of for 17 years of my life. It was a painful transition. I had to leave my salary, my position, my comfort zone and everything I knew. But with that step of faith God suddenly moved and opened doors I never dreamed of, including traveling for a year on the road with Todd Bentley and Fresh Fire Ministries. Now, a year and a half later I'm traveling all over the world seeing the hand of God move powerfully in signs, wonders and miracles. Sometimes you have to let go of the good in order to possess the best God has for you. But when the timing of God comes theres a sudden shift and change that launches you into your future and destiny. Many will be launched this year.

THE BLESSING OF JOSEPH

Gen 49:22-26

The blessing Jacob pronounced over Joseph was the longest and the greatest out of all the blessings he pronounced over his sons. This blessing is coming on the church this year. Claim it for your own personal life, your family, church and ministry. Joseph's blessing includes:

1.Great fruitfulness. This speaks not only of the fruit of the Spirit in the area of personal character but also lasting fruit in our service to God. (Gen 49:22) 2.Being filled, saturated and refreshed with the living waters of Gods Spirit. (Gen 49:22) This also speaks of the Psalm 1 anointing. Read Psalm 1. 3.Enlargement and increase despite apparent boundaries and restrictions. Nothing will be able to hold back the increase God gives. (Gen 49:22) 4.Increase of strength with perseverance. Those that have wanted to quit and give up will be strengthened by Gods power to persevere until the blessing comes. (Gen.49:23-24) 5.Both heavenly and earthly blessings including a blessed family, wife and children. Gods blessing will rest on entire households. (Gen.49:25-26)

As we go into 2004 let me encourage you to pray the blessing of Joseph over yourself, your household, your church and ministry. With it will come great release, favor, increase and divine promotion by the hand of God.

at http://www.mattsorger.com

info@mattsorger.com

Judges As At The First

Doug Fortune

It's Time To 'Legislate' From The 'Bench'

> "And I will restore thy JUDGES as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness." (Isaiah 1:26-27)

In the United States we are witnessing an extremely unfortunate phenomenon in our legislative and legal system. What began in 1962, as the Supreme Court ruled to prohibit prayer from public schools in Engle v. Vitale, continues today as certain judges 'legislate from the bench' by imposing their own views on the citizens regardless of the law. The familiar scenario often unfolds as certain laws are enacted through the proper legislative system by lawmakers and voters, and are later declared unconstitutional and overruled by a judge. My intent here is not to discuss this particular phenomenon, but rather to draw spiritual truth from it.

"Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:" (Romans 5:12) As the 'legislative authority' in the earth, Adam enacted the law of sin and death (Romans 8:2) and subjected all creation to decay and death. "For the creation (nature) was subjected to frailty (to futility, condemned to frustration), not because of some intentional fault on its part, but by the will of Him Who so subjected it..." (Romans 8:20 Amplified Bible) We can see the effects of sin all around us as we look at society, nature, the Church, even our own lives. In an effort to reverse the effects of sin, many have worked within the 'law' through spiritual mapping, identificational repentance, reconciliation, restitution, etc. These are all undoubtedly activities with noble intentions. I don't mean to be pessimistic but through all our efforts, however, I don't know that we've necessarily seen the results we desire.

May I suggest that it is time for something different? May I suggest that it is time to 'legislate from the bench'? Allow me to explain.
As negative and damaging as it may be in the natural sense, we have a shining example of what the Father desires to implement in the spiritual realm. God has given us the promise, as we just read above in the book of Isaiah, that He would restore JUDGES in order to execute righteousness. Just as the rulings of Court Judges override the laws of the land, even so the decrees of spiritual Judges override law. Perhaps we need to re-read 1 Corinthians 6:2, as it boldly declares, "Do ye not know that the saints shall JUDGE the world?" Many in the body of Christ are waiting for some future fulfillment of this. Keep in mind however, that both Jesus and John brought the message, saying "Repent (think differently): for the Kingdom (judicial rule) of heaven is AT HAND (available to be apprehended now)." (Matthew 4:17 my input in parenthesis) I believe that the time to 'judge' the world is now. I believe that the time to rule and reign is now.

"And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall REIGN on the earth... Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the FIRST resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall REIGN with Him a thousand years." (Revelation 5:10; 20:6) It is clear that our reign is on the earth, not someday in the sweet by and by. It is clear that we are a royal priesthood NOW; "But ye ARE a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation..." (1 Peter 2:9) I believe that the 'first resurrection' is what Paul spoke of as he says, "If by any means I might ATTAIN unto the resurrection of the dead." (Philippians 3:11) Then the very next verse he says, "Not as though I had ALREADY attained..." Paul was obviously still alive at the time he wrote this letter to the Phillipians, so why does he bother to tell them that he hasn't yet attained, if this resurrection is something you have to physically die to get?

We will find the secret in the previous verse; "That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;" (Philippians 3:10) You see, in these verses we have words translated twice as 'resurrection' that are actually two different words in Greek. Their meanings are similar but different enough to warrant an explanation. The word in verse 10 is anastasis in Greek and it means a resurrection from death. The word translated as power in that verse is dunamis in Greek, from which we get the word dynamo- a dynamo is a device capable of reproducing electricity. Paul is saying he wants to know Christ and the dunamis (the power capable of reproducing itself) of HIS resurrection from the dead. In other words, he wants to experience Christ reproducing HIS resurrection in Paul, thus resurrecting Paul to the resurrected Life of Christ. From Paul's words, it would seem that this only happens through the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto HIS death. The word translated as conformable, summorphos in Greek, means jointly formed. It is from two Greek words meaning union and adjustment of shape or nature. In other words, conformable means that we are in UNION with Him, jointly formed in His death. He became US in crucifixion ("He hath made Him to BE sin for us..." 2 Corinthians 5:21), and WE are crucified IN Him; it was a 'joint venture'.

This word translated as resurrection in verse 11 is exanastasis in Greek. This word is similar, but different than the word translated as resurrection in the previous verse. You will notice that the prefix ex has been added to the original word in verse 10. In Greek, ex is a primary preposition denoting ORIGIN or the point from which motion or action proceeds. In other words, this resurrection spoken of in verse 11 proceeds from the point or origin of being made CONFORMABLE (jointly formed) to HIS death. Not ALL will attain this resurrection, because not all will be made conformable to His death. Now do you see why Paul desired to attain to this resurrection? Also, the resurrection is not just an event that happened to Jesus and will one day happen to us. The Resurrection is a Person, the Person of Christ; "Jesus said to her I AM the Resurrection and the Life..." (John 11:25) Christ IN US and living His Life through us is the hope to which we were called! I love the way the Amplified Bible reads in Philippians 3:11; "That if possible I may attain to the spiritual and moral resurrection that lifts me out from among the dead even while in the body..."

"Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the FIRST resurrection... they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall REIGN with Him a thousand years." (Revelation 20:6) It is clear that the time to rule and reign is NOW! Resurrection literally means a RAISING up, a rising. The question is, where are we raised up to? "And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together [giving us joint seating with Him] in the heavenly sphere [by virtue of our being] in Christ Jesus." (Ephesians 2:6 Amplified Bible) That sounds to me like we are seated in Christ right now. And where is Christ seated? "...at His own right hand in the heavenly places, Far ABOVE all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:" (Ephesians 1:20-21) That is the 'seat' of authority. In judicial terms, that is the 'bench'. Folks, it is time we understood who really sits on the 'bench'. "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit WITH ME in My throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with My Father in His throne." (Revelation 3:21) It is the overcomer who sits on the 'bench'. This seat of authority, this 'bench' is far ABOVE all other principalities, powers, and dominion. The ruling that issues from this 'bench' supercedes all other law.

"I kept looking until thrones were placed [for the assessors with the Judge], and the Ancient of Days [God, the eternal Father] took His seat... the Judge was seated [the court was in session] and the books were opened." (Daniel 7:9-10 Amplified Bible) May I declare to you that the court is in session now and the books are being opened? It is time to set a precedent! It is time to judge the mount of Esau. "And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the Kingdom shall be the Lord's." (Obadiah 1:21)

So, in Biblical symbolism what does it mean to judge the mount of Esau? "And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau... And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom. And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?" (Genesis 25:25, 30-32) Esau was red, his name means rough. When he sold the birthright, his name was called Edom. Edom means red, it is from the word adom, meaning red, ruddy. Adom is from the word adam. I believe that the mount of Esau represents the Edomite mentality, the Adamic carnal thinking of man that has sold the birthright. After all, isn't selling the birthright what Adam did? Edom sold the birthright to satisfy his carnality. Adam sold the birthright to satisfy his carnality. And what is the 'birthright'? In Biblical times it was the special privileges and advantages belonging to the first-born son. The birthright entitled the first-born son to become the PRIEST of the family, it allotted to him also a DOUBLE PORTION of the paternal inheritance, and he inherited the JUDICIAL AUTHORITY of his father.

Many in the Church today have, through the fear produced by inaccurate dispensational teaching, sold our 'birthright' to the enemy of our souls. We have taken the lowly serpent of the book of Genesis and turned him into the great dragon of the book of Revelation by allowing him to feed on the 'dust' of our carnal dualistic mentality. In our minds, we have created an almost equally matched struggle of good and evil that could be summed up as 'satan vs. Jesus'. We have been told that it is inevitable that things will get worse, and a man who embodies evil will eventually rule the world under a one-world government. We have been told that people will have to receive a bar-code or electronic chip implant to do business. Personally, I think we've been watching too many science fiction movies. We seem to have an insatiable thirst for drama and spectacle, and fear-based doctrines feed upon that thirst. Perhaps it is time to shift our thinking so that we may declare with Peter, "For we have not followed cunningly devised fables... We have also a more SURE WORD of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a LIGHT that SHINETH in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the DAY STAR arise in YOUR hearts:" (2 Peter 1:16, 19) It is time to put away such cunningly devised fables and judge the mount of Edom, the Adamic carnal thinking of man that has sold the birthright! Yes, we have a sure Word of prophecy. We are lights that shine in the darkness as the Day Star arises within us.

We must reclaim the birthright and be the PRIESTS we were intended to be, releasing His glory, His presence, His character and nature wherever we go.

We must reclaim the birthright and walk in the DOUBLE PORTION inheritance; "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." (John 14:12)

We must reclaim the birthright in exercising the JUDICIAL AUTHORITY of our Father. It is time to 'legislate from the bench' as "the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ." (Revelation 11:15)

The Scripture is quite clear that we have the judicial authority of our Father; "I will give YOU the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever YOU bind (declare to be improper and unlawful) on earth must be what is already bound in heaven; and whatever YOU loose (declare lawful) on earth must be what is already loosed in heaven." (Matthew 16:19 Amplified Bible) Yes, WE have the 'keys' that bring the Kingdom of heaven to bear upon the earth. WE are the ones who legally bind and loose in the earth. "Nevertheless the LORD raised up JUDGES, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them." (Judges 2:16) We are the deliverers the world is waiting for.

Perhaps we can learn something from some of the rogue judges in the American judicial system. It is time we issue decrees that supercede law! "You shall also decide and decree a thing, and it shall be established for you; and the light [of God's favor] shall shine upon your ways." (Job 22:28 Amplified Bible) I believe that many of our prayer efforts in intercession and travail will be shifting to decreeing God's purpose into reality, commanding this earth realm to bow in submission to the will of the Father; "Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." (Matthew 6:10) I believe that the Father is restoring the spiritual Tabernacle of David to establish His seat of authority, to establish His Throne in the earth. "And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, JUDGING, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness." (Isaiah 16:5) Remember who it is that sits in the Throne?... "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit WITH ME in My throne..." (Revelation 3:21) It is time to JUDGE, it is time to be hasting righteousness. This is the day when the Father is restoring JUDGES as at the first.

Recently the Lord spoke to me quite clearly concerning the subject at hand. Therefore I offer the following for your edification and discernment:

Prophetic Word:
"I'm raising up a people who speak with My authority. A people who have listened for My voice, and know My heart. I am raising up deliverers from Zion who declare My purpose into reality. This is indeed a day of declaration, a time when you shall declare a thing and see it established. The day of hesitation and doubt are gone. Understand exactly Who it is that is within you! This is the day to judge the mount of Edom, to overthrow carnal reasoning and unbelief, for the Kingdom is the Lord's. This is the day wherein I shall have you to declare that heaven invade earth all around you."

"I am establishing 'judges' in the earth who shall speak forth My decree and hasten righteousness, for I am reclaiming and restoring that which is Mine. This IS a day of restoration. This IS a day of reformation. This IS a day of resolution."

"Stand up and be of great courage, for this is a day of unprecedented favor. Know that I have gone before you and prepared the way, so when you speak forth My declaration in the earth it SHALL come to manifestation. I am asking, Who will speak forth for Me?... Who shall declare My generation, My purpose and plan in the earth? Will YOU be that one?"

The question is, my friend, Will WE be the ones that the Father is restoring as JUDGES in the earth?

Just As I Promised

Shirley Lise

Just as I promised, I am moving you on and into the fullness of My Spirit. I will take you into deeper and deeper waters. I will submerse you in the power of My presence. I will move you on to inherit riches untold. I will move you on and into believing every promise. Doors are opening. Refreshing is coming. Great grace is upon you. Grace to move you on.

Unbelief is your greatest enemy. Unbelief is the giant that looms up in front of you to throw you off track. Unbelief is the giant that defies the armies of God. When My people walk by faith, they are able to overcome the taunting of this enemy. They are able to rise above what they see and believe for those things that are accessed by faith.

Faith moves mountains and casts them into the sea. Faith is the substance that brings into being those things promised, for the promises are to those who believe and have learned how to access them by faith. So rise up in faith and do not bow down to the taunting of the enemy. Rise up and take hold of the promises by faith. Call them into being, for there is power in the tongue, power given to those who believe.

Only believe and you will see the promises fulfilled, one after another. Take My word for it!

Rise Up In Faith

Shirley Lise

riverpub@sgci.com

April 7, 2004

Just as I promised, I am moving you on and into the fullness of My Spirit. I will take you into deeper and deeper waters. I will submerse you in the power of My presence. I will move you on to inherit riches untold. I will move you on and into believing every promise. Doors are opening. Refreshing is coming. Great grace is upon you. Grace to move you on.

Unbelief is your greatest enemy. Unbelief is the giant that looms up in front of you to throw you off track. Unbelief is the giant that defies the armies of God. When My people walk by faith, they are able to overcome the taunting of this enemy. They are able to rise above what they see and believe for those things that are accessed by faith.

Faith moves mountains and casts them into the sea. Faith is the substance that brings into being those things promised, for the promises are to those who believe and have learned how to access them by faith. So rise up in faith and do not bow down to the taunting of the enemy. Rise up and take hold of the promises by faith. Call them into being, for there is power in the tongue, power given to those who believe.

Only believe and you will see the promises fulfilled, one after another. Take My word for it!

Shirley Lise http://ns1.sgci.com/~riverpub/ riverpub@sgci.com

Jakarta
Renee Smith

May 18, 2004
"The Holy Sprit whispered to me, "I AM" going to move in Jakarta"

I know this was the Holy one that spoke this to me today, as I know Nothing about Jakarta ....blessings Renee

Jakarta is My beloved One

Jakarta.. My beloved one. I want you to come away with me this day.. The hearts in My city that have been hanging in the balance between two opinions must decide Now whether I AM is their God or another.

I want to Move over Jakarta, and I will!

I want to MOVE in a Huge way in Jakarta. I WILL move in a Big way in Jakarta, and I am waiting on those in the balance to turn to me and desire My Presence in this city. They will come, I am The desirous One.

Your cries have been heard

To My handmaidens and my servants in My city ,Jakarta. You have wailed before me to come. you have done My bidding in the gates,. I have heard your cry. I will answer. The persecution has arisen because of Me, but I will send Revival for your trouble. Fear not.. I am able to keep that which you have committed to me against That Day. Look up.. your redemption does draw Nigh..

City Governments to Declare I Am

I am going to move on city governments and they will openly declare I AM Lord over Jakarta. I am sending rain in this season over my fair city.. and I want to Reign over My fair city. There will be a sign in the natural and in the spirit. My floods will pour on you. I will arise with Healing in My wings over Jakarta.

Governmental Shaking

There will be a governmental shaking over Jakarta.. I will shake the nations and the desire of the nations will come. I have spoken it of old and speak of it again. Authorities will change.. rulers that have had My people in chains will Let My people Go.. Get ready, my beloved city. I AM is coming!

Jesus As Lord And Shepherd King Of The Harvest

Catherine Brown

Scotland

Sep 29, 2004

HOW IS THE CHURCH TO BE PREPARED TO MOVE INTO NEW LEVELS OF DIVINE COMPASSION?

Having opened our hearts to flow in Christ's compassion, it is important to realize that we need to be willing to allow the Holy Spirit to prepare us to carry the weight of such a pure and perfect anointing from Father. There are certain components of Christ's nature that must be sown into the hearts of believers in order to help ready us to carry the anointing of compassion. One such aspect of Christ's nature is that of purity in motivation.

THE MULTITUDES

When Jesus looked on the multitudes he was moved by compassion. He didn't see the multitudes as symbols of power or success or as a means to personal fulfillment or ministry expansion. He did not look upon the multitudes in pride with a view to increase the size and scope of his ministry. Neither did he view the multitudes with any kind of self-interest. It is sad, but true, to say that we do not always respond with such pure motivation. Sometimes in our zeal to fulfill passion, we sometimes miss compassion. May God forgive us and teach us how to look upon the multitudes with His heart.

JESUS AS LORD AND SHEPHERD KING OF THE HARVEST

"Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. When he saw the crowds he had compassion on them because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.'" Matthew 9:35-38

The crowds were harassed and helpless like sheep without a shepherd, but when Jesus looked at the multitudes He responded as a shepherd king with a servant heart, caring for them and showing compassion. He had their best interests at heart, and He let His Kingdom passion find its fulfillment in compassion through the healing and comfort of the sick and afflicted.

It is of significance that the Lord spoke of harvest in the same breath as compassion. Compassion is a key to unlock the end time harvest.

BECOME LIKE A CHILD

"At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, 'Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?' He called a little child and had him stand among them. And he said, 'I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.'" Matthew 18:1-4

The parable of the little child is a wonderful illustration of pure as opposed to impure motivation. The disciples were arguing amongst themselves about who was the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. By way of response, Jesus called a little child to stand in their midst and said to them that in order to enter the Kingdom of heaven they (and we) must become like little children.

I wonder what it was about the little boy that the Lord saw as being the epitome of humility? I love the fact that this child (of God) had no agenda, save obedience to Christ. His Master called his name and he came and stood at the feet of Jesus immediately, with no argument or demand for recognition. Sadly, the disciples were not so selfless in their desire for recognition and reputation. However, before we are too hard on them, let's pause a moment and allow Holy Spirit to reveal to us if we have been guilty of a similar response and let's prayerfully repent for any flesh-like desires for recognition by man.

May we become like the small boy, who had no thoughts of self - instead he was totally Christ-centered. Deep in his heart, the wee boy knew the greatest truth of all - that Christ and Christ alone is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. He had no desire to elevate himself, he simply wanted to serve Jesus. He was humble and did exactly what Jesus asked of him, when he was asked. He did not argue back or question Jesus. He was simply obedient and stood with his Master awaiting instruction. He didn't have an agenda! May we emulate this child's faith and surrender to Christ.

LEARN TO SERVE

"Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down, asked a favor of him. 'What is it you want?' he asked. She said, 'Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom.' 'You don't know what you are asking,' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?' 'We can,' they answered. Jesus said to them, 'You will indeed drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father.'

"When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. Jesus called them together and said, 'You know that the rulers of the gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave - just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'"* Matthew 20:20-28

Compassion and the anointing for miracles contained therein, is a mighty and weighty anointing from the Lord, and our hearts must be sifted from pride to permit us to walk in it with purity. In Matthew 20, Jesus teaches his disciples concepts of Kingdom authority; relationship with God, servanthood, and authority go hand in hand. Jesus taught his disciples that they were not to lord it over people, but rather they were to serve them. A position of Kingdom authority is given from Heaven to bring glory to God.

Jesus always led his disciples by example, and His next demonstration of love serves to undergird His wonderful teaching. The very next miracle recorded by Matthew is a demonstration of the Lord's compassion.

LEARN TO SEE WITH 20-20 KINGDOM VISION

"As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, 'Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!'

"The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, 'Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!'

"Jesus stopped and called them, 'What do you want me to do for you?' he asked. 'Lord,' they answered, 'we want our sight.' Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately, they received their sight and followed him." Matthew 20:29-34

Jesus' next act of compassion is to heal two blind men and give them back their physical sight. This must surely have been a powerful living parable for the disciples, to see people and situations through the eyes of Christ. The disciples needed to have their spiritual eyes awakened to the Lord's compassion. Compassion always carries the beautiful hand of Christ, His healing touch releasing faith for miracles, for blind eyes to be opened, for deaf ears to hear, for the lame to walk, for the dead to be raised, the Gospel to be preached, the demonized to be delivered, the lost to be saved, the weary and afflicted to be comforted, the wounded to be healed, those who are bereaved to be comforted, the hungry to be fed...God's compassion knows no bounds. He wants us to see people and seemingly impossible situations with 20-20 Kingdom vision and to reach out in His compassion that He might release the anointing for miracles.

Purity of heart releases compassion. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. These blind men saw Jesus, not with physical eyes, but with eyes of faith. Not only did they receive their miracle, but they also became disciples. Compassion will harvest new disciples for Christ!

Our calling in this day is to be a people of faith who will not silence the voice of the afflicted that calls for deliverance, who will not rebuke those who cry out to Jesus for assistance, but rather we would reach out in Jesus' love and allow Him to heal and save the multitudes. Our God is the God of the impossible!

by Catherine Brown
www.gatekeepers.org.uk
Catherine@gatekeepers.org.uk

Jewish History
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

Some Scriptures & Jewish History ~ 1249, 1294, 1429, 1492, 1924, 1942
January 17, 2004
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

Luke 12:49 I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!
John 12:49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

1249 ALFONSE OF POITIERS (France)
The brother of Louis IX, he ordered the expulsion of the Jews from Poitou, France. Though his decree remained mostly on paper, it does mark the first local expulsion of Jews. Both brothers did their best to force money from their Jewish subjects.

1240 - 1292 ABRAHAM ABULAFIA (Spain)
One of the first kabbalists. He was opposed by Solomon Aderet who felt that he was almost posing as a messianic pretender. Abulafia analyzed the Hebrew alphabet and the letters in God's name, calling it "chochmat ha zeruf" (science of letter analyzation). As a young man he traveled, searching for the legendary Sambation River.

1249 - 1315 RABBI MENAHEM BEN SOLOMON MEIRI (France)
A noted Provencial Talmudist. His most famous work was entitled Bais Habehria, a commentary on three of the sections of the Talmud; Moed, Nashim and Nezikin as well as a few other tractates. An original thinker, he used the Jerusalem Talmud to clarify parts of the Babylonian Talmud, as well as using all available commentaries. He also wrote a commentary on Proverbs and Psalms, and a work on the laws of writing a Sefer Torah called Kiryat Sefer.

1240 - 1305 MOSES BEN SHEM TOV LEON (Lyon, France)
Publisher and possibly the author of the Zohar, which he attributed to the second century Tanna, Shimon bar Yochai. Written in Aramaic, it flowed with complex symbolism and mythology. It became the major component of the Kabbalah (Jewish mysticism), expounding four steps of biblical interpretation: literal, aggadic, philosophical and "Raza de Mehmanuta" - secret mystery of faith.

1240 YEAR 5000 IN CREATION
Believed to be the age of the Messiah. For this reason, many Jews did not prepare a proper defense against the Crusaders and were helpless against their onslaught.
1240 - 1305 MOSES BEN SHEM TOV LEON (Lyon, France)
Publisher and possibly the author of the Zohar, which he attributed to the second century Tanna, Shimon bar Yochai. Written in Aramaic, it flowed with complex symbolism and mythology. It became the major component of the Kabbalah (Jewish mysticism), expounding four steps of biblical interpretation: literal, aggadic, philosophical and "Raza de Mehmanuta" - secret mystery of faith.
===
Numbers 14:29 your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me,

Deut.14:29 And the Levite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which [are] within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

John 14:29And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

Mat 14:29And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

Isaiah 14:29 Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, Because the rod that struck you is broken; For from the serpent's root a viper will come out, And its fruit will be a flying serpent.

Luke 14:29,30 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish [it], all that behold [it] begin to mock him, Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

Proverbs 14:29 He who is slow to anger has great understanding, But he who is quick-tempered exalts folly.

1424 COLOGNE (Germany)
Jews were banned from the city. This ban remained in effect until Cologne was annexed by revolutionary France in 1794.

1424 KAIFENG (China)
Jewish physician Y'en Ch'eng was given the surname "Chao" as an honor by the Emperor. This family, which probably originated in India and Babylon, became one of the leading Chinese Jewish families.

1427 POPE MARTIN V (Italy)
Ordered the Italian fleets to cease transporting Jews to Eretz Israel. The basis for the order was the claim that the Jews were responsible for building a Mosque on Mount Zion in the hope of eventually turning it into a synagogue. This made immigration to Eretz Israel far more difficult.
===
1492 (9 Av 5252) SPAIN
The expulsion of the Jews from Spain.

1492 January 2, GRENADA (Spain)
The last Moorish stronghold was overrun, adding even more Jews to Catholic Spain. Under the terms of surrender, the Jewish inhabitants were promised protection by the King and Queen. Within a few months the razing of the Jewish quarter was ordered by Ferdinand.

1492 March 31, EDICT OF EXPULSION (Spain)
Since professing Jews were not under the jurisdiction of the Inquisition, the Church leveled a ritual murder accusation against them in Granada and was thus able to call for the expulsion of both Jews and Marranos from Spain. The Marranos themselves were accused of complicity in the case, and both were ordered to leave within four months. Torquemada, the director of the Inquisition (and incidentally of Jewish descent), defended this against Don Isaac Abarbanel. It is estimated that approximately 200,000 Jews were living in Spain. Approximately half of them found temporary sanctuary in Portugal. Another 50,000 fled to friendlier shores and the rest remained as "Christians".

1492 August 3, COLUMBUS (Spain-America)
Set sail for the New World. His journal recorded the sighting of some vessels carrying Jews away from Spain. The loan for his voyage was advanced by Luis de Santangel, chancellor of the Royal household, and Gabriel Sanchez, high treasurer of Aragon. Both were born into Marrano families.

1492 October 12, LOUIS DE TORRES (Spain-America)
He converted to Christianity right before sailing and served as an interpreter for Christopher Columbus. He became the first white man to set foot in the Western Hemisphere. Landing with Columbus, he discovered and introduced tobacco into Europe. In the New World Torres saw a bird he thought to be a peacock and called it a "tuki" (Hebrew for peacock - I Kings X22). Today that bird is known as a turkey.

1492 October 24, MECKLENBURG (Germany)
Jews were again accused of stabbing a consecrated wafer. Twenty-seven Jews were burned, including two women, and all the Jews were expelled from the duchy. The spot where they were killed is still called the Judenberg.

===
1 Samuel 19:24 He also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

John 19:24 Then they said to one another, “Let’s not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be,” that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, “They parted my garments among them. For my cloak they cast lots.” Therefore the soldiers did these things.

Genesis 19:24 Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

Acts 19:24, 25 For a certain [man] named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen; Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

1924 - 1930 FOURTH ALIYA (Eretz Israel)
Was comprised mainly of older Jews who feared conditions in Europe and were barred from the United States by its closed door policy (the Johnson Act). Nearly half of the 62,000 immigrants were from Poland. Due to an economic slump, 11,000 of the immigrants subsequently left the country.

1924 HAROLD MAURICE ABRAHAMS (1899-1978), (Britain)
Won the gold medal for 100 meters in the Paris Olympics and a silver medal in the relay. Although his active career was cut short by a leg injury, he continued to be active in sports. The story of Abrahams and Eric Liddell, both members of the British team, later became the basis of the 1981 film "Chariots of Fire."

1924 HILLEL FOUNDATION (USA)
Was started by Benjamin Frankel. The first Hillel House was opened at the University of Illinois. It provided religious and social functions, as well as counseling for the (often assimilated) Jewish students on campuses.

1924 JOHNSON ACT (USA)
Immigration quotas were reduced to two percent of the number of foreign born persons of each nationality that was present in 1890. As a result, immigration was reduced to a trickle. Between 1933-41 the same amount of German Jews (157,000) entered the USA as entered in 1906.

1924 JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE
The Joint agreed to donate funds to help the Russian government resettle Jews in the Ukraine. Fewer than fifteen thousand were actually resettled.

1924 MADISON GRANT (USA)
Published his final edition of The Passing of the Great Race. Predicting that equality would eventually doom the nation, he promoted racist ideology and his hatred for "inferior people".

1924 - 1965 ELI COHEN (Egypt-Eretz Israel)
Israel intelligence officer, Cohen succeeded in infiltrating the highest echelons of the Syrian military and civilian government before he was caught and hung in 1965. The Syrian government is still refusing to allow his widow to rebury him in Israel.

1924 LAUREN BACALL (Betty Joan Perske) (USA)
"The Look" as Warner Brothers billed her, made her film debut starring opposite her husband-to-be, Humphrey Bogart in "To Have and Have Not" (1944). Over the next half century she performed in over 35 films. When her movie career cooled somewhat, she turned to Broadway, winning awards for her roles in Applause (1970) and Woman of the Year (1981). Although Bacall was never known by moviegoers as a "Jewish actress", according to her autobiography, she always felt proud of her Jewish heritage, which was rooted primarily in her love for her first-generation Jewish immigrant family.

1924 August 8, MEXICO
President Plutarco Elias Calles declared that his country would accept Jewish immigration. By 1937, Mexico reversed itself and many countries, including Poland and Romania, were allowed only 100 immigrant visas per year.

1924 September 22, RUSSIA
Chjekists (secret police) rounded up all known Zionists. Over thirty thousand were arrested and the Zionist organization was forced to move underground.

==

Luke 19:42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things [which belong] unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

Joshua19:40 And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.
19:41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Irshemesh, 19:42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,
19:43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,
9:44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,
19:45 And Jehud, and Beneberak, and Gathrimmon,
19:46 And Mejarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho.
9:47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.
19:48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.
19:49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:
19:50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnathserah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

John 19:42 There therefore, on account of the preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was near, they laid Jesus.

1942 January, HUNGARIAN TROOPS (Yugoslavia)
Massacred several thousands Jews in the Bacska region of Yugoslavia under their control. Although this was not official policy, the perpetrators were able to flee to Germany.

1942 January 1, UNITED NATIONS (Washington, DC, USA)
Was founded as an assembly of the nations fighting Germany, Italy and Japan - the Axis powers. Twenty-six nations were among the original signatories. In the fall of that year, the Revisionist (New Zionist) Organization of America called on the United Nations to apply the “Four Freedoms” as delineated by President Roosevelt a year earlier to the Jewish people as well and to allow them to be represented. Roosevelt’s four freedoms included speech and expression, religion, want (economic),and fear (arms reduction etc).

1942 January 16, SENITSA VERSHOVSKY (Ukraine)
The mayor of the city of Kremenchug was shot for protecting Jews. Kremenchug had over 30,000 Jews before the war, who made up over 40% of the population.

1942 January 20, WANNSEE CONFERENCE (Berlin)
This conference was meant to coordinate the activities of the ministries involved with the Nazi Party and SS agencies in carrying out the ”Final Solution”. The conference was convened by Heydrich and assisted by Eichmann. Heads of the Gestapo and other government offices worked on the bureaucratic details of the methods and logistics needed in carrying out the “Final Solution”. Included in the discussions were plans for the mass sterilization of Jews who had mixed marriages, as well as the most efficient methods of mass killings. Their target was the Jewish population in 34 countries which they put at 11 million.

1942 January 23, UNITED PARTISANS ORGANIZATION (UPO) (Vilna, Lithuania)
Also known as the FPO (Fareynikte Partisaner Organisatsye) was founded in Vilna. It was the first organization which united the left-wing Zionists, the revisionists, the Bund and the communists. Its leaders included Isaac Wittenberg (communist), Abba Kovner (HaShomer HaTzair) and Joseph Glazman (revisionist). They were later joined by Abraham Chovnik (Bund). Its goals included armed revolt, sabotage, and contact with partisans in the forests. Like other groups, the main debate was whether to fight in the ghetto or join the partisans. Wittenberg convinced the others to accept the former. An underground press was founded which played a vital role in forging identification cards as well as bringing information to the populace.

1942 January 31, ESTONIA
Franz Stahlecker, commander of Einsatzgruppe A , in a report to Himmler, affirmed that there were no more Jews in Estonia and only a few thousand left in Latvia. By the end of the war, 90% of all Jews in the Baltic countries had been eliminated. Stahlecker was killed by Estonian partisans two months later.

1942 February, EDON REDLICH - “GONDA” (Theresienstadt, Czechoslovakia)
A member of Maccabi HaTzair, helped in opening the first children’s home in Theresienstadt.Redlich organized psychologists, teachers, and medical personnel to supervise about 2,300 children. He was sent to Auschwitz in September 1944 and did not return.

1942 February 1, OSWALD POHL (Germany)
A former naval paymaster, was placed in charge of the WVHA (The Economic and Administrative Head Office of the SS). He ruled the concentration camps from this office with the aim of achieving Himmler’s goal: to use the camps to provide funding for the SS. Pohl was in charge of the conditions in the camps and arranged for everything from use of the clothing to the depositing of gold fillings into the SS accounts. He was hanged June 8, 1951.

1942 February 1, VIDKUN QUISLING (Norway)
The head of the pro-Nazi National Union Party (Nasjonal Smaling) was appointed prime minister by Josef Terboven, the Nazi commissioner. Quisling initiated anti-Jewish measures including confiscation of property and the establishing of labor camps. Half of Norway’s 1,600 Jews were deported to Auschwitz on October 25, 1942.

1942 February 12, ABRAHAM "YAIR" STERN (Tel Aviv, Eretz Israel)
The leader of what later became known as Lehi (the Stern Group) was shot by the British in his apartment in Tel Aviv.

1942 February 16, COMMITTEE FOR A JEWISH ARMY (New York, USA)
Led by Hillel Kook (alias Peter Bergson) took out an ad in the New York Times: “For Sale to Humanity, 70,000 Jews, Guaranteed Human Beings at $50 a Piece.” Written by Ben Hecht, a famous Jewish playwright, it brought to the forefront the plight of Jews in Romania and demanded that the United Nations play a role in the rescue of European Jewry. The following week, Senator Edwin Johnson of Colorado echoed the demand.

1942 February 24, SINKING OF THE STRÜMA (Turkey)
One of the "illegal" immigrant ships on which 768 of the 769 passengers perished. The Stürma was a former coal barge-turned-rescue ship, and although not seaworthy, loaded 769 passengers at Constanza, Romania on December 12, 1941. The ship reached Istanbul, Turkey, but the passengers were not permitted to land until the British would issue assurances that they would be allowed to proceed to Palestine. The British refused to allow them to land under the White Paper agreement of 1939. After two months of pressure, the British relented and agreed to allow children to leave the ship. Although they promised to notify the Turks, they delayed for 10 days. Giving up, the Turks had the boat towed out to the Black Sea where it was sunk, presumably by a Soviet submarine.

1942 March, - 1945 January 17, AUSCHWITZ (Poland)
The largest concentration and death camp began to take in Jews. Auschwitz was divided into three camps. Auschwitz I held both Jews and non-Jews. Auschwitz II, better know as Birkenau, was the main extermination camp. Auschwitz III was used for Jewish slave labor. Over 1,000,000 Jews were exterminated in Auschwitz.

1942 March 1, BARANOVICHI (Russia)
The Germans demanded that the head of the Judenrat, Joshua Izikzon, hand over 3,000 old people. Izikzon refused, stating that they were all ”dear to me.” Three days later, with the help of Latvians and Poles, the first massacre took place. Izikson and his wife (both naked), were forced to watch and then were shot. The Belorussians, who dug the pits, were also killed to get rid of witnesses.

1942 March 2, - 1943 April, BELZEC (Poland)
The second death camp (and former labor camp) became operational. Over 600,000 Jews, mostly Polish, were murdered in the camp before it was closed by the Germans. Odilo Globocnik was its first commandant. Globocnik was appointed by Himmler to be in charge of the European sector of the "Final Solution" and was involved in organizing Belzec, Sobibor, Majdanek, and Treblinka. He took poison in May 1945. Christian Wirth, another commandant, was killed by Tito's partisans. When the camp was abandoned, local villages were attracted to the site and dug for valuables. In order to obliterate the site, the Germans plowed it over and turned it into a farm run by one of the Ukrainian guards.

1942 March 2, MINSK ROUNDUP (Belorussia)
The Nazis demanded that the Judenrat, hand over 5000 people for deportation. When the Judenrat refused to comply, they dug a pit in a ravine in the center of the ghetto and buried alive anyone they found including the entire Shpalerna Street orphanage run by Dr. Chernis.

1942 March 6, SLOVAKIAN RABBIS
Reported to the Slovakian government that "the deportations mean physical extermination."

1942 March 10, LAZLO BARDOSSY (Hungary)
The pro-German prime minister, was ousted and Miklos (Nicholas) Kallay was appointed in his place. Although Kallay did stop deportations and executions, he kept all the anti-Jewish measures in place.

1942 March 14, S. BERTRAND JACOBSON (USA)
The chief representative in Eastern Europe for the Joint, held a press conference. He estimated that the Nazis had already killed 250,000 Jews in the Ukraine and that the Jews of Slovakia would probably begin to be deported very soon. Their deportations actually began within a few weeks.

1942 March 14, VATICAN (Italy)
Sent a letter to a Slovak official protesting the deportation of Slovakian Jews. The reply by Foreign Minister Vojtech Tuka assured the Vatican that the Jews were being settled in labor camps and that their conditions were “humane.” Eichmann and his lieutenant, Dieter Wisliceny, organized “letters” from those deported, to be sent upon their arrival to Auschwitz. They also organized an “inspection” by Fritz Fiala, a pro-Nazi Slovak editor whose report and pictures (censored directly by Himmler) were published in the Slovak and Romanian press.

1942 March 16, PALESTINE POST (Eretz Israel)
Printed a small article at the bottom of the page entitled “Warsaw Jews Threatened, Quarter million Jews massacred.” Most papers in Eretz Israel refused to print the reports, considering them exaggerated. They also did not wish to “alarm the world.”

1942 March 23, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY (England)
In a speech to the House of Lords, called upon the British government to “end its procrastination” and establish a temporary refuge for the Jews. The motion was voted upon and approved – although nothing was done about it.

1942 March 26, AUSCHWITZ, POLAND
The first Jewish transport arrived under the command of Rudolf Hoess, containing 1000 Jews from Slovakia and 1000 women from Ravensbruk. According to a conservative estimate, from March 1942 until the liberation on January 27, 1945 over 750,000 Jews were gassed within its gates. Hoess himself estimated it at 1,135,000.

1942 March 28, FIRST DEPORTATIONS TO AUSCHWITZ (France)
From France. Many of the 1100 prominent foreign Jews had been arrested the previous December. Some had been held in the Drancy camp, others in the camp at Compiegne.

1942 March 28, FRANCE
First deportations to Auschwitz from France. One thousand prominent Jews who had been arrested the previous December were sent to Auschwitz.

1942 April 6, JEWISH ANTI-FACIST COMMITTEE (Russia)
Was founded, with its goal being to drum up Jewish support for the Soviet war effort. Although it was headed by the famous actor Solomon Mikholes, it was actually the initiative of the Soviet government. Other important members were Ilya Ehrenburg (the Russian author), Solomon Lozovsky, a member of the Communist Central Committee, and David Bergelson (a well known Yiddish writer). Mikohels was killed by the secret police in January 1948. Bergelson and Lozovsky were liquidated by Stalin in 1952. Only Ehrenburg survived, often clashing with Soviet authorities.

1942 April 10, PARTISAN UNIT (Minsk, Belorussia)
Was set up by Israel Lapidus who fled the ghetto with 20 men. His unit, known as the Kutuzov detachment, became very active in the area, bombing German supplies even in Minsk itself. Two weeks later, another group under Nahum Feldman also fled the ghetto establishing the Budyonny detachment, of whom many of its guides were 10 –13 years old. All of the units set up became mixed with non-Jews, although many Jews remained in command. The main force behind these efforts was Hersh Smolar (Smoliar), a Communist activist from Bialystok who managed to survive the war and later immigrated to Israel. All of them received direct help from local Belorussians. It is estimated that out of the approximately 10,000 Jews who succeeded in fleeing the ghetto, more than half survived.

1942 April 13, SERGEANT ANTON SCHMID (Lithuania)
Serving in the Wermacht was executed by the Nazis. Schmid was accused of disobeying orders after saving over 250 Jews near Vilna. In 1964 he was awarded the title "Righteous Among the Nations" by the Israeli government. In May 2000, the German government renamed a military base, Feldwebel Anton Schmid Kaserne, in his honor.

1942 April 20, ZDZIECIOL GHETTO (Dyatlovo, Belorussia)
Alter Dworetsky and all the members of the Judenrat were forced to flee after their activities on behalf of the partisans became known to the Germans. Dworetsky tried to organize an attack on the Germans in the city but the Russian partisans refused to join them and later killed him. Dworetsky's efforts paid off when 800 people succeeded in escaping the ghetto and joined the Orlinski detachment of Russia partisans as a Jewish unit under Hersch Kaplinski. Dytatlovo was the birthplace of Israel Meir HaCohen (the Chafetz Chayim) as well as Jacob Wolf Kranz of Dubno (the Dubno Maggid). By August there were no Jews left.

1942 May, - 1943 October, SOBIBOR (Lublin, Poland)
Was a death camp in which approximately 250,000 were murdered. Richard Thomalla and afterwards, Franz Stangl, were the commandants of the camp, which was closed after a revolt. Thomalla "Architect" of Belzec, Sobibor and Treblinka was killed by the Russian secret service in 1945. Stangel managed to evade arrest and fled to Brazil with the knowledge of the Austrian government He was finally arrested and sentenced to life in prison in 1970 but died of a heart attack the following year.

1942 May 8, TUVIA BIELSKI (Novogrudok region - Poland)
Together with his brothers, Zusye and Eshahol, encouraged entire families to escape from ghettos and join his fighters in Belorussia. He began with 100 men, and they were known as the Zhukov Detachment. By December 1943, his "Family" had 1,230 men, women, and children - only 30% of whom could fight.

1942 May 11, THE BILTMORE PROGRAM (New York, USA)
Was adopted in an emergency meeting (at the Biltmore Hotel in New York) of the Conference of American Zionists. The program, proposed by Ben Gurion and Abba Hillel Silver, totally rejected the British White Paper and called for the establishment of a Jewish state. There was opposition to the proposal by the "non- Zionists" and those who believed in a bi-national state (HaShomer HaTzair).

1942 May 15, SLOVAKIA
Passed legislation exempting any Jew who converted prior to March 14, 1939 (the date of the establishment of the Slovakian state) from being deported. During the previous year, thousands of Jews had tried to convert, hoping that despite the Nuremberg Laws, their conversion would save them.

1942 May 21, KORETZ (Ukraine)

Germans and Ukrainians killed 2,200 people, including the wife and 13 year old daughter of Moshe Gildenman who was soon to become famous as the partisan “Uncle (Dyadya) Misha”. Gildenman succeeded in escaping with his son, Simcha, and a few others with one pistol and five rounds of ammunition. His groups slowly grew in strength and were eventually absorbed into Saburov’s brigade group. They were always known as Uncle Misha’s Jewish groups. During the war, Gildenman received the Order of the Red Star and finished the war with his son in Berlin. After the war, his son returned to Koretz and upon meeting the Ukrainian who killed his mother and sister - shot him.

1942 May 25, JOSEPH FELDMAN (Germany)
Held the rank of colonel in the Red Army. He was asked to go to Germany and set up an underground among Russian POWs. In April 1943, the Brotherhood of Prisoners of War (BZV) planned an audacious attack in Munich itself. Unfortunately, the Gestapo arrested German anti-Nazis who knew of their existence. Feldman was eventually caught and died on March 10, 1944, refusing to give over any information even after being tortured repeatedly.

1942 May 27, YELLOW BADGE (Belgium)
The Belgium administration refused to disseminate the order for Jews to wear the yellow badge, and the Germans were forced to do it themselves.

1942 June 6, MORDECAI GEBIRTIG (1877–1942) (Cracow, Poland)
The famous Yiddish and songwriter was shot and his wife and daughters were sent to a death camp. Gebertig’s Undzer Shtetl Brent ("Our Town is Burning") was written in 1938 after a pogrom and won instant fame. Other famous compositions were Sug nit Keinmol (Never Say Never) and Mayn Cholem (My Dream).

1942 June 6, YELLOW BADGE (France)
Jews were ordered to wear a yellow badge in the occupied section of France. Many Jews marched down the streets of Paris wearing their war medals together with the star and were applauded by the crowds. Xavier Vallat, Commissariat of Jewish Affairs, told the Germans that he would not enforce the regulation and was replaced by Darquier de Pellepoix . A month later, Jews were banned from public places and only allowed one hour a day for shopping.

1942 June 22, GENERAL ERWIN ROMMEL (Egyptian border)
With Rommel’s approach from the south, a general draft was instituted in Eretz Israel. Twenty thousand Jews joined the army.

1942 June 23, - 1943 October 14, TREBLINKA II (Poland)
Death camp went into operation with the first transport of Warsaw’s Jews. (Treblinka II was different from Treblinka I which was a labor camp and also housed political prisoners). Over 750,000 Jews were murdered there. The camp was closed and dismantled after a revolt.The camp was organized by Odilo Globocnik. Those that ran it included Joseph (Sepp) Hirtreiter and Kurt Franz, who were sentenced to life imprisonment, and Franz Stangl, who was caught in Brazil and sentenced in 1971 to life imprisonment but died the same year.

1942 June 25, ARTUR SAMUEL ZYGELEBOYM (London, England)
And his compatriot, Dr. Ignacy Schwartzbart, arrived in London and released the most comprehensive account of confirmed massacres to date. Known as the Bund Report, it gave detailed information according to date and location. The report estimated that 700,000 Jews had already been murdered and concluded that the Germans planned to “annihilate” all the Jews in Europe. The Boston Globe published the information the next day, making it the first American newspaper to carry the report.

1942 June 31, BELGIUM
Four Jewish partisans dressed as Gestapo officers entered the Judenrat known as the Association de juifs de Belgique (AJB) and destroyed the records and lists of Jews, thus hampering the German effort at deportation.

1942 July, DEPORTATIONS BEGAN IN THE NETHERLANDS
Jews were first sent to two transit camps, Westerbork and Vught and from there to Auschwitz and Sobibor. Approximately 13,000 Jews were successfully hidden by both Jews and non-Jews. Out of 140,000 Jews before the war, only 35,000 survived.

1942 July, VICHY FRANCE
Pierre Laval, the new premier of Vichy France (April 1942), agreed to a German request to expel 100,000 Jews from France. Laval conditioned it on limiting it to "foreign born Jews" further stating that neither was he concerned with their children. Within a month, 50,000 foreign born Jews were handed over to the Germans for deportation. Laval was executed for treason October 15, 1945 in France.

1942 July 1, OBERTYN (Ukraine)
As the Russians withdrew in advance of the German offensive, the local party secretary urged the Jews to join them. The Jews decided to remain, believing the promises of the Ukrainian nationalists that Hitler only wanted them to work. The next day, Ukrainian mobs rounded up all the Jews from the neighboring towns, tied theirs hands with barbed wire and threw them off the ferry into the Dniester river. There were two survivors.

1942 July 2, PIERRE LAVAL (Vichy, France)
The premier of Vichy France reinstated in April 1942, agreed to a German request to expel 100,000 Jews from France. Laval conditioned it by limiting it to “foreign-born Jews,” further stating that he was also not concerned about their children. Within a month, 50,000 foreign-born Jews were handed over to the Germans for deportation. Laval was executed for treason on October 15, 1945 in France.

1942 July 10, DR. JOSEF MENGELE (Auschwitz, Poland)
Began medical experiments in Auschwitz. His experiments on twins were among the most horrific. Many were as young as 5 years old and they were usually murdered after the experiments. Of the approximately 3,000 twins experimented on, very few survived. Mengele succeeded in evading capture and was rumored to have died in 1979 in South America.

1942 July 16 - 17, LARGEST AKTION OF FRENCH JEWS (Paris, France)
12,884 people, among them 4,051 children, were arrested and imprisoned in the Paris Velodrome d’Hiver cycling stadium. The action had been postponed so as not to conflict with Bastille Day. People were kept there for five days without almost any food and water. In general, the French police would only participate in roundups of foreign Jews, while the Gestapo itself would act against French Jews.

1942 July 19, BARANOVICHI (Russia)
Plans were made for the outbreak of a revolt. When the Judenrat heard of it, they threatened the fighters with exposure, warning them that such an action would bring disaster down on the whole town. The revolt was postponed and in the end, never took place. In any town that the population and the Judenrat were not behind a revolt, the chances that it would take place at all, let alone succeed, were almost nil. In most cases, the Judenrat counseled against revolt or even mass escape, afraid of the repercussions for the rest of the population. Others supported resistance, in spite of the possible consequences. Still others e.g. Bialystok and Vilna were ambiguous.

1942 July 19, - October 6, OPERATION (AKTION) REINHARD (Poland)
Was ordered by Himmler and carried out by Odilo Globocnik. It included mass deportations of Jews within what was known as the General Government in Poland, from small towns to 7 major ghettos. All this was to make it easier for their eventual deportation in the "Final Solution."

1942 July 20, RABBI ALEXANDER ZUSHA FRIEDMAN (Frydman) (Warsaw, Poland)
A leader in Agudat Israel, called on the people not to oppose the Germans with force. “God will not permit his people to be destroyed. We must wait and a miracle will certainly occur.” Agudat Israel, like many groups in the Judenrat, were afraid that any “violent” opposition would mean the liquidation of the ghetto.

1942 July 20, WARSAW (Poland)
Alexander Fridman, a leader in Agudat Israel, called on the people not to oppose the Germans with force. "God will not permit his people to be destroyed. We must wait and a miracle will certainly occur". Agudat Israel, like many in the Judenrat were afraid that any "violent" opposition would mean the liquidation of the ghetto.

1942 July 22, ANTI FACIST BLOC (Warsaw, Poland)
Was formed and composed of HaShomer HaTzair, Dror, and Poale Zion movements. The organization had no weapons and was able to do almost nothing when the mass deportations known as the “great liquidation” began the next day. One of its commanders, Yitzchak (“Antek”) Zuckerman, together with his wife Zivia Lubetkin, played important roles in the revolt and later in the forests. Both survived the war and were among the founders of Lochmaei Hagettaot.

1942 July 22, ARMED RESISTANCE IN NESVIZ (Belorussia)
A small town in former Russian territory with less then 6,000 Jews prior to the war. Four thousand had been killed on October 30, 1941 after which the head of the Judenrat, Magalif, began to work with the underground. When the final Aktion came, all those left attacked the Germans with knives, hatchets, sticks, and home made incendiary devices. They then set the ghetto in fire. Only 25 Jews succeeded in reaching the forest and joining the partisan units. Over 40 Germans were either killed or wounded. Many similar incidents occurred in small ghettos in this region, such as Kletsk (on the same day), where 400 people broke out of the ghetto.

1942 July 22, THE GREAT LIQUIDATION (Warsaw, Poland)
Began. Each day, between 5-6,000 Jews were brought to the Umschlagplatz (literally 'transshipment square')on Stawki street and sent to Treblinka in cattle cars. This continued until September 12, 1942.

1942 July 24, - ADAM CZERNIAKOW (1880–1942) (Warsaw, Poland)
The leader of the Jewish council of Warsaw, the Judenrat, committed suicide. Czerniakow had held the position for 3 years and kept a diary of over 1,000 pages that chronicled the formation of the ghetto up to the beginning of the forced transports. The Germans had ordered him to provide them with a list of names for deportation. His response was a list of his own name written hundreds of times. The day before his suicide, the Nazi officer in charge of the deportation procedure, Sturmbannfuehrer (major) Hoefle, threatened to shoot his wife if he didn’t cooperate. In his suicide note he writes "I am powerless, my heart trembles in sorrow and compassion. I can no longer bear all this."

1942 July 24, DERECHIN (Poland)
After witnessing the murder of his sister and parents a few months earlier, Dr. Yehezkel Atlas joined with Boris Bulat and Pavel Bulak to form a partisan unit which included the surviving families from Derechin and the surrounding area. His second in command was a man of unbelievable strength named Eliyahu Kowienski. Atlas told those joining him ”Every additional day in your life is not yours but belongs to your murdered families. You must avenge them.”

1942 July 25, GENERAL POLITICAL MEETING (Warsaw, Poland)
Was held with representatives from the Joint, General Zionists, left-wing Zionists, Bund, Agudat Israel, communists and Jewish socialists, as well as the historians Emanuel Ringeblum, Dr. Shipper and others. Everyone except Rabbi Alexander Zusha Friedman and Dr. Isaac Shipper agreed that although there would be little help from the outside world and it would be like “a fly fighting an elephant”– resistance was the only answer. Dr. Shipper’s position was that any defense would bring about the total destruction of the ghetto and Rabbi Friedman called on them to believe that God would help them through the Allies and the Russian army.

1942 July 28, JEWISH FIGHTING ORGANIZATION (ZOB) (Warsaw, Poland)
(Zydowska Organizacja Bojowa) was formed at a meeting of HaShomer HaTzair, Dror, and Poalae Zion, Akiva, at HeHalutz headquarters. It was based on the Anti-Fascist Block which was supported by the Bund and led to their joining. Although the Revisionists (ZZW) did not join, they were in contact to coordinate efforts.

1942 August 5, THE GHETTO SPEAKS (USA)
A publication of the Jewish Labor Bund in the United States disclosed information on the murder of 700,000 Jews at Chelmno. Neither the American press – nor for that matter the Jewish press – were prepared to believe the reports.

1942 August 8, DR. GERHART REIGNER (Switzerland - USA)
Representative of the World Jewish Congress in Switzerland, brought the first irrefutable evidence of the German plans for their "Final Solution" to the American Consulate in Geneva. He asked that the Vice Counsel Howard Elting send it to the State Department and to Rabbi Stephan Wise. Elting sent it on to the American Legation in Bern along with a note that confirming that Reigner was “serious and balanced". They in turn sent a telegram to the State Department on September 11 with a note advising that it was probably "a war rumor." Although it was decided to send a copy to Wise ,Elbridge Dubrow, a State Department official , recommended that Bern decline to send any more such messages which could reach a third party. The State Department, especially Gordon Hull and Sumner Wells, refused to send it on to Roosevelt and told Wise, after he approached them, not to publicize it until it could be "confirmed". U.S. officials withheld the news for three months.

1942 August 9, MIR REVOLT (Belorussia)
Only 850 Jews were left in the town after the Nazis killed 1500 on November 9, 1941. They were transferred to the old Mirski fortress where many began to plan a revolt. Informed of an impending Aktion, two hundred young people decided to escape and join the partisans rather than try to fight the Germans in the town. Over 15,000 Jews fought under the Russians partisans alone. A few days later, on August 13, all those who were left were murdered four days later.

1942 August 10, DERECHIN (Poland)
Yechezkel Atlas helped organize 300 partisans to retake the town. 17 Germans and 2 Lithuanians were killed. Another 44 were captured and executed over the Jewish mass grave.

1942 August 11, MOSCOW RADIO BROADCAST (Russia)
Described how Jews were forced to dig their own graves in the Nazi-occupied Minsk region.

1942 August 13, SWITZERLAND
For the first time, Swiss police hand over to the Germans Jewish refugees who had entered Switzerland "illegally."

1942 August 20, FIRST HAND REPORT OF THE "FINAL SOLUTION" (Berlin)
Kurt Gerstein, a member of the SS, reported in detail the existence of extermination camps to Swedish Consul Baron Gören von Otter. Baron von Otter conveyed it to the head of the Swedish legation in Berlin, which refused to pass it on to the allies until August 1945. Gerstein tried again to speak to Papal Nuncio Cesare Orsenigo, who threw him out. Gerstein had joined the Nazi movement early on but left it in 1935 disillusioned. He joined the SS after his sister-in-law had been killed by their Euthanasia program with the intent to "see its workings.. and proclaim them to the world." Gerstein surrendered to the Americans and presented them with accurate information regarding Zyklon B gas and his biography. He was being held in a French prison with other SS prisoners when he allegedly hanged himself.

1942 August 22, METROPOLITAN ANDREY SHEPTYTSKY (Ukraine)
Wrote Pope Pius XII describing the atrocities of the Nazis. Although Sheptytsky initially welcomed the Germans, he had done so because of his belief in Ukrainian independence. Once he witnessed the scope of the persecutions, he wrote to Himmler himself. The Pope's reply urged him to show patience.

1942 August 24, FRANCE
Handed over to the Germans around 15,000 foreign-born Jews. By the end of the month, 25,000 Jews were deported, although not from the "free" zone.

1942 August 25, RESISTANCE IN THE SARNY GHETTO (Ukraine)
Was organized after being informed that deportations would soon begin. On the day of the revolt, the Judenrat ordered the organizers to cease all activities, claiming that resistance would be harmful since they would only be deported for work camps. Most of the inhabitants allowed themselves to be convinced, and the revolt was postponed. Between August 27-29, most of the 14,000 Jews were murdered. Only a few succeeded in escaping to the forest.

1942 August 26, MARIE-ROSE GINESTE (Montauban, France)
Traveled well over 100 km by bicycle to hand deliver to other churches, copies of an appeal from Monsignor Pierre-Marie Theas (bishop of Montauban), condemning the deportation of Jews and urging defiance of German orders. Four days later, he proclaimed from his church "all men Aryan or non Aryan are brothers being created by the same God.

1942 September, CONGRESSMAN EMANUEL CELLER (D N.Y) (USA)

Introduced a bill into the House of Representatives which would have permitted Jewish refugees in France, who were facing deportation to Eastern Europe, to enter the United States. Congressman Samuel Dickstein (also from New York) of the House Committee on Immigration postponed any discussion until after the elections and then helped kill the bill in the committee.

1942 September 2 - 3, LACHVA / LACHWA (Belorussia)
German troops, together with Belorussian police, surrounded the ghetto which still had 2,000 people. Dov Lopatin head of the Judenrat refused the German request to line up for deportation. Although many of the town's elders were against taking any initiative, Lopatin and the youth leaders decided to resist even without weapons. As the Germans entered, most of the town attacked them, equipped with axes, sticks, and Molotov cocktails. Between 600 to 700 Jews were killed fighting, and a further 600 succeeded in reaching the forests after killing or wounding about 100 Nazis. The rest were shot by the Germans. Many of those who reached the forests were killed by local police units. Approximately 90 people survived the war.

1942 September 3, JACOB ROSENHEIM (USA)
President of Agudat Israel received a telegram from Israel Sternbuch, his representative in Switzerland, confirming the mass murder of 100,000 Polish Jews. Rosenheim sent the letter to President Roosevelt, James G. McDonald, the president's advisor on political refugees, and Stepen Wise. McDonald also forwarded it to Eleanor Roosevelt. There was no reply from either Roosevelt.

1942 September 3, JOSEF KAPLAN (Poland)
One of the founders of the ZOB (Jewish Fighting Organization) was arrested for forging documents. Kaplan was a leader in the HaShomer HaTzair movement in Warsaw. He was requested by his movement not to emigrate and instead return to Warsaw. He was killed on September 11, 1942.

1942 September 3, REVOLT IN LACHVA (Belorussia)
Certain with the knowledge that they will soon all be executed, Dov Lopatin, head of the Judenrat, in this small town of 2,000 Jews, organized a revolt. As the Germans entered, they were attacked with axes and sticks. 600 or so were killed and the rest fled to the forests. Many of them joined partisan groups.

1942 September 12, MORDECHAI TENENBAUM - TAMAROFF (Poland)
A member of the Dror youth movement and the Jewish Fighting Organization was asked to organize the underground in the Bialystok ghetto. He also was active in organizing the Warsaw ghetto uprising and served as a contact with Anton Schmid, the Austrian soldier who helped Jews. Tenenbaum probably committed suicide after the failed uprising.

1942 September 12, WARSAW (Poland)
Only 60,000 Jews remained in the the ghetto.

1942 September 23, TUCHIN/TUCZYN UPRISING(Ukraine)
Up till then, around 3000 Jews survived by working in the local tannery and cotton mill. After the Germans and Ukrainians surrounded the town, the heads of the community decided to resist and almost the entire town decided not to submit. Among the principal organizers of the resistance were the chairman of the Judenrat Gecel Schwarzman, and his deputy, Meir Himmelfarb. While some were burning down the ghetto, others rushed and flattened the barbed wire fence. Almost 2,000 people succeeded in getting to the forests. Unfortunately, there were no partisans operating in that area and local Ukrainians gave many of them away. Starving and with little hope, 500 of them believed a Nazi promise and returned to the ghetto where they were shot.

1942 October, COUNCIL FOR HELPING JEWS (Poland)
Was formed by two Polish women Zofia Kossak-Szczucka and Wanda Krahelska-Filipowiczowa. For their efforts ,Kossak-Szczucka was sent to Auschwitz (where she was ransomed) and Krahelska was denounced by the "Polish National Armed Forces" and died in the hands of the Gestapo. This was one of the few Polish organizations which tried to help the Jews. Unfortunately, by the end of 1942, most of Poland's Jews had already been killed.

1942 October, HUNGARY
Germany pressured the government of Miklos Kallay to adopt German actions against Hungarian Jews. Kallay, though not against anti-Jewish legislation, balked at the idea of deportation.

1942 October 1, - 1943 August 2, TREBLINKA (Poland)
Twenty-five railway cars full of human hair were delivered to factories for the use in making industrial felt as well as slippers for U-boat crews.

1942 October 8, ATLAS' PARTISIANS (Poland)
Participated in an attack on a German stronghold in Huta Jaworska. 127 Germans and their supporters were killed.

1942 October 12, PHILIPPE ETTER (Switzerland)
The former president of Switzerland persuaded the Red Cross not to adopt any resolution which related to "certain nationalities" … (who suffered) attacks on their lives for acts they did not commit. On the other hand, Carl Burckhardt, another Red Cross official, helped pass information on the plight of the Jews to the American Legation in Switzerland that same month,.

1942 October 15, BEREZA KARTUSKA (Belorussia)
The Germans began to liquidate the A camp (non-productive workers). In response, the Jews set fire to the camp. The local Judenrat was then ordered by the Nazis to hand over Jews for deportation. At their last meeting, many of the members chose to commit suicide rather then help the Germans. While many Jews were killed in the camp itself, over 18,000 were shot outside the town.

1942 October 23, BATTLE OF EL ALAMEIN (Egypt)
The British 8th Army, led by General Montgomery, began its push against Rommel's Afrika Korps. Its successes removed the threat of a German attack on Eretz Israel.

1942 October 30, LUBLIN (Poland)
One hundred Russian-Jewish POW's escaped from the Lipowa Street labor camp. They purchased around 100 police uniforms and marched right through Lublin until they reached the forests. The Germans decided to liquidate the camp after this and a few other escapes.

1942 November, MARCINKONIS Marcinkance/Marcinkonys (Lithuania)
After a demand that the Jews report for "transfer," Aaron Kobrovsky, head of the Judenrat, realized that there was little hope, and publicly called on all the Jews to fight or flee. Some attacked the Nazis while others broke down the fence and fled. Those who reached the forest, including some of the fourteen Kobrovsky siblings (nephews of Aaron). Moyshe, Leyb and Jacob, and Yitzkhok, set up a small unit and managed to purchase some weapons. They later joined the famous "Davidov Company" of partisans and were known for their daring and courage. Most of them survived the war and live in Israel today.

1942 November, MORDECAI TENENBAUM-TAMAROFF (Poland)
Was sent to Bialystok by the Jewish Fighting Organization in Warsaw to help organize and unite the movement which was fractured by political and ideological splits – especially between the communists. Tenenbaum, a leader in the HaShomer HaTzair movement, succeeded in uniting most of the movements and convinced them that they should defend the ghetto rather than join the partisans. There had been major differences (as in most ghettos) between the groups as to whether it was better to fight within the ghetto or to join the partisans, Tennenbaum favored the former, only leaving for the forests when there was no choice.

1942 November, PRESIDENT RAMON CASTILLO (Argentina)
Agreed under pressure to accept 1,000 French Jewish children. The government (ostensibly neutral) refused to put the plan into operation.

1942 November 3, LUBLIN (Poland)
After the closure of the Lipowa camp, the 1,500 Jewish-Russian POW's were ordered to march to Majdanek. The prisoners used their few arms to storm the armory in Lublin, which they captured at a cost of 400 prisoners. Using the arms they tried to reach the forests. In all, 800 escaped. Unfortunately the Polish underground refused to help them and many were killed or turned over to the Germans by the London based Polish government in exile Home Army.

1942 November 8, NORTH AFRICA

Allies landed. Four hundred rebels, more than half of them Jewish, took over key parts of Algiers which were defended by 11,000 soldiers – mostly without bloodshed. Many of the rebels' leaders were from the Aboulker family. The Americans found it hard to believe that the group had actual taken the town and decided to negotiate with the Vichy leaders, Admiral Darlan and General Juin, for their tactical surrender, leaving the Vichy government in place.

1942 November 11, GERMANS OCCUPIED ALL OF FRANCE

In response to the allied invasion of North Africa, Germany and Italy occupied all of France. Nazis began to round up Jews in Marseilles. Many Jews in the Vichy areas fled to southern France (which was still occupied by Italy). Ninety thousand French Jews, mostly foreign-born, were deported. Father Pierre-Marie Benoit began to organize the transfer of Jews to the Italian occupation zone. He printed thousands of counterfeit baptismal certificates. For his actions Father Pierre-Marie Benoit was recognized in 1966 as “Righteous Among the Nations” by the State of Israel.

1942 November 11, GERMANS OCCUPY ALL OF FRANCE

In response to the allied invasion of North Africa, Germany and Italy occupied all of France. Nazis began to round up Jews in Marseilles. Many Jews in the Vichy areas fled to southern France (still occupied by Italy). Ninety thousand French Jews, mostly foreign born, were deported.

1942 November 25, JAN KARSKI (Poland - England -USA)

A courier of the Polish underground and an eyewitness to the Holocaust reached England. Karski, who had met with Jewish leaders in Warsaw and had traveled to Belzec, gave details to British officials and directly to President Roosevelt in Washington the following year. Roosevelt decided not to react immediately and didn’t mention the Holocaust in any of his press conferences until March 1944.

1942 November 25, TEMPORARY COMMITTEE (USA)

Later known as the Joint Emergency Committee on European Jewish Affairs, was established by Stephen Wise. It was made up of the American Jewish Committee, American Jewish Congress, Jewish Labor Committee, Bnai Brith, World Jewish Congress, Synagogue Council of America and Agudat Israel of America. Though often at odds with each other, they managed to contact important non-Jews, asking for their help, and to pressure the press to cover the genocide. They also sponsored a national day of mourning and managed to get the only meeting about the Holocaust between Roosevelt and Jewish leaders during the war.

1942 November 29, LA SIXIEME (The Sixth) (France)

The term referred to the Sixth Division of the French Jewish Scouts (EIF), an underground organization formed and headed by Henry Wahl, Ninon Hait, Denise Levy, and Marc Haguenau. Until the liberation, they would produce thousands of false papers, recruit volunteers for the Marquis, and organize escape routes to Spain. Its core consisted of only 88 young people, 26 of whom were eventually arrested by the Gestapo.

1942 December, CHAIM MORDECHAI RUMKOWSKI (Lodz, Poland)

Despite evidence to the contrary, continued in his belief that it is the work of the ghetto that protects the Jews. In a speech, he declared: “our children and grandchildren will proudly remember the names of those who contributed… labor opportunities which grated justification to live”.

1942 December 2, DAY OF MOURNING AND PRAYER (USA)

Was observed in many countries in addition to the USA. Although a special broadcast was carried nationally by NBC, it did not receive prominent coverage by other radio stations or the press.

1942 December 5, DR.YEHEZKEL ATLAS (Poland)

The founder and commander of a Jewish partisan unit fell in battle with the Germans. He and his second in command, Eliyahu Kowienski (who survived the war and now lives in Israel) received the highest Soviet Decoration – Hero of the Soviet Union.

1942 December 8, PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT (USA)

After submitting to friendly pressure by Stephen Wise, who stated that refusal to meet with them may be “gravely misunderstood,” met with Jewish leaders of the Temporary Committee for half an hour.

Roosevelt spoke 80% of the time and mostly about issues unrelated to the plight of the Jews, although he did agree to issue a war crimes warning. This was his only meeting with Jewish leaders concerning the Holocaust. His only other meeting to discuss the issue was with 7 Jewish congressmen on April 1 1943.

1942 December 17, A CONDEMNATION OF GERMAN ATROCITIES
Was finally issued by the United States, Great Britain, the Soviet Union, and the governments in exile.

1942 December 17, FRANCE - SPAIN
The first organized group of young French Jews left to try crossing to Spain. Upon arrival, they were arrested and spent the next 2 ½ months in the prison of Pampeluna. Only later the next year, under pressure from both England and the United States, did the Spanish government allow refugees to move into boarding houses provided that the funds would come from abroad. Until that time, many of the refugees were kept in camps under appalling conditions. The Spanish government, although rarely turning away people at the border, did its best to discourage refugees crossing over from France.

1942 December 17, UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION
By the 3 major allies and 8 occupied countries, condemned the German governments “intention to exterminate the Jewish people in Europe” and committed itself to establishing a war crimes commission after the war. One possible result was that Himmler began his attempt to bargain for Jewish lives after this, partially in order to be seen in a more “favorable light.”

1942 December 19, THE UNITED NATIONS INFORMATION OFFICE (New York, USA)
Published a report confirming that the Nazis had made Poland “One vast center for murdering Jews.”

1942 December 20, ALPES MARITIMES (Italian occupied Vichy France)
The local French Prefect ordered all foreign-born Jews to leave and relocate in German-occupied areas. Encouraged by Angelo Donati (an influential half Jew), the Italian government, especially its generals, countered the order despite the efforts by Ribbentrop and even Himmler. Thus, the Italian zone became a haven of sorts for Jewish refugees up till September 1943 when the Italian zone was overrun by the Germans.

1942 December 21, VARIAN FRY (USA)
After his return to the U.S., he tried to warn of the impending disaster for the European Jews in an article in The New Republic entitled “The Massacre of the Jews.”

1942 December 22, AHARON LIEBESKIND (Cracow, Poland)
The joint forces of HeHalutz HaLohem and P.P.R (Polish Workers Party) Jewish Units attacked German targets in the capital of the General Government. Liebeskind was Secretary of the religious Zionist Akiva movement and commander of the HeHalutz HaLochem (fighting organization of the Pioneer Jews). In the coordinated attacks, dozens of Germans were either killed or wounded. Liebeskind himself was killed in hand-to-hand combat when the Germans attacked his bunker on December 24, 1942. Before he died he succeeded in killing 2 German officers. He is credited with the line: “The Jewish fighters are fighting for 3 lines [telling about us] in history [books].”

Jacob’s Face

Ephraim Frank

[Israel]

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

First off, a quick personal note; Some of you remember that a little over two years ago I had a heart attack, which left some damage to part of my heart. Yesterday I had an ultrasound check up (called "echo") and no traces of damage were to be seen. I want to express my gratitude and thanks to my Good Shepherd for His gentle healing touch. HalleluYah!

Isn't it interesting how one can read the scriptures hundreds of times and yet not see the multitudes of revelation that can confirm truths, or conversely, be blind to a truth (like the Two Houses of Israel) which later becomes obvious but for years has been concealed although we read the very same texts over and over again? Until the Spirit brings truth into the light of our understanding we remain blind. Yesterday, before going off to the clinic, I was attempting to read Psalm 24 in Hebrew and lo and behold one of those little gems popped out of the Word that sent a shot of joy through the "temple".

"Who shall ascend into the hill of YHVH or who shall stand in His holy place? He that has clean hands, and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from YHVH, and righteousness from the Elohim of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek Him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah" (Psa. 24:3-6 KJV).

As the last verse in this passage came into light it occurred to me that the generation spoken of, that would seek the righteousness of YHVH, would also seek the face of Jacob. Most translations render it as though Jacob is to seek the face of YHVH, but in Hebrew (as well as the King James translation) it speaks of the righteous who may ascend YHVH's hill being also the seekers of the face of Jacob.

Why would we need to seek the face of Jacob? Perhaps the succeeding verse gives us an indication as to the reason.

"Lift up your heads, O you gates; and be you lift up, you everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in" (Psa 24:7).

In Revelation 21:12 the bride, the New Jerusalem, is described as having twelve gates which are the twelve tribes of Israel. Could it be that there will come a generation of the seed of Jacob (the twelve tribes) that will lift up their heads and seek YHVH and His righteousness and in so doing will discover - in the light of His glory- who they themselves are? They will see the face of Jacob their father and remember from which rock they were hewn.

"Listen to Me, you who follow after righteousness, you who seek YHVH: Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the hole of the pit from which you were dug. Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you; for I called him alone, and blessed him and increased him" (Isa. 51:1-2).

Many people that I have talked to and that have had the revelation understanding into this latter day move of the Spirit testify to the fact that even before they became believers in the Messiah of Israel, they were already seeking a philosophy that would teach them some semblance of righteous living. They were not satisfied with their lives; they hungered to know truth. They were searching for something but did not know what. So their investigations took them into eastern religions or even to the western ones. But still not being satisfied continued to search. Then one day the Spirit of the living Elohim, the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob revealed to their hungry soul who they were, they discovered their Hebraic root, the rock from which they were hewn. Their head lifted up and with tears rejoiced at seeing the face of Jacob as they looked into the mirror of Torah. They had a glimpse of the glory that would fill them for eternity. They knew the faithfulness of a covenant keeping God.

Each one of the seed (sperm) in this generation of Jacob is stamped with the genetic code of a forefather; each tribe has been anointed with a specific word from YHVH and thus belongs to one of the gates of this great city. The word of YHVH says that there will be no glory in the house until these gates lift up their heads to worship in spirit and in truth. Until those who have clean hands and a pure heart, who do not seek the world's vanity or iniquity, ascend to the mountain of YHVH, to the house of the Elohim of Jacob. The scripture tells us that this bride "made herself ready" (ref. Rev 19:7). Paul the apostle writes that we must "cleans ourselves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit (ref. 2 Cor. 7:1). We, the redeemed of YHVH that have returned to Zion the Mount of Yah, can lift up our heads and look into the glory of our Father in the face of Messiah Yeshua and see His love and faithfulness to our forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and to us, their progeny.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name. For YHVH is good; His mercy is everlasting, and His truth endures to all generations" (Psa 100:4-5).

Shabbat Shalom Ephraim Nov 19, 2004

Judgment Is About To Fall

Stephen Hanson

Oct. 30, 2004

"The tumult will resound to the ends of the earth, for the Lord will bring charges against the nations; he will bring judgment on all mankind and put the wicked to the sword, " declares the Lord. Jer. 25: 31

"I tell you that I am the Lord of everything and because I am the Lord of the universe, that judgment is about to fall. Judgment is coming; it has come to the household of God first, but now it is extending to nations, kingdoms, and to those who are living in sin. My hammer will fall and it will tear to pieces those things that are not of Me."

"I tell you that judgment is coming to the nation of America. There are cities that will be attacked. Behold...an outside force comes, and it extends its arm upon your land. Where will you run to when the onslaught comes? I have said that the hedge of protection was being removed. No longer is safety to be found apart from Me. But there is a tower, there is a rock and a fortress you can run to."

"I tell you that the time is coming when entire cities will be laid waste by bombs and nuclear holocaust. People will run in desperation to find places of safety. I have had some prepare places of safety for that time to come--for I will always prepare a way out for my servants."

"I have said again and again, that these things are coming. Who are those who would heed these things and prepare for them?

Stephen Hanson

Jezebel Is Alive And Well

Carole Korakas

Jun 09, 2004
When we read a passage of scripture whose message is confrontational, we most often like to apply it to someone else's life. However, everything that the Lord speaks to us through His Word is for us first. We must allow Him to search our hearts through His Word. One passage of scripture that most of us would like to pass off as pertaining to others is 1 Kings 16:29-22:40. It is in this passage that we read of the activity of Jezebel. As we read this passage, we need to allow Father to shine His light upon our hearts to reveal any hidden areas from which Jezebel may operate.

Many have heard teachings on Jezebel and the Jezebel Spirit. Although the historical figure whose name was Jezebel is long gone, the spiritual activity of Jezebel is alive and well. There is no demonic entity or evil spirit whose name is Jezebel. However, there are many "spiritual entities and strongholds" who influence and perpetuate the operation of her activities through people. Jezebel is no respecter of persons. She will operate through any willing vessel — whether male or female.

"And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshiped him" (1 Kings 16:31).

Jezebel was the daughter of Ethbaal, whose name means Baal is alive. Consequently, Ethbaal was a priest of false gods. Jezebel was influenced by this evil man. We must carefully chose our "spiritual parents" — those whose instruction we come under as well as those who we allow to sew into our lives spiritually.

Jezebel became the wife of the most evil king in Israel's history. She was yoked with an evil man ... and became one with him. We must be aware of those we are yoked with. The associations that we have with others have the potential to influence us. Although we are to love and minister to those who are evil, we are not to be yoked with them. We are admonished in the scriptures not to be unequally yoked. We also read that light (those living a godly life) has nothing to do with darkness (those living a life without the influence of Christ). (See 2 Corinthians 6:14.)

As the king and his wife, Ahab and Jezebel were governmental leaders. They were in positions of authority. Some believe that Jezebel cannot work through church/ministry leaders; however this Biblical illustration clearly contradicts this viewpoint. After all, Ahab was king of "Israel." Jezebel continues today to work through positions of authority. She will work from her assigned position of authority or alongside of one who is in authority.

"For so it was, while Jezebel massacred the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah had taken one hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water" (1 Kings 18:4). "Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the Lord, how I hid one hundred men of the Lord's prophets, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water?" (1 Kings 18:13)

Jezebel had the prophets of the Lord massacred. She sought to stop all Godly prophetic activity. Jezebel's objective remains the same today. She desires to kill the true prophetic voice. In doing so, she will silence the voice of truth.

Jezebel thrives on our weaknesses, insecurities and ignorance. Many through whom Jezebel operates may not understand prophetic ministry, may desire a perceived "higher" office that they have been called/gifted for, or simply don't know God's purpose for their life. Some may actually be prophetically gifted individuals. However, they are insecure in who God has created them to be. Because they do not recognize the call of God upon their life or are not walking out the destiny of God for their life, they become critical of the ministry and spiritual promotions of others. Because they do not fully trust God to intervene on their behalf, they manipulate people and situation in order to help themselves ... often to a ministry that they believe they deserve. Because they are not fully submitted to God, they cannot be fully submitted to one another and therefore cannot be corrected or confronted.

"Now therefore, send and gather all Israel to me on Mount Carmel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal, and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table" (1 Kings 18:19).

Jezebel fed the false prophets at her table. She kept company with them because, unlike the prophets of the Lord, they could be manipulated. They not only told her the things that she desired to hear, they spoke her words. Perhaps Jezebel's greatest identifying characteristic is manipulation (although it may be very subtle). She seeks to keep company with those who can be manipulated.

"And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let one of them escape!" So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook Kishon and executed them there" (1 Kings 18:40).

Elijah executed the prophets of Baal. The law demanded that false prophets be executed (see Deuteronomy 13:1-5, 13-18; 17:2-7). Essentially, Elijah confronted Jezebel's evil.

Jezebel's activity must be recognized and confronted. Father desires that we look within our own hearts first and then to others. We are to remove the log from our own eye and then from our neighbor's. (See Matthew 7:3-5.) When we have recognized and dealt with those things in our lives that could potentially enable Jezebel to operate, then we can look to see if she is influencing (manipulating) us through another.

"And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, also how he had executed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time." And when he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there" (1 Kings19:1-3).

Some might read this passage and conclude that Jezebel was sold out to Baal because she sought to defend him. However, I don't believe Jezebel "loved" her god. In fact, she merely found him useful for fulfilling her plans. She was so intent on fulfilling her plans that she got rid of anything standing in her way. She went as far as to murder. (How do we murder with our tongue?) She was determined to remove any obstacle that hindered her fulfilling her agenda. This is shy she had the prophets murdered. When her plans were threatened (Baal's prophets killed), she was angry and sought revenge. Jezebel retaliated through threats and intimidation. Even Elijah, the servant of the Lord, was intimidated by Jezebel's threats.

Jezebel will attempt to get rid of anything that stands in the way of her plans being fulfilled and will also seek out those who can help her. If her plans are threatened, she will seek to manipulate through threats, intimidation, and emotional responses such as anger or the silent treatment. Even those walking with the Lord are not immune from her tactics.

"Then Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now exercise authority over Israel! Arise, eat food, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite" (1 Kings 21:7).

Jezebel encouraged Ahab to exercise his authority and control. In essence, she was telling him that this was his right.

Jezebel loves to exercise authority and control. One of the main ways that Jezebel operates today is through subtle, manipulative spoken words. Her voice may often be heard through statements, public prayers, and false prophetic words.

STATEMENTS

"She needs deliverance."

"They have some definite issues and need some divine intervention."

"So-and-so" is in rebellion."

"Did you feel/see that?"

These statements may very well be true. However, if the Lord does reveal something of this nature to you concerning another person, His desire is that you pray for them ... not that you slander them. One major problem with these types of statements is that they change the way someone views another person. In other words, they "manipulate" someone's thoughts and feelings. One of the hallmarks of Jezebel's strategy is manipulation.

Some like to let others know of their spiritual sensitivity and giftedness by making statements such as, "Did you feel/see that?" They sometimes emphasize this with a couple of groans or mild shakes. Others want to appear spiritual and agree, "Yes, I did" — not really knowing what it is they were supposed to see/hear/feel. Jezebel deceptively gains the respect, trust and admiration or others. She gathers faithful followers who dare not speak against her.

PUBLIC PRAYERS (intercessory prayer groups)

"Give Pastor Pete wisdom so he can begin making the right decisions."

"Help the pastor's wife to be the help-mate that he needs."

"Lord, help so-and-so deal with the rebellion in their life. Keep them from falling into sin and missing the destiny that you have for their life."

These would be good private prayers. The problem arises when these are prayed publicly. When these prayers are prayed before other people, they plant a seed of doubt concerning the individuals being prayed for into the hearts of those hearing the prayers. After hearing someone pray the prayer for Pastor Pete, wouldn't you wonder if he had any wisdom and if he were able to make right decisions? After hearing the prayer for the pastor's wife, wouldn't you wonder if indeed she was a suitable helpmate? Some prayers on behalf of others need to be prayed in private. If the Lord indeed leads you to pray for someone, He will give you the strategy to do so — including specifically what to pray and when to pray it. It's when we have our own agenda in prayer that we open the door for Jezebel to enter.

PROPHETIC WORDS

"The Lord says that you are to stay here/go there and do this/that."

"The Lord has called you to an evangelistic ministry on the continent of Africa."

These prophecies may very well be from the Lord; however, we need to weigh them carefully — both before speaking them and receiving them. Some people may find it easier to make decisions if everything were spelled out to them. While God does speak through His servants, He also desires that we learn to hear His voice rather than relying on someone else's voice. Also, most prophecies such as these will be affirmations of what the Lord has already placed in our heart ... not surprises. What would distinguish these prophetic words to be from Jezebel as opposed from God would be the motives/intentions of the speaker. Some people try to manipulate and control through prophetic words. We must only speak what we hear from our Father ... and we must only receive what we know to be from Him. He is Truth and He will reveal truth to us.

"And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who were dwelling in the city with Naboth" (1 Kings 21:8).

Jezebel used the king's name and seal without the authority to do so. It was not authentic. It looked authentic because it bore the king's name and seal, but it was actually a forgery executed in her own authority.

Jezebel masquerades as one having the authority of the King. How many times have we acted in presumption? Have we even insisted that the Lord led us to do something when in fact He didn't? Do we use the gifts and talents given by the Lord to further our own agenda rather than His? Have we retaliated against those or laid a snare for those that didn't go along with our agenda?

Jezebel used the king's name and seal without his authority to do so in order to fulfill her plans. Similarly, we use God's name (after all, we're "Christians") ... and even His Holy Spirit (with whom we are sealed) ... when we say and do things not led by Him in order to fulfill our plans. When we occupy positions which He has not ordained and consequently for which He has not called or gifted us, we will at some point resort to manipulation in order to hang onto our spot, protect our ministry and make ourselves look good.

"And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead" (1 Kings 21:15).

Jezebel will encourage us to take what we want ... and will even offer to help us succeed at doing it. Beware of those who always say what you want to hear. Remember, there is wisdom in a multitude of counselors. However, not all of the counselors will agree with everything that you desire to say and do.

CONCLUSION: Expose Your Heart ... And Deal With It

As we move into a time of greater prophetic activity, Jezebel will once again rear her ugly head. If you have insecurity in your life, deal with it and know who you are in Christ. If you have jealousy in your life, get rid of it and know that God's purposes for you are greater than what you perceive to be something wonderful in someone else's life. If you have unforgiveness in your life, let go of it and trust God to heal your heart and also to deal with someone else's. If you have rebellion in your life, learn to submit to God and to others. Examine every word that comes out of your mouth, every thought that you have, and every action that you take ... especially concerning another person or ministry. These issues, when not dealt with and left unhealed, are open wounds over which Jezebel can spread her insidious germs that cause infection to spread as a deadly disease to other parts of the body. Allow Father to shine His light upon the dark places in your heart so that there may be no hidden area in which Jezebel may hide and operate.

Our God loves restoration. He longs for us to be restored to Him. That's why He never condemn us, but always forgives us. He longs for our relationships with others to be restored. And He longs for others to be restored unto Himself. We can be those ministers of reconciliation. If we recognize Jezebel operating through another, we are not to label or ostracize; we are to pray for reconciliation ... and respond as Father leads.

PRAYER

Father, I come to you through your Precious Son and ask you to shine Your light upon my heart. I desire to walk holy and blameless before You ... and want to have no part with Jezebel's ways. I ask You to expose me to myself. Reveal to me any ways in which I manipulate others or situations through my words, actions or emotions. Reveal to me any ways in which I seek to control people or situations. Reveal to me any areas in which I walk in authority that You've not ordained ... including ministry activities. Reveal to me any ways in which I hinder Your activity or voice through another person. Give me the grace to repent and submit this to You. I repent of _______________(Be specific!). I choose to submit my weak areas (Be specific and name them.) to You. In my weakness, may You demonstrate Your strength. Thank You for Your forgiveness and healing. May You be glorified in all things. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Jesus Is Returning

Steven Brooks

Lately I have been meditating often upon the truth that Jesus is returning soon. We are commanded in Scripture to look for and eagerly anticipate His return. Of course, when the Lord returns His feet will not even touch the earth. We will go up to meet Him in the clouds of the air and will forever be with the Lord. Seven years after the rapture we will come back with Him as He establishes his rule and reign upon the earth for one thousand years. The Lord is coming soon and it is of utmost importance that we are prepared and expecting His coming.

Since we are living in the last days it is wise for us to guard our hearts and minds from the pollution of sin that influences the world we live in. Never before have we been subjected to so many forms of corruption expressed through images, language, and behavior. We are free to live an abundant life in Christ yet in our freedom we must be careful to filter out that which can defile.

For instance, I may watch some sports on television from time to time, but if I do I can guarantee you that as soon as a commercial comes on I immediately hit the “mute” button. I have no interest or desire to see commercials advertising beer or see shows advertised that promote immorality. You can be sure that if I watch a basketball game on television that you won’t catch me watching the halftime show when the dance team comes out on the floor to perform. It’s ridiculous for Christians to complain about what happened in last years Super Bowl when the halftime singer’s clothes were torn off revealing nudity to all who were viewing. Some were upset that they had to see such a disgraceful sight. My question to those who watched, however, is what were you doing looking at the dirty dancing in the first place?

The Lord is returning soon and we need to be spiritually awake. In the immoral day we live in we still don’t hear too much preaching on living a holy lifestyle, yet we are commanded by God, “You are to be holy, because I am holy” (1 Peter 1:16). We should enjoy the life and freedom we have in Christ, while at the same time staying alert spiritually and keeping our selves pure and unspotted from the filth that is prevalent in the earth today. Several days ago I experienced a very vivid dream in which God alerted me to the necessity of staying pure before Him.

In this dream, I was invited to a beautiful restaurant that served fine food at a high price. The service was known to be impeccable and the food was said to be the best available anywhere. As I approached the restaurant I noticed the beautiful Italian brick exterior and saw all the waiters dressed in beautiful clothes. As I was escorted to my seat, a very dignified waiter tried to make me feel welcome by saying a very derogatory comment about a well-known television minister! He did not know that to me this was an insult. I immediately responded by saying that I greatly admire the television minister and that I even support his ministry. Stunned, the waiter quickly extended his hand to shake mine and offered an apology, not wanting to offend me and have me leave the restaurant. I accepted his apology and was soon seated at my table.

While sitting at my table I began to notice what others around me were eating. When I saw the food on their plates I was immediately repulsed by the sight. It was the most despicable form of food I’ve ever seen. The people were eating what appeared to be demonic insects that were hideous beyond words to describe. The Lord then spoke to me and said, “This food comes from hell’s kitchen. It’s what the devil serves up to his people to eat all the time. Unfortunately, many of My people are eating the same filth.”

Immediately I began to look for the nearest exit in the restaurant when I heard the Lord speak to me again. He said, “Come, and I will show you where this food comes from.” I was taken to the back of the restaurant where the restaurant manager had assembled a small team of about ten workers to go with him to get the fresh catch of the day. Each worker put on what appeared to be a yellow toxic waste suit, the kind that allows you to work around dangerous radioactive waste. They zipped up their suits that covered them from head to toe and headed out into what appeared to be a large jungle that was wildly overgrown. Every tree and plant in this demonic jungle was loaded with millions of spider webs and the entire place was crawling with all forms of unclean creatures. In the dream I was allowed to stand off at a distance and view this twisted site.

It was difficult for me to watch because being so near the jungle was extremely dangerous. Everything was extremely toxic, I had to keep shifting my feet because the vines on the ground were acidic and would burn you if you touched them. I saw insects that were so dangerous that if you touched them they could instantly kill you. A horrific spirit of fear saturated the entire dismal atmosphere of this jungle. I watched as the restaurant workers used special tools that were about ten feet long that allowed them to reach up in tree limbs and grab vile looking bugs, spiders, insects, ants, and other things to weird to describe. They would then bag these creatures in order to take them back to the restaurant and then serve them to the people.

When I woke up from this dream, I knew the Lord was deeply grieved over many of His own people who regularly feast on the devil’s food. In my heart I saw a Christian man sitting in the comfort of his living room watching a “murder mystery” on television. The show featured blood being shed, fear being propagated, and a desensitizing of all goodness. This show was a great insult to the Holy Spirit, yet the man disregarded the Spirit’s leading to not watch the program. Such people need to awake from their spiritual stupor and desperately feed on the pure Word of God.

Jesus is coming sooner than we think. Let us put aside the works of darkness and live in the light of God’s Word. Let us be ready for His return that we may not be ashamed nor draw back at His coming.

In Christ,
Steven Brooks
www.stevenbrooks.org

Judgments in the Earth Today

Robert I Holmes

All Scripture quoted NASB

Today (Oct 9, 2004) John Howard was re-elected for his fourth term. His election is of vital importance to Christians, regardless of what we think of his politics, his leanings or his faith. His beliefs and practices affect his leadership in subtle ways. For example, on Compass last week he said, "Church and State must remain apart. As for faith, that is a personal matter." His sentiment ran down this path - at home I am guided by my convictions, in the church I am guided by my faith, at work I am guided by politics. This was well illustrated in Tasmania, a state in which Labour (the worker's party) sided with the trees, and Liberal (a white collar party) sided with the loggers. At work John was guided by politics, he pulled out all stops to get re-elected.

In all these things, God is watching. Despite what some say, God does involve Himself in the affairs of men. He cares about who our national leader is, (in fact He appoints leaders). He cares about the methods men use to get into power. God sees our public, and private life.

A good friend of mine sent John Howard a prophecy the week before his first election (in 1994). It read (in part), "You shall be elected and in your time and under your reign there shall be revival". At the time, John had only an outside chance. I believe the word given was true - but we have yet to see any kind of spiritual revival under John's leadership. We have most certainly seen revival in the economy. It may be that in the days ahead we'll see a spiritual dimension to this word.

On the contrary.

In the same time period as John was endorsed as leader (the first time), I was receiving words about our nation that were not quite so complimentary.

On the 15th of May 1995, I had a visitation from the Lord, in which He said, "I am about to send plagues on the earth, behold the seal is broken and disease breaks out. It will come with devastation, more suddenly than the dawn. Australia will be invaded, first micro-biotically, then with subterfuge and if she does not repent, then with agents of war." Three steps - plagues, then subterfuge, then war.

Very shortly after that, we saw Nile River Fever brought in by a visiting Ethiopian, Ross River Fever was discovered, Japanese Encephalitis made a come back and two deaths from Cerebral Meningitis shocked the nation. Subterfuge may mean espionage, or illicit people smuggling, our Pacific Solution or a host of other things. But in hind sight "agents of war" can mean nothing other than terrorism.

Then in November of 1998 God said, "There are about to be released, plagues on the earth - mutations of existing and prevalent viruses, revival of those defeated and new strains. Watch for a fourth generation of AIDS/ HIV and for communicable cancer. The only place of healing will be found in the church." HIV IV (4) was medically differentiated in March 1999 as a strain particular to heterosexuals and children. Since then CJD, Chicken Flu and SARS have wracked the earth. One prominent report in the USA reported that, "the TB genus now cannot be stopped or staggered by our drugs".

Then at 3am on the 10th of October, 2004 I heard the Lord say, "My judgments are good". Evidently the Lord has desired revival and judgment, renewal and reformation. Let us ponder how a 'bad' thing can be thought of as good, or how a negative results in positive outcomes.

Revival, judgment. or both?

Revival and judgment are both part of God's heart for the nation. How do we interpret judgments? It may seem counter intuitive, but judgment is good news, because it bespeaks the conditions for revival.

There are many Hebrew words used for 'judgment', but in all the following verses the word mishpat is used. It means decision, destruction, justice or sentence. It comes from shaphat - to judge and govern, to execute judgment. The word used most commonly in relation to a king or governor. The Lord is most High King, and His shaphat, His rule or government results in mishpat - or judgment being released. Revival is the visitation, the habitation of God. God is a King: justice and righteousness are the foundations of His throne. Judgment therefore must come.

1. Judgment brings joy and gladness, especially for the oppressed

King David wrote: "Be glad. because of your judgments" (Psalm 48:11). He was a man who knew the cleansing of hyssop. After committing adultery and murder, David was offered the olive branch of repentance. Judgment brought him back into relationship with a holy God. That judgment was also good news for the family of Uriah, who saw justice meted upon the guilty party. David thus spoke of Israel remembering their deliverance from the oppression of Egypt: "The Lord performs righteous deeds and judgments are for all who are oppressed" (Psalm 103:6).

2. Judgments brings God close, and causes us to seek Him

When times are tough, and things seem hard we are more inclined to humble ourselves, soften our heart and seek His face. "My soul longs for you, indeed my spirit within me seeks you diligently; for when the inhabitants of the earth experience your judgments the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness" (Isa. 26:9). David, in the midst of a Psalm of thanksgiving says, "Seek the Lord and His strength, seek His face continually. Remember His wonderful deeds that He has done, His marvels and the judgments of His mouth. He is the Lord our God; His judgments are in all the earth" (1 Chr. 16:12, 14). Remember God's deeds, His marvels and His judgments - let this be a source strength to you in times of trouble.

3. Judgment brings light, affliction brings restoration

"I know, O Lord that your judgments are righteous and that in all faithfulness you have afflicted us" (Psalm 119:75). Yes, Hosea agrees, God afflicts us and He disciplines those He loves. Hosea chapter six begins by explaining that it is God who tears, and He who heals us. He strikes us down, and then binds our wounds. Hosea invites us to seek God, and find the knowledge of God in the midst of our affliction.

"I have hewn them in pieces by the prophets, I have slain them by the words of My mouth; and the judgments on you are like the light that goes forth" (Hos. 6:5). The true word of God comes at right angles to us, when we have gone astray. It seems contra-wise to our direction, it tears at us, knocks us asunder, we feel hewn by it. But the prophets, because they know the signs of the times, and understand what we should do, shed light on our troubles, and make sense of them. They shed light, especially when we have fallen asleep, and the cares of the world have distracted us from the Kingdom of God.

Consider it this way. A decade ago an experiment was built in the deserts of the USA. A bubble was constructed, and an ecosystem was grown in a giant terrarium. One of the things they found, after ten years of growth, was that the trees grew sideways, bending over. There was no strength to their timber. This was because there was no wind. Judgments are like strong wind, which tears at our limbs, but is all the while making us stronger, straighter, and more upright. The days ahead

Cindy Jacobs, during a visit to Garden City, Brisbane a few years ago prophesied that Australia would produce "the (good) kind of government that would make the leaders of the world take notice". It would be a heavenly kind of government, full of peace, righteousness and truth. Put that with Paul's prophecy about revival and you'd think everything is going to be sweet. But sweetness comes through suffering.

"The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the Lord are true; they are righteous altogether. They are more desirable than gold. sweeter also than honey" (Psalm 19:9). We are to desire judgment more than gold, and as it comes upon us, we are to receive it as sweeter than honey. Judgment is truth, brought to bear on an untrue world. It is cleansing, brought to bear on an unclean world. It prepares us for revival!

There is no better example to us today, than in Fiji. A nation once wracked by coups, military unrest and struggle. The nation is now at peace, with a unified parliament and Christian influence at every level. The government confronted the church after George Spate took the nation over by force, and laid the unrest at the churches feet. After soul searching and repentance, the church admitted division at home leads to division in the church, and a divided church results in a divided nation. Now Fiji experiences the visitation of God, but not before she was cleansed by judgments.

------------------------------ WEBSITE Storm-Harvest Ministries http://www.storm-harvest.asn.au

MODERATORS Robert I Holmes and Mario Liu email prophetic@storm-harvest.asn.au

To subscribe, send ANY message to: stormharvest-subscribe@associate.com> To unsubscribe, send ANY message to: stormharvest-unsubscribe@associate.com

Joshua's Journey
Jill Austin

Joshua's Journey: Rahab & the Two Spies
Plus Radical Visitation for Divine Strategies"

Matthew 1:5-6 "Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab...and Jesse begot David, the King."

Hebrews 11:30-31 "By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days. By faith the prostitute, Rahab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient."

Joshua sent two spies into Jericho. As they were hunted, they were desperately seeking refuge. Where did they find a safe haven -- in a religious temple? No. Hiding for their very lives, their refuge was found in a very unlikely place! The door that they entered was open for many -- a prostitute's house of trade. Rahab, a Canaanite, was an enemy to the Law of Moses as well as a woman of ill repute. It is so important to realize how significant this is! In Jericho, their sanctuary and safety was found in the den of the enemy -- a pagan prostitute's house!

As God starts to take you into the Jerichos of your life, He asks if you are willing to knock on unlikely and unreligious doors? Hearing God's voice was not an option for the spies, but a survival mechanism, as they would be executed if they were caught. If they had not learned the Lord's voice in the wilderness, they would not have been prepared for the invasion of Jericho that awaited them. Are you willing to press in to hear the Lord's voice and move in radical and unreligious strategies? God does not want you to rely on human reasoning or on religious law, but to lean into Him for fresh blueprint plans. This can save your life in a critical moment, even as the spies were spared.

The Body of Christ Will Be Birthed from the Most Unlikely of Places

Rahab, in the Word of God, was called "Righteous Rahab" because she hid the spies even at the expense of her own family's life. In return, all she asked for was that her family be spared. She was like an early "Corrie Ten Boom" who hid the Jews in WWII. What is so remarkable about this woman of trade is that after the invasion of Jericho, she married a captain in Joshua's army. Joshua's battle did much more than just tear down the walls of Jericho -- he came to rescue a bride. For out of her seed came King David, and later Jesus. What if they had never knocked on her door?

Rahab is a prophetic picture of the end-time Church. The Bride of Christ will be birthed from the most unlikely of places. God's love will transform a whore into a heroine and a harlot into a pure and spotless Bride. The Lord wants to take off our blinders. Are you willing to find the Rahabs? What is the 21st century translation of a modern-day Rahab? She wears designer clothes, frequents the mall, and is desperately looking for love in all the wrong places. The Lord wants to take off our religious blinders and partner with Him to find His Bride.

(Prayer: Oh Lord, I must know and feel Your heart for Your people. I don't want to religiously write off the Rahabs - I want to rescue them. Help me to look past the sin and love the sinner. Help me to go to the unlikely, overlooked, unlovely places to bring salvation and healing to Your wounded Bride.)

Radical Visitation for Divine Strategies

Hebrews 11:30 "By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days."

Another strategy Joshua received was a radical visitation from the Captain of the Host. He said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and fighting men." Then He gave Joshua divine strategies on how to take down Jericho. Joshua's first response to this unusual battle plan must have been, "Huh? Did you say, trumpets? Don't you mean spears, knives, arrows, shields and battering rams?"

Picture this -- their fearless leader has returned with a heavenly battle strategy that will bring sure victory and take them into the Promised Land. The anticipation reaches a fevered pitch and Joshua says, "Good news men: The Captain of the Hosts appeared to me." The men whoop and yell, jabbing the air with their swords and waving their shields. "The bad news is, He gave me the battle plan." Kicking the sand with his toe, Joshua mumbles to the confused soldiers, "Uh, marching, priests, trumpets, ark, shouting, walls fall down."

Our God is Incredible and Creative

We've pretty much become immune to the story of Jericho because it's so well-known, but let's stop and really see it again with fresh eyes. What an incredible story! What a unique strategy! No commander on earth would plan for battle like that. What great faith he had to go to war when your front line of protection is a group of trumpet-playing priests. But you know the happy ending, "...the walls came a tumblin' down."

In times of great weakness, when Joshua could only depend on the Lord, the strategies he received were truly unusual and creative. The Lord required prophetic acts that would seem utterly ridiculous to the natural mind. Marching seven times around the city while blowing a horn and believing that the walls would fall? Preposterous! Hiding in a brothel? Scandalous!

Our God is incredible and creative, moving with supernatural miracle power in the midst of our obedience and trusting in Him -- even in the midst of what seems simple or ridiculous -- but the Lord knew the exact timing and strategy to take down that fortified city.

(Prayer: Lord, we want the walls to tumble down around our city! Help us to do radical exploits in God for You -- using trumpets as weapons and worship as warfare! Help us to take new territory in the spirit for You!)

by Jill Austin
http://www.masterpotter.com
info@masterpotter.com

Joint Resolution Of Apology To Native Peoples

Introduced In The United States Senate, May 6, 2004

In his opening remarks on the Senate floor, Senator Brownback stated, "This is a resolution of apology and a resolution of reconciliation. It is a first step toward healing the wounds that have divided us for so long - a potential foundation for a new era of positive relations between Tribal Governments and the Federal Government….Before reconciliation, there must be recognition and repentance. Before there is a durable relationship, there must be understanding. This resolution will not authorize or serve as a settlement of any claim against the United States, nor will it resolve the many challenges still facing the Native Peoples. But it does recognize the negative impact of numerous deleterious Federal acts and policies on Native Americans and their cultures."
Senator Brownback and the initiators of this Resolution are asking for concerted prayer and action that many Senators will quickly sign on as co-sponsors, that it will be passed by both chambers and acted on by President George W. Bush (see Section 1 – (6) of the Resolution) before the September 21, 2004 formal opening of the new National Museum of the American Indian which is nearing completion on the Mall in Washington, DC.

Please pray for Senators Brownback, Inouye, and Campbell their families and staff. Pray for a Representative to sponsor this Resolution of Apology in the House. Please pray for great favor with the members of Congress, the President and the press. Many people believe that this apology for the injustices against Native Americans is essential in the healing of this nation and the land.

You can track the progress of this Joint Resolution by visiting the Library of Congress website http://thomas.loc.gov and typing in the Bill Number, S.J. Res. 37.

REMARKS ON SENATE FLOOR AND TEXT OF RESOLUTION S.J. RES. 37
From the Congressional Record, May 6, 2004

MR. BROWNBACK: Mr. President, I rise today to introduce before this body a joint resolution that seeks to address an issue that has long lain unresolved. That issue is our Nation's relationship with the Native peoples of this land.

Long before 1776 and the establishment of the United States of America, this land was inhabited by numerous nations. Like our Nation, many of these peoples held a strong belief in the Creator and maintained a powerful spiritual connection to this land. Since the formation of the American Republic, there have most certainly been numerous conflicts between our Government and many of these Tribes--conflicts in which warriors on all sides fought courageously and in which all sides suffered. However, even from the earliest days of the Republic, there existed a sentiment that honorable dealings and peaceful coexistence were preferable to bloodshed. Indeed, our predecessors in Congress in 1787 stated in the Northwest Ordinance, ``The utmost good faith shall always be observed toward the Indians."

Many treaties were made between this Republic and the American Indian Tribes. Treaties, as my colleagues in this Chamber know, are far more than words in a page. Treaties are our word, our bond. Treaties with other governments are not to be treated lightly. Unfortunately, too often the United States of America did not uphold its responsibilities as stated in its covenants with the Native American Tribes. Too often, our Government broke its oaths to the Native peoples.

I want my fellow Senators to know that this resolution does not dismiss the valiance of our American soldiers who bravely fought for their families in wars between the United States and different Indian Tribes. Nor does this resolution cast all the blame for the various battles on one side or another. What this resolution does do is recognize and honor the importance of Native Americans to this land and to our Nation--in the past and today--and offers an official apology to the Native peoples for the poor and painful choices our Government sometimes made to disregard its solemn word.

This is a resolution of apology and a resolution of reconciliation. It is a first step toward healing the wounds that have divided us for so long--a potential foundation for a new era of positive relations between Tribal governments and the Federal Government. It is time--it is past time--for us to heal our land of division, all divisions, and bring us together as one people.

Before reconciliation, there must be recognition and repentance. Before there is a durable relationship, there must be understanding. This resolution will not authorize or serve as a settlement of any claim against the United States, nor will it resolve the many challenges still facing the Native peoples. But it does recognize the negative impact of numerous deleterious Federal acts and policies on Native Americans and their cultures.

Moreover, it begins the effort of reconciliation by recognizing the past wrongs and repenting for them.

Martin Luther King, a true reconciler, once said, ``The end is reconciliation, the end is redemption, the end is the creation of the beloved community." This resolution is not the end. But, perhaps it signals the beginning of the end of division and the faint first light and first fruits of the creation of beloved community.

I have worked with the chairman and ranking member of the Indian Affairs Committee, Senator Campbell and Senator Inouye, in the crafting of this resolution, I also reached out to the Native Tribes as this bill was being formed, and I continue to receive helpful and supportive feedback. I ask that my colleagues in this Chamber, and those in the House of Representatives, join together in support of this important resolution.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the joint resolution be printed in the Record.

108th CONGRESS
2d Session
S. J. RES. 37

To acknowledge a long history of official depredations and ill-conceived policies by the United States Government regarding Indian tribes and offer an apology to all Native Peoples on behalf of the United States.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES
May 6, 2004

Mr. BROWNBACK (for himself, Mr. CAMPBELL, and Mr. INOUYE) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs

JOINT RESOLUTION

To acknowledge a long history of official depredations and ill-conceived policies by the United States Government regarding Indian tribes and offer an apology to all Native Peoples on behalf of the United States.

Whereas the ancestors of today's Native Peoples inhabited the land of the present-day United States since time immemorial and for thousands of years before the arrival of peoples of European descent;

Whereas the Native Peoples have for millennia honored, protected, and stewarded this land we cherish;

Whereas the Native Peoples are spiritual peoples with a deep and abiding belief in the Creator, and for millennia their peoples have maintained a powerful spiritual connection to this land, as is evidenced by their customs and legends;

Whereas the arrival of Europeans in North America opened a new chapter in the histories of the Native Peoples;

Whereas, while establishment of permanent European settlements in North America did stir conflict with nearby Indian tribes, peaceful and mutually beneficial interactions also took place;

Whereas the foundational English settlements in Jamestown, Virginia, and Plymouth, Massachusetts, owed their survival in large measure to the compassion and aid of the Native Peoples in their vicinities;

Whereas in the infancy of the United States, the founders of the Republic expressed their desire for a just relationship with the Indian tribes, as evidenced by the Northwest Ordinance enacted by Congress in 1787, which begins with the phrase, `The utmost good faith shall always be observed toward the Indians';

Whereas Indian tribes provided great assistance to the fledgling Republic as it strengthened and grew, including invaluable help to Meriwether Lewis and William Clark on their epic journey from St. Louis, Missouri, to the Pacific Coast;

Whereas Native Peoples and non-Native settlers engaged in numerous armed conflicts;

Whereas the United States Government violated many of the treaties ratified by Congress and other diplomatic agreements with Indian tribes;

Whereas this Nation should address the broken treaties and many of the more ill-conceived Federal policies that followed, such as extermination, termination, forced removal and relocation, the outlawing of traditional religions, and the destruction of sacred places;

Whereas the United States forced Indian tribes and their citizens to move away from their traditional homelands and onto federally established and controlled reservations, in accordance with such Acts as the Indian Removal Act of 1830;

Whereas many Native Peoples suffered and perished--

(1) during the execution of the official United States Government policy of forced removal, including the infamous Trail of Tears and Long Walk;

(2) during bloody armed confrontations and massacres, such as the Sand Creek Massacre in 1864 and the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890; and

(3) on numerous Indian reservations;

Whereas the United States Government condemned the traditions, beliefs, and customs of the Native Peoples and endeavored to assimilate them by such policies as the redistribution of land under the General Allotment Act of 1887 and the forcible removal of Native children from their families to faraway boarding schools where their Native practices and languages were degraded and forbidden;

Whereas officials of the United States Government and private United States citizens harmed Native Peoples by the unlawful acquisition of recognized tribal land, the theft of resources from such territories, and the mismanagement of tribal trust funds;

Whereas the policies of the United States Government toward Indian tribes and the breaking of covenants with Indian tribes have contributed to the severe social ills and economic troubles in many Native communities today;

Whereas, despite continuing maltreatment of Native Peoples by the United States, the Native Peoples have remained committed to the protection of this great land, as evidenced by the fact that, on a per capita basis, more Native people have served in the United States Armed Forces and placed themselves in harm's way in defense of the United States in every major military conflict than any other ethnic group;

Whereas Indian tribes have actively influenced the public life of the United States by continued cooperation with Congress and the Department of the Interior, through the involvement of Native individuals in official United States Government positions, and by leadership of their own sovereign Indian tribes;

Whereas Indian tribes are resilient and determined to preserve, develop, and transmit to future generations their unique cultural identities;

Whereas the National Museum of the American Indian was established within the Smithsonian Institution as a living memorial to the Native Peoples and their traditions; and

Whereas Native Peoples are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, and that among those are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND APOLOGY.

The United States, acting through Congress--

(1) recognizes the special legal and political relationship the Indian tribes have with the United States and the solemn covenant with the land we share;

(2) commends and honors the Native Peoples for the thousands of years that they have stewarded and protected this land;

(3) acknowledges years of official depredations, ill-conceived policies, and the breaking of covenants by the United States Government regarding Indian tribes;

(4) apologizes on behalf of the people of the United States to all Native Peoples for the many instances of violence, maltreatment, and neglect inflicted on Native Peoples by citizens of the United States;

(5) expresses its regret for the ramifications of former offenses and its commitment to build on the positive relationships of the past and present to move toward a brighter future where all the people of this land live reconciled as brothers and sisters, and harmoniously steward and protect this land together;

(6) urges the President to acknowledge the offenses of the United States against Indian tribes in the history of the United States in order to bring healing to this land by providing a proper foundation for reconciliation between the United States and Indian tribes; and

(7) commends the State governments that have begun reconciliation efforts with recognized Indian tribes located in their boundaries and encourages all State governments similarly to work toward reconciling relationships with Indian tribes within their boundaries.

SEC. 2. DISCLAIMER.

Nothing in this Joint Resolution authorizes any claim against the United States or serves as a settlement of any claim against the United States.

END

Judgment Of My House Has Come

Dee Hoetmer

Eze 18:29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the LORD is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal? Eze 18:30 THEREFORE I WILL JUDGE YOU, O HOUSE OF ISRAEL, EVERY ONE ACCORDING TO HIS WAYS, SAITH THE LORD GOD. REPENT, AND TURN YOURSELVES FROM ALL TRANSGRESSIONS; SO INIQUITY SHALL NOT BE YOUR RUIN Eze 18:31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; AND MAKE YOU A NEW HEART AND A NEW SPIRIT: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? Eze 18:32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

The time of My judgment in My house has come. You say wherefore do You judge us Lord; I judge you for your wicked and perverse ways, your lack of love for your brother and your harsh criticisms.

Know ye not that I must purge My children first before I reveal Myself to the world and how can I reveal Myself through an adulterous generation. You ask in what are we adulterous? You are adulterous in that your hearts are far away from Me. You seek your own glory and not Mine. You seek to build your own kingdoms and not Mine. You seek to be seen as righteous and yet you have NO RIGHTEOUSNESS SAVE THAT WHICH I HAVE IMPARTED TO YOU THROUGH MY SON.

Romans 5:18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one THE FREE GIFT CAME UPON ALL MEN all men unto justification of life.
1Corinthians 4:7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and WHAT HAST THOU THAT THOU DIDST NOT RECEIVE? NOW IF THOU DIDST RECEIVE IT, WHY DOEST THOU GLORY, AS IF THOU HADST NOT RECEIVED IT?

Oh wicked and perverse generation, you are no different from the Pharisees; whited sepulchers full of dead men’s bones, and you perceive it not! And yet you ask why are You judging us. Will I continue to let My Holy name be profaned in the world? They look at you, My representatives and they seek Me not. They see no love in you, no caring for the lost and hurting, just those in My church who are huddled together in little private groups, keeping the lost and needy at bay.

Matthew 23:27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchers, which INDEED APPEAR BEAUTIFUL OUTWARD, BUT ARE WITHIN FULL OF DEAD MEN’S BONES, AND OF ALL UNCLEANNESS.

My Son walked the streets and sought out those that needed a physician and yet you do all to keep those needing My healing hand out of your churches. I rebuke you saith the Lord Most High. I will break in pieces My stubborn children that repent not, so that their souls may be saved, even this is because I care for them and their eternity.

Also you serve baalim of pride and self-exaltation. You line your own pockets and give a pittance for the poor. Have I not said that the poor would always be with you and it is for this reason, so that I may test the contents of your hearts. My church is not a privy little company, a select group, a little clique huddled together while the world suffers, lost and dying in pain, in hurt and in confusion about the things transpiring about them.

Look at My Son’s ministry while He walked the earth, did He not walk in meekness and in holiness before Me, did He not suffer much in obedience, was He not out where He was most needed. He was not sitting in a comfortable chair in the Synagogue lording it over others, but out ministering My love and healing to the lost and hurting, to those in error, to those in a dark place, trapped in their sins.

Look at what is called the church today, is it anything like My Son’s ministry? ARE THE CHARACTERISTICS DISPLAYED BY MY CHURCH ANYTHING LIKE THE CHARACTERISTICS OF MY SON? Yet you ask why are we being purged, why are You harsh Lord, why are we going through the things we are going through? It is because I love you and love My creation, that is why you are being purged.

Lay down your idols, your thoughts of grandeur, yea even lay down your ministries at My feet and I will resurrect them, purified and according to My divine will and purposes, and not for your agendas or vain self glorification.

This time refining and purging will reveal the dross in your hearts, repent quickly and let Me remove it, for little time remaineth and much is yet to be done. Thus saith the Lord.
dee@heartbeatofthefather.co.za
http://www.heartbeatofthefather.co.za

Judah's Plea

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

Yesterday I had the opportunity to be a part of an audience for a television taping of a panel discussion on anti-Semitism and the Middle East conflict. The panel members, articulate and fluent, expressed their opinions and responses to very pointed questions that were posed before them. The event was sponsored by the ICEJ (International Christian Embassy Jerusalem), and carried out by "The Media Line". For more information on this program go to www.themedialine.org .

The panelists were two journalists, a Member of the Knesset (Parliament of Israel) and the Director of the Christian Embassy. The questions and the answers were incisive, interesting and informative, but more than anything else, what stood out to me and what I felt the Spirit wanted me to hear was a very short comment by MK Rabbi Michael Melchior. Rabbi Melchior's comment did not issue from his intellect, but from the depth of his heart. It was a plea to the Christians, Muslims and everyone else in the nations: "We want to be Jewish; We want to be recognized and accepted as a Jewish nation". In these words (which are not quoted verbatim) he echoed the sentiment of most Israelis.

There are many so-called Christian nations, there are fifty or so Muslim nations, so why can there not be one Zionist, Jewish nation? According to scripture the first of the nations that YHVH gathers is the stick/nation of Judah (see Ezekiel 37:16). Has He brought the Jews back to the land, established them as His witness and has preserve them through all the turmoil, wars and terror attacks for nought?

When the Almighty declared through the prophet Hosea that He would not have mercy on the second house, the House of Ephraim, He pronounced in the same breath: "Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and I will save them… and will not save them by bow, nor by sword or battle, by horses or horsemen" (Hos. 1:7). Judah is a nation today simply by the faithfulness of YHVH their Elohim. We know that Satan does not want this Jewish stick to exist in any form, let alone as a nation. Ephraimites, you are the second witness/stick or nation that YHVH is gathering at this point in time. I know your heart's desire is to return to the Land, but please consider something, your witness is different than your brother Judah's. You, at this time are out before the eyes of the nations in which you reside. Your testimony is the new creation life that has resurrected you out of the graves of forgetfulness, much like Joseph who was taken out of his prison and was lifted up in the land of Egypt - to be second only to Pharaoh, ultimately to be his brothers' "savior".

Yesterday it became obvious to me that we must be our brothers' keepers and help them maintain their Jewishness as a nation. The Israelis feel that the very reason for the existence of the State is being undermined, and are now resorting to maintaining that status at all costs in the only way they know how, and that is to compromise land for "identity". It is not so much a "land for peace" issue any more. Suddenly everyone seems to have awakened to the fact that the Muslim propagation is such that it endangers the existence of the Jewish State, not militarily, but demographically. Thus, the attempts at negotiations, which are supposed to resolve the complexity of our situation here, are actually not about peace but about "identity". Therefore the supposition that the Judeans would be more receptive to having Ephraimites come and live here, has to be put on 'hold' because if that were the case what would happen to the uniqueness of Judah's testimony? It would be swallowed up by the “second stick”. As things are, it is already a struggle to maintain a majority in the midst of a fast growing Muslim population. It is therefore understandable that the welcome mat to Ephraim may not be rolled out that quickly. There is also the concern that Christians are ‘becoming’ Ephraimites so as to convert more Jews to Christianity.

In light of all of this we are in great need of wisdom from above to discern the times, and to know where the Elohim of all Israel is in His prophetic scheme. If you come over here to live, before a door is open, you may find yourself having to deal with rejection and that can lead to bitterness and other unloving spirits. Ephraimites, you have His life and Kingdom within you, learn to rule your own being, your family and in your communities, so that when the time comes to return you will be prepared. YHVH will also prepare Judah for our future union. Please, do not get me wrong, if YHVH is admonishing you to come over do not disobey or be discouraged; but be aware of present conditions in the Land. The Ephraimites who live here have seen many come and go. It is sad to bid farewell, and we do wish that all those who want to stay could do so, but the laws, at least at this point, are not in our favor. So until such a time when they change, we have an opportunity and an obligation to love our brothers and to support their cause to exist as a Jewish nation. There are those in Judah who know a little about the Ten Lost Tribes, but need a “sign” (such as Brit Am and those of us affiliated with them) to become more confident that this is for real, so much so that they feel that they have an obligation to help us as well.

The Ephraimites also have a big job out in the nations, as the Messiah is still searching for His treasure, a great part of which is still hidden in the Earth: “Is Ephraim My dear son? Is he a pleasant child? For though I spoke against him, I earnestly remember him still; therefore My heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says YHVH” (Jer. 31:20). Those little lost and loved orphans out there need to know that “in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' There it shall be said to them, 'You are sons of the living Elohim” (Hos. 1:10). They need to hear again: “I am a Father to Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn” (Jer. 31:9). They need the love of their heavenly Father to heal their wounds from rejection and alienation.

At the same time it is necessary for us to have an recognized representative presence here in the Land. However, what we need out in the nations is unity of vision, and a sanctified Ephraimite priesthood, one nation, one in Messiah. We will appreciate your prayers as we reach out to the government of Judah and help Brit Am expose this scriptural reality of the restoration of lost tribes of Israel.

Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

John The Beloved of Hollywood

Bill Yount

I sense the Lord saying. "I am first beginning to visit the movie industry with My crucifixion. But soon you will begin to see My Resurrection Power come through movie screens world wide. There are other films that I am dropping into the hearts of film producers and actors. Mel Gibson is My Apostle, "John the Beloved" of Hollywood but there are other disciples already hearing My call to follow Me in the film industry! I am beginning to lay a new foundation built upon the Apostles and Prophets to build Me a House in theatres beginning in Hollywood! On Holy ground I will build a House of Refuge for My gifted chosen people there! I sense Jesus calling forth His Hollywood disciples and commanding them.... "Build Me a House in a Theatre!"

In the Spirit I saw the wonder working power in just one drop of Jesus' blood in "The Passion of the Christ" penetrating right through theatre screens staining seats, sinners and saints and many were seeing it as though it was in "3-D" technicolor!" Major deliverances were taking place as conviction ran into the aisles and between rows of seats, as the blood of Jesus seemingly ran down off of the screens and into the audiences. Repentance began exploding inside of hearts! In the Spirit I saw the blood of Christ simultaneously take out three demonic strongholds in many lives that were present in theatres watching the crucifixion. The first stronghold was discouragement. The second stronghold was depression. The third was deception.

As the theatres were exited at the end, I saw angels putting the blood of Jesus on the door posts of theatres and marking them for the Kingdom of God proclaiming, "we'll be back!" In fact some angels were assigned to stay behind and set up camp right inside those theatres! I sensed the atmosphere in these theatres was forever changing for the "spiritual" blood stains on seats and floors could not be washed away by man - oh those precious blood stains!

"The Holy Spirit is going to begin falling upon secular movies magnifying truth and righteousness to overcome the evil in them with good. Even the lost attending the most degrading movies will come away with such emptiness because of My convicting presence that will begin to reside inside of theatres around the world! Many theatres will be redeemed into My Kingdom to display My Glory in the arts."

Just when we thought for sure that God would never allow us to put Him in a box, He puts Himself in one to be found by many! When you put God in a box in Hollywood, you end up with a "box office" hit!

Bill Yount Hagerstown, MD blowtheshofar@juno.com www.billyount.com

---

Bull Dozers

Bill Yount

I Saw Angels On Huge "Bull Dozers" Surrounding Many Churches!

In the Spirit I heard a Jewish Carpenter order angels who were sitting on huge bull dozers surrounding many churches... "Start your engines!" It looked as though these angels had entered into a "no trespassing" zone that was clearly marked by large neon signs flashing ... "Men at work!"

At the starting of these powerful engines these beautiful churches began to shake at their very foundation! I heard the master builder say. "If the foundation of these churches move even a hair, they will not withstand the greater shaking to come. Their foundation must be tested!" As the angels revved their engine throttles, many foundations began to crack. I saw the workers inside of these churches scurrying outside thinking a strong earthquake had hit. Seeing their foundation weakening they began crying out. "Lord, if the foundation of this house is destroyed, what can the righteous do?" I heard the Jewish Carpenter answer them. "Call for the Apostles and Prophets to build the new foundation for this House. Allow the Apostles to break new ground for it and believe My Prophets. So shall you prosper or your labor will be all in vain!"

Underground Ministry

As the Apostles and Prophets were beginning to be used to build a new foundation, I noticed that their ministry and labor was truly underground and most of the time they were seemingly unnoticed or recognized as they should be as far as the rest of the church was concerned. But I heard the Lord say. "Just as the foundation of any house is underground and usually not seen or noticed, much of the ministry of My Apostles and Prophets in My House will be hidden for the most part by the eyes of man, but I see them and their labor is not in vain! That's the way the foundation of a house is built!

(A word of encouragement to Apostles and Prophets.)

"Don't be discouraged when you experience what seems to be dirt being thrown down upon you from around the House above. At times it may seem like you are being covered up with it, but know that this is a normal part of the process of the foundation being laid underneath any house! That's only a sign that the foundation is really going in well. The foundation of any house is ultimately hidden being covered by dirt. Only the House above is seen when the work is all finished.

If fact, I just heard the master builder dispatch a work order to the angels on those bull dozers. "Get ready to make sure the foundation of My House when finished is completely covered up.... everything except for that chief corner stone!"

by Bill Yount
blowtheshofar@juno.com
www.billyount.com

John The Baptist Type Remnant

Karen Francis

Aug 19, 2004
I received this word from the Lord on January 9, 1998. I thought it may be a blessing to some right now in light of this new finding. It blesses me to read it again, and I thought it may others as well.

John The Baptist Type Remnant
Scriptures: Luke 1:46-55; 67-80

A "John The Baptist" (spirit of Elijah) type remnant is going to be birthed that are going to go forth with the anointing to prepare the way for the coming of our Lord. To give to His people the knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of sins, because of the tender mercies of our God. To Shine upon those who sit in darkness and the Shadow of Death and guide our feet into the way of peace. They will live in a wilderness type dwelling until the Lord is ready to use them.

The wilderness will be a place of refuge in order for them to grow into His likeness and character. He will bring comfort to them in this place and they will be filled with the knowledge of Jesus Christ. This remnant of God's people (Those who love the Lord in Spirit and Truth, free from legalism and walking in righteousness. Those who are truly intimate with the Savior), are about to come forth very soon and show forth the glory of the Lord. They are to get into His presence and seek Him and His ways, not mans idea of who He is, but allow Him to reveal to each one and show Himself anew.

The Lord is going to send forth an east wind to scatter and wash away all the wickedness in the church and a north wind to destroy all that is not of Him. The proud rulers (those proud in thoughts and heart) are about to be brought down and the humble are going to be exalted. He is going to fill those that hunger for Him and send the rich away empty handed, take the spoil from the enemy and give it to His true children. He will reward the faithful in heart and those who have patiently waited on Him.

Prophetic Word

Stand up and shake off the dust. Release yourselves from the chains that keep you bound to tradition, rituals, rules and regulations. Go forth and proclaim with holy boldness My truths and reveal My ways and love to those that are looking for a man or woman of God who will keep the testimonies of Jesus, obey His commands and walk in truth, justice and righteousness.

Do not fear the reproach of man. Do not fear to stand against those who oppose the Name that should be lifted up and not the name of man. I alone will be glorified and I alone sit on a throne. Come down from your lofty place, you who are proud and haughty. You, who proclaim that you rule and not I, says the Lord. For no flesh will glory in My presence! I alone will be glorified and you, oh proud one, will be dethroned. I am a mighty God and will not share My glory with another.

I am raising up a new generation that will walk humbly before Me and will proclaim My name throughout the land. I am about to do a new thing and expose the darkness and secret sins that have been hidden much too long. I have heard the cries of My children and I am going to deliver them from the tyrant. I am going to go forth and proclaim that I am King and Ruler of My people and will not allow man to take what belongs to Me alone, says the Lord.

Stand up My children and be strong in My strength and might. You, who have cried out to Me and have wept before Me and have awaited this day are about to be healed, delivered and rescued from the power of the enemy. You are going to behold your King and I would say to you, Stand Up and proclaim My name, for this is a new and glorious day, says your God who loves you and has heard your cries. Give praises to My name and rejoice, oh My chosen ones. This I will do to proclaim to all, the depths of My love for you.

Arise, Arise, for your day of victory has come. Rejoice, be glad, and shout praises to your Savior and King, for My bride will be adorned with My holy garments. Wash yourselves and prepare for this day, for it comes upon you quickly, and this will be a glorious day to remember. I alone will be glorified and I come quickly, says the Lord. So, prepare yourselves and rejoice as I exalt you and show you My love and faithfulness.

Rejoice, Rejoice, for you are about to behold My glory as you come into My presence. I have truly awaited this day.

All For His Glory,
Karen Francis

Judging Trees By Their Fruit
Cindy Allen

Matt 7:15-20
15 "Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.
16 By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?
17 Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.
18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.
19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
20 Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them. NIV

There is a fruitfulness that the Body of Christ is being called up to. IN this fruitfulness in Christ, there is discernment and understanding of the armour and carnal weapons that were born of the enemy. This carnal warfare cannot take place or be found in the assembly of those saints who are being called together to glorify God through their worship of Him.

Christ is not revealed among those who accuse their brethren or mock the ways of God. Do not fall into the enemy's snare to be tempted to justify yourself. In this place, to justify yourself would mean to testify against another and your testimony must bear witness of Christ alone.
As you continue on as disciples and followers of Christ, the Gospel of Jesus will illuminate a path for others to follow as well. The glory of God will shine forth from the unity of the saints being gathered to expose the traps laid by the enemy in darkness.

Galatians 5:
22 But when the Holy Spirit controls our lives, He will produce this kind of fruit in us: love, joy peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
23: gentleness, and self-control. Here there is no conflict with the law.
24: Those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed the passions and desires of their sinful nature to His cross and crucified them there.
25: If we are living now by the Holy Spirit, let us follow the Holy Spirit's leading in every part of our lives.
26: Let us not become conceited, or irritate one another, or be jealous of one another.

(harpplayer2000@yahoo.com)
http://Foundations.injesus.com

The Flooding and the Baptism
Cindy Allen

The Flooding of the Banks of Jordan and the Baptism of John Apr 5, 2004
When we are being ordained through the Holy Spirit, there are certain "points" within structures of faith where we will be led to stand and endure a process of refining. In these "points" I speak of, the Corner Stone will be revealed to us and we will become established in Him. This process removes the possibilities of us becoming stumbling stones to others. The process of ordination will be shared more as I'm prompted by the Holy Spirit. Ordination is not something we learn about. It is a progressive process of personally experiencing the Son of God and the Word, Jesus Christ in our own Life.

The third chapter of Matthew leads us in powerful victory on our way to a fresh, new baptism in the Holy Ghost and in Fire. In verse 16, heaven opened as Jesus came up out of the water.

Matt 3:16-17
16 As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. 17 And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." NIV

The purpose of the baptism that Jesus was demonstrating here was to "fulfill all righteousness". Matt 3:15 Jesus replied, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness." Then John consented.

The places that the banks of the Jordan flood will reflect past circumstances of our lives where we have measured our own faults and failures. This season of the Jordan is to purge us from all blame so that we may rise up blameless to receive of our inheritance in the Kingdom of God. The cross must be our alignment in these times so we do not rise up justifying ourselves. We must know and experience the Lord's righteousness in these times in order for heaven to open to us. When heaven opens here, it is the love and acceptance of God that draws us deeper into understanding of Christ's resurrection. Seeing the heavens open, we not only walk on the resurrection side of the cross, but we must view others in the singleness of heart that the mind of Christ brings us into.

From this point, we will no longer be baptized at the Jordan, but will receive revelation of Christ through the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Koinonea fellowship is a greater baptism in the Holy Spirit where Christ Jesus is revealed to a body of believers who are connected through the bonds of peace and abiding in unity through the Holy Spirit.

Blessings to all,
Cindy

http://Foundations.injesus.com

"Foundations" is purposed to give expression to the present move of God as we practically incorporate God's Word into our lifestyle in a new level of fruitfulness in Christ.

Jubilee Baskets

Bill Burns

I had a progressive vision, hearing and then seeing ... hearing and seeing. I heard the Lord say, "Come and get your Jubilee baskets." He said that again and again. Then, when I was reading the Word, I began to see the vision of a table. The Lord was standing behind the table filled with baskets of different shapes, colors and sizes. I began to look in the baskets and I found that the baskets were full of seeds. Then there was a label that said, "Spring-time Seeds." And, the Lord said, "I want you to purchase your basket and sow these seeds for the spring harvest of the Jubilee." Some of the seeds will grow very quickly, like radish seeds, and some will take longer, like corn seeds. Then, I asked the Lord about the price of these baskets. He said, "You who have no money come and purchase, for the price is your faith. If you will have faith to believe, you may receive these seeds now and begin to sow them for the upcoming harvest." Some of the seeds were labeled healing, and some were labeled provision, joy, revelation knowledge, understanding of the times and the seasons, peace. Anything you need will be found in those baskets.

Children, break up your fallow ground, says the Lord, for the winter months are here. In this season, you must go forth with faith and break up the hardness of your hearts, those places of unbelief. Allow Me to touch you and fill you with faith, a faith that will see beyond the natural circumstances, a faith that transports you into the Valley of Vision. Can you dare to dream that you can walk there? Come and see; come and listen; come and hear; come and sing; come and dance. Surely, I am among you, and My desire is to bring you forth into that which I have designed, and I desire to bring you into the fullness of My kingdom, into a place where you can see, hear and know Me. My sheep will hear My voice and no other voice will they follow. You will hear and you will see the way that is prepared before you. Come, and see and listen and hear the sound of My voice, for you will be led into that which I have prepared for you. Come and receive, says the Lord.

All rise, says the Lord. Present your case before the court. Bring your requests before the throne, for this is indeed the day of My power. It is the day of the revealing of My purposes, My times and seasons, and I have come to set My people free that they may follow Me without hindrance and in liberty. Come and be free. Have I not instructed you to sow the seeds of the Jubilee? Have I not told you that those seeds will indeed bring forth a harvest? The fruit of that harvest will be the greatest of all, says the Lord. These are the days of glory when I reveal My power to My Church when the kingdom is restored and heaven touches earth and Zion is lifted up.

Small Straws In A Soft Wind

By Marsha Burns

December 20, 2004: Freely you have received; freely give, says the Lord. Just as freely and readily as you have received all that I have prepared and given to you, you must also give with great joy and generosity. Beloved, I want you to develop the same attitude in giving as you do in receiving. Remember that everything that you have, I own; it is all Mine. Become a vessel through which My resources can flow into and out of freely and without hindrance. Let the blessings flow!

Judicial Intercession

James Goll

An Assignment Through a Dream – Judicial Intercession

I received a dream around nine months ago where the Holy Spirit spoke to me concerning my next “Intercessory Assignment”. He said, “In the past you have helped to redig the wells of the Watch of the Lord, Prophetic Intercession, Contemplative Prayer and Crisis Intervention. I am now giving you your next intercessory assignment. It is Judicial Intercession.” I awoke from the dream knowing I had heard the Lord. I chewed on this concept for months – I pondered, meditated, prayed over it, studied and reviewed scripture. Then recently I have had the green light from the Holy Spirit to begin to release this message on Judicial Intercession.

(Please note: I am not saying I alone brought forth any of these intercessory truths. If something is authentically of the Lord, there are always multiple voices who bring forth a message along with a company of people from different places, backgrounds and experiences who partner in pioneering and polishing the truth into a more mature application. This once again is the case. The theme of “Justice” is being taught by many voices in this hour such as Lou Engle, John Paul Jackson, Cindy Jacobs and others. Some are encouraging intercession for our Judicial System in our Government. I give a shout of Amen to that! But I am presenting this is a broader manner with applications that are personal as well as corporate.)

God Presented as a Judge - Scriptures on Justice

We must have a revelation that God is the Judge and that we have a rightful position to present our case through our Advocate /Lawyer - Jesus Christ the Righteous! Consider the following verses depicting our Father God as the Judge:

1. Hebrews 12:22-24

a. First we find a description of God's dwelling place.
b. Second those who dwell there with God.
c. Third the presentation of God Himself.

i. God as Judge of all
ii. Jesus as the Mediator
iii. Blood that "speaks" better than the blood of Abel

2. Genesis 18:25 - Abraham's plea to the Lord:

“Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?”

3. Judges 11:27 - The Lord be the Judge this day.

4. Isaiah 33:22 - For the Lord is our Judge.

5. Luke 18: 1-8 (especially vs. 6-7) – Prevailing upon the unrighteous Judge And the Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge said! Now shall not God bring about justice for His elect, who cry out to Him day and night and will He delay long over them? I tell you that He will bring about justice them speedily."

As believers in Christ in Jesus, we have the privilege and authority to present our case for a judicial hearing in the court room of heaven carrying with us the injustices, pains and wrongs suffered whether our own, others, churches, cities or nations before the righteous Judge. Isaiah 41:21, 22 plainly tells us, “Present your case,” the Lord says. “Bring forward your strong arguments,” The King of Jacob says. Let them bring froth and declare to us what is going to take place; As for the former events, declare what they were, that we may consider them, and know their outcome; or announce what is coming.” Isaiah 43:26 adds to this, “Put Me in remembrance; let us argue our case together, state your case, that you may be proved right.”

This is none other than an invitation into Judicial Intercession where we bring our well-outlined case of injustices before the throne room of heaven for holy invention. We seek an injunction on the lawless thieves of darkness and compensation for the wrongs suffered to be determined and released. According to Isaiah, God wants us to win!

Time to Identify and Capture a Thief

At the beginning of 2004 the Holy Spirit revealed to me that the body of Christ would learn to “identify and capture a thief.” (See my message on Open Doors in 2004.)Paul the apostle stated that we were not to be ignorant of the devil’s schemes. Therefore, discernment will increase as we learn the patterns of the generational enemies that have plagued our lives, families, cities, churches and ministries. The schemes of the enemy will be revealed!

But before we can capture these demonic thieves, we must find them. Before we can locate these enemies of our soul, we must identify them. You must discern your specific enemy knowing our battle is not against people but we wrestle against the powers of darkness (Ephesians 6:11-13). These powers will have a name such as the generational spirit of infirmity, poverty, rejection, abandonment, death etc. Often we will need to do a hunt and search approach down the enemies’ trail using research as a tool in one hand and spiritual gifts of perception in the other.

After identifying and capturing the thief, then we can bring these criminal demonic forces into courtroom hearing to be judged. Many times we do not come out on the winning side because we have not presented our case or been convinced that God is a just God! God loves justice.

God Loves Justice – His Throne is Established in Justice

Isaiah 28:5, 6 – In that day the Lord of hosts will become a beautiful crown and a glorious diadem to the remnant of His people; a spirit of justice for him who sits in judgment, a strength to those who repel the onslaught at the gate.

Proverbs 8:15,16 – By me kings reign, and rulers decree justice. By me princes rule, and nobles and all who judge rightly.

Proverbs 21:16 – The execution of justice is joy for the righteous, but it is terror to the workers of iniquity.

Proverbs 29:26 – Many seek the ruler’s favor, but justice for man comes from the Lord.

Isaiah 16:5 – A throne will even be established in lovingkindness, and a judge will sit on it in faithfulness in the tent of David; moreover, he will seek justice and be prompt in righteousness.

What Happens When a Thief is Caught

Through the completed work of the cross of Christ Jesus, we have access to the throne of God to receive help and mercy in times of need (Hebrews 4:16). Through the blood of Jesus we can now approach the throne of justice and mercy to receive two main things. First of all, we present our case of the injustices received and we ask the judge to release the penalty due the offender. The case is heard and the thief is then brought before the judge for sentencing. Secondly, we then file for the appropriate amount of compensation that is due to the same degree of the offense. If we would truly do this with a pure heart and clean hands (Psalms 24:3-6), then the recompense of restored relationships, healing of damaged emotions, stolen health, finances, hope, purpose, prophetic destiny and calling and so much more would be enormous! Let’s proceed now with faith and humility to claim our rightful inheritance.

John 10:10 – The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly.

Proverbs 6:30, 31 – Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry; But when he is found, he must repay sevenfold; He must give all the substance of his house.

1) We must realize that we qualify for the benefits.
2) We must file our brief in full.
3) We must call forth the indictment against the enemy
(the laws of binding).
4) We must persist until the repayment is fully made
(the laws of loosing).

When the thief is caught – not only must this “force” go to jail – but it has to restore at least up to seven times what was taken away! It is time for the Body of Christ to arise and enforce the victory of Calvary and walk in our divine inheritance. Let Judicial Intercession be fully restored for such a time as this!

Father, in the great Name of Jesus, we ask that you teach us how to identify and capture the thieves that have been hindering our lives and destiny. Holy Spirit lead us in this art of capturing these demonic hosts and presenting them before our Judge and Father to be punished. We choose life this day for our household and ourselves. We call forth the righteous vindication of God to be released against these demonic hosts and that repayment be made in Jesus name. We call forth recompense for all the injustices we have suffered. We declare the best is yet to come and we shall prosper even as our soul prospers. For the Glory of God! Amen!

James W. Goll
www.jimgoll.com

Judgment Unto Righteousness
Arlette Pollard

Revelation 14:6-7

When love rises up
In strength to guide devotion
When the world is seen
Through God’s impassioned eyes
Then is the message of the blood
Moving in might upon emotions
So that glory can conceive
Truth to lead men through the night.

Judgment is known
By a man who is betrothed
To the Spirit of God’s holiness
Revealed through resurrection Light.

The fear of the Lord
Is the beginning of wisdom
This understanding
Will keep men walking upright
With reverence hearts can soar
Within the boundaries of God’s kingdom
Where precious truth worth finding
Will restore the fount of resurrection life.

In mercy God leads
The multitude who worship
Him as creator
Of heaven, earth, and the sea.
His righteousness does increase
As faith turns toward judgment
Within men who are born
In the Spirit of charity and peace.

> “And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.” Revelation 14:6-7
>
> “If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name.” John 12:26-28
>
> “Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be > lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." John 12:31-32

Jesus Christ, adorned in power and majesty from on high, once walked the streets of Galilee as a man. God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, into the world; not to condemn the world, "but that the world through Him might be saved." The world, created by the Lord, had moved into a time and position where all men would be able to set their bearings according to a celestial sphere of great power and beauty, who is the Son of righteousness, Jesus Christ. Yet men, whose lives are a gift from God, in that it is God's breath, His spirit, which gives life to all living creatures, had been misdirected by the great darkness that covered the earth, and did not understand the value of setting a course according to the Light of the world, the Son of righteousness, Jesus Christ.

It was proclaimed of old that, "all the foundations of the earth are out of course," as men cried out, "Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations." Yet, as the hand of God established order and justice upon the earth, according to the righteousness of His Son, Jesus Christ, there would be no man who could fully comprehend what God had prepared for those who loved His holy name. When the divine government was being established according to the purposes found in Jesus Christ, there was no man able to understand the way in which God was answering the prayers of those who had called upon His holy name.

Though men had cried out for God to judge the world according to His righteousness, when the hour of God's visitation upon the earth had arrived, in which to establish His kingdom where righteousness reigned, no man stood ready to raise a hand of understanding and thankfulness. There was no man who could understand how God would establish through Jesus Christ, a divine governmental authority, which would reign over the hearts of men who walked the earth. A government where God's throne of righteousness, established in the heavens, was able to rule over a man's heart, so that a man's desire was toward the Lord. A governmental authority where God releases His gavel of judgment soundly upon a man's heart and mind, so that man is awakened to recognize evil when he moves toward the realm of darkness where the truth of God's love and goodness does not exist.

> "Therefore as by the offense of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 5:17-21

Because of man's disobedience in the Garden of Eden, God's judgment unto condemnation would be pronounced upon Adam and Eve. The penalty for man's disobedience was death. Though they breathed and walked the earth because the spirit, God's breath gave them life, they had been judged unto condemnation, and would forever bear the penalty of death. Though alive, because the spirit gave them life, they would bear the consequence of disobedience; they and their offspring, which was produced from their seed. Their seed had become corrupted, because judgment unto condemnation had been pronounced upon them, and so from their seed future generations of men would be born from corruptible seed. Adam and Eve were to bear the penalty of death, and through their seed would pass the judgment of condemnation, death onto future generations.

But God would not leave man without hope. Where once judgment was unto condemnation; a day would arise when God's judgment would be "unto justification." Though the sin of rebellion brought upon mankind the penalty of death, God proclaimed, through men chosen of Him, that a day would arise when corruption would put on incorruption. When men would be born, "not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever.” (1 Peter 1:23)

All mankind was given life through corruptible seed. All men are born tasting of death. And because death does not live in the realm and region of Light, but finds it source of “truth” in darkness, the natural man, who is raised up in darkness, is led to believe that in this realm of existence (darkness) there is purpose, hope and wisdom. Yet in the darkness Satan reigns, and his influence within the darkness produces a continuous source of lies, which are used to establish paths that lead away from God.

There is no greater darkness than when man listens as Satan speaks words, which persuade him that he has no need to turn and obey the voice of God. Man has received life because of God, because God’s spirit gives life to all living creatures; but because he is born of corruptible seed, which bears the mark of death, and has been raised up in darkness, he will continue to deny the Lord, his Maker. Until Light pierces through the darkness that envelops a man’s life, he will continue to look to the darkness, where Satan dwells, for purpose.

Because of man’s transgression in the Garden, judgment unto condemnation, death, was passed unto all men. But because of One man, the Light of the world, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, judgment unto righteousness, eternal life, was passed unto all mankind. Through Jesus Christ, judgment unto righteousness was pronounced upon those who, through faith, called upon His name. Because of what Jesus Christ accomplished through obedience to the Father, a man who now hears the Word of God unto faith will receive the gift of eternal life, the glory of God, the Holy Spirit.

It is through the Holy Spirit, who is drawn from the wells that spring eternal, that the Father and the Son establish righteousness upon the throne of a man’s heart. It is as the Father and Son make their home upon a man’s heart, through the Holy Spirit, that truth is established upon a man’s thoughts and emotions. So that the works of the devil, the lies and accusations against the goodness of God that were raised up in darkness, are destroyed; the Father and Son, through the Holy Spirit, reveal truth to the heart and mind of a man.

> “He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for His seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.” 1 John 3:8-9

Men who are born again of the seed of incorruption, the Word of God, who is Jesus Christ, have received the gift of eternal life found in the Holy Spirit. Faith in Jesus Christ releases the healing waters, the Holy Spirit, into a man’s life, so that what God has planted upon man’s heart will flourish and bear much fruit unto God. Men born again of incorruptible seed will be raised up in the Light of revelation knowledge, which speaks of God’s great love toward them.

As a man stands under the Son of Light and revelation knowledge, he will be able to comprehend in greater measure God’s great love toward him. As he stands in the Light, as Jesus is the Light, thoughts once aligned with darkness will begin to whither and fade. To stand under the Light of the Son, having had the seed of righteousness planted upon the heart, and watered by the Holy Spirit, is to grow up into maturity, producing the good fruit of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, and faith.

When the hour of God’s judgment unto righteousness had arrived, those of faith toward God, who once walked in the valley of death, yet held onto hope in the promises of God while alive, would be rewarded for their obedience. As Jesus Christ pronounced judgment unto righteousness, eternal life over men, those who had died with their faith placed in God would receive the promised inheritance.

Their faith in God would be what brought forth judgment unto righteousness, eternal life, so that they dwelt forever with the Lord on high.

Men of faith in the promises of God, whose bones laid in graves made by the hands of men, who were worthy of being judged unto righteousness, received the reward of eternal life, the Holy Spirit, who gives life to all men. Men, who had waited in faith for the promises of God to unfold, would be released from their graves, according to the purposes of eternal life found in the Holy Spirit. Having been judged worthy according to faith, they would ascend on high, with Jesus Christ, to their place prepared of God.

For those alive, according to the spirit that gives life to all God's creatures, when the hour of judgment unto righteousness was proclaimed over the earth and heaven, the opportunity to turn from the darkness to the eternal Light of resurrection power was made available. As men heard and received the everlasting gospel, preached through men chosen of God, they too could receive an inheritance that does not fade away with use and time. Through faith, men are judged unto righteousness, so that they receive the Holy Spirit of promised inheritance. Through faith in Jesus Christ, men are awakened from the darkness that lulls men into a troubled sleep, so that they are eternally joined, through the Holy Spirit, to the Father's heart that speaks to them of His eternal love.

Those awakened through faith, so that the Father and the Son make their home upon a man's heart through the Spirit, will in thankfulness, desire to worship God, "that made heaven, and earth, and the sea." As God speaks to the heart and mind of man, through the Holy Spirit who has made His home within a man's life, the lies that were received while walking according to the darkness will be exposed. A man's thoughts will be renewed, restored according to the good purposes of God. Eternal purpose, worth, joy and peace, which could not be obtained in the might of man's wisdom, can be obtained through the Spirit of truth and holiness.

As the thoughts of man, born again of incorruptible seed, stand under the Light of resurrection power, which walks with the Spirit of holiness and truth, a transformation within the man's life will begin to take place. Because the Son has declared a man judged unto righteousness because of his faith, the good seed, the uncorruptible seed that he has partaken of, will continue to raise up eternal truths within his life, so that he brings glory to the Father's name. And as the Holy Spirit continues to nourish the incorruptible seed of righteousness with divine truth from above, an abundant harvest of good fruit will arise within a man's life, so that the man will more sincerely give all praise and honor to God.

Though a man looked to the darkness for truth, when judged unto righteousness, so that he is filled with the Holy Spirit, spirits that once spoke to the fleshly, carnal nature of a man, so that he lived contrary to the good purposes of God, will be put outside the gates of salvation. Within the realm of God's glory there is no place for spirits that speak lies against the holiness and goodness of God. The Holy Spirit will speak with the power and authority of the Father over lying spirits, so that thoughts, which were raised up in darkness, hindering a man from believing in the goodness of God, are put to death.

The spirit of man knows very well the thoughts and opinions that exist within the realm of darkness. And because of thoughts formed in the darkness, natural man cannot understand spiritual truths, such as the love and mercy found in walking with God. But when the Spirit of God moves upon a man's life, shedding God's love abroad within a man's heart, then will a man appreciate his relationship with God and begin to live according to the mind and will of God. As God's Holy Spirit moves upon a man's life, a man will be transformed into that which he has partaken of. Not by might, not by power, but by the Spirit of God's transforming Light is man changed from glory to glory.

> "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be > lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." John 12:31-32

The hour of judgment unto righteousness came upon the earth as Jesus Christ arose from the grave, purging the heavens with His blood so that the glory, the Holy Spirit, was poured out upon all men. Today, those who hear the Father's voice, who turn toward God with faith in Jesus Christ, will be judged unto righteousness so that they receive the Holy Spirit of resurrection power. Today, if a man is filled with God's Spirit, Jesus Christ will rise up in power within this man's life, and fight against the prince of this world who speaks lies against the goodness of God. It is according to the power of the Spirit of God, that the accuser of the brethren, who moves upon a man's thoughts with the spirit of accusation, will be put to death.

Through the Holy Spirit, received as judgment unto righteousness, is a man made righteous in the eyes of God. It is through faith in the Son that all men are drawn into relationship with the Father, so that death, which was raised up in darkness, is swallowed up by eternal life, the Holy Spirit. Because of Jesus Christ's obedience to the Father, a way has been prepared where all men, who hear the Father call, are welcomed to enter through the gates of salvation. Those, who have entered the gates of salvation to stand within the kingdom of resurrection Light, understand the joy of praising the Lord in Spirit and in truth.

> "But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, whither goest thou? But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged." John 16:5-11

Jesus Washing Feet

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Mary, Nard, and Jesus Washing Feet:
The Ministry of Bearing One Another's Burdens
Sept 10th, 2004

I was watching the gospel of John movie again and two incidents stood out to me to share.

John 12:2-8 NIV
3 Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair.

Spikenard Mike Bickle says is a symbol of the fragrance of the Bride's love and appreciation for the Bridegroom. Below is an excerpt from herbal page that shows the natural properties. The natural often reflects the spiritual, so that is why it is shared.

Spikenard Oil properties
Spikenard oil is extracted from Nardostachys jatamansi from the Valerianaceae family and is also known as "false" Indian valerian root. Spikenard oil has a warm, misty, heavy aroma, is pale yellow in color and medium in viscosity.

Origin of Spikenard oil
Spikenard is a tender aromatic herb with a pungent rhizome root and native to the mountainous regions of northern India as well as China and Japan.
It is one of the early aromatics used by the ancient Egyptians and is mentioned in the Bible, in Song of Solomon, and in the Book of John where Mary used it to anoint the feet of Jesus. It was used by wealthy Roman women in perfumes and beauty preparations.

Extraction
Spikenard oil is extracted from the crushed and dried rhizome of the herb by steam distillation and yields 1-3% Therapeutic properties

The therapeutic properties of Spikenard oil are: anti-inflammatory, anti-pyretic, antiseptic, calmative, sedative, laxative and tonic. In other words, the medicinal properties all have to do with healing infection and inflammation, and promoting relaxation.
Chemical composition The main chemical components are: Bornyl acetate, Valeranone, Jonon, tetramenthyloxatricylodecanol, Menthylthymyl-ether and Cineol-1,8. Precautions Spikenard oil has no known contra-indications, but care should be taken as with all oils.

Uses
Spikenard oil can be effective for tension, stress, migraine, nervous indigestion and insomnia. It seems to have rejuvenating qualities especially for the mature skin, and can help with allergies, skin inflammations and rashes. Vapor therapy or used in the bath In vapor therapy or diluted in the bath Spikenard oil can help with: tension, stress and insomnia. Blended massage oil As blended massage oil, Spikenard oil can assist with: tension, stress, migraine and insomnia. Spikenard oil blends well with: Although most essential oils blend well with one another, Spikenard oil blends particularly well with: Lavender, Lemon, Clary sage, Neroli, Patchouli and Vetiver.

What the Lord showed me as I watched Mary in the movie applying the spikenard to his feet, and then drying His feet with her hair, is similar to something the Lord showed me years ago in the story of Ruth at the feet of Boaz. [Boaz is symbolic of Jesus as Kinsman Redeemer in the story of Ruth.]
Here Mary anoints his feet for burial. It is an act of worship that says You alone are LORD, in many ancient cultures. And in the worship, she takes on the smell of the nard no doubt onto her hair as her hair wipes the feet of Jesus. Her hair would have smelled of the spikenard after she wiped his feet with it. It is like saying You alone are Lord. You alone are lovely and fragrant to me.

So the Bride symbolically represented by Mary here…by worshipping, takes on the quality of the smell of the perfumed feet of Jesus. She is called to walk like Him, be like Him. Feet are symbolic of our WALK. And the hair is woman's covering so to speak and she is taking Jesus as her covering, taking on his aroma as it were. Atonement means "covering". So as she worships Jesus, she is preparing Him at that point in time for the death He was about to endure for the sins of the whole world. And as she worships HIM, the aroma of His perfumed body of sacrifice soaks into her hair, into her. The hair is also a symbol of man's glory. So His glory is transferred to her in a sense as she worships Him. And this we KNOW is what happens when we worship Him. His presence comes and He pours into us His attributes, His glory.

The other thing is that that spikenard was probably the most valuable thing she owned. She didn't begrudgingly give, but she offers the whole of it to Him. And it represents our earthly possessions in this sense. Everything precious to us, that we have, everything we are, we give to Him. Without Him, we wouldn't have it in the first place. This then again relates to Isaiah 58 and how if we are true worshippers, our home, our life, our possessions are not our own, but are for His Kingdom, for His purposes. And she is pouring it out because of her love.

She is an extravagant worshipper. Nothing is held back. This is the beauty of the Bride of Christ. She loves extravagantly, not selfishly or for her own purposes, or to look good. She is so excited to do this. I wonder if Mary realized until she did it what it was about. She just spontaneously worships Him, out of her love and affection. Lazarus had been just raised from the dead. It no doubt had an effect of instilling more faith and realization of the LOVE of Christ for all of them.

And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

And as we worship Jesus, our house, our body is filled with the fragrance of HIM. We take on His attributes as He pours out into us His glory as we worship. And as we worship Him, the glory fills our actual HOUSE, or place of worship as well. The presence of God comes in the worship of Him. He abides in the praises of His people.

4 But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,

5 "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages." 6 He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

Judas at this point reveals his heart, by what he says. There are many today who also do not care about the poor or needy, and whose orientation to governing the finances is more for their own selfish purposes with no regard for the truth of what the tithe is for.

7 "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. " [It was intended] that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. Jesus affirms the importance of what Mary is doing. And He rebukes Judas for his criticism of her. Even knowing the heart of Judas, Jesus is still so loving even in His rebuke to him. He knew all things and knew the end of Judas as well…knew what he would do and how his life would end. He took no pleasure in that nor tried to extract vengeance.

The next thing He showed me was when Jesus washed the feet of the disciples, how He took off his outer garments, only left on his undergarment and put a towel around his waist.

John 13:3-8 NKJV
3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God, 4 rose from supper and laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded Himself.
5 After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

As he washed the feet of the disciples and wiped them with the towel which was girded around his waist. The dirt from their feet would have transferred to the towel around His waist. This was a sign to of taking on the sins of the world, onto his own person, that they would become free.

6 Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, "Lord, are You washing my feet?"

7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will know after this."
8 Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

Jesus at this point says, paraphrasing, unless you ALLOW ME to take all this sin onto ME, as I go to the cross, you have no part with ME! In other words, it is only by GRACE, by ME taking on your sins, me wearing them as I go to the cross that you can be saved [have part with Me] . Unless you accept this sacrifice, allowing ME to be your servant. You cannot call yourself MINE!

Thus in Galatians where Paul says, “ Oh foolish Galatians, Who has bewitched you? “ and starts talking how they have gone back to relying on their own strength to be good, versus accepting the GRACE of GOD towards them, that it is like witchcraft. It is like Peter saying…NO NO LORD, I can’t allow YOU to do that! It is refusing HIS sacrifice. Jesus took on the sins of the world. Then he told His disciples to also wash one another’s feet. And we see this pattern then of washing each other’s feet symbolic of covering the sins of others, interceding for the sins of others. Identifying like Jesus did with our sins, and interceding that the penalty for their sins would be removed. It is called bearing one another’s burdens!

Gal 6:2 NKJV Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

And Jesus said about the Pharisees, that they failed in this…

Matt 23:4-5 NKJV For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

Instead of the Pharisees bearing burdens, they put burdens on the others. And would not do anything to help remove their burdens.

This is the admonition of the LORD in this hour as well. That the church instead of taking away burdens, has instead loaded people down with burdens, blaming them for being sick for example, saying it’s because they don’t have enough faith, and at the same time doing NOTHING to help in some places.
Instead of helping the poor, some are placing burdens to tithe on widows and single moms and the sickly, wanting their money to build edifices, and homes for themselves, and cars, while the widow, the fatherless and sickly go without what they need. All they have is the promise that “ if you give” you will be healed.

This kind of behavior is what launched the Protestant reformation. Yet our eyes seem to still be blind to our own condition. FOR THIS is what we must repent for if we want to be effective in stopping judgments.

We must identify with the sins in the church, and in the land…wiping the feet of the lost taking on their sins, their burden, praying for them, helping love them like Jesus would, so that their bondages may be broken.

Prating Fools
Priscilla van Sutphin

www.upstreamca.org

Sept 8th, 2004
Prov 10:8 NKJV The wise in heart will receive commands, But a prating fool will fall.

Times and seasons change whether in the Kingdom of God or in the kingdoms of men. Those hearts who are truly given to Me will listen when I call, and listen to My commands. But the hearts of those who refuse My will indeed will fall. There will be a great number in the days ahead who fall away due to persecution and hard times. So do not take to heart all your heart will see My children. Remember the story of Gideon and how many did not get chosen because they were afraid of the numbers against them more than of ME. They saw Me as too small. That same problem exists in the church today in that many see ME as very small indeed, if even existent. There are many who give lip service to serving Me, but when their hearts are tested in days to come, their true allegiance will be uncovered.

So do not be surprised when you see them turn away from the Truth when the time comes to stand for what is truly RIGHTEOUS. Lawlessness will increase in the coming year. More and more tumults in the nations, and more and more famine, disease, earthquakes and groanings. But I will also arise in the hearts of those who love ME, MORE AND MORE! You will not be disappointed. Do not look at circumstances. Weigh in your hearts the things you can hold in your hands, and do not set your heart on them. For though there will be increase for those who've been faithful, it will not last forever, and only that which DOES LAST forever is what you need to hold in your hearts.

The luster and beauty of yesterday does not even compare with the beauty of the heavens and the eternal rewards for those who endure till the end.

James 5:7-11 NKJV Be Patient and Persevering
Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain. 8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. 9 Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be condemned. Behold, the Judge is standing at the door! 10 My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and patience. 11 Indeed we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen the end intended by the Lord — that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

Remember My beloveds how much I love you and care for your every need and desire. Remember that I am with you till the end, and do not turn away from the hope that lies within you. KNOW that I am with you in every second of the day and night. TRUST ME to lead and guide you like I did the Israelites in the desert! Remember the pillar of fire by night and the cloud by day. For I will again lead you as I did them. And I will strengthen in you, the Spirit of the Lord, the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, Counsel & Might, and the Spirit of Knowledge.
Let the weak say I am strong, in the strength of the Lord! For indeed I will strengthen you and lead you in the way you should go.

Ex 14:24 NKJV Now it came to pass, in the morning watch, that the LORD looked down upon the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He troubled the army of the Egyptians.

Ex 13:21-22 NKJV And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night. 22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

Num 14:14 AMP And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, Lord, are in the midst of this people [of Israel], that You, Lord, are seen face to face, and that Your cloud stands over them, and that You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

Isa 4:2-6 NKJV The Renewal of Zion
In that day the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious; And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing for those of Israel who have escaped. 3 And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy — everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem. 4 When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, 5 then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a covering. 6 And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

Prepare for Union
Priscilla van Sutphin

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

John 3:34-36 NKJV For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. 35 The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. 36 He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

2 Cor 3:18 AMP And all of us, as with unveiled face, [because we] continued to behold [in the Word of God] as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another; [for this comes] from the Lord [Who is] the Spirit.

How much do you want of My Spirit? How much do you want My presence?
Why do you want more of My power? Why do you seek Me?
I was transfigured before enduring the cross.
Are you now willing to take up your crosses?
Are you willing to go to the next level of glory?
He who suffers with Me, shall share in My glory.
I tell you now, because you have asked, indeed you will suffer loss, but in that loss will come GAIN. For I will indeed redeem you from the fires of affliction, persecution and suffering to be lights in a world filled with darkness. You will be replenished with all you NEED to do the work of the kingdom. The spoils of the wicked will be given to those who are trustworthy. I will see to it that you who fear My name will have many great escapes from the fangs of the beast.

But I tell you now to prepare your hearts for UNION with Me.
Prepare for the hurricane of My love to bring you into the eye of My peace. In ME is LIFE, and life more abundant. So many are looking for greater deeds, greater missions, greater fame and name, greater ministry. Ministry has become an idol to many. You don't realize that to whom much is given, much is required. Great ministry is DOING THE WILL OF THE FATHER. It is NOT about having your name in lights. Having your name in lights will cost you in the days ahead. Many will be glad for your years of hiddenness.
For the nameless and faceless will be able to do great exploits because they are unknown and because they have died to having the glory for themselves. I am purging all selfish ambition. Many love to have their names seen but don't realize the risk. It's not inherently bad to have your name in lights.

It's just that when you look to that, to receive approval from man, then you are barking up the wrong tree, and are into idolatry to self. And like a dog, those who are in selfish ambition, will be beaten down…not by ME, but by those who hate Me, will the judgment come! I was known because of My miracles and teaching. Many will be known because of being like me, but they will not have lifted themselves up. They will lift ME up! And for that, they will share in My glory and share my love with the world. And they will dwell in the secret place and be hidden by me, till their commission is fulfilled. Do not seek to be known.

Seek to make Me known, and you will be known where it counts!

Be faithful in caring for the children I have given you, and I will extend your tent pegs. If you are faithful in little, I will give you more. DISCIPLE My lambs! Disciple My sheep! Take up your cross and walk forward to the greatest hour the earth has ever seen. The hosts of heaven will rejoice in all I do. They have been waiting to see this hour. REJOICE for Your LORD draws nigh! Ask and you shall receive, knock and the door will be opened.
Ask for more faith. Ask for more love. Ask for more patience and ask Me for souls and I will give them! Ask for miracles, and be filled with FAITH!

Rom 8:17 AMP And if we are [His] children, then we are [His] heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ [sharing His inheritance with Him]; only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

1 Cor 3:15 NKJV If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

2 Cor 3:7-8 NKJV Glory of the New Covenant
But if the ministry of death, written and engraved on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away, 8 how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious?

Isa 45:8 NKJV "Rain down, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation, And let righteousness spring up together. I, the LORD, have created it.

To Err is Human
Priscilla Van Sutphin

To Err is Human, to Forgive, Divine"

Sept 12, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

Isa 30:28-30 NKJV
28 His breath is like an overflowing stream, Which reaches up to the neck, To sift the nations with the sieve of futility; And there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, Causing them to err. 29 You shall have a song As in the night when a holy festival is kept, and gladness of heart as when one goes with a flute, to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the Mighty One of Israel. 30 The LORD will cause His glorious voice to be heard, and show the descent of His arm, with the indignation of His anger And the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, tempest, and hailstones.

Ezek 3:16-19 NKJV Ezekiel Is a Watchman
Now it came to pass at the end of seven days that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them warning from Me: 18 When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. 19 Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

"My beautiful bride, I am with you in the storms and I am with you in the waves, and I am with you in the earthquakes, and the floods. The floods have lifted up, but the voice of the Lord is mightier than the floods of many waters! The voice of the Lord makes the deer give birth.
There are events unfolding that will cause you great pain in your heart, but I am coming to prepare you if you will just rest in ME and receive all that I have for you. For the church is yet to be triumphant over the many things that have afflicted her and stolen from her in this hour. I WILL change the face of the church through judgment and burning.

Surely My hand is not too short to save? Surely you have heard every testimony of My power and deliverance in the Word, and you should know that I would not leave you alone in this hour. I am shaking, and I will continue to shake the systems and idols of all mankind! Nothing will be passed by. Only what is of ME shall stand and go forth to build MY KINGDOM!
For I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind! I have plans for you, plans for good and not for evil to give you a future and a hope. I am perfecting all that concerns you and all that concerns ME! Yes I said ALL that would keep you from the fullness of what I want to pour out in you will be annihilated!

I am doing surgery on many of you through circumstances and happenings, through the worship and through the prayer, and the rest. Only cling to ME, for many need the love I am giving to you. The world is starved for more love and kindness. Many have only known oppression and more oppression. LEAN ON ME when you are afraid, and being attacked by doubts and fears."

[Then I remembered a photo I looked at about Frances, the hurricane. I had seen this picture of a church whose steeple had been lobbed off by the winds and the point of it was sticking into the roof. I thought last night how it looked to be prophetic]

“The steeple is to make everyone see where the church is, is it not. On the horizon of many towns, you can see the steeples of the churches or other buildings. In the days ahead, there will be such persecution, you will wish there was no sign of where you meet to worship ME! You will have to meet in small groups in homes and change the locations weekly sometimes so no one can find out what is going on. For many will arise with hatred in their hearts for the judgments I am rendering, and they will blame others and will be discontented to the degree of hatred and violence. Witchcraft abounds that says, “I should be able to do what I WANT! ” Men are becoming more and more selfish and self centered. Many will fight against the goads and begin to blame you who worship ME and who also love Israel.

Because I will protect you and bless you, they will hate you. They will NOT have what they need if they have rejected ME. So I will also ask you to depend on ME for who to help and who not to help. Use wisdom and seek MY face as I lead you in what to do or not do! Angelic hosts are increasing in the earth as the times draw closer to My coming. Expect encounters and expect instructions and guidance in all the turmoil.

Time is not standing still and many who desire to live through these times, will be given special assignments and provision, and all they need for the work at HAND! I am loosing My angels to the four corners of the earth, and they will direct many into paths to Goshens and through ways of escape. Yet there will also be many bloody battles and much loss of life. LEARN TO RELY ON ME, and not your own presumption. Say, I am your DEFENSE, you will not be moved! I AM your Wisdom, I AM your Might! Know that I am with you and will be with you even more as the days draw near. I am coming to transform and transfigure, and you will never be the same again. Every chain will be broken. Lean NOT on your own understanding, but in all your ways acknowledge ME. For I am your GREAT REWARD! WORSHIP ME and I will show you great and mighty things. I love you and I will love you forever and ever. Nothing can separate you from My love! ”

Dan 12:4 AMP
4 But you, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the Book until the time of the end. [Then] many shall run to and fro and search anxiously [through the Book], and knowledge [of God's purposes as revealed by His prophets] shall be increased and become great. [Amos 8:12.]

Isa 3:12-15 NKJV
12 As for My people, children are their oppressors, And women rule over them. O My people! Those who lead you cause you to err, And destroy the way of your paths."
13 [Oppression and Luxury Condemned]
The LORD stands up to plead, And stands to judge the people.
14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of His people
And His princes "For you have eaten up the vineyard;
The plunder of the poor is in your houses.
15 What do you mean by crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor?" Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isa 9:16-19 NKJV
16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err, and those who are led by them are destroyed. 17 Therefore the Lord will have no joy in their young men, Nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows; For everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly.
For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.
18 For wickedness burns as the fire; It shall devour the briers and thorns, And kindle in the thickets of the forest; They shall mount up like rising smoke. 19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts The land is burned up, and the people shall be as fuel for the fire;

Isa 19:14 NKJV
14 The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in her midst;
And they have caused Egypt to err in all her work,
As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

Isa 28:7-12 NKJV
7 But they also have erred through wine, and through intoxicating drink are out of the way; The priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink, They are swallowed up by wine, They are out of the way through intoxicating drink; They err in vision, they stumble in judgment. 8 For all tables are full of vomit and filth; No place is clean. 9 "Whom will he teach knowledge? And whom will he make to understand the message? Those just weaned from milk? Those just drawn from the breasts? 10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept, Line upon line, line upon line, Here a little, there a little." 11 For with stammering lips and another tongue He will speak to this people, 12 To whom He said, "This is the rest with which You may cause the weary to rest," And, "This is the refreshing"; Yet they would not hear.

Jer 23:13-14 NKJV
13 "And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria: They prophesied by Baal
And caused My people Israel to err. 14 Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem: They commit adultery and walk in lies; They also strengthen the hands of evildoers, So that no one turns back from his wickedness. All of them are like Sodom to Me, and her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

Jer 23:31-32 NKJV
32 Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams," says the LORD, "and tell them, and cause My people to err by their lies and by their recklessness. Yet I did not send them or command them; therefore they shall not profit this people at all," says the LORD.

Known By God's Love

Yolanda Ballard

Are you experiencing in your heart the onward pull to go deeper with Me? Then don't allow it to pass you by. Be sensitive to the leading of My Spirit and respond immediately. No matter what you are doing respond to My calling you close. Deep calls unto deep at the sound of My waterspouts.

Examine the stirring within your heart. Is it that which comes from being in My intimate presence, or is it a drive within to accomplish something that you feel that needs to be done concerning My kingdom purposes? I want you to make sure that you are not just being driven by the spirit of busyness and religiosity, because anything I would set you out to do would not rob Me of your precious time before Me. You need to draw close to Me and examine those stirrings within your heart and make sure they are of Me.

I want you to be able to hear My voice clearly so I can direct you on the paths you are to take. I want to give you the discernment that you need to know what spirit you are being guided by, because that which is of the counterfeit has been directing the paths of many of My children these days. They are being tossed about by every wind and doctrine and not by the simplicity of My pure word directing them.

This is the time and the hour where I will be separating the men from the boys. Yes, I will choose this hour those who will dip their hand into the stream to drink and leave those that bow down before every tree and idol. For when you leave all your cares into My hands is one thing, but to go about unaware of what is around you while you partake of every need that you have is where many fall short.

You need to watch and pray while it is still day for there will come a day when those who are unprepared will be taken away by the streams of deception being poured out. Yes, I AM doing a separating work and those who have responded to My call to go deeper will be able to hear clearly and respond to My call.

I love you, My children, and I want you to be ready for I AM drawing together My remnant who will be of one mind and will be in one accord with My plans and purposes. I will draw them together even around the world and place in their hearts the draw to go deeper into My presence. They will know My word, because I have filled them with My grace and truth. They will worship Me with the song of the Lord, and they will dance upon injustice and will release My deep and powerful heart cry for the lost, and you will see the multitudes rushing into My presence, and salvation and grace will be theirs.

Yes, this is the final hour. Don't let it pass you by. Be sensitive to My drawing you close. Love Me with all your heart, and love your neighbor as yourself. And most of all, love the brethren, for then and only then will the world know you by My love.

Testimony of Love

Yolanda Ballard

Aug 18, 2004
I have had the privilege to set up a website for a dear Messianic Jewish woman who lost everything to gain the King of Glory in her life. She shares her mighty testimony also different writings about her life experiences and I am sure it will touch your heart. If you feel led, come visit her new site and give her a warm welcome by signing her guestbook. Please pray for her that the Lord will stir the gift of writing within her to bring forth a message of encouragement to all.
Love in Christ,
Yolanda

Kim Clement Expounds

Kim Clement Expounds on the Controversial 35-day Prophecy: "Osama b*n Laden WILL be Uncovered" by Kim Clement

web: www.kimclement.com

There has been an overwhelming interest in the prophecy regarding Osama b*n Laden and the thirty-five day period. I would like to bring clarity to any questions one may have in this regard.

Prophecy itself is not complete because of the element of the Human and Divine interaction. This means our dependency is always on God, who in His wisdom will only speak what He deems necessary for that moment. The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 13:9 that we prophesy in part.

In 1 Peter 1:10-11, we see the prophets of old searching to find "what" or "what manner of time" the Spirit of Christ, who was in them, was indicating regarding the Glory that was to come.

1 Peter 1:11 - "What" in the Greek: In reference to the word "what," or "what manner of time". "What" expresses the time absolutely or what was to be the era of the revelation of Jesus Christ; what manner of time; what events and features should characterize the time of this event. The "or" implies that some of the prophets, if they could not as individuals discover the exact time, searched into its characteristic features and events. The Greek for "time" is the season, the epoch, the fit time in God's purposes.

Purposefully Hidden Prophecy

This scripture reveals that certain parts of prophecy are purposefully hidden. God will only unveil things according to His timing and purpose. A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver. Sometimes specifics that are missing in prophecy are being kept for a perfect moment of unveiling. God unfolds His picture of future events through a progression of "pieces of the puzzle."

God always requires faith and therefore He will always present His word in such a way as to produce faith. God never looks at your present request, but rather He speaks with your future in the present. This means He will always challenge your faith in order to prepare you for your next course of events.

In order to gain understanding regarding prophecy, we need to realize the limitations of the interpretive process. There are times when God specifically gives a time and day of exact fulfillment. Other times, however, He speaks as though it has happened; yet, in reality it is years away from fulfillment. Samuel, the great prophet, declared to Saul that now his kingdom would not continue. The reality of this declaration was the fact that it was only years later that this literally happened. In God's eyes, Saul had already lost his authority as king.

Misinterpreted Spiritual Knowledge

A good example of this is in Acts 21, where Paul finds himself with some disciples from Tyre who tell Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem. These disciples interpreted the spiritual knowledge they were receiving, to mean that Paul should not go to Jerusalem.

Later on in the same chapter, a prophet named Agabus, came down from Judea, and declared to Paul through a prophetic enactment that he would be bound by hand and foot by the Jews at Jerusalem, and they would deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. Again, some different disciples from Caesarea try to convince Paul not to go to Jerusalem, based on what they had seen and heard when Agabus the prophet delivered the word of the Lord. Agabus did not say to Paul that he should not go to Jerusalem. In Acts 21:13, Paul makes a final statement by saying,

"What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus". So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."

The 35-day Period Explained:

Our personal desires can sometimes cause the Word of the Lord to be interpreted incorrectly. I would therefore like to offer a few explanations regarding the thirty-five day period:

The prophecy referred to the declaration that was given by Osama b*n Laden about a thirty-five day period. This was a designated time period in which he had purposed for a catastrophic event to take place in the United States of America.

The word of the Lord that came forth referred to these thirty-five days in which God would reverse the planned events and begin to do something special for God's people and the United States of America. This period of time was linked to Easter and did not specify a particular day that the 35 days would commence.

Take note of the word. This utterance was first prophesied in Utica, New York on January 10 and then it continued in Miami, Florida on January 12.

UTICA, NEW YORK – JANUARY 10, 2004.

The Spirit says:

"al Qaeda shall be exposed shortly. There has been a threat that has come from them and there has been a threat spoken out by Osama b*n Laden that within 35 days the USA shall experience a catastrophic event. But even as I brought out the other rogue from the hole in the ground, in the same period that bin Laden predicted catastrophe against this nation, I shall bring him forth, I shall raise him out of his own hiding place, and I will bring him to a place of accountability."

NOTE: This speaks of three things that will happen verifying that in the 35-day period, the following would take place:

1. I shall bring him forth.
2. I shall raise him out of his own hiding place.
3. I will bring him to a place of accountability.

The prophecy continues:

"As a result, this Easter you shall say, 'Surely this is a time of resurrection for the USA.'

The Curse Reversed!

Therefore, the curse that he has placed upon this nation has been reversed and what Osama b*n Laden has predicted (35 days), I shall surely bring upon his head.

You will celebrate an Easter as never before for the resurrection shall come upon you, My people, as well."

Please note that God refers to Easter as the time of victory. Also, God had given me a clear word in the late 90's about the month of March and then again on November 27, 2003, I was instructed to prophesy about 3-11, March 11, 2004 in which the Spirit spoke of the beginning of a 10-year period of release and breakthr*ugh in the Kingdom of God, which would bring about various things. (You may see this on my website: http://kimclement.com/)

ON JANUARY 12, TWO DAYS AFTER I PROPHESIED REGARDING OSAMA B*N LADEN, I CONTINUED THE UTTERANCE ON NATIONAL TELEVISION IN MIAMI.

Take note of the word:

Osama b*n Laden said that in 35 days America would be abolished (he was prophesying, predicting), wiped out because he has a plan for 35 days. The word of the Lord came to me and said, "You prophesy that the very thing that he said and predicted for this nation is reversed, and I'm going to bring him out in 35 days. There is a resurrection day coming over this Easter. This Easter will be one of the greatest Easters this nation has ever celebrated. Why? Because there will be a resurrection of the dead, spiritually speaking, of revelation that has died, of prophetic words that have died and been buried in the ground. This Easter, not only will I bring your greatest enemy out, but I will also bring about a severe judgment against the powers and principalities that have come against My servants and against My people. There shall be a judgment."

Not once did I say that the 35-day period would begin from January 10 or 12. It clearly says that as bin Laden put a time limit on his attack on the USA, God has placed that same time period upon him. However, there is a deadline and from what I can gather from the utterance, Easter is the time to celebrate this victory.

We do know from this word that the specific time period would be linked to March 11 and Easter. We also know that God has indicated that Osama b*n Laden will be uncovered.

In baited expectation, we look forward to the season ahead of us, anticipating the wonderful things that God has promised for both our personal lives, the nations of the earth, and specifically the United States of America.

by Kim Clement
web: www.kimclement.com

Know That Change Is Near

June Sanders

"Disturbances cause actions that demand freedom. So Rejoice! When you encounter resistance. Be Aware of your Choice! When confronted with open conflict. 'KNOW THAT CHANGE IS NEAR'. Transition comes to all so you must Trust Me and not fear.

Appreciate rebellions that are for The Good of the Whole. They weed out Emotions that have Poisoned Body and Soul. Stop blindly fighting when You Feel Personally Opposed. Relax, allow your Soul To become quiet and reposed.

Stand back and watch as Loyalty and Passion each play out. A Sense of Deep Connection comes To cause a Turn-a-bout. To Clarify MY Vision; Always Deeper Than YOU Thought. Enlargement and Provision Comes to Those Who Can't Be Bought.

Lift up your eyes unto the skies. Your Help is at the door. Flying in on Angels Wings; Hope, Faith and Joy Galore!"

1 CORINTHIANS 5 & 9
So that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men (human philosophy), but in the power of God. What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and has not entered into the heart of man, [all that,] God has prepared - made and keeps ready - for those who love Him [that is, for those who hold Him in affectionate reverence, promptly obeying Him and gratefully recognizing the benefits He has bestowed].

Great Change is taking place as Visions are rearranged and put into God's Order. He has raised the standard or bar as He purged and poured Himself into His Vessels. We thank You Lord for Your Breaking and Making and anticipate Your Treasures being made manifest to and through us , this and every day.

June Sanders
rejoicejs@mecsc.net

http://joyofthelord.injesus.com

Restore My Families Heart Break
June Sanders

"Many of My children have been imprisoned since their youth. Trapped in cages of deceit that shun the entrance of truth. Shrinking back in horror from any light that penetrates their dark domain of illusion, but My Love Liberates.

In the twinkling of an eye I am reversing this curse: To Restore My Families Heart Break. Their failure reverse. I will overtake their dreams. Separate the truth from lies. The things you thought impossible will now materialize

For in My time of Suddenlies all things shall be made clear. My Faithful Ones who keep My Word to live by faith, not fear: will find that I have broken through the cage that held you fast. Now walk free of all rejection and sorrow of your past.

Repent of accusations you have made that were not true. Cry out for understanding that you see things from My view. Change the words that you are speaking. Let it Be Love I Hear. Resounding from each Home on earth in Peace and Joy this year."

PROVERBS 14:3 In a fools own mouth is a rod to SHAME his pride, but the wise men's lips shall preserve them.

June Sanders rejoicejs@mecsc.net http://joyofthelord.injesus.com

Knowing The Times And Seasons
Robert I Holmes

Issachar's children served king David. They had great effect in the battle of Deborah and Barak (Judges 5:15) and in fact their home territory was the scene of several key battles in ancient times including those of Gideon (Judges 7) and Saul (1 Sam. 28). In the time of David, Issachar held the fewest chief's of all: only some 200- (1 Chr. 12: 32) yet were as valuable to David as an entire tribe. All their brethren were at their command because they were men who had understanding of the times, who knew what Israel should do. (1 Chr. 12:32).

Knowledge of the Times

The children of Issachar had understanding of the times, knowing what Israel ought to do. The Psalmist cried out "We do not see our signs: there is no longer any prophet, nor is there any among us who knows how long" (Psalm 74:9). Jesus reiterated this lament saying "You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, yet you can not interpret the signs of the times!" (Matt 24:1).

One of the short falling's of the current prophetic movement, is that for all our zeal, we do not understand the signs of the times we live in. Especially the judgments of the Lord. In a church where sweetness, goodness and positive thinking is promoted, holiness, righteousness and justice wane.

Jeremiah lamented "The stork in the heavens knows her appointed times, and the Turtle- dove, swallow and crane observe their times of coming, yet my people do not know the judgments of the Lord" (Jer. 8:7).

The current prophetic movement is full of conflicting advice about the signs. Consider these examples:

- Y2K and the predictions of destruction which filled the church - 9/11 and the response of the church that this was not judgment - Iraq and Afghanistan, the prophetic movement supporting war - The nation of Israel as it is today, does it represent a fulfillment of prophecy

What's the "time"?

Jesus, after a dissertation on what we would see in the end times, proceeded to say, "Consider the parable of the fig tree". The point he makes is that when it puts forth it's tender shoots, you know summer is near, so to when you see "these things" you know He is near (Matt. 24:32).

How powerful it is, to be able to read the front page news, and come to work - being able to explain these things to the lost companions you have. To be able to understand the times we live in and bring them hope of the future.

Now we know that now man can know the hour of the return of Christ, but we are told to look for the sign of his coming, and told to seek to understand the season of the end. At this point let's clarify "time". There are seven words for time used in common Greek: Chronos: a space of time, moment to moment, clock time (Acts 20:18). Mechri: terminus, end, a completion moment, a turning point (Matt. 13:30).

Ede: by this time, when the fullness has come (John 11:39). Popote: ever yet, at any time, not ever (1 John 4:12). Aion: an age, an era, a period of infinite duration, eternity (John 17:3). Hora: instant in season, high time, about time, time has come (Matt. 25:13).

Kairos: season, due time, spring time (1 Thess. 5:1, Luke 19:44). We cannot now the hora of Christ's return, but we must know the kairos it will tae place in. The ones who will lead the army of God in the battles ahead will be like the offspring of Issachar- ones who know the seasons of the Lord, who know what the church should do.

Court Prophets

As God restores the ministry of the prophet to the body of Christ, He is also re-establishing the position of the court prophet. Nathan to David, Samuel to Solomon, Micaiah to Ahab. The men stood in a place of influence to the very ruler of their nation in their day.

We learn from Esther 1:13 that when it came to timing, it was the kings procedure to consult those who were versed in law and custom. Today they are called secretariats or diplomats. It was not for nothing that these men were called sages, for their knowledge of the timing of vital decisions was paramount. As in their days, so ours.

Just as a general Manager in a firm needs weekly review meetings, as well as the big 'month end' and 'end of year' reports, so the rulers of the church need consistent counsel. The Lord is restoring prophetic counsel to the leaders. The will stand among the elders and deacons, no longer sitting on the sidelines to be trotted out for the odd conference or two. No longer will the prophetic sit in isolation, 'handing in' their words to elders. The church needs those who are raised in the line of Issachar, to bring wise counsel to the church on what it should do. I t is the unwise leader who rejects this kind of counsel. God is restoring a position of weekly counsel, guidance in prayer meetings, and prophetic persons to be on staff of churches.

New Day Leaders

One of the great strengths of Issachar's offspring was that they did set their hearts on being servant leaders, they were swept there by virtue of their wisdom. Scripture indicates that they were to be slaves, bearing the burdens of others. They were not to strive to be leaders but knew how to follow and serve. They were known as princes (Judges 5: 15) yet they carried the burdens of the others: the nature of Jacob's prophetic blessing of Issachar and his offspring (Genesis 49: 14-15) indicates that his tribe would lend itself out to bear the burdens of the others. It also intimates that by the burden bearing for others, they would be 'enslaved'. Christ teaches us that to lead in the church today, you must be servant of all, and any who would set their hearts on the high place, must first sit at the lowest place on the table. Paul reminds us that God will exalt only the humble and He will destroy the proud. To be an apostle or a prophet means to be at the bottom of the ladder, not the top. Ones who serve all not Lord it over others. Do not deceive yourself, if you set you heart on selfish gain, you will not be trusted with the ministry of a prophet!

Wise Counsel

In the land that Issachar inherited was the town of Abel- which king Joab had besieged and was about to destroy. A wise lady in this city came forward to declare this wonderful account of this city- "then she said 'They used to say in the old days- Let them inquire at Abel; and so they would settle a matter. I am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel; you seek to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel; why will you swallow up the heritage of the Lord?' " (2 Sam 20:14- 22 esp 18).

The city had a spirit of reconciliation, wisdom and maturity that had become a mother to Israel. People would resolve their differences, and unity would grow because of their ministry. They would inquire of the wise children of Issachar about the matter. This is this kind of ministry the Lord is raising. Not striving to lead, but wisely counseling.

Moses blessed Issachar saying "Rejoice Zebulun, in your going out, and Issachar, in your tents. They call peoples to the mountain; there they offer right sacrifices" (Deut. 33:18-19). The blessing of Issachar was also to bring the children back to offer right sacrifice to the Lord. This is one of the great blessings of the prophetic movement to the church. As the Apostle Paul would latter declare "Those who prophecy do so for other people, for their upbuilding, encouragement and consolation...those who prophesy build up the church" (1 Cor. 14: 3 & 4).

WEBSITE Storm-Harvest Ministries http://www.storm-harvest.asn.au

MODERATORS Robert I Holmes and Mario Liu email prophetic@storm-harvest.asn.au

Prophecy In Business
Robert I Holmes

There is no good reason why your gifts cannot function in the marketplace. If you can pray down a line after the Sunday night service, then that same gift can function in the shopping mall, when someone stops you to ask for directions.

If you have prophetic insight into dreams, and can sit in a seminar and interpret someone else's dreams, then you can do the same for the lady having coffee with you at morning tea break.

If you have the gift of insight, and inspiration so as to give directive words to the church leadership on where they are headed, then you are likewise able to bring God given wisdom to the board room planning sessions.

If you have the gift of word of knowledge, and by the Spirit know what people were doing yesterday, then that same gift can enable you to audit the accounts of a business, and find errors or misappropriations by the Spirit.

Package it another way

Strip away all the religious trappings, the uniform dress code of your denomination, the business cards announcing your title and office and what do you have. When you strip away the Christian jargon and the Biblical language and get prophecy right down to the ground where an ordinary person can understand it. What do you have?

Our past affects our present.

Our present affects our future.

So we can use the prophetic gift in business to help:

Overcome the past,
Build in the present, and Succeed in the future.

There are inherent blessings for business people, if they will not only follow the guidelines of Scripture (integrity, honesty, righteousness) and do business by the book, but there is an inherent blessing in involving prophets in their work.

"Believe in the Lord and you shall be established, believe his prophets and you shall prosper" (2 Chr. 20:20).

"The elders of the Jews built and prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and of Zechariah, they built and they finished" (Ezra 6:14).

Old Testament examples

Through out the Old Testament we find prophets operating in the sphere of business, marketplace and politics. Take a few examples:

* Daniel served Nebuchadnezzar, interpreting his dreams and in the administration of the kingdom.

* Joseph served Pharaoh, interpreting his dreams and administrating the kingdom in its hardest trials.

* Isaiah was friends with King Uzziah, and also prophetically determined the line of succession from Hezekiah to Eliakim.

* Elisha counseled the king of Israel on battle strategy, helping him avoid traps and ambushes of the enemy.

* Agabus helped the church and businesses in Jerusalem prepare for a drought which affected the entire region.

A prophet provides:

* Hindsight: Reviewing where you've been
* Insight: Analysing where you're at
* Foresight: Predicting where you're going

I was trained by a consulting and coaching firm, who based their enterprise on taking people to their personal best. They were a motivational group, who believed the best of individuals and brought out the best in companies. I used this technique with many clients. Coming into their company as a consultant, a facilitator whose only job was to assist them to do better, I could quickly employ prophetic insight. Hindsight to review where they had been, gained through discussion with staff and management. Insight into what they were doing now, gained with a 360 degree review of their business practices. Foresight, gained by looking at their budgeting, forecasting, business planning and personal prayer.

I know prophetic people who work in the auditing and accounting departments of their company. They review statistical data, plough through accounting information and provide the managers great review (hindsight) of where they have been.

I know prophetic people who consult the board of companies. Whilst they never get up and say , "Thus saith the Lord," they certainly provide wisdom (insight) that no one else has thought of. Especially as it comes to looking at the way people are behaving, and the communication/ interactions which take place. One man I know worked for a very large firm, and they called him "The Trouble Shooter". If there was a flaw in the system, he could find it.

I know prophetic people who sit in the planning meetings of economic forecasting groups, and who advise kings of nations. They bring valuable prophetic information about weather, political situations, war, terrorism and economic situations looming.

I have worked on the board of management for community organizations and community development groups. In both these situations I am considered a businessman, or a concerned local citizen. But I employ the prophetic gift gainfully to assist them to move ahead.

What about you? You might not b a prophet, but certainly the prophetic gift works in your life. So can you work in these three areas, assisting people.

WEBSITE
Storm-Harvest Ministries - http://www.storm-harvest.asn.au

Listen to My Heart Beat

Marie-France McDowell-Smith

To My Flames of Fire, My Set-Apart Remnant: Listen to My Heart Beat

June 26, 2004

A HEART Transplant is required. I want to give you My Heart!!! Pray that this new heart is not rejected by My Body, for if it is not compatible, if the Body rejects MY Heart, the body will die. Of little consequence is your vast knowlege, your outer appearance. I require the laying down of your pride, your territorial ambitions, your energies applied to containing, maintaining and enlarging your feudal serfdoms called ministries.

The great I AM requires you to let down your gates, to actively come into submission to ME and cooperate in love one to another. If you resist, if you are stubborn and hold to that of flesh, and do not allow Yeshua to command and lead in this time through MY Ruach, you will NOT grasp hold of My ultimate life's plan for you. Many of My Own may fall away from their planned destinies; your scepters removed and smashed upon the Rock.

Resist My Plan and you shall cause the the untimely death of your destinies, specifically designed for each of you from before the foundation of the earth. The enemies plan is to kill, steal, and destroy. Do not resist My Ruach's work in YOU; should you submit to being weary in well doing, worn, and frazzled without allowing My Ruach's cleansing and refilling, you shall receive a premature and lifeless birth; death the result of your disobedience and disdain for My Plans. Come away with Me, cleave to ME, allow My transplanted heart to beat within you.

For, IF you continue fiercely relying upon your own plans and way and thoughts--which are NOT MINE -- an eternity of tears will flow from your deadly deception! My Plans are for your good. My Plans are for the salvation of many, from every tribe and tongue and nation!!!

Mesh one to another NOW or you will not have the ability to effectively participate in THE GREAT WAR; your rewards diminished. Tarnished crowns will not be accepted by ME. Come to ME, come and we shall WIN the war for the souls of men. Many are about to be birthed by My Ruach into My Kingdom. These 'NEW ONES' will require older brothers and sisters to guide and teach them My will and My ways by Ruach flowing from them. Reach out and lend them a hand...MY Mighty Right Hand!

My Plans are for your good. My Plans are for the salvation of many, from every tribe and tongue and nation!!!

I AM is about to shine through those who are TRULY MINE, powered by Ruach. I AM going to ask many to do things NEVER before asked of them. These are not hard things, just outside of 'deadwood' boxes of thinking, all in line with MY WORD, the GREATER THINGS!

I AM breaking self-made parameters of thought and behavior in My Own. Be NOT SURPRISED! I AM about to ask My Own to do completely opposite of what has been their habit. I AM breaking all habits and self-imposed limitations in the Body of Messiah! Prepare for DELIVERANCE, prepare for MY HEART to SHINE forth from YOU, prepare for alliances of MY CHOOSING for this great adventure!

My Plans will succeed, with you or without you! TODAY it is your choice...lay down self-made, man-made plans, see what I shall do through MY OWN---then wait and watch as I, the GREAT I AM, EL GIBOR, ask of you sacrifices of the flesh, and THEN I shall lift you to places of honour unsurpassed, the responsibility and right to rule and reign yours, from My Golden City. I AM asks you to choose, choose ME today.

Open to My Love for YOU! DO YOU HEAR MY VOICE? DO YOU HEAR MY HEART BEAT?
I AM THE TRUTH, the WAY and the LIFE! FOLLOW ME!

A Great Wound
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

"A Great Wound; And My Fire-Works Are About To Light Up The Whole World!"

Adonai in the early morning of June 25, 2004:

"My gentle ones, A GREAT WOUND is coming to My body, be prepared to rush aid to your brothers and sisters" .... (sensed in the natural as well as spiritual)

SAW: 'white cells rushing to aid the red blood cells, attacking en masse, the infection was overwhelmed, carried away with the body sloughing off the clumps of whites that surrounded and took away the infection; the invader cells, who came to overcome the Body.... the white's did their duty, performed their function/purpose and courageously died saving the Body'.

SAW: that The Body was healed, the Body lived, now stronger and healthier than before, stronger because ALL infection (SIN) was completely eradicated from the Body, which now was Beauty emanating LIGHT and SHALOM'

UNDERSTOOD: THERE WAS A GREAT WAR! VICTORY ASSURED AND AT GREAT PRICE! Think upon the cost. IT COST ALL, EVERYTHING! THE PRICE IS GREAT AND THE REWARD GREATER STILL !!! Keep your eyes upon Yeshua, our Commander-in-Chief!!! HIS PROMISED REWARDS IN HIS HAND...EXPLOITS, EXPLOITS, EXPLOITS!!! Exploding in the air, exploits of the saints. Like firecrackers at first! More noise than maneuver and then the BIG SHOW ... HIS FIRE-WORKS more Dazzling!!! -- Lighting up the darkness, sending fear of darkness scurrying into the outer reaches!!!

HEARD: .. at the cost of many -- who were unafraid to die for their brothers ... 'what greater love' 'what greater love' "what greater love' --

UNDERSTOOD: much of this dying is certainly spiritual, dying from worldly desires of no eternal value, and some may be in the natural, and becoming ALIVE to the ETERNAL OBJECTIVES, GOALS and Exploits of LOVE one for another for HIS name's sake and HIS GLORY!

HEARD: "team up, 'two are greater than one' ... get positioned for greater strength and discernment, team up, line up, formations -- no lone wolves in My Army .... for My Glory !

HEARD: Music of these songs being sung by thousands...."What a mighty God we serve, angels bow before HIM, heaven and earth adore HIM, what a mighty God we serve. Great and mighty is HE! clothed in glory and arrayed in splendor, Great and Mighty is HE!" HE IS EL GIBOR!

YOU SHALL BE as 'skipping stones' across a pond, doing incredible feats, amazing feats, that will mesmerize even the hardest of hearts and draw them into MY LOVE! It is all in the angle, trajectory, power and skill of the hand from which the stone is cast ... allow yourselves to be swiftly released upon many waters by the Master's hand ... and 'as MY living stones' trust me more, obey my every command and direction, and ALL shall see what MORE I shall do with you, as I cast you to every tribe and tongue and nation! The true FIRE-WORKS are about to light up the whole world!!! My stones who become My FIRE-WORKS of GLORY! Even the very STONES will cry out and praise ME!

UNDERSTOOD/HEARD: IT IS NEVER TOO LATE TO PREACH forgiveness of SINS and the power of SALVATION through the completed work on Mt. Moriah by Yeshua, haMashiach!!! Tell them, IT IS FINISHED, MY BLOOD PAID IT ALL!

HE ENCOURAGED: Don't STOP, DO NOT BECOME WEARY OF WELL DOING! DO NOT become self centered and implode!!! Do not give up now, the race is not yet over!

DO NOT BELIEVE THE LIES THAT IT IS TOO LATE! Too late for what? It is not too late for you, turn back to Your Abba...for your ideas of life and purpose upon this earth--for My thoughts are not as your thoughts and My ways are not as yours...Gentle Ones, listen to MY HEARTBEAT.... WHAT is the objective of My Love for people? To heal, deliver from the bondage of SIN, to set them FREE, to forgive their SIN, to redeem, sanctify, justify and GIVE LIFE ABUNDANT, to restore and reconcile relationship with ME, haShem (God), to flood people with TRUE LOVE, to give ETERNAL LIFE, My Ways have NOT changed. MY Plan has not changed, and MY PROMISES ARE FAITHFUL AND TRUE ..... IT IS NOT TOO LATE, MOVE FORWARD...do not believe 'TOO LATE!!!' That is a trick of the enemy, don't fall for his lies! He is the father of lies. I AM LOVE, I AM YOUR ABBA, the Lover of Your Soul, My eyes upon you for good, all things for your good. Allow My Ruach, My power to do exploits thrugh YOU! Be moldable, bendable and flexible in My hands for My Kavod [Glory]!

MY GREATEST HARVEST IS JUST AROUND THE BEND!!! Look up! I COME! King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Glory, Halleluyah! The King of Glory ... ENDURE UNTIL THE END! for what your mind perceives as the END is in fact just the BEGINNING! Listen to My Heart Beat, My Ruach and do not march to the death cadence of this world, but follow the Lamb wherever HE GOES.

Love,
Abba

Halleluyah!

Living To Pray

Chimezie Onyebilanma

Heb 5: 7. During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

Jesus' is our perfect example of a spiritual leader. The chief work of a leader is not preaching but praying.

Here in summarising the days of Jesus' life on earth we are told that: "he offered up prayers". I can't help asking myself if prayer is the most evident thing in my life's history or does it occupy only an insignificant part? The main work of a leader (nay, of every believer) is to offer up prayers – fervent prayers. Someone said "life is frigile, handle with prayers".

And God has given us enough incentives to make us pray. He says: 'Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.'* (Jeremiah 33: 3). God has promised to answer prayers.

Perhaps we are yet to know how much we leave untapped of those things God has freely given us - just because we do not pray. God wants to do things for us but we "have not because we ask not". Inadequate praying is the reason for our bankruptcy. We must learn to call on God in everything and for everything. Shouldn't this verse motivate us? ThatGod wants to do "great and unsearchable things" for us.

Jesus' prayer was desperate not casual " he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears". To him this was the only answer. If God does not send help, what help can man give? Do we pray like this? Don't we rely too much on the arm of flesh? We need to come to the point where we are desperately dependant on God (and God alone) through prayer then our prayers will have POWER.

O Lord teach us to pray.

Open Wide Your Mouth

Chimezie Onyebilanma

"I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt. "Open wide your mouth and I will fill it". Psalm 81:10

I have wondered why Peter asked Jesus to invite him to walk to him on the water. And why the Lord obliged him. Why would Peter who was just only gathering himself from the storm that hit their boat, dare to now step into the stormy water? I think the answer is that after he saw where Jesus was, he wanted to be there too. He throw away fear and dared to break through the walls of limitation.

And of course Jesus obliged him because the Lord loves it when we dare to stretch out of our comfort zone to lay hold of all he has shown us he has for us. He said "Open wide your mouth and I will fill it".

Too many of us are content to go on living less than God's will for our lives. It was not only Peter that caught a glimpse of Jesus walking on the water and heard him say "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid". All the others in the boat received that same revelation. But Peter was the only one that dared to ask to come to where Jesus is.

Is it impossible to come to where Jesus is today? Is our modern-day watered-down version of Christianity truly all that the Lord has to offer? Why is it that we have so much biblical insights today but very little manifestation of these truths in our daily lives? Why are we so content to live as weaklings even though we declare that the Kingdom of God has come?

The Bible says, "You do not have because you do not ask". Leonard Ravenhill once wrote that the reason we do not have revival is because we are content to live without it. Yet God loves it when we dare to ask of him. When we dare to be bold in prayers. We cannot ask God for too much, if we ask for what he has shown us. God longs for his kingdom to come in every area of our lives. But we must ask for it and dare to step out to lay hold on it, even it means stepping out on water.

I believe we are in the days when we cannot continue to play church. God is planting a hunger in many hearts for more of Jesus. More of his purity, more of his beauty, more of his love and compassion, and more of his power. If you listen, you will hear the Spirit saying “Open wide your mouth and I will fill it”. Complacency, fear, and apathy seeks to limit us. But God is looking for men and women that would be willing to spend time with him to catch a revelation of him and who will go on to boldly step out in preserving prayers to see the manifestation of that revelation of Jesus in their lives.

Comments? Questions? etc. If these messages have been helpful or unclear it would encourage us to hear from you, please write to caprotogo@laposte.tg

PLEASE are you born again? It is not enough to believe in the existence of God, to go to church, or be interested in spiritual things. Jesus said "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). Jesus died to deliver you from sin so that you can come to God. (John 3:16) If you ask him to forgive you and give you a new heart he will. (Acts 2:38; Romans 10:9-11).Try it. I'd love to hear from you @ caprotogo@laposte.tg Chim'sWRITE are regular articles on Christian living and cross-cultural missions from Chimezie Onyebilanma a cross-cultural missionary with Calvary Ministries (CAPRO) in Togo. CAPRO is an indigenous African non-denominational cross-cultural mission agency involved in reaching the remaining unreached peoples in 15 countries of Africa as of present. CAPRO is involved in missions mobilization, training, and research as well as church-planting and mercy ministries (literacy, rural development, primary health-care, relief and rehabilitation). CAPRO is a faith mission, both the ministry and its missionaries depend on God's provision through the giving of his people. None of its missionaries are salaried. All gifts are used as designated.

Surface Address: Calvary Ministries (CAPRO),Togo. B.P. 14223, Lome. Tel: (228) 221 33 78 or (228) 924 20 75

To learn more about the cross-cultural missionary work of CAPRO send email to caprotogo@laposte.tg with "information on CAPRO" in the subject column or visit www.capromissions.org

Do you know that your monthly gifts to support a missionary can make a big difference? To learn more about supporting missionaries please visit www.adopt-a-missionary.org or enquire at caprotogo@laposte.tg

To subscribe to Chim'sWRITE please send a blank email to ChimWRITE-subscribe@yahoogroups.com

COPYRIGHT -- It is required that permission be obtained from caprotogo@laposte.tg before these materials can be re-published on a website or in hard copy. However permission is granted to freely redistribute these materials via email, provided that such redistribution acknowledges the source and includes this phrase: "For a free subscription to Chimezie Onyebilanma's weekly Chim'sWRITE, send a blank email to <ChimWRITE-subscribe@yahoogroups.com >".

May all the nations praise HIM!

Learn To Walk In My Peace
Sandy Warner

Jul 9, 2004
For a long season, you have felt like you were in a cold isolated place, enduring hardship like a good soldier. There are many wearing these shoes. If you would consider laying down the clamoring voices of men's opinions, I would like to overwrite their perspectives and give those who would heed My call, a long refreshing drink, filled with joy, good gifts, rest and peace. This sounds much better than a soldiers life, yet surprisingly, most will heed the voice of war. Merely by their beliefs, they open the door to such and thus their focus turns with them.

If you would hear My call, My highest wish for you at this time is to restore you and replenish you with deep rest. I want you learning how to walk in the gospel of peace. When you know intimacy with your Sovereign God, you shall walk in peace and never fear intimidation and terror again. After you have learned to walk in these new shoes, I shall take you where I will, well armored and protected and you shall never feel the cold. There are many ways to war and men's opinions are not My ways. One of My greatest weapons of war is peace.

Eph 6:15 NKJV
… and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

Click here for specific rhema behind this Word to Ponder:
http://www.injesus.com/Groups/ViewMessage.cfm?MessageId=QA008DKL&CFID=4730556&CFTOKEN=27601059&UCD=7bs

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post.

Close One Door And Open The Other
Sandy Warner

Jul 5, 2004
Over and over again you have had doors of opportunity knock and at each door I have observed you faithfully seek My will. At times, this has been hard on you to close the door to ambition and self appointed zeal. Yet in each instance, you have yielded and followed Me. You have poured yourself out, dear one, and deep inside there is a yearning to walk away from the stress of it all and just rest. And yet you have not wanted to give an inch to the devil who wants you to quit, nor have you wanted to displease Me. How you comfort My heart to see your earnest desires for My will alone! I have come to help you through this time of crossroad.

The road that leads to busy street, walk away from it. This leads to distraction, pressure, stress, opposition and a slow burning erosion of your resources. I don't want you depleted, you have already spent yourself. It is time to rebuild, refresh, restore, renew and pour back into you. Body, soul, spirit. I have new plans for you and I want you rested so that you will be prepared for My plans yet to unfold. Take the right turn, the one to My will, of rest and peace. I will go before you through the gate. It is My gate of love, you shall know My love deeper then you have ever known before… in answer to your heart's desire.

In your resting place, the place I have prepared for you… the one I promised to you years ago… it is there that you shall build. I am sending you My master craftsman to help you build. The voices of men and the voices of the world will clamor for your attention, but I want you tucked away in My refuge. What I have deposited in your life will be much better spent as you rebuild from this promised place, prepared especially for you.

Isaiah 32:18 KJV
And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Weaving My Word
Sandy Warner

Jul 7, 2004
I have called many to connect in team ministries. These team gifts shall weave in and out and bring forth My Word-pictures as signs to light the way. A little here and a little there, I shall delight all who participate in teamships, with confirmations and increased gifts as I shed additional light and understanding upon what I AM speaking.

Look up! You never know when I will delight you by painting My Word in the sky. When you find a picture in the sky, ask Me to build upon it and bring you understanding. I will weave My Words to you through all of creation, if you would listen.

Ex 26:1 NLT
Make the Tabernacle from ten sheets of fine linen. These sheets are to be decorated with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with figures of cherubim skillfully embroidered into them.

{{{ "Ears To Hear" are excerpts from the rhema journals of Sandy Warner. To better understand how God speaks, read Sandy's book, "101+ Ways God Speaks, And How to Hear Him." Website: www.thequickenedword.com Email: swauthor@usa.net Permission to forward and/or post at websites is given with this footer attached. }}}

Love For The Brethren

Olivia Long

faithbuildersministries@the-i.net
October 13, 2003

"He that Loveth not, Knoweth not God." There are those amongst you who speak of loving others but your ego depicts quite a different story. You "claim" to know My Word but you harbor offence against others if they don't adhere to every doctrine that you utter. You "claim" to know Me but your forsake My Word for if you do not love your brethren whom you do see, how can you say your love ME, whom you do not see?

Love amongst the brethren is one of the most crucial tests for My Beloved but unfortunately many are not passing the test. I ask you, is your heart filled with ME as you profess, or do your actions speak otherwise? I have given you My truth and it is My desire for you to live it!!! And My truth is that there is to be love, My love, amongst the brethren. Hear Me, I will only tolerate My children operating in My Divine Love, not out of your own egos and having your own way. If you live in the Spirit then you must walk in the Spirit, not desirous of vain glory nor provoking or envying one another.

Many proclaim to be amongst My Chosen Ones but there is a tendency for many of you to fight your doctrinal differences to the finish and in doing so you believe that you are doing Me a favor. You want everyone to agree with you over every issue. Beloved it is NOT your place to force anything upon anyone. Some of you are like diamonds cutting glass. You will cut and scratch any of the brethren because of your hardness. I will have My precious jewels, My diamonds but there "must" be character and integrity even in your differences. I say it again "I WILL have character and integrity" amongst My Chosen Ones. Nothing less will suffice!!!

My heart is sorely grieved over what is happening. It is like a cancer eating away amongst My own and believe Me I WILL cut out that cancer. I WILL NOT not allow offense. I WILL NOT not tolerate smear campaigns against the brethren. I WILL NOT tolerate hypocrisy of any kind amongst My own. I WILL NOT allow individual egos to hurt others of the brethren. I WILL NOT tolerate betrayals amongst My children. No matter your differences, I ask you, do you agree in the supreme love that you have for Me? Beloved, you are all washed by the same blood, given the same grace and you all believe where your final destiny lies... Therefore ... you are to love each other with a pure heart ... A love for the brethren which is kind and compassionate. I ask you to be ever watchful against tempers and doctrinal differences which "weaken" your brotherly love. Love, humility and brokenness, if these are not included in your doctrine then your doctrine is not sound. Some of you believe you possess good sound doctrines, BUT, if you don't have true love for your brethren everything you have built will collapse.

The effects of a narrow, suspicious or a selfish spirit are much too evident amongst professors of Me and My gospel. I AM the I AM and hear Me, I WILL NOT BE MOCKED!!! Many who profess to "KNOW ME" - "TRULY KNOW ME" are DECEIVING themselves with a form of godliness. You may abound in knowledge and gifts and possess much of My truth in which to enlighten others but it will come to not unless your desire is to be a TRUE FOLLOWER OF MINE. If so, you will seek one standard, the love of the brethren .... without this, all else will be to no avail.

Love for the brethren... You know you have passed from death unto life if you truly possess it. Do you truly possess it or are you full of yourselves wanting to have your own way? Love for the brethren, for My sake!! "By this shall men know that you are My disciples if you love one another." I cannot make it any clearer than this and to take it a step further the consequences are equally clear that though you speak with the tongues of angels, have the knowledge of all mysteries, walk in miracles having zeal for the truth ... yet... if you do not have love for the brethren you are as sounding brass or tinkling cymbals. You may make a great noise in the quest for truth BUT IN MY SIGHT - your faith is dead !!!!

The I AM has given you truth and that truth is that the brethren are to dwell together in peace and harmony. You are NOT to bear grudges in your own heart against any of your fellow brethren!! You are NOT to retaliate with words spoken against them to others !!! You ARE to love them as you love yourselves and to provide for their needs whenever it is in your power to do so for how can you have My love in you when you refuse to help your needy brother?

If you truly love ME, then you will love the brethren, it's as simple as that. I am about to usher in My Glory but do not be deceived My beloved, I WILL have love amongst the brethren. I say again, I WILL ABIDE NOT the contentions, discord and schisms in your hearts! I WILL ABIDE NOT your pride, jealousy or control over others! I WILL ABIDE NOT the unrighteous judgment that works from your own flesh! You must learn to resolve differences without harboring bitterness, resentment or anger. For those who have spoken out against their brethren, I SHALL EXECUTE JUSTICE!!!!

Your mouth speaks forth blessings and cursings. For those who have spoken against any of your brethren to others, REPENT NOW for by your words you shall see My justice and I WILL EXECUTE JUSTICE!!!! I am a Holy God, a God of Righteousness and Justice. I employ you now to seek righteousness in every area of your walk. Ask forgiveness and repent now for words spoken against any of your brethren and seek restitution where it is possible. If My words are not heeded, you WILL see My Divine Justice!

To those of you who have been maligned by your brethren, let it go, do not try to fix it! I Am your defender, therefore do not try to fix that which is MY responsibility. I alone shall lift you up, I and I alone.... No one, I say it again, No one can stop the destiny that I have for those who truly follow Me in every way

Love A Better Way
Andrea Jackson

worship148@aol.com
Jul 9, 2004

The keyword for all of us is Repent. This is found throughout the entire word of the God. He is issuing and has always issued the plea, "Return to Me. Repent.

Repent is the first and the last word of the Gospel sent to us by God in the Person of Yeshua. He delivered the word Himself. He lived with us IN THE FLESH for 33 years. I heard a pastor early this morning on television issuing the plea. Repent. To be a disciple of Yeshua(Jesus) we must begin the message with the same words. Repent. Return to the Father. Get up out of the pig-sty and return to your Father. The pastor reminded us that the last words spoken to five of the seven churches in Revelation is Repent. Return to your first Love. Return . Stop what you are doing. Turn around.

This is not a popular word in the world today, it has never been and it never will be. Many "believers" will Not pick up on and spread this word that is essential word. Not many web sites are forwarding this word to their subscribers. That's OK. Yeshua said that it would be this way in this last hour. I can not and will not move away from this first and last word. This is who He is. The First and the Last. The Beginning and the End. If you have been given ears, please listen and then take action. This is what the book of Acts is all about. ACTION.

We must WAKE UP!!

See to YOUR OWN LAMPS!

I am speaking TO BELIEVERS!!!!!!

The best word in the entire Word of God is Repent. In that word is God. In that Word is Love. For God is Love. The entire book is all bout love. To repent is to love. Yeshua is knocking at the door of your heart in love. Let Him in. He will come in, sit down and eat WITH YOU.

If you do not, you will perish.

Please do not let any person fool you with a nice word or doctrine in which Yeshua is not totally the center of it. False prophets, False teachers, False Apostles, False evangelists and false pastors are every where. All you have to do is be in their presence for a moment. What they speak will tell you who they work for. Those that are walking very, very close and those having a deep and intimate relationship with the Father, will know instinctively, who they are. The Holy Spirit dwells within us. He knows. The Father is sending His true ones to call His children out from among them. If the church is corrupt, He is calling the pastors out if they have a heart for Yeshua. NOW IS THE TIME.

Not one of us has reached perfection. Repenting is a daily thing. Not the same thing over and over. Whatever we KNOW that we have done that may be displeasing to the Father, we must repent of it. This would includes stretching our hands out to help someone, or give an encouraging word in a time of need to someone. Maybe you got into an argument and it got out of hand. You spoke words that in your heart you Know is wrong. Repent of it, go back an make amends. You cannot go to the altar with your sacrifices of praise unless you do. Repent and forgive each other.

Have you been looking at some unclean pictures or porn movies in secret and you think no one knows about it? Your Father Knows. We must not squander our inheritance.

We have been writing, praying interceding, having visions/dreams and sharing words about Yeshua and His goodness, His crucifixion, the cross, and His resurrection, for years. The end must come. This last call is going out across the world and it appears that only a few are carrying it out. I have been searching trying to find those that are speaking or writing these words. Very few. People want the nice words that will please their itching ears and not disrupt their lives.

LOOK AROUND YOU!

DON'T YOU SEE?!

CAN'T YOU SEE?!

HAVE WE BECOME BLINDED BY THE WORLD?!

Get the oil for your lamps while it is still yet available. Fill up your lamps. Today. Yeshua is Coming.

Get out from under incorrect teaching. IF the Gospel of Yeshua is Not the focus, leave. Immediately! If it is not Yeshua based, it is the spirit of Anti-Yeshua, Anti-Jesus. Anti-Christ.

No, you will not be well liked. Yes, you will be called names. Yes, you will be shut out of many social activities. Yes, you will not be living in your world gotten comfort zone. Yes, you will be talked about and accused of lies. Excellent! Count it all as JOY! Yeshua said this would be. This IS the identifying Mark to the world that will show you belong to Jesus. That you are a Follower of the King of all King and the Lord of all Lords. That you are a legitimate Child of God. That you are not of this world. That you live in the Kingdom of God. That you have Eternal life. That you know God personally and that you walk with Him daily. You are in constant communications with the Father. You live with Him. You know that you have no reason to fear because you a are DEEPLY AND TOTALLY in Love with the Father and Creator of all. You Know that He was in love with you first, Before there even was a world He knew you. You KNOW without a shadow of doubt the His love is Perfect, so all fear is and has been cast out forever. IF GOD IS FOR US, WHO ON EARTH OR IN THE HEAVENS CAN BE AGAINST US. ABSOLUTELY NO ONE! You know that He sent His ONLY Son to take our place and gave us, showed us, led us and became the WAY for our return to the Father of all.

This is a dying world. The world cannot save anyone. Only Yeshua.

ONLY YESHUA.

NOW IS THE TIME!! Please, Please listen.

I meant to continue in 1 Corinthians 13 this morning. But the Holy Spirit led this in a different direction. We must quit our childish ways and grow up. Standing in His Presence listening, watching and waiting for His return;

Andrea

Life and Change

Rick Joyner

March 29, 2004

Last week we discussed how change is a healthy process that every living thing experiences. The challenges that change brings to our lives can help us to be a wineskin that can hold new wine without bursting. The great, Russian writer Alexander Solzhenitsyn once said, "Even biology teaches us that perpetual well-being is not good for any creature." Biology also teaches that when there is an excessive resistance to change, it is a sign that the death process has begun.

The same is true intellectually and spiritually. All healthy, growing things will change and expand. When we begin to resist change, we are actually resisting our own growth and endangering our own future. Many of the needed changes and the mentality that cannot only embrace change, but thrive on it, often come from the problems and challenges in our lives. This is why the apostle Paul wrote in Acts 14:22, "Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God." Tribulations really are doorways into the kingdom. That is why "the great tribulation" is going to be the very doorway to the kingdom of God coming to the earth. This is not something we should fear, but rather embrace as the unprecedented spiritual opportunity that it is. As we have noted before, this is articulated well in Daniel 11:31-32:

"And forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the abomination of desolation. "And by smooth words he will turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will display strength and take action."

Here we see that the very time the "abomination of desolation" is being set up, those "who know their God" will not lie down, but will "display strength and take action." All of the evil and problems, which are arising in the world, are being used by the Lord to prepare His people for the times ahead. They are not being prepared to make us run and hide, but to "display strength and take action." Such has always been the nature of true prophets and true saints.

As we proceed toward the end of this age, just about the only thing that we will be able to count on is change. The very foundations of the world systems will be shaking-even those that until now have been the most stable, as we read in Hebrews 12:26-27:

And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, " Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven. " And this expression, "Yet once more," denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, in order that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

Because of this, is it imperative that we not only learn to adapt to changes, but that we even come to appreciate them as great opportunities to grow. Every change we go through helps to remove the things that are not of God, and helps us to find the things that are, as stated in Hebrews 12:28-29:

Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe; for our God is a consuming fire.

Change and shaking is inevitable in the world, but we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken. If we have built our lives on the kingdom, then regardless of what happens in the world, we will not be shaken by it. In the world we must expect change, and learn to take advantage of it. We can do this because we have a moral and spiritual foundation that is rock solid. If we have built our lives on the kingdom of God, neither our peace nor our prosperity should depend on what is happening in the world.

It is from this foundation that the gospel of the kingdom will be preached. When the gospel of the kingdom is preached, it will go into the entire world because the whole world is in such darkness and confusion that they will be desperate for it.

So, to practically be prepared for what is coming upon the world we need to start seeing the changes that are thrown at us, the upsetting of our "vessels" as we read in Jeremiah 48:11-12 a few weeks ago, as the hand of the Lord. How different would we be if everything that now upsets us began to be viewed as the Lord Himself training us? We would start to count every trial as joy, just as we are exhorted in James 1:2-4,12.

Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. And let endurance have its perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

Blessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

Just as muscles will not grow without the exercise that pushes them beyond their present limits, and will even atrophy if they are not exercised at all, our faith is the same way. Every trial that we are going through, God is allowing for a purpose-our maturity and growth. If we are going to be prepared for our purposes, we cannot continue to waste these trials, but seize each one and determine to grow from it.

Faith does not get angry or impatient when challenged. True faith counts the opportunity as joy.

The Door To Resurrection Life
Rick Joyner

April 12, 2004

Using the Lord's discourse in Matthew 24 concerning the signs of the end of the age, we have examined a few of the conditions that we may expect to unfold. Again, we are not just studying the signs to know them, we want to also be prepared for them. If we understand them, we will understand all that the Lord is allowing in our lives.

To date, we have been viewing the increasing racism and instability, which is indicated from the Scriptures to increase. To help prepare for these, we can expect the Lord to allow us to be confronted with tests in these same areas, with increasing diversity and with continued and dramatic changes. Our spiritual antennas should be sensitive to situations in which the Lord is allowing us to be placed, which will require us to better know those who are different from us. We should seize these opportunities to grow and be the flexible wineskins which can hold new wine. We should also be sensitive to the situations that bring about changes in our lives and determine to likewise take advantage of these opportunities to grow.

Preparing for Significant Times, Significant Purposes

We must also keep in mind that the Lord could have taken His authority and set up His kingdom immediately after His resurrection. The reason He did not do this was to call forth a people who would rule and reign with Him, becoming joint heirs and members of the household of God. This whole church age has been "training for reigning." For this reason we should not expect our trials to be easy. The principle of Scripture is the less difficult the preparation, the less significant the purpose. Because we are coming to the most significant times since the Lord Himself walked the earth, and He has us here for a reason, we should expect our training to be hard.

The more difficult the training, the better the preparation. We must understand that we are not here to have easy, comfortable lives. We are here to be prepared and to help prepare the earth for the coming kingdom. Of course the Lord gives us times of rest, and a day in the most difficult circumstances with the Lord is better than any day without Him. Even so, we must have in our basic constitution that we, like good soldiers, are always prepared to endure hardship and trials and make the very most out of them. We are going to go through them anyway, so why not make the most of them?

The Door to Resurrection Life

Of course, I am saying all of this to prepare for our next subject, which is from the next verse of the Lord's discourse concerning the end of the age, Matthew 24:9:

"Then they will deliver you to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations on account of My name."

In America if you were "a good Christian" fifty years ago, it brought respect, trust, and honor. Now it makes one a target for scorn and persecution. To even have a Bible laying on your desk, or to display the Ten Commandments, can result in a lawsuit. Those given to immorality and homosexuality now have more esteem and respect than Christians. Immorality and homosexuality is studied and promoted in schools, while even the mention of God in a book may now cause it to be banned. Students can freely curse, using even the most base and offensive words, but even mentioning God can have them suspended or expelled. America has quickly and profoundly turned from its Judeo-Christian roots, as well as its basis for morality and integrity, to flaunt and embrace almost any form of immorality and beliefs that deny God and man's responsibility to Him.

I am not trying to justify terrorism in any form, but one of the main reasons why America and the West are so hated by Muslims is the moral filth and perversion that we are now exporting all over the world through our movies and lifestyles. They do not want such on their soil, and in many ways this is understandable.

The foundations have been laid for a great spiritual awakening in America and Europe. Even so, we can expect the persecution of Christians to not only continue, but increase. The Lord is allowing it for our good! Consider these Scriptures:

Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, in order that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection (Romans 6:4-5).

The Spirit bears witness with our spirit that we are the children of God, and if children, heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him in order that we may also be glorified with Him. (Romans 8:17).

For if we died with Him, we shall also live with Him; If we endure, we shall also reign with Him... (II Timothy 2:11-12).

That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead (Philippians 3:10-11).

For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake (Philippians 1:29).

We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater; therefore, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure. This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering (II Thessalonians 1:3-5).

We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body. For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our mortal flesh (II Corinthians 4:8-11).

"Whoever Wishes to Save His Life, Shall Lose It; Whoever Loses His Life, Shall Find It"

These are just a few of the Scriptures, which make it clear that if we are to partake of His life, we must also partake of his death. In the first century some of the people thought that if they would circumcise their flesh they would be right with God. But as the apostles taught, this was merely a ritual meant to symbolize that He requires the circumcision of our hearts. Some today point to the day of their immersion as the day they died with Jesus and were resurrected. Water baptism is important, but it too is but a ritual intended to symbolize the commitment to lay down our lives for Him.

Every ritual of our faith is just that - a ritual that is meant to symbolize a commitment of which the spiritual reality speaks. Water baptism was a ritual meant to symbolize a true commitment to lay down our lives for Him in order that we may also be raised with him. In Christ we must die in order to live. The Lord Jesus Himself testified:

If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it. Matthew 16:24-25

True Christianity is a life of daily sacrifice. True Christians die daily to their own desires in order to give themselves to the Lord's purposes. True Christians are also ready to lay down their lives for the sake of the gospel whenever that may be required. Any other teaching is a false gospel and an enemy of the cross. Death separates the things that are natural from the things that are spiritual. To have a resurrection there must first be a death. If we want to walk in the resurrection life of Jesus, we must be willing to lay down our lives for Him, and we must seize every opportunity to do it.

--Rick Joyner
http://www.morningstarministries.org/
Mpiservice@aol.com

Listen and Implement
Julie Baxter

January 7, 2004
"The day is coming when none will endure sound doctrine and that day is nearly upon you," says the Lord. "It is not enough to experience My Presence, My Power, and to have adventures in My Spirit. It is not enough to be close to My Heart and hear that which I am saying to My Body, the Church of the First-Born. Neither is it enough to be satisfied with hours in My Word and the hidden mysteries I am revealing in these last days.
I, the Great I AM, say to you. These things are not enough.

What pleases Me and guarantees My anointing upon your lives is that you both hear and do what I am saying. What assures you that I will answer your prayer and do as you have commanded is that when I speak, you begin then, to seek to obey and implement that which I have spoken.

It is not enough to hear and read messages from My vessels that hear and repeat what I am saying. There is a great herd of wandering Christians now doing that very thing. They are doomed to wander. They are fruitless, unless of course, like they, you are tricked into thinking fruit within their own souls alone is fruit in deeds. These are those who ears tickle with every nuance of spiritual messages. These are those who huddle together according to their own desires, laughing and doing their own thing, all the while telling others they are listening to "Daddy".

I do not want to marry a child. I will never cease to love My children, but I have no desire to marry a child. I am longing for intimacy that only a fully mature Bride can bring me. I will not want to play for eternity, I will continue as I always have - creating for eternity. I can not have creation relationship with children. My white hot love is reserved for the ones who can return My ardor.
It is imperative that My Body matures. It is imperative that you no longer seek that which pleases your flesh, and begin to transform your souls. Your soul is what I died to redeem. It is your soulish man that must learn of Me and My ways through intense study and application of My Word. It is your soulish man that must seek sound doctrine, not only to see it but be well equipped enough to teach it. This is what a parent does. A child enjoys and plays. A parent teaches and reproduces.

Set aside time to listen. How many times do I need to speak this to My church? It appears that most pride themselves on hearing Me and think nothing of doing little to implement My words in their lives. How will you know who to encourage and emulate? Watch their fruitful lives. Watch to see if they are so one with Me that we have created others in our likenesses. Watch to see if they listen and implement My Word. Watch. Listen and do so yourselves ~ and then you will mature and be One with Me on that Great Day."

2 Timothy 4:1-8 I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Bless You!
The Baxters
Houston

Habakkuk 2:1 I will stand my watch and set myself on the rampart, and watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer when I am corrected.

Leaders And Prophets
Miranda Easmon

July 2004

Micah 3
[8]But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD,
And of justice and might,
To declare to Jacob his transgression
And to Israel his sin.
[9]Now hear this,
You heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who abhor justice
And pervert all equity,
[10]Who build up Zion with bloodshed
And Jerusalem with iniquity:
[11]Her heads judge for a bribe,
Her priests teach for pay,
And her prophets divine for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No harm can come upon us."
[12]Therefore because of you
Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And the mountain of the temple[2]
Like the bare hills of the forest.

Are Prophetess' or Prophets supposed to preach based on assignments or based on invitations (paid contracts ----- to be precise)?

The Prophets in the Bible I believe went where the Lord sent them and only spoke what He asked them to speak. Anytime they went to a place, it was because they were on an assignment from God. Is this accurate?

So having said that, when God sends a Prophet or Prophetess of the 21st Century to preach or deliver a word anywhere, expense coverage should not really be the determining factor should it? First and foremost, they are supposed to be led only by the Spirit and NOT by agendas and programs of other Ministries.

Is this an accurate statement, men and women of God, Prophets and Prophetess?

So will it be right to state that if and when they get an invitation, instead of negotiating dollars, they need to seek the Lords face on whether or not He even wants them there? If He really wants them there, the request should really be a confirmation (I believe) of what the Lord has already told them, is this accurate?

Deep down in my spirit, I know the truth through the Spirit of the Lord inside a person will always make a way for the person and will cause people to sow and give into their lives. They will lack nothing because God will always make a way for them, this is for those saying it "takes money to preach the gospel."

When the Lord calls, chooses and sends a man or woman of God to do His work as long as they are obedient to His Spirit, God is obligated to take care of them and I know without a shadow of a doubt that He will take care of them in every sense. He says it in His word, moreover, His yoke is easy and His burden is light. After all it is His ministry, He gave them the assignment so it is a part of His plan (a small piece of the puzzle for the bigger picture), and it can only be accomplished by His Spirit. There is absolutely no doubt in my mind about that. It is not by might nor by power but by My Spirit says the Lord of Hosts. (The only hindering factor will be our flesh - the impurity of our heart, hidden agendas, greed and human intervention - lack of trust in God) and trust at times requires a huge amount of faith.

Moving on, since it is the Prophets or Prophetess' responsibility to get the Church back on track - point them back to God, the Lord is looking to them in this hour to raise the standards by getting the rest of the body to where He desires them to be. This means, some of these old religion and traditions have simply got to go. The fact that something has been done that way for decades does not mean it is right or pleasing to the Lord. In order for us to get to the level where the Lord wants us to be; for us to walk in the third realm with the authority and power from on high that He desires to bestow on the sons of God “that are being revealed in this season onwards”, for us to do greater works than the begotten Son as stated by Jesus Christ himself, it will take obedience, total trust and dependence on God, another level of faith that most have never walked in. Yes, total obedience, trust and dependence on the Spirit of the Lord and I know it is not an easy thing to do since I am currently struggling with that myself as I write so I am ministering to myself if no one else, but I know He will not release His fullness in an individual until they have learnt to obey His voice, totally trust and depend on Him with full knowledge that He is the Lord God and He will perform and bring to pass that which He declared before the foundation of the earth in our lives. We expect Him to bestow His power and His authority on us but we have not fully come to a place of total rest in him (obedience, dependence and trust in the Lord). This is where real faith comes into play, a knowing in our Spirit without a shadow of doubt that we are in the perfect will of God and He is directing our steps, so we can step out of the boat onto the water because the Lord asked us to step out even though we do not know whether or not the water will uphold us.

We need to raise our level of faith in this season believing that the water will uphold us, because God said, walk on the water. Yes, because God said, walk on the water.

We know there has been a shift in the Spirit realm. We know He is doing away with the old and bringing in the new yet we are still trying to hold onto some of the old that became the stumbling block of the former generals, but I hear the Spirit of the Lord say, raise the level of your faith in me and know that I am the Lord God almighty, I decide what will be and what will not be and I have the power to bring it to pass.

As long as the Lord is directing and guiding our steps to do the assignment that He has bestowed on us, though we may not clearly see the way we should know by now that, we will make it to our destination. God does not need us to intervene in the situation on His behalf for it is the Spirit of the living God inside a person that makes a way for the person. Our focus is to ensure we do NOT defile the assignment He has entrusted us with, by human intervention. None of us will ever walk in His authority and speak things into existence (to the extent He desires for us) until we (His Body) are totally submitted to Him in every area of our lives and that includes the area that pertains to money. Money has been the root of the mess in the church system and this is the area that can take even the righteous off track but this puppy, the greed demon has to die and I decree and declare by the Spirit of the Lord that it will be put to death in my life time, in our life time by the Spirit of the Lord and by His authority though His vessel(s) for the sake of His Kingdom.

Jeremiah 7:22
For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

Jeremiah 7:23
But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

The Lord stopped my watch on Saturday morning June 26th at 7:30am to get my attention and He did get my attention. The battery was not dead, the watch was merely stopped and I know I was not the one who stopped it.
Jeremiah 7 Ezekiel 7 and Hosea 7 is what the Lord is saying to the body of Christ now. The Lord is calling the body of Christ to repentance now. This is the final call to the body of Christ is what the Spirit of the Lord is saying. We need to get it right, we need to get right with the Lord now, or He will cut us off. The Spirit of the Lord is moving swiftly and moving violently. This may not sound like God to those that only know about the love of God because we love to dwell on the scripture that say, love covers a multitude of sin; but may we continue in sin that grace may abound? May God forbid!

We are half way through the year. In November 2003 in a dream praying with two other women, (three including myself), the Lord gave each of us the same revelation while praying. God said the year 2004 will be the year of the revealing of the sons of God- it is the year that they will start to come forth. This is what God said. The Lord also gave us Psalm 37 in the dream. The revealing of the sons of God is the revealing of His glorious church, the Real Body of Christ. I declare and decree by the Spirit of the Lord that we are in that season. This is the season in which the Lord is being glorified through those that He has raised by His Spirit.

In order for the sons of God to be fully revealed or manifested on this earth, the old will have to be done away with. Before a planting and a building can occur, there must first be a rooting out, a pulling down and a destruction of the old, and the sons of God (by His Spirit) are the ones that God will use in this hour to expose those things that are not of Him. They will expose everything that is unlike God and those that are not His but use His name. The sons of God are here, the trumpet has blown and the sound has gone forth across the four corners of the earth, the light is getting brighter and it is exposing everything that is an abomination to the Lord. His glory will be on those that are His and it will be visible for all to see and those things that are not of Him shall be exposed and destroyed says the Spirit of the living God.

This is what God is saying to the body of Christ in this hour. It is not the kind of message that people want to hear but this is what God is saying; this is what time it is and if this is what it will take for the so called church to get back on track with God then so be it!

Jeremiah 7, Ezekiel 7 and Hosea 7 is the “now” message to the body of Christ, worldwide!

I do ask Him daily to search me, to search my heart and reveal to me anything inside of me that may not be like Him because I also know that I have not yet arrived and probably never will since we go from glory to glory. There are too many ministries and pulpits around, without the Spirit, the Power or the Authority of the Lord to go with the position or title. I am not interested in any of that mess, I want to glorify Him on this earth. Wherever I go I want people to be drawn to Him by His Spirit that dwells within me so that He can be glorified. That has been my hearts desire for years. After all isn’t that the purpose of the whole existence of the Church (the called out)? Is that not the purpose of the real body of Christ? To be ruled by the head, to glorify the Begotten Son, ultimately the father on this earth? Is it not to lift Him up (to die to our adamic nature and have the Christ (Divine) nature arise so that all men can be drawn to Him by His Spirit that lives within us manifesting through us?

Matthew 6 ver. 10: Thy Kingdom (rule) come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Romans 8 ver. 19: For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

Miranda Easmon
July 2004

Straight To The Root Of The Problem
Miranda Easmon

2/12/04
3:00am-5:00am

An abomination has been committed and the Lord's Holy institution has been profaned. They have offered defiled food at His altar and have offered the blind, lame and sick as a sacrifice. They have fed their flesh by enticing the children of God for money in the name of the Lord. For these reasons, God by His Spirit will hold back the tithes and the offerings. No longer will you be able to satisfy your flesh by feeding off the people of God while you leave them hungry. You have not fed His sheep. As you did onto them, so will it be done onto you says the Spirit of the Lord. You will no longer feed off His flock, for the Lord has raised His very own, they are here and they are coming forth and they will feed His sheep. These come not in their own strength but they come in the power and in the Spirit of the Lord, they come to cry loud and spare not, they have come to blow the trumpet in Zion. They have come to root out, pull down, destroy, throw down, plant and build.

Oh yes, they are here and they are coming forth. They have a heart after God with His purpose as their purpose and His goal as their vision. They are not looking for a pulpit to be seen and they are not looking for money, they are here to see God's purpose fulfilled on this earth. These will not charge for the gospel and will not follow the traditions of men. No, they will not exploit wage earners, they will preach the unadulterated word, and God by His Spirit will move on the hearts of His children to give to them for the sake of the advancement of His kingdom and many will see the difference between operating in the realm of the Spirit versus operating in man's own power. You will see the real operation of faith – the faith you preach and use in manipulating the people of God but you do not practice in your own lives or from the pulpits.

God said, you have robbed Him and even this whole nation. It was never His intention to build a temple made with hands and that was what you did. He desires to dwell in the temple that He created in His image but man built man's own temple made with wood and bricks and called it His temple. You have robbed God because you did not preach truth – the Word of the Lord to transform the sheep into the nature/character of Christ. Oh yes, His temple (the flock, the children of God) were supposed to be transformed into the image of His Son by the word of God, but the word of God was not preached, it was the word of flesh that came forth from the pulpit and that is why His glory has not yet filled this earth so that the rest of mankind can be drawn to Him. In place of meat in the storehouse for His sheep to be fed, you offered polluted offerings and perverted His word. Receiving money was given priority over preaching truth, and for this, you are the ones cursed with a curse, and that is why the Lord by His Spirit is shutting the windows of Heaven on you. He is holding back the tithes and offerings from you. In this hour, it will only be released to those that He has called, chosen and sent by His Spirit.

In this season onwards, no longer will the word of the Lord be polluted. The light has been turned on. Those that are not His will be exposed, those that are His will do mighty exploits and many will be able to discern between the righteous and the unrighteous, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him, one who is preaching for money and one who is not. Oh Yes, between one with His Spirit and one who is faking it because it will no longer be by might nor by power, but by My Spirit saith the Lord of Hosts.

2/21/04-2/22/04
Instruction from the Lord:

Stand in the pulpit and speak into the atmosphere that this pulpit represents the Church, the church system, any prayer group and any place where the name of the Lord is used worldwide.

Extend right hand with palm flat towards heaven and shut the windows of Heaven and on earth (it has already been done, stand in agreement with the Lord to expedite things) to prevent the tithes/offerings/moneys' from flowing to those that pervert the word of the Lord, defile His temple and His sanctuary, have other agenda's other than God's purpose. Speak it into the atmosphere. Declare, decree and prophesy it into the atmosphere. Speak death to any ministry or church system using the name of the Lord that was not built on the foundation of Jesus Christ. Speak death to those ministries with their own agendas and without a pure heart towards the Lord. Speak death to those ministries hindering the Spirit of the Lord from flowing freely, to those religions and traditions of men and to those that will not repent and turn their face to the Lord in this hour.

Extend both hands to heaven (fingers pointing to heaven, palms slightly slanted) - prophesy, decree and declare for God to open the windows of Heaven (it has already been done, stand in agreement with Him) to release everything needed to accomplish His purpose on earth through those that He has raised by His Spirit – those called, chosen and sent – those He has found faithful. Declare, decree and prophesy it into the atmosphere.

To these (those raised by the Spirit of the Lord), the Lord will say, you have entered another realm in Me, The Third Dimension (The Most Holy Place). In this realm there is no intervention by man. It is all Spirit and you will have to depend totally on Me says the Spirit of the Lord. You can not take anything from the old into the new without My instructions, for the new wine can not be put in the old wine skin. What the Lord is saying to the REAL BODY OF CHRIST is this, He is breaking the traditions and religion of men, He started doing it towards the end of 2002. It will intensify in this season for He is bringing it to completion. He is getting to the root of the problem. No longer can one ask for tithes, offering for preaching His word because it has been abused by the previous generation so He is doing a new thing. Hear the word of the Lord - people of God, when you hear that still voice asking you to collect money after you have imparted into others that which you received without a price tag from Him or when TBN asks you to come and collect money for them, or when those who the Lord has lifted His mantle off them ask you to collect money after you have preached at their conferences, you had better be sure it is His voice and not your flesh or the flesh of man because you will be accountable to God and not to man. If God did not tell you do it, then please do NOT do it. In the Holies of Holy – the third dimension, it is all Spirit, He can not and will not be defiled by man. We asked for His glory, this is also the price of His glory.

My glory is divine completion in Me, says the Spirit of the Lord. It is the fullness of God in man, it is total dependence on Him – you can not and will not use His name for anything other than to bring glory to His name says the Spirit of the Lord. You are empty vessels solely for the Masters' use. It is all about Him in this realm. As you glorify the Father, He will glorify you for you were the sons of God waiting to be revealed and now you have been revealed. Yes, you are the manifested sons of God with Christ as your head. If they see you, they have seen the Begotten Son. If they see the Begotten Son, they have seen the Father. If they see the manifested sons of God, they have seen the Father and whoever says that Christ has not come in the form of flesh (a many member body) denies the Son and knows neither the Father nor the Son. He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit of the Lord is saying.

Disobedience through perversion of His word and enticing for money in this realm will cost you your life, literally your life. Those game were for the outer court and the inner court but not in the Holies of Holy. We have NEVER been here before and few can make it into this realm in Him. Once in this realm, you can not turn your back on the Lord. It will cost you your life. To those with an ear to hear, we have been ushered into another realm in the Spirit. Again, remember, in this realm is TOTAL DEPENDENCE on God. He will provide what is needed to accomplish what He called and chose us to do.
It is not by might nor by power but by My Spirit says the Lord of Hosts.
We can not and must not do anything by our strength pertaining to anything that relates to the Lord in this realm, and this, the mouth of the Lord has spoken. And so be it.

On 2/23/04 Scriptures given by the Lord
2:46am Joel 2 and Amos 3
3:46am Jeremiah 5

Note the instructions have been carried out! The sound has gone forth to the four corners of the earth, it was carried out in its entirety on 7/3/2004. *

Miranda Easmon
February, 2004

The Sons Of God Versus Anti-Christ
Miranda Easmon

February 29th 2004

Extracts from Nov. 2000 journal with a word for this season:

Manifested sons of God are spirit and flesh i.e. human beings - walking on this earth today, but they are dominated by the Christ nature rather than their Adamic nature (carnality). They are led ONLY by the Spirit of the Lord. They bring glory to the name of the Lord. They are those whose presence will change the atmosphere around them because their flesh is dormant and His Spirit dominates their lives. Their life is not their own, they have come to that realization and they have accepted it. They have His purpose as their purpose and His vision as their goal. They will be glorified as they glorify the Son, ultimately the Father. They are those that have been called and chosen by the Lord to get the rest of the body in sync with Him "The Head" (which means this can ONLY be accomplished by His Spirit). The rest of mankind will be drawn to the Father through the manifested sons of God. The sons of God are those that have been through the fire and have been purged and purified by Him. It is perpetual; and their face is continually before the Lord - to search their hearts to see if there is anything in them unlike Him as He takes them from glory to glory in Him. God's ultimate plan or purpose is for all mankind to be revealed as sons of God. Jesus is the only begotten Son. But we are all children of God (sons) that are yet to be revealed and I will boldly declare and decree, that many are being revealed in this hour worldwide because God said, this is the year (2004) of the revealing of the sons of God – and if the truth be known, that is the goal of the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. The manifested sons of God (collectively) are the real Church - the called out, an assembly of Him, the real body of Christ. Anything else is a counterfeit, it is not the real body of Christ. The spirit of the anti-Christ is right in operation in the church system, from the pulpit, and some have produced after their kind within the congregation. It has spread like cancer. It looks like it is of Christ, but it is not, it is a counterfeit, yes, it is a counterfeit! It has a form of godliness but denies the power there of. It stands in place of Christ. Anytime one operates in the flesh (the Adamic nature) instead of the Spirit, it is the spirit of the anti-Christ in operation and it was in operation in the days of the Apostle John and it is still in operation. 1 John 2: 19 "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us..."

The anti-Christ is a spirit; the carnal church system without the power of God (flesh preaching instead of Spirit) - consistently hindering the flow of His Spirit thus preventing His glory from filling this earth, preaching the desires of their hearts, propheliers, greedy evangelists, false teachers and demons dressed in Priestly garments with a bible in their hands, right in the pulpit, trying to divide the word of the Lord! Lord help us!

The counterfeit look very much like the real thing but they are not and they stand in place of the real thing. For something to be a counterfeit, it means it must look like the real thing. The anti-Christ looks like they are of God though they are not; those money-worshippers, money changers who love their ministries, their gifts, silver and gold more than the Lord and His sheep; worshipers of Baal, not the Lord, and they have refused to receive correction and seek His face, so God said their time is up. Their time is indeed up!

Most of these conferences that “men and women of God” have are not about God. Most of these conferences are about raising more funds to satisfy their earthly desires, that is why lives are not being transformed and that is why God is stopping the funds from being released to many in this hour because in this hour, it is all about Him and no longer about us! The schemes that worked in the past will no longer work. The things we got away with, we will no longer get away with!

Do not play with God in this season and do not turn the “revealing of the sons of God” into another doctrine because it can not be preached. It is not a doctrine.

It is what you are or you are not. It the potential within you, the manifestation of the Christ nature within you that either will, or will not be revealed through you on this earth depending on your willingness to submit and surrender all to Spirit of the Living.

Miranda Easmon
Extracts from November, 2000 journal but relevant for this season
February, 2004

Lonely But Never Alone
Chip Brogden

Dear Friends,

I have said many times before that if everyone who tells me they are "alone in the wilderness" were gathered together in one place, you would have a hard time fitting them all into the building. I wish you could see how many emails I get from people who think they are the only ones left!

I was listening to a nationally syndicated Christian radio program the other day as the panel was lamenting the fact that so many people are not going to church anymore. They seemed to believe this would lead to the collapse of Western civilization. Their solution? Try to make "church" more appealing, make it more relevant to their needs, and help them feel more "involved". No mention was made of the hundreds of thousands of people who are loving and serving God "outside the camp", pursuing a relationship with Jesus and with one another apart from Organized Religion. Either mainstream Churchianity doesn't realize there is such a phenomenon or they see it and are unwilling to admit that it exists.

I hope the following will be an encouragement to those of you who have been written off as unchurched, unsaved, unChristian, and unspiritual because you don't participate on Sunday and Wednesday.

--- CB

Lonely, But Never Alone
Chip Brogden

http://www.watchman.net/articles/lonely.html

There are many in the Body of Christ who are in transition between "going" to church and "being" the Church. The Lord is speaking to many at once and calling them aside from the traditional church building meeting to gather together in homes. The more in tune with the Lord we become, the more dissatisfied and uncomfortable we become with what is being said and done in His Name. Yet, there is an uncomfortable pause between where we used to be and where we are called to be. It is a lonely time in which we will be misunderstood by many that have not seen what we have seen.

What God is impressing upon many of us who are in-between the church as a building and the church as a lifestyle is how to walk ALONE. We must not forsake the assembling of ourselves together when we are able to do so; yet God would have us learn to fellowship with Christ, even it means to take the lonely path.

Many times the desire to find other "like-minded believers" is not a spiritual desire. It is rather our emotion, our soul, which longs to be with people who understand us. We must love not our life (Greek: soul life) and be willing to go for a time without the comfort and fellowship of brothers and sisters if God has called us unto Himself. If we simply MUST be in the accompaniment of other brothers and sisters in order to have any sense of Christ then we are not abiding in Him as we ought.

In many parts of the world brothers and sisters in Christ are not able to meet together because of persecution. They would certainly desire to do so if they could, but if they cannot, how will they maintain fellowship and connectivity to the Body if they are unable to gather? Why, they must know Christ as Fellowship. Abiding in Him, connected to the Head, they maintain oneness with the rest of the Body.

Someone will say, "We are not persecuted. We have the freedom to gather together. Should we not take advantage of our liberty as Christians and fellowship at every opportunity?" The answer is yes, we should thank God for our freedom and make the most of it. But my question to you is, what will your spiritual state be like when that liberty is no longer permitted? Have you resources within yourself to stay in your place of abiding in Christ, or is your usefulness to God limited by your ability to fellowship with others? Can you maintain connectivity to the Body when isolated, or will you grow faint and fall away?

Some are able to maintain a sweet spirit so long as they are in fellowship with other believers. But when God allows that fellowship to be interrupted, observe how quickly that sweet spirit turns sour. They will even acknowledge their poor state and say things like, "My temper has become awful. It is because I have been out of church. I must go back this Sunday." Then they will go back to church, feel uplifted, and the sweet spirit returns. Sadly, this is the experience of a majority of people who have not learned to take Christ as their Life. Is this walking in the Spirit? It is not.

It is true that "whenever two or three are gathered in My Name, there I am." Praise God for such truth. It is equally true that, "I am with YOU always (singular)." We do not want to be lone ranger Christians who do not seek fellowship with other members of Christ's Body. At the same time, we cannot allow the absence of such fellowship to make us despondent or depressed, should we be deprived of it. If it causes us to fall away, then perhaps this is the reason God allows us to go through periods of solitude, that we may be reduced to CHRIST as our Fellowship.

When we find ourselves in such a place, let us not be too quick to seek out others until we have reaped the benefits of being alone with God. Let us remember that Christ's Body is a spiritual Body. Being in the physical presence of other members does not make us more of a member, and being removed from the physical presence of other members does not make us any less a member. Of course the exact opposite is true for those meeting together as an institution; without their physical presence and support they lose place as a member. But not Christ's Body, the Church. We are not more or less of a member by reason of our physical contact or lack of physical contact with one another.

And again, we may thirst for fellowship not so much to edify the Body as to be edified ourselves - a mindset carried over from when we used to go to church to "be fed" once or twice a week. If this is the case, it is no wonder that God would have us look to Him alone as our Edification and learn to draw upon Him before placing us in close proximity with others. One weakness of the institutional church is that the majority of members are coming to receive, to be edified, to be encouraged, to be fed. It is all "take", and very little "give". Hence, there is little Life.

When we learn to draw upon Christ as our Source we will have abundance to give away. Fellowship with others cannot replace our daily abiding in Him. If we gather together in the Name of the Lord, yet outside of Christ, we will have much religious carrying's on but little Life to impart to one another. God would have us look to His Son as our Life, and as we do we find our need is met. Then, when we gather together, we are givers and not takers, and with all giving out of Christ, we have the blessing we sought.

Let us press into Christ with all our heart, and not be discouraged if we find ourselves temporarily without the fellowship and comfort of our brothers and sisters. Though we are lonely, we are never alone.

Thousands of people are finding out that there is a difference between Jesus and "church". In search of reality, many of them are coming out of Organized Religion. But where are they going?

http://www.watchman.net/audio/ts106.html

http://www.watchman.net
(c)2004 Watchman.Net. Permission is granted for non-commercial (free) distribution provided this notice appears.

To join the list, leave the list, or change your email address, please visit:
http://www.watchman.net/join.html

Jesus Is Building His Church
Chip Brogden

"...upon this Rock, I will build My Church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it (Matthew 16:18b)."

What is the "move" of God? What is God doing today? What is God saying to the Church? Here's what is happening: Jesus is building His Church. There is no "new" thing to be seen, said, or done: Jesus the Rock is building His Church upon the foundation of Himself. He is faithfully gathering the living stones together and is assembling them into a beautiful structure of gold, silver, and precious stones (I Peter 2:4-9; I Corinthians 3:9-17).

There is nothing wrong with the Church! That is, there is nothing wrong with the Church that Jesus is building, though there is much to be desired among those who are following their own building programs and blueprints, and calling it "church". Jesus is assembling the saints together into a spiritual house. The problem is that some things we have come to believe to be "church" are not necessarily the Church. Although there is nothing wrong with the Church, everything that is called "Church" is not the "Church". So what is the Church?

Let us look at this statement: "I will build My Church." The first thing that strikes us about this thing called "Church" is simply that it is that which Jesus is building upon the foundation of Himself. More specifically, the word "church" is "ecclesia", the called-out assembly. It consists of those to whom God has chosen to reveal His Son. This revelation of who we are in Christ and who Christ is in us is the key. Without this firm foundation we cannot know, understand or experience being part of the Church. Quite frankly, our religious head knowledge or credal affirmation is of virtually no significance. Even the repeating of the so-called "Sinner's Prayer" means nothing apart from the revelation of Jesus Christ. May God give us a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Christ (Ephesians 1:17-23). Then, our prayer and confession will be based on Spirit and Truth revelation, not flesh and blood, second or third generation "knowing" (Matthew 16:17).

The Church is not built upon the individual Peter, but upon those who have been given revelation. Jesus builds His Church through revelation to individuals, the "whosoevers". What revelation? The revelation of Himself. This revelation is sufficient to secure us as members of the Church that Jesus is building. When we understand that revelation is the only thing which matters we will cease trying to grow the Church or gain members through better preaching, musical entertainment, handsome facilities, demographic studies, and savvy marketing techniques. Instead, we will simply come to rely upon revelation and trust the Father to reveal the Son through the Spirit Who brings illumination to our heart. We are the Temple of God, a habitation for Himself, and this Church grows as a living thing (Ephesians 2:20-22).

Jesus is not building a denomination or founding a movement. The Church is not a denomination, but neither is it a non-denomination. It is not a steeple-house or institutional church, but neither is it a house church. Stated simply, the Church is a spiritual house of living stones, invisible to the naked eye, but clearly seen and known in Spirit. It is not an organization, but an organism. Who are its members? Those who have the revelation of Jesus Christ. Where are these members to be found? They are scattered in all directions, both inside and outside of Organized Religion.

Keith Green once said, "Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than going to McDonald's makes you a hamburger." How true this statement has proved to be through the years. But we hasten to say that going to a house church won't make you a Christian either. We thank God for the saints which are meeting in homes and rediscovering what it means to gather together in simplicity apart from the steeple-house, paid clergy, and denominationalism. Yet, Jesus did not say, "I will build My HOUSE church." Since the Church is comprised of individuals who have the revelation of Jesus Christ, how or where they meet together is of little consequence. In Jerusalem, or in this mountain? Neither, says the Lord (John 4:20-24). Where we gather doesn't matter to the Lord, but WHY we gather is of extreme importance to Him. If it is due to the revelation of Jesus Christ, we will worship in Spirit and Truth because the revelation of Jesus Christ draws us together. Why? Because our testimony is other-worldly, peculiar, spiritual. We are the called-out assembly, the ecclesia of Jesus. We are His particular treasure.

What we have, both within Organized Religion and within the house church "movement", is a mixture of people. Some of them have the revelation of Jesus Christ, and some do not. We affirm that this revelation is enough to establish the Church, regardless of the outward appearances. Where this revelation exists, THERE is the foundation of the Church that Jesus is building. Since it is an inward revelation, a spiritual seeing and entering into, we cannot classify everyone as being the Church merely because they are within a system of Organized Religion, or even if they have come out of a system. Nor can we include or disqualify them because of where or how they meet. The meeting together is only a small part of the total picture. The question is not whether we are in or out of a human system, or how we meet, or what doctrine we lay emphasis on. The question is, have we seen the Lord? Do we have the revelation of Jesus Christ? We may be correct in outward appearance but have no inward revelation. Hence, not all who say, "Lord! Lord!" will enter the Kingdom of God (Matthew 7:21-23). Similarly, we may be politically or spiritually incorrect and offensive outwardly speaking, that is, according to what man values and esteems as good, acceptable, moral, and religious; yet the revelation of Christ is sufficient to bring us into the Kingdom with or without the support and approval of men, even the most spiritual and holy men.

"I will build My Church." We maintain that the Church exists where individuals have the revelation of Jesus Christ: for when this revelation takes hold of a person, Jesus Christ will have the preeminence in all things (Colossians 1:12-19). It is not enough to tell people, "Jesus is the Head of the Church." We cannot make Him the Head while gathered together and then expect Him to remain in the background while we live out our lives individually. Either He is Lord OF all, or He isn't Lord AT all. When we see Him seated in heavenly places we will gladly and joyfully allow Him to be the Head over all things, not only in the Church, but in our marriage, family, and work. We will at once see that the Church does not belong to us. We will discern that hitherto we have viewed "church" as something that we must attend, build, or grow. With the knowledge that the Church does not belong to us we will relinquish our claims to it and begin to co-labor together with the Lord (I Corinthians 3:9). Then, it is a natural thing to give up our titles and positions and merely concentrate on building one another up in love. To give up title and position within a group that has no revelation of Christ is to invite chaos. This is why man feels the need to have some organization and established leadership among the saints, running the steeple-house much like a business with mission statements and top-heavy organizational charts, paving a one-way street of submission to some earthly head - because there is no vision of Christ. It is not more organization or leadership training that we need. We only need more revelation, and no man can give us revelation. It is the gift of God. Once obtained, we will with much rejoicing and relief fall into place below One Head and allow Christ to have the preeminence. "The Lord is my Pastor: I shall not lack (Psalms 23:1)."

Since it is the Lord's Church, and no man's, and since we are the sheep of His pasture, not man's, we will stop referring to "Pastor Smith's church" and "Brother John's congregation". The pastor is not the head of the Church. But then, neither is the teacher, evangelist, prophet, or apostle. Apostles do not build the Church: Jesus builds the Church, for it is His Church. All anyone can do is co-labor with Him. Anything done apart from Him will fall apart, for there is no other foundation but what has been laid, and that foundation is Christ (I Corinthians 3:11). If the foundation is faulty, it matters not one whit how beautiful the structure is. The apostles and prophets lay the foundation of the Church, which is the revelation of Jesus Christ (Ephesians 2:20), but it is still based upon a revelation that no man can give! The Spirit of Jesus must make Himself known in you (Galatians 1:11-18). Then others will build upon that foundation, which is your personal revelation of Christ in you and you in Christ. But no one at any time may lay claim to the Church, or any particular fellowship, as his or her own. The Church does not belong to a denominational office, church board, circle of elders, founding apostle, or individual pastor. At least, not the Church that Jesus is building.

How do we know if a particular work is the true building of God, part of the genuine Church? All we have to do is see who has the preeminence there. If an apostle or pastor is considered the spiritual head then Christ does not have the preeminence (3 John 9). If the elected deacons are in charge then Christ does not have the preeminence. We may give Him lip service and acknowledge with our mouth that it is His Church, but apart from revelation these are empty words. When the moment of truth comes man will always seize control, demonstrating that Christ does not have the preeminence there, and indeed, probably never had it to begin with.

How then do we know who has the preeminence? We need only look to see who gets the credit for the work. Men talk about "this great denomination" and glory in the works of their hands. Of course, with their lips they draw near to God, but their heart is far from Him. They are only trying to build a name to themselves and reach the heavens. The end result is confusion and vain babbling (Genesis 11:1-9). They are not co-laboring with Christ in the building of His Church, they are asking Christ to co-labor with THEM in the building of THEIR church. "We have done many mighty works in Your Name! Behold what manner of stones and buildings these are (Mark 13:1)!" And surely, great things have been accomplished, insofar as organization, wealth, property, and numbers are concerned. "But Jesus said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God (Luke 16:15)." If Jesus is building His Church as His own possession, then we cannot take the credit for it. We can only marvel at what He does and bow our heads in humble gratitude for allowing us to be a part of it.

What shall we do about Organized Religion? What shall we do about those who claim the Church as their own, who intend to build a name to themselves? What shall we do about the false religious system? We will do nothing at all; for, those structures not built upon the Foundation of Jesus Christ will fall of their own accord (I Corinthians 3:12-17; Matthew 7:24-27). How could it be otherwise? The only safe place to be is within the Church that Jesus is building. Besides, if we attempt to bring down the huge idol of Organized Religion we may well crush ourselves and others in the attempt.

What is the Spirit of Antichrist? It is that religious thing that makes war against Jesus and the Church that He is building. The Spirit of Antichrist is already gone out in to the world (I John 2:18) and has sown tares among the wheat. Indeed, in the last days the Spirit of Antichrist will dominate and rule the world system, attempting to blot out the true Church. Outwardly speaking it appears to be succeeding. Nevertheless, the Church that Jesus is building cannot be overcome by the gates of hell. Since it is built upon the revelation of Jesus Christ, nothing cannot stop it. Why? A man will not die for a tradition or a doctrine. But he will gladly lay down his life for the revelation of Jesus Christ. He cannot be disobedient to the heavenly vision (Acts 20:24; 26:19). He has found his Life (Christ) by giving up his life.

Yes, this world system, including man's religious systems, is passing away: make no mistake (I John 2:15-17). The nations will be judged and will pass through the fire (Psalms 2). The earth will decay and finally dissolve altogether, consumed in the fire; the heaven's will melt with a fervent heat (II Peter 3:7-14). The outward things are fading, perishing, evolving downward in a state of entropy. Look around you, saint of God. See the steeple-house? It will not remain for long. See the cathedral? It too shall pass. See the oceans? One day they will be no more. Look at the mountains - they will all be removed. See the cities? They will be destroyed. Heaven and earth will pass away.

What is my point? Simply this: the Church that Jesus is building will be the only thing which remains. The visible will make way for the invisible, the temporal will give way to the eternal, mortal will put on immortality (I Corinthians 15). A new heavens and a new earth will be made and the New Jerusalem, the Bride of Christ, the Church, will be completed (Revelation 21). We are that Building of God, built upon the revelatory foundation of Jesus brought by the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the Chief Cornerstone (Ephesians 2:20). We are the Temple of God, therefore we need no earthly temple, we seek no earthly kingdom, and we expect no earthly reward (I Corinthians 3:16,17). We look for a City whose Builder and Maker is God, and we are that City (Hebrews 11:10). Jesus is building His church!

The Gift Of Christ
Chip Brogden

http://www.watchman.net/articles/gift.html

"As the fullness of God - all that He is and all that He has - dwells in Christ, so the fullness of Christ - all that He is and all that He has - dwells in you" (Colossians 2:9,10a).

We have mentioned the need to recognize and appreciate the value, worth, and preciousness of the Lord Jesus. We would like to expand upon that and discuss The Gift of Christ. I pray that the Lord will grant us the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the full-knowledge of His Son as we ponder this.

I am afraid that we do not truly appreciate the fact that God has never given us "things", but has summed up everything into Christ, having poured Himself into His Son. Having the Son, possessing the Son, being one with the Son, we have and possess everything God is. It never has been a question of seeking ten, one hundred, or one thousand different things from God. If we do not know from our experience, we should at least know from the Scriptures, that Christ is the Gift of God. Then our experience will come into line with God's Thought. If you are used to seeking spiritual "things" (love, joy, peace, anointing, power, blessing, etc.) then this message is particularly for you, but we all stand to benefit from being reminded constantly that Christ is God's One Gift.

It is the fullness of Christ that we are after, the revelation of Christ as He in fact is. For too many Christians the Lord Jesus is "merely" their Savior. Thank God He is our Savior, but there is a depth and a richness bound up into the personage of Christ that goes far, far beyond "mere" salvation. Salvation is the narrow gate - coming into the fullness of Christ is the narrow path. The gate is only the entrance to something larger.

The principle we have in mind here is All Things In Christ. If we see this then we will be delivered from "things", from lack, from dissatisfaction, from inferiority, from defeat. The Lord has much to gain by us entering into His fullness now, as opposed to waiting for some future appointment with Him in heaven. It is here on the earth that we need to pray for His Kingdom and His Will to be accomplished. May the Lord illuminate our hearts as we explore these depths.

CHRIST IS THE BLESSING OF GOD

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ" (Ephesians 1:3).

All we have and all that we are as Christians is based upon our union with Christ. Apart from Him, we have nothing, and we are nothing. But in Him we are blessed with every spiritual blessing. Think upon the ramifications of that. If this is true then we have very little to ask God for, and very much to praise God about.

For most of my life as a Christian I sought God for things. When depressed, I would seek joy. When worried, I would seek peace. When weak, I would seek strength. When angry, I would seek self-control. When defeated, I would seek victory. Most Christians are taught to approach God and seek these things when they are conscious of some lack. For a time it seems they are given what they ask for, but soon they are back asking for more of the same thing. Today we ask for patience, and tomorrow we ask again, and the day after that we have to ask yet again. So it is with peace, joy, victory, and everything else.

Eventually we must learn that we have everything in Christ already. That thing called "patience" that we are so diligently seeking is not a thing at all, it is Christ. "Victory" is no longer a "thing", it is a Man. And so it is with everything else we need. It is certainly possible to seek spiritual blessings from God apart from Christ, or in addition to Christ. What a difference it makes to realize that He HAS (past tense) blessed us already - not with three or five or twenty blessings - but with every spiritual blessing. However many there may be, we have them all. Where and how has He done this? Thank God, it was done the moment we received Christ and entered into Him as our All in All. God would have us seek Him first, and not His things. To Him there is no "thing", for they are all summed up into Christ.

Again, it is the preciousness and extreme worth and value of the Lord Jesus that we have in mind here. May we see before God that God's Gift is Christ - not a lot of spiritual blessings that we must diligently seek after, one by one, until we accumulate them like a collection of virtues or special graces. That is not to say there are not many spiritual blessings we can obtain from God, only that they are all found in Christ. Having the Son we have all that pertains to the Son.

"If God did not spare His own Son, but freely delivered Him over to death on our behalf, how will He not also, with Him, freely give us all things?" (Romans 8:32)

Jesus says the Kingdom of God is like a man who found treasure buried in a field. With great joy he went out, sold all his possessions, and purchased that field. The point of the parable is this: the one who owns the field possesses all that lies buried within the field. It is not a matter of getting the individual pieces of treasure, but of gaining the field. Once we have the field, we have the treasure.

The Scriptures tell us that hidden in Christ are "all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Colossians 2:3), "every spiritual blessing" (Ephesians 1:3), and "all the fullness of God" (Colossians 1:19). Since this is the truth, we maintain before God that His Gift to us is Christ, and to the extent that we appreciate the value and preciousness of the Lord Jesus, to that same extent will we be satisfied spiritually. We will find fullness in the Son, and will not find it necessary to be continually pumped up or propped up as we go about our daily walk as Christians. Imagine the foolishness of asking God for a "few coins" to get you through until Sunday while wealth is buried just below your feet. Or, imagine the vanity of thinking we have to go "here" or "there" to get something from God (such as a "blessing", a "word", an "anointing", etc) when we already have everything He has. I will go so far as to say that when we know the preciousness and costliness of the Lord Jesus we w! ill not ask God for anything else. The one who must ask God for "things" has not yet fully appreciated the treasure he has in Christ already.

Perhaps an illustration would be helpful at this point. When God wished to test Abraham, He did not ask him to sacrifice a sheep, a ram, or a cow. He did not ask for Abraham's gold or silver or tents or possessions. He went right to the heart of the matter and asked for Isaac, the son of promise. How gladly Abraham would have given anything and everything but his own beloved son. But in the willingness to give up his son, he was, in essence, laying everything down on the altar. When God owns what the man loves most, He owns everything the man has.

In the same way, the Father, wishing to demonstrate His great love for us, has not given us parts and pieces of things, but has sacrificed His only Son. By giving us His Son, He has, in essence and in fact, freely given us everything. When man possesses what God loves most, he owns everything God has. This is why I say we have little else to ASK God for, but much to PRAISE Him about: for IN CHRIST, God has freely given us all things.

GOD GIVES US NOTHING OUTSIDE OF CHRIST

"For God so loved the world that He gave His Only Son. Whoever believes in Him will not perish, but will have eternal life" (John 3:16).

To the casual observer this verse appears to be giving us a thing called "eternal life". But that is not what this verse says at all. God has not given us salvation; He has given us His Son as Salvation. This Scripture tells us that God loved the world, and this love prompted Him to remedy the situation by giving us His Only Son. What is the gift? It does not say, "For God so loved the world that He gave eternal life." If I may say it bluntly, it was not eternal life that we needed to begin with; we needed His Only Son. What good is eternal life without the Son? See before God that there is only One Son, One Gift. Now all who believe IN CHRIST have eternal life. At the moment of New Birth we did not receive salvation, we received the Son. Hence, we are saved. Salvation is not giving me eternal life, but giving me Christ as my Life. Hallelujah! Do you see this?

There is a difference between salvation and a Savior; between deliverance and a Deliverer; between healing and a Healer; between redemption and a Redeemer. The first is a "thing", the second is a Person. This may sound self-evident and elementary, but before God the difference is vast, and in actual experience the difference is incalculable. If we are not clear on the matter of His Son we will find the Christian life very difficult, if not impossible, to live. I have the "thing" because I have Him; having Him, I do not need to search for the "thing" anymore. What do you have? An experience? A word? A doctrine? A belief? Or a Man? This is the difference between a living Christianity and a dead religion.

We have to come to know the height, length, breadth, and width of HIM, and may I say that we will never come to the end of Him. But we do not search for anything as if we do not have it, nor do we hope to gain some new thing, for what we call "new" is simply that which has been seen for the first time. Thus, revelation is critical, for it unveils what we already have. Having the Son, we have all.

"It is of God that you are in Christ Jesus, Whom God has made to us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption" (I Corinthians 1:30).

This is a very rich verse. We have already seen how the Lord Jesus is given to be our Life. Upon that basis we can lay claim to everything else. Here we see that to those of us who are in Christ, He is made to be our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption. It does not say that He gives these things to us, but that He is these things in us.

Again, this is the difference between a living Christianity and a dead religion. Most of us are still trying to attain something and have not yet realized that we have already obtained it. We wear ourselves out in order to be Christ-like. We are hoping that through much effort we will one day reach some standard to which we can finally say we are living like Jesus. But this is not God's way. It is not a changed life that God seeks from you, but an exchanged life - that is, your life is to be given up in exchange for His life. "It is no longer I that live, but Christ that lives in me" (Galatians 2:20ff). That is the exchanged Life: my life for His Life.

We should have learned by now that we cannot change ourselves. Jesus says we cannot increase our stature by a single inch through worry and self-effort (Matthew 6:27). If we cannot make ourselves grow physically, how can we ever hope to make ourselves grow spiritually? Have you ever seen a brother or a sister try to act sanctified? They wear themselves and everyone else out. It is a burden to be around such a person. That is not Christianity. Christianity is this: not that I am trying to be wise, but that I receive the Lord Jesus as my Wisdom; not that I am trying to be righteous, but that I receive the Lord Jesus as my Righteousness; not that I am trying to be sanctified, but that I receive the Lord Jesus as my Sanctification; not that I am trying to be redeemed, but that I accept the Lord Jesus as my Redemption. Henceforth I cease trying to be anything, and I allow Him to be Who He is through me.

We must be clear: these things are not the "reward" for years of faithful service, or the fruit of walking with Jesus after a long period of time. If I have Him now, then I have all that pertains to Him now. My Wisdom, my Righteousness, my Sanctification, and my Redemption has a personality, for He is all those things in me. It is not a question of my behavior, or my conduct, or my feelings one way or the other - those things will come into line soon enough - but it is all based upon this accomplished fact. Christ is God's Gift. I repeat, we have much to praise God about!

CHRIST IS INFINITE SUPPLY

"The Father gives you the True Bread from Heaven... I am the Bread of Life" (John 6:32b, 35a).

The people were asking for Jesus to give them bread, but failed to recognize that He Himself is the Bread of Life. They worked and toiled for something which would perish, but were not willing to receive the True Bread that would not perish. Again, the significance of the Lord Jesus is not that He can give us bread, but that He is the Bread.

Why are we following the Lord? Is it for what He can do for us? Is it so we can enjoy His blessing? Is it because He supplies our needs? Do we want the gifts or the Gift? If our motivation is for blessings then we will soon be disappointed. Indeed, from this time forward, many of His disciples turned back and stopped following Him. How many of us will continue to follow when the Lord fails to respond to us in the way we have grown accustomed? The Lord may provide you with bread for a season, but there is a difference between looking to the Lord for bread and looking to the Lord as bread. May God show us the difference. The Gift of God is not what Christ can do for you, but Who He Himself is.

The ones who seek bread from the Lord will be temporarily filled, but all who seek the Lord as Bread will be constantly satisfied. What is more, they will have resources from which to feed others. It is a shame that many Christians only seek to be filled, and still they are never satisfied. They are content with a meager pittance, for a few crumbs from the table. They are constantly obsessed with being filled. To such ones we can only say that it is time to seek the Lord, not for what He can give you, but for Himself.

"Things", even spiritual things, cannot satisfy. Only Jesus can satisfy, and since all fullness dwells in Him, we need nothing else. Eventually we will learn that Christ is the Gift, and when we do, we will be enlarged. We will be able to minister Life to the Body. What are we giving people: bread, or Christ? If we are ministering bread then they will become dependant upon us to feed them all the time. If we point them to Christ, they will find in Him an infinite supply.

"If you knew the gift of God, and Who I am, you would have asked Me for a drink, and I would have given you Living Water... Jesus stood and shouted 'If anyone is thirsty, come to Me and have your thirst quenched! Anyone who believes in Me, as the Scriptures have said, will have rivers of Living Water flowing from within' (John 4:10; 7:37b, 38)."

As some pursue "rivers" and "watering holes" how refreshing it is to know that Christ is the Living Water. How can we know the difference between Christ and what is proclaimed as the manifest power or presence of God? It is quite simple: the one who drinks from a "meeting" must continually drink to stay full, but the one who knows Christ as Living Water has their thirst quenched altogether.

We are empty because we do not know the Gift of God. "If you knew the Gift of God, if you knew Who I am, you would have asked Me, and I would have given you." Those who hunger and thirst after Righteousness (Christ) are filled continually. Those who hunger and thirst after anything else must be constantly looking for their next fill-up. We repeat a thousand times, the question of abundance or lack in spiritual Life relates to how we see the Son. If we clearly see the Son then we see all that God has, and all that God is. In Him is fullness. To leave where we are and seek out some man or woman or ministry at the ends of the earth in order to be filled or blessed is a serious tragedy. How much time I have wasted in that pursuit, before knowing Christ as All in All! Broken cisterns cannot hold water for long.

We must know the Gift of God. The one who knows will not only be satisfied, but will have abundance of Life springing up from within. If we are mainly interested in being filled for ourselves then we will have little to offer anyone else. Yet when we know the Gift of God the Life will overflow. "You anoint my head with oil, and my cup overflows (Psalms 23:5b)." Are you an overflowing Christian, with all of God you can hold, and much leftover? Sadly, this does not describe many of us. To drink is a beginning, but God's goal is an overflow. How we need clear revelation into the Son! How we need to see just how precious and worthy He is!

Here is the glory of our union with Christ: when we come to Him to drink, we become what we are drinking. Jesus clearly says the streams of Living Water overflow from within the innermost being of the person who knows the Gift of God and has come to Him to be filled. To begin with it flows from Him to me, but eventually it flows from me outward. What can anyone possibly give me that, in Christ, I do not already possess? So the question is not are you "in the River", but is the River in you? In all things God directs us continually to His Son as All in All. May He give us grace to see Him.

ABIDE IN HIM

"Of His fullness have we all received, blessing upon blessing" (John 1:16).

Just how full is "full"? How many people does "all" include? We have to believe that full means complete, and all includes each one of us. "Of His fullness we have all received." No one, no matter how "anointed" they may appear, has more fullness than anyone else. And if we have received it already then there is nothing for us to do to get it. If I have already entered into a room and sat down in a chair then there is no need for me to try to get into the room anymore. I am there already. We entered into Christ when He entered into us: we do not have to enter into Him over and over again, we are merely abiding in Him.

I am frequently asked how do we partake of this fullness? How do we walk in it? What practical application exists for living according to this Truth? We see what God says, but we also see our situation. We see Jesus, but we also see ourselves. God says we are complete in Him, but we say we are incomplete. God says we are blessed with every spiritual blessing in Christ, but we say we still need this or that. What is the problem here? Is it not a glaring discrepancy between what God says and what we say? Whose word is more reliable?

The solution is not to look at one's self at all, but to look away to Christ. Then we will not have to worry about the practical side, it will develop of its own accord. Let us get a foundation first: then the Life will find a way to manifest. I am convinced that we have plenty of faith, we just have faith in the wrong things. Many Christians have more faith in the Law of Sin and Death than they do in the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ. We are more conscious of what (we think) the devil is doing and how weak we are than we are cognizant of God's Son. But when we look away to Christ, He is increased. As He is increased, we are decreased. We must become lesser, He must become greater. When Christ looms larger in our vision than anything else, we will experience the fullness which is already ours in Him. Remember, the one who possesses the field possesses everything buried in the field. Meditate on that, breath it, live it.

We must ask God for revelation into His Son. Lord Jesus, reveal Yourself to us as All in All. Illuminate our hearts to see you. Bring us into the full-knowledge of Yourself. No matter our feelings or experiences to the contrary, we acknowledge that we are complete in You. You do all things well! Teach us to look away from all that pertains to man and to see You as You really are. Thank you Father for the Gift of Christ! Amen.

..But you ask, "CAN IT REALLY BE THAT SIMPLE?"

Jesus said His yoke is easy and His burden is light. Have you made the Christian life too difficult? So often, man takes something easy and light and turns it into something difficult and heavy. Jesus is calling us to forsake the complicated way and to follow Him in sincerity and simplicity.

http://www.watchman.net

Led By The Spirit

John Lallier

Its quite simple, do like I do, no battle plan, no money, just Jesus. I get up and spend that quiet time in him, and I spend time in the bible, then I pray, Lord take my hands Lord, my mind, my heart, take my mouth and lord please give me words of knowledge and wisdom and what ever gift you have for me. Put people in front of me and let me lead them to you Lord.
Lord give me dreams and visions and directions and I surrender my desires to your desires.
Use me lord and I promise to give you all the glory all the honor and praise.

Start your day with the mind of Christ and his kingdom and just be ready for service. I ask the lord to give me a sign if he wants to use me on someone.
Jesus walked on this earth and he only did what the father showed him he only did the will of the father, now that's simple.

I had a vision years ago, I was in a church and a pastor was telling people how to fly a kite and the church was full. In this vision I went to the pastor and took the blue print and went outside and started to fly the kite. I looked into the window of the church and all the people were looking at me puzzled, my interpretation is don't talk the talk walk the walk, be a doer and not a hearer.

We don't need to huddle around and try to figure things out, just be useable and spirit led. Most Christians are worried about loosing their jobs talking of Jesus or are worried about people coming against them. If you worry about what people think about you, God can't use you. Some people like using their God given gifts on those that are already saved. The gift of the Holy Ghost is the power of God to go to the darkness and be a light in that darkness [Isa. 60, verse 2.] there is a war going on out there and we are to be solders for the Lord, not hiding under some church roof having a play or dinner with the pastor and playing church.

In Florida we have bike week every year, I have a motorcycle and it has Jesus all over it and my saddle bags have bible in it. Last year the Lord in a vision told me there was going to be two storms and I was not to run from the storms but to ride into the storm and then go for cover and I would have two people to talk to. Well I went to bike week and there was two storms and I got to prophecy to 2 people just like the vision. I only do what the father shows me and I only do what the spirit tells me. For 20 years it has been that way, sometimes I'll be riding on my motorcycle praying in the holy ghost and then the Lord tells me to stop at a diner. So I pull over and go in, and then the Spirit would tell me who to talk to. It's pretty easy.
Another time the Lord told he would heal a lady who needs a new heart and new lungs and in seven days he would do this. On the seventh day the Lord told me what church to go to, and it was during a prayer meeting. A lady stood up and told everyone there she was looking for a donor for a heart and lungs. The women had tubes in her noise and a tank behind her. I felt the anointing come on me and I asked the Lord when and he said not yet. After everybody prayed for her and the service was over the Lord told me to move, I went to her and she felt the presence. I laid hands on her and she fell, and then the lord told me to leave. The next week the Lord told me to go back, the lady had her medical records with her and she was healed, and she came over to me and thanked me. I told her to give God the glory. The pastor came over to me and he said I wasn't to pray over any more of his people. He said I wasn't a member, so I left,

I get rejected all the time, one time I was run out of a gas station for witnessing Jesus, remember Paul was stoned and run out of towns. If you thing its a big game and you want to play church Jesus cant use you.
Some one told me to write a book on all the things the Lord has done thru me and I tell them no, I tell them Jesus knows what I'm doing.

I read a book once and I man of God said [from England] I don't understand the Americans, they like to puff people up. When Jesus did signs and wonders and when attention was drawn to himself he left the crowds and God got the glory. We are to do the same today. I see a lot of super stars out their drawing big crowds and that is false. You see their names and buy my book buy my tape look at me, what a shame. People throw their money at them thinking they are pleasing God. Discernment is needed.
We are to be like Jesus. He set the pace for us to follow. Be like him a nobody and give all the glory to God, and not to yourselves. Somebody in this group needed to hear this. We all need to get off our high horses and get humble and be serviceable. No matter how many come against you or if you loose customers. I have lost many, but God always sends me more. He is in control.
I gave god my mind, heart, soul body, my business. I gave it all to him. And he has always taken care of me. I never had to pull for money or ask for help or support. I'm called a spark plug. I hope I just put a spark in you to get going and be spirit led and go all the way. I make mistakes sometimes but God always makes it right, if you're afraid to make a mistake God can't use you.

Being spirit led is death to self. And to the inner life, our spirit and soul and body has to be only doing the desire of God, not pleasing self, only the father. You must be completely dead to self; no self motivation, no self will, no trying to please self. Just looking at Jesus; eyes and only doing what he shows us. No matter what circumstances we are in, do nothing till he shows us what to do. That means no opinions, not trying to figure out anything or use reason, just let God be God and trust him.

Led By The Spirit
Mike Forest

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." (Romans 8:14.)

When Jesus walked the earth, He gathered those around Him that He would teach the truths of the kingdom of God. They were with Him, watching Him, learning from Him, and then putting into practice the things that they learned.

Jesus told them that it was necessary that He would go away, so that the Spirit of truth would come. He told them that the Spirit of truth would lead and guide them into all of the truth. Jesus was to be with His disciples in the Person of the Holy Spirit, and not only was He to be with them but He would be in them. The disciples of Jesus would become the very habitation for the Spirit of God.

Brothers and sisters, we have been given a precious gift. The Holy Spirit has been poured out upon the Church, and He has come to live in us, to walk in us, and to reveal Jesus to us.

The Spirit of truth has come to lead us and guide us into all of the truth, and to reveal Jesus to us, who is the truth.

When we make Jesus the sovereign Lord of our lives, we are allowing the Spirit of God to have His way in us and through us. Most of our problems result from us living two separate lives. We invite Jesus to come into our lives, and then go on about our business, seeking His blessing in those things that we choose to do. We live one life in the church before the people of God, and another life before the world, in what is known as the secular life. There are many Christians today that have accepted Jesus Christ as their savior, but have never made Him the sovereign Lord of their lives.

If Jesus is truly the Lord of our lives, then our lives will be lived under the government of the Holy Spirit. "Where the Spirit is Lord, there is liberty." (2 Cor. 3:17). True freedom is not us doing our own thing, but it is a surrendering of our all to the Lordship of Jesus Christ. It is seeking the Lord's will in every area of our lives. It is doing the will of God in His time and in His way.

The Spirit of the Lord will not only lead us into the perfect will of God for our lives, but He is the power within us to fulfill the will of God. The baptism of the Holy Ghost is a baptism of power. He has come to reproduce Christ in every saint, as well as to give every child of God a ministry that will build up the Body of Christ.

We have all been baptized by One Spirit and the problem of divisions and disunity within the Body of Christ would be solved if we were all listening to and being led by that One Spirit.

There are many within the Church that are going from one meeting to another and seeking a word for their lives. Indeed, the prophetic gifts are being restored to the Church, and many times, God will use others to speak a prophetic word into our lives. But the prophetic Word was never intended to be a substitute for the leading and guidance of the Holy Spirit that is in every believer. The Spirit of God within us will bear witness to any personal word of prophesy. Every true word of prophesy will be in line with the scriptures, and will be affirmed by the witness of the Holy Spirit within the believer.

The Lord's sheep know the voice of the Shepherd. They will know the still small voice of the Holy Spirit. The Lord's sheep will not give heed to the voice of a stranger, but will follow the Lord wherever He leads them. The Lord's sheep are those that are led by the Spirit of God.

The Ministry of Reconciliation
Mike Forest

"Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation: old things have passed away: behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation. That is that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled unto God. For He has made Him to be sin for us who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him." (2Corinthians 5:17-21).

Every one in the Body of Christ has their own unique ministry, gifts, and calling that have been given to them for the building up of the Body of Christ. However, there is one ministry within the church that has been given to every believer, and that ministry is the "ministry of reconciliation."

God has empowered His Church with the Holy Spirit to be a witness for Jesus Christ. We are the representatives of God in this earth. The Church has been called to be light and salt to the nations of the world.

As ambassadors of the Lord Jesus Christ, we represent His interests, and our goal is to bring the kingdom of God in the sphere of influence that God has entrusted us to.

It has always been the eternal purpose of God to have a family of sons (and daughters) that are being transformed into the image and likeness of His only Begotten Son. This family of God has been anointed and commissioned to spread the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ to the nations of the world, making disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is by the power of the Holy Spirit that this great work is being done, and this will bring about God's purpose and plan into the earth, and will usher in the return of Jesus Christ to rule and reign with His saints.

The ministry of reconciliation is good news to the lost and dying, because the good news is that Jesus Christ has shed His precious blood for the remission of the sins of all men, so that man no longer has to be separated from God, but the great gulf that sin created between man and God, has been bridged. Men are now free to accept this free gift of salvation, receiving eternal life and becoming a child of God.

The word reconcile means to "make friends again." Man was created to be the friend of God, to walk and talk with God, and to have intimate fellowship with the creator of the universe. When man sinned, he fell short of the glory of God, but now through the Lord Jesus Christ, the glory has been restored, and now Christ in you is the hope of glory.

All that man lost through the fall has been regained through the Lord Jesus Christ, and the believer is now an heir of God and a joint heir of Jesus Christ, and has been blessed with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. The Lord Jesus Christ has paid the price for this glorious inheritance of the children of God, and our part is faith and obedience, and the repentance and forsaking of all sin.

Through movies like "The Passion," men are being awakened to the love of God for sinful man. God so loved us that He was willing to allow His Son to go through the suffering of the cross, so that God could have what His heart has always desired, and so that God and man could once again have that close intimate fellowship. God does not only want to walk with us, but He is living in us, and man has been made the very dwelling place of God.

In His Love, Mike

Laodicean Church Syndrome

Paul Ekemezie

Nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

Rev 3:14-22—"To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the ruler of God's creation. 15 I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! 16 So, because you are lukewarm-neither hot nor cold-I am about to spit you out of my mouth. 17 You say, `I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. 18 I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see. 19 Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent. 20 Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me. 21 To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

Some school of thought believe that the letters to the seven churches of Revelation chapters 2 and 3 describe the historical development of the Church from the time of writing of the book of Revelation to the end of the church age. And a study of the history of the Church validates this belief. By this belief we of today are in the Laodicean church age. We will wind up the church age. The letter to the seventh church (Rev 3:14-22) is for us.

Not much good is said about us. We are neither hot nor cold. And you hear this complaint in the society today. Unbelievers openly accuse born again Christians of not living up to what they preach. We neither clearly forsake Jesus nor are we really with Him. We have half-hearted commitment to Jesus. The muslims challenge us a lot by their extent of devotion and commitment to the cause of Allah. Today in the world, muslims have become popular for their readiness to carry out suicide bombing in the pursuit of Allah’s interest. For we Christians, self-interest and self-pursuits overshadow the interests of Jesus.

Lukewarm attitude of modern day Christians is a big problem. The Lord says that He wishes that every human being were either a zealous Christian or not a Christian at all. For that would make people to know the benefits of true Christian life. This would attract people of good will to Christ. Because of the way Christianity has been muddied, it is becoming more difficult to win converts to true Christianity. The Lord warns today’s Christians that because of being lukewarm He is about to spew them out of His mouth—ejecting them from His body. How is He going to do this?

Matt 24:9-13—"Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. 10 At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, 11 and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. 12 Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, 13 but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.”

The pretribulation rapture theory was invented to suit the Christians of today. Because we do not want to suffer anything for Jesus we would like to be translated out of the world before the Great Tribulation begins. But the Lord says to the Laodicean church age that He will use a means to eject lukewarm Christians out of His body, and the means is tribulation. Because of the severity of tribulation many lukewarm Christians will deny the faith; their love will grow cold. And this is what the Lord had wanted all along, that they be either clearly hot or clearly cold. The question then is this: Can the love of really committed Christians also grow cold? The answer is no. The Lord Himself will be their encouragement. See their end:

Rev 6:9-11—When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained. 10 They called out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign Lord, holy and true, until you judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?" 11 Then each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to wait a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and brothers who were to be killed as they had been was completed.

Can you see in verse 9 that they “maintained” the testimony? To maintain the testimony in the presence of extreme wind of adversity requires supernatural strength that only the Lord can supply. Many think that having known about the coming of the Antichrist that they will never submit to him, no matter what. That is easier said than done. We must not forget that the persecution by Antichrist’s forces will go with demonic influence. I have had dreams in the past in which I saw something that was obviously seriously demonic and immediately felt a paralyzing fear. That is demon-induced fear. Any person who does not have the protection of Christ cannot withstand such a fear. So, any person hoping to face the Antichrist with his natural strength should go into something far above military training.

1 Sam 2:9 (KJV)—He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

Back to the Lord’s word to the Laodicean church age, in Rev 3:17 He accuses us of claiming that we are rich. Is He referring to physical or worldly wealth? No! He is referring to spiritual wealth. We claim to know the truth; we know everything about end time, including the certainty of pretribulation rapture; we have received Christ into our hearts; we have invented short way to receive Christ into the heart; we are ready and qualified to be taken up in rapture; we do not need a thing; etc.

The Lord says that we have not realized how really wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked we are. All these claims we make are not true. If they were, unbelievers would have rushed into the churches. Other religions would have become extinct. He therefore counsels us to buy from Him gold refined in the fire, so we can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so we can cover our shameful nakedness; and salve to put on our eyes, so we can see. Gold refined in the fire refers to the hidden treasure (Matt 13:44-46). The hidden treasure is the indwelling Christ (2 Cor 4:7). White clothes represent the righteousness of God (holiness, perfection). Eye salve is related to revelation of God’s good and perfect will. There is a price to pay before anyone can get these. Matt 13:44-46 says that we must sell everything in order to get it. We must focus all our attention on getting them. We should not spend any day without fasting for even a few hours. We should feed hungrily on the word of God. We should continue to reach out to God in prayer, asking for these things.

Concerning the upcoming great tribulation, please do not get the impression that every Christian will be killed. Notice in Rev 6:11, for Christians that will be killed in the tribulation, that they were given white robes after they had been killed. This means that they could not buy white robes from the Lord Jesus while they were still alive on the earth. There are some Christians that will buy from the Lord gold refined in the fire, white robes and eye salve here on earth:

Rev 7:2-4—Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: 3 "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." 4 Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel.

Rev 14:4-5—These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among men and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb. 5No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.

The 144,000 are those who are able to receive indwelling Christ here on earth. They attain to the perfection of the Lord Jesus. They fully know the will of God (1 Cor 13:10,12). Because of this, forces of the Antichrist cannot touch them.

John 14:30 (KJV)—Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

John 10:17-18—The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life-only to take it up again. 18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father."

The Lord is calling all Christians to repent now. The great tribulation is just around the corner. The signs are already showing around the world. Now is the time to get the power that will enable us to overcome the Antichrist. Let us pay the price that is necessary in order to get the indwelling Christ, the perfection of Christ and full knowledge of the will of God.

Paul Ekemezie
nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com
New Life Bible Church, 112 Ogurugu Road, Nsukka, Enugu State, Nigeria.

Labor Day Weekend

Dan Fineman

Some weeks ago, The Lord spoke to me and told me that he would have me send out a "word" called Labor Day Weekend. So once again I found myself in the position of knowing the title, but not the content. So at the beginning of this week The Lord told me what the word would be about. In short, He wants to make sure that we understand the time and the season in which we live. He told me that I would send the word out this week. During the week he told me to send it out on "the anniversary." He meant today, August 27th, which is my daughters 5th birthday, and the anniversary of the day that my wife spent about 18-20 hours in labor before finally giving birth.

Labor Day is a Federal holiday observed in the United States on the first Monday of September. It was created to honor the American worker with a day of rest. Nowadays, it is observed on Monday creating an extended weekend, 3 days long.

Here is a quote and a link to an article about Labor Day: "Labor Day differs in every essential way from the other holidays of the year in any country," said Samuel Gompers, founder and longtime president of the American Federation of Labor. "All other holidays are in a more or less degree connected with conflicts and battles of man's prowess over man, of strife and discord for greed and power, of glories achieved by one nation over another. Labor Day...is devoted to no man, living or dead, to no sect, race, or nation." (http://www.dol.gov/opa/aboutdol/laborday.htm)

God told me that he wants us to take some time this Labor Day Weekend to remember these words:

Matthew 24:3-8 (ESV) As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the close of the age?" [4] And Jesus answered them, "See that no one leads you astray. [5] For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray. [6] And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet. [7] For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. [8] All these are but the beginning of the birth pains.

For the past 2,000 years there have been wars and rumors of wars, as well as famine and earthquakes in various places, so why should we remember these words now? This millennium is the 3rd day of Jesus and the 7th Day of the Father. Jesus returns some time at the beginning of this millennium to celebrate the Great Supper of God. This great supper of God is the same as the Great Feast of the Lamb that God told me was represented by the number 17. In order to set up the following quote, picture The Rider on his white horse coming down from heaven with His army behind him.

Rev. 19:17-19 (ESV) Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly directly overhead, "Come, gather for the great supper of God, [18] to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great." [19] And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against him who was sitting on the horse and against his army.

What a joyous celebration it will be when Jesus returns to the earth to establish the 1,000 year rest before the final battle. This is going to happen fairly soon. I don't know the day and the hour, but I know the general time period and the season. It is going to occur some time at the beginning of the 7th millennium since creation was finished, and the 3rd millennium since the birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Jesus' return is imminent. This millennium is Labor Day. It is the day of rest patterned after the 7th day of creation and characterized by the 1,000 year reign, and it is the day of the final labor pains that will precede the birth of this age.

So in these last moments that will precede the return of Christ (see Matthew 24, and Rev. 19 for 2 examples), Babylon will fall (Matthew 24:7-8; Rev 19:1-3), great persecution will arise (Matthew 24:9), the Gospel will be proclaimed throughout the whole world (Matthew 24:14), and then the end of the age in will come (v.14) characterized by great tribulation as mentioned in Matthew 24:21 and the Return of Christ in Matthew 24:30. Basically, as my wife can attest to, as labor progresses, the contractions become more painful and closer together. Her labor ended in my daughter's birth. Though she suffered, her heart also rejoiced with hope and expectation. And when all is said and done, the blessing of my daughter far exceeds the cost of her suffering. This is the time for patient endurance in suffering for we know that our reward and future eternal glory will far exceed our present suffering. This is the time to be joyful in the expectation of Christ's return. This is the time to be faithful to the end.

Rev. 22:20-21 (KJV) He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. [21] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Last Generation Of Church Age Saints

Gary Todd-Coldiron

Jul 8, 2004
"…They shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory, And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of the heaven. Now learn a parable of the fig tree: When her branch is yet tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near: So you in like manner, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, THAT THIS GENERATION SHALL NOT PASS, till all these things be done." (Mark 13:26-30)

I am aware that I am writing to more people that ever before. Thanks to the widespread interest in and response to "Countdown to October," I know that this "Benefit" will reach all across America, and many places around the world. In light of this, over the past couple of days I've carefully thought about what I would like to say if given a chance to speak to a larger audience. Questions within are entertained. Shall I send out a fluff piece that will get those that I am reaching excited? Or, Will I say what's really on my heart and, I believe, on the Lord's? That is, the unpopular message. I have chosen the latter. I do fear God more than I do you.

Know this fact: The Lord Jesus will return to retrieve His people at the Last Trumpet (I Corinthians 15:51-52). Consider that a multitude of horrible events is scheduled to take place on the earth before that occurs. I believe that we are that generation that will encounter those calamities. To me, preparation is the key word for our day. What you and I do today in preparation (watching and praying) for the future will determine how our tomorrows will play out. Because I care for you (God's children), I will risk your anger at me that you may be warned. I will not encourage you further in your favorite little escapism doctrines. I will, though, figuratively get in your face and shout: "Half of the virgins will be unprepared! Where do you stand?"

I have written a book that will soon be released. It's called "Not Until the Last Trumpet Sounds." The following is a chapter from that book. To some, it will challenge some of their popular beliefs. At least, I hope so. If any of you would like to read other chapters, send me an email and I'll kick a chapter or more out to you as desired. Getting the message out right now is more important than anything else. The world today is rapidly changing before our eyes. The days of sorrow that you will subsequently read about are soon to be upon us. Are you ready for your destiny?

Chapter 4

There is a generation of Believers set apart for the Last Days that will be unlike any before it. They are the Last Generation of the Church Age. They are the aforementioned Transition Saints. This chosen age group alive during the time period leading up to and including the Resurrection of the Dead and the Rapture of the Living has a unique destiny. At the very end, they will see, even experience, great power and magnificent glory others have only dreamed of viewing and encountering. They will watch with wonder the incredible approaching spectacle of a mighty Jesus nearing the earth in the clouds and, then, suddenly undergo a mass changing and transportation relocation at the hands of God's holy angels. Before that, though, most of them, if not all will, in varying ways, endure the utmost in hardships and trials. These are the ones fated to walk in the shoes of Job.

A generation foreordained to be given into the enemy's hand

"And he (the coming beast) shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of times (3 and ½ years)." (Daniel 7:25)

Over the years, this particular verse, more so than any other, has provoked me to study eschatology with much intensity. Now, that's mainly because it doesn't match at all when compared with much of today's teachings. Be honest: Who is preaching from the pulpit or airwaves in this hour about the impending reality of God's people entering into a 3 and ½ year window of time where they are given into the devil's hand?

But there is solid precedence for God allowing such a thing to happen to His people. This is where the story of Job comes in:

"And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in your hand; but save his life. So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord. And smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown." (Job 2:6-7)

After reading the above verse, compare it with the message written in Daniel's book:

"…he…shall wear out the saints of the most High…THEY SHALL BE GIVEN INTO HIS HAND until a time and times and the dividing of times." (Daniel 7:25)

Are you a Saint? Well, the Bible teaches that the End-Time Saints will be given into the hand of the beast (empowered by the devil) for 3 and ½ years. Who has the power to give these last generation of Church age Saints into the devil's hand? Only God can. He did that concerning the Old Testament Job (His perfect servant) and, likewise, the scenario will be repeated for them in the New Testament (His spotless body). Not only does the Old Covenant book of Daniel educate us in this reality, but also the New Covenant book of Revelation confirms this truth:

"And there was given unto him (the coming beast) a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power WAS GIVEN UNTO HIM to continue forty and two months (3 and ½ years). And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. AND IT WAS GIVEN UNTO HIM to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and POWER WAS GIVEN HIM over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations." (Revelation 13:5-7)

With the former in mind, a question that needs to be asked is "Why would the Lord permit His people to endure the devastating turmoil to come in the same way that Job suffered in his day?" And may I add, not only permit it, but also ordain it? I believe I can tell you why: It's all about the faith and patience of God's children, the merciful end of the Lord, and His people patiently receiving the expected double through it all.

The Faith and Patience of the End-Time Saints

Undoubtedly, the troubling 3 & ½ years revealed in Daniel 7:21, 25 and Revelation 13:7 projects a very trying time for all of mankind. Nevertheless, in this fierce fight of faith slated to come, in a situation where the enemy has been granted restored power and overcoming ability, there will be an uncompromising demand for God's people to not throw in the towel and quit.

"He that leads into captivity shall go into captivity: he that kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints." (Revelation 13:10)

"And the smoke of their torment ascends up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receives the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep his commandments, and the faith of Jesus." (Revelation 14:12)

Giving up in the Last Days is not an option. Humanity is on the road to having a life or death choice to make: If you are living in the days of considerable tribulation, you will keep holding fast to Jesus and His directives, or you will follow Satan. Jesus gave notice of this truth when He said, "He that endures unto the end, the same shall be saved" (Matthew 24:13). To give up and not endure is to go the way of the Anti-Christ system; to become complicit with their plans of captivity and murder, to worship the beast and his image, and to take the forbidden mark of the beast. Understand that Job was stricken with tremendous loss and affliction and, yet, he did not succumb to the temptation to "Curse God and die." Therefore, he endured to the end and was saved. So shall it be with the persisting last generation of Saints. They will stand, withstand and overcome the onslaught of the enemy through faith and patience. Specifically, faith and patience in the blood, the word of their testimony and by having a mindset of being so in covenant with the Lord and His kingdom that they will love not their (earthly) lives unto the death (Revelation 12:11). Understand that the Bible-unbelieving human beings alive at the time (those that will worship the beast and take his number) will love their life on this earth too much to possess a dead-to-self commitment.

Following the faith and patience of Job

Job was a man of faith. Likened unto Abraham, he called those things that are not as though they were (Romans 4:17). On this salient point, consider the ensuing faith-filled confession of where he believes he will be at the end of the Last Days:

"For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me." (Job 19:25-27)

Not accidentally, the servant Job, through faith, had a vision of, maybe before anyone else in mankind's history, the Resurrection of the Dead. In his own words, he places himself in the very time period (the end of the Church age) this book covers. Nonetheless, the life of Job reveals the ultimate testimony of patience, for he is the epitome of what that should be. Read of the call to follow his patient example in scripture:

"Be PATIENT therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has LONG PATIENCE for it, until He receive the early and latter rain. BE YOU ALSO PATIENT; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draws near. Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest you be condemned: behold, the Judge stands before the door. Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of PATIENCE. Behold, we count them happy which endure. You have heard of the PATIENCE of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy." (James 5:7-11)

Take special note of how many End-Time relevant subjects are mentioned in these 5 verses. See that it makes allusion to the outpouring of the former and the latter rain, the coming of the Lord and the nearness of His appearing, the suffering and tribulation of the Saints, and, finally, the enduring patience of Job and the promise of the end of God.

Quite interestingly, the Lord's coming and the exhortation for Church Age Believers to be patient like Job are linked together in the same message. Correspondingly, it's my belief that the Holy Spirit inspired the Apostle James to purposely write it this way. For I submit that the whole body of Christ is about to enter into a time where the story of Job will find its greatest fulfillment. Why is that? It's because…

As Abraham (faith) was relevant for the 1st Coming – Job (patience) is pertinent for the 2nd Coming

Most are aware of the teaching that God put a man (Abraham) in a situation of faith where he had to choose to obey and trust the Lord, while being asked to offer up his promised son (Isaac) as a sacrifice. Make no mistake – this was a radical request. Yet, because Abraham believed God with a childlike faith and went forward in his action to the last second, having to be stopped (proving that he would have indeed sacrificed his own son), God gained the legal right to do the same thing for all of mankind. And this He did when He sent His only begotten Son to die as a sacrifice at the cross of Calvary. Therefore, we could correctly say that the faith of Abraham paved the way for the Father of heaven to send us His Son Jesus during the 1st Coming.

Subsequently, let's take a closer look at this train of thought. Consider that Abraham laid down the promise of his son unto sacrifice and proved that he didn't love his own life on this earth (his reputation and all else pertaining to his personal life, if the sacrifice was completed, would have been destroyed) or his son's life, even unto the death. In the same manner, the Father in heaven laid down the promise of His own Son unto sacrifice and proved that He didn't love His life on earth unto the death. Now, don't miss the following striking point: This pattern is almost ready to be invoked again for the 3rd time! Walking even as He walked, the Last Generation Church, the offspring of the Lord Jesus Christ, will be offered up as a sacrifice as ones having to verify that they love not their lives on the earth, even unto the death. A novel thought, huh? Not really. Know first that Abraham's promised son Issac was counted as a harmless ram for the sacrifice. Next, the Father's promised Son Jesus laid down His life as an innocent Lamb in the crucifixion. Finally, in this mandated progression, the Lord's sons of promise have a destiny to be counted as "sheep for the slaughter." Mindfully read the scripture in Romans that was predetermined to find its maximum fulfillment in the last hour of the Church age:

"Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall (the) tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For Your sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us." (Romans 8:35-37)

Be quick to realize that I am not insinuating, in any way, that another sacrifice is needed because the Lord's great expiation to secure salvation for mankind was not sufficient. No, the ensuing sacrifice of sons will bring an entirely different result. But know that the Bible principle of life coming from death is perpetual and that, with each occurrence, it bears greater fruit (John 12:24). Therefore, we can perceive that the prophesied martyrdom of the Saints will produce an enormous outcome. And what might be spurred on because of those results: How about the outpouring of the former and latter rain and the subsequent return of our Lord?

Keeping the word of his patience

I firmly believe the patience of Job will, in a similar successive manner to Abraham's faith effecting the 1st Coming, pave the way for the promise of His return – the 2nd Coming of Christ. I submit that our God is a God of consistent patterns. If the Lord did something to prepare the way the 1st time, He will do something to open up the way the 2nd time. Remember that His return is a promise and how do we receive His promises? It's through faith and patience. And how do we endure to the end in the troubled days ahead, leading to the promise of His return? It will be by keeping, like the praiseworthy church at Philadelphia, the WORD OF HIS PATIENCE:

"Because you have kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth." (Revelation 3:10)

The end of the Lord - the promise of the double

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." (Jeremiah 29:11)

"You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy." (James 5:11)

There is an expected, Bible-predicted, outpouring of the Spirit that Christians of all eras have continually longed for. It's a double-anointing Holy Ghost outpouring of unprecedented strength - the combination outpouring of the former and latter rain. In essence, I believe that it's none other than the Seven Spirits of God sent into all the earth (Revelation 5:6). From time to time, a movement of God happens, many lives are touched, and people excitingly exclaim that maybe this outpouring event has finally arrived. But, to rightly divide scripture, it hasn't yet and, in fact, it never will until the conditions required by God to bring it to pass are resolutely set in place.

Well, what are those necessary conditions? The book of Joel plainly spells them out:

"Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness…Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth out of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Then will the Lord be jealous for the land, and pity his people." (Joel 2:12-13,15-18)

An unparalleled widespread corporate action, demanding the participation of the oldest to the youngest, of ministers praying specific prayers, of heart-rending repentance, prayer, fasting, and seeking God is the prerequisite. Anything less than this will not get the job done. There are no shortcuts. Reading the rest of Joel, Chapter 2, you will find that all hell has broken loose upon the world during this horribly dim time. For instance, a fierce evil army, unlike any before it, covers the land (Joel 2:1-11). Though the Bible calls them God's army, they are, in reality, the locust-type hordes of hell released at the 5th Trumpet (Joel 2:11,25 & Revelation 9:1-11). You can be sure that this terrible day of darkness is certainly a time of tribulation. Unquestionably, it's a description of "The Tribulation."

This is where the analogy of Job becomes transparently relevant to Believers. Follow the comparisons. Know that Job suffered as the End-Time ones will suffer. A fasting and mourning Job repented and prayed for his friends and God relieved him of his predicament. When the fasting and mourning Church also repents and prays (as described in Joel 2:12-18), God will rescue them from their troubles. Turned from his captivity, Job received the expected end. The wonderful end that Job procured was the double. Turned from their captivity, the Last Generation of Saints will receive their expected end-of-the-Lord double also. What they get is the restored blessing of the Lord (Joel 2:19) and the double of God's Spirit:

"Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he has given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month." (Joel 2:23)

The great fruit of the coming martyrdom

Remember: There is "No greater love than a man laying his life down for his friends."

Like Job, some will survive their ordeal and come out on the other side to experience the double. Many others, though, won't. With that said, allow me to reiterate an earlier point. There are three events in history that God used and will use to introduce a new system of life on earth through His chosen ones experiencing death. Again, these three are:

1 – The offering up of Issac as a ram. The result was: The nation of Israel was birthed. Jews were designated as God's chosen people. The former rain would be given moderately.

2 – The offering up of Jesus as a Lamb. The result was: Salvation was won for all of mankind. The Gentiles were grafted in as God's people. The latter rain was given on the Day of Pentecost.

3 – The offering up of God's sons as sheep. The result will be: The former and latter rain together will be given and the glory of the Lord will at last cover the earth. The Lord Jesus will then return. The Resurrection and Rapture will take place and the designated Millennial Sheep Nations set aside by Jesus will populate the earth.

Details of this third life-sacrificing event, the mass offering up of God's sons, can be found in the book of Revelation. It's the entire message of the 5th Seal:

"And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, How long, O

Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that they should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." (Revelation 6:9-11)

Consequently, you now know the "why" behind martyrdom. Therefore, don't ever forget the great things that occur because of God's people not loving their lives unto the death. For example, you can be sure that there probably would've never been an Apostle Paul without the prior death of the martyr Stephen. For you see, in the spiritual equation of God's kingdom, life really does come from death.

In wrapping this chapter up, I would like to present one final question in reference to our subject. Namely, "What will your lot in life be when the days to come are unveiled?" Unless you have a set destiny to be martyred, do you know for certain that you'll be able to escape, stand and remain when that hour of decision appears?

Grace to you and peace multiplied with love and mercy from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

04-281, 7 July 2004

Gary & Linda Todd-Coldiron

Email address: anointedfeet@centurytel.net

Its author, Gary Todd-Coldiron, effectively reserves all rights for this material 7 July 2004. It may be forwarded and copied without permission so long as it is reproduced in its entirety and the author's name is disclosed with the material

Life, Health And Blessing

Becky Mclendon

Psalm 133 says: "Behold how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity....as the dew of Harmon and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life forevermore.

UNITY: Unity is NOT a "thing" to achieve. You cannot "practice" unity. Unity is a spirit! We either come into the SPIRIT of unity in the Anointing of Christ who dwells in us, or we are unequally yoked. NO PROGRAM CAN FORCE UNITY. It is done without the "sound of a hammer" ...it is a unity that becomes part of those who walk in agreement in the spirit of God. If you truly love the LORD with all your heart, you are equally yoked automatically in the spirit with those who Love the LORD with all their hearts. There is no confusion or division in the spirit of unity. You either dwell in unity of the Spirit or you don't.

LIFE: in the Hebrew it is CHAY. In Greek it is ZOE

Hear the richness of CHAY, and you will know why the Jews greet each other with L'chayim:

CHAY: alive, remain alive, sustain life, live prosperously, be quickened (the same spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwells in you, and He will quicken your mortal body....) revive from sickness, discouragement and even death!

The Hebrews viewed man holistically: Body, Mind and Spirit...a unified whole. CHAY is associated with HEALTH, PROSPERITY AND VITALITY. It is the OPPOSITE OF DEATH.

Jesus says I come that you may have LIFE AND THAT MORE ABUNDANTLY!!

Can any of us say we have entered into this LIFE?

It is NOT found by much study. It is NOT found by much debate. It is NOT found by "doing things that look righteous". It is NOT found by saying nice religious words. It is not found by talking ABOUT Jesus or the "Bible People." It is not found in the historical past among the ICONS of religion and tombstones of dead Saints. It is NOT found by how long you pray, what songs you listen to, what books you have read, or what "prophets" you have sat under. It is NOT found in some nebulous future in the sweet bye and bye. Jesus says I COME! I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE!

LIFE is found when Christ comes suddenly to YOUR temple and reveals Himself fully to you. There is a river of LIFE flowing out of me to YOU. This river of LIFE seeks the river of LIFE in you. When these rivers CONVERGE we have unity. We don't seek other's opinions we seek LIFE in them. Life joins to LIFE. It is EQUALLY YOKED. it is a place of NO DISPAIR. NO DIVISION. NO DEBATE. NO DARKNESS. and NO MAN CAN PUT IT ASUNDER. It is a "marriage" that is SO MARRIED IT IS SINGLE. WE ARE ONE if we are believing and not doubting. WE ARE ONE if we walk in agreement with the Lord Himself, and not by what some man has indoctrinated us in or by our own private interpretation. Those who LIVE hold the TRUTH in RIGHTEOUSNESS. They truly have the Son. Seek Him, and He will bring you into LIFE.

ENTER THOU IN TO LIFE.

L'chayim...and SHALOM
Becky

Fear And Confusion Vs Life Abundant

Becky McLendon

olds@intrastar.net

Ex. 15:26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.

PS 103:1-3 1 Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: 3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

In getting together several things the Lord has had me to look at, I can safely say that the basic root of 90% of all diseases is fear, stress and anxiety.

It is a known medical and biological fact that fear, stress and anxiety over long periods of time shut down the immune system and wreak havoc in our bloodstream, and disease comes in to ravage our lives. Jesus tells us that Satan comes in as a thief to “steal, kill and destroy,” and it would be obvious that fear, stress and anxiety throw the door open to Satan’s pillaging.

Romans 8:15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

John 8:32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

When we desire to KNOW Him rather than simply know ABOUT Him, we come out of confusion. When we come to KNOW Him, He brings us to His REST. The search has ended. We finally give up our lives and take on His life and receive a blood transfusion that HEALS ALL OUR DISEASES and gives us EVERLASTING LIFE. This word “life” is chay in Hebrew and zoe in GREEK. It is vastly different from simply existing and breathing (bios) It is health, success and vibrant energy coming from the Father of Life, which is in Christ Jesus.

When believers get the fact that they are IN THE BELOVED , that He is the author and finisher of their faith, and that He will perfect that which He has begun in them, they will begin to see divine HEALTH and everlasting LIFE actualize in their physical bodies.

2 Tim 1:7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

1 Cor 14:33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

We hear FEAR and CONFUSION all around us. There is hardly one television broadcast or one advertisement that does not promote fear or confusion. Something is ALWAYS going to kill us. Something is ALWAYS going to make us sick. Even the CURE for these fearsome diseases and emotional maladies is going to make us sick or maybe even kill us. Sitcoms are full of moral confusion. Newscasts are full of high anxiety and value confusion. Is what we read and hear all around us the voice of God? Granted, the spirit of fear and the origin of confusion do NOT come from God. He gives us power, love and a sound mind. He is the author of PEACE. So when we KNOW HIM and the POWER OF HIS RESURRECTION and the FELLOWSHIP OF HIS SUFFERINGS, we know the truth. We know His LOVE and that LOVE is shed abroad in our hearts, bringing about a dramatic CONVERSION to our whole being.

John 14:17. Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment*. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.*

Perfect love casts out fear. God's whole plan is to shed abroad HIS perfect love into our hearts of believers. We decrease and He increases in us, and His perfect love is shed abroad in our hearts

So the key to divine health and a prosperous soul is to KNOW HIM. Knowing Him, giving Him absolute control over your life, drives out all fear and confusion. Therefore your body is protected against disease and enters into LIFE.

James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

John 10:10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly

Amen.
Becky

Stand Still And See
Becky Mclendon

Olds@Intrastar.Net

Our Jesus is working mightily stand still and see his plan is working.

LORD, you have big arms
Gather your chicks
We are your wings
We stretch ourselves over them

If we could see what he sees we would, I think, be shouting.
We hold on until we see the victory
We could wonder what the Lord is counting as though it were already done.
The battle is the Lord's; it's His problem and He will do it.
Those chicks will be gathered under our wings
We stand; we watch; He does it.
Stand still and see the salvation of God

AMEN.

Living Bones

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
In this day and age we are especially privileged, having had the unique opportunity of watching and witnessing the ending of a century and a millennium. In this era of communication the entire story of humanity can be placed on a microchip, and be sent out in a matter of seconds all over the world. What are your thoughts, as we head into the future? Are they full of hope and expectations of great and wonderful things? Do you have our Elohim's prophetic perspective on the future? Has your excitement risen with the thought of the Messiah's imminent return?

In the beginning of next week's Parashat Va'Yechi (Genesis 47:28-50), we see Jacob calling his son Joseph, who was to be the recipient of the birthright, to his side. He asks him to put his hand under his thigh and to take an oath that he would carry his body out of Egypt and bury it with his fathers, in the land of Israel. Jacob knew prophetically that someday his seed would come out of Egypt and return to the land of promise. This act, of putting the hand under the thigh, we already witnessed in a previous Parasha, where Abraham asked his senior servant to go and carry out his request of getting a wife for his son Isaac (Genesis 24:2). It was an act was symbolic of a commitment to carry out a very important directive - to the best of one's ability - as the thigh represents the strength of man and the hand is that which accomplishes the work. When sealed by an oath, which denotes faithfulness, the thigh and hand unite in one purpose. .
Just before Jacob dies, he imparts the blessing of the family birthright to Joseph and to his sons. He gives them his name and national identity - "Israel"- along with the covenant promises of fruitfulness (Ephraim); "the fullness of the nations/gentiles". Years later, when Joseph is about to "lay down with his fathers," he calls his brothers together and foretells the future of the nation. Interestingly, after all that Joseph had endured and experienced in his life, it was this final prophetic proclamation which gained him recognition in the renowned "hall of fame of faith." "By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones" (Hebrew 11:22). May our faith also meet the challenge of the prophetic word in like manner!

Both Jacob and Joseph were embalmed, Egyptian style, and as we know this process leaves the corpse recognizable, albeit in a very dry state. Thus, Jeremiah's horrific prophetic description of Israel-Zion, because of sin and YHVH's righteous judgments, comes to mind: "Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaves to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick" (Lamentations 4:8). Perhaps it is in light of this scripture that we should re-examine the two "sticks" in the valley of the dry bones (Ezekiel 37).

"Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had made the children of Israel solemnly swear, saying, 'YHVH will surely visit you; and you shall carry up my bones with you'" (Exodus 13:19). What a prophetic picture of the Messiah of Israel taking the dead dry bones of the whole house of Israel with him to the cross, and then carrying them to the grave! But now, through the same power that raised Him from the dead, He is raising them up into newness of life -"Vayechi"! Yes, and as all good stories end: "and he lived" (happily ever after)... but not in Egypt. As we follow on in the scriptures, the story continues with Joshua bringing these bones out of the wilderness and into the land of promise. "And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, they buried in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph" (Joshua 24:32). Here is another beautiful prophetic picture of our Messiah's ultimate objective, to restore and bring back to the land the whole house of Israel.

The New Covenant establishes the conditions upon which the fulfillment of all the Torah and the Prophets depend, the sovereignty of the "I will" of YHVH Almighty: "I will open your graves, I will cause you to come out, I will cause breath to enter you that you may live, I will put sinews on you, make flesh grow back on you, and cover you with skin, I will pour clean water on you, I will put my Spirit with in you, I will write the Torah on your hearts, I will bring you back to the land where you will live securely, with one Shepherd and one King over you". Why is YHVH doing all this? "I do not do this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which you have profaned among the heathen, whither you went. And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which you have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am YHVH saith the YHVH Elohim, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land” (Ezekiel 36:22-24). This was not only a testimony to the heathens, but also that "you might know that I am YHVH your Elohim" (Ezekiel 37:6).

“So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived - "Vayechi" - and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army” (Ezekiel 7:10).

Ephraim
This article will be posted on our site www.1st-born.com

Looking Into 2004

Kevin Paul Stephen

(kevin@brokenbreadministries.org)

These are a few of the things I sense the Lord would have us watch for in 2004.

In September of 2003 God let me know that many things would shift and begin to change radically in November of 2003 and carry over into 2004. This was certainly confirmed by the signs in the heavens we witnessed in November, as well as through many prophetic words. In mid November I began to receive an abundance of personal revelation and confirmation of many of the things mentioned here.

Magnified Grace

And extraordinary measure of grace is being released to all that will lay hold of it by faith. Failures during our testing period in the wilderness over the past couple of years are being covered. Many have been told that they have been disqualified . This is a lie and God is delivering many from bondage and oppression designed to keep us from entering into the dawn of our destinies. Our emergence into newness of purpose and empowerment, and restoration of vision is being given freely. Though this grace is granted, we may still be tested in areas of failure, but this should not prevent us from moving forward.

Release of resource, wisdom, power, promotion, commissioning

I see many being released into their vision and ministry this year. The provision, wisdom, anointing, and power to fulfill our assigned tasks is given freely, but we will need to contend for it as the enemy has laid siege to much of it.

Finding the zone

The Lord showed me an illuminated circle before me and said that I should step into it immediately. I had the realization that this was a promotion for me personally and hesitated, feeling unworthy and unprepared for this advancement. He sternly commanded me to step into the spot immediately once again. He told me that He was already aware that I was not worthy and completely unable to fulfill the functions of this new position. He alone is worthy and able and will, Himself, empower me through a sovereign grant of extraordinary grace. My part is only to recognize this and obey. I then realized the false humility I had just displayed before Him.

He emphasized the importance to be instantly obedient when told to advance or retreat in the coming season. We are to remain in the place and position He calls us to until ordered otherwise. I call this “finding the zone”. He then said to tell others of these things. We must not argue with Him in any matter when told to advance, retreat, or stand aside as we are entering a time of intensified warfare. This will be especially critical for those who are now being commissioned as officers in His army. The lives and destinies of others may be affected should we not obey orders here. So, two of the personal dangers we now face are presumption and neglect. Let us strive to “find the zone”!

Restoration, not Reformation

More people will begin to embrace and endeavor to recapture “primitive Christianity” as they are awakened with the revelation that ordination, commissioning, and anointing come from God alone. Some have been held back by a false belief that man (ordained leadership) must send you before God will bless your work. Many will leave the organized church and begin to meet in homes and small groups in order to be free from intimidation and control in obedience to God. Those who do must leave their fellowships in peace and guard against a rebellious heart. This is not an “anti-church” move, it is just a shift to another expression and form of the Body universal for those who God may “call out”.

Restoration of things stolen by the enemy will also be made available to those who will contend in prayer and stand in faith. This would include finances, lost vision, and lost health. Restoration is a key word this year.

Open heavens

God has already opened the Heavens in many areas of North America to a greater degree and will continue to do so across the continent this year. Access to the secrets of the Kingdom and hidden knowledge of God will be granted to His trusted friends. As we seek Him and submit to the refining work of His Spirit we will be granted access to treasures never before revealed to mortals.

Open doors to advance the Kingdom

I see doors of opportunity opening for individuals in business and ministry. I also believe that doors will open to advance the Kingdom in Muslim nations, but this window of opportunity may be brief.

Harvest

Luke 10:2

And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. ESV

Workers are being recruited for the harvest. Those who are now coming into the Kingdom are not the first fruits of the “Great End Time Harvest”, but are the first fruits of the workers that will bring in the harvest. These will need to be thoroughly discipled, not in doctrine but in the power and presence of Jesus. He will put many on a fast track and mature their character at an accelerated rate. We must be on guard against pride, envy, jealousy, or anything else within ourselves that would put a stumbling block in their way.

Home Coming

Prodigals, or the backslidden, will return home. Many in the church have written them off, but God has not. We must not abandon our lost brethren for the sake of catching new fish. Some of us are being prompted by God to pray for and go after the prodigals. These too, will be used mightily by God in the Harvest as they are restored, matured, and empowered for service.

Opening the door in 2004

This year promises to be one of open doors. Some will be opened by the Lord in His sovereignty, while others will only open as we contend with the forces that have kept them shut. However, the door many of us have been asking the Lord to open for us or that we have been commanding to open through declarations and spiritual warfare, will remain shut unless we recognize its location. We ourselves are the doors God most desires to see opened.

Revelation 3:20

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. ESV

In 2003 the Lord began a deeper work in those who would submit to the purging, breaking, and shaping process. He is continuing this work as we continue to submit and trust in obedience. Many are now ready to receive a greater measure of His grace and favor as they embrace healing, holiness, and humility. Many are being commissioned and released into the dawn of their destiny. We must be cautious though, to not presume that we have completed the refining process and have arrived at “perfection”, just because the Lord has seen fit to promote us.

Failure to see the refining, promotion, commissioning, and release of greater gifting, anointing and power as an act of His grace, apart from anything that we have done, will likely send us back into the wilderness for an extended season. If He has worked true humility in us then let it be proven. True humility carries with it the realization of our complete dependence on Him and that there is no good thing in us apart from what is produced by Holy Spirit, while confident in our identity as His children and friends. A false humility may lead to fear and intimidation and keep us from stepping into our destiny, while pride masquerading as boldness will lead to presumption. Here again, we must “find the zone”.

Romans 12:3

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. ESV

We must open ourselves up and extend ourselves in love and compassion to our brethren first, and to the world. We will be a door opened to release the power and presence of God, or shut and come under discipline. As we open ourselves up in trust to the Lord and to each other in greater measure, we will find the way of release into greater power, anointing and signs and wonders.

Specific Geographic Areas
United States
Several events, both inside and outside of the church, will begin to set the stage for the persecution of Christians. We must keep our hearts free from bitter judgment as God begins to set things right in His house.
Hawaii God is establishing spiritual “beach heads”, especially on Big Island. Men and women will rise up to begin to train others in spiritual warfare and evangelism. God is extending an extra measure of His tender mercy and grace to the Hawaiian people for spiritual deliverance, restoration and release into the destiny that has been stolen from them over the past many centuries. The stage is being set for revival on Oahu as well. Intercessors will need to come together in unity quickly in order to maintain territory taken and advance. Some prayer warriors will be called to move to the islands this year.
Fiji, and the South Pacific Islands
Demonstrations of God’s power and love will erupt and increase here. Intense intercession is needed to birth and sustain revival.
Canada
Prayer is needed for Montreal and all of Quebec in order to bring the unity needed to release renewal in the Maritimes. Quebec is a stronghold of the enemy and is strategic in seeing God’s Spirit move from coast to coast.
Have a blessed and prosperous year!
Kevin Paul Stephen
Broken Bread Ministries

Dig In
Kevin Paul Stephen

The Lord has been speaking to me today to “dig in”. I see that this exhortation applies in several ways.

Supper Time
Isa 55:1
"Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk

Jesus has been extending an invitation to all those who will, to come and dine with Him at His banqueting table for quite some time. Once again, I hear Him ringing the dinner bell. We must be cleansed and properly attired before attending this magnificent feast. Some have come and taken pleasure and nourishment from what has been served, but this has only been the appetizer. I can now smell the fragrance of the next course of our meal being brought out. The Lord is saying “Dig in, and enjoy”. He is opening up greater realms of revelation - the deep secrets and hidden knowledge of God. We will need this nourishment and the continual refreshing of His presence in order to “dig in” in other respects.

Trench Warfare
Eph 6:13
Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm.

“Dig in!”, comes the shout of our commander, as we face the current onslaught of the enemy. We must hold the territory taken in battle already – “Hold the line!” – and prepare to advance when commanded. The only way we can do this is if we are also dining at His table. We must not forsake one for the other. These things seem contrary to each other at times, but God loves paradox – it’s His way.

Laying a Firm Foundation

1 Cor 3:10-15

10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. 11 For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw — 13 each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. 14 If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. 15 If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

In October of 2003 I was shown a vision of a plumb being dropped over a desolate place. I heard the Lord say “I am dropping a plumb line in my church. My temple will no longer be measured by the standards of man. I am sending my apostles and prophets into many local churches once again, to plead with the elders and people to allow Me to effect change.”

God has been challenging us to “dig in” and excavate the faulty foundations we have been building upon that are contrary to eternal truth – both in our personal lives and as corporate fellowships.. He is furthermore telling us to “dig deep” as the foundation we are to lay must support a structure never before seen. One not built by human hands as He places us as living stones into the true church, His body, which He is now preparing to build. We must be open to have our doctrines, theology, and practices put to the test and immediately discard that which does not measure up to His plumb line.

Some of us may be called to the battle first, while others are called to focus their efforts on building.

Neh 4:15-23

When our enemies heard that it was known to us and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each to his work. 16 From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half held the spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail. And the leaders stood behind the whole house of Judah, 17 who were building on the wall. Those who carried burdens were loaded in such a way that each labored on the work with one hand and held his weapon with the other. 18 And each of the builders had his sword strapped at his side while he built. The man who sounded the trumpet was beside me. 19 And I said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and widely spread, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another. 20 In the place where you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us." 21 So we labored at the work, and half of them held the spears from the break of dawn until the stars came out. 22 I also said to the people at that time, "Let every man and his servant pass the night within Jerusalem, that they may be a guard for us by night and may labor by day." 23 So neither I nor my brothers nor my servants nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes; each kept his weapon at his right hand.

Again, we are not to forsake the banquet or take our eye off the battle. I also see this building process representing the birth of new strategies and ministries. God wants us to ADVANCE His Kingdom. Though we are to “dig in” to hold ground gained we are also to remain on the offense and advance the front lines. This is done under direct order and not in foolish presumption in a direct charge toward the enemy. Others will work behind the front lines to build as God directs.

Go Deep
Rom 11:33
Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

I saw myself with the Lord and suddenly He was holding a football. He smiled at me and said “Hey Kevin, Go deep!” I took off running preparing to catch the ball He was about to pass. He said “That’s it. Run!”. He’s about to pass the ball to many of us - the authority, anointing, power, wisdom, resources, opportunities – but we have to be running to make the play. So let us run with endurance, not sit on the playing field watching others score points for the Kingdom.

All of this should produce in us a deeper intimate knowledge (epignosko) of God. All this digging and feasting and building and running and restructuring is in preparation for the deep mysteries of the Kingdom to be revealed to us. In these things, locked away in Him, we will find all we need to fulfill our individual and collective destinies. The great desires of God’s heart that He has been patiently waiting for are about to be fulfilled in us!

DIG IN! GO DEEP! RUN!
Kevin Paul Stephen
Broken Bread Ministries
www.brokenbreadministries.org
kevin@brokenbreadministries.org

Love Is More Important

Andrea Jackson

Jul 12, 2004
To the people of Yeshua (Am Yeshua)

I would like to share a couple of observations with you today, but first some Words spoken by Yeshua through Rabbi Paul to the Colossians. I pray that the Spirit will give us all wisdom and let us understand what it means to KNOW GOD. I pray that light will flood our hearts and that we will understand the HOPE that is given to us when God chose us. Then we will know the blessings that belongs to us along with all of the people of Yeshua.

"You have accepted Yeshua as your Lord. NOW KEEP ON FOLLOWING HIM.
PLANT YOUR ROOTS IN YESHUA AND LET HIM BE THE FOUNDATION OF YOUR LIFE.

Don't let anyone fool you with senseless arguments. These arguments may sound wise (and right), but they are only human teachings. They come from the POWERS of this world, AND NOT FROM YESHUA. GOD LIVES FULLY IN YESHUA HAMASHIACH. AND you are fully grown BECAUSE you belong to Yeshua, who is OVER EVERY POWER AND AUTHORITY.

God has rescued us FROM the dark powers of Satan and has brought us INTO the KINGDOM OF HIS DEAR SON WHO FORGIVES US OUR SINS AND SETS US FREE.

God has wiped out the charges that were against us for disobeying the LAW of Moses.
HE TOOK THEM AWAY AND NAILED THEM TO THE CROSS! HE TOOK THEM AWAY AND NAILED THEM TO THE CROSS!

HE, YESHUA, TOOK THEM AWAY AND NAILED THEM TO THE CROSS!! (Please get this through your head and seal it in your heart once and for all time)

It was there that Yeshua DEFEATED ALL POWERS AND ALL FORCES ONCE AND FOR ALL. He Yeshua, LET THE WHOLE WORLD SEE THEM BEING LED AWAY AS PRISONERS WHEN HE CELEBRATED HIS VICTORY!

CAN'T YOU SEE THIS?! FOR THE WHOLE WORLD TO SEE!

Hear this.....
YOU, WE, DIED WITH YESHUA! NOW, TODAY, This moment, the forces of the UNIVERSE do not have ANY POWER OVER YOU, US!

Hear something else......
YOU , WE HAVE BEEN RAISED TO LIFE WITH YESHUA! Now we will set our hearts on what is in heaven where YESHUA RULES AT THE RIGHT HAND OF OUR FATHER. We will focus our minds upon what is there and not about what is here on this earth.

Think about it. Our sins were nailed (past tense) with Yeshua on that cross. He took our place on that cross. And then We died and then, the same power that raised Yeshua up, raised us up to Life. Same Power! Hallelu-Yah! So this means that we are now a New person HIDDEN IN YESHUA, sitting BESIDE GOD! When He appears we will appear WITH HIM IN ALL HIS GLORY! Isn't this wonderful?!

Please get this inside of you once and for all. WE ARE HIDDEN INSIDE OF YESHUA AND WE ARE SITTING BESIDE GOD WITH HIM!! SITTING BESIDE OUR FATHER! WE ARE HIDDEN. WE WILL APPEAR WHEN HE APPEARS!(Pre-rap, post-rapt-I DO NOT CARE A HILL OF BEANS ABOUT THEM! It does not matter. Where He is, we are)

The word says that each one of us are now a new person in Yeshua. We are becoming more an more like our Creator, so THAT WE WILL UNDERSTAND HIM BETTER. It DOES NOT MATTER if we are Jewish or non_Jewish. YESHUA IS ALL THAT MATTERS, AND HE LIVES IN ALL OF US!

We know that God loves us and has chosen us to be His Own Special people. So we must be gentle, kind, humble and PATIENT with each other. We must PUT UP WITH EACH OTHER, FORGIVING ALL WHO DOES US WRONG, just as Yeshua has forgiven us.

LOVE IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN ANYTHING ELSE. IT IS WHAT TIES US AND EVERYTHING COMPLETELY TOGETHER.**

Each one of us IS PART of YESHUA'S BODY, and we were chosen to live together in PEACE. So this peace that come from Yeshua must control out thoughts and actions. And we must always be thankful. The message that Yeshua gave us must completely fill our lives WHILE we use wisdom to teach others. We will sing songs of praises to our Father, together with thankful hearts.

ALL THAT WE SAY AND DO WILL BE DONE IN THE NAME AND AUTHORITY OF OUR LORD YESHUA, AS WE GIVE THANKS TO ADONAI, OUR FATHER BECAUSE OF YESHUA.

We will never stop praying and when we pray we will stay alert and be thankful.

We pray that the Message of Yeshua will spread quickly.

Observation
Too many of us (Believers) are giving Satan authority and power that does not belong to him. All power and all authority has been given to Yeshua ONLY!

Satan IS NOT GOD! Satan is an angel (created being) that was fired from his job. He fell. Satan cannot read the Mind nor the heart. He can only go on what is SAID OUT OF THE MOUTH. If you say "The devil did this and the devil did that," when it was your own flesh that opened the door, then you are honoring Him for what you flesh is doing.

The flesh must come into line with what the Spirit tells it. The flesh does not rule. Remember what Yeshua said to the religious leader about the women that was bent over all those years. She was a daughter of Abraham and nobody spoke healing into her flesh. We are suppose to GO and Do what He says. We are not only by faith, sons and daughters of Abraham. We are first, sons and daughters of the Most High God, El Elyon. By faith we are healed. Yeshua has given us His Spirit as a guarantee and He does not lie. He cannot lie. He says we are healed, then we are. Satan is filling the heads of so many people with lies concerning healing. Yeshua prophesy healing. He spoke healing in the body. Prophecy is the Testimony of Yeshua. Yeshua healed. Yeshua set free those in bondage. Yeshua called the dead back to life. Yeshua Loved. He said, Now, you go and do what you have seen me do. You know this. You know that I will bring this to pass as you speak it. He says that HaSatan works are destroyed. I have the victory and so do you. He says, as you love one another, healing will take place. As you forgive, healing will take place.

All sicknesses and every disease were nailed on the cross. We are in Him . Literally, we are in Him.

Satan sound like a roaring lion. Yeshua has pulled All of his teeth. Please do not let his roar frighten you. We are submitted to the Father. We are in Yeshua. Watch what you speak. We will speak love. We will speak healing.

Yeshua's Name is the Name that is above everything that has a name Cancer! BE GONE IN THE NAME OF YESHUA! ________! BE GONE IN THE NAME OF YESHUA! We receive this divine healing into the body right now by and in the authority of our Lord, our High Priest and King, Yeshua. Yeshua, Son of the Living God. Thank you Yeshua, for making this so.

Now walk out in faith. You are whole. Yeshua says so. His words, not mine.

Every thing that has a name must bow to the name Of Yeshua, our Messiah. For He is Lord! He is our ALL IN ALL! Stop calling Satan's name so much! Yeshua is the only Name that is to be lifted. Then He will draw all men to Him. Satan can draw no good thing. There is nothing good in him. Only God, our Father, is Good. Yeshua is the Lord of all Lords and the King of all Kings! God has put ALL THINGS under the power of Yeshua for our Good and he is the Only Head. He fills us completely. He, Yeshua is the only Ruler in this world and the world to come. Praise His Holy Name!

We love you so much Yeshua. Come!
HALLELU-YAH!!!!!

Listen

Olivia Reitz Long

faithbuildersministries@yahoo.com

November 30, 2004
"Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is My Son, whom I love. LISTEN to Him!" SUDDENLY, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus." Mark 9:7-8

My Faithful Ones, I have marked your heart, I have lead your in a path unfamiliar to you ... a path reserved for those who have cried out to ME and said "Here am I, use me" - a path reserved for those who have said yes to My call. This path has not been an easy one, but one of preparation and training. A path that has fine-tuned the fruits of the spirit in you and has been making you ready. Even now some are beginning to despise this path but I say unto you "do not" despise this path but praise Me for it as you have received a wealth that could not have been received in any other way! Yes, you have been pressed on all sides but through it all I have prepared you for what is to come. My Glorious Beloved, you are truly blessed above measure!!!

My Faithful Ones, hear the word of the Lord. I am taking you out of your places of obscurity and will 'place you to proclaim' the riches of the truths of the Kingdom of God. You have been faithful with the little and now it is time for you to be given more.

I have nurtured and wooed you, I have set aside that which only you can fulfill. I have protected you and covered you with My feathers. You are My Chosen and no-one can fulfill your calling as it is your calling. You are all different but you shall all work together, for I AM a God of order. I have been your instructor and I will continue to be your instructor and will lead you and guide you in these last days. Take advantage of the days set before you for each day has been set by Me as they have been set in the past.

Haven't I said Seek you first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness? You have sought Me and My righteousness is upon you that you may go forth in My Name. There is no time to put off or to tarry on those things I have instructed you. The "suddenly's" are happening. The time has come and the now is for those I have called to come forth. Seek me continuously and the way will be made manifest to you. This is the time to diligently seek My face and instructions will come forth from My lips. Have I not said it, have I not proclaimed it to you? I have sent forth a proclamation on your behalf and it has been sealed with My signet ring, therefore it MUST be done. I have called forth My messengers and decreed all that I have proclaimed and all that I have declared on your behalf and it shall come to pass and be accomplished. Delays have come to an end in My timetable and My Word will be made manifest in ALL ways. Many will be troubled on all sides in the days to come but My Glorious Beloved will stand and My Glory will fill the earth even in the midst of judgment.

The day you have waited for is dawning, it is drawing near. You have waited and waited -now see Me accomplish what seems un-accomplishable. It is from My hand, the giver of all good things! Eye has not seen .... Ear has not heard .... the wonders which I have for you. Wonders that I, your Father and your God has hand picked for each of you. I have been bringing revelation to you as such as not been heard before. I have chosen you and I have prepared you...do not let one morsel slip by or through your fingers. You are chosen and favored by ME....if you could only perceive or realize the Love that I have for you....if you did, then you would know without a doubt that I WILL do and accomplish all I have promised you. Do not give up, continue to be in a state of readiness for you shall ride! I cannot promise the road will be free of thorns or thistles and rocks but I can promise you the ride of your life!

The call is going forth, the shofar is being blown to call My chosen ones together. You are being called to formation, as of an army. Called to assemble, called to listen diligently to your commander in chief. My white horse company standing at attention and at the ready. The stage has been set for the greatest show ever seen to begin. Great and Mighty is the Lord your God and I AM doing great and mighty acts and I AM about to display even greater than any of you could ask or think. Watch as the book of ACTS is played out in these last days. I call you faithful, I call you My very own chosen. Now .... Listen, My Chosen Ones, Listen! Listen very closely.... Listen for surely it comes and suddenly!!!! LISTEN!!!!

Loving, In The Process

Robert Ricciardelli

The questions have been asked, when do we get there? When do we really arrive? The answer is simple, we don't, and we might as well enjoy the journey and help others as well in the procession of life.

John 5:17 Amplified
But Jesus answered them, My Father has worked [even] until now, [He has never ceased working; He is still working] and I, too, must be at [divine] work.

The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are always at work, always have been at work, and always will be at work towards the eternal purposes of almighty God. We are a work in process, and hopefully in progress, thanks be to God! I am so thankful I am where I am today, I am so thankful that I know Him more today! I am also thankful that I am not complete, and that I have so much more to go towards the process of Robert Ricciardelli living in the image of Jesus Christ. That process will never end! When we get this revelation, we can never truly ever say we have arrived and that we have become accomplished in the ways of God!

1 Corinthians 10:12 Message
Don't be so naive and self-confident. You're not exempt. You could fall flat on your face as easily as anyone else. Forget about self-confidence; it's useless. Cultivate God-confidence.

Brethren, we must catch this, for it may be the very revelation we need, to break through the dividing tactics the enemy has used against the family of God. I have used this before and I will use it again here, "I know what I know, I know what I don't know, BUT I DO NOT KNOW WHAT I DO NOT KNOW, UNTIL THE FATHER REVEALS IT. We must always take the road of humility and love in regards to what we know and in regards to where others are in their processing of God's Truth.

1 Corinthians 13:10-12 NKJV
[10]But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away. [11]When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. [12]For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

We leave our churches and friends behind when we are misunderstood, we get offended so easily when someone does not agree with us or have our revelation of the way things are. Aren't we mere children needing to grow up in Him? We are not there yet my friends, and if we are not there yet, then how can we stand in judgment of another child of the living God's process? We cannot, we should not, and we must not! They may be where we were last month, they may be where we were 10 years ago, and it does not matter, for we are all in process! And this is the wonderful humor of God, we may think they are where we were 10 years ago and they may be way ahead of us in many areas. I pray right now for you to get this revelation.

You might say, "But brother, you do not understand, they do not speak in tongues, they are not free like I am to jump up and down for Jesus and run around the aisles." I would say to you, "can you see the heart of any man?" Can you see the depth and width God may be bringing that person through? They may not speak in tongues but may run circles around some with their integrity and purpose in the Christ of their lives. Only God is called to judge, we are called to pray, encourage, befriend, and love one another unconditionally.

If we get this, we can look beyond knowledge, beyond, doctrine, beyond denominations and truly see God's children for who they are, GOD'S CHILDREN!

You love them where they are,
You love them near or far,

You take them under Your wing,
And guides them through everything.

You see in them what they will be,
Give us eyes to see what You see.

Father help us to judge them less,
And help us to love them in the process!   R.R.

Folks, we must understand the words of the foundation of everything we are and everything we will become……..Our Lord and our Christ, and it is printed in red in most of our bibles, for added emphasis…….

The Greatest Commandment

Matthew 22:34-40   NKJV

[34] But when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. [35]Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying, [36]"Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"
[37]Jesus said to him, ""You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." [38]This is the first and great commandment. [39]And the second is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." [40]On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

This is Jesus speaking, and the blueprint, the message, the very communication from God, all of it is there for us to really get hold of these two commandments. Can we do it? Can we choose to live life with a heart of un-offense? Can we choose to love when we do not understand the why, what and how of another of God's children. I know we can, because I believe in the Holy Spirit that is within you. I believe that as we humble ourselves and die to our will and our ways, He will then be able to guide us into His will and His ways. His path will take us the way of love, the way of un-offense, the way of unity, and ultimately the way of showing this world a church without spot or wrinkle, because the Christ in all of us is who they see. Love them in the process in Jesus name!

www.vision2advance.com
Robert@vision2advance.com

Let My People Go
Carla Rickard

I call to the leaders of the church, I call to the leaders of the nations, LET MY PEOPLE GO. I desire they be made free to worship me.

My Israel, I am sending forth leaders that will call for your freedom to worship Me in Spirit and in Truth. Those leaders and institutions that will not allow you to come to Me, will experience the plagues sent upon Egypt and spoken of in Revelation. I AM merciful and patient, longsuffering and full of kindness. Yet I have spoken, and it shall be accomplished.

Just as the Hebrew was brought out of the land of Egypt and made a nation by My Hand, so shall I bring my Remnant together in the Spirit and make them Israel once again by My Hand!

I have heard the cry of my people for many years, " Oh Lord my God, I desire to worship you freely" and they have been limited and forbidden by the yoke of bondage that has been laid upon them. I have prepared you for your exodus out of the hands of your enslaver. I, the Lord, have said it. Set My Captives FREE or suffer the plagues listed in My Book.

Exodus 9
[13] And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.
[14] For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.
[15] For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

Revelation 18
[3] For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.
[4] And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.
[5] For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

Revelation 21
[8] But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.
[9] And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.
[10] And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

Leviticus 26
[20] And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.
[21] And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.
[22] I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate.

Received by Carla Rickard

Canada
Carla Rickard

You have wandered far from the destiny which I have placed within you. You lean one way, then lean another. There is confusion in your midst. I have kept My Hand upon you because of the Promise I have given your fathers.

But I have kept for Myself a remnant in the midst of this wicked generation. Those who I call by My Name. For their sake I will not remove My Hand from you completely, but will use My Rod of discipline to bring you into repentance.

The heart of your Nation is being exposed. There is division in the Land. I said I would strike with my Word in three areas and it was done. I said that you would be a land divided, and it is now accomplished. This division will show forth in the days to come as exposed plans of the enemy to destroy that which I have put together!

But I speak now to my Remnant. For your sake I will not destroy the works of the enemy but I will use it to bring the nations to you for an inheritance. There is a famine in this land! And that which is, is NOT what I have ordained! There are many false prophets rising up in this hour. There are many who would mislead you and lead you to be complacent. Yet, Canada will continue to prosper because of the righteous I have found within her borders. My ways are not your ways. My thoughts are not your thoughts.

I have more to say in due season through eastcst@nbnet.nb.ca

Vision In A Dream
Carla Rickard

Last night before going to bed, I was full of the excitement of the Lord. We were having the tailwinds of a strong tropical storm off the Atlantic Coast here in Canada.

I went to sleep and woke up and hour later, as the Lord was speaking to me. My husband woke up shortly afterward and went to the window, turning off our air vent system. I asked him what he was doing, and he said he thought he heard thunder. There was no thunder. As I was falling asleep again I heard the same noise, THUNDER! but it was not the kind of thunder I am used to hearing. I had the fear of the Lord shake my bones and I fell asleep again. Or at least what seemed as sleep

The Vision in the Dream

The Lord showed me two bowls. One fit neatly inside the other. He then spoke to me

" There is prophecy inside the prophecy"

I looked again, and I seen the bowls were attached to one another, but it was possible to remove them and make them separate, although I wasn't sure how. Then the Lord spoke to me again

" There is a vessel inside the vessel"

I knew he was referring to the earthen vessel.

There is nothing to add or take away to this, for the Lord said it best.

God Bless

Carla Rickard

Lean Not To Your Own Understanding

Terry Suggs

Are we doing the work of the Lord? We have eternal life, but we are preaching a temporal message. And we act as if we don’t have eternal life. We have an international audience on television, but we are preaching to our local community or neighborhood. When the world looks at us from the outside, what are they seeing? Do they see hope or futility? Do they see a distinction about us or are we the same as every other organization. We are not showing them anything that is different. The Jesus that the church has portrayed is not the One that God wants us to show. The world has only seen traditions, rituals, ceremonies, and methods. We are not living epistles of the Christ. That is why we have to be led by the Holy Spirit, and be a student of the word.

We have the power of the Holy Ghost, but we preach like we are not connected to Him, Who is unlimited in power.

We have apostles (special messengers sent by God with the message and same power of the sender), but they are like our local Sunday school teachers.

We have evangelists, but there is no demonstration of power to assist the unbeliever to believe in our living Savior. (like evangelist Phillip in Acts).

The teenagers are completely looked over in our homes and churches.

The singing part of our church services is just a part of the “program”.

It is not directed towards worshipping God.

We have clics or an isolated social group instead of Bible study and prayer groups. We perpetrate gossip instead of praying for each other.

We are not seeking God in our private lives. We go on retreats but afterwards there is still no advancement in the kingdom.

We are growing and learning to be what God made us to be, determined and destined and caused us to be. We are growing at our individual pace. We are at our own level of knowing God and the things concerning who we are and what we are to do. Six billion people are living on this earth. It is believed that two billion of the people on earth are Christians.

The body of Christ is that two billion people. If this is true, then God almighty is working inside these people to bring in the harvest of the other four billion.

He lives inside of us. He is working on us and in us. His life is our life. Our spirits are one. We are still individuals, but we are one in Him. We have one purpose, one agenda, one heart, one Holy Spirit, one love and one cause.

When we mention the name of Jesus knowing the power of His name, knowing just what it means, every demon in the earth today will tremble with fear.

God said that when His word goes out of His mouth that it has to accomplish what it was sent to do. Because of this, we are becoming what the spoken word of God says about us.

God says I will walk in them and talk in them and the Father and the Son will dwell in us. Lean not to your own understanding. Let us be what God says we are.

He says that He would write His laws in our hearts and in our minds.

When we receive the Holy Spirit, we have no need that anyone should teach us, because the Holy Spirit is the teacher. It has to be true that we are becoming the word of God.

The word says that if any man be in Christ he is a new Creature.

The New Creature

Becoming the Word of God

Look into God’s mirror (His Word) and see who we really are and what we really are. Look at Jesus’ life.

Lean not to your own understanding. God by what God says about you.

You are a new creation. The new creation came from God. Jesus was the first born of many brethren of this kind. We are born-again by the Holy Spirit entering our spirit after we receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior and Lord. We are also sealed by the Holy Spirit.

The new creation is superior to the devil in every way. The devil wants to deceive and blind us to this truth. Greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.

There is no separation between God and us. We are seated in heavenly places in Christ. That is why we can lay hands on the sick and they recover. That is why we can cast out devils in the name (authority and character) of Jesus.

That is why we can speak to a mountain and it can be moved.

We are eternally new creatures with the ability of the Holy Spirit operating in us.

In Jesus life on earth He showed us what a new creature looks like. He said, these works and even greater works shall you do because I Am going to the Father.

Jesus raised the dead, healed every kind of sickness and disease. He cast out spirits of infirmity and demons that had possessed individuals.

Jesus talked to weather and changed it, and walked on water, having authority over the natural elements. He spoke to fish and animals and they obeyed.

I believe that God created Adam with everything that Jesus demonstrated. The first Adam lived in flesh, the second Adam (Jesus) lived in flesh.

Jesus multiplied food when there was not enough physically to feed thousands. Accept His Word as truth and act on it.

Jesus said that He that has seen Me, has seen the Father. He said I Am the vine and you are the branches. In these words, He tells us that we are connected to the Godhead. There is no separation between us. The world needs to see us as God made us to be. The world may be laughing at us while we are following manmade traditions, ceremonies, and having Sunday programs, but when God gets into church (body of Christ), then the world and the devil will stop laughing.

Terry Suggs

Terry Suggs@yahoo.com

As He IS, So are we in this World

Terry Suggs

Are you preparing yourself? We are in for a great surge of the Spirit. We are going into the fullness, the wholeness, the abundance, the completeness, the days of son-ship in the power of the Holy Ghost, the days that the whole creation has been groaning for, the time of the full magnitude of what God has prepared for this time in human history, the days of the glory of God. The harvest is ripe!

Decree that the churches and other gathering places are going to be a place for the glory of God to dwell. When you go to a stadium or a large building that may be used for a sporting event, decree that it will be a place for the glory of God to dwell in. Thousands are being brought into the kingdom of God each day. They need a place to gather together to worship and praise God and a place to be taught in the scriptures.

Ephes. 2:4-10

But God—so rich is He in His mercy! Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us.

Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him. For it is by grace His favor and mercy which you did not deserve that you are saved delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation.

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together giving us joint seating with Him in the heavenly sphere by virtue of our being in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the anointed One.)

He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in (His) kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

A GENERAL IN THE ARMY HAS AUTHORITY AND WHEN HE SPEAKS TO SOMEONE TO DO SOMETHING , THEY MUST DO WHAT HE SAYS.

He has authority.

We are heirs of God in Christ Jesus. We share in an unlimited amount of power or authority on earth.

For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment) and made partakers of Christ's salvation) through Your faith.

And this salvation is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving), but it is the gift of God.

Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast, (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself.)

For we are God's (own) handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, born anew that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live).

Isaiah 50:4-5,7

The Servant of God says The Lord God has given Me the tongue of a disciple and of one who is taught, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary. He wakens Me morning by morning, he wakens My ear to hear as a disciple (as one who is taught).

The Lord has opened My ear, and I have not been rebellious or turned backward.

For the Lord God helps Me; there fore have I not been ashamed or confounded. Therefore have I set My face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame.

I John 4:17

In this union and communion with Him, love is brought to completion and attains perfection with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment with assurance and boldness to face Him, because as He is so are we in this world.

We (the body of Christ) are an extension of the fullness of the Godhead in Christ Jesus. In Him we live, move and have our being. The time to set a new precedence in Christ is here. No longer should we just "have church" but, we are to be the Church.

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church), Which is His body, the fullness of Him, Who fills all (the body) in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Whom makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

II Cor. 6:16

What agreement (can there be between) a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them and will walk in and with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

II Cor. 6:18

And I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My Sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty!

Ephes. 1:17-23

For I always pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation (of insight into mysteries and secrets) in the deep and intimate knowledge of Him.

By having your eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious in heritance in the saints (His set-apart ones).

And so that you can know and understand what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength.

Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His (own) right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named (above every title that can be conferred not only in this age and the world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

John 14:12-14

I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I Myself will grant whatever you ask in My name as presenting all that I Am, so that the Father may be glorified and extolled in (through) the Son.

Yes I will grant (I Myself will do for you) whatever you shall ask in My Name (as presenting all that I Am).

Luke 10:19

Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpion, and (physical and mental strength and ability) over all the power that the enemy possesses: and nothing shall in any way harm you.

John 14:23

Jesus answered, If a person really loves Me, he will keep My word (obey My teaching); and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home (abode, special dwelling place) with him.

I Cor. 2:4-5

And my language and my message were not set forth in persuasive (enticing and plausible) words of wisdom, but they were in demonstration of the Holy Spirit and power (a proof by the Spirit and Power of God operating on me and stirring in the minds of my hearers the most holy emotions and thus persuading them. So that your faith may not rest in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

II Cor. 5:17-21

Therefore if any person is (engrafted) in Christ (the Messiah) he is a new creation (a new creature all together); the old (previous moral and spiritual condition) has passed away. Behold, the fresh and new has come!

We as new creations have no past. We were created complete and full.

But all things are from God, Who through Jesus Christ reconciled us to Himself (received us into favor, brought us into harmony with Himself) gave to us the ministry of reconciliation (that by word and deed we might aim to bring others into harmony with Him).

It was God (personally present) in Christ, reconciling and restoring the world to favor with Himself, not counting up and holding against (men) their trespasses (but canceling them), and committing to us the message of reconciliation (of restoration to favor).

So we are Christ’s ambassadors, God making His appeal as it were through us. We as Christ’s personal representatives beg you for His sake to lay hold of the divine favor now offered you and be reconciled to God.

For our sake He made Christ (virtually) to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness.

Colossians 1:19

For it has pleased the Father that all the divine fullness the sum total of the divine perfection, powers, and attributes, should dwell in Him permanently.

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church),

Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all (the body) in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Whom makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

22- Yet now has Christ, the Messiah, reconciled you to God in the body of His flesh through death, in order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His, the father’s presence.

Hebrews 10:10-12

And in accordance with this will (of God), we have been made Holy (consecrated and sanctified) through the offering made once for all of the body of Jesus Christ (the Anointed One).

Furthermore, every (human) priest stands (at his altar of service) ministering daily, offering the same sacrifices over and over again, which never are able to strip (from every side of us) the sins (that envelop us) an take them away-

Whereas this One (Christ), after He had offered a single sacrifice for our sins (that shall avail) for all time, sat down at the right hand of God. 14) For by a single offering he has forever completely cleansed and perfected those who are consecrated and made holy.

I Cor. 2:6-8

Yet when we are among the full-grown (spiritually mature Christians who are ripe in understanding), we do impart a (higher) wisdom (the knowledge of the divine plan previously hidden); but it is indeed not a wisdom of this present age or of this world nor of the leaders and rulers of this age, who are being brought to nothing and are doomed to pass away.

But rather what we are setting forth is a wisdom of God once hidden (from the human understanding) and now revealed to us by God-(that wisdom) which God devised and decreed before the ages for our glorification (to lift us into the glory of His presence).

None of the rulers of this age or world perceived and recognized and understood this, for if they had, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory.

Colossians 1:19

For it pleased (the Father) that all divine fullness (the sum total of the divine perfection, powers and attributes) should dwell in Him permanently.

Philippians 4:13

I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me (I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self-sufficient in Christ’s sufficiency.

Psalm 82:6

I said, you are gods (since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives); indeed, all of you are children of the Most High.

John 10:34-38

Jesus answered, Is it not written in your Law, I said, You are gods? So men are called gods (by the law), men to whom God’s message came- and the scripture cannot be set aside or cancelled or broken or annulled.

Luke 10:1, 8-9, 17-23

Now after this the Lord chose and sent seventy others and sent them out ahead of Him, two by two, into every town and place where He Himself was about to come (visit).

Whenever you go into a town and they receive and accept and receive and welcome you, eat what is set before you.

The seventy returned with joy, saying Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your Name (authority, character), As representatives of Jesus by use of the power of attorney or His Name.

And He said to them, I saw Satan falling like lightning (a flash) falling from heaven. Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and (physical and mental strength and ability) over all the power that the enemy (possesses); and nothing shall in any way harm you.

Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are enrolled in heaven.

In that same hour He rejoiced and gloried in the Holy Spirit and said, I thank You, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, that You have concealed these things (relating to salvation) from the wise and understanding and learned, and revealed them to babes (the childish, unskilled, and untaught).

Yes Father, for such was Your gracious will and choice and good pleasure.

All things have been given over into my power by My Father; and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son may choose to reveal and make Him known.

Then turning to His disciples, He said privately, Blessed (happy, to be envied) are those whose eyes see what you see!

Acts 4:8-10

Then Peter (because he was) filled with (and controlled by) the Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people and members of the council (the Sanhedrin).

If we are being put on trial here today and examined concerning a good deed done to benefit a feeble (helpless) cripple, by what means this man has been restored to health.

Let it be known and understood by all of you, and the whole house of Israel, that in the Name and through the power and authority of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Whom you crucified, but Whom God raised from the dead, in Him and by means of Him this man is standing here before you well and sound in body.

Acts 4:32-35

Now the company of believers was of one heart and soul, and not one of them claimed that anything, which he possessed was exclusively his own, but everything they had was in common and for the use of all.

And with great strength and ability and power the apostles delivered their testimony to resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace (loving kindness and favor and goodwill) rested richly upon them all.

Nor was there any destitute or needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses proceeded to sell them, and one by one they brought (gave back) the amount received from the sales,

And laid it at the feet of the apostles (special messengers) Then distribution was made according as anyone had need.

Acts 9:31-42

Now as Peter went here and there among them all, he went down also to the saints who lived at Lydda.

There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedfast for eight years as was paralyzed.

And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ (the Messiah) now makes you whole. Get up and make your bed! And immediately Aeneas stood up.

Then all the inhabitants of Lydda and the plain of Sharon saw what had happened to him and they turned to the Lord.

Now there was at Joppa a disciple a woman named (in Aramaic) Tabitha, which (in Greek) means Dorcas. She was abounding in good deeds and acts of charity.

And about that time she fell sick and died, and when they had cleansed her, they laid (her in an upper room.

Since Lydda was near Joppa (however), the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him begging him, Do come to us without delay.

So Peter (immediately) rose and accompanied them. And when he had arrived, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood around him, crying and displaying undershirts (tunics) and other garments such as Dorcas was accustomed to make while she was with them.

But Peter put them all out of the room and knelt down and prayed; then turning to the body he said Tabitha, get up! And she opened her eyes; And when she saw Peter, she raised herself and sat upright.

And he gave her his hand and lifted her up. Then calling in God’s people and the widows, he presented her to them alive.

And this became known throughout all Joppa, and many came to believe on the Lord (to adhere to and trust in and rely on Him as the Christ and as their Savior.

Acts 2:42-47

And they steadfastly persevered, devoting themselves constantly to the instruction and fellowship of the apostles, to the breaking of bread including the Lord’s Supper and prayers.

And a sense of awe reverential fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were performed through the apostles (the special messengers).

And all who believed adhered to and trusted in and relied on Jesus Christ were united and together they had everything in common.

And they sold their possessions (both their landed property and their movable goods and distributed the price among all, according as any had need.

And day after day they regularly assembled in the temple with their united purpose, and in their homes they broke bread including the Lord’s Supper. They partook of their food with gladness and simplicity and generous hearts.

Constantly praising God and being in favor and goodwill with all the people, and the Lord kept adding to their number daily those who were being saved from spiritual death.

Acts 5:18-20

They seized and arrested the apostles (special messengers) and put them in the public jail.

But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and, leading them out, said,

Go, take your stand in the temple courts and declare to the people the whole doctrine concerning this Life (the eternal life which Christ revealed).

Acts 8:3-8

But Saul shamefully treated and laid waste the church continuously (with cruelty and violence: entering house after house, he dragged out men and women and committed them to prison.

Now those who were scattered abroad went about (through the land from place to place) preaching the glad tidings, the Word (the doctrine concerning the attainment through Christ of salvation in the kingdom of God.

Philip (the deacon, not the apostle) went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Christ (the Messiah) to them (the people).

And great crowds of people with one accord listened to and heeded what was said by Philip, as they heard him and watched the miracles and wonders which he kept performing (from time to time).

For foul spirits came out of many who were possessed by them, screaming and shouting with a loud voice, and many who were suffering from palsy or were crippled were restored to health.

And there was great rejoicing in that city.

Acts 6:7-8

And the message of God kept on spreading, and the number of disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem; and besides a large number of priests were obedient to the faith in Jesus as the Messiah, through Whom is obtained eternal salvation in the kingdom of God.

Now Stephen, full of grace (divine blessing and favor) and power (strength and ability) worked great wonders and signs (miracles) among the people.

Acts 8:34-40

And the eunuch said to Philip, I beg of you, tell me about whom does the prophet say this about himself or about someone else?

Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this portion of scripture he announced to him the glad tidings (Gospel) of Jesus and about Him.

And as they continued along on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch exclaimed, See, (here is) water! What is to hinder my being baptized?

And Philip said, If you believe with all your heart (if you have a conviction, full of joyful trust, that Jesus is the Messiah and accept Him as the Author of your Salvation in the kingdom of God, giving Him your obedience, then you may. And he replied, I do believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

And he ordered that the chariot be stopped; and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly caught away Philip and the eunuch saw him no more, and he went on his way rejoicing.

But Philip was found at Azotus, and passing on he preached the good news (Gospel) to all the towns until he reached Casarea.

Acts 10:37-45

The same message which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, starting from Galilee after the baptism preached by John-

How God anointed and consecrated Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with strength and ability and power; how He went about doing good and, in particular, curing all who were harassed and oppressed by the power of the devil, for God was with Him.

And we are eye and ear witnesses of everything that He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. And yet they put Him out of the way (murdered Him) by hanging Him on a tree;

But God raised Him to life on the third day and caused Him to be manifest (to be plainly seen),

Not by all the people but to us who were chosen (designated) beforehand by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead.

And He charged us to preach to the people and to bear solemn testimony that He is the God appointd and God ordained Judge of the living and the dead.

To Him all the prophets testify (bear witness) that everyone who believes in Him (who adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him, giving himself up to Him, receives forgiveness of sins through His Name.

While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all who were listening to the message.

And the believers from among the circumcised (Jews) who came with Peter were surprised and amazed, because the free gift of the Holy Spirit had been bestowed and poured out largely even on the Gentiles.

Acts 3: 1-6

Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the three o'clock hour in the afternoon, When a certain man crippled from his birth was being carried along, who was laid each day at that gate of the temple called Beautiful, so that he might beg for charitable gifts from those who entered the temple.

So when he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked them to give him a gift.

And Peter directed his gaze intently at him, and so did John, and said, Look at us!

And the man paid attention to them, expecting that he was going to get something from them.

But Peter said, silver and gold (money) I do not have; but what I do have, that I give to you: in the use of the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk! And His Name (authority imputed to us), through and by faith in His Name (authority and character), has made this man whom you see and recognize well and strong. Yes the faith that is through and by Him, (Jesus) has given the man this perfect soundness of body before all of you.

The power of attorney was given to the believers to act as if they were Jesus. They acted out what He would do in His place.

By using just His authority or name.

Rom. 8:26-39

So too the Holy Spirit comes to our aid and bears us up in our weakness; for we do not know what prayer to offer nor how to offer it worthily as we ought, but the spirit Himself goes to meet our supplication and pleads in our behalf with unspeakable yearnings and groanings too deep for utterance.

And He Who searches the hearts of men knows what is in the mind of the Holy Spirit (what His intent is), because the Spirit intercedes and pleads (before God) in behalf of the saints according to and in harmony with God's will.

We are assured and know that God being a partner in their labor all things work together and are fitting into a plan, for good to and for those who love God and are called according to His design and purpose.

For those whom He foreknew (of whom He was aware and loved beforehand, He also destined from the beginning (foreordaining them) to be molded into the image of His Son (and share inwardly His likeness) that He might become the firstborn among many brethren.

And those whom He thus foreordained, He also called; and those whom He called , He also justified (acquitted, made righteous, putting them into right standing with Himself. And those whom He justified, He also glorified (raising them to a heavenly dignity and condition or state of being).

What then shall we say to all this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Who can be our foe, if God is on our side?

He Who did not withhold or spare (even) His own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Colossians 2:13-15

And you who were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh (your sensuality, your sinful carnal nature), God brought to life together with (Christ), having (freely) forgiven us all our transgressions.

Having cancelled and blotted out and wiped away the handwriting of the note or bond with its legal decrees and demands which was in force and stood against us (hostile to us). This note with its regulations, decrees, and demands, He set aside and cleared completely out of our way by nailing it to His cross.

God disarmed the principalities and powers that were ranged against us and made a bold display and public example of them, in triumphing over them in Him and in it (the cross).

None of the rulers of this age or world perceived and recognized and understood this, for if they had, they would never have crucified the Lord of Glory.

But of the contrary, as the scripture says, what eye has not seen and ear has not heard and has not entered into the heart of man, (all that) God has prepared (made and keeps ready) for those who love Him (who hold Him in affectionate reverence, promptly obeying Him and gratefully recognizing the benefits He has bestowed).

Yet to us God has unveiled and revealed them by and through His Spirit, for the Holy Spirit searches diligently, exploring and examining everything, even sounding the profound and bottomless things of God (the divine counsels and things hidden and beyond man’s scrutiny).

I Cor. 3:21-22

So let no one exult proudly men (boasting of having this or that man as a leader),

For all things are yours.

Whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas (Peter), or the universe or life or death, or the immediate and threatening present or the (subsequent and Uncertain) future-all are yours.

And you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s.

Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect (when it is God Who justifies (that is, Who puts us in right relation to Himself?) Who shall come forward and accuse or impeach those whom God has chosen? Will God, Who acquits us?)

Who is there to condemn (us)? Will Christ Jesus (the messiah), Who died, or rather Who was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God actually, pleading as He intercedes for us?

Who shall ever separate us from Christ's love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword?

Even as it is written, For Thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we are regarded and counted as sheep for the slaughter.

Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors and gain a surpassing victory through Him who loved us.

For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things impending and threatening nor things to come, nor powers,

Nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Hebrews 7:25

Therefore He is able also to save to the uttermost (completely, perfectly, finally and for all time and eternity) those who come to God through Him, since He is always living to make petition to God and intercede with Him and intervene for them.

Hebrews 10:15-18

And also the Holy Spirit adds His testimony to us (in confirmation of this). For having said.

This is the agreement (testament, covenant) that I will set up and conclude with them after those days, says the Lord; I will imprint My laws upon their hearts, and I will inscribe them on their minds (on their inmost thoughts and understanding).

He then goes on to say, and their sins and their lawbreaking I will remember no more.

Now where there is absolute remission (forgiveness and cancellation of the penalty) of these (sins and lawbreaking), there is no longer any offering made to atone for sin.

Isaiah 52:6-7

Therefore My people shall know what My name is and what it means; there fore they shall know in that day that I am He who speaks; behold, I AM!

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings; who publishes peace, who brings good tidings of good, who publishes salvation, who says to zion, Your God reigns!

Isaiah 54: 2-4, 13-14

Enlarge the place of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched out; spare not; lengthen your cords and strength your stakes.

For you will spread abroad to the right hand and to the left; and your offspring will possess the nations and make the desolate cities to be habitated.

Isaiah 41:10-13

Fear not there is nothing to fear, for I Am with you; you do not look around you in terror and be dismayed, for I Am your God, I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties, yes, I will help you; yes, I will hold you up and retain you with My victorious right hand of rightness and justice, Behold, all they who are enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded; they who strive against you shall be as nothing, as nothing at all.

You seek those who contend with you but shall not find them; they who war against you shall be as nothing, as nothing at all. For I the Lord your God hold your right hand; I Am the Lord, Who says to you, fear not; I will help you!

Acts 5:11-16

And the whole church and all others who heard of these things were appalled (great awe and strange terror and dread seized them.

Now by the hands of the apostles (special messengers) numerous and startling signs and wonders were being performed among the people. And by common consent they all met together (at the temple) in the covered porch (walk) called Solomon’s.

And none of those who were not of their number dared to join and associate with them, but the people held them in high regard and praised and made much of them.

More and more there were being added to the Lord those who believed (those who acknowledged Jesus as their Savior and devoted themselves to Him joined and gathered with them, crowds both of men and of women.

So that they even kept carrying out the sick into the streets and placing them on couches and sleeping pads, in the hope that as Peter passed by, at least his shadow might fall on some of them.

And the people gathered also from the towns and hamlets around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those troubled with foul spirits, and they were all cured.

I John 4:4

Little children, you are of God (you belong to Him) and have (already) defeated and overcome them (the agents of the antichrist), because He Who lives in you is greater (mightier) than he who is in the world.

I John 5:4

For whatever is born of God is victorious over the world; and this is the victory that conquers the world, even our faith.

But it is from Him that you have your life in Christ Jesus, Whom God made our Wisdom from God, (revealed to us a knowledge of the divine plan of salvation previously hidden, manifesting itself as) our Righteousness (thus making us upright and putting us in right standing with God), and our Consecration (making us pure and holy), and our Redemption (providing our ransom from eternal penalty for sin).

Luke 11:9-13

What father among you, if his son asks for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone; or if he asks for a fish, will in stead of a fish give him a serpent?

Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

If you then, evil as you are, know how to give good gifts (gifts that are to their advantage) to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask and continue to ask Him!

And the Lord answered Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, they may forget, yet I will not forget, yet I will not forget you.

Behold, I have indelibly imprinted (tattooed a picture of you on the palm of each of My hands; (O Zion) your walls are continually before Me.

I Cor. 2:7-10

But rather what we are setting forth is a wisdom of God once hidden (form the human understanding) and now revealed to us by God (that wisdom) which God devised and decreed before the ages for our glorification (to lift us into the glory of His presence).

But of the contrary, as the scripture says, what eye has not seen and ear has not heard and has not entered into the heart of man, (all that) God has prepared (made and keeps ready) for those who love Him (who hold Him in affectionate reverence, promptly obeying Him and gratefully recognizing the benefits He has bestowed.

Yet to us God has unveiled and revealed them by and through His Spirit, for the Holy Spirit searches diligently, exploring and examining everything, even sounding the profound and bottomless things of God (the divine counsels and things hidden and beyond man's scrutiny).

Rom. 5:17

For if because of one man's trespass (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive (God's) overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness (putting them into right standing with Himself) reign as kings in life through the one man Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Rom. 3:24

All are justified and made upright and in right standing with God, freely and gratuitously by His grace (His unmerited Favor and Mercy), through the redemption which is provided in Christ Jesus.

Rom. 8:9-10

But you are not living the life of the flesh, you are living the life of the Spirit, if the Holy Spirit of God really dwells within you (directs and controls you). But if anyone does not possess the Holy Spirit of Christ, he is none of His (he does not belong to Christ, is not truly a child of God).

But if Christ lives in you, (then although) your (natural) body is dead by reason of sin and guilt, the spirit is alive because of the righteousness (that He imputes to you).

Zechariah 4:6

Then he said to me, This (addition of the bowl to the candle-stick, causing it to yield a ceaseless supply of oil (anointing) from the olive trees) is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit (of Whom the oil is a symbol), says the Lord of hosts

Hebrews 9:26-28

For then would He often have had to suffer (over and over again) since the foundation of the world. But as it now is, He has once for all at the consummation and close of the ages appeared to put away and abolish sin by His sacrifice (of Himself).

And just as it is appointed for all men once to die, and after that the (certain) judgment, even so it is that Christ, having been offered to take upon himself and bear as a burden the sins of many once and once for all, will appear a second time, not to carry any burden of sin nor to deal with sin, but to bring to full salvation those who are eagerly, constantly, and patiently) waiting for and expecting Him.

Rom. 5:17-20

For if because of one man's trespass (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive (God's) overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness (putting them into right standing with Himself) reign as kings in life through the one Man Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Well then, as one man's trespass (one man's false step and falling away led) to condemnation for all men, so one Man's act of righteousness (leads) to acquittal and right standing with God and life for all men.

For just as by one man's disobedience (failing to hear, heedlessness, and carelessness) the many were constituted sinners, so by one Man's obedience the many will be constituted righteous, (made acceptable to God, brought into right standing with Him).

Hebrews 10:5-7

Hence when He (Christ) entered into the world, He said, Sacrifices and offerings You have not desired, but instead You have not desired, but instead You have made ready a body for Me (to offer);

In burnt offerings and sin offerings You have taken no delight.

Then I said, Behold, here I am, coming to do Your will, O God- (to fulfill) what is written of Me in the volume of the Book.

Rom.8:14-17

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For the Spirit, which you have now received is not a spirit of slavery to put you once more in bondage to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption (the Spirit producing sonship) (in the bliss of) which we cry, Abba Father!

The Spirit Himself (thus) testifies together with our own spirit, assuring us that we are children of God.

And if we are His children, then we are His heirs also: heirs of God an fellow heirs with Christ (sharing His inheritance with Him); only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please and be satisfactory to Him. For whoever would come near to God must necessarily believe that God exists and that he is the rewarder of those who earnestly and diligently seek Him (out).

Mark 11:22-24

And Jesus, replying, said to them, have faith in God (constantly).

Truly I tell you, whoever says to this mountain, be lifted up and thrown into the sea! And does not doubt at all in his heart but believes that what he says will take place, it will be done for him.

For this reason I am telling you whatever you ask for in prayer, believe (trust and be confident) that it is granted to you, and you will get it.

Mark 9:23

And Jesus said, (You say to Me), If you can do anything? (Why), all things can be (are possible) to him who believes!

Mark 10:27

Jesus glanced around at them and said, with men (it is) impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.

Rom. 8:31-39

What then shall we say to (all) this? If God is for us, who can be against us? Who can be our foe, if God is on our side?

He who did not withhold or spare (even) His own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect (when it is) God Who justifies (that is, Who puts us in right relation to Himself? Who shall come forward and accuse or impeach those whom God has chosen? Will God, Who acquits us?

Who is there to condemn (us)/ Will Christ Jesus (the Messiah), Who died, or rather Who was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God actually pleading as He intercedes for us?

Who shall ever separate us from Christ’s love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword?

Even as it is written, For thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we are regarded and counted as sheep for the slaughter.

Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors and gain surpassing victory through Him Who loved us.

For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things impending and threatening nor things to come, nor powers,

Nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Isaiah 49:8-10,12,15-16

Thus says the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, Israel’s Holy One, to him whom man rejects and despises, to him whom the nations abhor, to the servant of rulers; Kings shall see you and arise; princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the Lord, Who is Faithful, the Holy One of Israel; who has chosen you.

Thus says the Lord, In and acceptable and favorable time, I have heard and answered you; and in a day of salvation I have helped you; and I will preserve you and give you for a covenant to the people, to raise up and establish the land (from its present state of ruin) to apportion and cause them to inherit the desolate moral wastes of heathenism their heritages.

Saying to those who are bound, come forth, and to those who are in spiritual darkness, show yourselves (come into the light of the Son of righteousness), They shall feed in all the ways (in which they go), and their pastures shall be (not in deserts, but on all the bare (grass covered) hills.

They will not hunger or thirst, neither will mirage (mislead) or scorching wind or sun smite them; for He Who has mercy on them will lead them, and by springs of water will He guide them.

Behold, these shall come from afar-and, behold, these from the north and from the west and these from the land of Sinim (China).

And the Lord answered Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, they may forget, yet I will not forget, yet I will not forget you.

Behold, I have indelibly imprinted (tattooed a picture of you on the palm of each of My hands; (O Zion) your walls are continually before Me.

II Chronicles 15:7

Be strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak and slack, for your work shall be rewarded.

Isaiah 42:8-9, 16

I Am the Lord: that is My name! And My glory I will not give to another, nor My praise to graven images.

Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them.

And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known, I will make darkness into light before them and make undeven places into a plain. These things I have determined to do (for them); and I will not leave them forsaken.

II Cor. 8:9

For you are coming progressively to be acquainted with and to recognition more strongly and clearly the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ—His kindness, His gracious generosity, His undeserved favor and spiritual blessing; (in) that though He was (so very) rich, yet for your sakes He became (so very) poor, in order that by His poverty you might become enriched—abundantly supplied.

Remember the word of God says that God cannot lie. The scriptures cannot be broken. The Word of God is forever settled in heaven. God does not change. He is the same yesterday today and forever. He has given us all things. He has given us all things that pertain to life and godliness. Peace, rest, power, wisdom, healing, righteousness, holiness, citizenship in heaven, comfort, guidance, prosperity, favor, kindness, wholeness, His very life, completeness, joy, hope, help, companionship, life more abundantly, and Jesus.

Isaiah 65:1-3

I was ready to be inquired of by those who asked not; I was ready to be found by those who sought Me not. I said, Here I am to a nation that has not called on My name.

I have spread out My hands all the day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts.

We have eternal life in Christ, but we are preaching a temporal message.

We have an international audience on television and short wave radio, but we are preaching about nothing with salvation in it, and preaching and teaching a local audience message.

That is why it is important to be led by the Holy Spirit in this time period and to be knowledgeable of the Word of God.

We have the power of the Holy Ghost in our lives, the very life of God, but we preach like we are not connected to Him, the unlimited power source, the wisdom source, the glory and anointing of God.

We have Apostles, but the Apostles are like our local Sunday school teachers.

We have Evangelists, but there is no demonstration of the power of God to show non believers that God is alive and to believe on a living Savior.

The teenagers are looked over in our churches.

The singing is just a part of a program, not the real, deliberate and whole-hearted worship of God.

We have clics instead of Bible study and prayer groups. We gossip about our brothers and sisters in Christ instead of praying for each other.

We are not seeking God when we are away from the church. We forget the message that was preached from the pulpit.

The new day and the new season is here.

God is bringing His people out of the customs and traditions and ceremonies of religion and manmade denominationalism.

We are moving with the Spirit of God. Others are just standing by criticizing and ridiculing and judging the ones that are moving in the Holy Ghost in this time.

There is a strong attack on those who operate in the gifts of the Holy Ghost, especially those in the healing ministry. Pray for us.

Satan hates it when we move him out of a place that he has occupied.

The time is now to move into the supernatural.

We are compelled by the love of God to go after the lost, before it is too late for those that are not saved.

Some cities in the other parts of the world have become battle zones. People are dying for their desire to be free.

Time is of the essence now. Use it wisely.

Terry Suggs

Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

Looking For More Of God

Peggy Bridges

2004 - Looking For More Of God

There will be a hunger and thirst in many hearts for God. You will see miraculous manifestations of God revealing Himself to the Arabic and Islamic people. The scales will be removed from their eyes and their ears will be opened and they shall see and hear the LIVING WORD OF TRUTH – JESUS. An explosion of new converts will spread like an uncontrollable forest fire among these nations.

Several prophetic judgments will be fulfilled in 2004 against rulers in high places. The false masks of hypocrisy will come off and what was hidden will be revealed. They will lose their high positions.

Canada – “I have blown upon your fields of wheat and you shall see a harvest of spiritual and natural abundance that will stretch from ocean to ocean. Your eyes shall be opened and you shall see My heavenly hosts prepared to avenge all that oppose My blessing upon you.”

Australia – “I have gathered your pockets of praise and joined them into one voice. Your voice, Australia, shall be heard around the world. No longer will you hunger for others to come to Australia and feed you. Your voice will start feeding the multitudes. I shall increase your technical abilities and your voice shall be heard all over the earth. Many of your business leaders and their wives and multiple members of their families will hear My Call and join together and forsake all their earthly possession. And they shall leave their earthly wealth and fame and become ‘fishers of men’s souls’ – You shall see their voices become great in the earth.”

England – “As the clock bells chime, I am raising up a multitude of witnesses over the highways and byways. There is a fresh breeze coming and a new growth of faith to your land. I have heard the prayers of your intercessors and My Grace is falling like rain upon your land. You shall have great abundance in natural and spiritual blessings. My Goodness shall draw the unrighteous out of their darkness.”

Tony Blair – “Because you have stood for righteousness and justice, I shall touch your lips with My Scepter and your authority and favor shall increase. All that you bless shall be blessed and all that you expose as being unjust will be judged. Your family is in My hands and is forever in a place of safety.

United States of America – “How beautiful are your feet. You have given great peace to the nations and you carry My Love to all that will receive it.
I can hear the cries of your intercessors, crying for the offenders. Pray America, pray for the unrighteous and I shall open their mouths and I shall rain down from heaven a Holy Manna that I have ‘salted’ and they will thirst for Me and they shall search for Me and I will not hide Myself from them. I shall show My Glory and they shall choose My Light, My Truth and My Way.

I have started a ball rolling from My Holy Hill and it will roll from the shores of the Atlantic to the shores of the Pacific. This ball will carve out a path of safety and blessing for you. Fear not America, I have made a safe path for you to walk. Your feet are protected and covered with My Holiness.

Peggy Bridges
greatprophecies@juno.com
North Carolina, USA

Lean On Me

Musa Opiyo

The Current Testing-Lean On Me

My child do not fear, for yes I know the testing and the trials of your character that I am taking you through. As pressure has been exerted in your areas of weakness, you have fallen under the weight of sin and have despaired, thinking that you cannot overcome. My child let it be known to you that I was tested and tried with all of your situations. Beloved I know what you face and felt what you feel. Yes I leaned on the strength of the Father. My sight was never on the natural, for even My natural body was weak, but I received the empowerment of the Holy Spirit as I was baptized in the Jordan.

I was victorious and so were you. You died when I died and you rose when I rose. Therefore since you are hidden in Me, YOU ARE A NEW CREATION.THE OLD HAS GONE, THE NEW HAS COME. The enemy at this time has brought to memory the frivolousness of the flesh of times past and the benefits of living in worldliness. But My beloved you made a choice. You had a choice to follow either the way of darkness or the narrow road, the One road that leads to the Father. You chose life, for I was and I still am the Way, the Truth and the Life. In Me is life eternal. You knew in your heart that all that was of the world only led to destruction and an utter end, yet to saw “life” in Me, and faced with that choice, you chose Me.

My beloved I tell you do not allow the enemy to dissuade you from your goal. Do not seek again the former life but look ahead to all that is in Me, the Author and the Finisher of your faith. The testings you are experiencing are testing the foundation of your faith, where you truly stand. Yet if you trust in Me alone, you have nothing to fear. I will lead you out of the way of temptation and bring you into the fruitfulness of My Kingdom. You have to be willing to resist that which you once held dear that now is only a hindrance to your moving forward in My plans. Resist the devil and he will flee. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for My way is easy and straightforward and leads to life.

Even as you go through this wilderness season, fear not, for I am moulding My character in you, says the Lord, that you would emerge effective tools for My work. Run the race ahead of you with endurance. Those who have gone before you only cheer you on. Let their life and walk be a testimony and a witness that yes, those who trust in the Lord shall be led to paths everlasting and to victory. Be encouraged My child. For I have said that I will never leave you nor forsake you. Keep this promise with you as you walk through this life.

~~~~~~~

Word given to Musa Opiyo
http://www.angelfire.com/un/mannaword
elyonpower@yahoo.com
~~~~~~~

Leadership Out Of Control

Ann Bandini

Prayer Minister for Kingdom Business Sep 23, 2003

A WORD IN SEASON!

It has been brought to my attention in the last week how God is changing the platform and the lives of many in leadership roles.

I believe one of the key factors in leaders gone awry is the inability to pull back and stay in a protected circle of discrete associates, especially those with like gifting, who understand the area of election by the Lord. Are the leaders who govern leaders who are in right alignment with your election by God? Do they support and affirm God's leading and direction? Do They assist you in the time of stretching by covering you in prayer? Are they "yes" people or do they make you accountable?

We are walking in new and unusual territory...BUSINESS, MARKETPLACE, FINANCES, GOVERNMENT AND THE ARTS! All of these areas are going to be governed by those who have been trained by the Holy Spirit in the last 10 to 15 year window!

We need to identify who our inner-circle is, and be in contact with these people that God aligns with us for emotional strength, support and the common good of the whole. We are "family" and we need each other. None of us is to stand alone. God brings forth the right people, loyal, dedicated people with spiritual substance to add strength. Don't let presumptuous people pull on you to join their "stream" because of your assignment to finances.

There is a sound and a calling to financial leaders. There is a specific "stream" that you will flow in unencumbered, although you may assist other steams. The surrounding of the financial anointing must be people who are elected to, and have been trained by governmental leaders in this stream. This election is a very specific election and you must know the sound in the spirit and discern those who want to pull on you to "join" in and to add to their assignments. You must walk in impeccable discernment and discerning of spirits and hear God.

If you are assigned to marketplace, business and finances those called to missions, deliverance, church planting, world evangelist teams, etc. are the addendum of finances not the sphere of influence that you submit your gifting and assignment to. Your assignment is governed in the area of leaders in the marketplace, business and finances. Often times people will try to get you involved with them because of the assignment to disperse wealth. This is where the discernment must come from.

1 Thessalonians 5:12
"Now also we beseech you, brethren, get to know those who labor among you (recognize them for what they are, acknowledge and appreciate and respect them all)-your leaders who are over you in the Lord and those who warn and kindly reprove and exhort you."

As God aligns HIS choices and we respond, there is a lifting up because we know that there is discretion in true mature leadership. We need people, who as "servant" leaders, who will be there to serve at all times, and especially in times of crises.

Unfortunately, there are those who are still in need of training because they cannot serve people at high levels, or those who are known leaders with pure motives. There is only one celebrity and that is THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!

The more I am in association with mature believers it is evident that we need to pray for those who have been "known", and have served, but have veered off-track in areas of personal integrity and holiness. Some need restoration in order to proceed into the current moves of God. This may require for some to take a season to be restored and rededicated and consecrated to the new order. This may require a new breaking off of old patterns, and restoration for current disorder in the lives of some. There have been years of shaking to remove the old wine skin, which in some circles is costly, but we are entering into new seasons in the spirit of Elijah!

As the seasons have changed, and the Apostolic-Prophetic move of God is underway, we must pray for those God is trying to dislodge from the last season of the "church age" and bring them forward into the "Kingdom age". If we stay in the last season, and build on old foundations we become "religious". We must bring forth a fresh work, a fresh word, a fresh release. This comes from much time with God to receive the anointing and revelations to give out to those we are called to serve!

We take an example from David Wilkerson who has been a "Watchman on the Wall", a man of prayer and victory for years. He speaks of God's judgment and His pity.

He sums it up in Ezekiel 36: 21-38; "I will have pity for My holy name which has been profaned among the heathen...not for your sakes, but for My own name's sake, the heathen shall know I am God. I will sprinkle clean water upon you and you shall be clean of all filthiness. I will give you a NEW HEART and a NEW SPIRIT. I will cause you to walk in My ways. I will save you for all your uncleanness. Not for your sakes do I this, but for My own name's sake.

Also Ezekiel 20:22, 44.." but I wrought (save) for My names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen.

God is going to save by the supernatural turning of a remnant back to HIM. Apostolic authority will turn those leaving the old wine skin, and the heathen to HIM!

He continues to say that HE IS GOING TO PURGE THE NATIONS AND THE CHURCH WITH AWESOME REDEMPTIVE JUDGMENTS. GOD IS GOING TO GLORIFY HIS NAME WITH A GREAT INTERVENTION OF MERCY.

PEOPLE HAVE BEEN CALLING FOR REVIVAL IN SOME CIRCLES.... THERE IS NO ABILITY TO BRING FORTH REVIVAL AT THIS SEASON......THERE IS HOLY ORDER FOR THE FRESH THING TO COME TO US..... FIRST THERE MUST BE BROKENNESS AND REPENTANCE...THEN REFORMATION OF THE MIND......REFORMING OUR OLD MIND SETS AND RELIGIOUS TRADITIONS OF DOING IT THE OLD WAY....(NEW ORDER, NEW WINE SKIN)...SOMETHING GREATER THAN REVIVAL IS COMING A NEW THING!.... RESTORING THE GLORY OF HIS NAME, THE GLORY THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS ALONE!

Notice, though we want to see people saved, the "old model" of the "evangelist" is no longer current with the moves of God today. It is no longer a "one man" show. We need to see MORE than receiving the gift of salvation, we need to see these people MATURED and on fire for God! We need to assist those who are hungry to serve in the sphere of influence that will be charged and changed by them. We do people a disservice by not getting them engrafted and forming discipleship training immediately! What God is doing is a CORPORATE ANOINTING the blending of many for the common good of the whole!

There is a time coming, and now, is that the true worshippers, who minister to the Lord in spirit and in truth, will bring forth immediate results; salvations and consecration of lives that will boggle the natural mind! This is fueled by worshipping the Master and being students of the Word! When we bring forth ministry to the Lord, especially in the corporate sessions, we set the stage for the extraordinary moving of God.

To receive governmental order, we need apostolic order so that we may train those who are in our sphere of influence to come alongside of us as we train sons and daughters. There needs to be equipping through discipleship of God's current order in this current season.

Josh McDowell-quote:

"A new breed of ministries will eclipse the old wine skins of previous thinking. They will leap over the boundaries set by their predecessors and pioneer a COMPLETELY DIFFERENT MINISTRY MODEL! They will not succumb to the pressure of modern pulpits that demand their submission. They will break the yokes of contemporary doctrine to set a new trend of liberty. They will not submit to the spirit of Laban that causes them to strive for a false bride. The leadership of Laban shall be removed and the heart of David shall prevail. The seven years of slavery IS OVER says the Lord, the seven years of slavery IS OVER! This is the beginning of the end says the Lord, The days of persecution and pressing has begun. I will sift the threshing floor and find a people AFTER MY OWN HEART! I will find a people that will not sell out their inheritance for temporary glory. They will be hated and driven out, but in this they will learn to love. They will learn to lay down their lives for the Bride."

WHAT A TIMELY, RIGHT NOW, PRESENT TRUTH WORD!. WOW!

Financial leaders ARE YOU READY to move out and protect, lead and train?! ARE YOU READY FOR THE PREPARATION FOR THE GLORY?!

This message has been brought to you by Christ's Exceeding Opportunities Ministries. To view our website you may go to www.ceoministries.org

Look Forward

Angel Dahilig

Look forward.
Press ahead.
Don't look back.

Have the courage to go forward and follow the vision set before you.

Do not stop and linger over the past, whether good or bad.
For this will derail you and cloud your vision to succeed, eventually putting out the fire that fuels your passion.

However, there will be times when you will stop and rest, to gather up your strength, and to regain your focus,
again setting your vision on the goal before you.

So, look forward.
Press ahead.
Don't look back.

You will make it.

Angel Dahilig
June 28, 2004

2 Timothy 4:7-8
7. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith:
8. henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness.

Also: Luke 9:62; Gen 19:17,22,26; 1 Cor. 9:24; Hebrews 12:1.

Lost in Translation
Debra Westbrook

4/20/04

I keep hearing this phrase over and over within me this past week.

Lost in Translation

While renting a movie the other night, and while walking past the shelves of titles, God whispered this phrase to me before I even saw the title of the current movie named, "Lost in Translation". I have not seen this movie and may never see this movie but, God has something to say about this current title. It is an appropriate revelation for the Body of Christ today, right now.

Lost in Translation

In traveling this past year quite extensively, Marvin and I realize that there is a well-defined frustration when one tries to convey and express oneself in another country. Using the best interpreters, there is often something lost in translation. How does one convey spiritual thoughts and heavenly realities accurately so that the fullness of the words in the message come forth and shine with the reality Jesus Christ?

Heavenly realities are conveyed and revealed to each of us by the Holy Spirit - the precious Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:9-16
9 However, as it is written: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him"--
10 but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.
11 For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.
12 We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us.
13 This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words.
14 The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 The spiritual man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment:
16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

There is a language of the Spirit that unites people from every tribe, nation and tongue to convey heavenly realities and the mind of Christ. Jesus, being one with the Father, reveals the very heart of Father God. Words that are expressed with heavenly anointing carry the freedom and liberty to set the captives free.

John 6:63
63 The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life. (NIV)

When we speak forth thoughts, ideas, words that are not initiated by the Spirit of God, these come forth obscured by our own prejudices, traditions, denominational bondages, and a strong religious spirit. So how do we not only rightly interpret spiritual and heavenly realities as well as to rightly convey these to each other and to a lost world?

In the book of Revelation, John must have been overcome by what he saw as his spiritual senses were accosted with the beauty and reality of the Throne of God. He conveyed these thoughts to us as led by the Spirit and as we read the book of Revelation we look at this book, read this book, interpret this book with spiritual eyes, ears, etc. etc.

What am I saying in all of this?

"Keep It Simple!"

To speak forth what is life we must speak the words of the Spirit. Sometimes heavenly thoughts are even beyond our ability to understand except as revealed by the Spirit of God, we must believe this:

1 Corinthians 2:2-5
2 For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.
3 I came to you in weakness and fear, and with much trembling.
4 My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power,
5 so that your faith might not rest on men's wisdom, but on God's power.

The centrality of Jesus Christ, the preeminence of Christ, must sound forth in all we say and in all we do. He and He alone as our ascended Lord and Master, is the very foundation upon which we live, move, and have our very being.

When we speak forth in our wisdom or our own presumption, there will always be something lost in translation.

Holy Spirit within us has a heavenly mandate of declaration and revelation.

John 16:12-15
12 "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear.
13 But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.
14 He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you.
15 All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.

Holy Spirit reveals the person of Truth, Jesus Christ, revealing Him within us by expanding us and enlarging us to BEAR the weight of His glory. The overflow of this in our beings, results in a coming forth of the anointing to communicate by the Spirit, the reality of our Lord. This word bear means to sustain, to carry and to support. We are being expanded to convey spiritual realities by carrying the reality by the Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ within us. As we flow with the Holy Spirit, there is nothing lost in translation as we speak forth the language of the Spirit in revealing Christ in us the hope of glory.

The centrality of Jesus Christ...........

in our lives in all we do in all we say
in who we are...............

Let Christ rise up in you, ascend in you so that the mind of Christ can be revealed to you by Holy Spirit. We live, move and have our being in Him - allow Holy Spirit to totally possess you so that the reality of Jesus Christ flows through you in the unsurpassed excellence of His glory!

http://www.riversofeden.com
d.westbrook@att.net

Lion Of Zion XII

Rosie Lovejoy

“MANY OF YOUR HANDS ARE DIPPED IN BLOOD”

Sept. 14, 2004
By Rosie Lovejoy

I was worshiping in Church. The sweet, sweet presence of the LORD was all around me. There was nothing to prepare me for the message that I received…

I saw a Star of David, blue and beautiful, rising before my line of vision. It was followed by the face of the satanic Baphomet goat head. I knew that I was once again being shown the witchcraft that is coming against Israel, and how important it is for us to pray “YAHWEH’S will be done in Israel, and HIS will alone.”

Then I saw my favorite lion. HE was thinner and more muscular looking than usual. His mane was shaggy, with a few twigs and burrs. HE looked like HE had been on a long journey. HIS eyes were piercing, as HE looked at me.

We were singing “I want to sing a song of love…”

HE spoke,
“DO YOU REALLY? DO YOU REALLY WANT TO SING A SONG OF LOVE?”

I knew HE was speaking to me about the congregation, and the “Church” in general.

I HAVE TOLD YOU MANY TIMES THAT I AM SEPARATING THE SHEEP FROM THE GOATS. I HAVE TOLD YOU THAT, “IT HAS BEGUN…”

MY CHURCH DOES NOT LISTEN; MY BRIDE DOES NOT LISTEN.

I AM NOW SEPARATING THE WHEAT FROM THE CHAFF.
SOON I WILL PUT THE CHAFF IN THE FIRE AND BURN IT.

I gasped, thinking about the implications of that statement. HE was talking about HIS own here…

DO NOT THINK I AM A PANDA BEAR OR A CUTE GOD.

I REQUIRE RIGHTEOUSNESS.

‘HOLY’ MEANS ‘SET APART’ — SET APART FOR MY WORKS ALONE—FOR ME ALONE.

HE continued to look at me piercingly, gazing into the depths of my soul, into all the secret places I so want to hide.

MANY OF YOUR HANDS ARE DIPPED IN BLOOD,
FOR YOU HAVE USED YOUR MOUTHS TO CRUCIFY YOUR BROTHERS AND YOUR SISTERS.

I HAVE GIVEN YOU PARABLES.
I HAVE SHOWN YOU JUST WHO YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS ARE.

HAVE I BEEN UNCLEAR?

ENOUGH!!!

I AM COMING FOR A BRIDE DRESSED IN WHITE,
A BRIDE WITHOUT SPOT OR WRINKLE, A BRIDE WHO IS HOLY,
SET APART,
RIGHTEOUS…

I AM NOW SEPARATING THE SHEEP FROM THE GOATS.

IT HAS BEGUN.

JUDGMENT BEGINS IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD.

HIS look was so stern, his eyes so fiery, that I did something quite unexpected. I ran and leapt onto HIS back, and buried my face in HIS shaggy mane. I was sobbing into HIS mane, hanging onto HIS neck, repenting of every unloving thing that has come out of my mouth that I could think of. I just clung for dear life, sobbing and repenting, sobbing and repenting.

He spoke again as I clung to HIM.

TELL MY CHILDREN TO READ THE WHOLE BOOK.

I REVEAL WHAT I DO TO A REBELLIOUS AND WILLFUL NATION.
I REVEAL WHAT I DO TO A PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT HOLY AND SET APART,
WHO HAVE NOT CONSECRATED THEIR LIVES AND THEIR MOUTHS TO ME.

I LOVE MY CHILDREN WITH AN EVERLASTING LOVE.

I DO NOT SEPARATE MYSELF FROM THEM.

THEY SEPARATE THEMSELVES FROM ME.

THIS IS WHAT SEPARATES THEM FROM ME.

He then told me to go home and look up verses in the Bible that describe the ways we separate ourselves from HIM. I have provided a list at the end of this vision.

AGAIN I SAY, 'READ MY BOOK.'

All the while I was clinging to the mane of the LION, weeping and repenting, slobbering into HIS mane.

Then I saw a familiar jeweled sword, and it slashed from the top to the bottom of my vision.

The LION turned HIS back on the slashing sword, and walked with me clinging to HIS neck, up a mountainous path.

* * * * *

SCRIPTURES ABOUT THE TONGUE

Psalms 15:3
YAHWEH, who will abide in Your tabernacle?
Who will dwell in Your Holy Hill (Zion)?
He who walks uprightly,
And works righteousness,
And speaks the truth in his heart,
And does not backbite with his tongue…"

Matthew 12:36-37
"But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

James 1:26-27
If any among you thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless. Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

James 3:2b-12
If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body. Indeed, we put bits in horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body. Look also at ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires. Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things.

See how great a forest a little fire kindles! And the tongue is a fire, a word of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell. For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so. Does a little spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening? Can a fig tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh.

Proverbs 21:23
Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul from trouble.

SCRIPTURES ABOUT SOME OF THE THINGS BESIDES THE TONGUE THAT SEPERATE US FROM THE FATHER

Rev. 22:15
But outside are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.

Galatians 5:19-23
Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are:
Adultery,
Fornication,
Uncleanness,
Lewdness,
Idolatry,
Sorcery,

Hatred,
Contentions,
Jealousies,
Outbursts of wrath,
Selfish ambitions,
Dissensions,
Heresies,
Envy,
Murderers,
Drunkenness,
Revelries,
And the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is:
Love,
Joy,
Peace,
Longsuffering,
Kindness,
Goodness
Faithfulness,
Gentleness,
Self-control.
Against such there is no law.

THE WORDS OF THE MASTER

Matthew 5:44
But I say to you:
“Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, that you may be sons of your Father in Heaven.”

Legal Stuff: Copyright © 2004 by Rosie Lovejoy. Permission to distribute this material via e-mail, or individual copies, is automatically granted on the condition it will be used for non-commercial purposes and will not be sold.

Lion Of Zion XIII

Rosie Lovejoy

September 17, 2004

“WORSHIP IS A MYSTERY”

Every other Friday evening I meet with a group of women at a local church. We spend the evening in joyous worship. We began the evening by praying for Israel and the peace of Jerusalem. As we were praying the vision began. It wove in and out of the worship all evening.

I saw a beautiful deep blue Star of David. It floated into my field of vision. As we prayed, it became encircled with a sparkling gold, braided hoop. The hoop sparkled and flashed in the light. Then the Star of David began to spin clockwise within the glistening gold hoop.

Then I saw multicolored worship hoops moving through the air by some unseen hands. They were red and green, purple and gold, blue and silver, and many other colors. The hoops were dancing through the air, reflecting light. What a wonderful site to see!

As the hoops disappeared, I saw two swords fencing with each other. They were silver and sharp—thrusting and defending, thrusting and defending. Soon I saw the hands that were holding the handles of the swords. Both were gloved. They were sparing. The fencing appeared competitive and vigorous. I watched the swords sparring for a couple of minutes.

Then the picture became larger and I saw that one fencer was dressed in white, the other in black. Both fencers wore face guards so that I was unable to see their faces or tell their sex. The black fencer began to thrust and spar in earnest and it was no longer a fun game, but a deadly one. The black fencer began to jab and thrust viciously. The white fencer just laughed, like the old TV programs of Zorro. Zorro usually laughed in joy as he fought off his opponents. The white dressed fencer did the same.

Then I saw more and more black dressed fighters sneak in from other rooms and join in the attack of the white fencer. He continued to laugh with derision at his opponents.

Then I saw worshipers with flags and hoops, dancing as the two sides fought. Their dance was unconstrained and abandoned. (The verses from II Samuel concerning David’s undignified worship before YAHWEH came to my mind as I watched the worshipers.)

The fencers dressed in black kept trying to get around behind the single fencer dressed in white but were prevented by some unseen force from doing so.
Then I saw why they were unable to make any headway. Heavenly hosts were lined up behind the fencer, protecting his rear from attack. He/she was having so much fun sparring with the enemy! The black dressed fencer became frantic, calling in more and more fencers to join him.

Then I saw the Lion. He was watching the fencers, then watching the dancers. His head was turning back and forth, back and forth, watching one then the other.

As I looked carefully, I realized I was one of the dancers, with a green and gold hoop in one hand. The Lion approached me and I playfully placed the hoop with the green and gold streamers on his head. He chuckled, and I was relieved, as I suddenly felt very foolish

The room I was in became very still, as the presence of YAHWEH was so strong.

Then I saw dancers again, worshiping with all their hearts, dancing and twirling with hoops and flags and tambourines. We were dancing for joy in the spirit! It felt so good to worship in this way!

Then I saw a brand new, blue metallic mountain bike pulling a small, three wheeled, yellow trailer. The rider's back was to me, so I was unable to see his/ her face. (The trailer it was pulling is similar to the trailers that many parents use to pull their small children when they are out bicycling.)

This trailer was not filled with children, but with worship hoops, flags, tambourines, etc. I only saw the back of the rider as she peddled with all her might swiftly up a mountain path. The rider was wearing a helmet, so I really could not see any recognizable features. The flags were whipping in the wind, the hoop tassels were flying, the tambourines were jingling. It was a very colorful site! The rider was peddling very fast, and was in excellent physical condition. The trail was steep and rocky, and I was exhausted just looking at the steepness of the terrain the bicyclist was effortlessly climbing.

The bike was followed by worshipers, dancing and twirling, leaping for joy as they, too, climbed the rocky mountain path.

Then the Lion followed the worshipers with me on his back.

As we neared the top of the path, I saw a dazzling golden light. I dismounted, and the Lion bowed before the light. I, too, fell on my face. I had a gold and red hoop in each hand. The gold streamers on the worship hoop fell foreword towards the light, as if an unseen power gently pulled them forward, away from me.   As I prostrated before the golden light, I was covered gently with a white Israeli prayer shawl.

Then I saw the worshipers dancing before the light, and these words thundered:

IT IS A MYSTERY.

WORSHIP IS A MYSTERY.

WORSHIP IS A KEY THAT UNLOCKS MYSTERIES.

IT UNLOCKS DOORS INTO MY PRESENCE.

IT UNLEASHES ANGELIC HOSTS.

IT IS A MYSTERY.

And I saw an old, hammered iron cross slowly become an old-fashioned iron key.   The ancient key began to turn clockwise, and I saw dazzling, golden light too bright to look into.

Legal Stuff: Copyright © 2004 by Rosie Lovejoy. Permission to distribute this material via e-mail, or individual copies, is automatically granted on the condition it will be used for non-commercial purposes and will not be sold.

Lion Of Zion XIV

Rosie Lovejoy

“Worship Is A Mystery”
Part 2
October 1, 2004

This vision occurred during an evening of intense worship.

I saw a stairway going up into the Heavens. It was very narrow and very steep. There were no handrails on the stairs--nothing that one could hold onto for safety or balance.

The stairs were covered with multi-colored worship hoops. The pretty streamers were draped down from one stair to the other, covering the stair with slick streamers. The appearance was very beautiful. As I gazed at the stairway, I instinctively knew that I wanted to climb it, I needed to climb it. Yet it appeared very dangerous as the streamers were slippery, and there were no handrails.

A courage rose up within me and I began the climb, crunching the streamers below my feet. To my surprise, it was not slippery, but it still was very, very steep. I kept my eyes looking upward, and never once looked down. Up I went with the sounds of crunching beneath my feet. I climbed hundreds and hundreds of feet in this manner.

Suddenly the hoops ended and the stairs became white. They were still very steep. Gorgeous deep purple flags with gold ribbons and tassels appeared standing on either side of the narrow stairs. They were not moving, as the air was very, very still. I kept climbing higher and higher, yearning to reach the final destination.

And finally I found myself in a place of dazzling light. The floor was a shimmering, polished sapphire blue, with light bouncing off of it, like it was a mirror. There were red and green jewels reflecting light, and other jewels as well. Everywhere there was light!

And there was music! Beautiful worship music filled the air, and seemed to become the light as it moved about the dancers. For there were dancers, many, many dancers, worshiping and twirling, joyously with uninhibited abandon on the sapphire colored dance floor.

I joined the dancers, and began to worship with them. I danced and danced, ecstatic to be in this wonderful place, worshiping my Creator and my God.

As I danced I heard the familiar voice I so love to hear,

“THE ONLY SAFE PLACE IN THE DAYS TO COME IS HIGH, WITH ME.”

I turned my head and there was my favorite LION. I ran over to HIM and threw my arms around HIS neck, and snuggled my face into HIS mane.

The music continued, the worshiping continued all about me. I stood peacefully with my LION. One arm was draped over HIS shaggy mane, as we watched the colorful dancers and the light as it bounced off their costumes and the jewels that were everywhere. It was sooooo beautiful!!!!!

The LION of ZION turned to me and looked me in the eye. HE stated,

“I HAVE COME TO ESTABLISH MY KINGDOM.”

I watched the dancers and thought about how beautiful and lovely HIS kingdom is.

And then I saw something I _*NEVER*_ expected to see among the worshipers and the light. I saw the goat's head of Baphomet trying to materialize. It kept hazily appearing and disappearing, as if it could not be in such a place as this, yet arrogantly and boldly wanted to bring its stench into our presence. I was horrified!

Then the LION gently spoke into my Spirit things about witchcraft in our land, witchcraft in very high places of power, blatant and bold, there for any and all to see who have eyes and a willingness to see ….

Then He stated emphatically for all who would listen,

"THE BATTLE HAS BEGUN!
COME HIGHER INTO MY PRESENCE!
THERE IS SAFETY IN MY PRESENCE!
THERE IS PEACE IN MY PRESENSE!
COME!"

Then He walked to the edge of the dance floor, where there was only endless space and light. I followed HIM and gazed into an endless, whirling, lighted fog.

"I WILL SHOW YOU THINGS TO COME." He stated.

I saw scenes of great flooding, with people struggling with rising water as debris sped past them. The water was muddy and thick with tree limbs and other objects. They were struggling for their lives.

I saw bloody scenes of war, with wounded, writhing soldiers and civilians. Their screams of pain filled the air. It nearly broke my heart to see such needless suffering.

And then I saw volcanoes, spewing fire and lava, smoke and ash.

And then the most frightening site of all…..

I saw an army of women, marching in step. They were wearing camouflage uniforms with heavy, brown dusty leather boots. They had large military weapons. Their faces were fierce and stern. They terrified me! They meant business! The appearance of their uniforms clearly showed that they had been in battle. There was nothing about them that suggested anything but determination.

"Who are these women?" I thought.

As I watched the women move out, orderly and in step, obeying orders I was unable to hear myself, large purple flags appeared in one of their hands. The other was grasping a large military rifle I am unfamiliar with.

Again I asked myself, "Who are these women?"

The LION spoke,

"THIS IS MY BRIDE, FOR SHE IS PREPARED AND ARMED WITH PRAISE AND SHOUTS OF JOY.
SHE IS FEARLESS AS SHE ADVANCES MY KINGDOM AND MY LIGHT.

SHE BATTLES WITH KINDNESS*,
HUMILITY*,
SERVANTHOOD*,
AND LOVE.

AND SHE SHALL TRIUMPH.
HAVE NO FEAR MY CHILD, FOR I AM COMING.
EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU WAS BORN FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS."

The LION OF ZION turned HIS head and gently asked me,

"WHERE ARE YOU MY CHILD?"

"High and lifted up with you LORD." I replied.

"SO SHALL IT BE FOR MY WORSHIPERS," He stated.

"DID I NOT SAY THAT WORSHIP IS A MYSTERY?"

And then we came back and my LION became my Beloved, and I became a Bride and we danced on a sea of glass.

"I WILL PROTECT YOU.
I WILL KEEP MY BELOVED SAFE.

SHE WHO DWELLS IN THE SECRET PLACE OF THE MOST HIGH SHALL ABIDE UNDER THE SHADOW OF THE ALMIGHTY…."

Then I saw a long, green mountain range, with high mountains of rock and glaciers. I believe they were the Coastal Ranges from California through Alaska, but I cannot be sure. Many of the mountaintops became fiery red, one by one, as if they had been lit by some unseen hand. (I was reminded of someone lighting Birthday candles on a Birthday cake, one at a time.) I knew that these mountains had become active volcanoes.
I heard the words,

"I WILL LIGHT MY STRING OF FIRE AS I CALL MY PEOPLE HOME.
I WILL HAVE THEM KNOW WHAT IS TO COME."

The feeling that I received from HIS last statement was that this statement "as I call my people home" was not the Rapture. He is calling us to be in HIS presence while here on earth, as we go about the work of HIS kingdom. HE continues to remind me that HE outlined what is important in HIS kingdom in Scripture: the widows, the orphans, and the foreigners among us.

Legal Stuff: Copyright © 2004 by Rosie Lovejoy. Permission to distribute this material via e-mail, or individual copies, is automatically granted on the condition it will be used for non-commercial purposes and will not be sold.

Lion Of Zion XV

Rosie Lovejoy

THE ALTAR
October 10, 2004
By Rosie Lovejoy

This vision happened during a very anointed time of praise and worship at the local church I attend.

I saw a cross standing by itself, tall and strong. It was in a deserted place with large boulders and a scattering of high desert plants. The still air was permeated with a soft pulsating love. It enveloped the landscape, seeking out the dry and lonely crevices and gullies. Love literally wrapped everything in its tender arms.

Then I saw the head of the LION OF ZION, sitting before the cross. His love lit up His beautiful amber eyes, and a gentle, sweet love looked out at me through His gentle eyes. A crown of gold appeared on His head, sparkling with large, multi-colored, exquisite jewels.

I saw a gravel road wind its way to the cross, and instinctively I knew I was to walk the road towards my King and His cross. As I approached the road He spoke:

“MOST OF MY CHILDREN DON’T UNDERSTAND THAT THE JOURNEY BEGINS WITH THE CROSS—THERE IS NO OTHER WAY. EACH OF THEM MUST DIE TO SELF SO THAT I CAN LIVE THROUGH THEM.

THIS IS NOT OPTIONAL.
I AM NOT A FEEL GOOD GOD.
I AM A RIGHTEOUS AND LOVING GOD.
I AM HOLY.

Then a stone altar appeared under the cross, made of boulders and rocks piled on top of each other. He asked me to climb onto the altar and let my flesh die, to willingly sacrifice my life and my desires so that He might live through me.

I climbed onto the altar and prayed that my flesh would die upon this altar, that my will would be obedient to His will, that my tongue would somehow die and be silenced of all things that were not of and from Him.

As I was praying and repenting the LION walked over and looked at me lying on the altar. His face was level with my face, His eyes pierced into the depths of my soul.

"COME!" He commanded.

I found my Spirit rising from my flesh body. My flesh still lay on the altar, my Spirit Being was dressed in a gorgeous purple gown. On my head was a gold princess hat (or conical hat) with a white veil, like those worn by ladies in medieval times. I approached the LION and climbed onto His back. I looked back and saw my flesh lying lifelessly on the altar at the foot of the cross.

Again He spoke, "THE JOURNEY BEGINS AT THE CROSS, IT DOES NOT END THERE."

He turned and began striding down the gravel path. Again He spoke:

"WHEN YOU HAVE DIED TO SELF, THEN I CAN SEND YOU BACK TO A SICK AND DYING WORLD. YOU CAN BE MY HANDS AND MY FEET—MY EXTENSIONS OF MERCY.

OH MY CHILDREN, COME TO THE CROSS AND DIE, SO THAT YOU MAY EXTEND MY KINDNESS AND COMPASSION TO THE LOST AND LONELY.

YOU HAVE BEEN SOOOO DISTRACTED OF LATE. COME! COME!
I HAVE GREAT NEED OF SURRENDERED SERVANTS WHO WILL BE KNOWN FOR THEIR LOVE AND KINDNESS AND MERCY.

I NEED GENTLE ONES WHOSE TONGUES HAVE BEEN CRUCIFIED AND REFINED IN THE FIRE—WHOSE WORDS ARE WORDS OF LIFE TO THOSE WHO ARE DYING AND LOST."

As I road down the path on His back, we came to a place that overlooked a city. Smoke was rising from multiple places within the city.

He spoke again, "I AM NOT TAKING YOU OUT OF THIS WORLD.
I NEED YOU IN THE WORLD TO CARRY MY GLORY, TO CARRY MY MERCY, AND TO CARRY MY GRACE."

He continued carrying me towards the smoke and confusion as the vision faded away.

Look Past The Storm
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

Like a cool breeze I AM refreshing you. As you seek My face and not My hand, I will provide for you. Take My word deep into your heart and stand faithful for I AM calling you to be My end-time ambassadors of Truth to the nations. I AM calling you to remain faithful no matter what circumstances that you face.

These are the end-times, and you need to be able to stand, to remain firm without wavering, rejoicing that all things work together for your good. How do you know that you are faithful to My word unless you are tested?

I want you to examine your heart and your circumstances at this moment, and see what you desire most. Does your spirit cry out for more of My intimate presence or are you allowing your flesh to rule and reign because of temporary suffering? You have the choice to seek out that which will comfort the flesh or you can take your time to seek My face dwelling close to Me in My secret place.

Rejoice, My people, for I AM preparing you causing you to look to Me moment to moment for your comfort and strength. And as you seek My face, I will give you the wisdom to step out by My guidance to gather together all your needs.

So no matter what circumstances that you face, you can choose to give the devil a black eye by rejoicing in your heart that he cannot take My presence from you. Rejoice that no matter what the enemy tries to take away from you that you are going to turn around and rejoice and worship Me knowing that I AM faithful and that My word is true for I AM in control. Look to Me and see what I will do for suddenly I can turn it all around and multiply My blessings to you.

I promised the abundant life full of prosperity and health but you must dwell in Me with a pure heart. Bless others. Yes, lift your brother even over yourself. Commit all things into My hands. Let go and allow My ministry flow through you to prosper, for only those things you commit to Me will dwell in safety. I will only prosper the fruit of My hands, and all else I will destroy.

I send a warning out to the pastors to be truthful and do not scatter the flock for you will reap what you sow. In this time of testing I AM examining the fruit of the heart of man. Do not yoke yourself with the deeds of unrighteousness. Keep your heart and mind pure, and I will bless you, for I AM your everlasting Father and the true Shepherd of the flock.

I will gather the remnant under My wing and give them a time under My refreshing grace for the battle has been long and hard but you do have My victory. Use this time to be refreshed, for what the enemy means for harm I will turn for good.

Look Past The Natural
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

Sep 23, 2004
Things aren't what they appear to be. Do not look at the circumstances surrounding your situation but look to Me the author and finisher of your faith. Do not judge your situation as if you are losing the battle or not by how you are handling it. Do not judge it by saying you do not have the victory over it because you do not feel that you are overcoming through it the way you would like.

Don't you know that all things work together for your good because you are Mine, and all of your steps are ordered by Me? I am your loving Father, and I am concerned about your attitude that you have as you walk out your trials. Cast all your care upon Me for I care for you. Be anxious for nothing but in all things ask of Me and I will reply graciously. But remember that it is all in My timing will you see the answers to your prayers manifest for I am working in you endurance.

Let go and let Me have total control of what you face each day for I am stretching you and preparing you for mighty things to take place through you. Yes, I am preparing you so that I can do a mighty work through you for yes, these are the latter days, and I promised you that I would pour out the rain. An outpouring of signs and wonders and miracles I will do through you. So do not fret that you feel you are not overcoming the way you would like to be. Remember that I am in control of all things and let Me be the judge of your actions.

I lead you and guide you into all truth, and I deliver you always from the snare of the fowler. I cover you with a blanket of My glory. I engulf you in My grace, and I bless you with all good things because you are Mine. Look up for your redemption is drawing nigh. Yes, I am drawing you closer to Me and preparing you for My return for you are My bride and I embrace you with My love. Yes, I love you so and long for the time when we will be together in glory. It is sooner than you think.

Prepare your heart by examining your attitude towards others and toward what I allow you to go through. Refrain form murmuring and complaining. Count your blessings. Do not allow the enemy to rob you by focusing on the negative circumstances. Yes, count your blessings one by one and be grateful for I am your loving Father and I supply all your needs. Yes, even those things that might not be comfortable or pleasant at present. Look to Me and not to your own strength to endure for I am stretching you and preparing you. You are about to run your final stretch of the race and yes, it will be hard and the times will be treacherous, but keep My word in your heart and keep Me before you always.

Reach out to Me and I will keep you safe for I cover you with a multitude of angelic hosts that surround you always. Yes, they are assigned to lead you and guide you through the storm and protect you. Yes, I keep My promises for I am faithful. These are the latter days and you are My people, therefore, you are victorious. You are mighty warriors. You will overcome because I say that you will. Keep My word in your heart. Do not look at the circumstances because things are not what they appear to be. Now just trust Me, says your God.

Library Room of Heaven

Shawn Bolz

I was caught up into a trance in which I saw a vast library in heaven. The main room was divided into three sections: past, present, and future. It was a very busy place with angels and saints who had already entered into eternity. It was not like an earthly library where we try and stimulate a quiet somber attitude. It was a place of action! People were reading, writing, and discussing the material. I looked around trying to take in as much of the room as I could see.

The Book of Life

There was one book that was constantly referenced in the middle of the room. It was living and felt like it had its own consciousness because the power of what it contained was so intense. I would describe it as a computer that had the knowledge of the process of God's love in our temporal time frame. It was the Book of Life and there were angels and spiritual beings all around it. The pages rolled out like a scroll in many directions. I don't know how to explain how this worked but it was amazing. Scrolls of light beamed the information from the living pages into their hearts and imprinted on their spirits.

The Lambs Book of Life didn't just have names in it. It was the actual revelation of the testimony of Jesus and His reward. It categorized how He showed His love to everyone and who responded. Not only showing the bride's one time response but every response that each person individually had made towards His divine pursuit over their lifetime. It was the most amazing book ever written because it was being 'penned' by the glorious Holy Spirit at all times.

The Section of Library of the Past

When I could bring myself to look past this process I began to survey the various sections of the library. I first noticed the section on the past. I saw angels extracting books and bringing them to Earth and delivering them to people so that we would have wisdom and impartation from the past - what God has already done on the Earth.

I realized that these books were not like books on earth. They were actually prophetic revelation that when imparted onto the earth would act as an expansion to someone's very being. There were people who were given a book and it would inspire them to teach or write about great revivals of the past or spiritual happenings so the revelation of God that had already been revealed in other generations would be built upon- great truths of the past rediscovered. There were books written about men and women of God throughout history and various moves of God on earth.

As I watched this unfold, I saw numerous old historical documents beginning to surface on Earth that had been hidden away. Nevertheless it was now the prophetic time for them to be revealed. I knew this was an "end of the age" experience that proved we are living in the day of the Lord. The importance of what was being re-revealed, but with new and expanded comprehension, spoke of the Kingdom of God coming upon us. I could feel the magnitude of some of these testimonies that caused a deep yearning in me for Jesus to return.

Revelation of the Ages

There were also teaching books that angels were giving different people and they would rediscover teachings that had been all but lost or had never been fully developed! Very soon we are going to see an emergence of teachings that builds a much better context for us to understand Christian history and the different church ages as seen through the eyes of heaven. Revelation will come to many who will be able to interpret historical events and bring great light on societies of the past.

The Library Section of the Present

Then, I was brought to another section of books. I looked upon the section of the "present." In the "present" section there were spiritual beings sitting at tables watching the movement and impact of Heaven upon the earth and writing history with the Holy Spirit's interpretation as it transpired. Many times the books they were writing were also given to people on Earth. When individuals received these books they would be filled with understanding and wisdom about the state of the church and the condition of the world. It was giving them a global perspective of how Jesus was being revealed on the Earth and they would fellowship with His burning passion to inherit His reward. Again some people were furnished these understandings to be a trumpet to herald them through their teachings and the writing of books.

The Library Section of the Future

The last area I was brought to was the "future" section. There were divine guards set up and I wasn't allowed past them. I had to look from afar because I was not in heaven at this time to receive revelation from these books (to my disappointment). Most of the books had seals or locks on them. There were dates on the locks, and I knew that some of these books could not be opened for some time! But others were to be opened well in advance of the events taking place.

As I looked around there was a table skirting the boundaries of where I was not allowed to pass. At the table was a man reading a book from the future section and I walked up behind him and peered over his shoulder. However, he closed the book very fast and a seal appeared on the book as he got back up and placed it upon the shelf. He didn't say anything out loud but I felt a rebuke from him. The fear of the Lord touched me and I began to shake because I had acted with presumption. I almost came out of the trance but there was great mercy that flooded me for my immaturity. These were Holy books that represented the Kingdom touching the Earth and I saw two guarding angels over them. (Later a close friend of mine named Jill Austin called these "The Guardians of the Glory.")

The Future is Written In Heaven

Then as the mercy and love of God was warming me, a spiritual being came to me and motioned me to come into the section on the future. The guarding angels almost scared me too much to pass them, but this spiritual being had so much kindness I knew I would be safe. He brought me to the first of the many shelves of books that were closest to the middle of the Library. He stood next to me and pointed at different volumes

I looked up at the shelves and there were names on some of the books. I recognized many of the names he pointed out so I new they would be written in the near future. Some were the names of authors that I recognized, but others were the names of the books. We need to understand that although these were books in heaven they were not necessarily written books on earth yet. The names of the books were all either historical events, or God's moves on His church, while others were named after people and places. Few people were allowed to get near this section. If they did get near them, only a small number of books could be written because the seal was part of the heart of God that was too holy to touch.

A little bit of understanding hit me (I will not go into detail about this here, but will just say an example of what I saw was a book that said "The Testimony of George Bush" and it was a prophetic testimony of our own US President and works he would accomplish for God that will be written and published as an encouragement especially to the evangelical church). There were many such titles, and they had timing on them that when activated would be broadcast worldwide.

In This Library Room was Charles Finney!

After looking at many books, the spiritual being that was with me motioned me toward the center of the room again. He led me to stand next to some men who were already in eternity. One of the men was talking to two other men. I heard the Holy Spirit say "That is Charles Finney" and I grew excited inside! I haven't read much about Charles Finney, but there was the glory of our abiding God pulsating from him. His eyes were filled with the revelation of Jesus and the plans of God!

He was talking about revival and telling the two other men "What God did in my day was awesome, and many of us were privileged to experience great outpourings that are now looked upon as revival. But there is a release of glory from heaven coming that will bring such a complete revival to America that it will far exceed any revival ever known in any country."

America is Close to Revival

"The church in America is full of doomsday prophets proclaiming an end to America, but they don't understand that the country is only a few hundred years old and still in its infancy. It has many destinies to play out, and God is going to reactivate the covenants of the forefathers in the land, and America will start to grow and mature. God has both hidden and obvious purposes for America that will unfold over a long period of time and this coming revival is going to activate the plans of the Creator that were promises at the forefront of the nation's history." He spoke of a coming year and said: "This is a gateway year that will help build the gate from heaven to Earth. The Holy Spirit will whisper strategic things into the land through churches, music, media, events, and then soon these things will be shouted from roof tops!"

At this point I saw a calendar that had various years on it. There were 8 future years (not in succession) circled and names of cities next to different years. The first year only had a few major cities, but each year that was circled had more and more cities until there were too many to list. I could see a cloud off in the distance of this vast library, and I realized that it was a cloud of angels with glory swirling around it. It was the angelic host that would release these things on Earth. There was constant movement in the cloud. The scene was truly beyond description.

Charles' Message to Me

Then Charles Finney turned to me, (I didn't even know he knew I was listening), and he shouted at me face to face "One Nation Under God!" "One Nation Under God!" "ONE NATION UNDER GOD!" he said this ten times. Some kind of deep impartation came with his words and rested in the bowels of my spirit. I had a knowing that Jesus has an incredible plan to build the church in America and bring revival to the lost. He is going to bring a picture of His body all over the world through America! I knew that intercession was going to go forth on the Earth with new strategies for America.

I Saw a Vision of Holiness Hitting the Air Waves

I then saw the spirit of Holiness released from Isaiah 11. I saw it touching media and broadcasting services. I saw God ordained messages broadcast through the media waves into the earth. God is about to claim His ownership in radio stations, TV, and movie theaters. I saw that He wants a satellite that man has made by His inspiration. I saw a special anointing come on these tools to bring the message of holiness and the cross unto salvation.

After I saw the Holy Spirit change the atmosphere of the air waves with waves of His anointing hitting the media. I saw it cause power bursts that would literally destroy in the natural some of the secular equipment used by organizations of the world. There will be some days of disturbance that will hit multiple media centers and these will be signs that the Forerunner Spirit is going to come upon these very industries.

Commissioned Back to Earth

At the end of this vision I was looking at the Book of Life again. The spiritual being that had been with me in the Library Section of the Future came over to me once more. He had books in his hands and he started to push them towards me. I thought he was handing them to me so I stuck out my hands- instead he pushed them into me. As I took them in I was sent back to earth.

I was sitting in my chair and God spoke to my spirit saying "I am releasing books from every section to expand people! The Library room of heaven will be known on earth! It will bring a manifestation of my government being established. Many leaders will be visited and the difference in what comes forth in their communications will be evident."

Shawn Bolz
web site: http://www.whitedoveministries.org

Lighting the Path of Discipleship

Cindy Allen

Isa 19:11
11 The officials of Zoan are nothing but fools; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give senseless advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am one of the wise men, a disciple of the ancient kings"? NIV

The King James Version translates the use of the word "disciple" to "son".

Isa 19:11 11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellers of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? KJV

It is needful to read the entire 19th chapter of Isaiah because God is strongly addressing the ways of Egypt here. At the end of the chapter, Isaiah speaks that God will strike Egypt with a plague and then He will heal them. He goes on to say that there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria and finally, God calls Egypt His people and blesses them.

Isa 19:23-25 24 In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing on the earth. 25 The LORD Almighty will bless them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance." NIV

Earlier in the chapter, God speaks that He will turn those who will not yield to Him over to cruel Lords. This is a very distinct and very great contrast to those who lead as sons and disciples of Jesus Christ. In Matt 10:42, disciple is defined in the Greek as a pupil; a learner; to understand.

Matt 10:42 42 And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is my disciple, I tell you the truth, he will certainly not lose his reward." NIV

The Rewards Of Discipleship

What is this reward that Jesus is speaking of here? Doesn't He reveal discipleship to us through our own personal relationship with Him? We reap the rewards of a consistent flow of revelation of Christ where we continue as humble disciples (pupils and learners) in the Lord's presence ourselves.

As we nurture, nourish, and admonish those who God sends us to lead, so will we be led by the gentle Shepherd Himself. He is our Highway and in Him, He will continually reveal His ways to us that we may walk in understanding of the one we serve. It matters not that one has no understanding, no abilities, or that we are not polished. All of these things are given as we seek the Kingdom of God above all else and all of these things flow freely to us in the presence of the Lord that He may be glorified in the earth.

It is through the grace we extend to those we lead that allows us to minister in this same grace ourselves. In doing so, we make allowances to those we lead where grace is needed. Knowing that because we ourselves are face to face with the Lord Jesus, so will those we lead be face to face with Him. It is the presence and glory of God that conforms man without a word being uttered from our lips.

Why then are we called to make disciples of the nations? Why doesn't God just "do it" Himself in all of His power and glory? When the Holy Spirit moves to bring one in fellowship with another/others, the anointing immediately flows to cause one to relate to another/others through what THEY (those we are leading) are familiar with. This kind of familiarity is a good thing because it offers fertile (common) ground, in one's own "land" of understanding in which to apply the seed of the Word that is being offered through revelation. The Kingdom of God is revealed in this way, much like the parables reveal to us that we become partakers of God's Word through applying it to our lives. The harvest, or fruit, is the manifestation of Christ in our lives. He is the one we feed upon and in doing so we invite others to eat the food we partake of.

Through discipleship, we become partakers in that we are called to lead as we ourselves are being led. Discipleship immediately pulls us prophetically into the Father/Son order where the anointing flows to restore all things. The flow of anointing through discipleship causes us to experience the Word of God as Christ becomes manifest in our lives. All things in our personal life are restored as Christ Himself reconciles all things unto Himself. This means that through this order, the anointing of the Holy Spirit will move to bring the order that Jesus Christ and His rulership can be revealed through. The rulership of Christ being established in us and in our lives immediately releases us to reign with Him. Remembering that as Christ rules and reigns through being seated at the right hand of the Father, so are we seated with Christ in this same order. Disciples extend this Chain of Reign through linking with the nations (peoples) sent to them. All who are bound in the bonds of peace dwell in the love, liberty and peace of the Lord.

Matt 18:20 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

2 Cor 3:18 18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Grace, peace and liberty,

Cindy Allen

Sharing From The Heart
Cindy Allen

Ps 18:2- The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. 3 I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies. NIV

In all I have experienced in God, I believe that salvation is the greatest miracle of God to ever be revealed. Miracles are a wonder by themselves, but we become partakers in God's salvation. Salvation is not a one time experience, but an ongoing and ever increasing experience. It is a place where we stand at the helm of the ship shoulder to shoulder with God. We are to be gates of heaven who bring the Kingdom of God to earth. As long as there is ground to take, there will be obstacles to overcome.

The Hebrew definition for salvation used in this passage means:

OT:3468 yesha` (yeh'-shah); or yesha` (yay'-shah); from OT:3467; liberty, deliverance, prosperity:

KJV - safety, salvation, saving.

The obstacles we overcome cause us to abide in the liberty of the Lord and our prosperity comes in our safety in Him. Where we prosper in the Lord, we are increased in knowledge and understanding as we sow to spirit.

All that God leads us to overcome is for the purpose that we may dwell in dominion with Him in His creation. Until I began experiencing God in this way, I viewed creation as something that God had designed on His own. This is true for the natural creation we see, but there is the spiritual creation that parallels this. The spiritual creation I'm referring to is the Garden that we take part in through sowing the seed of God's Word that is given us. The fellowship that God so intensely desires with us is in this Garden. This is why He so jealously moves on our behalf to deliver us from anything that would cause us to associate to Him wrongly. Salvation redefines everything the world has taught us and empties us of all knowledge so that we only build on what is revealed to us.

Knowing this, it is no wonder why we experience greater intimacy with God during the storms of life. The winds of the Holy Spirit always blow us deeper into God's presence.

Lately I've began having dreams and visions of what appears to be an outside banquet. In one of my visions, I saw rows of tables being prepared outdoors and a few people were beginning to show up. Within the same vision, I saw pestilence and darkness beneath what was taking place above the ground. This spoke strongly to me to focus on the things that are of God and His purposes.

In the next vision, I could vaguely see the food that was being served. Of course, those who know me will understand this; it was colorful food. For those who don't know, the Holy Spirit has always defined His seasons to me through colors. More people were coming here in this vision.

The message I strongly felt from these two visions had much to do with directing our appetite to the things of the spirit. We discern the Body so that we may partake with and of the Body of Christ.

When what is before us could potentially be a stone of stumbling to us, it is oftentimes our own association to what we're seeing that would cause us to stumble.

Rom 9:33 "See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame." NIV

Where we don't have discernment, God is faithful to reveal all truths to us as we patiently wait on Him. Even where we learn that what we're standing in is not in agreement with the Truth that is being revealed to us, we find that God is faithfully revealing these things to us so we may turn our heart to Him. This is where He stands shoulder to shoulder with us at the helm of our ship and directs us to safely navigate through these waters.

In restoring us to His original purposes, God is not looking to bop us in the head in His judgments. If this was so, we would all be knot heads. God is seeking to turn us upright in all things so that we may prosper in our fellowship and relationship with Him. God's desire is towards building our faith through bringing us into dominion over all the earth.

Dan 7:13-14 13 "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. 14 He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed. NIV

Blessings to all,

Cindy

http://foundations.injesus.com/ "Foundations" is purposed to give expression to the present move of God as we practically incorporate God's Word into our lifestyle in a new level of fruitfulness in Christ.

Righteousness And Honor From God
Cindy Allen

Rom 1:17 For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith." NIV

Where God imputes His righteousness to us, His purposes immediately begin unfolding before us in a such a way to cause us to not only see, but to desire to follow the revealed path of Christ that laid out before us. God's righteousness causes us to identify His balances of justice so that we may walk accordingly. In rightly dividing, we are not only numbered with the saints of God, but we rightly apply the understanding we have of God's Word.

Just as Christ is revealed in every spirit that is of God, so is the righteousness of God revealed as a person through Jesus Christ. Of course Christ is revealed to us through our own personal relationship with Him, but we continue to experience how God is always revealing Himself to us in who He created us to be. God reveals Himself not only by opening our minds to who we are in Him (vision), but teaching us to apply the understanding given to us (equipping) that will allow us to experience Him (become) through intimately knowing His Word.

When Christ is formed in us, we abide within His patterns and sow according to this order. Seed is immediately brought into fruition so that we may witness and experience God honoring His Word (that has become) with greater provision. We no longer plant in dishonor and water with tears because the seed is Christ Himself. God's provision is the honor He gives that causes the life we are sowing to be multiplied back to us. We also benefit in the experience of seeing this same Life reproduced in others because it brings us into fruitful relationships enlightened in and joined by the Holy Spirit. There is a building up that takes place in our spirit that is experienced through the grace that flows in this fruitfulness. This grace flows through relationship and is not received by impartation through words or teaching. It is a God experience that becomes manifest between two or more people.

A tool that the Holy Spirit faithfully provides to cause these blessings to be continually activated in my own life comes through the knowledge of esteeming others above myself. When we nurture, protect and honor those that God has given us to teach and care for, we do so in secret and our acts are hidden from others. As with every precept learned of God, this order must be present in our own home because this Life is multiplied from the presence of Christ in relationships. In all that I continue to learn through the Holy Spirit as my teacher, God multiplies by people. The love and honor we sow into our family and children multiplies to other relationships to cause a greater harvest of Christ Himself to be imparted back to us. We are fed as it is given to us to feed others. We are blessed because we sow blessings into the lives of others. God honors the motives of our heart above our abilities and causes us to prosper in the things of the spirit that are not learned through the teaching of man.

We express the way we value others in the way we esteem or honor them. We do not honor others with the motive of receiving a prize from God, but with the motive that God's nature will be revealed to others to allow them to rise to maturity in the liberty of Christ.

Matt 6:1 "Be careful not to do your 'acts of righteousness' before men, to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. NIV

http://Foundations.injesus.com

Leaving The System

Joseph Herrin

This is from a discussion on Lighthouse Prophecy, the intro is by Clay Sikes

Jun 8, 2004

Dear List Members,

In light of our present discussions, I thought this submission to be extremely relevant.

Roger Franklin, one of our subscribers, has forwarded the following article which, I think, explains in the most accurate detail I have yet seen, WHAT BABYLON IS. The article is written by Joseph Herrin, and is taken from excerpts of a book he has posted at his website (shown below).

I have broken this timely article into two parts, as it is too long to be sent as one posting from InJesus. To those who know that "the system" is the 'Babylon' mentioned here, all the scriptural evidence you will ever need will be presented to guide you OUT OF THIS CORRUPT SYSTEM. Some will be surprised to find out where Babylon really exists.

Read and relish the revelation of this anointed word...Clay.

Dear Roger,

Thank you for writing and sharing your very encouraging words. I am blessed to know that the book "Babylon Burning" bears witness with you. In your e-mail you brought up a very excellent point.

You wrote:

Now a point I wanted to make, I've seen NUMEROUS exposes on Babylon, all of merit. What I have come to understand, came when I understood Rev.18:4, "how will people come out of her if they don't know what all Babylon consists of?

This is a point that has also been upon my heart from time to time. In Revelation 18:4 it says "Come out of [Babylon] My people", so it is evident that God's people have been in Babylon. I myself have been in Babylon. I was altogether born in Babylon, yet God has called me out. Interestingly, the name Zerubabbel means "born in Babylon", or "descended of Babylon". Zerubabbel was born in Babylon, yet at an appointed time God called him forth and led him to lead the work of rebuilding the temple of God that had been destroyed.

God will also call forth a people at this time from Babylon to rebuild the temple of living stones that has been in disrepair for so long.

Reading the story of Zerubabbel reveals much about the current state of the church. Zerubabbel led a remnant forth from Babylon even as the apostles led a group of people out of the Babylonian religious order of their day. They laid the foundation of the temple of living stones, but the work was interrupted even as it was in Zerubabbel's day. Zerubabbel and the people with him laid the foundation and then were discourage by opposition from completing the work. For sixteen years the work did not progress any further, and for nearly 2,000 years the church has gone no further than having the foundation laid which the apostles and prophets led the people in. Yet at this time God will stir up a remnant to complete the work that was begun.

Haggai 1:14
So Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God...God stirred up the spirit of those "born in Babylon", and the spirit of a remnant of the people. This is what will also be done in this hour as God is calling a people out of Babylon. They are being called out to perform a work, even the completing of the building of that temple of living stones whose foundations were laid 2,000 years ago. This is a glorious enterprise, and the Lord will surely be with this remnant to give them great success in this labor.

Regarding the identity of Babylon, I wrote of this in the book "The Road From Babylon To Zion". I will include an excerpt here:

Babylon

It is necessary at the beginning of this book to identify what Babylon is and what she is not. There is much confusion over the identification of Babylon, yet her identification is a very important matter. If Yahweh God is calling His people out of Babylon in this hour, (and He is), then His people must understand what they are being called out from. Some have supposed that Babylon represents a country or nation of the earth that fits some characteristic attributed to her in scripture. For example, Babylon is spoken of as a land of trade where "the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality" (Revelation 18:3). She is further described in this way: Revelation 18:11-13

"And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes any more -- cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and bronze and iron and marble, and cinnamon and spice and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and slaves and human lives... saying, "Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls; for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, stood at a distance, and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, "What city is like the great city?'"

Some have supposed that America must represent Babylon since it is the greatest consumer nation in the world. Yet others have argued that Babylon is New York City due to the scripture's repeated use of the word "city". If this were true, then coming out of Babylon would mean that the people of God who reside in either America or New York City must depart from these places. If Babylon were merely describing a physical location then simply changing one's place of residency would fulfill the command to "come out of her, My people" (Revelation 18:4).

It is true that there is much in America and New York City that are typical of Babylon, and undoubtedly there is a judgment and plagues reserved for all such places who have been given great light and have chosen instead to walk in darkness. But Babylon is not referring specifically to America, nor to her "queen city".

Some have supposed that Babylon refers to the actual Babylon of the Old Testament. The ancient city lies in the country of Iraq, and although it has been an uninhabited ruin for centuries, some have advanced the notion that Saddam Hussein is having Babylon rebuilt and that it will be populated once again. The ancient city is the site of much excavation and archaeological work today. But it will not be inhabited, nor will it rise to a glorious position such as she once knew in the world. The climate has changed. Bodies of water have dried up. What was once a fertile region is now a barren wasteland due to the judgment of Yahweh. Furthermore, we have Yahweh's word that the ancient city of Babylon will never be inhabited again.

Jeremiah 51:36, 37, 41-43, 61-64

Therefore thus says Yahweh, "Behold, I am going to plead your case And exact full vengeance for you; And I will dry up her sea and make her fountain dry. Babylon will become a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals, an object of horror and hissing, without inhabitants... How Sheshak has been captured, and the praise of the whole earth been seized! How Babylon has become an object of horror among the nations! The sea has come up over Babylon; She has been engulfed with its tumultuous waves. Her cities have become an object of horror, a parched land and a desert, a land in which no man lives and through which no son of man passes... Then Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "As soon as you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words aloud, and say, "You, O Yahweh, have promised concerning this place to cut it off, so that there will be nothing dwelling in it, whether man or beast, but it will be a perpetual desolation.' And as soon as you finish reading this scroll, you will tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates, and say, "Just so shall Babylon sink down and not rise again because of the calamity that I am going to bring upon her; and they will become exhausted.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

People imagine many vain things, but these scriptures should be sufficient to let all know that the ancient city of Babylon will not rise again as some mystical phoenix from the desert to once more ascend to glory. Yahweh's judgment on ancient Babylon is final. Her ruins stand now as a somber warning against spiritual Babylon and her impending judgments and plagues. She too will be broken beyond remedy, never to rise again. We must conclude that the Babylon of Revelation is not speaking of the ancient city being rebuilt.

Others have supposed that Babylon represents Rome and the Roman Catholic Church, and there is much to support this argument. The following scripture reveals more about the character of Mystery Babylon.

Revelation 17:5, 6, 9

And on her forehead a name was written, a mystery, "BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Yahshua. Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits..."

Untold numbers of saints have been martyred at the hands of Rome and the Catholic Church. Through Rome's influence many heresies and pagan practices have been mixed in with the worship of God until Christendom has become a corrupt mixture. Rome also sits on seven hills.

Many books and a myriad of sermons have gone forth proclaiming the Roman Catholic Church to be Babylon. Without a doubt there is a connection between Babylon and Rome, yet the Babylon of Revelation is more than the Roman Catholic Church. It is noted in the preceding scripture that Babylon is "the mother of harlots". Babylon has many daughters, and each one of these daughters is also Babylon. Some have argued quite convincingly that these daughters are the various denominations that populate Christendom today. Even within the denominations that have protested against the Roman Catholic Church (the Protestants), there is much of Rome left in them.

Entire books have been written to expose the false pagan practices that have become part and parcel of Christian practice today, both inside and outside of Rome. It is not just the Catholics that celebrate the Christ Mass on the historic date of the pagan festivals of Sol Invictus and Saturnalia. It is not just the Catholics that have kept the name and the date of the Spring fertility festival held in honor of the goddess Ishtar (Eostre, Astarte, Ashtoreth) which we know as Easter. It is not just the Catholics that have brought such devastation to the body of Christ by instituting the false divisions of clergy and laity. All of these things, and many more, are as typical of the harlot's daughters as they are true of the Great Harlot.

If we try to identify Babylon by her false practices, however, we will fail. These things are merely symptoms, and the outward trappings of Babylon. We must discover the root and the heart of Babylon to know how to truly come out of her. The saint could identify every false practice and every pagan influence of Babylon, and separate himself from all such things, and still not have come out of her.

We are getting much closer to the center of things in looking at Mystery Babylon's association to the Roman Catholic Church and Protestant denominationalism. If these entities represent Babylon, the Great Harlot, and her daughters, then the call to come out of Babylon is a call to flee from Catholicism and all denominationalism. Yet there are those who have come out of these and they are not yet free of Babylon, for Babylon at its heart represents a spiritual principle.

Let us examine one more example of that which people are identifying as Babylon in this day. This last example is also related to Rome and her heresies. Many are identifying Babylon today by outward measures, by forms of worship, forms of assembly, practices and traditions. Many are looking back to the manner and practice of the apostles and how things have deviated since those first meetings of the early saints. Certainly there is value in discerning these matters, but returning to a "New Testament form" does not insure one's departure from Babylon, nor does holding to what is considered a deviation from the original pattern mean that one is still in Babylon.

By way of illustrating what I am speaking about, some say that home churches are the model that was portrayed in the New Testament and that large gatherings and meetings in buildings dedicated to the gathering of the saints (church buildings) is a Babylonian device and it should be avoided. The truth, however, is that there are saints meeting in homes who are indistinguishable from those who meet in church buildings. The only difference is one of form. The true distinction between Babylon and Zion is one of the heart, and it cannot be measured or quantified or described and set forth by examining traditions, practices, or forms.

This is not to say that these things are unimportant, but leaving a fellowship of believers who meet in a church building to join others who meet in someone's home is not to be mistaken as journeying from Babylon to Zion. Neither is leaving a church that has pastors and deacons to go to a church that has a five-fold ministry of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers. Nor is leaving a body that meets on Sunday to join a group that meets on the traditional Sabbath which began at sundown on Friday. Nor is leaving a group that uses the names and titles God, Lord and Jesus to join a group that uses the names and titles Elohim, Yahweh, and Yahshua.

All of these matters should be examined, and we should ask the Father to grant us wisdom and understanding in them all, but these things do not mark the boundaries of Babylon and Zion. The Pharisees sought to conform to the letter of the Law and they had an appearance of righteousness, but Yahshua testified of them that inwardly they were full of dead men's bones. Even so, we can faithfully reproduce New Testament forms to the best of our understanding and still be considered citizens of Babylon. We should consider our Savior's words:

Matthew 7:21-23

"Not everyone who says to Me, "Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter. Many will say to Me on that day, "Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?' And then I will declare to them, "I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.'"

In this scripture we see a people who confess Yahshua as Lord and they are doing the very same activities that He did. Yahshua prophesied and so did they. Yahshua cast out demons and so did they. Yahshua performed miracles and so did they. Yet we have Yahshua's very pointed pronouncement, "Depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness."

It is not enough to conform to Christ in form, or even in action. We must have an internal conformity. Yahshua lived to do the will of the Father, and so must we. Yahshua never performed any of the activities mentioned of His own initiative. He only did what the Father commanded Him to do. Yahshua never walked in lawlessness, He was every moment surrendered to the governmental will of His Father in heaven.

There are many home churches today that are doing much of their own initiative. There are many fellowships that eschew pagan practices and that name the name of Yahweh and Yahshua, yet they are full of their own plans and ambitions. There are many local bodies of believers that have five-fold ministers and who seek to pattern themselves after New Testament forms, but they are still living out of the soul of man and making decisions apart from the Spirit of God.

Leaving Babylon requires much more than simply changing forms and practices that are outwardly observable. Undoubtedly, the people of Zion will stand out from the citizens of Babylon in numerous external ways, but the real difference is inward. To leave Babylon one must be circumcised in the heart. Babylon must be removed from one's desires and passions before one can journey out from Babylon.

Babylon and Zion have actually existed side by side throughout the entire history of the Scriptures. We see Babylon and Zion in the two brothers Cain and Abel. Both men brought an offering to Yahweh. Cain brought of the fruit of the earth, while Abel brought forth of the firstlings of his flock with their fat portions. We are told that God had regard for Abel's offering, but not for Cain's.

What was the difference between Cain's offering and Abel's that God would regard one and not the other? I have heard many vain things preached regarding this story, many saying that Cain did not bring the best of the fruit of the ground while Abel brought the best of the flock. But the scriptures do not say that Cain brought less than the best of what he had grown. I believe that he did indeed bring the very best of his produce from the ground. Why then did God despise Cain's offering?

The reason has to do with what the offerings represent. We can easily see that Abel's offering of the firstlings of his flock was in keeping with the offerings that Yahweh ordained should be brought before Him. The firstlings of the flock represent the Lamb who would be slain for the sins of the world, and we are told that "without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin" (Hebrews 9:22). Abel's offering found acceptance with God because it looked forward in faith to that spotless Lamb that would one day cleanse the world from all guilt and condemnation. The scriptures reveal that it was because of this faith that Abel's offering was acceptable in God's sight.

Hebrews 11:4

By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained the testimony that he was righteous...Cain, however, made an offering based upon his own works that did not look to the future atonement of Yahshua. After Adam sinned, the ground was cursed and produce came forth by the sweat of man's brow. It was the fruit of his own sweat and labor that Cain presented to God as an offering and God was not impressed. Babylon always seeks to ascend to God through its own works and to thereby find acceptance and approval. Cain made an offering of the best that he had, and I am certain he was proud of the quality and quantity of the fruit. He thought, "Certainly God will have regard for my offering", but God did not.

By works of the flesh no man will be justified before God. Justification is only by faith in Yahshua and HIS FINISHED WORK. This is actually the key distinction between Babylon and Zion. Babylon initiates great works and then asks God to bless them. Babylon has the appearance of great industriousness and her progress seems evident to all. But Babylon's works are the works of man. Babylon may be doing the same kind of works that Yahshua performed, but she is doing them as she sees fit, not by command of God. Babylon is not Spirit directed, she is soul directed.

The soul of man devises many plans that seem noble and right and which find the approval of others. As we saw earlier, some of these activities include prophesying, casting out demons, and performing miracles. These activities also include feeding the hungry, proclaiming the gospel, building ministries with noble sounding purposes, and the list could go on and on.

The majority of the saints have been taught to judge things according to sight. If they observe a man casting out a demon they judge such a one to be righteous and holy and pleasing to God. If they see a person performing an authentic miracle they conclude that this person certainly bears the stamp of God's approval. If they see a person operating a charity to care for the poor, they will also assume that it must certainly be of God. Yet Yahshua said that "many" would come to Him in the day of judgment and proclaim that they did such things in His name, but He will deny even knowing them.

This is a large part of the trouble of coming out of Babylon: Babylon looks good on the outside. This is the same struggle that those who followed Messiah faced when He said, "Unless your righteousness exceeds that of the Scribes and the Pharisees, you can in no wise enter the Kingdom of Heaven." The Pharisees looked good. They prayed. They fasted. They tithed of all their substance. They meticulously kept the Law... Yet, they were relying on their own works to gain approval before a holy God.

Yahshua told the story of the Pharisee who stood proudly in the Temple and looked with disdain at the tax collector who was on his face before God. The Pharisee pompously prayed, "I thank you God that I am not like this sinner." Yet Yahshua said the sinner went home JUSTIFIED while the Pharisee found no regard before God. The sinner threw himself on the mercy of God, offering no works, making no bargains, pledging no promises, trusting wholly to the character of God to deliver him. He simply asked for mercy and he believed God would be merciful.

The paradox today is that it is often the most righteous looking people who are the chief citizens of Babylon for they are working hard to find approval before God. They are striving laboriously to appear righteous. Many a minister has spent his entire life working to find the approval of God and of men, and he has yoked the people who follow him to the same burden of works. They may accomplish many remarkable things, but before God it is all striving and dead works for they are not born out of faith in the completed work of Christ.

As the Galatians who began in faith and then tried to continue in works, such ones have become severed from Christ and He has become altogether worthless to them.

Looking at a church externally, how can you tell which ones are of Babylon and which are of Zion? They may both be performing the same activities, but one body is striving to be judged as righteous, while the other is resting in the knowledge that in Christ, Yahshua the Messiah, they are already righteous. One is seeking to overcome the flesh, the world and the Devil by imitating the works of Christ, the other realizes that Christ has already overcome all and they are in Christ and He is in them. One body is expending their very life to be approved before God, and the other proclaims that they have died and their life has been hidden with God in Christ Jesus, Yahshua the Messiah.

These are things that are not easily quantified and observable, but Babylon is living life from a point of striving to be approved before God and man while Zion is resting in the life of the Son. Zion is a people of faith.

Perhaps nowhere is this identity of Babylon seen more clearly than in the judgment that was brought upon Judah and Jerusalem when they were given over into the hands of ancient Babylon. The duration of Judah's and Jerusalem's captivity was prophesied to be seventy years. This time period was arrived at based on the number of years that they had failed to let the land know its sabbath rests.

Every seven years Israel was commanded to not till the land, nor plant, nor harvest. They were to let the land enjoy a sabbath, an annual rest. They should have taken a lesson from Cain. "Give it a rest Cain. God doesn't want your sweat and your labor. He wants your faith." Even so, the people of Israel were commanded to demonstrate the principle of rest and live by faith every seventh year. They were to trust God to provide everything they needed. But man has a problem with faith. Man wants to trust in his own works to carry him through.

Judah and Jerusalem had not given the land a rest in 490 years. This means the land had missed seventy of its sabbaths. As a judgment against their lack of faith Yahweh had the people carried away into captivity and for seventy years the land knew rest. For seventy years there was no one to till and to plant and to harvest.

II Chronicles 36:20-21

Those who had escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and to his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia, to fulfill the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. All the days of its desolation it kept sabbath until seventy years were complete.

This is the difference between Babylon and Zion. Babylon is a land of works where man must accomplish every task and fulfill every mandate. Babylon knows nothing of rest and faith. Oh yes, Babylon speaks very much about faith, but it is a faith that is rooted in man's ability. Babylon's faith is founded upon man's ability to envision some end and to see it through. Babylon is built with blueprints, and planning sessions, and organization, and fund drives, and pep rallies, and the sweat of untold men and women.

This is why when all is said and done and some project has come to completion, the people of Babylon feel justified to stand and proclaim:

Daniel 4:30

"Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built... by the might of my power...?"

Zion, however, is not seeking to build anything of her own will and initiative. Zion is a people of faith. Zion knows that salvation is of the Lord, as is sanctification, and as is glorification. Zion does not labor to build a city, for she seeks a city not built with hands whose builder and maker is not man, but God. Zion does not seek to work for the approval of Yahweh, she works because she is approved by Yahweh.

Zion is a city of rest. This does not mean that those who are of Zion are doing nothing, it means that they are doing nothing of their own initiative. They are doing those works that God prepared beforehand for them. They are not dreaming up their own works, nor are they stretching out their hands to labor in fields to which they have not been sent. Austin Sparks made this very enlightening comment:

Thus it was that we were turned in that dark hour to Romans chapter six, and, almost as though He spoke in audible language, the Lord said: 'When I died, you died. When I went to the Cross I not only took your sins, but I took you. When I took you, I not only took you as the sinner that you might regard yourself to be, but I took you as being all that you are by nature; your good (?) as your bad; your abilities as well as your disabilities; yes, every resource of yours. I took you as a "worker", a "preacher", an organizer! My Cross means that not even for Me can you be or do anything out from yourself, but if there is to be anything at all it must be out from Me, and that means a life of absolute dependence and faith.'

At this point, therefore, we awoke to the fundamental principle of our Lord's own life while here, and it became the law of everything for us from that time. That principle was: "nothing of (out from) Himself", but "all things of (out from) God".

The Son can do nothing of (out from) Himself, but what He seeth the Father doing: for what things soever He doeth, then the Son also doeth in like manner' (John 5:19).

"I can of Myself do nothing: as I hear I judge" (John 5:30). "My teaching is not Mine, but His that sent Me" (John 7:16). We saw that this explains so many strange and - naturally - perplexing things in His behavior: acting and refusing to act; going and refusing to go; speaking and refusing to speak. Later, we came to see that this is the whole meaning of life in the Spirit, and that it is an altogether different life from the natural ways of men, even of Christian men. At the time of this seeing, it was a matter of this law becoming basic, absolute, and ultimate, and it was something totally different from what had been in all our ideas and activities in Christian life and work.

Yes, those who are of Zion are to be emptied of self, both that which they consider bad as well as that which they consider good. Zion is to live out the words of Paul:

Galatians 2:20

"I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me."

Babylon seeks to perform godly works through human industry and effort. Babylon asks the question, "What Would Jesus Do?", and then it tries to perform that action in the power of sinful flesh. Zion, however, sees self as crucified with Christ and Christ now living in and through them. As one brother has stated, Zion says, "Watch What Jesus Does!"

We have seen that Judah and Jerusalem were given over to Babylonian captivity until the land could receive its seventy sabbaths that it had been denied. The issue of rest is the most critical distinction between these two cities. By faith in the work of Messiah Zion enters into rest. Due to unbelief Babylon endures ceaseless striving and fails to enter into the sabbath rest of God. Babylon's works are birthed in the mind, will, and emotions of man. Many of these works appear noble and some are even supernatural in nature. But due to the corrupted source from which they arise all such works are rejected by God. Many of the works of Babylon are in direct opposition to Zion and her citizens.

Yahshua said the day would come when people would kill His disciples and think they were doing God a favor. Such is the end result of the polluted well that Babylon drinks from. In the name of God and His Christ millions of saints have been martyred in the past 2,000 years. This is the work of Babylon. What a shock is in store for these who will stand before Yahshua and say, "Did we not kill the infidels and heretics in Your name?" He will reply, "When you did it to the least of these My brethren, you did it unto Me."

Perhaps now you can see more clearly why Zion and Babylon cannot be identified merely by external measurements. Tares and wheat look much alike until they bear fruit. I know some would like to have a rule of thumb to be able to tell Babylon apart from Zion. Such rules are hard to come by, but one indicator I will give. Zion is a people of faith, while Babylon walks by sight and reason.

Example after example could be given of personal encounters I have experienced with ministers and churches who would not walk by faith. When the test comes then hearts are exposed. Yahweh will press His people forward into realms of faith without exception. We are told that "without faith it is impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11:6). The people of Zion will go forward in faith "not loving their lives unto the death" while Babylon will shrink back.

Yes, there are many other things which characterize Babylon: her sensuality, her pride, her idolatry, her love of the world and the things in it; her persecution of the saints; her pagan practices; her heresies; her false forms and traditions, but all of these are the result of her lack of faith in Yahshua and her failure to enter into rest. This is the land that the people of God are being directed to come out from.

Babylon is many places. Babylon is America and New York City. Babylon is the Roman Catholic Church and her many denominational daughters. Babylon is all of these and more. The call to come out will impact each child of God in different ways, but the Spirit will lead all who have ears to hear.

Like Abraham who left Ur of the Chaldees to go to a land of promise he had never seen, so too are many today being called out in this hour. Abraham had to leave family and friends behind, and so too must many of those today. When Yahweh calls, we dare not disobey. We must gladly entrust ourselves into His care. It is a good and a prosperous land set before us. Yahweh's delight is in the people of Zion. As Moses said to the people of Israel when they left another land of captivity:

Deuteronomy 6:23

He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to our fathers.

The land before us is Yahweh Himself. He is our inheritance and our portion in the land. The heritage of Zion is beautiful and lovely beyond compare. May the way before you be made plain and may you know His presence as you journey along the way.

May you be blessed with peace and understanding in these days,

Joseph Herrin

Dear Saints,

I have been able to post the new book "Babylon Burning" to the Heart4God website. I have not yet posted the downloadable version. I will do so as soon as I am able. The online version is posted and can be viewed at the following link: http://heart4god.8k.com/id478.htm.

I feel that the message of this book is very urgent and I would like to encourage you to share this link with others, and encourage them to share the link as well. This request is given in light of the following Scripture passage:

Ezekiel 33:6
"But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet and the people are not warned, and a sword comes and takes a person from them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require from the watchman's hand."

I do see a sword coming, and I am sounding the alarm. Would you be willing to do the same? If so, please share this link with others. If you have not already done so, I would encourage you to look at the photo essay at the beginning of the book. It can be viewed here: http://heart4god.8k.com/id495.htm.

An Introduction has also just been written which can be viewed at the following link: http://heart4god.8k.com/id480.htm. All the other chapters are taken from articles that have been previously sent out, but which are worth another look if it has been some time since you have read them.

May you be blessed with peace and understanding in these days,
Joseph Herrin

Listen To The Signs
Sandy Warner

Mar 15, 2004
You have just gone through a difficult time of many challenges. I use everything in your life and this time was not lost. I AM rejoicing that your choices are lining up more with My heart and Word than ever before. You have properly interpreted the signs, and are beginning to align yourself on My road, keeping your flesh subservient to Me. This is maturity as you learn obedience and walking in My Spirit. Great fruit and opportunities shall arise from these new habits, for I will be able to entrust you with more.

"He who is faithful in a very little [thing] is faithful also in much, and he who is dishonest and unjust in a very little [thing] is dishonest and unjust also in much." (Luke 16:10 AMP)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Dissolve Slowly, Don't Chew
Sandy Warner

Mar 19, 2004
Occasionally I give you Words that are too hard to chew and too large to swallow. I already know how you will receive these. Therefore, I bring this overload in many colors and sizes, and give them a sweet taste. They circle your life like a giant jaw breaker machine. You put your request in for a Word, and it comes forth from heaven in a spiraling cascade, circling your life over and over again. Finally this weighty and colorful Word comes out of the slot and it is so large, all you can do is suck on it a bit at a time. This may be different than what you are used to, dear one, but your place is to ask, then allow Me to answer in the best possible way. I know what is a good and perfect gift and I know the exact amount of time it will take for you to digest what I have sent.

"These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ." (1 Corinthians 2:13-16 NKJV)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Do Not Bow To Intimidation
Sandy Warner

Mar 16, 2004
[Close The Door to Fear and Keep Your Focus on the Lord]
EXPERIENCE: While I was trying to rest, a dog in the neighborhood was loose and barking incessantly. I started binding the spirit of distraction and unrest in the dog. Because it was so disturbing, I discerned it was a spiritual plant.

HEARD: Grounded.
[The same exact instant I heard grounded, the dog stopped barking.]

Luke 10:18-19 NLT
"I saw Satan falling from heaven as a flash of lightning! And I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk among snakes and scorpions and crush them. Nothing will injure you.

QUICKENED MEMORY: We had several instances of being attacked by a spirit of intimidation this week. I won't go into the details, but these were attacks intending to produce fear. This reminded me of a past Word to Ponder about rebuking spiritual dogs of intimidation:

WORD TO PONDER: REBUKE THE DOGS
I speak a hedge of protection around My own. The dogs of intimidation are loud. Rebuke them or ignore them, but do not fear them. Think of the positive side; you must have caused alarm for them to bark. If you wonder about your direction, remember as you grow closer to Me and follow My path, you cause enemy distress. If you are sleeping, they will too.

Release worry from your brow. It does not belong in your life. Rise above the rumble and walk in My rest. Command those dogs into obedience with the rod of My Name. Be strong and of good courage. Stand in defense and walk in faith.

Ps 22:19-22 NKJV
But You, O LORD, do not be far from Me; O My Strength, hasten to help Me! Deliver Me from the sword, My precious life from the power of the dog. Save Me from the lion's mouth and from the horns of the wild oxen! You have answered Me. I will declare Your name to My brethren; In the midst of the assembly I will praise You.

HEARD: Catalina.

INTERP: This was the Lord's funny pun. I laughed out loud when I heard Him say that. Catalina is the name of a salad dressing. The Lord knows that just about the only joke I can remember is this one: "What is the honeymooners favorite salad?" "Let us alone." (Lettuce alone) Catalina is a pun for "Dear Cat, lean on the Lord (and don't bow to intimidating dog barks!)" That was exactly how I had been feeling listening to the dog bark. I wanted to be left alone so I could be at rest and commune with Him. He has a wonderful sense of humor.

HEARD: Grace. To possess the spoils of war. Share your gifts. Don't stop. Keep going. Ascend.

HEARD: The devil. Enemy trying to break through. Hedge. What needs to happen. Stand. Giant. Name of it, Intimidation.

WARFARE: The hedge was lifted and I fought against a spirit of intimidation. When done, I woke Wayne and we prayed together. I went back to sleep in peace.

HEARD: Dog intimidate. Don't give even an inch. Be bold. It will get you where you want to go. Results. Flee. God has His eye on you.

DREAM: I saw a large group of people getting ready to minister. They were encircling those inside the circle that needed ministry. There was also a small single straight line of people outside the outer circle facing a field of opposition.

The confidence of the people getting ready to minister began to wane as they turned around and saw the opposition. I warned them several times, "Get your eyes off the enemy and back onto the Lord! Get your eyes off the enemy and back onto the Lord!"

I also told this to the people who were lined up with their backs to us. One turned around and argued that the Lord had positioned them there as intercessors. They were sitting in chairs facing the opposition and all they were doing was being decoys by bouncing things back and forth in warfare. I felt that if they were intercessors they would have had their eyes and focus on the Lord and not on the opposition.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: DO NOT BOW TO INTIMIDATION
As I send you forth into times of ministry, understand that conflicting forces aggressively challenge with obstacles, hindrances and curses to oppose your freedom. You may feel intimidation and oppression in the air. These things are in the air 24 hours a day. I promise you that when I send you forth to minister, if your eyes are on the opposition, your confidence will wane and you will feel My anointing ebb. The entire scheme of the enemy is to distract you away from Me, to get your eyes off of Me and onto conflict, and thereby dropping your shield of faith. As long as you keep your eyes on Me, your faith will be strong and joyful and My Presence will have free reign in your ministry times.

"For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News, so that you will be fully prepared. In every battle you will need faith as your shield to stop the fiery arrows aimed at you by Satan." (Eph 6:15-17 NLT)

"Ears 2 Hear" are excerpts from the rhema journals of Sandy Warner. To better understand how God speaks, read Sandy's book, "101+ Ways God Speaks, And How to Hear Him." ~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com ~ Email: swauthor@usa.net ~ Permission to forward and/or post at websites is given with this footer included.

Finding Your Peace
Sandy Warner

Mar 18, 2004
[Open The Door to Peace]
I had come to a crossroads in my ministry. Even before the actual cross road came, I had been praying about it for many months. I knew this was a time for doors to open. However when a door was actually presented to me, this door could be interpreted both ways. The enemy wants us to go through doors that will veer us off course, so we need to pray diligently to know which doors to close. When we are at a cross road, this is important for our destiny. I waited upon Him, but even with input, I still could not decide whether this opportunity was the door of the Lord. After a few days of thinking through the details, I had totally, 100%, lost my peace.

VISION: I was opening up these little wooden mail boxes. They were stacked one on top of the other, each with its own door. Inside each was a different pair of shoes for different people. The boxes had a label called PEACE.

HEARD: Until we can walk in peace. That's My point. Rest.

Eph 6:15 KJV
And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

This was the Lord's answer to me, that unless I could walk through a door of opportunity in His peace, I was not prepared and needed to rest and wait upon Him instead. He told me that the first door would come again later and He would multiply its influence for my waiting. As it turned out a second door opened that was similar to the first opportunity. I had wonderful peace in walking through and the Lord strongly confirmed my decision. However He told me not to compromise my anointing or focus in which He had called me. I was to stay within the boundaries He had already made known to me. When we walk into new places there is a tendency to get carried away in the flow. His peace will be our safeguard and barometer.

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: I listened to a tape from Rick Joyner and he mentioned that the scripture didn't say the God of warfare or whatever will crush satan under our feet, rather it says the God of peace does this. We need to recognize that walking in peace is actually a weapon.

Rom 16:19-20 NKJV
I want you to be wise in what is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly.

NOTE: I went to bed to rest in His Presence. I had an ache in my heart from empty nest. Our son had just moved away to go to college.

HEARD: Divine appointment. Peace.

DREAM: I was desiring to float in a little pool so that I could rest and relax. I noticed that my shoes were in the pool and they were floating just fine. Shoes represent my peace.

HEARD: It felt so good to rest with Papa. He misses me like I miss my son.

HEARD: Make it plain to her. Intimacy.

HEARD: Shoed with peace.
VISION: I saw 2 glue bottles.
HEARD: Bonded.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: WALK IN PEACE
I want to establish your walk with peace. Without My peace, it leaves the door open to enemy onslaught. Listen to this practical barometer gage I have placed in your heart. I have given you this gift so that you will know the way to go even when the way seems obscure and not clear. If you have lost your peace, pull back, close the door and return to rest in Me.

I so long for our times of intimate fellowship, where you pour out your heart to Me and then listen to Mine for you. As you learn to lay aside all unrest of heart and soul, it closes the door to unrest and opens the doors for our special times of communion. It is in this place of bonding that you become established in My peace.

Even as I glue the soles of your shoes, so I also bond your walk in Me with My peace. My peace gives you a firm foundation that not only takes the shock out of the bumps in life, but also makes you stable. So, trust Me to give you the peace you need to walk without fear. Trust Me that My Word over your life is a good gift and good news.

"For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News, so that you will be fully prepared." (Eph 6:15-16 NLT)

"How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news of peace and salvation, the news that the God of Israel reigns!" (Isa 52:7-8 NLT)

"Ears 2 Hear" are excerpts from the rhema journals of Sandy Warner. To better understand how God speaks, read Sandy's book, "101+ Ways God Speaks, And How to Hear Him." ~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com ~ Email: swauthor@usa.net ~ Permission to forward and/or post at websites is given with this footer included.

Preparing For The Next Phase
Sandy Warner

Mar 17, 2004
In this season many ministries are in the birthing stool position preparing for their next phase of expansion. I will grant an enlargement of financial provision as they trust Me through their graduation into the stretching forth their tent stakes. I AM coming with an abundance of rain.

"Then Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain." So Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; then he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees, and said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." So he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And seven times he said, "Go again." Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, "There is a cloud, as small as a man's hand, rising out of the sea!" So he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot, and go down before the rain stops you.'" (1 Kings 18:41-44 NKJV)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Lifting The Veil
Deborah Voetberg

Lifting The Veil ~ Setting Captives Free

Jun 25, 2004
Have you become frustrated in your attempts to bring truth to those you love only to have them turn uninterested or change the subject or to say once again " Don't preach to me." ? Do you walk away shaking your head wondering why they can't hear and just don't get it? What has happened is you have forgotten they are covered by a veil.

Here is a quote from The Living Bible, 1 Cor. 2:14-15, "But the man who isn't a Christian can't understand and can't accept these thoughts from God, which the Holy Spirit teaches us. They sound foolish to him because only those who have the Holy Spirit within them can understand what the Holy Spirit means. Others just can't take it in."

In 2 Cor 3:12-15, we read that Moses put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look at the glory that was passing away. But that veil is still on those who do not receive the truth of Christ, because the veil is only taken away through believing in Christ! Eyes and hearts are blind and we find many who would rather believe a doctrine of works than the truth of grace. When you find this in the hearts of those you are trying to reach you need to recognize the veil that keeps them blind and deaf.

Our approach need not be to hit people over the head with the bible and beat them into submission. It's not 'obey the word of God or die'! We are to tell them there is life for them in Christ, and He has given us the Holy Spirit to live that life in truth! It's not the old glory we preach that was passing away but the new glory that will never pass away! This we preach with great boldness!

It's all about getting the veil of deception lifted off of their hearts and minds! If anyone will turn from their sins and repent the veil is taken a way. Christians are to have no veil over their faces, but to mirror the image and glory of God to the world. As the Lord works more and more in our surrendered lives, we mirror more and more of Him to the world.

The word of God is only hidden from those who are lost. Satan keeps them blind, unable to see the truth and understand. The wisdom and doctrine of this world is the veil that Satan uses to keep men blind, unable to understand the truth hidden from them.

How The Church Lifts The Veil

We find an example of lifting the veil in 2 Cor 10:1-6.

Paul pleads with the Corinthians concerning the strife, contention, and division over leadership...his. He pleads with them gently... referring to the complaint that he is bold while away, but will be fearful and weak to their face...saying that he has no desire to come harshly and rough and does not want to carry out his present plans against those who think his words are only those of a mere man. Then he reveals his method to deal with their blindness.

He doesn't use human plans & methods to win his battles and knock down the strongholds of Satan in the minds and thoughts of people. The weapons he uses are Gods' mighty weapons able to pull down every proud argument against God and break every wall (stronghold) built that keeps men captive. With his weapons of warfare he is able to capture every rebel heart and bring back every thought to the obedience of Christ. He informs them that he intends to win this battle and will deal with all other disobedience when their thoughts and hearts have been brought back under the obedience of Christ.

There was no doubt in Paul's heart in the accomplishment and effectiveness of God's mighty weapons!

Here are some definitions of what we are discussing.......

Weapons: NT:3696 ~ hoplon (hop'-lon); (especially offensive for war): KJV - armour, instrument, weapon.

Mighty: NT:1415 ~ dunatos (doo-nat-os'); from NT:1410; powerful or capable NT:1410 dunamai (doo'-nam-ahee) KJV - be able, ability of power. Outward expression of power. Power in action.

Pulling Down: NT:2506 ~ kathairesis (kath-ah'-ee-res-is); from NT:2507; demolition; to demolish, extinction: KJV - destruction, pulling down. To tear down with violence.

Stronghold: NT:3794 ~ ochuroma (okh-oo'-ro-mah); meaning to fortify, through the idea of holding safely; a castle (opinion- argument): KJV - stronghold.

Imaginations: NT:3053 ~ logismos (log-is-mos'); from NT:3049; computation, reasoning, conceit, pride. KJV - imagination, thoughts. NT:3049 logizomai (log-id'-zom-ahee); to take an inventory, speculation KJV - conclude, despise, esteem, impute, lay, number, reason, reckon, suppose, think (on)

Casting down: NT:2507 ~ kathaireo (kath-ahee-reh'-o); from NT:2596 and NT:138 ; to lower (or with violence) demolish. KJV - cast (pull, put, take) down, destroy.

Pulling down ~ Knocking down...

Imaginations...speculation...calculated reasoning...deep reflection...consideration of the mind...opinions...judgments rendered...beliefs systems...thought patterns...ways of thinking...philosophies of life...high prideful thinking...self-exaltation ~ that have been formed over time in the unbeliever.

Identify every thought and stronghold that is blinding those you love.

Setting Captives Free

Ask the Lord to show you what keeps those you love blinded.
Speak against it, call it by name and tear it down!
God will release His power against it. It will be demolished!
Take captive every evil thought sent their way.
Take captive every evil scheme and evil plan.
Bind their thoughts to the mind of Christ.
Set them Free to Hear...Lift the Veil!

Great Grace!
Deborah

Lift Up Your Eyes Toward Heaven
Ching Co

September 28, 2004

Today, during my Bible reading time, the Holy Spirit quickened these words to me from Isaiah 55:8,11 (New Living Translation), "My thoughts are completely different from yours, and my ways are far beyond anything you could imagine...It is the same with my word, I send it out, and it always produces fruit. It will accomplish all I want it to, and it will prosper everywhere I send it."

As I was meditating on these words, I saw in my mind a multitude of God's people, and in their minds/hearts they were asking/thinking about these thoughts: "Does what I do really matter?? Am I making any difference at all??" Each one of these saints were enclosed in a bubble.

At this point, I felt a quickening in my heart and sensed the Lord speaking these impressions to me:

"Yes, what you do in obedience to me matters. Its effect goes beyond the sphere of what you can possibly think or even imagine. It is destroying strongholds and breaking down spiritual barriers, preparing the way for My Spirit to move in greater measure."

"Your Prayers and Love are Affecting Not Only Your Own..."

Pictures of people flashed through my mind. Parents loving and praying for their wayward children. Husbands and wives living with difficult spouses as they continued to love them/submit to them as God has led. Pastors and ministers crying out for their sheep and spiritual wards. Spiritual children crying out for their pastors. All types of people carrying difficult burdens, living under difficult circumstances, all crying out to God while doing the best they can in response to God's leading where they are now. All feeling tired, vulnerable, and wondering if their situations will ever change, if their prayers will ever be answered, if all their labor and effort is making any difference at all in the lives of those they are called to minister and labor in.

As I continued to watch scene after scene of people crying out to the Lord flashing in my mind, I sense a battle going inside my heart. A tug of war of different emotions and thoughts. Forcing myself to be still, these words like cool refreshing water to my thirsty soul flooded in. May these words bring the same healing to those who need to hear them today:

"Tell my people that all will be well with them. Lift up your eyes heavenward. For the battles you are fighting are greater than just your own. When you love your wayward children, you are not just loving your own, your love is breaking down barriers in the hearts of many other wayward children. Because you have chosen to love, the others, too, will be set free by the love you pour down on your own. When husband and wife continue to love and submit to each other. When shepherds and sheep choose to walk in my ways no matter how lonely and difficult these paths may be. When you choose to trust and believe me despite the sicknesses, difficulties, and trials you are facing in your midst, you are not doing it just for your own, either; you are helping me restore order to a chaotic society, establishing my value system in the world, planting my seeds in the hearts of men, and bringing healing to many broken families."

"A Great Purpose is Being Accomplished"

"Every day that you choose to obey and follow me, your labor avails much. The heavenly hosts are able to move forward, breaking down strongholds, taking back territories with each step that you take and each tear that you shed. You are doing much, my children. Lift up your eyes heavenward, for the victory is much greater that you can perceive or imagine.

"Not all of you will taste and see the victory you so long for in your lifetime. But take heart, your labor will not be vain. Your cries have been heard, your desires will be granted. And great will be the blessings that you will be leaving behind.

"Like my people from old, you have been called to walk and live like them. Their lives were signs and symbols for their times. It was not only for their own that they lived and walked. It was for a greater purpose. And just as their obedience resulted in great victory, so your faithfulness in what you are doing now is also achieving the same greatness. Again, I say lift up your eyes heavenward, for great things are happening and you are a big part of it.

"I am pouring out my refreshing spirit upon your souls. Breathe it in. Your soul will be restored, your spirit will once more be lifted up for the battle ahead. Come...come...come...my beloved."

by Sis. Ching Co
Cebu City, Philippines ching@gsi.ph.inter.net

Lift Up Your Voices

Marion Lundy

The Lord spoke unto me to tell His people to lift up their voices like a trumpet unto Him in prayer. He took me back to the blowing of the Shofar on Rosh Hashana. There are three distinct sounds: First of all, there is the Tekiah sound, which is a long straight blast. This signifies that we are to crown Him King and Lord of our own personal lives and also of the whole entire universe. Then, there should be a moaning for the forgiveness of sins and for the conditions/happenings in the world. God has to intervene for there to be some kind of a resolution. Natural man is no match for the strategies of the devil.

We have always heard that God uses different groups of people for the advancement of His kingdom: Some to go, some to finance it and some to keep it covered with prayer, right confession and intercession. He shows me now that the same principle applies to the current war. Some can't go, but we can certainly under girt our soldiers and others involved with our prayers. As I sought the Lord about a message this morning, He showed me a great big pie with much filling and toppings on it. It looked all good and wonderful. The Lord said that we are partaking of a lot of good that came as a result of our soldiers fighting in many wars. We, at home are reaping the benefits of their sacrifices. No matter what we think about the war, we are still living in freedom and enjoying the blessings of the USA. If left unchecked, those trying to destroy humanity's freedom would more than likely advance.

The second sound that the trumpet makes are three medium wailing blasts. These are the sobbing cries to connect in oneness with God and to be all that He would have us to be. Let us cry unto the Lord with our whole hearts-to be in His perfect will so that His plan can unfold and our prayers have the greatest of impact.

Thirdly, the Teruah sounds are nine quick, short blasts. This is a 'wake-up call.' It is truly time to wake up if there ever was a time. Awake you who are asleep and wail, cry out to the God of our salvation! Surely He is ABLE to work things out. I can hear Him crying out: "If My people.. if My people.."

M. Lundy
9/22/04
Email:ggmlundy8@aol.com
Website:www.ablazingglory.com

Light Versus Darkness

Paul Ekemezie

nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

Col 1:13—For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves.

John 1:5—The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

What is the “darkness” in these two quoted verses of Scripture? The darkness is the lie of the devil. And what is the “light”? The light is the truth, or the Word, or the Christ, of God.

John 8:43-45—Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. 44You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

Why is the language, or truth, or word, of Christ not clear to most people, even Christians? It is because the darkness, Satan’s lie, constantly overshadows the minds of people.

John 10:10—The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

How does the thief come to steal and kill and destroy? It is through lies. How can you stop the thief from gaining entry? It is by rebuffing his lies with the truth. This way, the light overcomes the darkness. Let us see some episodes of darkness versus light battle. We will see that the battle depends wholly on man. The reason is that he has been given dominion (Gen 1:26; Psa 8:6-8; Heb 2:8).

Gen 3:4-7—"You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman. 5"For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."
6When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. 7Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

In this episode we see the thief project his lie against Adam and his wife (the totality of humanity). Did mankind rebuff the lie of Satan? No! And so the thief gained entrance. He stole their glory; he killed them; he destroyed their future. It was a massive devastation. Can you see what just one lie of the devil has caused?

Matt 4:1-11—Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. 2After fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. 3The tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."
4Jesus answered, "It is written: `Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"
5Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. 6"If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down. For it is written: "`He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'" 7Jesus answered him, "It is also written: `Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" 8Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. 9"All this I will give you," he said, "if you will bow down and worship me."

10Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: `Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.'"
11Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

In this episode we see the thief confront the last Adam, Jesus Christ. He came against Him with his lies as usual. But Jesus kept on rebuffing the lies of the devil with the light, or truth, or word, of God. The thief had no other option than to leave this Adam alone. The result is that not only did this Adam not lose His glory to the thief, He even gained an increase, which God brought to Him through the angels.

James 1:2-5—Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, 3because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. 4Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.

When the thief projects his lies against a man/woman, if s/he overcomes, s/he receives promotion. But if s/he fails, s/he loses a whole lot. We must take note of this point.

For more than five years, the enemy convinced me that I had been poisoned. I believed him and went into years of suffering under an incurable disease. I did not know to rebuff the enemy with the following verses of Scripture:

Mark 16:17-18—And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; 18they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people, and they will get well."

After years of suffering, I came to my senses, through the grace of God. And so I began to rebuff the enemy with God's truth and I was freed.

Ps 107:20—He sent forth his word and healed them; he rescued them from the grave.

Matt 8:17—"He took up our infirmities and carried our diseases."

Matt 14:35-36—And when the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding country. People brought all their sick to him 36and begged him to let the sick just touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched him were healed.

John 3:14-15—Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

Num 21:4-9—They traveled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, to go around Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way; 5they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!"
6Then the LORD sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died. 7The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.
8The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." 9So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

The thief deceived the people of Israel into believing that God could not save them and that they would die in the desert. They began to confess the lie of the devil and what they believed and confessed began to happen to them. Then God gave Moses the solution to this terrible problem: Lift up Christ so that anyone bitten by the enemy who looks up to Christ (the word of God) will live.

When the enemy projects symptoms of sickness at you, rebuff him with the truth of God. Christ is with us and He has healed us.

1 John 5:4—For everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith.

1 John 5:18-19—We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him. 19We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

1 John 3:8-9—He who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work. 9No one who is born of God will continue to sin, because God's seed remains in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God.

When the devil tempts you to sin, tell him that no one who is born of God will continue to sin.

Eph 6:10-17—Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. 11Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. 12For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. 13Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. 14Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, 15and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. 16In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. 17Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Paul Ekemezie
nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com
New Life Bible Church, 112 Ogurugu Road, Nsukka, Enugu State, Nigeria.

A Presentation Of The Gospel Message
Paul Ekemezie

nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

John 3:16—"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

God’s greatest gift to mankind is His Son. His Son is Spirit (Christ), but He had to become flesh because mankind had so fallen that we existed only on the level of the flesh. Mankind was dead in relation to God and the function of God’s greatest gift is to resurrect mankind from this death.

Actually, God gave this precious gift to mankind in the beginning. But man lost the gift through disobedience.

Gen 2:7—The LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

You see, upon creation, God breathed into man His Christ, and man became alive in relation to God.

Gen 3:17-19—To Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, `You must not eat of it,' "Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.
18It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.
19By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return."

It is clear from this last quote from Scripture that Adam's disobedience brought tremendous curse upon mankind and led to mankind falling down to the level of flesh (dust). Mankind thus became dead in relation to God.

God gave the Law to Israelites of old to supervise their lives until Christ is given back to mankind.

Gal 3:19—What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was put into effect through angels by a mediator.

Gal 4:1-2—What I am saying is that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, although he owns the whole estate. 2He is subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

Unfortunately, the Jews now saw the guardian or trustee as their salvation. When God released His precious gift to mankind they could not understand that their ultimate salvation had come; that the time had come for them to be freed from guardian or trustee and be given full rights as sons. The gentiles who never had any guardian or trustee now stood at an advantage, because the only salvation they ever came to know happens to be the real thing.

In giving Christ back to the world, God gave Christ to mankind the way He gave Him in the beginning (Gen 2:7). In the beginning God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed Christ into the man He had formed. In the return of Christ to mankind, we read:

Heb 10:5—Therefore, when Christ came into the world, he said: "Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me."

So we see that, once again, God formed a new man, the last Adam (1 Cor 15:45), and breathed into him Christ. The new man was formed from the dust to which mankind returned by the fall, albeit in the womb of a virgin. Both Christ and the new man in whom He was breathed are gifts of God to mankind. In fact Christ and the new man could not be separated for as long as sin is not found in the man. Of course, we know that sin was never found in the last Adam as it was found in the first.

John 2:19—Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days."

John 10:30—I and the Father are one."

The temple that Jesus referred to in John 2:19 is the new man in whom Christ dwelt. The new man and Christ (the Spirit of the Father) were one. The two-in-one was God's precious gift to mankind.

Col 1:21-22—Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. 22But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation.

The two parts of God’s precious gift were to serve two different purposes. The first Adam was like a seed planted by God, which developed into a giant tree with billions of branches (Matt 13:31-32). Even though the population of mankind is now in the billions, we still form the first Adam.

God is in the process of creating a new world. To this end, He formed a new man, but grafted Him as a branch of the first man. This was so because God had given the first Adam dominion over all the earth. If the new man were not grafted onto the old man, He would not have dominion. That was how Jesus came to be known as “Son of David” (Mark 10:47). By so doing God substituted the new man or last Adam for the first man, so that whatever that happened to the new man happened to the first man. And so when the new man died, all mankind died. This way, God brought to an end His dealings with the first Adam or the old covenant.

Heb 2:17—For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people.

2 Cor 5:14—For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died.

By His death, the last Adam atoned for the sins of the first Adam. Since God ended the old covenant by the death of all mankind, God now raised the new man back to life by reuniting Him with Christ and gave Him all authority in heaven and on earth. The new man now has greater sphere of authority than the first man. The first man had dominion over all the earth, while the new man has dominion over all of God’s creation.

God has planted a new tree of mankind. The seed that gave rise to this new tree was the last Adam, Jesus Christ. Right now the new tree stands side by side with the old tree, but this will happen for a limited period of time. Branches of the old tree are being cut off and are being grafted onto the new tree. At an appointed time, the old tree will be cut down so that God can have His new world. Happenings around the world clearly indicate that the time of the old tree is virtually up.

Matt 3:10—The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

So, the physical part of God’s precious gift enabled the redemption of branches of the first tree of mankind. What about the spiritual part, which is the Christ of God?

Rom 5:9-10—Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him! 10For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

The spiritual arm of God’s precious gift is the Spirit (or Christ), and He is life. The Spirit is to be received by each person and it is the reception of the Spirit that grafts one into the new man. The new man is alive in relation to God by reason of the presence of the Spirit (or breath) of life. Every member of the new mankind is united (or is one) with Christ, just like Jesus Christ. Every member has access to the same level of authority as Jesus, through the Spirit. It is by the Spirit that every member of the new mankind overcomes all the problems that militated against the old mankind (sin, disease, accident, lack of necessities of life, etc.).

Joining the new mankind

John 6:44-45—"No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day. 45It is written in the Prophets: `They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me."

Whenever Jesus talked about the Father, He was referring to the Spirit of God (Christ) in Him. How does the Father draw a person?

John 6:63—The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

Eph 1:13—And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit

The Spirit (Christ) dwelling inside a preacher manifests Himself as the word of truth, the gospel. God draws anyone who can believe the word of God. Anyone who believes the word of truth immediately becomes one with the Spirit, just like the first Adam believed Satan's lie and immediately became one with Satan. In John 6:44, Christ (the Spirit) said that He would raise the believer on the last day. Christ is the resurrection power; the last day refers to the day of first resurrection (Rev 20:5-6).

Abiding in the new mankind

John 15:1-2—"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. 2He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful."

This is the new mankind speaking. From His words, it is clear that membership in the new mankind is conditional, until the end of one's sojourn on earth. Whatever state in which a person finds him/herself at death determines whether or not the person will participate in the first resurrection.

The condition for remaining in the new mankind is bearing of fruit. We see this stated in several passages of Scripture (for example, Matt 3:10; 25:14-30). How does one bear fruit?

Matt 13:23—But the one who received the seed that fell on good soil is the man who hears the word and understands it. He produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.

God's seed, Christ, is sown in a person's heart. How good is the soil where the seed is sown? That determines the extent of fruitfulness, from zero fold to a hundred fold. By default, every person's heart is as bad as a desert land. But a person can steadily improve the condition of his/her heart according to the stages described in the parable of the sower. This improvement is all a matter of faith.

How can a person improve his/her level of fruitfulness?

Rom 12:2—Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is-his good, pleasing and perfect will.

In the beginning, Adam was created to bear fruit a hundred fold. Satan came with his lie; Adam accepted the lie and ended up having a desert heart. The pattern of this world is woven with Satan's lies. As long as we conform to this world's pattern, our hearts will remain desolate. We must replace this world's pattern with the pattern from heaven. That is what renewing of the mind is all about. The pattern from heaven is the word of truth. It is by accepting the word of truth that we join the new mankind and it is by continually accepting the word of truth that we become fruitful in the new mankind.

Rom 10:8-10—But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: 9That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.

We accept the word of truth by believing it in our hearts. We bear fruit when we confess with our mouths what we believe in our hearts. Deep-seated conviction in the heart is the starting point; otherwise our confessions will become mechanical. What exactly do we believe? The Christ of God dwells in us as He dwelt in Jesus. By reason of His presence in us, we have overcome the evil powers that control this world. These evil powers can no longer dominate us with their sin, disease, lack of basic needs, etc. When these evil powers confront us, we confess the relevant word of truth.

We are entering a season of massive fruit bearing. Let us begin now to renew our minds by printing on our hearts the pattern from heaven.

Ezek 36:25-27—"I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. 26I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. 27And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws."

Eph 3:14-17—For this reason I kneel before the Father, 15from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. 16I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, 17so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith.

Laying Waste The High Places
Susan Cummings

I am causing you to go through the winepress, my daughter, as I am laying waste to all of the High Places in your life, as well as that of those around you.

For just as Gideon threshed grain in secret in the mill, and hid it from his enemies, and was secretly serving me, but in fear. So are you a sign of My People doing the same thing.

My People are still trying to work and labor in My Word without the clear revelation of the New Ways from which I desire them to go forth in this hour. They still labor under the old bondages, and fears, and in captivity, and do not understand that this is a new day.

They still see their lives as under duress and as not in freedom. But, they have complete victory through Me, if they would just look through My eyes, and see My Plan. But, I am laying waste to the high places that have ruled over My People! I am bringing down all of the mindsets and the lies that have kept them from freely walking forth in Me.

I am bringing New Truth to those who dare to believe Me, and to step out from their hiding places, and from the labor among the mills, and into My Light.

I will show you a better way! I will cause you to break forth, and to explode with My Light. For just as they broke the clay pots, so will you, and the enemy will flee seven ways before you!

It is time to believe in Me.
It is time to break free from the bondage that has kept you from advancing!
It is time to break forth and let My Truth be seen from you!

I am laying waste the High Places, and the True Foundation will then be seen in you and in My People, and finally raised up, for all to be built upon. Then there will be no more captivity.

For My Banner will clearly be seen waving in the winds, and it will be seen without opposition, for no man will hold back MY People anymore! I will be their Captain and lead them on, and they will follow Me, and will break free all those still held in captivity!

You will no longer thresh in secret in the cloak of hiddenness or even of darkness, but will burst forth in full daylight, with My Fire blazing forth out of you!
Then you will see all of the booty that has been held back for you, and that the enemy has stolen from you, and you will take it all back, and have more than enough to share with all!

For I show you ahead of time what I will do, and now you will see it accomplished!
-Susan Cummings
3-10-04
2:25 am

I Have Placed You Upon The Wall
Susan Cummings

I have placed you upon the wall, and it is not the time to become distracted and apathetic. Much is coming in from shore, and you must remain at the post. There is no other warning given, as all have been warned, and you must be watchful and ready to move as I have spoken to you.

The Glittering Fog has done it’s work, and they don’t even know they are enshrouded, but you cannot free those who do not want to be. You must focus, and be faithful to remain at your post, for the real battle is yet to come. This is only the prelude to the real blows to come.

Many have chosen to stand down, and to watch from a distance, as they fear the backlash of standing against the masses. But Mine remain true to Me, and do not waver, nor compromise, regardless of the cost! There has never been an option of compromise amongst My Own. Either your heart is truly Mine, or it is not. Either you serve Me with all your strength, or you do not.

True allegiance is not measured by stature or by earthly prestige or even by your past accomplishments, it is measured by your submission to Me now. I see your hearts, and I know the struggles that you go through, and the decisions that are pressuring you to be made, and I know what your answer will be. I know you. Yet, even so, I chose you from the beginning to serve Me in this hour.

Take heed, and remain still before Me, and do not allow the clamor of the masses break your focus, or your allegiance to Me. Watch and see, for the great deception has already woven it’s web, and multitudes are in the valley, and are assembled. Now will come the battle, and many will fall.

For your voice, and the voices of Mine upon the wall, will bring the Warriors into their positions. The time to assemble is now. The time to be at attention is now. The time to prepare to move is now. There is no more delay. There is no more preparations to be made. You have your assignments, and you know your places, and you know My Voice. Get ready.

You must stay upon the wall! Remain with your arms ready!

Archers, do not let the arrows go out, but keep the flames lit. You must keep your eyes focused upon the Center of the battle, where the heart is, for you know your target.

Swordsmen, you must not put your sword in it’s sheath, but maintain your posture. The mockers are only a diversion to tire you. Remain IN Me, and in the place of rest.

Torch bearers, Do not become weary in the fight, but hold your stance, as the Truth will shine forth, as you have been directed, and as you have foreseen. The Vision is True and it will go forth as you have been shown. Maintain the fires and the battle will not fail.

Dread Warriors, prepare to move. You know your positions and your ranking. Get into your places, for the Trumpet is to sound. You know the path the Lord has given to each of you to run, and you must get ready, for the Gauntlet has begun.

My Eagles are flying now and drawing forth the hidden ones, and now they will be seen among the ranks. For the hour of reckoning has come, and the fate of men now rests in their own hands.

Men never wanted their Creator, their God, or their Savior, but they wanted an earthly king. They rejected me on Mt. Sinai, they rejected Me on the Cross, and they reject Me now. They never wanted to submit or to yield their hearts to Me, but only to serve in bondage to men. They have gotten what they have asked for. Their earthly king is coming………

-Susan Cummings
3-4-04
7:10 pm

You March To The Beat Of A Different Drummer
Susan Cummings

Child, you struggle because you march to the beat of a different drummer. You are not like those around you. I create My people for different tasks, and different calls, and you are not made to become like those around you, but I have called you out to walk with Me. You cannot serve Me where you are. You must come out from among them.

You flourish under My Beat, because it is formed within you, from the day I created you. You are inseparable from Me, and you cannot identify with anything apart from Me, for I AM your God. Your DNA is Mine. Just as all of My Creation is. But, you have a destiny that is unique to you alone, and you cannot serve another, or allow someone else to serve yours.

Yours is yours alone. I made you to walk your path.

I have formed Myself within you. You are filled with My Holy Spirit. You are called by My Name. You bear My Mark. Then, why do you struggle to rest in Me? You must choose whom you will serve. There is no other destiny for you, except that which you were created for, and created to be. You must allow yourself to be yourself.

The drumbeat that beats within you cannot be replaced by another. You cannot sever yourself from My Heartbeat without cutting out your own heart, and denying Me entirely. You must choose.

You stand at the crossroads, and you cannot go any further until you choose. It is your choice, and your path, and I will not force you, nor make you love Me. Those who love Me, give themselves to Me.

Listen to your heart.

-Susan Cummings
3-12-04
4:11 am
http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords
http://www.xsorbit6.com/users/remnantaflame

Loosing Your Self Life

Robert I Holmes

"If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me. Whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses it for my sake will find it" (Matt. 16:24,25)

Livingstone, drum beats, a dark corner of the African veldt and the hallowed word. martyrdom. To the vivid imagination of the young men and women sitting in St Georges, in Canberra, that's what this passage conjured up. The verse was being used by a visiting missionary, speaking of the pain of life and the daily possibility of death working in the Amazon. John expressed a sentiment like that, "They did not love their lives, even when faced with death" (Rev. 12:11). The blood of the martyrs cries out indeed.

"But sir", I thought, "we only have one life, and we could only give it up once". Quite so. I think our missionary friend missed the point of the verse. Matthew, Mark (8:35) and John (12:25) chose the Greek word psyche (psychos). The gospel authors had three other Greek words they could have used. What the writers did not say was:

"Whoever loses his zoe" - existence, breath, being; "Whoever loses his bios" - life, livelihood, nature; "Whoever loses his seatou" - personality, character.

Sorry Livingstone, there's the door, now off with you!

A cloudy word indeed

It is a confusing word, I'll grant you that. Scholars better than I have translated it variously: mind, heart, soul and even spirit. When using it with prefixes (words which join it at the front) we find hints to the real meaning:

1. a-psychos (1 Cor. 14:7) translated lifeless. Meaning soulless, without conscience. Yes we can be without life - in the sense of being soulless - without conscience and that is not what God wants. That would make a murderer out of you.

2. di-psychos (Jas. 1:8) translated double minded. Meaning split soul, with two souls. We can be waivering, doubting, confused. Like having two souls (sounds like a case of MPD to me). That is not what God wants either.

3. oligo-psychos (1 Th. 5:14) translated faint hearted. Meaning weak willed, indecisive. We can be weak, terrified, faint hearted and distraught. Yet He said fear for nothing and do not worry about your life. So that's not it.

4. iso-psychos (Phil. 2:20) translated like minded. Meaning single minded, of a kindred spirit. We can be friendly, a kindred spirit, full of love and like minded - yes that's close, but He called for death, not life.

5. sum-psychos (Phil. 2:2) translated united in spirit. Meaning singular vision, of one heart. We can be united with others, like a husband and wife, serving one another - yes that is closer to the meaning.

Nearly there.

Jesus said lay down your life - your psychos. Oooh help me Jesus.

In traditional Greek writings, psychos was used to mean the seat of personality. I think the closest we have is self life. "Whoever loses his self life" - his soulishness, his selfish heart will gain life forever.

A Dead Man Walking

Paul told the Ephesians, "as slaves of Christ, do the will of God from the heart" (Eph. 6:6). A slave has lost the ability to argue, to negotiate. The slave does the masters will. Our heart - our soul - our psyche must come to this place, and that is a death.

"Whatever you do, do your work heartily as for the Lord rather than men" (Col. 3:23). Obey your instructors, submit to authorities, do your duty like a soldier. Yield your will, your self and learn from the Lord. Jesus gave up his 'self life' and put aside his equality with God. He took the form of a servant, he humbled himself. He became a dead man walking. He only did what he saw the father doing.

Like a Samurai

In "The Last Samurai" we see depicted this "losing your life" very well. It's a movie about the conversion of a soulless man from America to the ways and customs of the ancient Samurai. He learns respect, authority, obedience, self control. But more than that he learns meekness, humility and brokenness.

He is teaching a child about battle, and the child is scared of war. He is already an orphan and does not want to loose his surrogate father to battle also. In explaining fear and courage the main character says, "I'm always scared when I fight. But courage is not the absence of fear, it is a strong desire to live, in an absolute readiness to die". That is death to self - prepared to give yourself to the cause - yes even to physical and final death. But you've died already. That makes you courageous.

The horse trainers in the mountains of Greece had a word for horses like that. They found a wild stallion and started to train him. They call it "breaking them in". It is a process designed to break the will, but not the spirit. To bring the self life into absolute obedience to the rider. When a horse reached the final stage of training - ready for battle - a war horse, the trainer would say the horse was praus. We use the word humble or meek. It means absolute strength under absolute control: power in submission. That is Christ, and getting there. that is the cross.

WEBSITE Storm-Harvest Ministries http://www.storm-harvest.asn.au

Mummies Are Dead

Kathie Walters

You Don't Have to Act Like a Struggling, Stinky MUMMY! Mummies are Dead!"

The Stinky Mummy

Several times lately I have been in churches and areas where I suddenly saw what looked like an Egyptian mummy. It was wound around with filthy rags and it really was stinky (bad). I wondered what was going on as it was really nauseating, and I wondered why I kept seeing it around churches.

Another discovery (well not actually a "discovery," but you know, when you NOTICE something,) was that people were struggling, struggling, and struggling with problems that they had had for YEARS - 6 years, 10 years, 15 years, 20 years! It was amazing to me.

Then I saw something really clear - something I preach all the time. So much teaching and preaching is geared to try and change the old man (that's that stinky-rags man). People wrestle around trying to change the old man for years and years and never really get delivered, so they never feel "qualified" to receive their inheritance in God - the amazing wonderful realm of the Holy Spirit.

It's like being in one of those mud wrestling matches which you can never win, and you can NEVER get out of the mud because, as you struggle, you just sink further in. Oh my!

Trying to Be Crucified with Christ?? Hoping to Be Crucified with Christ??

Did you know that that was a religious spirit that makes you do that? Did you realize that when JESUS died on the Cross that He never died to try and change or improve the old man? If the old man could be improved JESUS NEVER WOULD HAVE BEEN CRUCIFIED would He? In Romans, chapter 6, it says, "You were crucified with Christ." It does not say "trying to be," nor "hoping to be." When Jesus went to the cross, He took that old man with Him. He made provision for you to walk IN THE NEW MAN BY FAITH. He already gave you a new heart and put a right spirit within you; He put His desires in your heart, so that the will of God is delightful to you.

There is nothing you can do to change or improve that old man, so quit trying. Trying can be very trying, can't it?

The Spirit Does the Changing - Not You or I

In II Corinthians, chapter 3:17-18, it says:

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is LIBERTY (freedom)."

Freedom from what? Freedom from the penalty of sin, freedom from the power of sin, freedom from sin-consciousness, and freedom from self-consciousness. The Holy Spirit is the revelator; He comes and delivers us and brings us into a God-conscious realm. Not sin-conscious, not self-conscious. "As we behold the glory of the Lord," the Bible says, "we are changed from glory to glory, even as by the SPIRIT OF THE LORD."

It is the SPIRIT WHO DOES THE CHANGING - NOT YOU OR I. For you are "His workmanship." And "He which began a good work in you will perform it." HE WILL, NOT WE WILL. In Jude it says that "He (Jesus) is going to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy." He is going to take your hand and present you to His Father and say, "Look, Dad, at what I have done." Not you or I, not your prayer partner, or even your husband or wife, and not even your pastor is going to get the glory for YOU. You are HIS WORKMANSHIP. You will be exactly the same as Him through no work of your own.

It's yielding, not trying and striving. "He that has entered into His rest has ceased from his own works" (Hebrews 4).

The Old Man Has Nothing to Say to You - HE IS DEAD!

It is so sad to me to see people who should be flying high in the Spirit realm still struggling and wrestling around in the old stinky stuff, which in reality has been crucified with Christ 2000 years ago. The devil is a thief and a robber. He is liar, and he lies to you; he keeps you in bondage through his lies - religious lies - because he doesn't want you to live in the truth of what JESUS has already done for you on that cross at Calvary.

Don't allow that old man to have any say - he stinks. It's the old man that Jesus has dealt with. You have a new heart; you are called to walk in the Spirit, in the heavenly realms of God. That is your inheritance - you are a citizen of heaven. You are only a visitor here. The old man has NOTHING TO SAY TO YOU; he is dead. He WAS crucified with Christ. Make a study of Romans 6 and ask the Holy Spirit for a revelation of who He is and Who you are in Him - a new creation, created in Christ, in holiness and righteousness.

I gave up trying to be holy years ago and decided to get into His holiness instead! It is SO WONDERFUL - SO AMAZING. It is "LOVE DIVINE, ALL LOVES EXCELLING. JOY FROM HEAVEN TO EARTH COME DOWN," as it says in the old English hymn. Salvation is all of Him, from start to finish.

Changed from Glory to Glory "By the Spirit of the Lord"

I was once in Heaven, and I was in a room. I saw a lovely young woman. It was me, but not just me, the Betrothed...that means YOU. I saw three angels, and then Jesus walked into this room I was in. The angels began to sing to the young woman, and as they sang, they pointed to Jesus saying, "Isn't He beautiful, beautiful isn't He?"

She looked, and she was awestruck because He was so beautiful, so lovely, so righteous, so Holy and amazing. She also began to sing, "Isn't He beautiful, beautiful isn't He?"

Then do you know what happened? He turned around to her, this lovely young lady which was me and you, and He looked right into her eyes and He sang to her, "Yes, you are beautiful, beautiful, yes you are."

He loves you so much. Do you know that as that young women stayed around Him and stayed close to Him, all His attributes fell on her and she became JUST LIKE HIM? She wasn't trying and striving and struggling. She was changed from glory to glory "by the Spirit of the Lord."

Salvation is not just going to heaven. That is the greatest thing, but eternity starts now. You have that eternal life now in you. You are sealed with the Spirit of Promise, like an engagement ring. He is our glorious savior, healer, deliverer, friend; He is closer than a brother.

You Are Part of the Royal Family

I hate the spirit of religion. The devil is a liar. "He was a liar from the beginning," Jesus said, "and there is no truth in him." Jesus delivered you from that old man; He gave you a new start, a new beginning, you were BORN AGAIN. You know that old mess that hangs on you and condemns you and tells you that you will never get free? Well, THAT'S NOT YOU. All that old stuff was crucified on the cross. YOU ARE a new creation. Walk in the new man by faith - it's not hard, but you have to believe what Jesus says. Stop listening to stuff that brings you into bondage instead of setting you free. Stop listening to the devil. Stop walking in the old man who is dead and stinks. Get him buried (Baptized). Remember what I saw...All your righteousness is as filthy rags (Isaiah 64:6).
Did you know you are adopted into the Royal family of God? Taken out of darkness, into the kingdom of God's dear Son? That's right - the Royal family. You are a royal princess or prince. You can walk uprightly and boldly before Him, the Father's child, the Beloved's sweetheart. It's time to rise up, beloved, and come away.
I'll leave you with some words from John Wesley's hymn:
"Love Divine, All Loves Excelling"
"Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love and praise."

by Kathie Walters
www.goodnews.netministries.org/kathie.htm kathiewalters@mindspring.com

Made Righteous
Terry Suggs

You have been made righteous and you have been given the status of a son or daughter of God. But you are still thinking the same as you were before you came to My Son's life. His kingdom is your Kingdom. His righteousness is your righteousness. He is your peace, your power, your life and wisdom. (Galatians 4:9) (I John 3:2) (I John 4:17)

Change your way of thinking from an earthly man to a son or daughter of God. All things are possible to those that believe.

I see you through My Son's finished work which He completed when He died and was raised from the dead.

You are seated with Him in heavenly places and are translated into His kingdom. You are now citizens of His glorious kingdom. (Luke 12:32) (Philippians 3:20) (John 10:28)

Through His blood that was offered up once and for all, you have every right and privilege as a son or daughter of the Most High God. (I John 1:16) Your rights were activated when you accepted My Son into your heart and life.

Your sins are not even remembered. (Hebrews 8:12, 10:17) (Hebrews 9:28)

I gave the rainbow that is a symbol of My covenant. The rainbow that encircles the throne is a symbol of the everlasting covenant that I made through My Son. (Revelation 4:3) (Genesis 9:13) (I Peter 3:3-8)

I paid the price, And I Am with you, And I Am coming again soon.

(John 17:20-24)

(Ephesians 1:17-23) (Ephesians 2:4-15)

His righteousness makes us one. His righteousness is a gift. The Word of God says: The just shall live by faith. Your faith manifests everything that has been given to you through the finished work of the cross. You now have access to the unlimited realm of God's Son, because you are an adopted son or daughter. God now sees you like he sees Jesus. He sees you as righteous in Christ. He sees you as justified and seated in Christ.

Jesus carried our sicknesses in His body. He took our punishment for our sins. He carried all of our burdens and afflictions and our poverty to the cross and eradicated it all. As His adopted children, we are like the family that adopted us. We have the same relationship with the Father, that Jesus has with the Father. We share a likeness in our spirit. As He is so are we in this world.

I believe that Peter was able to walk on the water because it was one on our benefits as adopted children. Faith will manifest whatever we are believing to receive, because of the complete work of the Lord.

We are the heirs of God and the joint heirs of Christ. There is no condemnation to those who are now in Christ. There is no inferiority in us. There is a boldness to those that are in Christ. Everything that we do must be done by faith. We are made partakers of the divine nature of God through the promises of God. Everything manifests through faith. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God.

Faith takes from the eternal unlimited realm of God's kingdom and manifests it in the natural.

Grace is God’s willingness to use His abilities to meet our needs. Our needs are not met by buying what is needed or by good works. God grace is free to us even if we don’t deserve it. It is the work of Grace, which is God's unmerited and unearned favor. The grace of God is void of human effort.

We are now in right standing through Christ.

Romans 5:1-2,15/ Romans 8:32 / Romans 9:22-24 / Luke 12:32 /

John 10:28, 11:22 / John 17:20-26 / Acts 2:27 / I Peter 1:3-4

I John 2:1-2, 2:9

Yours in Christ,
Terry Suggs
http://www.LiveInJesus.SpreadtheWord.com
T.suggs@comcast.net

Another Wave is Coming!
Terry Suggs

The movie the passion of the Christ is being released on video. The kind of impact that this will make is phenomenal. A great tool for evangelism has been given to us.

I see a wave of new Christians coming out of this release as well as a number of individuals seeking answers. Pastors, teachers, evangelists please be prepared.

Natural Disasters and Shakings
Terry Suggs

Prepare now for the shaking that is about to take place. You must be prayed up and completely ready this time. It could possibly be much worse than I’m saying right now.

There is a great shaking coming soon. People of this world are already suffering in different places around the world. Now, it could get worse for them.

Please pray as if it is happening right now. Pray like you are in the middle of the worse disaster right now, because some of us don’t pray for God to intervene until something major happens. Prayer can change everything.

Terry Suggs

Look Higher! Look Deeper! Look Farther!
Jesus In Us
Terry Suggs

Because of the way we were taught the Word of God in the years gone by, we have a consciousness of inferiority and weakness and uncertainty. But Jesus spoke to us by His word and His life. He (Jesus) (the Son of God) lived as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, and born of God. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost Jesus came to restore the earth and the people of the earth. His acts of restoration were demonstrated in the times when He healed everyone that was sick. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost He opened blind eyes, He healed lepers, He raised the dead; as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, He walked on water and spoke to storms and made them cease. Jesus did everything by miracles or by just speaking. He spoke the Word only.

His words did the work. When He raised Lazarus, He spoke the word.

Before satan stole our position as the ones with authority over all the earth, Adam was doing the same thing. Adam did everything by speaking.

Jesus has restored us to our position.

Jesus always talked and operated on a higher level than man. His faith was perfect.

He spoke with authority and whatever He spoke came to pass.

He said to Peter to come to Him on the water, when He did this, He was saying: “you see what I’m trying to tell you. I want you to see that you are in authority and dominion over the earth. I’m here to show you that you can do what I am doing. I’m here to restore the position of man that Adam lost to satan. “When you are Mine and in Me, all things are possible; just believe.” As a man that knew Who He was and filled with the Holy Ghost, and full of power as well as anointed, and overshadowed with glory and honor, He healed the deaf and dumb, the crippled.

When Jesus lived as a man, He could only be in one place at a time.

Jesus said, “ I must go away to the Father, so that the comforter of Holy Ghost can come and live in you.”

In the last days I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. Now Jesus (all of God in His fullness) lives in the body of Christ. Jesus said; the just shall live by faith. Jesus said, if you have the faith as a grain of mustard seed, (speaking the word in faith is the same as sowing a seed in the ground), you can speak to a mountain and say be plucked up and removed and be cast into the sea and not doubt, you shall have, you shall have, what you say, what you say believing. The mountain will obey you.

Since now faith is the substance and the evidence, then today is the day for what you are expecting. You have it now, today.

Eternity is a place without time. It is the eternal now.

Whatever you are believing for is right now in the eternal now.

God’s word is His life. His word is spontaneously creative.

By His stripes you were healed. Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth and you shall be saved. Jesus and Peter were not limited by gravity when they walked on the water, because Jesus word was spontaneously active and Jesus had authority over gravity and water.

Jesus was not limited by weather conditions, by time, by space, or by man-made traditions. These boundaries were not boundaries to Him.

Jesus used two fish and five loaves to feed thousands and afterwards there were left- overs.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. He was not bound by natural laws.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. Jesus spoke with authority when He spoke to the tree saying: No man shall eat your fruit from this day on. Jesus words carried so much power that what He said manifested spontaneously. If Jesus had spoken in the middle of the night and said let it be daylight, the sun would have been shining in that instant.

Jesus is telling us that all the things He did, we will do and even greater works shall we do, because

He went to the Father.

Faith dispels fear, faith makes you whole, it produces righteousness, faith justifies, it heals the sick and faith grows. Faith knows no defeat.

Jesus is operating in perfected faith. He has absolute confidence in His own power or being.

Jesus did not come to make you sick or condemn you. He said have Faith in God. Faith manifests substance and evidence. The faith of God is what Jesus used. He said to the disciples and to the believers, have the faith of God. Believe like God believes and have what God would have.

Nothing by any means can harm you. No weapon formed against you shall prosper. The enemy will come one way and flee seven ways. The word will never return empty. It will obtain and manifest what it was directed to and sent to do. He sent His Word and healed them.

Take no thought for your life; what you will eat, drink or wear. It is not by power or by might, but by My Spirit says the Lord.

Jesus is 100% honest, faithful, 100% trustworthy and pure in every aspect of His Being. Jesus is perfect love. Jesus is telling us to do the works that He did.

We have been restored to the Father's household. We are the inheritors of all things. He held nothing back from us. If God spared not His own Son, how much more with Him shall He also freely give us all things.

Do you see what you were restored to? The kingdom of God has no boundaries. Jesus came that we may have life and have it more abundantly. Jesus came that our joy may be full.

In His Kingdom, that now is at hand, there is all faith, all healing, all grace, all love, all power, all wisdom, all spiritual blessing, all light, and all victory.

For the whole creation (all nature) waits expectantly and longs earnestly for God's own sons to be made known (waits for the revealing, the disclosing of their sonship. That nature itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and corruption (and gain and entrance) into the glorious freedom of God's children. We know that the whole creation (of irrational creatures) has been moaning together in the pain of labor until now.

When we pray or talk to God the Father we are talking to the Creator of the universe and everything that lives in it.

When His Word is spoken it is like a missile launched to a target. Nothing can prevent it from reaching its intended result or accomplishing its objective. God fills all things and upholds all things with the Word of His power.

Look farther! Look deeper! Look higher! God is unlimited. Time belongs to Him. History belongs to Him. The universe belongs to Him.

God is in us as born-again Christians. We have the more than a conqueror living in us. Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. He is our righteousness, our wisdom, our provider, our refuge, our peace, and our strength. He is all and in all. Everything that there is in existence came out of Him. He is sovereign. Our inner man is now the Spirit of the Lord Jesus making His home in us. We are filled with the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

In the book of Ezekial the 36th chapter, Jesus spoke of a new spirit that He is putting in us. Our old spirit has been replaced with the spirit of Christ.

It is Christ in you. If any man is in Christ, He is a new creation. We are being changed from glory to glory. We are delivered from being subjected to infirmity, from sickness, from diseases, from poverty, from bondage, from fear, from uncertainty, and the control of satan in our media, our political system, our judicial system, our business world, and the corporate world. The kingdom of God is at hand. The kingdom of God is in you now.

As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.

Every empire that dominated the world outside of God's control has failed and will fail.

They are designed to fail.

God's word declared and established that, of the increase of the kingdom of God, there shall be no end. The kingdom of God is fail proof. It will never fail.

The gates of hell cannot stop or hinder the body of Christ as we operate in Jesus authority.

With God there is no time, so whatever you are saying in faith and expecting already exists. Like healing, and miracles.

We carry the same power and same spirit that Jesus carried on earth. We operate in His authority in this present world. His disciples demonstrated this in their lives after Jesus left.

We live beyond natural means of support.

God had us in mind when He gave His Son Jesus. The enemy doesn't want you to know this. God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son. Even the people that insulted Him, accused Him, beat Him, mocked and laughed at Him, God had them all in mind.

We are put in a position now where we are all facing the same principalities that Michael fought against in the book of Daniel.

We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against demons of spiritual rulers of t he darkness of this world. There are principalities over cities and nations. In the book of Daniel Michael was one of the chief princes of God. He was one of many.

He was withstood or with it stood by another that was a prince over Persia.

For this reason we are to wear the whole armour of God. And we are to trust in the God of the armour. In Ephesians 6, we are individually wrestling against pricncipalities and wicked spirits or chief rulers of the darkness of this world. We are all individually opposed by chief demonic spirits. We can move these principalities with the armour of God and with our faith. The flesh profits nothing. The only effective method is by following the spirit of God.

Let us not cheapen true Christianity by not living in the fullness of what is given to us freely by faith through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Some are standing on the outskirts of the real life of God. They are content in just looking at the truth from a distance. Maybe in Jesus day, some of the people were watching Him from a distance and were really not getting the message that He preached.

Let us not forfeit God's best given to us.

Look Higher! Look Deeper! Look farther!

When we look into the scripture, we are looking into a spiritual mirror, we are seeing our inner man. The inner man is the very image and likeness of God.

Look to the hills from which comes our help.

Deep calls unto deep.

Set you affections on things above.

If you make your bed in hell, He is there. If you went to the uttermost or deepest part of the universe, He is there.

We are only at the edge of the glory. But it is beyond comprehension now. In this time in our human history, God is releasing a great increase of knowledge and glory.

Jesus said in John 16:33:

I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have (perfect) peace and confidence, In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer (take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted)! For I have overcome the world. (I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you).

Terry Suggs

The New Creature Becoming the Word of God
Terry Suggs

Look into God's mirror (His Word) and see who we really are and what we really are. Look at Jesus' life.

When It says that God finished His work in the book of Genesis. The only work that It describes was God speaking things into existence. By the creative word He brought everything into existence. Adam did everything by speaking. Jesus did the works of God by speaking and acting in the Father's authority. We are doing the works of God by speaking to our circumstances and situations and diseases in the authority of Jesus.

Lean not to your own understanding. Go by what God says about you.

You are a new creation. The new creation came from God. Jesus was the first born of many brethren of this kind. We are born-again by the Holy Spirit entering our spirit after we receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior and Lord. We are also sealed by the Holy Spirit.

The new creation is superior to the devil in every way. The devil wants to deceive and blind us to this truth. Greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.

There is no separation between God and us. We are seated in heavenly places in Christ. That is why we can lay hands on the sick and they recover. That is why we can cast out devils in the name (authority and character) of Jesus.

That is why we can speak to a mountain and it can be moved.

We are eternally new creatures with the ability of the Holy Spirit operating in us.

In Jesus life on earth He showed us what a new creature looks like. He said, these works and even greater works shall you do because I Am going to the Father.

Jesus raised the dead, healed every kind of sickness and disease. He cast out spirits of infirmity and demons that had possessed individuals.

Jesus talked to weather and changed it, and walked on water, having authority over the natural elements. He spoke to fish and animals and they obeyed.

I believe that God created Adam with everything that Jesus demonstrated. The first Adam lived in flesh, the second Adam (Jesus) lived in flesh.

Jesus multiplied food when there was not enough physically to feed thousands. Accept His Word as truth and act on it.

Jesus said that He that has seen Me, has seen the Father. He said I Am the vine and you are the branches. In these words, He tells us that we are connected to the Godhead. There is no separation between us. The world needs to see us as God made us to be. The world may be laughing at us while we are following manmade traditions, ceremonies, and having Sunday programs, but when God gets into church (body of Christ), then the world and the devil will stop laughing.

Terry Suggs

http://www.LiveInJesus.SpreadtheWord.com

T.suggs@comcast.net

Make A Hole In The Webs Of Evil

Conrad Lampan

Many of us are joining prayer meetings or prayer networks during the Halloween season. If you have not yet agreed with anyone to pray for our communities next October 31st let us encourage you to do so.

I do not know if you are aware of the fact that a lot of Satan's servants are actually fasting and praying these days to their lord in order to have as much power concentrated during the night hours of Halloween.

As you can see in the paragraphs below demonic forces called upon by druids, spiritualists, witches, and a whole legion of sorts knit “webs of power” over cities and nations. When Christians gather and pray we are actually obstructing their construction and creating “holes” that prevent the webs to effectively trap the city below. We need to pray always, but more so on and in the days and nights surrounding Halloween night.

Halloween night is the time when they cast spells for the whole year to come. They also work their enchantments and witchcraft stuff in that night extending blankets of power over entire regions for the following year, this being the reason why they need as much power. While doing this they also "knit a web" in the air that covers cities and even nations. Halloween night is believed to be the night when the veil dividing the natural realm and the realm of spirits is thinner, and the highest concentration of demons is released over the earth, and satan’s followers seek to increase that concentration through their fasting and prayers and other preparations that include sacrifices.

In order to "knit" that web of demonic powers over places and people they have to be free to do so. If we think that Halloween is just a tradition that will not harm anybody and there is no need for special prayer time we are just giving Satan and his aides freedom to act.

We learnt about these activities and how they work those webs while I was at Bible College. Soon after we started our classes we began to experience some strange things, especially on certain nights like Tuesdays and Fridays which are the nights of various kinds of witchcraft and other related activities which although many people do not consider them harmful are demonic as well. It is well known for instance that for certain kind of communications with spiritual entities they find is easier to do it on a Tuesday. Halloween is the night when those powers are at their “highest tide”.

When a coven or other group, be them Free Masons, or Spiritualists, or any other demon related group seek to establish a presence in a city they carefully pick the physical place where they will hold their meetings. They don’t just pick any house or building but only those buildings that can “connect” over the air in a sort of lines of power from one building to another which intensifies on those special nights we are talking about. When several buildings or in cases (like the druids in parts of Europe) open air under certain trees or “cairns” (stone mounds) are aligned and the rituals performed, particularly on Halloween night then the result is a strong web of satan power covering that city or region with a blanket of darkness.

Whenever we pray and especially when we agree in prayer what we do is "open holes" in Satan's web; that is we are destroying his lines of power". Can we imagine what we can achieve if Christians from all over the world would come into agreement to pray specifically for our communities at the very same time satan's forces are trying to have those communities bound in their "webs"? In such a confrontation: guess who the victor is? The church has been given the power to pray and to bless. The Devil can do only what we let him do! It is not per chance the satan has focused his fiercest attacks on prayer, because he knows all too well the damage a hole can do to his lines of power.

I mentioned above the strange things that happened at Bible College. We would wake in the middle of the night feeling a cold dark presence in the room. Sometimes we were awake but could not move a muscle; on one occasion the dogs went wild pursuing things that we could not see. The then president of the College told us about all this. He said “This is normal happenstance here. It happens particularly on nights where demonic activity rises in level, and this place is under heavy attack not only because we are training servants of the Lord here but also because this place is located exactly in the middle of satan’s web” He then proceeded to explain the facts of how satan’s hordes aim to build those webs of darkness, and how our presence there was preventing them from achieving their goal.

I am sharing this not to scare anybody, but rather to encourage everybody to pray, plead the blood of Jesus over our families, schools, churches, cities and nations. Pray for the government. Pray for one another. In your prayers do worship because this is the mightiest weapon you can wield against evil. And remember, whatever happens, no matter how it looks, satan is not the victor, Jesus is!

Conrad Lampan
Center for Revival Studies
Wales - Argentina - United States
1 B Clyffard Crescent
Newport NP20 4GE
Wales - United Kingdom
Email: crs@revivalstudies.org
Phone: 01633 220 940

Major Surgery

Priscilla Van Sutphin

April 20th, 2004 1: am

I still have some major surgery to do in many of my sons and daughters.
Many are still caught up in self-hatred and self-destruction through guilt and condemnation. They are misinformed about My grace, and need to be set free from the ravages of past hurts and pain. They still allow others to control them and submit to intimidation. They don't know how to get free, and they've searched and tried all manner of things to get free. They've gone forward at altars in My church, but have been many times told that they should be healed by now if they ask for prayer over and over. My church lacks many times the patience to deal with those that are so wounded and burdened in this way. They do not take the time to spend time with them, and to pour into them My love and to truly get to know them. So many are interested in their own lives, but not the lives of others. Preoccupation with self has run rampant in a selfish world.

I will accelerate things that I have desired to set in motion, because My people need freedom. They have inquired of Me and cried many tears and asked why Lord, do I still do this. Why am I still this way ? Why can't I seem to overcome in this area ? Religion kills, but grace gives LIFE. If the person who is at the head in the organized church is sick themselves and does not know My grace, but only knows legalism, then how can the rest of the body grow to wholeness ? How can the fear of man in a person drive out the fear of man in another ? The body is supposed to depend on each other and interact with each other in such a way that ALL benefit from the ministry of one anothers. The church has lack of balance because of lack of intimacy with ME, and lack of healing. BUT I AM ABLE TO RESTORE all that is lacking. I AM ARISING WITH HEALING IN MY WINGS AND I WILL HEAL AND DELIVER, AND RESTORE MY PEOPLE !

I need you to be dependent on ME for all the answers. I need you to listen to Me for how to touch others. I will do it in startling and simple ways in the days ahead. There will be no bragging, no arrogance, no pride, because it will be SUPERnatural…something that no one can boast about. I am going beyond your fasting, beyond your prayers and I will exercise My authority and My power and restore all who desire freedom, but don't know how to get free !

I will give you KEYS to unlock the doors of people's hearts and minds, that they can walk in freedom. I will give you anointing that will break the yoke of bondage and death in their lives as never before. I will also ask you to do things you are not used to. I have many ways to perform My will in the life of another to get them free. Depend on Me for the hows.

I want many of you to know who have struggled and desired to be free, that it is not your fault. I want you to know that many of you have been paying a price for glory that is coming. I want you to know that the time is NOW here, that I will perform divine reversals, so do not stay in your old mindsets, but ask for freedom from strongholds and mindsets that hold you back from total freedom ! Ask for SUPERnatural intervention ! I desire the BEST for you. I desire that you believe that ! Unbelief runs rampant in My church, and it is NOT the way of life ! How can you tell others about My power and life if you don't believe it yourself ? How can you see miracles if you don't EXPECT them ?

So many of you see the cross as so SMALL and see Me as incapable or unwilling. That is not true. I AM WILLING and ABLE. That very unbelief limits the fruit of what you long to see. I Who formed the hand, will I not know every movement ? I Who formed the eyes, will I not be aware of what you watch ? I Who formed the ear, will I not know what you allow your ears to take in ? I Who formed the mouth, will I not know what your mouth has spoken ? I Who formed the spirit of man, will I not know what is in your heart ? Will I now know what you are thinking or have thought ? Just admit your faults to Me daily. Let me wash you and burn off all that has harmed you. Come to Me and allow me to touch you and heal you.

I am trumpeting warnings to draw people to My heart, because I want you to know that I will not hold back much longer. Come to Me now when your heart is overwhelmed. Come to Me if you are troubled. I AM HERE. And My arm is not too short to touch you. I am a God close at hand and not afar off ! I AM in you. I am with you every moment of the day. I see your rising and your laying down to sleep. I know every movement. I know every thought, or lack of thought. Changes are coming My loves, and you need to have ME to be pre-eminent in your hearts. You need peace that passes all understanding, and love that enables you to love your enemies. Come and I will give it to you. Come to ME, worship in the beauty of holiness. Explore My heart and let ME show you My secrets, and give you the love that is in My heart for you ! I have so much more to impart. You haven't seen anything yet, compared to what I have to pour out yet ! Learn to think BIG ! Learn to EXPECT the unexpected !

John 1:50-51 NKJV Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these."

Isa 43:19 NKJV Behold, I will do a new thing, Now it shall spring forth;
Shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

John 8:32 NKJV And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

John 8:34-36 NKJV Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin. 35 And a slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever. 36 Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

Rom 8:2 AMP For the law of the Spirit of life [which is] in Christ Jesus [the law of our new being] has freed me from the law of sin and of death.

Gal 5:1 AMP IN [this] freedom Christ has made us free [and completely liberated us]; stand fast then, and do not be hampered and held ensnared and submit again to a yoke of slavery [which you have once put off].

1 Peter 2:16 AMP [Live] as free people, [yet] without employing your freedom as a pretext for wickedness; but [live at all times] as servants of God.

1 Cor 9:19 AMP For although I am free in every way from anyone's control, I have made myself a bond servant to everyone, so that I might gain the more [for Christ].

Resurrection Power
Priscilla Van Sutphin

April 22, 2004 10:23 pm
www.upstreamca.org

tearsofthefather@comcast.net

These really stood out to me tonight as a wonderful proclamation for NOW as He sent me to the book of Micah tonight…

8 Rejoice not against me, O my enemy! When I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light to me.
9 I will bear the indignation of the Lord because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold His righteous deliverance. [Rom 10:1-4; 11:23-27.]
10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me, Where is the Lord your God? My eyes will see my desire upon her; now she will be trodden down as the mire of the streets.
11 In the day that your walls are to be built [a day for building], in that day shall the boundary [of Israel] be far extended and the decree [against her] be far removed. [Isa 33:17; Amos 9:11.]
12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria and from the cities of Matzor [Egypt] and from Egypt even to the river [Euphrates], from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.
13 Yet shall the earth be desolate because of those who dwell in it, for the fruit of their doings.
14 Rule and feed Your people with Your rod and scepter, the flock of Your inheritance who dwell alone in a forest in the midst of Carmel [a garden land]; they shall feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
15 As in the days of your coming forth from the land of Egypt, I will show them marvelous things.
16 The nations shall see [God's deliverance] and be ashamed of all their might [which cannot be compared to His]. They shall lay their hands upon their mouths in consternation; their ears shall be deaf.
17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent; like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their strongholds and close places. They shall turn and come with fear and dread to the Lord our God and shall be afraid and stand in awe because of You [O Lord]. [Jer 33:9.]
18 Who is a God like You, Who forgives iniquity and passes over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He retains not His anger forever, because He delights in mercy and loving-kindness.
19 He will again have compassion on us; He will subdue and tread underfoot our iniquities. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea. [Ps 103:12.]
20 You will show Your faithfulness and perform the sure promise to Jacob and loving-kindness and mercy to Abraham, as You have sworn to our fathers from the days of old. [Luke 1:54,55.]

Then He said, “ RESURRECTION POWER” **.
And proceeded to say, “ I am resurrecting MY LIFE in you My beloveds ! I am resurrecting Resurrection Life and all you come to this flood of My glory will be healed and delivered. All who are willing will have their heart’s desire answered ! I am resurrecting HOPE. I am resurrecting LOVE, and JOY and all manner of FRUIT for the sake of My love for you and for all who are made in MY IMAGE. I am coming to purify and perfume My bride !

I will kiss you, and kiss you, and kiss you ! Nothing will be impossible, for I AM that I AM ! I AM the ALMIGHTY GOD AND NOTHING IS TOO DIFFICULT FOR ME ! I will exercise MY REIGN on this earth, despite the plans of man. And be alert My beloveds for you will be hated by those who serve the creature, rather than the creation, though there will be a few years of plenty left, then will come great consternation on the earth, and great darkness. This is for HARVEST. I will have MANY FISH for you to clean and help.

I WILL GIVE YOU EVERYTHING YOU NEED. All things will become new, and I will rule and reign in the midst of My people. Certainly all things I have told you and prepared you for will come about. Do not think I will leave you or brush you aside. The enemy is busy trying to make you think you are disqualified, but he is a liar and the father of all lies, and he has loosed many lies in this hour.

There is an assembly of the wicked who thinks they will have all the honor and glory in this hour. But I will overturn the tables and I will overturn their attempts to stop what I am birthing in you ! I WILL SUSTAIN YOU and the wealth of the wicked will come into your hands as you stretch forth your arms to welcome them into the kingdom, and demonstrate my unfailing LOVE to them ! My kingdom will NEVER FAIL. Nations will come to the brightness of your rising ! So come into the secret place with ME my beloveds. Come and let ME orchestrate all that is in MY heart to do in you. You needn’t fear rejection or being passed by. I know where to find you !”

Abba

Isa 60:3 AMP And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. [Isa 2:2,3; Jer 3:17.]
Jer 3:17 AMP At that time they shall call Jerusalem The Throne of the Lord, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, in the renown and name of the Lord, to Jerusalem; nor shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their own evil hearts.

Isa 60:4-5 AMP Lift up your eyes round about you and see! They all gather themselves together, they come to you. Your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried and nursed in the arms. 5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and tremble with joy [at the glorious deliverance] and be enlarged; because the abundant wealth of the [Dead] Sea shall be turned to you, unto you shall the nations come with their treasures. [Ps 119:32.]

Mature Sons

Ron McGatlin

Church has been and continues to be in a process of change through restoration, revival, renewal and reformation. Where is it all going?

The centrality of human experience is shifting from focus on mankind to focus on "Godkind". God is moving His church (called out ones) from a life experience based on the centrality of man to a life experience based on the centrality of Christ in the world.

The central reality of heaven and all creation is God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

On Planet Earth, the Son (Jesus the Christ) is the undisputed dominant authority. Jesus, as a man under the leadership and empowered by the Holy Spirit in full obedience to the Father has unequivocally overcome every opposing power on earth through his sinless life, the cross, and resurrection.

God made man in the image of God and gave man dominion on earth. He further instructed mankind to "be fruitful and multiply" - to fill the earth with the image of God - to occupy the earth with the life and nature of God. Adam was the first of mankind originally made as a "Godkind" to fill the earth with God's ways and love. (Gen 1:26-28)

When God unconditionally gave dominion to man, He desired "many sons" to fill the earth with His love and His ways - to rule over and care for the kingdoms of earth as the kingdom of heaven. At the fall, oneness with God was lost as mankind was no longer flowing the life and ways of God but became corrupted with evil. God has never rescinded His instructions of dominion to man but rather provided "another Adam" - the "last Adam" to redeem mankind and fulfill God's desire for many sons filling the earth with the image of God. (1 Cor 15:45)

After the fall, man has continued to be fruitful and multiply but has filled the earth with the evil corruption of ungodly ways of "unlove" instead of the image of God. Man has filled the earth with another image. The image that says man is central and I will be like the most high - I am number one. (Isa 14:13-14)

God the Father will have His many sons. Christ is destined to bring many sons to glory. Sons who will be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth with the image of God.(Rom 8:14) (Gal 3:26)

Heb 2:10-11: For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified are all of one, for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren,

Spiritual sons of God are not born mature but as babes in Christ. It is too obvious to discuss that one must be born before growing to maturity and that one must be mature to be fruitful and multiply.

The practical redemption of the earth - the practical release of the glory of God awaits Christ being formed by the Holy Spirit in many mature sons of God. The predominant measure of maturity is love. All the attributes of Christ flow from the love of the Father in His son - the many membered Body of Christ filling the earth with the image of God.

Rom 8:19 For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.

Now is the time in history for men and women, young and old to become mature sons of God.

We are yet only beginning to grasp the meaning of Col. 1:27. The great mystery of Christ in you the hope of glory.

Pursue Love, It Never Fails.

Arise in His love,

Ron McGatlin

Maximum Blessing

Terry Suggs

God's Maximum Blessing according to Heavenly Standards

God wants us to receive all that He has for us according to heavenly standards. There is over whelming evidence to prove this by looking at the life of Jesus and the word of God.
He was raised from the dead and is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God the Father. We are seated at the right hand of the Father in Jesus. By His finished work and His righteousness that He bestowed upon us, we have this right.
We have been made righteous and made to sit in heavenly places. We have been given the maximum of God.
Heavens standards of blessing are exceedingly great, beyond measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over. All things are yours. All the promises of God are to you and running towards you.
We know that God Himself was in Christ Jesus reconciling the world back to Himself. He wants you to have the promises and the blessings that much. He wants to have life and have it more abundantly. If God spared not His own Son, how much more with Him shall He also freely give us all things.
God wants us to have everything that is included in the finished work of Jesus.
Rom. 8:32
If God be for us, who can be against us? Nothing can separate us from the love of God.

Ephesians 2:7
That in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His Grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
Every blessing and promise in Jesus is yes and amen. It is toward us, for us, designed for us, and created for us.
God's maximum according to heavenly standards is yours to receive by faith.
Ephesians1: 8 towards us. Verse 16 towards us
You are in the will of God under the new covenant of Jesus blood.

2Cor. 9:8
God's maximum according to heavenly standards is available every second of every day.
And God is able to make all grace abound towards you, that you always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.
We see things as we are.

Genesis 22:15-18 - Abraham's blessing
2 Chronicles 9:22-31 - Solomon's blessing
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

The Spiritual House

Haggai 2:9
The latter glory of this house (with its successor, to which Jesus came) shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place will I give peace and prosperity says the Lord of hosts.
I Peter 2:5
Come and, like living stones, be yourselves, built (into) a spiritual house, for a holy (dedicated, consecrated) priesthood, to offer up (those) spiritual sacrifices (that are) acceptable and pleasing to God through Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 3:3-4
And that the mystery (secret) was made known to me and I was allowed to comprehend it by direct revelation, as I already briefly wrote to you. When you read this you can understand my in sight into the mystery of Christ.
Col. 2:
For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And you are complete in Him, which is the Head of all principality and power.
Col. 3:1-4
If you then are risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits on the right hand of God. Set your affections on things above not on things on earth.
For as far as the world is concerned, you have died, your (new real) life is hidden With Christ in God. When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall you also appear with Him in the splendor of His glory.
Galatians 2:20
I have been crucified with Christ. (I share in His crucifixion). It is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in my body I live by the faith in adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me.
Ephesians 5:8
For you were once darkness, but now are you light in the Lord; walk as children of Light (lead thee lives of those native-born to the light).
Col. 1:11-13
You are strengthened with all might according to His glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness. Giving thanks unto the father, Who has qualified and made us fit to share the portion which is the inheritance of the saints (God's holy people) in the Light.
The Father has delivered and drawn us to Himself out of the control and the dominion of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His Love. In Whom we have our redemption through His blood, which means the forgiveness of our sins.
John 14:20
At that time (when that day comes) you will know for yourselves, that I am in My father, and you are in Me, and I am in you.

I John 4:13
By this we come to realize, receive, recognize, and understand that we abide live and remain in Him and He in us; because He has given or imparted to us of His Holy Spirit.
v. 15 Anyone who confesses or acknowledges, owns that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides (lives, makes His home) in him and he abides (lives, makes his home) in God.
I John 5:11-12
And this is that testimony that evidence, God gave us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.
He who possesses the Son has that life; he who does not possess the Son of God does not have that life.
Col. 1:27
To whom God was pleased to make known how great for the gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ within and among you, the Hope of realizing the glory.
Luke 17:21
The kingdom of God is within you.
I Cor. 11:7
A man is the image and reflected glory of God.
II Cor. 3:18
And all of us as with unveiled face because we continued to behold in the Word of God as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendor an from one degree of glory to another, for this comes from the Lord Who is the Spirit.
II Cor. 4:7
We possess this precious treasure (the divine Light of the gospel) in frail human vessels of earth , that grandeur and exceeding greatness of the power may be shown to be from God and not from ourselves.
Col. 2:9-10

For in Him the whole fullness of Deity (the Godhead) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature.
And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life in Christ you too are filled with the Godhead-Father, Son and Holy Spirit- reach full spiritual stature. And He is the Head of all rule and authority(of every angelic principality and power.

God has prepared His people to receive of the fullness of His life at this point in human history. This is not just a move of God we are experiencing. This is all God this time.
Pray like it is your last day on earth. Don't be distracted now. Let things rest that are we are doing to appease our fleshly desires.
Some are still not aware of the time we are in. They go to church just to have a social gathering. God wants us to be in tuned to the direction of the Holy Spirit. Some great sermons are preached, but there are not many souls won to the Lord.

There are masses of hurting and physically ill people seeking God for help in churches where there is no clue about what God wants to do to help them. God is looking for someone to show Himself strong in.
This is your golden opportunity to step up to the front in God. Just get into serious prayer times. Let God talk to you through His word.

Your brother in Christ,
Terry Suggs
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com
Crosswinds.org

It's No Longer Us, But Christ In Us
Terry Suggs

Colossians 2:10

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ, you too are filled with the Godhead-Father, Son and Holy Spirit- and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

When we are born again our spirits were made completely new. Our bodies are the same, but the new man, born of God is completely changed.

You are full and complete as a Christian. Our bodies are not yet changed to the kind of body that Jesus has. But that day is coming very soon.

We have God in us.

Colossians 1:10

That you may walk (live and conduct yourselves) in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to Him and desiring to please Him in all things, bearing fruit in every good work and steadily growing and increasing in and by the knowledge of God (with fuller, deeper, and clearer insight, acquaintance, and recognition). We pray that you may be invigorated and strengthened with all power according to the might of His glory, (to exercise) every kind of endurance and patience (perseverance and forbearance) and joy.

His fullness we have already received.

Col. 1:13

We are translated into the kingdom of God's dear Son. We are in a kingdom that is unlimited in power, spiritual resources, in love and in ability.

I John 4:17

In this union and communion with Him love is brought to completion and attains perfection with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment with assurance and boldness to face Him, because as He is so are we in this world.

Our spirit is molecule for molecule and atom for atom with the spirit of Christ.

I John 1:20

But you have been anointed by (you hold a sacred appointment from, you have been given an unction from) the Holy One, and you all know (the Truth) or you know all things.

You have the ability and the mind of Christ.

Ephesians 4:30

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God (do not offend or vex or sadden Him), by whom you were sealed (marked, branded as God's own, secure) for the day of redemption (of final deliverance through Christ from evil and the consequences of sin).

The spirit in us is sealed by God Himself.

Ephesians 1:13

In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long-promised Holy Spirit.

Mark 8:18-21

Having eyes, do you not see with them, having ears, do you not hear and perceive and understand the sense of what is said? And do you not remember? When I broke the five loaves for 5,000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up? They said to Him, twelve. And when I broke the seven loaves for the 4,000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up? And they said to Him, seven.

And He kept repeating, Do you not yet understand?

Ephesians 5:30-32

Because we are members (parts) of His body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and shall be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

This mystery is very great, but I speak concerning (the relation of) Christ and the church. We are one spirit and no longer two separate spirits.

Our spirit is identical to Jesus.

I Cor. 6:16-17

Or do you not know and realize that when a man joins himself to a prostitute, he becomes on body with her? The two, it is written, shall become one flesh.

But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

One with Jesus means:

One in power.

One in ability.

One in authority.

One in love.

One in faith.

One in mind.

One in Spirit.

One in position.

Acts 28:8-9

And it happened that the father of Publius was sick in bed with recurring attacks of fever and dysentery; and Paul went to see him, and after praying and laying his hands on him, he healed him. After this had occurred, the other people on the island who had diseases also kept coming and were cured.

I Corinthians 2:1-2,4-5

As for myself, brethren, when I came to you, I did not come proclaiming to you the testimony and evidence or mystery and secret of God (concerning what He has done through Christ for the salvation of men) in lofty words of eloquence or human philosophy and wisdom; for I resolved to know nothing (to be acquainted with nothing, to make a display of the knowledge of nothing, and to be conscious of nothing) among you except Jesus Christ (the Messiah) and Him crucified.

And my language and my message were not set forth in persuasive (enticing and plausible) words of wisdom, but they were in demonstration of the (Holy) Spirit and Power (a proof by the Sprit and Power of God, operating on me and stirring in the minds of my hearers the most holy emotions and thus persuading them). So that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men (human philosophy), but in the power of God.

Romans 8:9

But you are not living the life of the flesh, you are living the life of the Spirit, if the (Holy) Spirit of God (really) dwells within you (directs and controls you). But if anyone does not possess the (Holy) Spirit of Christ, he is none of His (he does not belong to Christ, is not truly a child of God).

I Corinthians 3:16

Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth) are God’s temple (His sanctuary), and that God’s Spirit has a permanent dwelling in you (to be at home in you, collectively as a church and also individually)?

Galatians 4:6-7

And because you really are His sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts crying, Abba (Father)! Father!
Therefore, you are no longer a slave (bond servant) but a son; and if a son, then (it follows that you are) an heir by the aid of God, through Christ.

His Spirit has come and our spirit has passed into oneness with Jesus.

Galatians 5:25

If we live by the (Holy) Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (If by the Holy Spirit we have our life in God, let us go forward walking in line, our conduct controlled by the Spirit.

Colossians 1:27

To whom God was pleased to make known how great for the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ within and among you the Hope of (realizing the) glory.

I Corinthians 2:12

Now we have not received the spirit (that belongs to) the world, but the (Holy) Spirit Who is from God, (given to us) that we might realize and comprehend and appreciate the gifts (of divine favor and blessing so freely and lavishly) bestowed on us by God.

I Corinthians 2:16

For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide and instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ(the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart.

We have the mind of Christ in us already.

Philemon 1:6

And I pray that the participation in and sharing of your faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good thing that is ours in identification with Christ Jesus and unto His glory.

I John 3:24

All who keep His commandments (who obey His orders and follow His plan, live and continue to live, to stay and) abide in Him, and He in them. (They let Christ be a home to them and they are the home of Christ). And by this we know and understand and have proof that He really lives and makes His home in us; by the Holy Spirit Whom He has given us.

Philippians 1:21

For me to live is Christ (His life in me), to die is gain (the gain of the glory of eternity).

Galatians 5:25

If we live by the Holy Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (If by the Holy Spirit we have our life in god, let us go forward walking in line, our conduct controlled by the Spirit).

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ (in Him I have shared His crucifixion); it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in the body I live by the faith in (by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in) the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

Ephesians 1:3

May blessing (praise, laudation, and eulogy) be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) Who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual (given by the Holy Spirit) blessing in the heavenly realm!

II Peter 1:3-4

For His divine power has bestowed upon us all things that are requisite and suited to life and godliness, through the full personal knowledge of Him Who called us by and to His own glory and excellence (virtue). By means of these He has bestowed on us His precious and exceedingly great promises, so that through them you may escape (by flight) from the moral decay (rottenness and corruption) that is in the world because of covetousness (lust and greed), and become sharers (partakers) of the divine nature.

Ephesians 4:22-24

Strip yourselves of your former nature (put off and discard your old unrenewed self) which characterized your previous manner of life and becomes corrupt through lusts and desires that spring from delusion; and be constantly renewed in the spirit of your mind (having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude) and put on the new nature (the regenerate self) created in God’s image, (Godlike) in true righteousness and holiness.

I John 5:4

For whatever is born of God is victorious over the world; and this is the victory that conquers the world, even our faith. Our faith says that because He (Jesus) overcame we have overcome the world.

Ephesians 2:4-6, 10

But God-so rich is He in His mercy! Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us, Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; (He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ’s salvation).

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

For we are God’s own handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, (born anew) that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live).

We are the temple of God.

Ephesians 3:16-21

May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the Holy Spirit Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality). May Christ through your faith actually dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love, that you may really come to know practically, through experience for yourselves the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge without experience; that you may be filled through all your being unto all the fullness of God (may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself)!

Now to Him Who, by (in consequence of) the (action of) the (action of His) power that is at work within us, is able to carry out His purpose and) do superabundantly, far over and above all that we (dare) ask or think (infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes, or dreams)- To Him be glory in the Church an in Christ Jesus throughout all generations forever and ever. So be it. Amen.

II Corinthians 5:17

Therefore if any person is (ingrafted) in Christ (the Messiah) he is a new creation (a new creature altogether); the old (previous moral and spiritual condition) has passed away! Behold, the fresh and new is come!

Your old spirit has passed away. You are now a new creature with the new spirit which is the Spirit of Christ.

Colossians 1:28

Him we preach and proclaim, warning and admonishing everyone and instructing everyone in all wisdom (comprehensive insight into the ways and purposes of God), that we may present every person mature (full-grown, fully initiated, complete, and perfect) in Christ (the Anointed One).

God is our Father. He is very much interested in the well being of His children. He is interested in us and He has given us everything in Christ. He has made every provision. He has made provision for salvation, for healing, for prosperity, for power, for wisdom, for help and for protection. Our Father cares so much that He gave Jesus and allowed Him to take our punishment and our wages for the sins we committed. He paid the price in full.

Jesus is 100 percent pure in every way. There is no impurity in Him. He is 100 percent trustworthy. He is 100 percent honest. He is 100 percent committed to His Word and His promise to keep us. He is 100 percent love and He is 100 percent faithful. He is 100 percent truth. He has no deception in Him. There is no deceit in Him. He does not change. He will not or cannot change. He is 100 percent God. He is 100 percent dedicated to the body of Christ. He is 100 percent dependable.

Terry Suggs

Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

Crosswinds.org

We Are All Wrestling Against Rulers
Terry Suggs

Not Flesh and blood

Ephesians 6:10

In conclusion, be strong in the Lord (be empowered through your union with Him) draw your strength from Him (that strength which His boundless might provides.

Put on God's whole armor (the armor of a heavy armed soldier which God supplies) that you may be able successfully to stand up against all the strategies and the deceits of the devil.

To stand means to prevail or to resist.

For we are not wrestling with flesh and blood (contending only with physical opponents), but against (the master spirits who are the) principalities or chief rulers of the highest rank, against powers who are authorities that receive their orders from demon spirits, rulers of the darkness of this world (World rulers of this age) like King Herod of the Bible; against spiritual wickedness or fallen angels.

Therefore put on God’s complete armor, that you may be able to resist and stand your ground on the evil day of danger, having done all (the crisis demands), to stand firmly in your place.

James 4:7-8

Stand against the roaring lion, resist steadfast in the faith. Submit to God and resist the devil.

Draw close to God and God will draw close to you.

Jesus said that He has given us authority over all the authority of the enemy (satan). You may eat or drink any deadly thing and it will not hurt you. Nothing by any means shall hurt you.

Psalm 91:13-16

You shall tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the serpent shall you trample underfoot.

Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him on high; because he knows and understands My name (has a personal knowledge of My mercy, love, and kindness-trusts and relies on Me. Knowing I will never forsake him, no, never.

He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him and show him My salvation.

Ephesians 6:14

Stand therefore (hold your ground) having tightened the belt of truth around your loins of your mind. Make sure truth has filled your mind.

Psalm 18

For you have girded me with strength.

Ephesians 6:14

Having put on the breastplate of integrity and or moral rectitude and right standing with God. And having shod your feet in preparation (to face the enemy with the firm footed stability, the promptness, and the readiness produced by the good news of the Gospel of peace, be ready to spread the gospel.

Lift up over all the (covering) shield of saving faith, upon which you can quench, all the flaming missiles of the wicked (one).

And take the helmet of salvation and the sword that the Spirit wields which is the Word of God.

Pray at all times (on every occasion, in every season) in the Spirit, with all (manner of) prayer and entreaty. To that end keep alert and watch with strong purpose and perserverance, interceding on behalf of all the saints (God’s consecrated people).

“I anoint the ones that were prostitutes, drug dealers, alcoholics. I anoint doctors, professors, government officials, bankers, lawyers and those that are in the prisons. I anoint the young men and the young women. I anoint every one that receives Me. These are the days of the manifestation of My sons and My daughters.”

“Draw near and receive everything that was included in the finished work of the cross. You are entitled to everything the finished work covers.

Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and the door will be opened to you.

I have you covered in My authority. You are covered in My authority to heal the sick, cast out devils, win the lost and to prosper.

Go in My authority. These signs that follow them that believe happen for you because of My authority. My authority covers it all. You are to walk in it to complete what has to be accomplished. I Am with you always.

Whosoever believes can receive My authority."

"This is what really works when everything else fails.

Be steadfast and be unmovable in the work of the Lord and in your faith.

Don't try to please men by doing things that won't help those in need.

There are many more open positions for more sons and more daughters."

"I have given you power to become sons of God. (like Jesus was on earth)

Colossians 1:15,19-20,22

(Now) He is the exact likeness of the unseen God (the visable representation of the invisible); He is the Firstborn of all creation.

For it pleased (the Father) that all the divine perfection, powers, and attributes) should dwell in Him permanently.

And God purposed that through (by the service , the intervention of) Him (the Son) all things should be completely reconciled back to Himself, whether on earth or in heaven, as through Him, (the Father), made peace by the blood of His cross.

Yet now has (Christ, the Messiah) reconciled (you to God), in the body of His flesh through death through death, in order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His (the Father's presence.

Colossians 2:13-15

And you who were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh (your sensuality, your sinful carnal nature, (God) brought to life together with Christ, having freely forgiven us all our transgressions.

Having cancelled and blotted out and wiped away the handwriting of the note (bond) with its legal decrees an demands which was in force and stood against us hostile to us. This note with its regulations, decrees, and demands, He set aside and cleared completely out of our way by nailing it to His cross.

God disarmed the principalities and powers that were ranged against us and made a bold display and public example of them, in triumphing over them in Him (Christ) and in it (the Cross).

This is an analogy of what God did for us.

If you had a child and murderer killed your child, then you forgave the murderer then gave the possessions of your child to the murderer and afterwards you gave your child's position in your home to the murderer.

This is a short analogy of what God did, but it explains what God did for us.

Jesus had healing and delivering power or virtue constantly flowing out of Him. When he would go to the different towns around Israel, the sick would touch Him or He would just speak to them to be whole. He always brought out the point that they were made whole.

He wants us to see that these works and even greater works shall we do.

Terry Suggs

May Day

Barbara Yoder

The Jordan is flooding and appears impossible to cross. Now is the time to arise; cry out to God to find the way through. On the third day, the officers instructed the people in the order of the march. Joshua ordered everyone to sanctify themselves. Then the priests, with the Ark on their shoulders, were to go before the people and put their feet in the Jordan.

As soon as they put their feet in the water, the river parted and all the people crossed over (Joshua 3). It is a time for unusual faith, a miraculous faith which will part un-crossable rivers. It is a time for BELIEVERS to stand, taking their place in intercession, and shut the mouths of the lions which are roaring at the river's edge, to keep us from crossing over.

Near the end of March, I heard the Lord say, Mayday, Mayday, Mayday. We have entered a countdown of urgency to break through. Many intercessors and prophetic people have been alerted to this time as one of dire alert. We are in a time when key issues must be broken through on spiritually by May 11, both in our territories as well as the nation. May is a turning month. It is no mistake that Chuck Pierce, Dutch Sheets and Cindy Jacobs will be in Washington DC for a National Day of Prayer Conference taking place over a 3 day period, at the time of the National Day of Prayer. Our nation is hanging in the balance, vacillating between two opinions.

A Crash is Imminent

Mayday comes from a French word m'aider which means "Help Me!" The word was always reserved for absolute impending peril because the distress call would come with great risk to the rescuers. The call for help is issued just before a disaster occurs, to summon help. When a sinking ship or troubled airliner calls mayday, it means a crash is imminent. I believe that God is issuing an urgent summons to prayer to intercept the grave plans of the enemy which will cause great distress.

The war in Iraq (which parallels Babylon in Scripture) is a picture of the maze we are in. It is so tangled and messy that many are crying out for retreat. Babylon has a spiritual force that has been loosed to confuse the minds of the righteous, so that tactical strategy is ill advised and ill timed, to bring about defeat. It is at this time that we must see through the confusion (maze) and press into intense worship and intercession which will break us through to the Mind of Christ. Supernatural strategy, strength and breakthrough are within our reach.

We are in a time of vacillation where we are being tempted to back off and take the easy way out, to call a truce because the roar is so loud OUR DISCERNMENT IS MESSED UP. However, May is the time to begin to run with the horses. The horses begin to run in May with the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. God is releasing war horses in the month of May to gallop through this nation starting with Washington DC. We have been in the tangled maze of the jungle haunted by lions nationally, territorially and in many cases personally.

Releasing the Man of War

Jer 12:5 Amplified says, "But the Lord rebukes Jeremiah's impatience, saying, 'If you have raced with men on foot and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses? And if you take to flight in a land of peace where you feel secure, then what will you do when you tread the tangled maze of jungle haunted by lions in the swelling and flooding of the Jordan?'"

Not only is God releasing war horses but He is releasing The Man of War.

The mightiest race horse in the history of horse racing is Man of War. It is a picture of the LORD who is THE Man of War. One of God's names is The Man of War. I heard the Lord say that The Man of War would march into Washington DC and be released across the nation from DC. There would come a fresh mantle on the President for righteous war and he would be re-clothed by THE Man of War. It would then begin to charge across the nation. It is no mistake that Earl Pickard is leading a team after May 11 to travel the path of the historic Lewis and Clark expedition. It was in May that new frontiers were opened up through Lewis and Clark.

Emerging Full of Power

Ex 15:1-3: THEN MOSES and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord, saying, I will sing to the Lord, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider or its chariot has He thrown into the sea. 2 The Lord is my Strength and my Song, and He has become my Salvation; this is my God, and I will praise Him, my father's God, and I will exalt Him. 3 The Lord is a Man of War; the Lord is His name. AMP

May is the time in the North when we see the shift in the seasons most dramatically. Luke 4:13 speaks about Satan's response to Jesus' successful overcoming of temptation in the wilderness. Jesus went into war with the enemy, full of the Spirit. He came out, full of power. Luke 4:13 says that Satan completed a cycle of temptation and stood apart from Jesus until the next favorable and opportune time. (Look in the Amplified Version.) The word favorable and opportune time in the Greek is kairos. Satan's target points are kairos seasons both in our personal lives as well as in the times of our territories and nation. Kairos times provide windows of opportunity that we must grab when they open. Satan comes in the kairos, opportune time when favor is about to be released, to thwart our overcoming. As a result, breakthrough into our inheritance for the season is thwarted and consequently delayed until a future time, sometimes for many years and even centuries. We must enter this war full of the Spirit so that we can emerge from the war, full of power. Miraculous signs, wonders and miracles are about to be released. But it is contingent on how we respond in this season, while the kairos window of opportunity is open.

The Need to Fast

In mid April, I met with our pastoral staff concerning setting a time for a 3 day fast. Every one sensed the need for the fast. As we weighed the timing before God, we came to the conclusion that the 3 days leading up to the National Day of Prayer were the critical days we were to target, May 3-5. We needed to break through before the Day of Prayer, so that it would be effective and result in a turning in the nation, a transformation of thought and insight because of a change of mind (Rom 12:1-2. May is critical. I challenge the nation to go on a 3 day fast leading up to the National Day of Prayer. We need to lay down our lives in prayer on behalf of our territories and the nation.

Review Chuck Pierce's prayer charge sent out April 16, 2004, called "We are in the Last Days of the Prayer Focus, Contending With Your Enemy." We are entering the most intense period over this focus during the month of May. May Day, May Day, May Day. Review some of the historic victories that occurred in this month throughout history which have established a foundation to overcome:

1- Where we start is with the Word of God. In May of 1611, the King James Version of the Bible was first published in England and became the standard English language Bible. Declare that there will be renewed faith within us in the power of the Word of God. Jesus is the Word. Declare the Word over our situation (John 1:1; Isaiah 55:11; Jer 1:12; Isaiah 40:8). Declare this passage over yourself as we enter this strategic month: Isa 50:4-5, "The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary. He awakens Me morning by morning, He awakens My ear to hear as the learned. 5 The Lord GOD has opened My ear." Declare that this is the month you will begin to have your ears opened to hear His Word as never before.

2- The first aerial use of torpedoes, called Dambusters, occurred in 1951. Our warfare is in the heavenlies. We are to loose dambusters in May (Psalms 149:6-9).

3- In 1881 the American Red Cross was established: an agency to aid those who, through disaster, were in distress. Jesus was sent to those in distress. We have been sent out by God to fulfill the ministry of Jesus (Luke 4:18-21).

4- The Empire State Building opened in 1931. The House of the Lord, His Church releasing the Kingdom of God, is to arise and tower over every other structure (Eph 1:15-23).

5- Jamestown VA was founded and settled in 1607. We are pioneering a new settlement of God which will release the Kingdom of God in this nation and manifest His wisdom (Eph 2:19-21; Eph 3:8-13).

6- Washington DC was founded in 1802. We are going to "Jerusalem" in May to take the city. He overcame the enemies of God and apostolically began to rule as king in Jerusalem. A new apostolic throne and rulership will be established (2 Sam 5:6-7; Ps 122:5; Isa 16:5; Dan 7:9-14 *9; *21). Read Revelation 4. The door is standing open in heaven; God is saying, "Come up here." When John entered through the door into heaven, the first thing he saw was the throne.

7- Alan Shepard was on the first manned space flight in 1961. The first transatlantic flight occurred in 1919 as Charles Lindbergh set out to accomplish this feat in May. We are entering the 3rd heaven to break through the second heaven by abiding in the third heaven with Christ, at God's right hand. We are taking the heavens (Eph 2:1-2, 4-7).

8- Astronaut Cooper orbited the earth 22 times. Declare that in May Isaiah 22:22 will be released across the nation.

9- The Transcontinental Railroad was completed in 1869. Lewis and Clark initiated their pioneering expedition in 1804 which laid the groundwork for taking the West. We are riding across this nation to reclaim it for God. Joshua received the mantle from Moses, advanced into Canaan and began to take the land. He subdued 31 kings (Joshua 12:24). Declare over the team Earl Pickard is leading across the path of the Lewis and Clark expedition, beginning May 13 and ending the 30th, that they will retake the path for God's purposes.

10- The first Olympic Games were held in the U.S. in St. Louis, MO, in 1904, one century ago. This is the month of one of the most famous car races in America, the Indianapolis 500. This is a season both to excel and cross the finish line as well as to break all relationships with Greek thinking which will hinder our finding the right path on which to run, Greece being the origination point of the Olympics. Run the race to win the prize in Phil 3 (Ps 19:1-6, *5; Eccl 9:11-15; 1 Cor 9:24-27; Heb 12:1-2).

11- The first life insurance policy in the United States was issued in Philadelphia in 1761. Declare that as we begin to run and break through, resurrection power will be released and a new faith to move into it will arise. We will receive new life as we move out in faith and cross the flooded plains (Rom 8:11).

12- Samuel F.B. Morse transmitted the first message as America's first telegraph line was opened. Declare that we will decode visions and dreams from God that will lead us into great victory, cause us to traverse impossible passageways and avert disaster. Declare that the mysteries we need to comprehend this month will be comprehended by moving into a revelation knowledge that will make them understandable. (Eph 1:17-21)

13- The Brooklyn Bridge, linking Brooklyn and Manhattan, opened to traffic in 1883. Also the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco was opened in 1937 to the public.

14- Pentecost (Shavuot) also occurs in this month on Wednesday, May 26th. The Holy Spirit is our bridge to Christ and all that is to be ours through Christ. Bridges will be built this month that will link us to key individuals, cities, and/or connections that will cause us to come into victory and inheritance (Eph 1:11-14; Col 1:11-12; Heb 9:15; 1 Pet 1:3-5).

15- In Europe and the US, V-E Day occurred on May 8. The German Army surrendered to the Allies at Rheims, ending the war in Europe on May 7 (Ps 47:1-5; 2 Cor 2:15; Col 2:15; Rev 15:2-4). We end the month with Memorial Day, honoring the many men and women who laid down their lives for our nation. We want to declare that this month we will begin to turn the tide and see great victory begin to manifest. Remember: there is power in the blood of martyrs. The blood cries out from the ground (Gen 4:9-11). We have all been challenged to present our bodies as a living sacrifice (Rom 12:1). Let us sacrifice in intercession to break through and turn the tide (1 John 5:4-5).

16- Lastly, the Women's Army Corp (WAC's) came into law on May 15, 1942. Women were granted official military status. Proverbs 31:10 says, "Who can find a virtuous woman? Her worth is far above rubies." The word "virtuous" means strength, then an army and wealth. Other meanings are might, efficiency, ability, and force. There is a new anointing on women for war. Deborah was a mother in Israel. As we celebrate Mother's Day on Sunday, May 9, let us celebrate and declare that women of strength, an army of women, women of wealth will begin to be loosed in a new way to take their places apostolically and come along side men, to win this battle and release the greatest harvest that has ever come. Men cannot bear seeds alone; they need to come into relationship with women for the bringing to birth of seeds. A great harvest is about to be released when women are released into the "Armed Forces of God" with a new apostolic mantle of authority and power.

On May 1, 2003, President George Bush proclaimed that day as loyalty day. I believe that as we begin this month, we need to proclaim loyalty to God, His Word, to hear His voice, to intercede, and to cover those with whom we are connected. Out of loyalty we need to cry out for our nation, our leaders, families, and children to find the right way to go so that we will break through and not lose any of our people, nor our possessions. We are in a time where we are warring also for the transference of wealth. There is the danger of losing it before we even get it because the enemy is targeting the plans of God. Yet God has awakened us to danger by crying out, "mayday, mayday, mayday," so that we can pray, strategize, overcome and break through to transformation in every area.

We say a new warring will be released in May which will ride through the nation, overturning the plans and plots of the enemy. RIDE ON MAN OF WAR! We will ride with you! And this warring will cause a new blossoming of the plans and purposes of God, along with a defeating of the enemy's strategies. RIDE ON INTO VICTORY! We hear the summons of the cry, "MAYDAY, MAYDAY, MAYDAY." WE WILL ANSWER IN PRAYER AND FASTING TO TURN OUR NATION.

Lastly, we are entering the 5th month and 5 means grace as well as redemption. Great grace and redemption will be released as we move forward in the purposes of God for this month. One intercessory leader had a dream about going to 5 gates by 5/11. I believe that there may be 5 gates in most cities as well as in each territory and the nation that we are to go to. There are 5 gates of Islam in the city of Detroit. There are 5 Baal altars in the Upper Peninsula. In the 5th month, we deal with the 5's, going out and crying grace, grace to the mountains. The word mountain in Zech 4:7 means something that looms up. It also means promotion. Grace also means favor. We will receive new favor at the place that looms up over us and will enter into our promotion individually, corporately and as a nation.

http://www.shekinahchurch.org/

My Beautiful Beloveds
Dee Hoetmer

4th May 2004
deeconsultancy@absamail.co.za
You will go forth bearing much fruit, your lips and fingertips dripping with oil and honey. I will send you forth for the healing of the nations. All tongues, all nations shall bow before you, saying surely the true God is within you.

Isa 45:14 Thus saith the LORD, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, SURLEY GOD IS IN THEE; AND THERE IS NONE ELSE, THERE IS NO GOD.

As you speak My Word, I will confirm it with signs and wonders. This is not to confirm you, but to confirm My Word, which you have spoken.

I will saturate you with the oil of My Spirit and with My Word. I will place a mighty sword in your right hand, with which you will cut down the opposing forces. I will make the path clear before you; all hindrances will be swept away. You are My beautiful Beloved, YOU ARE BEAUTIFUL IN MY EYES!

I adorn you with gossamer raiment that reflects the glory of My Son. I have a bride prepared, a bride of sweet heavenly fragrance. Draw in unto Me, let Me consume you with My love. As you do this, you will never be the same. My love consumes all dross. My love changes you forever. YOU ARE MY BEAUTIFUL BELOVED.

SONG OF SOLOMON
Sol 2:1 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys. Sol 2:2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters. Sol 2:3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. Sol 2:4 HE BROUGHT ME TO THE BANQUETING HOUSE, AND HIS BANNER OVER ME WAS LOVE.Sol 2:10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, RISE UP, MY LOVE, MY FAIR ONE, AND COME AWAY. Sol 2:11 FOR, LO, THE WINTER IS PAST, THE RAIN IS OVER AND GONE; Sol 2:12 THE FLOWERS APPEAR ON THE EARTH; THE TIME OF THE SINGING OF THE BIRDS IS COME, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; Sol 2:13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. ARISE, MY LOVE, MY FAIR ONE, AND COME AWAY

My Purposes For You Will Be Fulfilled
Dee Hoetmer

8th May 2004
deeconsultancy@absamail.co.za
I have called you and you have answered My Beloved. I see the pain in your heart as you are waiting for that which I gave into your heart, to unfold. I see anxiety trying to gain a foothold, but I also see that you are resisting it, and that pleases me My Beloved.

1Phi 4:6 Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phi 4:7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus

Isa 26:3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

For lo, now see what I do on your behalf. I send angels to provide for your every need. You have been faithful, your heart is totally Mine, indeed your heart has become like My heart. Will I not then bless you My Beloved. WILL I NOT THEN BLESS YOU.

HOLD ONTO ME, I will sustain you with My righteous right arm, until I have placed all that is necessary for you to fulfill your calling, into position. Stand strong, be the warrior I have called you to be; put satan and his lies beneath your feet.

You will go forth and do great exploits in My name. The dead will rise, the lame will walk, the deaf will hear and the blind will see. At a word the demons will flee. You will have to but lift up your hand and command them and they will flee. For this authority, this holiness in you, has been wrought in you by My hand, through fiery trails.

I am calling forth a people that will be praise unto My name. I am uniting your hearts and spirits, one by one. This may not seem a great work Beloved, but you do not see what I am bringing forth in the hearts of each of My Beloved. YOU WILL GO FORTH AS CHARIOTS OF FIRE, MY CHAMPIONS OF THE FAITH.

I am linking teams together even as we speak, to go forth to the nations. They will be of one heart and of one mind. They shall go forth in unity, supporting one another, loving one another, for it is only in that unity that My power, My glory can flow through them.

WAIT FOR IT BELOVED, wait for it, for it shall soon come to pass and your heart will be exceeding glad in Me.

Behold, I am preparing all things to send you forth in My glory, with My love to the nations.

Main Entry: ^{1}ex·ploit
: DEED, ACT; especially : a notable or heroic act synonym see FEAT
~~~~
Main Entry: $^{1}$feat
1 : ACT, DEED
2 a : a deed notable especially for courage b : an act or product of skill, endurance, or ingenuity synonyms FEAT, EXPLOIT, ACHIEVEMENT mean a remarkable deed. FEAT implies strength or dexterity or daring <an acrobatic feat>. EXPLOIT suggests an adventurous or heroic act <his exploits as a spy>. ACHIEVEMENT implies hard-won success in the face of difficulty or opposition <her achievements as a chemist>.

Main Entry: $^{1}$cham·pi·on
1 : WARRIOR, FIGHTER
~~~~

2 : a militant advocate or defender
3 : one that does battle for another's rights or honor <God will raise me up a champion -- Sir Walter Scott>
4 : a winner of first prize or first place in competition; also : one who shows marked superiority

Your Oppressors Will Be No More
Dee Hoetmer

8th May 2004
deeconsultancy@absamail.co.za
Those who have disdained your High Calling in Me, those with lofty hearts and haughty looks, who have looked down upon you and thought in their heart, how could I call such a one as this, WILL BE NO MORE.

The horse and its rider I have cast into the sea! They will no longer cause deep pain in your heart and no longer cause you to cry out to Me in the midnight hours.

Exo 15:1 Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: THE HORSE AND HIS RIDER HATH HE THROWN INTO THE SEA. Exo 15:2 The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him. Exo 15:3 The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name. Exo 15:4 PHARAOH'S CHARIOTS AND HIS HOST HATH HE CAST INTO THE SEAS: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

Their purpose in your life has been fulfilled. Their attitude has driven you closer to Me. They have broken your heart and I can only do a deep work in broken hearts.

Isa 54:16 “Behold, I have created the blacksmith Who blows coals in the fire, Who brings forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the spoiler to destroy.
Psalms 34:18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

You will look for them, but they WILL BE NO MORE. Their plundering of your heart and soul, I WILL RESTORE.

I will bind up the wounds they have inflicted upon your heart, so that you are totally healed before I send you forth. You have been trodden underfoot for many years and it has now become part of your life, but now as I send you forth, they WILL BE NO MORE.

Ezekiel 32:2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, AND TROUBLEST THE WATERS WITH THY FEET, AND FOULDEST THEIR RIVERS.
Ezekiel 32:32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

I will deal with them as I see fit. LEAVE THEIR JUDGMENT TO ME, for I AM A HOLY GOD and will do justice and righteousness.

Jer 30:16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that plunder thee shall become plunder, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey. Jer 30:17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I WILL HEAL THEE OF THY WOUNDS, saith the LORD; BECAUSE THEY CALLED THEE AN OUTCAST, saying, THIS IS ZION, WHOM NO MAN SEEKETH AFTER.

Call unto Me to remove all arrows and fiery barbs that have been left in your heart, and I will remove them and heal the wounds. Yea, even the scar tissue I will heal.

You hardly can believe it Beloved, that THE SEASON OF WOUNDING IS OVER, that their purpose has been fulfilled, for it has been such a long season, even as eternity for you.

Oh My Beloved, come into My arms, lay your head upon My shoulder and let Me comfort and restore you! Once healed from the affliction of your oppressors, I can send you forth, A PEOPLE THAT WILL BE A PRAISE UNTO MY NAME.

Merriam_Webster
Main Entry: ^{1}dis·dain
: a feeling of contempt for what is beneath one : SCORN

Main Entry: ^{1}scorn
1 : open dislike and disrespect or derision often mixed with indignation
2 : an expression of contempt or derision
3 : an object of extreme disdain, contempt, or derision : something contemptible

My Beloved Daughters
Olivia Reitz Long

October 5, 2004

My Beloved Daughters
Between A Rock And A Hard Place
faithbuildersministries@yahoo.com

To My Beloved Daughters ... So many of you have been between a rock and a hard place. You have been enduring a time of darkness, fear, depression, oppression and even destruction. You have been in this position for so long that you fear you are going down... But the I AM says "you will not go down in this hard place", one that began two years, three years, four years ago - for some,even much longer.

You feel like a destitute woman but you are NOT a destitute woman but a woman of power and wisdom. Watch as I take your hard place, your desperate situation in which you are barely enduring and turn it around for My Glory! You will see that this place is wealth to be shared with others - and you will touch many more of My daughters who will turn their lives of desperation over to ME for they will hear of your freedom and emergence from your hard place by MY HAND!!!

You have been held in a vice too long.. Listen for My voice with My instructions and your obedience will bring you out of your hard place into your promised land. Many of you will shortly be contacted by someone who holds your destiny, listen for My instructions. Hear the voice of your Father speaking words of love and compassion to you. Seek My face early in the morning and forget not My promises for they are yes and amen.

The enemy, even now says you are going down, that you will never exit this hard place, it is impossible. But be prepared to see the great power of the I AM. Be prepared to see many be astounded as I remove ALL hindrances from your life that are holding you back taking you out of your hard place. I will astound and amaze even those who gave you lip service of your situation. Now they and all will see and it will be a sign to you and them when it comes into full manifestation.

Beloved, My Spirit dwells within you and will instruct you in what you are to do. You are favored amongst women, listen to My Spirit. You are not destitute in any area. You will not remain in this hindered place any longer. As Elijah asked for fire, I answered with Fire! I AM a God Who answers. I answer My servants and you are My servants. As Elijah received His answer, so shall My daughters receive their answers and their deliverance.

I LOVE YOU, MY DAUGHTERS with an everlasting love, an all consuming love. You will see and experience My deliverance from your hard place. Celebrate, My Daughters, Celebrate! Celebrate My love for you as you emerge and stand with My Son, THE ROCK.

Be prepared to see sights you never imagined you would see. Be prepared for Me to do signs and wonders through you. You have desired healing for so many and you shall see it not only for others but for yourself. You will see all that I have given you authority to do! Any doubts that continue to plague you, I WILL REMOVE! Believe In ME! Believe in your miracle working God!

Be of good cheer, My daughters as the day of your deliverance approaches. Deliverance from the hold the enemy has placed on your ministry, your emotions, your finances, your very life itself.

While still in your hard place today, let your faith arise! See the impossible made possible! Declare your freedom for I AM setting you free! Shout aloud to the Lord, your deliverer, for you are beng freed from the avenger's tricks and holds.

RISE UP, O DAUGHTERS OF MINE - let your faith soar - and witness the deliverance of your Lord! No longer between a rock and a hard place, but with THE ROCK!

My Bride Is Made Ready

Dee Hoetmer

22nd June 2004
Ho My Bride is made ready, glorious, beautiful, spotless and white. Ready to be revealed to the world as My Beloved. My many membered Bride, made from the flotsam and jetsam of those the world has thrown away, accounted as outcasts, odd balls. These are those that make up My Bride. Do I not say in My Word that I take the weak and foolish things of the world so that no flesh can glory? (1 Cor 1:26-29)

These are those that will reveal My glory, My righteous right arm to the nations. Signs and wonders will follow them as they speak My Word, as they speak the words I give them to speak.

Isa 52:10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Nations will fall, Nations will rise and in the midst of the chaos, I reveal My Bride! These are those in the forefront of My army; My generals. Demons will cower at the sight of them. Kings will tremble at their approaching.

These are those that have chosen the narrow way. These are those that have entered the narrow gate.

Mat 7:13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat. 7:14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Through much trail, persecution and rejection, they have been refined by Me, made ready by My hand to reveal My glory. My Beautiful Anointed Ones, you are as a royal diadem, as a crown of glory. You will not move to the left or to the right but will await My instruction; you will go only at My word. Have I not said to you in the fires of refining, in the fires of persecution and rejection, that you will be as a crown of glory, as a royal diadem in My hand?

Isa 62:3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

Are you not pleased now that you did not give up, that you did not turn around but allowed Me to complete the work in you? My royal diadem, My crown of glory, now I set about arranging for your revealing.

Just a little while and you will be given your decrees, your marching orders, and as one you will move forth, hand in hand as with one heart beat to achieve the mandate you have already perceived in your spirit. Yes you have already received a perception of what you have been called to do. Even if it costs you your life, go forth and do it, for I am your exceeding great reward!

dee@heartbeatofthefather.co.za
http://www.heartbeatofthefather.co.za

My Bride I Long For You

Dee Hoetmer

24th July 2004

You have My ear attuned to your cries My children. No I have not forgotten you, neither have I forsaken you! I see the questions in your heart: “When Lord, when?” “When will I see Your glory?” “When will I be moved out of my present situation” “When will I have sufficient finances to even eat properly?” “It has cost Lord and where are you?”

I am doing a deep refining in you My Beloveds, fine tuning you to the voice of My Holy Spirit, to His promptings.

I yearn to be one with My bride, I yearn to hold you and love you even as a lover does. My Beloved, I have been waiting for such a time as this much longer than you!

I am the Alpha and the Omega, I also see the beginning and the end. You are not strong enough yet to face what you will face. You have to be infused with MY divine love, other wise you will not love the unlovely.

My bride I long for you too! Just a little more fine tuning of your spiritual ears and of your hearts. A little more fine-tuning and it will be time.

I have a “little time”, a prophetic time table and time is hastening. Those lagging behind in obedience and submission, must hurry to draw close to Me, to My heart beat, for the doors will be closing soon and then I will send forth My mighty army.

To those in obedience, this is a time of rest and repose. I am restoring your weary bodies and minds from the battles gone before. Many are tattered and tired; I cannot have a tattered and tired army, but an army radiant in My love and glory! You will be a praise unto My name My beautiful Beloveds, do not think of this as wasted time, the GREAT I AM KNOWS what I AM doing.

REJOICE IN ME in the time of fine-tuning and physical and mental restoration. It is also in the quiet times, when you draw close to Me, that I impart deep things into your heart. I long for you too My bride, DO NOT FRET BUT REST!

Merriam_Websters
Main Entry: Repose
1 a : to lie at rest b : to lie dead <reposing in state> c : to remain still or concealed
2 : to take a rest
3 archaic : RELY
4 : to rest for support : LIE

dee@heartbeatofthefather.co.za
http://www.heartbeatofthefather.co.za

Two Camps

Dee Hoetmer

dee@heartbeatofthefather.co.za
http://www.heartbeatofthefather.co.za

You have cried from your hearts vindicate me O Lord, from the unjust oppressor. You see that the season has changed, you are in My rest, but it is now that I turn My face to your oppressors. They have cruelly judged you and criticized My holy ones while they were going through the fires of My refining. Vengeance is Mine saith the Lord and I will vindicate you.

Psa 54:1 Save me, O God, by Your name, and VINDICATE ME BY YOUR STRENGTH. 2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth. 3 For strangers are risen up against me, and OPPRESSORS HAVE SOUGHT AFTER MY LIFE: THEY HAVE NOT SET GOD BEFORE THEM. 4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with those that uphold my life. 5 He shall repay my enemies for their evil: CUT THEM OFF IN YOUR TRUTH. 6 I will freely sacrifice to You: I will praise Your name, O LORD; for it is good. (NKJV)

Stay in My rest, My Beloveds, you are on hold, in a time of waiting, while I deal with My other children. The mouth of those that speak lies will be stopped. Their faces will be aflame with shame as I reveal who you really have become in Me. My Beautiful Beloveds, you submitted to the refining fires and now have a place of honor in Me.

Psalms 63:11 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped. (KJV)

There are those that are lagging behind in My Body and these are those that I have turned my attention to now. Stay in rest in Me, while I commence purging those lagging behind of all dross. My Bride is not complete without those that I have purchased with My Son’s blood. You will come into unity; you will march as one, My mighty army on the face of the earth, to raise a standard against the deluge of evil threatening to engulf the world.

Be patient, be kind and merciful as I now bring your brothers and sisters in beside you.
My Levites bearing the ark of the covenant, My Holy Presence upon their shoulders, are standing at the bank of the Jordan, while the remaining follow behind, but they are still My beloved children, part of the dread company who are to cross the Jordan into My promised land.

Jos 3:3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. 4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore. 5 And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you.
6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people. 7 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee.
8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the edge of the water of Jordan, ye shall stand still in Jordan. (KJV)

Stand and wait My Beautiful Beloveds, while I do a work in the remaining company, those who are the vessels of My glory and redemption to a groaning creation.

AMEN

My Bride Is Not Ready

Barbara Lynch

July 4, 2004, 8:08 AM

What I tell you today will resound around the world. I am coming after My bride and My bride is not ready. I have wooed and I have wooed but no avail. This time I am coming with My sword and I am going to cut off and I am going to separate the wheat from the chaff in My house. I am the Father of all wrath at this given time, for America will not repent of her wicked evil ways and it has become an abomination unto Me, the True and living God. It is OK, for now they will receive exactly what they have been crying out for. They will receive exactly what they have been crying out for. They will have their other God and then they will see the error of their ways, but it is now to late, for I will not relent this time. My arm is not so short that I could not have reached down and pulled America out of her pig sty, but she continues on unrelenting of her vile evil ways and I am disgusted with this whole mess that lies before Me.

The whole earth will sway under My heavy hand of Judgment and all shall know that I am God of all creation. It will now be time for the great harvest to be brought in. It is now time for My Mighty Miracles. Just stand back and be silent for you shall surely see the salvation of the Lord at this given time.

Father, what is it in the spirit realm?

It is only matter of time, little one, until the events that will change history start occurring. I am unleashing My Holy Angels and they are being sent on assignment to do My bidding at this given time in History. Be anxious for nothing, but in all things give Me Praise, Honor, and Glory. I will sustain My Holy Ones in this time of anxiety that is coming upon this earth. Not one of My little ones will be lost at this given time. Each and every one of My little ones has been assigned an angel of protection for this given time.

Even though the times of disaster will become more intense, My little ones will know complete safety. The signs of the times are at hand and the war has begun. Press on to the high calling that is upon your life and commit yourself unto Me for this end time plunge into destiny. Encourage all to come with you. Do not leave any stragglers. But encourage each and everyone that they too shall inherit My Kingdom prize.

What shall become of the ones that will not heed My voice is the question that is resounding throughout My Holy Community. I have spoken in the past and I speak once again, that they will be eternally lost. I have wooed them for the last time and those that chose life shall have life and those that have chosen other idols will have their other idols for all eternity. But I truly will take care of My own and they shall survive every attack of the war that is raging round about.

Do not get caught up in the politics of life, but keep your eyes upon Me and know that I am in complete control of all things. Life will change for he whole world and many conflicts will plague My people, but My people will be kept safe, so do not be discouraged and continue to encourage all of My Body

All must remember that I am in control and I am making the current events happen. It is all in My plans to bring My Son back for My people.

Thunder And Lightning

July 19, 2004 9:56 pm

Thunder and lightning shall proceed out of My holy Mountains in the few short days ahead. Many shall stand in amazement at what they see. For I am giving My people a sign and a wonder to behold and all will know that it is I, the Lord thy God that is doing this thing.

From My Holy Mountain I am commanding My Holy angels to go forth and do My bidding at this given time. There shall not be one stone left unturned at this given time, for I am about My business of restoration and I am restoring all that the canker and palmer worm has stolen from My Chosen generation. Take heed to yourself, little one. Do not allow the enemy to place a stumbling block before you at this given time.

Many sorrows are going to overtake My people in the few short days ahead and all will know that I am not a man that I should lie. Many souls will lie at My feet totally destroyed by the mighty earthquake that is coming upon the land at this given time.

Many more souls will run into the house of the Lord and will cry out for repentance. I shall receive them into My bosom and you shall see the floodgates of heaven open wide at this time given time and you shall see many restored into My kingdom.

Much slaughter shall take place in the earthly realm, for the battle has been raging in the heavenly realm and now it is going to manifest itself upon the earth.

The enemy will wreak much havoc across this land. I forewarned My people, but they closed their ears to My prophets and they did not heed My cries of warning that went throughout the land.

Musical Chairs at 57,000 Feet

Doug Addison

There is a change coming in leadership! A number of prophetic words have recently carried this message. Usually when something happens in the spiritual realm, it is reflected in the natural as well. We have seen a shakeup in the corporate world; CEOs and leaders have resigned and charges have been brought against them. This change in leadership is also beginning in government and will filter down to the smaller business community and to local churches.

My Dream

I had a dream that I was in a room with some leaders and a tornado was approaching. There was no time to react. Everything began to rotate clock-wise as if the tornado was in the room. I saw a chair float by as I too was picked up and poltergeisted. I was about to grab hold of the chair when the Lord said to me, "Many people have died because they held onto their chairs." Just then I heard the cry of a leader being swept away because he was hanging on to his chair. Then I heard a voice on the radio say, "There are musical chairs at 57,000 feet."

The meaning of the dream:

There is a change coming in leadership. In order for us to be more easily used by the Lord we must hold our current positions loosely.

The tornado was allowed by God (shown by the clock-wise spin as opposed to counter-clockwise). Chairs often represent our positions. Those who try to hold onto their positions, instead of flowing in what God has for them, will not be able to survive the change that is coming. 57,000: 5+7=12 which is the number of leadership and government. The fact that the number is in the thousands indicates a higher level, or degree of change.

There will be a shift in the entire body of Christ, from pastors to lay leaders, as these changes come about . New positions will open up that have been occupied by people who are not necessarily called to do what they have been doing. Some leaders who have lost their vision will gain fresh new insight from the Lord and begin to lead their churches to new levels.

How will we respond?

I have noticed a dramatic increase in the number of people who feel that they are supposed to be doing something else, but the something else is not yet clear. I have had numerous phone calls and e-mails from people seeking advice and direction from the Lord for their current situation.

When we sense that change is coming, it does not necessarily mean that we should leave our jobs, move, or change churches.

Many people are picking up this coming change in the spiritual realm . When we sense things like this we must be careful to use wisdom and seek the Lord on how it applies to our own situation. I often find that many revelatory gifted people tend to lack "spiritual depth-perception". We hear things in the Spirit but are not always able to discern whether it's for next week or ten years from now. Timing is crucial in our journey with the Lord.

Proverbs 16:9 In his heart a man plans his course, but the LORD determines his steps.

Doug Addison
info@dougaddison.com
www.dougaddison.com
http://www.dougaddison.com/articles/musicalchairs.html

More Comments The Prosperity Message
Clay Sikes

Lisa Brewer/Others
May 16, 2004
This message is so God and so "God" timing. I have heard Clay give this Word before and I received it and God moved in my life and just when I really, really needed to hear it again, here it is. I waited until this morning to read these emails because, honestly, I just wasn't in the mood to read them until now.

The first time I heard this message, in my life anyway, Finances were not the only area that this message applied. I have shared this before about even giving God my dreams and desires and one of them was to live in the Mountains (I live in southeast GA on the coast, a far cry from the Mountains) and once I really became "content" with where I live and gave the dream to God and truly did turn it over to Him, it didn't matter to me where I lived, He provided, almost immediately, a cabin in the Mountains of NC (just outside of Asheville, my 2nd favorite place) and it was provided primarily through my Mother as a gift to her children and God blessed us with what we needed to contribute to pull it all together and to keep it together since then.

Now here I am in a different type situation. I am currently working. For a very long time I have desired to be at homemaker. I want to be at home with my children, to be able to take very good care of my husband, my children and my home. My husband won't let me quit, with his blessing anyway, due to "finances". So after anguishing over this for so long, I turned it over to the Lord and gave it to Him, really gave it to Him. He told me that mid May I would be receiving a financial blessing that would enable me to quit work and stay at home and take care of what God has given me without creating tension, ill feelings or problems at home with my husband. I feel there is a mission God has for me and that too will be done when I get home! Well after He told me that I started thinking about it all of the time, dwelling on it, was very preoccupied with that word. It really affected my attitude at work and at home but for the worse because it wasn't happening fast enough.

I needed to be reminded of this Prosperity message with this present situation.

Well the Lord reminded me of a Word He gave me a couple of months ago and I didn't feel I was to share it on this site until now. I feel He wants this Word shared.

The Book of Jonah packs such a powerful message. I am not talking about the one "don't run from God or you will swallowed by a big fish". The Lord through someone in our Sunday meeting, gave me Jonah 2:8: "Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs". The Lord just told this person to give me that scripture and that was it. It didn't pertain to the message or anything else that day. So I went home and kept asking God why did He give me that scripture. So I started reading the book of Jonah from the beginning. No where in the book of Jonah does it talk about idols except in that scripture.

BUT the Lord started revealing to me what Jonah meant by that scripture, the Revelation that Jonah received about his "situation". Jonah had created an idol out of his situation. He was in the sin of idolatry. Idol: a person or thing blindly adored, something "visible" but lacking substance; Idolatry: Blind or excessive Adoration or "Devotion"; Idolize: to regard with unquestioning or excessive admiration or devotion; Devote/Devotion: to give or apply one's time, attention or self entirely to a particular activity or cause, feeling or exhibiting strong attachment

The 1st Chapter He devoted his thinking to the task God had given him and disobeyed God by not doing what He said and tried to run from it. He "thought" his present situation was too big for him to handle so he ran. He got the What-to-do from God but he didn't take the time to seek God for his how-to. So God provided a storm for Jonah to go through. God showed Jonah that He IS GOD. The 2nd Chapter is Jonah's prayer while in the fish and in addition to vs 8, vs 9 says "But I will, with a song of Thanksgiving , will sacrifice (obey, turn over, give it up) to you" . The 3rd Chapter is Jonah's obedience and he does what God asked of him. The people repent and God has compassion and He forgives them and spares them.

But then Jonah in Chpt 4, too quickly forgets and cerate's another "idol" out of his situation and he gets ticked off that God had compassion on the people of Nineveh. All he had to do is do what God said and deliver the message, period. He has once again devoted his time and attention to something he has no control over and God tells him this "have you any right to be angry?" Jonah goes and sits and God sends a vine and creates a perfect shelter for him to keep him cool and ease his discomfort and Jonah was Happy, and then the next morning sent a worm to devour what He had made. Again Jonah was angry and God said again "do you have any right to be angry?" God said you have been concerned (devoted) about this vine, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight.

The whole point God made with me was we have no control over other people, over situations, over what we have, where we are, etc. other than seeking Him, hearing Him, and obeying Him. Being content in our situation WITHOUT being overly devoted to it, "idolizing" it whether it's a comfortable situation (like receiving the cabin or being able to stay home and take care of your family) or an uncomfortable situation (like being broke, or sick, etc.) It's all God and He IS in control even when we do not feel it and we do not need to concern ourselves with HIS business, just seek, trust and obey.

I was going through a situation with my husband and was so consumed with his lack of being concerned with his health and wasn't taken measures to seek medical help and a few other situations that I don't need to get into but the point is, I was committing idolatry over these situations that I had not control over and was not leaving them to God. When we step into Idolatry where does the Word say God is? He isn't there in it with me that's for sure!

We need to pray over our situations and people as the Lord leads but don't feel like you "should" pray or do something just because it's the right thing to pray for or to do. Think of how much GRACE we forfeit by clinging to our situations and circumstances, once we let go of them and let God, He takes care of them. But only when we let them go.

The world will see a lot of what God will have us to do or NOT DO as cold, uncaring, etc. Like not tithing the way they think we should, or already in my case of wanting to be a homemaker as not helping my husband support our family, or giving someone a word that isn't so pleasant to give, or not praying for your spouse to be healed of a disease. With this last one let me give you a little insight. My husband had a situation that was ailing him and I was praying for God to heal him because what was wrong wasn't really that big of a deal, so I couldn't understand why God wouldn't heal him of such a small, but very uncomfortable problem, well about 2 months later after going through some test for the problem because it had gotten so unbearable, they found colon cancer. The colon cancer wasn't the problem or even associated with the problem but they found it because of the problem. He was told had it not been found that only three short months down the road it would have entered his blood stream and mastesized. The Lord told me "had I honored your prayer his cancer would have spread".

So there will be many times that we see people going through something very difficult and if God didn't tell you to pray for that person, you better not. We don't know or see what God knows and sees and therefore we HAVE to trust Him and Obey Him, and at that includes obey by not doing anything unless He calls for us to do it. But we need to seek Him in all things. I feel at least for me, that He evens wants me to seek Him for my "daily" eating habits, what clothes I buy and if I even need to buy them, what I allow the children to watch on a daily basis, what I should let them do on a daily basis, and it does change from day to day, and so on. I am not saying I have perfected this because I forget to include Him a lot times and I have a long way to go, (smile)! But I know it's what I should strive for!

After reading the 2 part message I have once again been reminded and see that I was making an idol out of the very WORD God gave me about being able to stay home. I have once again left it to Him and He will supply the blessing in His time and until then I am very content in my situation at work and know that His grace is sufficient to take care of my husband and children and home (as He has done for the past years) until the appointed time for me to be able to give it my all. Instead of them only getting a little bit of me (what's left after work, ball games, cooking, cleaning, etc.) they will hopefully get the best part of me that God has created to offer them.

I haven't physically received this blessing YET but I know it's already mine and is here in the Spirit.

I pray this message blesses those whom it is intended to bless as much or even more than the blessing I have received by the Prosperity Message (1&2) and by the Wilderness Experience by Andrew Strom.

In Him,

Lisa Brewer, Contractor-DPTMS
Anteon Corporation
Training Support Branch-Simulations Ft. Stewart, Georgia

As I study some Jewish commentaries on tithing, I find it was meant for one of two things; Feeding the poor or helping your own children till they can get back on their feet. NOT feeding shepherds who want 3 homes, stunt planes, 4 cars and $4,000 suits. Get real folks, I'm all for prosperity, that’s one of the wonderful things about living in America, we all have a chance to succeed, but NOT on the backs of the sheep! What a perverted gospel.

Its become "Church of the Holy Lottery" and the only big winners are the pastors. When the Holy Spirit occupies your heart, you simply become a giver, be it giving your time, effort, money, hugs, compassion, food, thoughtfulness etc. You simply are a giver. Its in your blood. If, as some are teaching, money is the end -all -of end -alls to God, why did God GIVE his Son for our sake?? Maybe Jesus should have simply sold tickets to heaven for $20 and spared Himself the horrible pain he endured for us. Bottom line, just obey Him. "My sheep hear My voice". Tithe if He says tithe, give muffins to your neighbor if He says to, pick up the dinner tab if He says to, treat yourself if He says to. Just be led by Him and not the doctrine of man.

DP A Gold Nugget Response To True Prosperity Message

Dear Clay,

I read your article on Bill Somers site, I thoroughly enjoyed it, it is packed with truth. I wanted to send a short article from my book that goes along with what you wrote. Your message needs to be heard, it would set a lot of people free.

God bless you for writing the truth,
Gary Carroll

...for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Corinthians 9:7

Another reflection of real love for God is in our giving. We should give to God only because we love Him. So many today connect giving to receiving. The Holy Spirit teaches us that any attempt to obligate God to give is never permitted. He teaches us that when we give in love to Him, He responds in love and gives to us. This is the only way God gives. He gives everything in love.

A catchy phrase we have all heard in church is you can't out give God. This approach of giving to God is unfortunate. Receiving is taught to be an acceptable incentive for giving. If this is the reason we give, we should be reconciled to waiting for an extended time to receive back from God. When we give to God in order to obtain from Him, we are actually attempting to manipulate God. The strings we attach to our giving are the same strings that tie His hands to give back to us. Our incentive for giving should never be receiving. Love is not found in this type of giving. Self is. We must discard the prominent teaching of giving to get from God. When we are concerned with what God wants, our giving and love will be focused on Him. He then responds to our love and lovingly gives back to us. God responds when our giving is in love.

Gary Carroll

My Deliverance is Upon You

Elvi Glass

Rejoice My children for I am with you. Do not despair for I am your God. I will shelter you, I will protect you by the power of My Name. Do not fear the enemy. The only authority the enemy has over you is the authority you allow him to have. Therefore, do not give him room or a place to rest, but resist him and he will flee from you. Remember he is a liar and has been a liar from the beginning. The only fear that is acceptable is the fear of Me.

I have heard your cry for deliverance of all hindrances that prevent you from coming closer to Me and I am sending help. My deliverance in those areas as well as other areas is about to manifest upon you for I desire you to be completely free from any hindrances. I am sending forth My angelic hosts, even now they are on the way to minister deliverance and healing so that you can be free to worship Me and fully receive from Me the good things of My kingdom. You are about to enter into a greater level of freedom and deeper intimacy with Me. It is there that you will find protection and refuge as well as My refreshing upon you.

I am watching over you My children and I am empowering you to walk in great authority. No longer will the enemy be allowed to trample on you but you will tread upon the lion and the cobra. You will trample the great lion and the serpent. In My Name you will crush his head and his cause will be no more. Stand against all the wiles of the enemy. Your standing will be a witness unto those around you that I am God and that I am with you.

Victory is at your doorstep. I am stirring up My wind of power and anointing. This wind will become a storm. Do not fear this storm because it is of Me. Do not run from it but embrace it for you will stand in My power and My strength and nothing will harm you.

Shout aloud with joy and thanksgiving. Dance before Me with song and praise. Shout aloud for My time to come is soon. I am coming on the clouds with power and great glory. I am coming soon. Stand strong in My power and resist the enemy so that he will flee from you.

Elvi Glass
beglass@earthlink.net

Mel Gibson - King Cyrus of Babylon

Ron McGatlin

Mar 2, 2004

Recently I had a phone conversation with Henry Parker of Haven Mission in Virginia. Henry shared with me that the Lord had shown him that Mel Gibson was as King Cyrus.

The LORD stirred up the spirit of Mel Gibson just as he once stirred up the heart of a Babylonian king. King Cyrus was stirred by the LORD to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. The temple in Jerusalem had previously been laid in ruins by the Babylonians. King Nebuchadnezzar had destroyed the house of God and taken all the treasure from the house of God to a Babylonian temple.

Ezra 1:1, 5:13 - 15: Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing,

"However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to build this house of God. Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that was in Jerusalem and carried into the temple of Babylon; those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor. And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.'

The king of spiritual Babylon has robbed the people and taken many captive. The treasures of the temple have been carried away and the people caused to live in Babylonian ways. God is ready for His people to come out of Babylon (Babylonian ways). He is ready for a people who will rebuild the temple. God desires the treasures of gold and silver vessels to be returned to the Jerusalem temple (The New Jerusalem).

God has again stirred the heart of a man to begin the process of returning what has been taken to Babylon. Mel Gibson's powerful film is bringing the reality of the cross back to the house of God. The foundational treasure of the reality and significance of the cross has been tucked away in Babylonian temples and now is being presented back to the people.

The crucifixion is the ultimate message of Love. The love of God is the foundation of life and is fully demonstrated for all mankind to see in the demonstration of the self sacrifice of Jesus at the cross. The crucifixion of Christ Jesus is the one pivotal point of all history. It is the foundation of the power of the kingdom of God. Even the power of the resurrection rest in the willing sacrifice at the cross. The first step in returning the treasures to the church is the experience of absolute identification with the reality of the crucifixion.

God did not choose a pastor or a priest to return the treasure to the temple. He needed a man with position and power in Babylon. A man that He could stir up to decree the rebuilding of the house of God and return the treasures to the people of God. He chose Cyrus a ruler from Babylon of old and He chose Mel Gibson form the Babylon of today. King Cyrus put his proclamation in writing - Mel Gibson put his proclamation on the big screen.

Heaven Is Opening Now!

An Open Door In 2004

Lots of Love,
Ron McGatlin
Coordinator, Openheaven.com IRN (CRC USA)

International Revival Network - Since 1995

http://www.openheaven.com http://www.carolinarevivalconnection.com ron@openheaven.com

Melchizedec

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
One of the most mysterious bible characters is the one who seems to have appeared 'out of the blue', conferring a blessing upon Abram. Some say that it was Yeshua, others Shem or Noah. "Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God Most High. And he blessed him and said: 'Blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth'" (Gen. 14:18). Who was this person and why did he bless Abram?

His name, translated "King of Righteousness", and his title, "Priest of God Most High", imply a two-fold position of king and priest. He was therefore designated as a (righteous) king-priest. The first time we run into such an office is in the first chapter of the bible, where Adam is given dominion over all living things (constituting a kingly position), while also "walking with" his Creator (which would imply a priestly role). At that time this position belonged to both male and female, as sin had not yet separated them from one another: "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them [male/female] have dominion" (Gen 1:26). After the fall of man into the realm of sin, this coveted position was passed on as a birthright and was given to the firstborn just before the death of his father (that is if the firstborn qualified to receive it).

When YHVH gave dominion to Adam He actually established His kingdom, along with its order, here on earth. In Psalm 145 it says that YHVH's kingdom "is an everlasting kingdom," and that His "dominion endures throughout all generations" (verse 13). But although YHVH maintained the order of His dominion throughout all generations, it could not be fully manifest because man was under the dominion of another kingdom with another law (the "law of sin and death"). However, as mentioned in the above scripture, YHVH's kingdom order was still in effect in the form of the law of redemption, being the only means out of man's fallen condition, and depended on a redeemer and on the laws that govern the loss of inheritance.

But the question still remains, who was the one who blessed Abram? Since Noah was still alive at the time, it most likely was the latter (while Shem and Eber were princes in line to take the position that Noah would impart when the time came). The Scriptures also indicate that Noah was a righteous man according to faith: "By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith" (Heb 11:7). What was Noah an heir of? His obedience to the divine directives qualified him to bear the title of the firstborn (king of righteousness), and because he walked with YHVH by faith, the priestly office belonged to him as well. Thus, being alive at the time of Abram he could have very well passed on this office to Abram as part of the covenant that YHVH was making with the latter, who was a prince and a firstborn in the genealogy of firstborn; a man of faith whom YHVH declared righteous through the obedience of faith.

At the time of Abram YHVH decided to make a covenantal change that would affect the firstborn position. Instead of a single father, from the generations of the first/born, holding the office of king-priest, YHVH chose a nation to fill that role in humanity. Thus in the twentieth generation of these princes (firstborn of the Melchizedek order) YHVH, by means of Noah, blessed Abram and established the promise of a nation that would come out of his loins through Sarah (Isaac) and give rise to the chosen nation (Jacob). This chosen nation would hold the birthrights of the Melchizedek office. Because this is an irrevocable anointing, Yeshua had to come to this seed as a kinsman redeemer and fulfill all obligations, according to law, as its King and High priest. He would in effect be King of the kings and High Priest of the priesthood. Yeshua could then be in a position to restore the kingdom of YHVH to the nation of Israel. This is what the disciples of Yeshua understood when they inquired of Him before his departure, "When are you going to restore the Kingdom to Israel?" They did not understand at that time that it would come into them by the Spirit. "The Kingdom of YHVH is righteousness, peace and joy in the Spirit of Holiness". The bread and the wine that Melchizedek shared with Abram demonstrate the connection between the Abrahamic Covenant and the New Covenant. The Abrahamic Covenant could not be fully realized until the coming of a kinsman redeemer who would take away the veil of flesh that hid the "faith", atone for sin and fulfill the requirements of the Mosaic Covenant, which condemned sin in the flesh.

Now that YHVH has reconciled His people through His Son, Yeshua, and the blood of His cross, we may enjoy the fullness of the promises that were laid up in heaven and have now come into us through the indwelling of the Spirit of Holiness, as stated in Scripture: "….because of the hope which was laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, which has come to you, as it has also in all the world, and is bringing forth fruit, as it is also among you since the day you heard and knew the grace of Elohim in truth;… that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of Elohim; strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, for all patience and longsuffering with joy; giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins" (Col 1:5-6, 9-14). "For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell, and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross" (Col 1:19-20).

This hope that was laid up in heaven is now in you through the Spirit of Holiness, "… the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His chosen. To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations: which is Messiah [the anointing of Yeshua] in you, the hope of glory" (Col 1:26-27). "Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God" (2 Corinthians 7:1).
However, the apostle attached the following condition to this message of the "covenant of faith": "And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight - if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard" (Col. 1:21-23).
Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

Melchizedek
Nita Johnson

Date: 10- 2002

Melchizedek Priesthood
A Sermon By Nita (LaFond) Johnson

Transcribed by Cornerstone Christian Center
Singapore October 2002
Dear Reader As you read, remember that this is a transcribed sermon. So, don’t expect it to read as smoothly as a written work. I hope you enjoy it.

Shalom Nita

Turn to Psalm 110, please

“Father, I thank you for Your heart for us. I love how You instructed Paul to write about the glory and the grandeur to be released in these frail human vessels of earth. Because, Father, we all feel so frail so often in the light of our humanity but it was a grand thing You did. It was a noble thing You did to decide that those that they try to destroy, those frail human vessels of earth, would overcome our enemies. Today he may stand on the top of the mountain, pointing and mocking and jeering at the body of Christ but the day is coming that he will see his end, he will see his doom and it will be we, not him at the top of the mountain and we thank You for that Lord. It was an amazing thing You conceived, when You conceive the plan of salvation. This morning as I share the things that You put upon my heart, Lord. Help me to share with clarity so that even the youngest can understand what is being said. Help us to understand the importance of what You are trying to prepare us for, Lord so we will not tarry, where we are in our Christian walk. Not even those, Father, who have experienced a new dimension in You in the last couple of days, Lord that they will not tarry even here but they will use what You have given them in the last couple of days as divine fuel to go faster, harder, higher. We thank You for that Father! Help us to understand, open the eyes of our heart. Help us to understand in your precious name, Amen!

The Lord Jesus Christ made a rather remarkable statement when He was here walking on the face of the earth and He said to the people, He said: “If this is true, then the finger of God has come upon you.” Have you ever thought about that? What it will be like to have the finger of God come upon you? The Bible said it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the Living God. For the finger of God to touch our humanity is an awful thing and I don’t mean awful in the bad sense but awful in the Divine sense. But the finger of God is getting ready to come to earth as represented in, The kingdom of God!

You might say: The kingdom of God is here. Let me give you a word picture. Have you ever seen a mustard seed? Have you ever seen a grain of a mustard seed? It so small, I don’t know if you can see them but if you have my vision, you cannot see them, not a grain. And that is about what we have of the kingdom of God in the earth today: something less than a mustard seed. When I say that the kingdom of God is getting ready to come, I am talking about something you cannot comprehend, you cannot begin to fathom and that is why it is so important for you to press in today so that you can understand as He quickly prepares His Church for the coming of the kingdom.

Psalms 110

Psalm 110 says: “The Lord God said to my Lord the Messiah, “Sit at my right hand until I make your adversaries your footstool.” The Lord will send forth from Zion the scepter of your strength. Rule then in the midst of your foes. Your people will offer themselves willingly in the days of thy power, in the beauties of holiness and in holy array out of the womb of the morning to you will spring forth your young men who are as the dew. The Lord has sworn and will not revoke or change. You are a priest forever after the matter of the order of Melchizedek. The Lord at your right hand will shatter kings in the day of His indignation. He will execute judgment in overwhelmingly punishments upon the nations. He will fill the valleys with dead bodies. He will crush the chief heads over lands and many and far extended.

He will drink of the brook by the way. Therefore He will lift His head triumphantly.

We pick out bits and pieces of these passage and we can build some pretty wonderful sermons about it. But it is the picture of the day that is ahead of us. It was in the 90s, I can't remember exactly 98 or 99. I had a powerful experience. I have been three days in the presence of God just wrapped in His Spirit. I spent three days and three nights in the constant state of worship and communion with the Lord, when suddenly I was taken, to heaven and I found myself kneeling before the Lord in His throne room.

Now many things happen initially, which I won't go into because it doesn't necessarily add to what I want to say about Melchizedek. Although there were things that will pertain to what He was about to do, it doesn't necessarily add to your understanding to what I have to say. But after all these things have been accomplished and communicated to me, He rose up and He took me by the hand and He said: "Come, come, walk with me" and so He helped me rise up and we walk to this room. As we entered into this room, I noticed that there was nothing in it, not one piece of furniture, nothing? And so I am looking all around the room, scanning, wondering why He had brought me into this room. When suddenly, my eye caught to my left, the most beautiful garment. I looked at it and I look again and I look again. I remembered seeing that garment many years before. So although I knew that it was the garment of the Old Covenant High Priest. I also knew that's not all it was. I knew that what I was looking at was the garment of the Melchizedek Priesthood of the New Covenant.

But still I wonder why He brought me here just to look at this beautiful garment and I looked at Him and ask Him why He had brought me. Sometimes the Lord doesn't answer you in words. He just remains quiet and your heart is beating a hundred miles an hour wondering if He is going to talk or what He is going to say, when He does talk. I mean your mind starts going, well very rapidly. When you are in the spirit, some people think that you change your personality because you are in the spirit but that is not true. You are in the spirit who you are in the natural. And so I have a very inquisitive mind, overly inquisitive, and I always have. So if I ask you a question and I don't get an answer. My mind is going race a hundred miles an hour trying to think of the next five questions.

And that was what I was going through when He led me over to this garment. Then He began to adorn me in it. With each piece, He spoke to me once again explaining what that piece was, what it represented and He was so proud to be giving it. When He had me completely adorned in this Melchizedek garment, He stepped back and He looked at me. He looked with such …..it's almost hard to use the word pride when it comes to the Lord but it was like that. It was like something that He had been awaiting for many, many, many years and now here it is. The last two things He did was put upon my head the turban with the word "Holiness unto the Lord" Now this time I thought maybe He was completely done because He sort of stood back a little bit and I got very nervous and I said to Him "Lord, will you not give me the Urim and the Thummim? I thought, the garment just isn't complete without it. He smiled and He put His hand in a pocket and He pulled out two of the most amazing looking stones that I have ever seen. At the time that they were in His hands, they were like crystals or diamonds in color. But as He handed me each stone, the first turned a blood red as it touch my palm and the second turned a color very close to a royal blue in my palm and then He attached the Urim and the Thummim to the garment and He walk me over to another place and He said "I want to show you, now that you have this garment, what will happen when you pray."

And I looked and I saw a huge globe. It was the kind that was kind that was like transparent in between latitude and longitude lines with the continents on it. It was so large, it was probably as big as any man easily.

He said: "When you pray, this is what will happen. I saw lighting bolts shoot out from this garment and come upon the globe and fire would be released every time one of these lighting bolts hit the earth. Fire would be released and it would just go out like a river and He stood back in front of me and He said: "Nita, this garment is the most powerful thing in the earth, now listen to Me very carefully, this garment is the most powerful thing that has been reserved for the Church on planet earth." "This garment has the power to change destinies, to change nations, to lift up one and to bring down another. It is a very powerful instrument in God's hands. The Melchizedek Priesthood!"

I've talked on Melchizedek twice now in my entire ministry. Releasing revelations that God has given me about the Melchizedek priesthood. When I was in India in January, I had a meeting with a gentleman that spends an awful lot of time with the Lord and he's been visited often as a result. The Lord sent two messengers that told him the importance of getting the fullness of the revelation of Melchizedek out to the Church. They said to this man, "Tell Nita that she has only released 50% of the revelation of Melchizedek. 50% and if she does not release the rest of it, the Church will never come in to its fullness." This message is extremely important to the body of Christ. However, today I am obviously not going to have time to do that.

It's really something that should be covered in, I don't know? 12 – 14, in depth messages. But the Lord wanted me to share with you some points on Melchizedek. "Do you have paper and pen that you can write? It would be very important for you to do that."

Point One

Notice in verse 1 that it says: "The Lord God said to my Lord, the Messiah, sit at my right hand until I make your adversaries your footstool." Notice the position of the Melchizedek. The position is to sit at the Lord's right hand. This is the place of power but not just any kind of power. It is the place of supreme power. Sit at my right hand, in other words, sit upon your throne -- sit upon the throne that I prepared for you until I make your adversaries your footstool. So the Melchizedek Priesthood is a reigning Priesthood that reigns not from earth but from heaven.

If you look at any ministry and say: That ministry has got to have the greatest power that has been released in the body of Christ today. Or you see revelation or hear revelation and you're thinking in your heart "That has got to be the highest revelation that been released in the body of Christ today." All of these are not heavenly authority of which I speak. It is not heavenly power of which I speak. It is authority and power that God has bequest to His Church on the earth and so it is limited in its capacity. Have you ever wondered why? If the Lord says to us "That greater things that He did, we shall do also. And, that we have all power over all the works of the enemy. Why we don't see that? Have you ever wondered that? It is because we're operating in an authority and power bases inferior to the ultimate to be released to the Church.

Although He has given that to us, we are not yet operating in it. And the reason is because that kind of authority and power can only be given to a matured Church. Too many things come out of our mouths and out of our heart that will be very destructive with that kind of authority and power on our shoulders. So we have got to enter into maturity, made in the image of the personality and in the character of Christ to bear that kind of authority and power. So then that leads us to another point about Melchizedek.

Point Two!

Those who will move in this Melchizedek mantle, and are going to be given to the Church will be those who are walking in the maturity of the Christ nature. In fact we can say about Melchizedek that is a demonstration, of the fullness of the Christ. He said: "Greater things than I am doing, will you do" John said: If the world were filled with books, they could not contain all that He did. That just, sends your mind racing, doesn't it? If the world could not contain all of the books to describe all that He did and we going to do greater things: "what in the world are we going to do?" Doesn't it make your heart, just kind of jump with anticipation? Excitement? Curiosity?

Melchizedek is the manifestation of the fullness of the Christ. It is the Church reigning not from the position of earth but from the position of the throne. If you were to go through the book of Revelations in the discourse to the churches, you would see and understand just a little bit of what is coming to the Church of the last days. One of the discourses we were given spoke to those who overcome. They will be seated upon, what? That's right! Many people look at that as being something that is going to transpire in the next life…you know…hereafter in heaven. But that was not what he was talking about it at all. He was talking about those who overcome. You can walk in the authority and power and virtually be seated in your heavenly throne in this life. And that is what Melchizedek is all about. It is ruling and reigning. “Write ruling and reigning!” In the authority and power of heaven.

Remember the story when Jesus is out in the sea with His disciples and He calmed the storm. We read that and we go…….sigh! That must be some experience and then another time we see Him walking on the water and we think “Can you imagine having watched Jesus walk on the water.” This is the rule and the reign of heaven, not of earth. It’s much higher than what we are walking in today. That isn’t to say that a believer cannot stop a storm. I have certainly stopped my share of them. That isn’t to say that a believer cannot walk on water, there are those who have.

Let me give you another example. Remember when Jesus said: “You can say to this mountain, be thou removed and be thou cast into the sea.” Then what did He say: “If you have the faith as a grain of a mustard seed.” What will happen? Have you seen anyone moving mountains lately? Well you see, heaven’s authority and power makes that a very real reality. I am not saying that God is going to send any saints over to Mount Everest to move it around to get His point across but He could do that with one operating in heaven’s authority and power. This is so much higher than the Church is walking in today. It is incomprehensible, I don’t know about you, Maybe it is just me, maybe I am slow but it feels incomprehensible to me to think about standing in front of a mountain and saying “Mountain move!” And watch it suddenly sprout legs and move. Yet this is a reality in the heaven authority and power.

I had an experience with the Lord. I will go into this experience because it is important to what we are teaching today. I had an experience with the Lord, and in the midst of that experience, He let me experience the place that the Lord Jesus walked in when He was here on this earth. Now my dear brothers and sisters, I know we don’t flow a lot in the gifts in these meetings because God is doing something more important than that right now. But I have seen phenomenal miracles take place in my ministry. I have seen blinded eyes healed. I have seen deaf ears healed. I have seen people with multiple sclerosis healed, I’ve seen polio victims with their legs all twisted and maimed from polio, completely healed. I seen awesome miracles, I seen mentally retarded people healed. But in all those times that I have ever seen the miraculous. -- I can remember one time; a mother brought her little ten-month-old baby to me and the child was in a two-thirds body cast. She said, “I want you to pray for my baby because he was born without heel bones and they are going to be doing surgeries on him until he is many, many years old trying to build heel bones in his little feet. It will be many years before he will ever be able to walk his first step, please pray for my baby” I thought well there is no way to get him up jumping around to see if he has received the healing. So I just prayed a very quick prayer and patted the baby on the head and moved her on. She took the baby back to the doctor and learned that God had healed him. He had heel bones. She said it was so real when they took the x-ray of the baby, the doctor said: “I am sorry but I ……this is impossible. It’s not possible that this child has heel bones, I’ve got to show you, I’ve got to show you the x-rays from the past x-rays that we have, to show you that we not been playing with your baby. He really did not have heel bones!”

He went into a panic and she said “Doctor! Its okay, Jesus healed my baby!” This story was so phenomenal that they were going to put it on Pat Robertson’s 700 Club. That baby today is a …..well he is all boy. And you know when you see these kind of miracles and experiences with the Lord, you just know. You have just like a knowing when you pray for this person that they are going to be healed. It is just the way it is! You don’t pray “hoping, hoping, hoping?” There is something inside of you that says “It is going to happen” We call that faith. “Can you say faith?” So I have moved in some of what I consider to be pretty profound faith experiences.

But I have never experienced faith like I experience the day that I had this visitation from the Lord of which I am about to tell you. The faith that He walked in was something that was so absolute, so much higher than anything you and I have ever known. He told us if you have the faith as a grain of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain “Be thou remove and be thou cast into the sea” and it will obey you but do you notice He never said that? We never see in the Bible the disciples saying: “And Jesus said to that mountain move and it jump up and moved” You know why? He never spoke to a mountain and told that mountain to move although He could have and He knows it. He knew it, not because He was the son of God but because of the faith that operated through Him. Remember, He was all man and all God. His faith was so absolute and He knew if He ever said to a mountain be removed. It would do it. That’s why He never did it. The authority and power that is coming to the church in this end-time with this Melchizedek Mantle is going to equip us with that kind of faith. Mountain moving faith! I want you to promise me you not going to immediately go use it and start moving mountains around in Singapore. There are no mountains? Well, don't create them either! I can hear you now: "I think I really would like to witness to these people and show them there is a God. I think I am going speak a mountain into existence."

The Lord will send forth from Zion a scepter of your strength. Rule then in the midst of your foes. Would you like to walk in the place in God that the enemies are always under your feet? It so frustrating, isn't it? One day you seem to have every bit of authority and power you need to put that guy under your feet and the next day it feels like he has all the authority and power he need to put you under his feet. That frustrating, isn't it! Or you will pray and pray and pray trying to get his hand off of something, his hand shouldn't be on. I am sure that many times you have thought: "Does this stuff ever work?" Have you ever felt that way? You have!

But there is an authority and there is a power that is coming to the Church through Melchizedek wherein he will always be under the feet of the Church. Satan knows it and he knows what is coming. He dreads it because he knows what is going to happen to his kingdom when it comes. That's why he's fighting the Church so hard right now. He can see into the things of the spirit for he is a spirit. He doesn't know everything but he does have eyes and he does have an understanding that is much better than most of us of the Scripture. So he does know that there is a generation that is going to arise in these last days that is going to have governmental power and authority over all things concerning his kingdom. And, he desperately wants to stop the coming forth of these military entities. The means he using today is deception, trying to use distraction, unbelief, fear, problems and perplexities. Are any of you going through that kind of stuff? The soul's woes? Have you thought in these last few years "God, I wish I'd better understood what this kingdom thing is all about?" Have you felt that way in these last years? "I wish I better understood the power of the kingdom, the authority of the kingdom, the light of the kingdom so that I could get something done?"

If you are moving in the things of God at all, you have got to be asking these questions. You have to be pleading with God for greater understanding. If you are not, then you are being pathetically slow in your development. We need to have the answers to these questions filling our heart and our understanding to prepare us for what is coming. Now just to draw an earthly analogy, "How many of you if you were put in charge of a military platoon will look for a ten year old child to lead the platoon and make all the critical decisions for that platoon?" How many of you will do that? None of us would! And God is not going put an immature Christian in the place of the authority and power that must be reserved only for the mature.

The Lord will send forth from Zion the sceptre of your strength, rule then in the midst of your foes. There is a ruling that is coming to the body of Christ. He says, "I will send forth the sceptre and with it rule over your enemy." When the sceptre comes to the body of Christ, we won't have to pray for years and years and years to see our loved ones saved. We will begin to command the enemy to release our loved ones and their eyes will be opened and they will see. We will not have to pray and fast and pray and hope and quote scriptures trying to get our finances free. With this sceptre we will speak and it will be done. Jesus broke the bread and the fishes, "remember that!" and He multiplied that many times. That is the ruling authority. That is the sceptre that is coming to the Church. It will have creative power to create, that which is not.

So maybe you're in a situation when you need to feed a few thousand people and you may have nothing to feed them. But in this mantle the spoken word will produce in a material manifestation that which you will speak. This is coming to the Church. It is said that your people will offer themselves willingly in the day of Your power and the beauty of holiness and in holy array out of the womb of the morning to you will spring forth your young men who are as the dew. Your people will offer themselves willingly in the days of Your power. When this mantle is poured upon the Church, the heart of the Christian is going to rise up in an unprecedented faith and they will be willing.

I can't, I can't imagine how many Christians over the years have said to me, "I am not getting mixed up in spiritual warfare. I am not going against the enemy. Let some other idiots do that!" They are just not going to get in the war. But the day is coming when the Church is going to rise up not in fear. They're not going to enter into the battle out of fear. They're going to rise up with a willing heart and they're going to enter into the battle against the enemy and they will win. Your people will offer themselves willingly in the days of Your power and the beauty of holiness and in holy array.

This Church, this Melchizedek Church if you will is going to be a holy Church. It's going to be adorned with holy array. Paul talks to us in the book of Ephesians and he gave us an understanding of the armor of God and you hear it taught throughout the Church but it was never taught right, It's not accurately taught right to the Church what this armor really is. It's far more powerful than what the Church knows. In the church you hear teachings, one will say that there is a bride of Christ, there is a remnant and another will say the whole church is the bride and there is really no remnant. I am sure many Christians must hear all these different teachings and wonder who is right.

The truth is there is a bridal company that's going to come forth fully adorned in her bridal gown. But this bridal gown is going to be a gown that is the armor of God and it is going to be devastatingly dangerous to the enemy territory. Out of the womb of the morning dressed in holy array, this Melchizedek Priesthood will arise.

Everyday for two years -- while I am talking to you, please turn to Isaiah 11! Everyday for two years, I would get out my Bible and I would read the words:

Isaiah 11
"and shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse and a branch out of the root shall grow and bear fruit. The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and reverent and obedient fear of the Lord. And shall make him of a quick understanding and his delight shall be in the reverent and obedience fear of the Lord. And he shall not judge by the sight of his eyes neither decide the hearing of his ears but with righteousness and justice, shall he judge for the poor and decide fairness for the meek the poor and the downtrodden of the earth. He shall smite the earth and the oppressors with the rod of his mouth and with the breath of his lips, he shall slay the wicked and righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist and faithfulness the girdle of his loins.

I would read that and I would say: "Lord, I know this is about my Messiah, I know this is about the office of the coming Messiah but there is something inside of me that wants this gift and I will call it the kingdom yoke, the kingdom government. I want it so bad that it feels like I will die if you don't tell me that I can have it. If I am praying amiss and I really shouldn't be praying this prayer please help me to know and understand and I will cease to pray because I don't want to offend You. But, if it is possible for us to have this, I want this!" I prayed like that every day for two years and I am telling you I meant it with all of my heart. I just thought that I was going to die if he did not tell me pretty soon that He was going to let me have this gift but I didn't tell a living soul because you see, I am licensed with the Assemblies of God and if I had told anyone in my denomination what I was praying, I would have had scorns. I would have had rebukes. I would have had reproofs. I didn't want anyone to squash my faith. So I thought if I am praying the wrong things, He is just going to have to tell me out of mercy so I could quit praying it. Otherwise I am going to keep praying until He says I can have it.

So one day I am sitting, two years I have been praying this, one day I am sitting and I am praying this to Him when He appears to me and He says to me "Nita, stand up, get up and come and stand next to me!" So I did and the minute I stood next to Him, this, I am sure you have heard or even seen pictures of yoke bars, like you would put on two heads of oxen. "You know what I am talking about, double yoke bar?" Just like this. "You know what I am talking about!" It suddenly appeared on His shoulders, grew and extended until it extended and sat on my shoulders and I become double yoked with Him. As I became double yoked with the Lord, as the yoke came and sat upon my shoulder, all of my humanity, I don't what else to call it, but all of my humanity begin to go down, down, down, down, down and out of my feet. All of my human passion, all of my human emotions, my human thinking, my human ……it was like all my humanity just went down the drain. It was like I had been the bottle and the water is draining out of the bottom and you feel it draining out. That's how I felt. And when it was done draining, I was empty. The minute I was empty, everything that was going on inside of Him begin to flood into me and go on inside of me. I experienced His meekness, His righteousness, and His fear of the Lord, His counsel, His understanding, the Seven Spirits of God. Everything that was going on inside of Him began to go on inside of me. Now listen to me very carefully, please! While this was occurring, I was totally transformed. Everything inside…

I was no longer aware of me. You know when you walk with the Lord where we walk with Him here on this plain. We think about Him, we feel an occasional touch from the Lord. Some feel a manifested presence of the Lord constantly in their life but when you think about Him or when you pray, where is your mind? It focused on He who is sitting upon the throne where? “In heaven!” So I have spent years and years and years with this passionate hunger for the Lord, wanting Him so badly everyday, every minute of everyday of my life. I just felt like sometimes I was going to burst in two, trying to stretch myself between earth and heaven enough to reach Him and touch Him. But that day, there was no more seeing Him as someone who was a part from me.

“My brothers and sisters, my dear precious brothers and sisters, it was like He had come and unzipped my back and climbed into my soul and was living out His life through me. Paul said “No longer I that liveth but Christ that liveth in me.” In the States, Christians quote that all the time and they turn around five minutes later and backstab, talk about their neighbors, get angry over stuff they should never get angry over, steal from their boss.” Is this the one who is I no longer liveth but Christ liveth in me?” But that day it that precise moment it was really no longer me living in this body. I mean I was there somewhere but not like what I have been five minutes before for it was Christ living in this body. I didn’t see Him as someone separated from me. In fact I didn’t even think about Christ at all.

From the moment He entered in my body He was thinking His thoughts through my mind and the Lord spoke to me. “Nita! When Paul wrote the words “ye have the mind of Christ!” “What you are now experiencing is what he was speaking about!” Christians, I don’t know about here in Singapore but in the States, you know that’s got to be a big thing. Everyone has the mind of Christ! I think: “Oh! If that is how His mind works we are in trouble!” But when you read that verse in context, He is differentiating between the baby in Christ and the mature in Christ and He is saying to the mature, “Now ye have the mind of Christ!” And let me tell you what it means to have the mind of Christ. You are not thinking your thoughts. He is thinking His thoughts in your head. You are not even thinking His thoughts. “You understand what I am saying?” You are not even thinking His thoughts. You’re not trying to remember or memorize Scriptures. You’re not trying to meditate, hoping that a one liner will go through your mind. You’re not thinking His thoughts. He is thinking His thoughts through your mind. He has taken up residence in your soul. The sinful nature is gone.

We all have a sinful nature. “How many of you know that?” I mean like it didn’t disappear just because we got saved. One person said: “The day that I sinned my first sin after I got saved, I thought I was eternally lost because I thought I would never think that way again, but I did!” Well! We all have our sinful nature and we will all have our sinful nature until the day it is crucified by the Lord Himself. He has to do it. We can’t do it. When He crucified this sinful nature, “Are you understanding everything I am saying, raise your hand if you are understanding?”

When He crucified the sinful nature, there is no longer the human passion, there no longer the human emotions, the human character. That fallen nature - it doesn’t exist. It’s been removed and He comes in to dwell and so you are living now in the Divine nature. “What is the Divine nature?” Love, joy, peace, gentleness, goodness is the fruits of the Spirit, meekness, temperance, faith. There’s such a meekness that Christ walked in. It will “beggar” description in human vernacular. He absolutely did not think about Himself and the thoughts or desires that He might have.

It was His ever-present joy to walk in obedience to the Father regardless of what that might mean. Even it might mean the cross. The Bible said: “He looked forward to the cross with joy. His joy was in obeying the Father knowing He was fulfilling the perfect will of the Father at every given moment. That was His joy, that was His effervescent joy and that was the mind and the heart and the person who was now indwelling my body.

I use to tell people when I would preach on walking with God in the deep things of God. I use to tell them I have this hunger to be possessed by God. Satanists want to be possessed by the devil but I want to be possessed by God. I want Him to possess my mind, I want Him to possess my heart, I want Him to possess my soul -- I want to be possessed by God. And when I would say that even as I said it, I didn’t have a comprehension of what that would mean. I just knew the hunger that I had inside of me.

Well, that day God possessed me. His mind possessed my mind. His heart possessed my heart. Christ possessed my soul. No longer I that liveth but Christ that liveth in me. Do you know that until you come to the place that I am talking to you about right now, you are not walking in what you have been created to be. Anything less than what I am telling you right now is subnormal Christianity. We are like a foetus. May I be very honest with you? We are like a fetus trying to live outside of the womb. If we not walking in that place, there can be some very mature Christians in the eyes of the church. But if they are not walking in what Paul says in the book of Ephesians, the fullness of the stature of Christ, they are not mature in the eyes of God. We are walking as fetuses unformed and were wondering why we are struggling as Christians. And there is no way to give the baby its full form, little alone its manhood without making that Christian a person of prayer.

You have to be a person of prayer to grow spiritually. You have to be a person of the Word to grow spiritually. You may not even have a great understanding of the Word but as you read the Word and meditate upon the Word, the understanding will begin to develop you, your inner man.

My dear brothers and sisters, those who are turning away from the world, may not understand what they are reaching for but something is compelling them beyond nominal Christianity and compelling them with this ravishing desire to walk in what they feel might be the light of the Spirit and they keep reaching, reaching forth, they are praying, they are fasting, they are studying the Word, they’re trying their best to live in such a way as they know will be pleasing to the Lord. They are ever more being separated from the world into the kingdom of God. There is a point in time when you cross over a line and you realize although the kingdom of God was sent through Christ and through the cross -- that is the work of the cross and the resurrection. The Church is not fully walking in the kingdom of God. Let’s say…that the Church is not walking in the kingdom of heaven.

We are born again into the kingdom of God but we are not walking in the authority, power, and the light of the kingdom of heaven. God never purposed for this to be something that transpired on the other side of Glory. Why wait for something so profoundly good? Why not aspire to it today! Satan knows when the company of people enter into this understanding and the revelation of the kingdom of God is released in their inner man and it explodes within them that his kingdom is going to be brought down and severely -- severely devastated. So he does all that he can to make sure you stay blind to the reality that I am talking to you about today. He wants you blind. He wants you not caring. He wants you to walk out of here today and say: “Well that’s for someone else but never for me!” That’s the kind of attitude he wants you to have because he doesn’t want to lose.

God on the other hand knows what he is getting ready to do. The Lord knows when He went to the cross. “My dear brothers and sisters!” It wasn’t a doom and gloom thing to Him. The cross was victory to Christ because He knew the light that was going to explode in the earth through the cross and He knew that in the end of time, at the very end days that this light will be so explosive that it will shatter kingdoms and cause His Church to rise up as the entity that she was always created to be and that is the Melchizedek Priesthood whose army will come from the womb of the morning. Her men will be as the dew, arrayed, in holy array, full of power and glory.

A good Biblical example of what this Church is going to look like is Moses coming down from the mountain and there will be many times through out the lives of these Christians when they enter into this place. Many times their faces will shine just like Moses face shined. The light will be so explosive within them that their body will not be able to contain it. For what we saw on the Mount of Transfiguration with Christ is what is going to happen to the Church and she is going to go up to the Mount of transfiguration and she is going to be transfigured on the earth. With His church, He will smite the oppressor with the rod of His mouth. It is a powerful word of authority, a powerful word of creation that is coming forth in these last days Church.

My dear brothers and sisters, she will be a holy Church. There will be no more woes in her heart and in her soul. Only Christ! For me to live is Christ and that’s what it will be for the last days Church. That’s what it will be for this Melchizedek Order. There’s so much I could tell about Melchizedek, so very much. I can’t dare to even touch?

But God is calling for His Church to come into extreme, severe, separation -- that is a radical separation from the world. Because when heaven’s powers come to earth through Melchizedek, those in the world who are to be swallowed up because they refused to let go of the world from their soul are going to come on the downside of it and they will be crushed by it. That's why as Christian, it is important for us to get rid of the sin that is in our lives. We've got to get out from behind the computers and the television and everything else that we busy ourselves with.

My dear brothers and sisters, my heart is pleading with you right now. We have got to stop with all the things that dangle and all things that tingle that the enemy keeps throwing before us. And get into the Word, get into prayer, press into the kingdom. The Bible tells us that who takes the kingdom…? By violence and by force! Your not going to come into the kingdom that is coming by accident. You have got to force your way into it. It is time to come out from among them and be separated. You’ve got to quit living to please the world and the look like the world. You should look so different from the world that the world would say: “You know they are a mighty peculiar looking people! And, worse yet they act peculiar!” If you walking where you should be walking with Christ: my dear brothers and sisters, the sinners feel uncomfortable with you. If he feels comfortable, there is something wrong with your life.

Melting Love Pouring Down From Heaven

Gloria Shepherd

My precious beloved ones, my love is pouring down from heaven over you with a melting love that will bring you into the closeness of my bosom now. I am filling your cups to overflowing with this melting love until it overflows over and out and flows unto the earth out of you.

My love melts the mountains, and moves the hearts of people. Love defeats the enemy where he stands, and sets the world afire with a melting love. My love will pour out of you like a melting fiery love, that will flow out you now, like a river of love to touch the nations as you flow in my melting love.

Take my hand, my beloved, and walk with me now, in the cool of the garden of my love. Let me touch you with the refreshing waters of my fountains that flow there. Sit with me by the cool waters, under the shade of the tree in the coolness of the evening, as we talk and share all that is in our hearts today. I love to dwell with you there. It is my hearts desire, to share with you my heart, beloved each day, in the garden of my love.

Gloria Shepherd
nitehawkdw@earthlink.net
http://www.angelfire.com/ga/GardenofJesus/January2001.html

My First Covenant People
Jeanne Kruchowski

Jul 17, 2004
The time of the non-Jew is over. My focus now is on My First Covenant People, to bring in the lost house of Israel and Judah, that which I spoke of in Ezekiel and Zechariah and many other books.

Their final book has now been opened, and their final history in this world shall now be written. The angelic scribes are beginning to write, the book of the acts of the end times of My First Covenant People on this as yet unchanged earth. (The pre-millennium days)

And on their hearts I Myself shall write the name of Yeshua, and they shall weep bitterly at all they have missed. Lifetimes of living in separation which the non-Jew has been released from. They have seen this closeness and joy in some, and have longed for the same freedom and closeness to Me.

Yet they shall have their hearts cry, for I have listened long and hard to their yearnings, yearnings without words, too deep to be expressed. I am fully aware of their desires, and I shall not disappoint them, My Beloved of Beloved ones. You say, how can I say that, are we not all equal? Yes, in a sense you are. Just like in a family all children are loved, although some have a closer relationship to the parents than others.

Have the non-Jews dressed as My People have? Have non-Jews been willing to dress totally against the current culture? Will I not honor them for this and countless other sacrifices? This IS devotion to Me. They cannot do this without loving Me.

The price they have paid is beyond your comprehension, unless you have walked in their shoes. I will NOT deny My First Born Ones the cries of their heart.

You will also see that I am uniting those who are truly My Own with My First Covenant People, those of Israel and Judah. There are those who have said I have replaced them, this is not true, how could I ignore My First Covenant? I cannot do this, by My Word I cannot deny them now their Appointed Time.

You shall be to them a silent witness and help, for I shall not let you interfere with My Work with them, for I Myself shall speak and reveal Myself to My Own, the Twelve Tribes. No one shall speak for Me, the Mighty One who can do all things and who holds all things in His Grasp shall Himself speak and reveal.

Your season was for proclaiming Me primarily to your fellow non-Jew, although some of My Purified Ones have been used to reveal My Heart and Plan to My First Covenant People, but this has been very few, for more have hindered this work than helped it. I am halting the hindering work, it shall no longer continue, for the season has changed.

And I will do what no person can do, turn My First Covenant People to Myself. I alone shall accomplish this for they know that I am able and will speak to them directly. Sometimes you tell your oldest child to explain or instruct a younger child, by most often the directions come directly from you, so it is with Me. You see in the natural what I have created in the spiritual realm, a reflection of the deeper, more extensive reality. The reality beyond the physical realm, a realm that is being manifest to a greater and greater extent each DAY.

FOR THE DAY HAS COME FOR MY FIRST COVENANT PEOPLE TO KNOW THEIR G-D, AND IT SHALL HAPPEN AT THIS TIME IN HISTORY!

To My Non-Jews
Jeanne Kruchowski

Jul 17, 2004

Lo, the day is upon you, My non-Jews to see what your eyes have longed to see, the manifestation of your God in your physical realm, for I shall never forget you My Beloved Ones.

You see, the transformation has been occurring, and the time of translation is almost here. Some will be suddenly taken in an instant out of this natural realm and be transported by Me into the next realm, it shall happen so quickly you shall not even know what happened. All at once what you see before you shall not be what you have seen before, you will be translated from one world to another, the great mystery of all time. For have I not said that not all will die? That some should experience this marvelous outgoing?

Yes, as it has happened before, so it SHALL happen again. But it will only happen to My Purified Ones, those who have put on the garments of righteousness through the blood of the Lamb. Those who have allowed the persecutions of this realm to purify their hearts and deeds. To them, just as to Noah, for you are all descendants of Noah, belongs The Deliverance. For I have not ordained My Purified Ones to suffer what is coming on the earth. By allowing Me to work in you, you have been spared much. Just as King Josiah was spared all the judgment that was coming because he sought Me, that he should walk uprightly before Me, therefore I spared him from seeing all the destruction that would come after, and he was allowed to rest in peace.

So I shall do with My Purified Ones, they have already been through the fires, they have no need of more.

The mistake has been to believe "all" believers in Yeshua/Jesus shall be taken at once. For there are those non-Jews who will be purified by what is to come, that they, many by losing their life, will be able to attain a closeness and proximity to Me in this life and the next that they would not have otherwise obtained.

Does this sound cruel to you? I am not cruel at all. I see the end from the beginning, the "tav" to the "aleph" (end to the beginning), that is why I allow hardship in this present age, the difficulties and persecution in this life CAN NEVER BE COMPARED TO THE GLORY AND BEAUTY OF WHAT IS TO COME. I will not deal "lightly" with My Own, for just as a father disciplines his child, so I am disciplining you. You think you don't need it, but I say I see your hearts, and many are filthy before Me. But I will clean out the hearts of those who love Me, I shall replace the dirtiness with purity and holiness, and you shall praise Me for what I shall do!

All who are left shall be purified by the Fire of My Spirit, this is of Me, shrink not, knowing that had you been more willing to accept My desired work in you, you would not be where you are, for ALL who cry out to Me SHALL BE CHANGED! Not necessarily in an instant, but through the workings of My Purifying Fire.

An Undivided Nation
Jeanne Kruchowski

This Is The Last Time You Will See An Undivided Nation

Jul 17, 2004
Note: On Tuesday night of this last week, I had the unusual opportunity to see President Bush at a rally here in Duluth. I have to tell you I cried through the whole thing, not out of joy, but out of sorrow. I knew it was "no accident" I was there, as I do not go to political events, He told me He wanted to speak to me. The following is I believe what He said.

THIS IS THE LAST TIME YOU WILL SEE AN UNDIVIDED NATION

This is the last time you will see your country undivided, for I Myself shall split it, for you are now a divided country, this may not happen immediately, but it will happen. You shall see that the vote tomorrow shall not be good, that the Amendment shall fail in the Senate, further evidence of the dividedness of your country now and the judgment that shall prevail.

(I then saw in that arena, the whole of the United States, my vantage point was from the Gulf of Mexico, as I looked up over the country, I saw it being split in two, going up to Canada. The whole picture was rather dark. I know others have seen or prophesied this before, but I knew that Wednesday, was the deciding factor or the evidence of the already existing reality.)

He said that many of His people are like sheep being led to the slaughter, willingly going through the security routines, doing more than they are asked to do, serving the government rather them Him, complying while their freedoms are disappearing, quickly, not realizing what their allegiance will cost them in the end.

For just like the man there who spoke out "shame on you" to the President and was taken quickly away by 4-5 men, so would I have been taken away had I spoken out truth. Where is our freedom of speech? It is gone.

Each one was given a voice by our Creator. Yes, we may not agree with that voice, but if we remove them, we are exercising control that will only get worse. Power and money breed control. There is much power to fight over.

Meanwhile, the humble elderly people and young families I saw there that night cannot see the depth of the darkness that surrounds them. It will close in on Jew and non-Jew alike, anyone who loves HaShem and Yeshua.

The game plan is still the same, to see who can control the most people and money.

Please prepare to be a people alone, unliked and unwanted. If we truly walk with Him, we will be hated.

But if we love Him above all else, we shall be spared. Spared from eternal aloneness or nothingness. Spared from many things in this life, at His discretion.

So worship Him now, He who has the power to judge every living being. The One who holds all power in His Hands so to speak. You cannot change later. There is NO MORE TIME.

Dear ones,
Through the love of the Only True One, He who lives and never dies, He who redeemed our lives from destruction, who has prepared a Dwelling Place beyond this world, where the grieving will end, and the love and hope will drown out everything else.
Through the Beautiful One, Adonai, Elohim,

Jeanne, your sister in Him.

Moving From Spiritual Babes To Mature Heirs
Ryan Wyatt

I would like to both prophesy something to the Body of Christ and teach the Body of Christ into the fulfillment of the prophecy. I recently spent the day with Bob Jones (the prophet) and one of the clearest things he told me is that there is an awesome anointing being released at this time to write and impart to people through prophetic writing and teaching.

The Lord has been speaking very clearly to me lately about His desire for His people to GROW UP! The verse he gave me is Galatians 4:1,
"Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all." (NKJV)

God is saying that it is time for the seeds that have been planted from heaven to grow and mature and produce fruit. Who are these seeds of heaven? The seeds are you and me! At the time of your salvation experience, you were born again of the Spirit and the seed of heaven was conceived within you. I recently wrote an article on "Birthing Manifestations of the Realm of Heaven on Earth" where I spoke about Jesus being conceived within us at the moment of salvation and our calling to "bring forth" the Son of God just as Mary brought forth the Son into this world. Right after completing this word, the Lord gave me another encounter and released the word you are reading now. Let me tell you what happened.

I entered the realm of the spirit and found myself in a forest covered with a gray substance, like ash. It seemed as if the entire land was dead. When I looked at myself, all I saw was a nasty gray color. In the distance, I saw one single ball of brilliant light floating in the air. I walked towards the light. As I got closer, the light began to move away from me as if it was beckoning me to follow. The ball of light approached a wall and passed right through it. I examined the wall where the light passed through and discovered a door. However, this door was like no other door I've ever seen. This door was very narrow and only about waist high. I got down on my knees to open the door, and I passed through to the other side. The next thing I saw was a portal-like opening in the wall. I passed through it and entered back into the land of gray. I looked totally different than I had before. I was covered in the most brilliant, shimmering, golden light from head to toe. The light emanating from my being lit up the entire forest. I watched as people raised their heads to look upon the light and began to walk towards me. The encounter was over.

The Lord immediately began to reveal to me the prophetic symbolism and meaning of the vision. The dead land is this natural realm, and the gray ash is the spirit of this world trying to cover up and suffocate the life of the people. The ball of light was a seed from heaven coming as the voice of God and beckoning me to come into His realm. The short and narrow door was a prophetic picture of the posture that is required to enter the realm of the Kingdom and dwell in the Lord's presence. Entering the door on my knees was symbolic of entering the Lord's presence with humility and reverence. By spending time "on the other side," in the realm of the Kingdom, the seed of heaven grew until the deposit of heaven within me became the atmosphere I carried around me. I then "became" the portal, or door, between the two worlds and, walking back into this fallen world as a person full of light, attracted the unbelievers still living in darkness.

This vision was a message from the Lord's heart, inviting us, as believers, to experience everything that is offered to us. The Body of Christ is being called to grow up and begin to live in and function in our inheritance. What is our inheritance? To experience the Lord the way Adam and Eve experienced Him in the Garden of Eden. God wants His people to be restored to that place of intimate friendship once again. It is those who have an intimate friendship with God who will be used as instruments for God's glory!

How do we come to this place of divine exchange with the Lord? Well, first we must realize that we are already complete in Him.

Colossians 1:27 speaks of the mystery of Christ in us, the Hope of Glory:
"To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory." (NKJV)

Colossians 2:9-10 says:
"For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power." (NKJV)

At the moment of our salvation, we received within our spirits the most complete and perfect impartation from heaven ever given to man: Jesus Himself. Everything God is ever going to do for us was already done and completed when he imparted Himself within us. How could we ever receive anything better or more complete than God Himself? All the power, anointing, revelation and glory of heaven now reside within you and me. Even more than that, we are now a direct link, or gateway, for heaven to touch earth. Because, not only is Christ seated within us, but He is also seated at the right hand of the Father in Heavenly places, and we are seated there with Him (Eph. 2). The portal from heaven to earth is God's people.

So, if we are complete in Him, then why are we not seeing the manifestations of heaven on earth in our everyday lives? Because the seed of heaven within us must grow and consume every soulish and fleshly area of our lives until we are totally yielded to the Holy Spirit in every way. The natural process for bringing life into the world is first for conception to take place, then the growth of the baby, and then birth. Jesus was conceived in the womb of Mary, but growth still had to take place before birth.

When you are born again, no matter what age you are physically, you are a spiritual baby. You are most definitely a son of God and you are most definitely a co-heir, but still a baby.

Galatians 4:1
"Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all." (NKJV)

Let me put this in words that directly relate to our lives at this time. We, as believers, are sons of God and co-heirs with Christ. We are "masters of all," just as the scripture states above, but if we are still children then it is as if we are slaves.

In a kingdom, you can be the son of a King and everyone knows that everything in that kingdom belongs to you, but you don't begin to operate as a ruler in that kingdom until you come of age and mature to be a man. Once you grow up and mature, then you begin to operate in your inheritance and rule in the kingdom.

It is exactly the same in God's Kingdom. The reason we don't have more of His glory and power manifesting through our lives is because many of the Body of Christ are still babes in the spirit. Look at these scriptures with me:

Hebrews 5:12-14
"For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and you have come to need milk and not solid food. For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil." (NKJV)

1 Corinthians 3:1-3
"And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ. I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you are not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?" (NKJV)

If we want our inheritance, then we have to grow up. What is our inheritance? Our inheritance is to eat of the solid food of heaven; divine and secret mysteries, great power and anointing from the Holy Spirit, and the very glory of God as our own atmosphere!

The analogy given to us in scripture is that the kingdom of heaven is planted within us as a seed and it is intended to grow and expand within us and on the earth. In 1 Corinthians 3:9 it says that "You are God's field, you are God's building." Just up from this verse it talks about how men of God planted and watered, but God gives the increase to our lives. Just after this verse it talks about believers being the temple of the Holy Spirit.

God has given us the five-fold ministry so that the body of Christ might grow into a mature man with the fullness of Christ and no longer be children.

Ephesians 4:11-14a:
"And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we should no longer be children." (NKJV)

Over the last several decades, the Lord has worked diligently to restore the five-fold ministry within the church. Now it's time for the body to be equipped, mature into a man, operating in the fullness of Christ, and no longer be children!

Another great example from scripture about seeds and growth is Isaiah 55. There is an invitation to come to the waters and drink freely. This chapter talks about not wasting our money (time, energy, attention, etc...) on things that do not satisfy, but rather we should come and drink of the waters by listening to the Lord and hearing His words. If we will be a people that listen to Him, then we will be leaders and commanders, and nations we do not know will run to us because of the Lord's glory upon us. The passage then goes on to talk about something very interesting.

Isaiah 55:8-11
"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways," says the Lord. "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down from, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it." (NKJV)

This passage tells us that God's words that come from His mouth are actually seeds that are planted and sent with a purpose to accomplish on the earth.

John 6:63 says:
"It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life." (NKJV)

The very words from the mouth of God are impartations of life to us! And what is the purpose of hearing God as a friend?

Isaiah 55:12-13
"For you shall go out with joy, and be led out with peace; The mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing before you, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree; and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off." (NKJV)

We are to be unto the Lord for a name. When we experience intimacy with the Lord and hear the intimate words of His mouth, conception takes place, and fruit comes forth! Instead of thorns and briers coming up in our life, we will have the cypress (strength) and the myrtle tree (victory).

The Bible says that the Kingdom of Heaven is within you. We know from scripture that the nature of the Kingdom is to grow and dominate. Look at Mark 4:30-32,

"To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it? It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth; but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots our large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

Likewise, the kingdom is sown within us at salvation and it must grow into a fruitful tree!

Look at Daniel 2:35b, 44:
"And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth. Vs. 44: And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever." (NKJV)

The Kingdom of God is meant to expand and have dominion over all other kingdoms. The Garden of Eden was a prophetic symbol, or picture, of God's Kingdom and government. God's original intention for the garden was for it to be tended by Adam and Eve, its borders to be expanded, and its government to cover the earth!

We are now God's garden, God's field, God's building, and God's body and we are called to bring the Kingdom of heaven to earth with mighty demonstrations of dominion and authority! But, first, that garden within us must grow and take dominion over every lesser kingdom that remains in our lives.

Did you know that Jesus Himself actually grew in favor with His Father? God's love is not partial because He loves everyone the same, no matter what our accomplishments are. However, God is partial with His favor upon man. An example of this is the fact that there are some who are manifesting more of the Kingdom of God in their lives than others around them. In going back to the analogy of the heir as a child within his father's kingdom, we will realize that the Father loves his son just as much when he's a child as when he is an adult. However, the father will give him more favor when the child becomes a man and the King promotes him to a place of rulership in the Kingdom. Look at the second chapter of Luke:

"And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him." vs.40
"And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men." vs.52 (NKJV)

Jesus grew strong in spirit and, therefore, became someone capable of receiving solid food from heaven. We are created from two different realms. Genesis 2:7 says that we are created from the combination of the dust of the ground (natural realm) and the breath of life (spiritual realm) and we became a living being or soul. It's possible for us to be quite old physically and still be a baby spiritually. We as believers need to exercise our spiritual senses, become more familiar with the spiritual realm through intimacy with God, and become mature spiritual people full of His fullness!

Peter came to a place of such fullness that he carried a healing atmosphere all around him in Acts 5:15-16:
"...So that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. Also a great multitude gathered from around the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed." (NKJV)

Let's not limit how much of God we can have and express. It's time for the Body of Christ to GROW UP and move from babes to mature sons of God and the spotless bride of Christ!

I sincerely believe that the Lord is issuing a clear notice to the Body of Christ that it is time to mature and begin to operate in nothing less than our full inheritance. Part of our inheritance is to carry the realm of heaven within us, upon us, and around us. Let's get serious with God and go after Him like never before. Let's begin to allow that seed of incredible potential within us to be released and display the Glory of God to the world!

"Father, I pray for every person reading this that you would speak to them so clearly about their own lives. Stir up the Body of Christ to maturity. Overshadow us with your Spirit and cause Your Kingdom within us to grow and expand and have dominion over every area of our lives. I pray that mighty demonstrations of Your character, Your Glory, and Your power would begin to spring forth from Your people! In Jesus Name."

Ryan Wyatt
Abiding Glory Ministries www.abidingglory.com

My Glory Is Coming
Musa Opiyo

June 2, 2004
The clouds(heavens) are parting and My Glory shall once again cover the land. It shall fall as the former and the latter rain to redeem My people and bring deliverance to the captives. My Glory knows no boundaries and so shall move in whosoever shall open their hearts and receive from My throne. Angels are being dispatched to deliver answers to long awaited prayers, for I have heard the fervent prayers of My Hungry People for a revival.

Yet with the promise of rain comes also the opposition from the armies of hell for they fear My Glory and what it shall do to their efforts. Yet I call you My people to stand strong in praise and worship and continue to lift your voices in prayer for the harvest, for it is indeed ripe.

THERE IS ALSO A NEW SOUND OF MY TRUMPET IN THE HEAVENS RALLYING MY PEOPLE FOR WAR.
For breakthrough shall not arrive without a fight, but you are those whom I have trained to war according to the Spirit. Let your faith rise and let hope rest on the fact that I have given you the victory. Though it may seem that the enemy prevails for a time, yet know that I am merely setting him up for his own downfall. This is the time to arise and sing praises upon Zion's hill. This is the time that you shall see breakthrough come to your land and people. Yet it is also a time of great war and opposition, yet I have set your feet upon solid ground, upon the Rock you shall stand.

Go forth, break into song and rejoice, for you are victorious, says the Lord

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo
http://www.angelfire.com/un/mannaword

Season Of Travail
Musa Opiyo

May 31, 2004
This is the time when My children shall birth forth that which I have impregnated within them. For within many of them lie gifts, ministries and callings to bring glory unto My name that have lied dormant in My people that are now ready to be birthed for this is the time of appointment. Giving birth involves much travail in the Spirit where you will find yourselves in deeper intercession and communion with the Father, but also in the physical many will now recall the increased opposition to My plans and destinies for each of you.

Push through this season with endurance for I have not left you without a helper, but sent My Spirit in the fulness of time to give you all wisdom and divine direction with which to take the next step in this journey. Beloved I am calling you to pull together in unity and fellowship with Me even to usher in the new wave of My Spirit that is currently on the threshold. As My people's hearts are prepared and expectant, I shall pour out My Glory in a way that man has not seen before. You are the chosen vessels that shall carry My Glory unto a hurting world. Remain faithful in watching over that which I have given unto you. At the appointed time, your season of travail and birthing shall be over and you shall see the fruits of your labor,

Blessings, Musa Opiyo http://www.angelfire.com/un/mannaword

My Glorious Work
Priscilla Van Sutphin

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net
Dec 24th, 2004

I am the Resurrection and the Life. No man cometh to Me except that I draw him. Know that I am about to draw MANY into My Kingdom. It will be a great wind that brings this harvest. Nothing can stop My wonderful work.

Many are planting seeds and now many of those seeds planted are going to bear much fruit. I am come that you might have LIFE ! I am going to pour out on you a much greater measure than you have imagined of My LIFE.

Do not think that I am coming to bring peace however. This Wind that comes will bring My abundant LIFE and LOVE like never before, but it will be met with opposition. That is the nature of revival. For some will receive it, and others will not. Some will try to control it and you. Remember I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH and the LIFE !

I am coming to fill your baskets full that MY WILL can be done in bringing the Kingdom over all the earth. TRUST ME to be your advocate and Your DEFENDER ! I will not disappoint you My beloveds ! Open the gates of your hearts and let the King of Glory come in ! Who is this King of glory ? THE LORD MIGHTY IN BATTLE !!!

Ps 24:7-10 NKJV Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in. 8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, The LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O you gates! Lift up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in. 10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts,

He is the King of glory. Selah

Do only what I tell you or lead you to do. No more, no less. Follow the narrow path for great is the path that leads to destruction. Listen for the still small voice. Listen ! For I am calling to you. Let Me come in and sup with you. Let me dance with you and sing over you with delight. Do not be frightened by the appearance of angels. Test the spirits. Know that I am with you and will guide you as I bring forth My glorious work ! My winds are blowing and they will blow away all the chaff in your lives and the lives of those outside as well. Multitudes in the valley of decision ! All I allow has purpose. My purpose will be accomplished in your life. You can depend on it.

I WILL in no wise keep you from it ! All over the world, My Winds will blow on My garden of reknown. Sudden changes are coming. Are you ready My beloveds ? Do not hesitate to follow after Your God willingly. Do not be surprised how this will come SUDDENLY !!!

Hidden Motives
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 21st, 2004

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Phil 1:18 NKJV   What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

1 Cor 4:5 NIV   Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.
Motives/counsels   NT:1012 boule (boo-lay'); from NT: 1014; volition, i.e. (objectively) advice, or (by implication) purpose: KJV - advise, counsel, will.

“My beloveds, I have been exposing in many of you the hidden motives of your heart, that you could see the barreness in your own life in certain areas. This is the plowing of your heart so that what is still hidden in the way of hurts and pain that is unhealed can be dealt with. There is still much insecurity and fears in your lives. And these disqualified people in the past from serving ME. I have heard your cries for wholeness and I am answering.
It’s just that your ways are not My ways always. I want you to learn your lessons well, so you never choose to divert this way or that way, away from My grace and perfect will for your life.

Do not be ashamed of your failures in motivations. Do not be overcome by your own sorrow at the lack in your flesh.   I am exposing it that it can be dealt with. I will expose all the motives of men’s hearts. So you need not fear that I’m incapable of healing the most decrepid of hearts. I will heal the cold and calloused of heart. I will heal those who cower in fear and hide from being real in life. Many of you have overcome many of the areas that others are still behind in. This has caused many to grow intolerant of the others still languishing and unhealed. I am PATIENT. That is a fruit of the Spirit. PEACE will give you patience ! Ask for My peace which comes when you keep your eyes STAYED on Me ! Look not around at all the circumstances, but lift your heads and worship. Thank Me even for those who misunderstand you and persecute you. REJOICE, and again I say REJOICE.

LESS OF YOU AND MORE OF ME is what I am after. You must decrease for Me to increase ! Humble yourselves in the sight of the LORD and HE will lift you up, the Word says ! Delight yourself in the Lord and HE will give you the desires of your heart. Ask for what you lack. Admit your lack and your sins. Stop hiding them and confess them to someone you trust not to trample you underfoot. Confession helps dissipate the attack of the enemy for he seeks always to secretly accuse you so that you despair. He is in hope of destroying those I am coming to. If he could kill many of you he will try. But I ALONE HOLD THE KEYS TO HELL AND DEATH !

I am laying waste all PRETENSE in your lives so that you will be real with each other and the world. I will destroy the hidden motives from My people who love me and know and confess their weaknesses. Do not allow the enemy to testify against you ! Do not hide your sins, but confess them to one another and be healed ! I came to provide the GRACE that you can walk in overcoming power and victory. But you must stop the hiding ! You must walk courageously with at least one other person. Part of restoration is making restitution. Zaccheus paid back finances he had stolen. For some of you all it will take is an apology.   That means HUMBLING yourself and admitting you slandered someone and asking forgiveness. Or if you gossiped to confess it and allow the body to help pray for you so that you will be freed. Criticism is highly rampant in my church with a biting and devouring spirit running rampant.

The root of that criticism is PRIDE. Yes, you heard it ! PRIDE ! You are part of the problem or you can be part of the solution. It’s your choice.
There are times when I ask you to leave, to be the seed that dies and falls to the ground. There are other times when you need to pray it through and stop complaining and instead PRAISE ME in the midst of persecution and maligning. Much of what has come against you, is for your refining ! Obviously I do not want anyone to be hurt. But for some, it is the only way to develop compassion in you. I was a man acquainted with grief and sorrow.
Much of My church has not believed the doctrine of suffering with ME.

They think they shouldn’t have to suffer anything while others in other nations are dying and being persecuted and tormented and maimed for My name’s sake. I said if you share in My SUFFERING, you will SHARE IN MY GLORY. Are you willing to go all the way with ME ? Will you only love ME if I allow only good things to happen to you ? Will you give up when persecution comes ? I tell you the truth, it is coming. Will you complain and cry and dive into self pity, or will you take up your cross and walk ? Know that in the carrying of the cross, you will receive great glory ! Many have given up much more than you. Every day in other nations children starve.

I came to bring you life and prosperity, but the prosperity I bring is not always what you imagine ! You will have more than enough if you humble yourself and worship in spite of what is going on in your life ! The enemy is being used to SIFT you. I want you to come forth as GOLD ! Will you allow ME to be LORD and Master over your life or will you cling to your own will ? Begin to give up your will completely and watch how I will bless you ! Stop allowing yourselves to be deceived. Speak the Word of Life, but realize the work I am doing and call on ME for understanding. I am the RESOURCE of all you need. I AM WISDOM ! I love you as no other loves you and I will do what is BEST for you ! I promise to not leave you nor forsake you. What kind of parent abandons their child ? I AM NOT THAT PARENT ! I am a good FATHER who always has the best in mind for My children.”

1 Thess 2:3 NIV For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you.

James 4:3 NIV When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

Prov 16:2 NIV All a man's ways seem innocent to him, but motives are weighed by the LORD.

1 Peter 2:19-24 NKJV For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully. 20 For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. 21 For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: 22 "Who committed no sin,
Nor was deceit found in His mouth"; 23 who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously; 24 who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness — by whose stripes you were healed.

Acts 14:22 NKJV strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."

2 Cor 4:17 NKJV For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory,

1 Thess 3:7-8 NKJV therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress we were comforted concerning you by your faith. 8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.

Heb 11:24-26 NKJV By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, 26 esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he looked to the reward.

Men’s Hearts Failing Them for Fear

Terry Suggs

Luke 21:25-28

And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth (there will be) distress (trouble and anguish) of nations in bewilderment and perplexity (without resources, left wanting, embarrassed, in doubt, not knowing which way to turn) at the roaring (the echo) of the tossing of the sea,

Men swooning away or expiring with fear and dread and apprehension and expectation of the things that are coming on the world; for the very powers of the heavens will be shaken and cause to totter.

And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud wit h great (transcendent and overwhelming) power an (all His Kingly) glory (majesty and splendor).

Now when these things begin to occur, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption (deliverance) is drawing near.

There are times coming very soon that you will see very frightening sights and experience some very uncomfortable situations, But remember the Word of God says “I Am with you always, even to the end of the age. The Lord has told us that a thousand will fall at our side and ten thousand at our right hand but it will not come near us.

Terry Suggs

http://www.LiveInJesus.SpreadtheWord.com

Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

Stay hot for Jesus!

He will say Well done! Not: medium well or rare!

Fear Not!

I will never leave you.

Isaiah 54:10

For though the mountains should depart and the hills be shaken or removed, yet my love and kindness shall not depart from you, nor shall my covenant of peace and completeness be removed, says the Lord, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 41:10-13

Fear not (there is nothing to fear), for I am with you, do not look around you in terror and be dismayed, for I am your God, I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties, yes I will help you with my victorious) right hand of righteousness and justice.

Behold all they who were enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded, they who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.

You shall seek those who war against you shall be as nothing, as nothing at all, For I the Lord your God will hold your right hand, I am the Lord, who says to you, fear not, I will help you.

Deut. 31:6

Be strong, courageous and firm, fear not nor be in terror before them, for it is the Lord your God who goes with you, He will not fail you or forsake you.

Hebrews 13:5-6

Let you character or moral disposition be free from the love of money (including greed, avarice, lust, and craving for earthly possessions) and be satisfied with your present (circumstances and with what you have) for He (God) Himself has said, I will not in any fail you nor give you up nor leave you without support (I will not) I will not, I will not in any degree leave you helpless nor forsake nor let you down (relax my hold on you) (assuredly not) So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently and boldly say, The Lord is my Helper. I will not be seized with alarm (I will not fear or dread or be terrified. (What can man do to me?)

Psalm 27:1,5-6

The Lord is my Light and my Salvation. Whom shall I fear or dread? The Lord is my Refuge and Stronghold of my life, Of whom shall I be afraid? For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter, in the secret place of His tent will He hide me. He will set me on high upon a rock. And now shall my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me, in His tent I will offer sacrifices and shouting of joy, I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the Lord.

Romans 8:31

What shall we say to all this? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who can be our foe if God is on our side?

He who did not hold or spare (even) His own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect, when it is God who justifies (that is, who puts us in right relation to Himself? Who shall come forward and accuse or impeach those whom God has chosen? Will God, who aquits us?

Who is there to condemn us? Will Christ Jesus (the messiah), who died, or rather who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, actually pleading as He intercedes for us?

Who shall ever separate us from Christ’s love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword?

Rom.8:37

Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors and gain a surpassing victory through Him who loved us.

For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities nor things impending threatening nor things to come nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1John 4:18

There is no fear in Love (dread does not exist), but full grown (complete, perfect) love turns out of doors and expels every trace of terror! For fear brings with it the thought of punishment, and so he who is afraid is not yet grown into love’s complete perfection.

Isaiah 53:4-

Surely He has borne our griefs (sicknesses, weaknesses and distresses) and carried our sorrows and pains (of punishment), yet we (ignorantly) considered Him stricken, smitten, and afflicted by God (as if with leprosy).

But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace (and well being for us) was upon Him. And with the stripes (that wounded) Him we are healed and made whole.

1Peter 5:7

Casting the whole of your care (all of your anxieties, all your worries, all your concerns, once and for all on Him, for He cares for you affectionately and cares about you watchfully.

John 6:37

All of whom my Father gives (entrusts) to me will come to me , and the one who comes to me, I will most certainly not cast out I will never no never, reject one of them who comes to me.

Matt. 11:28-30

Come to me all you who labor and are heavy-laden and overburdened, and I will cause you to rest. I will ease and relieve and refresh your souls. For my yoke is wholesome (useful, good-not harsh, hard, sharp, or pressing, but comfortable, gracious, and pleasant). My burden is light and easy to be borne.

Hebrews 4:16

Let us then fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace (the throne of God’s unmerited favor to us sinners), that we may receive mercy (for our failures) and find grace to help in good time for every need.

(appropriate help and well-timed help, coming just when we need it).

Psalm 46:1-2

God is our Refuge and Strength(mighty and impenetrable to temptation) a very present and well proved help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change and though the mountains be shaken into the midst of the seas.

10- Be still and know (recognize and understand) that I am God, I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth.

Isaiah 59:19

So (as the result of the Messiah’s intervention) they shall (reverently) fear the name of the Lord from the West and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him and put him to flight (for He will come like a rushing stream which the breath of the Lord drives).

Rom. 10:11

For the scriptures says, no man who believes in Him (who adheres to, relies on, trusts in Him) will (ever) be put to shame or be disappointed.

Philippians 4:6

Do not fret or have any anxiety about anything, but in every circumstance and in everything by prayer and petition (definite requests) with thanksgiving, continue to make your wants known to God. And God’s peace (shall be yours, that tranquil state of a soul assured of its salvation through Christ, and so fearing nothing from God and being content with its earthly lot of whatever sort that is, that peace which transcends all understanding shall garrison and mount guard over your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Psalm 145:8-9

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and abounding in mercy and loving kindness.

The Lord is good to all and His tender mercies are over all His works.

14- The Lord upholds all those (of His own) who are falling and raises up all those who are bowed down.

Psalm 146:6

The Lord is faithful forever. Gives food to the hungry…sets prisoners free…opens blind eyes…lifts those who are bowed down…loves the upright in heart…protects strangers…upholds the fatherless and the widows…heals the sick…sets the captives free…raises the dead…comforts the oppressed…helps the helpless…fills the emptiness…turns you defeat into victory…causes us to triumph…lives in us and reigns on the throne of God forever…casts out all fear…saves the lost…hears your cry and prayers…leads and guides us into all truth…gives us His unfailing word…strengthens the weak…cares for us.

Remember Fear Not!

Terry Suggs

Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

http://www.LiveInJesus.SpreadtheWord.com

My Heart Grieves
David Haase

My Heart grieves for all those who choose not to hear, who hear yet turn away. My Heart grieves for all those who choose not to follow my Holy Spirit, who see yet follow other gods, their own desires. My Heart grieves for all those lost sons and daughters who refuse My Son, who seek themselves and things of this world. My Heart grieves for all those who choose not to Repent and turn to Me. The heaviness of My Heart fills the Heavens the loss of so many… so many… I Love each and every one of these for they are My creation and I know the number of hairs on their heads, I have watched them from the beginning I know everything about them yet My Holy Righteousness My Holy Justice can not allow their rebellion any further, I will send those out into the world one last time with My Holy Spirit to Witness The Truth about Me, about My saving Grace, My Son, My Heart… My Judgment and My Wraith for it is so… My kingdom must be cleansed of all the leaven, for this My Son will come…

An Open Vision With Understanding
David Haase

10/18/04
Dear brothers and Sisters in Christ Yeshua,

In open Vision during prayer I found myself standing in a tunnel that curved to the left, about 12 ft high/round, the walls where golden brown in color as if this meant something, I walked to within a short distance of the curve to the left when suddenly a large ball completely filling all space around it dark black/brown with red string woven into it, came around the curve into view there was no time to react or run only to stand and be hit by it. Upon seeing it my prayer turned into “Father I stand Christ Yeshua in Me I in Christ Yeshua with Christ Yeshua as my shield” no sooner said than I was engulfed by this mass I could see out of yet it had a brown tint knowing that I was standing in that place it was now…

I asked and prayed over this and was shown an old vision and its meaning

{the Lord gave me Ecc 3:6-7, then the vision.

Ecc 3:6 a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
Ecc 3:7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

Then a small child? Came up to me and pulled a scroll from his ear? Which I took hold of.. Next was shown to me a Gold glowing ball with what looked like red yarn wrapped around a small percentage of it, the ball was in a pouch like a soft taco shell shaped wrapping? The area around it was dark and nothing else could be seen. I was told to watch it. (the Gold glowing ball) until it disappeared. }

The gold ball was an anointed servant of God who was close to me, the red yarn was deception that he had come to believe, the red yarn covered and took over his life, he was removed from my life… at last check he was into all manners of deception… a servant called by God Himself who choose a deception… that led to others and a loss.

What I was led to understand was this tunnel is the time we now stand in. The Ball with red yarn is a great lie, a great deception that is almost upon us and we can not escape it… only by standing in the Lord Yeshua/Word of God will be able to see though it. Where ever you are prepare NOW!!! You will have no time later. May the Lord God of Abraham Bless you with understanding and clarity…

His servant in Christ Yeshua,
David Haase

Midnight Hour Dream
Susan Cummings

revsusanthebrave@yahoo.com

5-16-04
On Sunday morning between 8 and 8:30 am, I was awakened from an amazing dream. In this dream which was a series of scenes throughout the night, of which I cannot remember them now, the final scene still stands out graphically.

In the dream, I am leaving a building that I have been doing things in for most of the night. I hear the sounds of worship, and I step outside to see the source of the sounds.

It is very late at night, and I sense that it is around midnight. It is very dark out, but I can see clearly. The stars are shining brightly in a cloudless sky.

There is a very large group of worshippers standing with their arms raised to the Lord and they are worshipping Him. I join the group. It is such a very Holy Presence and atmosphere, as we all sing to the Lord. It is as if we are one voice, and our voices blend in love to the King. It was breathtaking.

Over the group of worshippers was a beautiful rainbow. It was pitch dark out at night, but the shining stars above shone down and lit up the sky enough to see the rainbow that was arched over the entire group like a canopy.

As I was watching this scene, and also was participating in it too, I saw the stars in the sky and still they shone very brightly. Some of the stars then began to shoot and dart back and forth violently across the sky as we sang. They looked like fireworks going off, and you could hear sounds like fireworks make when they were moving rapidly across the sky. They made whistling and whirling noises.

Then an angel came from the right side of my view and flew across my view towards the left side in the distance. He had a bow and an arrow poised in his hands. He had the bow stretched out and the arrow ready, but he did not shoot it. He just flew across the group in a state of readiness.

Then as I was watching the angel, I began to look around. I saw before the group of us, a scene began to suddenly appear and clarify in front of me.

There was a very large army of the hosts of heaven in a group. They were all in various states of preparation, and activity. The Lord Jesus Christ was standing in the midst of them. He was wearing His Crown, and was speaking with the heavenly hosts. He was giving them instructions, plans, directives, and assignments. He was busy meeting with them for a soon event to come.

As I was watching this scene, the Lord Jesus looked up, and over right into my eyes. He was aware of me watching the whole scene. He smiled at me and then he blew me a kiss. I was delighted and blew him a kiss back. He then smiled and turned back to his duties of speaking with the heavenly army He was preparing.

Then the dream ended.

-Susan Cummings
5-16-04
8-8:30 am

http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords

For This Day You Were Born
Susan Cummings

It was for this day that you were born, child. I had everything in mind when I brought you forth. There is nothing that I have not taken into account in the process of your growth and maturity. For I use all things to bring change to your life.

Many times you feel like you are not making it. You think that I cannot bring you to your fullest potential in Me, or that I cannot transform you into My Image. I can, and I Am doing just that. You cannot see everything that I am doing. You only see from your perspective and from your understanding. But you have yet to see through My eyes.

This is a day that I am moving in the earth. I am bringing change. I am bringing transformation and total reformation in My people. You cannot do it, child. You cannot bring one thing into order in your life, because it has to be My Hand that does it. You must yield to Me, and allow My Hand to pass over you and fashion you.

It was for this day that you were born. Everything in your life has been preparation for this day and season. Your whole purpose is to be the expression of Me. I have to change you, so that you can express Me truthfully, and that I would be seen through you. Unless I change you, I cannot be seen through you. You must be transparent.

This is where the struggle lies. Transparency. It is a total surrender to Me, and an acknowledgement that I am in control and can do whatever My Choice is for your life, and you will embrace it. Can you let Me choose for you? Can you let Me bring forth what I want to out of you? Can you accept that My Ways and Choices are not what yours are, and can you let them go, and embrace Me?

When you can, then you will have fully stepped into this day that I have made for you. Until then, you are wandering and in limbo and not in your position. You cannot have peace, and you cannot have the intimacy with Me that you would like, until you can. For I can only come so close to you, as you have not trusted me to hold you, as I would choose to.

Fear keeps you from trusting Me.

Pride keeps you from surrendering to Me.

I will not hurt you, I created you. It is for this day that you were born, and I have been with you from the beginning, and will continue to be with you till the end. It is with delight that I watch over you, and with great desire that I long for you. Come to Me.

Reach out. Take My Hand, and walk with Me.

My Throne awaits you. Take your place by My side.

-Susan Cummings
5-29-04
2:08 pm

http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords
http://www.xsorbit6.com/users/remnantaflame/index.cgi

I Am Coming To Those Who Are Looking For Me
Susan Cummings

I Am coming to those who are looking for Me. For I am drawn by their desire to know Me and to be like Me. Love cries out to Love, for it’s fulfillment. The Spirit and the Bride are crying out, Come! My Heart is being revealed to My Ones who labor over Me, to be like Me.

I Am coming to reveal Myself to those who hunger and thirst after righteousness. My children sit at My Table and are fed by My hand, and they do not lack nor strain to be fed, but they wait at My Feet, and rest until I bring them their portion. Each of My Children has their portion.

I Am coming to those who weep and sigh over the sin in My House, and who have not given their birthright to another. They have guarded the precious and have esteemed it better than the worldly offering. Such are My Faithful Ones, in whom it is written of in My Book.

I Am coming to those who have clean hands and a pure heart, and who have not given their heart to another. They only have eyes for Me, and will not be given over to the destroyer that is now loosed among men. My Covenant Seal is upon them, and they are Mine.

I Am coming to show forth My Glory in the vessels of honor that I have made, for just such a purpose. These Torch bearers will burn with My Glory as a witness, and as a Light to those in the darkness, and many will come to Me through their testimony. For I always have a remnant in the earth. Even in this last hour, will I reap a Harvest.

I Am coming as it is written in My Word. It will be as I have stated, but not as men would choose to see. For much is still rejected in My Word, and much is taken out for men’s purposes, and much is mistakenly seen and understood, for I have hidden it from the wise, and now, I am showing the babes.

I Am coming to the rejected, the despised, the lost, the abused, the wounded, the outcasts, and the sheep that have been cast out, and I am gathering them into My Barns where they will now be fed, for the time of culmination has come, and My House will be full. Not one of Mine will be missed, as I have gathered them all from their places of hidden ness , and am bringing them in. Each to their portion, but all into Me.

I Am coming to judge My House first, and then the world. For I must have a Holy Place to dwell in, and nothing will remain that is not Holy or Pure. I Am Holy and My People will be Holy. There will no longer be any defiled thing in My House, for all will be now removed outside the camp. There will be a distinction between the Holy and the Profane.

I Am coming to reap My Harvest. Man will not touch what is Mine, and will not harm My little ones, but I will bring them in, and they will know that I alone, am God. I Am the Lord of the Harvest. I have come to My Vineyard, and woe to those who have not been faithful to tend it properly. For everyone’s works will be clearly seen for what they truly were.

I Am coming as a Fire, as a Wind, and as the Rain. Each has already came on the earth, now it will come upon My Vessels, and then pour through them. My Fire will burn through My Vessels as they speak My Word. My Wind will blow upon My Vessels as I perform My Word in their midst. My Rain will cleanse My People, as they embrace My Word that is spoken.

Then, My Glory will come, and will fill My House, according to My Word.

-Susan Cummings
5-27-04
12:35 am

http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords
http://www.xsorbit6.com/users/remnantaflame

The Path Is Narrowing
Susan Cummings

The Path is narrowing and few notice.

Few even look at where they are walking, and fewer still even think twice about their next step. So many of My People walk where it is convenient, popular, safe, and easy to see. They would rather be led by their minds and their physical senses than to abandon them, and follow Me. But that day is now changing for the path is now climbing and narrowing in this hour. Few will now walk with Me who will not embrace the changes that now come with the climb.

To follow Me, one must put aside all weights, cares, sins, mindsets, fears, plans, friends, family, and their own desires. So few can completely give Me these things. So few can walk away from their own plans, visions, businesses, ministries, and training and leave it all behind to follow me. So few.

To lay aside all weights means to cast off everything that so easily besets you and causes you to stumble, and to be overburdened, and to abandon all things to My Care. Allow Me to carry your daily load and to walk with you throughout your day. No longer allow things to pile up on you, and make you take your eyes off of Me. Stress rules over you when you carry that which I have not given you to carry. You must guard yourself more diligently.

To lay aside all cares means to be watchful of your heart. For the cares of this world, riches, and the flesh will war with your mind and heart. It will cause you to compromise and to stumble in your integrity, to satisfy the longing burning within you. Cares will cause you to begin to worship other things, if you do not guard your eyes and hearts. I am Faithful and True. I will care for you, and be your Care.

To lay aside all sin, means to continually pick up your cross and follow Me. You cannot be carrying your cross and sinning against me at the same time. You must first put down the cross in order to run and sin. Consider your ways, and come back to me. You must return to your first Love, and do not give your allegiance to another, for I Am your Lord. If you truly Love Me, then you must follow Me.

To lay aside your mindsets means to bring your plans, ideas, all of your earthly understanding, educational training, and self-life, even your understanding of who I am, and crucify it upon the altar of surrender, and then yield to My Will. You must freely lay your will down, in order to embrace Mine. You cannot serve two opinions, or two masters. You cannot serve the world and live In My House.

Either you fully embrace Me or you don’t.

To lay aside all fears means to put under your feet everything that controls you, manipulates you, terrorizes you, and overpowers you. Fear is only a False Reality Appearing Real. The enemy deceives many of My people through fear, and controls them by it’s bondage. Fear is nothing but Faith improperly placed outside of Me, as it is doubt and unbelief. They doubt that I am unable to care for them, and have unbelief that what I will do, will truly work. It in effect, says, I Am not good enough for them. Fear robs My People, and isolates them, and causes them to abort their destiny. Fear is the thief that kills the seeds of Hope and Life. You must put them under your feet, and rise above the thief, and take back what is rightfully yours, or you will perish in the desert places alone.

To lay aside all plans means to see that you can no longer walk alone, and without My Headship. You then yield your affairs to My Leading, and you allow Me to bring you to where I am going, and not to where you want to be. When I am made the True Head, then all fear, pressure, and confusion leaves you, and you then see the path ahead as one of Hope and not trial. I created you, and know your path, and all things concerning you, so I know just what you need and when. Trust Me.

To lay aside friends means to not abandon those around you, but to submit your associations to My direction and guidance. Few ask Me about their fellowships and friends, and few even think that it matters.

You are, or become like, those who you allow to influence you. So many of Mine are unequally yoked and are defiled because they did not inquire of Me first. They get entangled in the affairs of the world by yoking with the world, and they do not guard themselves. When My People take their eyes off of Me, then they will place them on someone else. Then the bondage begins, because they took their trust and devotion off of Me and put it upon men and popularity. My People cannot be pressured by other people into doing things, if their hearts are in My Hands. It is only when they take their hearts out of My Hands, that the enemy then can come and entice their hearts, and allure them into sin and compromise with others.

To lay aside family means to walk each individually with Me, working out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Many of My People are controlled by other's fears, pride, and prejudices. Families that do not walk in their Faith in Me together, will pull at each other, and manipulate to protect their own selfish desires. Anyone who chooses to allow even a family member the place of their heart over Me, is not worthy of Me. I Am the only one who sits upon the throne of your heart. I gave you your family to love, honor, and cherish, but only as you all follow Me. Nothing and No one will come between Me and My Bride.

Lastly, to lay aside all desires is to abandon your future totally to Me, embracing My Will, and allowing Me to decide what is best for you. Few can. Very few trust Me. Few know Me and My Love for them, for if they truly did, then they would run to Me and give Me everything.

There is no lack in My House. I care for My Children. I want the best for them and yet, My people choose to go their own way, as they do not think My Way is good enough. They know better. So I have to let them go.

I will not force My Own to follow Me.

I will not force My Own to Love Me.

I will not violate their free will and choices.

My Sheep hear My Voice, and they come to Me, and sit at My Feet, and they will not follow another.

The path is indeed narrowing, and to walk on it now, means you must now begin to climb. You cannot hold onto anything and follow Me. You must let go and trust Me. For the path has begun to ascend to My Holy Hill, and only those with clean hands and pure hearts can ascend My Holy Hill.

It is time to climb.

-Susan Cummings
5-24-04
12:57 am

http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://www.xsorbit6.com/users/remnantaflame/index.cgi
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords

Maturing Into Love

Ron McGatlin

The most significant season of God since when Jesus and the disciples were physically on the earth is NOW UPON US. The season of maturation of the true "Body of Christ" is now.

In the past century restoration has come in waves or seasons. There was a shift from "hell fire" preaching and "salvation to miss hell" to a "born again" experience of changed life for now and eternity. The Pentecostal season focused on law and brought the fullness of "Holy Spirit Baptism" and then the awesome "Faith Movement" brought power, hope, miracles, and healing with focus on the Word. The "Charismatic Gifts" were poured out with emphasis on prophesy and healing. Worship and praise went to new levels of reality. Deliverance from bondages and healing of hearts has brought much release and freedom. Most recently the Father's Heart has begun to be revealed and life changing experiences have resulted.

We are now in the season of "Maturing Into Love". Love is greater than faith - greater than law - greater than prophesy - greater than gifts - all these things emanate from love - they work by love for God is love (1 John 4:8-16). All of these things are vital and it is impossible to mature in God without them. The focus or purpose of them is to bring us to the fulfillment of maturity which is LOVE - God's love in us and us in Him.

Jesus said to him, " 'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' "This is the first and great commandment. "And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' "On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets." Mat 22:37 - 40:

Maturation is necessary before marriage.

Through all these seasons the "Body of Christ" has been growing up as a child into maturity. Maturation is necessary before marriage. The "Bride" is now beginning to come into view in the distance. Hallelujah! For the first time ever in my 70 plus years of life experience the beauty of the "Bride of Christ" is vaguely in view not very far ahead of us.

The season of maturing love is upon us. Jesus redeemed us and through the Holy Spirit has been taking us toward the Father all along. Through the seasons of God we are being cleansed and prepared to enter into the heart of the Father. To know Him in personal intimacy and be filled with God who is love - forever consumed in the fire of intimate relationship with God our Father and our Husband, Jesus.

As we truly abide in Him - in His intimate presence we are metamorphosed into pure love and He literally lives in us. We literally become one with Jesus who is one with the Father and then one with one another.

John 17:20-23: ....."that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. "And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: "I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect (mature) in one, , and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

Our pride can prevent us from intimacy with God.

James 4:6: "God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble."

Prov 8:13 ....Pride and arrogance and the evil way And the perverse mouth I hate Pride is a result of not truly experiencing the love of God. Experiencing the love in the heart of the Father is most humbling. To know that He passionately loves all mankind and feels pain in His heart when they do not love Him in return and to know that when we respond by loving Him with our whole heart that he feels great joy in His heart is very humbling.

Pride can manifest as religious pride, social pride, plain old self focus is pride and a sister to pride is fear - fear of what man will think - how I will look or appear. But grace precedes glory and is given to the humble.

Mature love makes us humble and opens the way for FACE TO FACE with God. Moses was said to be the most humble man on the earth and he spoke with God FACE TO FACE. (Num 12:3-8)

The subject of First Corinthians, Chapter 13 is clearly love. Verses 10-13 speak clearly of maturing in love and "then" seeing Him "face to face". The "then" in this verse when viewed in context clearly speaks of when we mature in love. And the "face to face" is intimate oneness with God.

1 Cor 13:10-11: But when that which is perfect (mature) has come, then that which is in part will be done away. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things

1 Cor 13:12-13: For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known. And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. .

Intimacy with God is much more than a dating relationship with Him. Coming into His holy presence in worship and praise from time to time is a wonderful meeting with Him. But remaining with Him in the secret place of His chambers is the intimate love process of becoming one. Continuing with Him in the secret place is a daily experience in which we are no longer an individual but are one with Him and cannot be separated. We become so much in love that we are transformed into His body, His flesh, His bones.

Eph 5:30-32: For we are members of His body, of His flesh and of His bones. "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

When we mature in love we can say as Paul said, "For me to live is Christ." This is a great mystery. The same great mystery spoken of in Col.1:26-27: The mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Paul longed to see the day when Christ would be formed by the Holy Spirit in His children. The day when the Body of Christ would become one in love with the Head, Christ Jesus, in the heart of the Father.

Gal 4:19 My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you.

Pursue love - it never fails.
Lots of love, Ron McGatlin

http://www.baspub.com/news/

The Cost of Bridal Love
Ron McGatlin

"Paul said that he died daily, to show His love for Christ, are we willing to do the same?"

Many of us do not know the cost of true Bridal Love. We see the ultimate cost through Christ's death. So then, He now asks us if we are willing to pay the cost of true, fiery, passionate, Bridal love? To lay down all of our ambitions, desires, dreams, and even the destiny I felt God had for me, and follow Him, wherever He may lead.

The cost of Bridal Love is to take up your cross and follow Him, suffering silently. True Love, true passion will follow Him through the hells of this earth to our own Calvary daily, where we must decide to show the greatest love of all to Him, to lay down our lives for Him, as He did for us. For greater love hath no man than this, that He lay down His life for His friends. This must be done daily. Daily walking the death walk. Daily following Him, even if it means I die, for this is true, to live is Christ, to die is to gain more of His glory ever imagined.

Today, the question is asked, how many of you are willing to pay the cost? To take up your Cross and follow Him, your Lover, no matter where He leads, even if it be to your own death? He is crying out to those who hear this call, "Do you Love Me?....Then follow Me.....Do you Love Me? Then follow Me....Do you Love Me?" He pauses once more. His eyes burn with fiery passion and His heart eager to hear us answer the call says to us all. "Then follow Me."

takeustotheriver@juno.com

Becoming One
Ron McGatlin

Eph 5:30-32: For we are members of His body, of His flesh and of His bones. "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

It goes beyond our mental and intellectual ability to understand this "great mystery" . How can any human being birthed with human frailties really become one with Christ? Jesus prayed for and fully expected the reality of the experience of our becoming one with Him and the Father.

John 17:20-23: "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; "that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. "And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: "I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

Theologians may have difficulty explaining with reason this great mystery of becoming His body, His flesh, His bones. Jesus who was one with the Father had no problem understanding the union of the Father in Him and He in the Father and we in Him and He in us as one. He clearly understood because of the practical spiritual reality of the experience of being one with the Father. Only by experience can we truly relate to the reality of becoming one with God.

Words are not enough to know Him as one. Faith alone is not enough. Believing must become experience. The Word must become reality. This must become our life experience to know Him and He know us as one. Christ must be joined with us and we with Him as husband and wife in practical reality.

Intimacy with God is much more than a dating relationship with Him. Coming into His holy presence in worship and praise from time to time is a wonderful meeting with Him. Remaining with Him in the secret place of His chambers is the intimate love process of becoming one. So much in love that we are transformed into His body, His flesh, His bones.

Continuing with Him in the secret place is a daily experience in which we are no longer an individual but are one with Him and cannot be separated. For me to live is Christ. The two become one. This is a great mystery. The same great mystery spoken of in Col.1:26-27: The mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Gal 4:19 My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you,

Now in this day more than a few are beginning to see the reality of loosing their life in Him to become one with Him through the experience of intimate love with Him - through intimately being in love with God.

Pursue love - it never fails.
Lots of love, Ron McGatlin

For more articles by Ron McGatlin and others, Go Here: http://www.baspub.com/news/

http://www.openheaven.com http://www.carolinarevivalconnection.com

Unlimited permission to copy without altering text or profiteering is hereby granted subject to inclusion of this web address: http://www.openheaven.com. Except if an item is marked - Copyright, you should contact the original publisher for permission to reproduce.

Midnight Madness
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 21st, 2004 2:02 am
www.upstreamca.org

Matt 25:1-12 AMP THEN THE kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. 2 five of them were foolish (thoughtless, without forethought) and five were wise (sensible, intelligent, and prudent). 3 For when the foolish took their lamps, they did not take any [extra] oil with them; 4 But the wise took flasks of oil along with them [also] with their lamps. 5 While the bridegroom lingered and was slow in coming, they all began nodding their heads, and they fell asleep.
6 But at midnight there was a shout, Behold, the bridegroom! Go out to meet him!
7 Then all those virgins got up and put their own lamps in order 8 And the foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. 9 But the wise replied, There will not be enough for us and for you; go instead to the dealers and buy for yourselves. 10 But while they were going away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were prepared went in with him to the marriage feast; and the door was shut. 11 Later the other virgins also came and said, Lord, Lord, open [the door] to us! 12 But He replied, I solemnly declare to you, I do not know you [I am not acquainted with you]. 13 Watch therefore [give strict attention and be cautious and active], for you know neither the day nor the hour when the Son of Man will come.

Mark 13:35-37 NIV
35 "Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back- whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. 36 If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. 37 What I say to you, I say to everyone: 'Watch!'"

The Lord spoke to me " midnight madness"…then asked what He wanted to say:

" I am coming like a might rushing wind, and in a SUDDEN MOMENT, everything will eclipse! There will be sudden change and sudden life and glory and power! I am not a man that I should lie, and I am not a God afar off but close at hand!
I have been urging you to come close and to receive healing and nurturing, deliverance and rest, that you might be prepared for this hour. This suddenness I speak of will catch many in My church sleeping. And fear will come in to attempt to overwhelm many. The storehouses are not prepared for what is going to happen! It would be madness not to prepare for what is ahead yet many are sleeping!

I urge you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire that you may be rich, and white garments that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. 21 To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. [see Rev 3:18-21]

How many of you are willing to pay the full price? How many of you are willing to change your lifestyle for the sake of giving all you have to establish My KINGDOM? Is this too radical a thing for you My beloveds? Did the Son of Man have anyplace to lay His head? Some of you I will to keep what you have and to establish a beachhead in your community where people can come and receive nurturing and grace, healing and deliverance. But many I will ask to give up the affluence they are used to to be My servants. What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses his soul?

The youth are going to come in and will they come to a lukewarm church? Or will they come to those who are willing to give; to share; to break bread; who mean what they say in the Word? Will you lay down your life and take up MY CAUSE? Some of you I will reposition and re-order your lives. Do you really mean it when you tell Me that you will do anything for ME?

What if it means that man may reject you and think you too radical or whacko? What if it means that you give up the luxury you are used to, and some of the comforts to make room in your home for outcasts and orphans, abandoned and the broken? Many of you have more room than you need, and yet are unwilling to give up anything. You have grown full and comfortable and unwilling to bend.

I admonish you to be willing to let ME change and order your life. I am about to pour wealth out to many who you have rejected and put out, and thought incapable!
For I am looking for willing hearts and people who love others as I love them!
This is the mark of My true disciples. They love whom I love. They give as I WOULD GIVE. They weep as I would weep. They rise up at injustice as I would rise up at injustice. They speak, depending on Me for what to say. I am looking for those who like me, do not break a bruised reed! I did not treat people like flotsam and jetsom. I loved on them and received them as little children. Let this mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus!

Isa 42:3-4 NKJV A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench; He will bring forth justice for truth. 4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, Till He has established justice in the earth; And the coastlands shall wait for His law."

Phil 2:5-8 AMP Let this same attitude and purpose and [humble] mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus: [Let Him be your example in humility:] 6 Who, although being essentially one with God and in the form of God [possessing the fullness of the attributes which make God God], did not think this equality with God was a thing to be eagerly grasped or retained, 7 But stripped Himself [of all privileges and rightful dignity], so as to assume the guise of a servant (slave), in that He became like men and was born a human being.
8 And after He had appeared in human form, He abased and humbled Himself [still further] and carried His obedience to the extreme of death, even the death of the cross!

I never give up on you. I do have to chastise you as a good father would at times, but I never give up on you! Will you dwell on MY LOVE for a time, that YOU may be infused with MY LOVE, and MERCY? Will you focus on MY LOVE rather than busyness and judging for a time…and ask ME to come and impart to you, what you are still lacking in wisdom and understanding about it? There is little time left for preparation, so I am asking you beloveds to not neglect your time with ME. Be not foolish virgins, but wise. For I am not cruel and harsh, but loving and kind, and only want to pour out more of My love in you. I am wanting to remove all the hindrances in your soul to receiving the FULLNESS of My glory! Dwell on My WORD. Eat of the Bread of Life!

Eph 3:16-19 AMP
16 May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit [Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality].
17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love, 18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];

19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!
eclipse: Main Entry: ²eclipse Function: transitive verb
Inflected Form(s): eclipsed; eclips·ing : to cause an eclipse of: as a : OBSCURE, DARKEN b : to reduce in importance or repute c : SURPASS noun: 1 a : the total or partial obscuring of one celestial body by another b : the passing into the shadow of a celestial body -- compare OCCULTATION, TRANSIT 2 : a falling into obscurity or decline; also : the state of being eclipsed flotsam: 1 : floating wreckage of a ship or its cargo; broadly : floating debris 2 a : a floating population (as of emigrants or castaways) b : an accumulation of miscellaneous or unimportant stuff jetsam: 1 : the part of a ship, its equipment, or its cargo that is cast overboard to lighten the load in time of distress and that sinks or is washed ashore

Dismal Spirits
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 24th, 2004 2:22 pm
www.upstreamca.org

dismal:
1 obsolete : DISASTROUS, DREADFUL
2 : showing or causing gloom or depression
3 : lacking merit : particularly bad

“The enemy has sent out some dismal spirits to try to hamper your joy, and I am admonishing you to not get fearful or dismayed at the events in the world, because you know you are living in end times. You should know that I am coming soon, and all must be fulfilled in order that My Word is fulfilled.”

[When the Lord said this to me, I thought about Rick Joyner’s book The Final Quest – and how depression was one of the heavy warfare tools in the scene on the mountain riding on the back of believers]

“ I came to bring you abundant life and joy in the Holy Spirit. Do not allow these dismal spirits to rule your life! Speak My word against them and watch how they turn tail and run! They have come to overtake the love and peace I give. They have come to overwhelm the lost with the end times events so that they cower in fear and are overcome. But I AM STILL the WAY, the TRUTH and the LIFE! The lost need to know the TRUTH. They need ME and they need freedom. So you must overcome them if you are to deliver others! Do not let them gain a foothold with their tauntings…”

Then I could imagine them taunting individuals saying things like…”it’s never going to get any better.” “You are not going to make it!” “ You’ll never be accepted by anyone!” “ it’s hopeless” “ You might as well give up and kill yourself”

The Lord continued…

“This is part of his end times strategy to remove prematurely those called also to move in power gifting and apostolic holiness. If he can get you to give up, or to become hopeless and depressed, then he thinks you will destroy yourself. So come to ME in the beauty of holiness and WORSHIP ME! PUT ON THE GARMENT OF PRAISE FOR THE SPIRIT OF HEAVINESS!
This is why I said I would raise up the Tabernacle of David in these times. I knew the onslaught of what would come against you. You must NOT yield to his tauntings. Put on the armor of light, and sing and dance and worship Me.
Praise Me and watch him flee! Speak the Psalms! Speak My Word! Stand up and use the weapons I have given you for they are many. Each of you has been given gifts according to your callings that you can use.

I do not leave you. I do not axe you out of My plan because you’ve made a mistake. Many are listening to condemning spirits thinking it is ME, because you do not know the depth of the love I have for you who have said YES to ME!

Can you imagine leaving one of your children behind in the midst of a storm?
Can you imagine just abandoning your own flesh? I know many of you were abandoned and not treated right, but in the normal state a parent would never leave behind their children in an emergency when it would kill the child to do so! Am I not a good Father? Have I not been patient with you and stayed with you during many times of hardship and persecution , rejection, illness and affliction, poverty and abuse? Why then would you think I would disqualify you now? Does your calling depend on your performance? Of course if you never tried to obey and were reprobate in your heart, then of course you might answer yes, but NO! I honor the HEART decisions, even when your flesh is unable due to wounding in your soul to do everything right!

So do NOT give in to DEFEATISM. Ask Me to remove the roots of infection in your soul and I will! Ask for more of My love and I will pour it into you!
I love you My beloveds and I will not remove My Spirit from you! I will pour it out more and more that you may be able to endure the tests that are coming.

Abba

New Birth
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 23rd, 2004
Ps 29:3-9 NKJV The voice of the LORD is over the waters; The God of glory thunders; The LORD is over many waters. 4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon. 6 He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox. 7 The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.
8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth, and strips the forests bare; and in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"

I heard the Holy Spirit say,” the voice of the Lord makes the deer give birth.” Knew the psalm so looked it up…then He said:

“If I call to birth the very time of the deer’s birth, how much more do I care about the birth of My Son in this generation? How much more do I desire to manifest My glory in you and through you? I am desirous for full union with you. I want to purify My bride and to make her glorious, dressed in fine linen and decked in gold of Ophir! Do I make pregnant and not bring to birth?

Surely I do nothing without speaking to My prophets! Surely there is nothing that keeps Me from my friends. Listen to Me, My weary ones, and know that I am not a harsh taskmaster, but the ONE Who loves you with an everlasting and unconditional love! I do not grow weary in caring for you. I love to care for you. I love to care FOR you! Cast ALL your cares on Me, for I care FOR you! Do not tire from waiting and know that I have heard your prayers and am anxious to fill every one of them. But I am the Sovereign King of the Universe and Your Loving FATHER. I know what is best. I see the head from the tail, the beginning from the end. So just trust me My beloveds, to know what is best for you.

It is a time of rest and repentance, a time of letting Me love you and allowing me to dress your wounds and to heal them. Your body will prosper even as your soul prospers, I have said. So allow me to touch your soul and to bring healing to the many little hidden corners of your heart, that life and health may be manifested to you! Allow ME access codes so that all that is hindering can be removed. All it takes is your willingness . Come unto ME, all who are weary and heavy laden and I will give you REST for your soul. I will break off all the heavy burdens and destroy the works of the enemy that have come against you. All you have to do is come into my presence and allow ME to do it…ask and you shall receive, knock and the door will be opened to you!
Know that I am WITH you, even when you can't feel me. I am with you, even when you think for some reason I have taken a vacation! The Lord God of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps! I have no need of sleep! I am here for you no matter what the time of day.

The greatest test of all lies ahead My beloveds, so I need you to come up higher in your faith and discipline that when it comes you may be able to stand in the face of hatred and adversity. That you may be able to LOVE your enemies, and do good to those who hate you! Apart from My grace, that is a difficult task! Where do you receive that grace? Then COME! Put off all anxiety, all worry, all busyness, all that would distract you, and spend time in ME. I love you and will not disappoint you!

Abba

Ministry Changes
Kriston Couchey

August 21, 2004

Ministry Changes

In Jesus' day He confronted, offended and threatened the religious mind and system. So also in this day the revolution of true kingdom ministry will confront, offend and threaten the "system" of church life today.

This revolution will affect every aspect of what some would call 5-fold ministry. These changes will be born out of a love and humility that has a clear vision of the heart and purposes of the Lord. Those willing to walk in this Love and humility will be willing to change the manner in which they operate in order to serve the body in a manner pleasing to the Lord. Here are some of the changes you can expect.

Ministry of the Apostle

Though there are many different spheres of apostolic ministry, here is a general description of today’s apostolic ministry.

Today’s apostle can be equaled to a president of an organization. On a larger scale the apostle has a multitude of churches under their authority. High visibility Apostles today relate to those who are willing to cut a covenant with them by either signing a contract or agreeing to a covenant with them which makes them "part" of the network of apostolic leadership.

Some apostles on local levels serve the role of traditional pastors. Their network is the people who are under them and are in covenant with them by membership or tithe.

The role of apostle is going to change most dramatically because of true revelation on the ministry of apostle that has not been manifest yet. Walking the way of the crucified life will transform apostolic understanding greatly.

One great understanding will be the restoration of walking in the "ONE" covenant already made by the blood of Jesus. Extra covenants will be seen for what they are, divisions and separation of brethren.

A release of regions to complete freedom and reliance upon the Spirit will be the result of conviction and repentance over the way in which the Lord's church has become the possession of men. An understanding of laying down your life for the sheep and TRUE servant hood of the bride will break the chains of the unbiblical "covering" doctrine, denominationalism, and current apostolic networks. This will release the Spirit to cross pollinate what men have boxed and limited.

Locally there will be a premium on hearing the Lord for yourself and not looking to "Moses" or the pastor, prophet or apostle for direction. Apostles will fight for the freedom of the body to express the mind and heart of the Lord corporately. Services will be more worship and Spirit led preaching, prophesying, and teaching rather then the organized strictures of man controlled order. Apostles, prophets and pastors will serve alongside other mature individuals as facilitators and watchmen for the enemies attacks, rather then the sole sources of inspiration and teaching. You may not even know who an apostle or pastor are in a typical meeting as the Lord will simply have His way.

Apostles will learn to relate as friends and equals, not as "teachers" or censures. Team leadership and corporate body ministry will be the heart of apostles. Their greatest joys will be to see others step out boldly in ministry gifts and calls, even to their own decrease. They will be firm with those who desire is to draw men unto themselves. They will see clearly wolves whose intent is to devour or divide the sheep and deal swiftly with them.

Ministry of the Pastor

Today’s ministry of Pastor is one of CEO and religious service director. Salaried and employed by the people, the pastor is responsible to feed the sheep. This feeding is not done by simply leading them to green pastures and still water where they can graze and drink. But today the pastor is the hand that harvests and spoon feeds the sheep.

Tomorrows Pastor will relate on a more intimate level as a loving friend whose concern for individuals will be shown by personal love and edification. They may not be recognizable as a "pastor" in a group setting at times. They will have the ability to feed people by directing them to "feed" or graze from the green pastures of corporate body ministry, and to drink peacefully from the Holy Spirit's water of Life.

Pastors will have a place at times for corporate speaking, but then again, all of the body will have a place to do this.

Conclusion

The Lord is not interested in titles, He is interested in results. If the results we see today do not measure up to what He is desiring it is because we are not seeking the results He is, or we are trying to accomplish His desired results in our own flesh, or in our own way. We need to pray to the Lord to see clearly what we are doing to stop Him from accomplishing His will. We may be surprised to find out that the very things we are doing to try to serve Him are hindering Him from doing what He wants to do.

Kriston Couchey
kcouchey@juno.com

My Judgment Cometh

Dee Hoetmer

24th May 2004
Zep 1:14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. Zep 1:15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, Zep 1:16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers. Zep 1:17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. Zep 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

Look up Beloved for I am drawing nigh, yea the signs are even in the sky. You see Me moving quickly now, for the day is fast approaching when I will reveal Myself to all mankind. Those who are in error, and those who choose to remain in error, despite the warning words and signs, will cry out for the rocks to fall on them.

Revelation 6:16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

There is yet a little time Beloveds, it is but a little while. My lambs I will protect, but the stubborn goats I will reject. They will say how can I be a loving God when judgment falls. Oh foolish people, do you not hear when I call and call! I sent My Son and you repented not! I send My prophets and you hear them not! Oh how long will I be wearied, how long will I stretch forth My hands to a wicked and perverse nation. They flaunt their abominations continually in My Face and when judgment comes, they will say “where is My Grace?”

Isaiah 65:2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

Oh foolish and perverse generation, have I not said that the final hour fast approaches, but still you continue in ways that I abhor! My intercessors have prayed, My prophets have prophesied, but now is coming the time when I will close the door, and judgment will fall. Those hidden in Me will see My Glory, those not hidden in Me will see My Wrath.
You ask how can this be? My Chosen know for they have studied My Word and have enquired of Me, but many of you have continued on gleefully, ignoring My pleas to repent and turn so that you would not experience hell fires burn!

O wicked generation, how long will I forbear your foolishness by living as without a care! Do you not know that I am a God of love, BUT ALSO OF HOLY WRATH! You laugh when My prophets fire and brimstone declare! What will you do in the terrible Day Of The Lord, WHAT WILL YOU DO? The stench of perversion, lust and greed forever rises in My nostrils. Do you not know these things will come to pass, as I have decreed?

Isaiah 65:5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. THESE ARE A SMOKE IN MY NOSE, A FIRE THAT BURNETH ALL THE DAY.

When you reject My Son, YOU REJECT ME! How long will this continue for it cannot be; ALL THINGS WILL BE BROUGHT UNTO SUBMISSION UNDER HIM, WATCH AND SEE! My Beloveds watch and wait for My Glory, but there will come a time when I will command you no longer to plea with a wicked and perverse generation, FOR WHAT WILL BE, WILL BE.

dee@heartbeatofthefather.co.za
http://www.heartbeatofthefather.co.za

Manifest Love of God is Purifying

Ron McGatlin

True holiness begins with the love of God melting the hearts of men. The roots of submission and obedience are found in the heartfelt desire to please God created in response to experiencing His overwhelming love.

The cooperation and cohesiveness of the church flows from the experience of being in love with God. The substance of Christ is formed within men's hearts and flows out to the connecting joints of the Body of Christ. The kingdom of God on earth from heaven is glued together as one by the experience of the all consuming unending immeasurable love of God flowing by the Holy Spirit. Walking in the Spirit produces walking in the love of God. Walking in the experience of the love of God causes us to hate sin and empowers us to turn from sin and carnality toward the purity and holiness of God. What we could not do by trying to do right is done by the indwelling power of the overwhelming love of God.

One Body attached to one Head has always been the plan of God.

But you say, "I don't see it that way in the church now." To the degree that there is not yet the experience of the manifest love of God in the church there is division and competitive strife. Denominations continue to name themselves according to their differences and divide from one another according to knowledge and not according to the Spirit. Renewal / revival of the manifest presence of God in recent decades is the beginnings of a generation of change - a people of maturity in God - a people who love God and seek His kingdom and righteousness first above all else.

Personally speaking, I do not know how much of the fullness of this will be realized in the years I have left here. The reality of fullness of the love of God reforming the church into the desire of God is in the youth - in the children who are growing up in the manifest presence of God and are naturally being trained in the supernatural reality of the manifest presence God.

Today is the day of the restoration of apostolic fathers to guide the children of this generation into the New Jerusalem kingdom of God church - the "Christ in you" glorious Body of Christ on earth. Fathers must lead their children into the manifest presence of God and let them remain there. God will mold and shape them by His Spirit and the Word shall be in their mouths to turn a renegade world toward transformation into the glorious rule of God on earth as it is in heaven. The children must go far beyond the ways of the past into a season of reflecting the glory of Christ flooding the whole earth with the glory of His love and power.

God will have His people moving as one Body on earth as it is in heaven.

Pursue love, it never fails.

Ron McGatlin
www.openheaven.com

Meet Me At The Well
Jeannette Rodgers

Mar 2, 2004
Yes daughter, Yes son, Yes Friend, You have been seeking and asking and looking for the Way, looking for the answer, looking for acceptance, looking for love, looking for healing, looking with expectation.

This day, I say to you ..Meet ME at the Well. For I have much for you to drink...enough water that you may draw and draw from the depths of My well and you will never thirst again.

I see you are dry and your tears have been your food day and night. This day I say unto you my precious children whom I love with everlasting love, Drink, Drink from the well that will never run dry. Look to the water that is crystal clear, that heals , that loves, that is filled with compassion; for it is of ME. Many will say drink here or drink there but I say to you drink from Me alone. When you are offered a drink; look at it and you will know by MY spirit within you if it is of ME. My water will not be tainted, MY water will not have particles in it, MY water will be given freely in abundance, MY water will be Life. You will know My water for it will refresh, it will restore, it will revive, it will love, it will deliver, it will be clear, it will saturate your spirit because it is of ME, the water I give is pure.

Meet ME at the well, where I will heal your heart and I will heal the wounds , and I will love you, and I will feed you, I will surely give you water that you need. I will give water of Life, of Liberty, of righteousness and of peace. I will give water filled with joy and gladness and water that will cleanse and fill up every empty place.

The water from My well, will wash off the stains of blood from the wounds of the world. My water will fill you with all that cannot come from a man. My water, My word, is true. Meet ME at the well. I will fill you up and overflowing as you have so desired. I will always be here for you, I will never leave you. For I died for you and brought you back Life in abundance. I have this for you NOW. If you have been searching, if you have been wounded, if you have been tired, if you have been weary, if you have been looking, lift up your eyes and look ahead and Meet ME at the Well. Your soul will be refreshed. Come and Drink....Meet ME at the Well. I am One, who will never leave you, I am One who loves you without condition, I am One who will never fail you, I am One who weeps with you and rejoices with you, I am One who remains faithful, I am One who causes you to stand when on your own you would have fallen, I am One who provides, I am One knows where you are all the time, I am One who never loses sight of you, I am One who knows your thoughts and sees your heart, I am One whose arms are always open for you, to comfort you and hold you. I am One who gives you breath and gives you purpose and gives you Life. I am One with you as I am with My Father.

Come and drink, Meet ME at the Well... Take with you My Living water and pour out upon others all that I have given you and will give you that you might all walk as One in Me in Life in Fullness, in Peace, in Gentleness, and in Love.

NewWineToday@aol.com

Mighty Men Of War

Yolanda Ballard

(roarnworship@netzero.net)

Nov 28, 2004
Resume the responsibility of a watchman. Watch and pray and then ask of Me the petitions that you desire of Me. For when you ask, you are letting Me know that you care about the situations that you are facing concerning the brethren. A good watchman not only cares about himself, but he cares about all that concerns the body of Christ. In these latter times I will be raising up many who will be acting the part of a watchman, but really they are taking on the call of an intercessor who is seasoned for war on behalf of those who I gave My life for.

Reach out and ask of Me the details of the intercession you are to take in pulling down the strongholds that are effecting My people. So many don't know how to war for themselves and need those who will stand in the gap and roar on their behalf. Yes, when you roar, you are letting out mighty power of My love that repels the powers of darkness so that many can receive My love. So many are so bound with deception that they don't even know that they are bound in chains and fetters. And I need those who will stand up and say to the enemy that this is as far as you go. I command you to let God's people go.

Reach out to Me and pray and I will give you the details that you are to follow. You aren't on your own in this battle for I AM your Captain in chief, and I AM leading you on in the fight for freedom, not only for your own life but for those of the multitudes who I will raise up as mighty warriors of worship. Yes, I have an army who is now in chains who will be loosed and turn on the enemy, because they know how it is to be bound, and they will be full of compassion, and will not stop warring until they know in their hearts that they have conquered the land.

So, I want you to rejoice and know that your travail is not in vain those who have been giving birth to My will. I know it has been long and heavy, and the transition period you felt totally out of control, but you have held on to your faith in My word and promises and have not let go of them. I want you to rejoice, and know that you are at the edge of a mighty breakthrough. Don't give up hope.

Don't look at circumstances stating that things are growing worse and that you have lost the fight. Don't believe the lies. Stand behind your shield of faith and wave your sword against the enemy, and use your lance of intercession on behalf of your brethren. Believe the nations are your inheritance because they are sealed with My blood. Escape the clutch of the evil one and run the race freely. Let out a mighty shout of victory for you will prevail, says your God.

My Most Valuable Possession

Ron McGatlin

Have you ever considered what among your possessions is the most valuable to you? I never had considered this thought until today when the Spirit began to speak to me about the value of a humble heart - a humble spirit.

Considering the humble heart's potential of unfiltered oneness with the most high, most holy, most loving, most powerful being - the very God who created and sustains all that exist - the all knowing God of all wisdom - the God to whom all things are possible and nothing is impossible - surely a humble heart is the most valuable of all possessions.

There is no resistance from God toward a truly humble spirit. But even the smallest bit of pride will generate some amount of resistance from God. A bit of pride and potential intimacy with God will be lessened. There will be no more than "through a glass darkly" relationship and perhaps not even that. Face to face oneness with God cannot occur where pride exist. Only those with a "contrite" and humble spirit can dwell in the "high and holy place" with God.

James 4:6 ..."God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble."
James 4:10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Isa 57:15 For thus says the High and Lofty One Who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, With him who has a contrite and humble spirit, To revive the spirit of the humble, And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

What does "contrite and humble spirit" really mean? And how do we get that way?

My thesaurus list the following synonyms for the word "contrite": conscience-stricken, sorrowful, regretful, repentant, rueful, penitent, remorseful, apologetic, chastened, humbled. My dictionary defines it as, "filled with a sense of guilt and the desire for atonement; penitent."

Only a truly repentant heart has the potential of intimate oneness dwelling with God in the high and holy place. There are those among us today who have no respect for having a repentant spirit. They feel they have passed the need for it and that repentance is "first day" and they are now living in "third day" revelation. The truth is the more we mature in God the more we respect a contrite and humble spirit.

God is so merciful and slow to anger. He has continued to wait for men to become humble before Him and even allows those in process of becoming humble to manifest gifts and be used within limits. But they cannot know the reality of the depth of His love and the glory of intimacy with Him in the high and holy place where He dwells. God is faithful to allow the process that leads to true humility to continue over time.

The Hebrew words translated "contrite" have the meanings of : crushed, powder, smitten, maimed, dejected, to collapse, to crumble, to bruise, beat to pieces, break in pieces. The process to humility involves being smitten and maimed through many tribulations, persecutions, and rejections. It includes being beat to pieces until all pride collapses and total brokenness occurs.

Prov 16:18-19: Pride goes before destruction, And a haughty spirit before a fall. Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, Than to divide the spoil with the proud.

James 4:6-10: ..."God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble." Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

If our most valuable possession is a humble heart then the best things that ever happened to us involves the process of suffering wrongfully through the many situations that crushed us to powder and broke to pieces all pride, strength, abilities, or anything else. Reducing us to ashes that the beauty of true humility and real holiness might be formed by the love of God through the Holy Spirit. The true "Christ in you" involves becoming as the character and nature of Jesus who humbly submitted to the cross.

When the suffering comes to break us to humility one of two things will always happen. We will repent and allow the brokenness to occur and continue to praise Him and trust Him or we will HARDEN OUR HEARTS and continue to strive to prevent or delay becoming repentant and hold on to our erroneous beliefs and practices.

Pride always opens the door to greed, lust, deceit, arrogance, maliciousness toward others and more. Hardened hearts justify these things through rationalization and it becomes increasingly difficult to repent even though the plagues increase. Without repentance hearts just become more hardened.

Rev 3:19 "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent.
Rev 16:9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; and they did not repent and give Him glory.

God is calling for His people to come up to the high and holy place and dwell with Him in intimacy.

Pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

For major articles by Ron McGatlin and others, Go Here: http://www.baspub.com/news/

The Reality Of Love
Ron McGatlin

http://www.baspub.com/news

Love is by the Holy Spirit - a fruit of the Holy Spirit. One cannot be filled with "agape" love and not be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word - but love comes by the Holy Spirit. ...The fruit of the Spirit is love,..(Rom 10:17) (Gal 5-22) Faith works through love, ... faith which works by love.(Gal 5:6) Love is the primary fruit of the Holy Spirit. All the other fruits come through love.(Gal 5;22-23)

Since faith works by love and love comes by the Holy Spirit, without the Holy Spirit there will be no reality of "agape" love, and therefore faith apart from the Holy Spirit will not work the works of God - the works of life. James said that faith that does no work is dead faith. Demons believe in God and quote the Word but without love - without Holy Spirit, they can do no works of God - no works of life. They do only dead works - works of death.

James 2:19-20: You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe; and tremble! But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?

Holy Spirit of God is a fundamental ingredient of all God does in the world. We must walk in the Holy Spirit to do the works of God. To walk in Holy Spirit is to walk in love. It is of no value to walk by faith or walk by the Word and not walk in Holy Spirit love.

1 Cor 13:1-3: Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.(Gal 5:16)

But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.(Gal 5:18)

Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.(Rom 13:10)

For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.(Rom 8:13)

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.(Rom 8:14)

As sons of God walk in the Spirit, mature love becomes the predominant fruit of their lives, and doing the works of God becomes natural to them. True mature ministers of God will manifest the fruit of "agape" love in the facilitation of their gifts. Where there is real love there is humility.

It is not profitable to follow after gifted men who do not demonstrate the reality of the fruit of love. It can be dangerous to follow after men who do not demonstrate the love of Father flowing through Holy Spirit in their lives, even if they are gifted.

Look for the love and the humility of Jesus in the life and character of those with whom you closely associate and you will prosper in the relationship. Otherwise the relationship may prosper for a season but then abruptly become painfull and costly.

Mat 7:15-20: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. "You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorn bushes or figs from thistles? "Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. "A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. "Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. "Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

The reality of love will cause us to see the desperate needs of others and sacrifice our self focused life in obedience to God in serving others. The love of the Father and the Son is manifest in our lives by the Holy Spirit and humble obedience is a result of the fruit of love.

Pursue love - it never fails.
Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

Ministers Of Fire

Dee Hoetmer

My Ministers Of Fire, My Messengers Of Flames Are Being Released From Their Sanctuaries

4th April 2004
Now is coming the time when My prepared ones are being released from their sanctuaries, the place where I have hidden My Beloved. It is while they have been hidden that I have done a deep work in them. The world cannot perceive what I have done in My Beloveds; I have prepared a people for My Glory!

As I send you forth, your eyes will be like flames of fire, the unjust and the unholy will not be able to stand before you. They will run to the left and to the right to escape My holiness and My wrath. THE TIME FOR PLAYING GAMES IS OVER.

You will go forth as My righteous judges; you will judge BY MY SPIRIT saith the Lord. The words you will speak will be MY WORDS and they will cut asunder the soul and the spirit. There will be no denying that it is in MY POWER and AUTHORITY that you walk

Look not at all at their faces; take not to heart their harsh words of rejection. You are a people chosen and prepared by Me, the Most High God, and you will go forth to declare My justice and righteousness upon the earth.

Long have I waited for a time such as this. Long have I waited for a people made ready to declare My glory and righteousness saith the Lord, and the time now is.

Your steps will be ordered of Me, the words you speak will be ordered by Me! When you stretch forth your hand to pray it will be at the direction of My Spirit!

Do not renege or turn away from the task set before you. Great will be you reward My faithful warriors, great will be your reward, My faithful ones.

My ministers of fire, My ministers of flames, I send you forth to purge the dross in My church; to set aright that which is in error, to proclaim THE TRUTH.

Some will hear, some will not. I am dividing the wheat from the tares, the sheep from the goats. After this time of refining, purging and judgment, MY HOUSE WILL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER, MY HOUSE WILL BE A PLACE THAT WILL LEAD MANY TO THE HIGHWAY OF HOLINESS.

MY HOUSE WILL BE A HOUSE OF REFUGE. No longer will the lost walk in seeking ME, only to find that they are turned away, turned away by the self-righteousness, the judgment and the spirit of greed that exists there.

WAKE UP My church, WAKE UP My bride for I will have a holy people, I will not let My house be brought into disrepute. WAKE UP, receive My messengers of fire, My messengers of flame and be purged before My wrath falls upon the earth.

I would that none perish but that all should be saved. Will you receive My words through My messengers or will your pride, your religious doctrines, your theologies, get in the way? Will you hear My Spirit speaking through My Ministers of fire, My messengers of flames?

I am coming as a RIGHTEOUS JUDGE. Receive My words and be purged and cleansed. I WOULD THAT NONE OF MY SHEEP BE LOST! I WOULD THAT NOT ONE OF THE HAIRS OF YOUR HEAD BE HARMED! THE CHOICE IS YOURS, to receive or not to receive, to be purged or not! CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY.

Be Prepared To Show Them The Way
Dee Hoetmer

31st March 2004
Joh 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I AM THE WAY, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Nations shall rise and nations shall fall. I am breaking the hierarchies that have been in place for centuries. Expect upheaval, expect chaos My Beloveds, BUT DO NOT FEAR FOR I AM YOUR HIGH TOWER.

Isa 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? Isa 33:15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil; Isa 33:16 HE SHALL DWELL ON HIGH: HIS PLACE OF DEFENSE SHALL BE THE MUNITIONS OF ROCKS: BREAD SHALL BE GIVEN HIM, HIS WATERS SHALL BE SURE.

The beast of the sea is churning, his head has broken the waters. Soon will come the time, as prophesied, when the Anti Christ will raise it's head. There will come a time when the masses will run to and fro, looking for answers to the coming chaos. Will you be in a position My Beloved, My prepared ones, to SHOW THEM THE WAY.

Chaos must proceed My Glory being manifest to the world, this is so that more will receive My Son. I will orchestrate events that the only way they can go, is to look upward. You will shine brightly My Beloveds, and they will come streaming to you looking for answers, seeking the truth. I WILL IN NO WAY LEAVE YOU, NOR FORSAKE YOU in the coming time, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. This will be a thrilling time My Beloveds, DO NOT FEAR. IT IS THE SUMMATION OF THE AGE. My prophets of old looked to this time and wished they could partake.

Great will be My Glory upon you in those dark times. Your heart will thrill at the signs and wonders I will perform to glorify My name! A word of caution My Beloveds, do not be deceived by the signs and wonders done by the evil one, the dragon.

Rev 13:1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. Rev 13:2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. Rev 13:3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. Rev 13:4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

DO NOT FEAR FOR GREATER IS HE THAT IS IN YOU, THAN HE THAT IS IN THE WORLD. Hold fast to what you have and make room for more. IT IS TIME Beloveds, it is time. The bells are tolling, the trumpets blowing, the seas roar, the winds blow as a hurricane. Change is coming, great change. It is for this purpose My Beloveds that you have been through the fire; a people made white, a people that will reflect My glory, that will walk in My power and authority. This is the season that it has been all about, for when you see these things come upon the earth, BE PREPARED TO SHOW THEM THE WAY. You were born for such a time as this; to be a beacon of light to the lost, a hand of provision, a source of My light and love in a dark world.

THE RISEN CHRIST ARISES. "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches'. Warn My people for Me saith the Lord.

deeconstultancy@absamail.co.za

Ministers Of Fire

Dee Hoetmer

My Ministers Of Fire, My Messengers Of Flames Are Being Released From Their Sanctuaries

4th April 2004
Now is coming the time when My prepared ones are being released from their sanctuaries, the place where I have hidden My Beloved. It is while they have been hidden that I have done a deep work in them. The world cannot perceive what I have done in My Beloveds; I have prepared a people for My Glory!

As I send you forth, your eyes will be like flames of fire, the unjust and the unholy will not be able to stand before you. They will run to the left and to the right to escape My holiness and My wrath. THE TIME FOR PLAYING GAMES IS OVER.

You will go forth as My righteous judges; you will judge BY MY SPIRIT saith the Lord. The words you will speak will be MY WORDS and they will cut asunder the soul and the spirit. There will be no denying that it is in MY POWER and AUTHORITY that you walk

Look not at all at their faces; take not to heart their harsh words of rejection. You are a people chosen and prepared by Me, the Most High God, and you will go forth to declare My justice and righteousness upon the earth.

Long have I waited for a time such as this. Long have I waited for a people made ready to declare My glory and righteousness saith the Lord, and the time now is.

Your steps will be ordered of Me, the words you speak will be ordered by Me! When you stretch forth your hand to pray it will be at the direction of My Spirit!

Do not renege or turn away from the task set before you. Great will be you reward My faithful warriors, great will be your reward, My faithful ones.

My ministers of fire, My ministers of flames, I send you forth to purge the dross in My church; to set aright that which is in error, to proclaim THE TRUTH.

Some will hear, some will not. I am dividing the wheat from the tares, the sheep from the goats. After this time of refining, purging and judgment, MY HOUSE WILL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER, MY HOUSE WILL BE A PLACE THAT WILL LEAD MANY TO THE HIGHWAY OF HOLINESS.

MY HOUSE WILL BE A HOUSE OF REFUGE. No longer will the lost walk in seeking ME, only to find that they are turned away, turned away by the self-righteousness, the judgment and the spirit of greed that exists there.

WAKE UP My church, WAKE UP My bride for I will have a holy people, I will not let My house be brought into disrepute. WAKE UP, receive My messengers of fire, My messengers of flame and be purged before My wrath falls upon the earth.

I would that none perish but that all should be saved. Will you receive My words through My messengers or will your pride, your religious doctrines, your theologies, get in the way? Will you hear My Spirit speaking through My Ministers of fire, My messengers of flames?

I am coming as a RIGHTEOUS JUDGE. Receive My words and be purged and cleansed. I WOULD THAT NONE OF MY SHEEP BE LOST! I WOULD THAT NOT ONE OF THE HAIRS OF YOUR HEAD BE HARMED! THE CHOICE IS YOURS, to receive or not to receive, to be purged or not! CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY.

Be Prepared To Show Them The Way
Dee Hoetmer

31st March 2004
Joh 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I AM THE WAY, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Nations shall rise and nations shall fall. I am breaking the hierarchies that have been in place for centuries. Expect upheaval, expect chaos My Beloveds, BUT DO NOT FEAR FOR I AM YOUR HIGH TOWER.

Isa 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? Isa 33:15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil; Isa 33:16 HE SHALL DWELL ON HIGH: HIS PLACE OF DEFENSE SHALL BE THE MUNITIONS OF ROCKS: BREAD SHALL BE GIVEN HIM, HIS WATERS SHALL BE SURE.

The beast of the sea is churning, his head has broken the waters. Soon will come the time, as prophesied, when the Anti Christ will raise it's head. There will come a time when the masses will run to and fro, looking for answers to the coming chaos. Will you be in a position My Beloved, My prepared ones, to SHOW THEM THE WAY.

Chaos must proceed My Glory being manifest to the world, this is so that more will receive My Son. I will orchestrate events that the only way they can go, is to look upward. You will shine brightly My Beloveds, and they will come streaming to you looking for answers, seeking the truth. I WILL IN NO WAY LEAVE YOU, NOR FORSAKE YOU in the coming time, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. This will be a thrilling time My Beloveds, DO NOT FEAR. IT IS THE SUMMATION OF THE AGE. My prophets of old looked to this time and wished they could partake.

Great will be My Glory upon you in those dark times. Your heart will thrill at the signs and wonders I will perform to glorify My name! A word of caution My Beloveds, do not be deceived by the signs and wonders done by the evil one, the dragon.

Rev 13:1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. Rev 13:2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. Rev 13:3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. Rev 13:4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

DO NOT FEAR FOR GREATER IS HE THAT IS IN YOU, THAN HE THAT IS IN THE WORLD. Hold fast to what you have and make room for more. IT IS TIME Beloveds, it is time. The bells are tolling, the trumpets blowing, the seas roar, the winds blow as a hurricane. Change is coming, great change. It is for this purpose My Beloveds that you have been through the fire; a people made white, a people that will reflect My glory, that will walk in My power and authority. This is the season that it has been all about, for when you see these things come upon the earth, BE PREPARED TO SHOW THEM THE WAY. You were born for such a time as this; to be a beacon of light to the lost, a hand of provision, a source of My light and love in a dark world.

THE RISEN CHRIST ARISES. "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches'. Warn My people for Me saith the Lord.

deeconstultancy@absamail.co.za

More Housecleaning

Diane Bahler

DLBahler88@aol.com
March 10, 2004

HOUSECLEANING TIME

The season of spring-cleaning is quickly approaching. I'm not a huge enthusiast of housecleaning but when the clutter mounts up and the house starts stinking then it's time to take out the garbage. Below is my take on some of the spiritual trash that needs to be disposed of in my opinion.

THE PASSION

Recently I've read articles about the movie, The Passion, that have ranged from deifying Mel Gibson to anointing him as the Antichrist. For what it's worth, here are my two cents:

An interesting thing happened the day that the movie came out. I went out my door to go to the gym and the car alarm was going off in my van for no reason. The car alarm doesn't even WORK and go off when it is supposed to! Now, for no apparent reason whatsoever, it was going off like crazy. When I got to the gym and got out in the parking lot, a nearby car's alarm started going off like crazy also for no reason. There was no one around near enough to even touch it. The parking lot was across the street from the movie theater where the Passion was playing.

The Lord told me that THIS MOVIE IS A WAKE UP CALL FOR THE CHURCH. It may be used to touch the nonbeliever but the Lord wanted this movie made FOR THE CHURCH and that this may just be their LAST 911 call. Last fall I remember there were a lot of words about the Lord sounding a major trumpet blast that He would use to awaken His Church.

I believe this movie is that wake up call for the Christian Church and those who call themselves Christians. This movie should serve as a training video for anyone who wants to sign up for "the Lord's Army." The message is: "be ready to die because if you want to use Jesus' name then you better be willing to follow in His footsteps."

During flashbacks in the movie Jesus makes several statements from the Scriptures about love. One of the last statements made in the movie is that if we are in Him and love Him then WE NEED TO LOVE EACH OTHER THE SAME WAY THAT HE LOVED US. In other words, the message that needs to get across to the hard headed, and even harder hearted Church is that when we become Christians we had better be READY and WILLING to walk through the same kind of fire HE walked through for US on behalf of even those that hate us and even those that - God forbid - are sinners.

Being a Christian isn't about sunshine and rainbows and financial miracles or about tearing down anything and anybody that we don't agree with. Being a Christian means being willing to walk through hell and death not only for those that we love but for those who are our enemies, those who hate and mock us and those who want to kill us by any means possible. Most recruiters don't tell you that when they want you to sign on the dotted line!

But THAT is God's love and that is the kind of love that He requires from those who want to call themselves by His name!

When real faith is demanded it won't take long to separate the sheep from the goats. No one can love the way Jesus loved us apart from the Holy Spirit. Those who have treated God like some kind of "Santa in the Sky" that rewards them for being good and punishes them for being bad will find that when the heat goes up, their self-imposed righteousness will be the first thing to burn away. The only hope ANY of us has is that Jesus lives in us and will give us the strength by HIS SPIRIT to carry whatever cross is demanded of us.

Jesus, save us all!

GODZILLA VS. MOTHRA

I listened to all of the Internet hype before The Passion was released and tried to not get caught up into it, but if nothing else, this movie is certainly causing a lot of dross to rise to the surface that needs to be scooped away.

Let me say this: Mel Gibson is NOT the Antichrist. Catholics are not the enemy. Satan is the enemy! The Catholic Church System is only the mother of all the little Protestant spiderlings in my opinion. Non-Catholic church systems are no better. The whole Babylonian "church" system that we have now is the antichrist baby of the Queen of Heaven and Leviathan. Protestants may have attempted to distance themselves from the Roman Church and it's marriage with the politics of Constantine but they are still doing a mighty fine job of carrying on the family traditions of killing the true saints of God, trying to be justified by following the rules, engaging in empty rituals, twisting and manipulating Scripture and empowering both the clergy and secular kings with money and approval no matter how evil they might be.

The real problem among “Protestant critics” is that they can't believe that the Lord would use a CATHOLIC to get His message across. But then again, who would've believed He would use a guy incarcerated for attempted rape or a scrawny shepherd boy or a low class carpenter from a crummy little town where nothing good came from? For that matter, who would've believed He would use somebody like you or me?

People that can only see the Antichrist in everything are succumbing to the Antichrist. He doesn't want us to see anything but HIM! Basically it was a religious spirit that called Jesus Beelzebub and a blasphemer and that caused men to kill Him thinking they were doing God a favor! Religious zealots today (and I use the term RELIGIOUS specifically) are under the same delusions when all they can see is the devil and not God. People will find what they are looking for. If they are looking for evil then that is what they are going to find and how they are going to interpret the symbols. And if they ARE evil - they are going to interpret them from an evil point of view.

In the movie the Satan character is holding an ugly baby with a big head that one article I read compared to the Antichrist child. I agree with them on that! It makes sense to me that it would have a big head because that is where that spirit gets it's power - from the MIND -not the heart - and that is exactly where these “prophetic pundits” are operating out of. They have gotten so enamored with their own ability to see symbolic types and to read spiritual messages into every thing by the power of their own HEAD knowledge (sound like a familiar TREE?) that they are losing their ability to see with the “eyes of their heart.”

(It might also be noted here that the Scriptures say that we are saved when we believe with our HEARTS – not our MINDS. There are a lot of people who have head knowledge about God but little to no heart knowledge. That might explain why there are so many who call themselves “Christians” but so little of the power of God demonstrated in the world today.)

My question is what are these “devil watchdogs” afraid of? That Satan is bigger than God?? Even if the movie came straight from the pit of hell (although it's hard for me to see how Satan benefits from a risen Christ being portrayed to millions and millions of people), are we to worry that God is too weak to use it for HIS purposes? Is God unable to hang Haman on his own gallows? These “prophets” make it seem like the Lord is just some hand wringing sop out there who is just continually being used and taken advantage of by the devil. Talk about crucifying Christ over and over again! Jesus is maligned and mocked when the impression is given that He is not in complete control of all things and when we doubt that all things can be used for HIS glory.

God is STILL the Godzilla of the universe and the devil is only a little moth in His fiery blast! Give glory to God and not the devil.

Jesus, save us all!

THE MOTHER OF THE BRIDE

One of the articles I read about The Passion had a problem with Satan being portrayed as androgynous. But what is their problem with that? There is no male/female in the spiritual realm and Satan IS Leviathan (a snake); the Antichrist (a man) and the Queen of Heaven (female). So it seems rather inspired to me that Mel would make the character look like it could fit into any of those roles.

Supposedly the issue has to do with the portrayal of Mary, the mother of Jesus, in a sympathetic way by Gibson. I suspect that the greater problem is that nobody – Catholic or non-Catholic – can cope with the concept that God has feminine attributes as well as male.

The problem with Catholics and their Mary is that they don't understand that Mary was just a surrogate and that the Holy Spirit was the real mother of Jesus. So they deify Mary and give power to a demonic spirit that wants to set itself up as the “Queen of Heaven”.

The problem with non-Catholics is that they can’t cope with the power of the feminine side of God and so they demonize Mary and beat women with submission. They give power to that same spirit that in reality hates women and wants to destroy them. The real mother of Jesus is marginalized and denigrated both in the form of the Holy Spirit and the human Mary that carried Jesus and loved Him.

And on a personal note on behalf of the real Mary: What good mother DOESN’T feel the suffering of her child? What child doesn’t turn to their mother for strength and comfort in times of trial? Mary didn’t ask to be deified and I’m sure she is in heaven cringing at much of what is said and done in her name. Give the woman a break! Personally, I don’t think Jesus is going to stand up on Judgment Day and applaud those that trashed His earthly mother just because they couldn’t tell the difference between the real and the counterfeit any more than he is going to reward those who glorified her over Him.

The problem with the Pagans is that they’ve been so brutalized by the absolutely unholy and unscriptural “Christian” concepts of God and women that they have created goddesses and deified them instead of embracing the FULLNESS of God that encompasses both male and female. In so doing, they also give power to this demonic “Queen of Heaven.” But who is Jesus going to hold accountable for that? It’s the responsibility of the CHURCH to be a witness to these people. The Church has been giving a false witness about women AND the Gospel to the world for centuries. Personally, on Judgment Day, I think there might be a lot of “Pagans” in better stead than a lot of people that claimed they were Christians and only helped lead the “pagans” astray with their false witness or apathetic or judgmental attitudes.

Christians love to talk about the world and how bad it is and how all those sinners need to be saved but who is Jesus going to hold accountable in the end if the world is not saved? The World? How can that be just if they have never heard the TRUE Gospel or seen a TRUE witness of God’s LOVE through US? Nope, I think WE’RE the ones that are going to be held to account.

The bottom line: It seems to me that the old demonic Queen is the one who wins in every case – Catholic, non-Catholic, or Pagan. So who is the most culpable in empowering this demonic principality? Maybe the non-Catholics better take the plank out of their own eye before they try and take that Mary splinter out of the eye of their Catholic brothers and the goddess splinter out of the eye of their Pagan friends. There are a lot of blind men out there leading the blind while the devil dances with his queen all over our heads.

HERE COMES THE BRIDE

Speaking of deification, there’s one area that the non-Catholics are out-doing the Catholics and their Mary with by a mile. There has been a general elevation of many Christians by themselves to a higher status than Mary in calling themselves “the Bride.”

The problem stems from the same root; however, that Catholics have with Mary. Just as Catholics don’t understand that the MOTHER of Jesus is the Holy Spirit, most Christians don’t understand that it is the HOLY SPIRIT who also IS the Bride of Jesus. Perhaps a better reading of the passage from Revelation – “The Spirit and the Bride say come” – might be: “The Spirit who IS the Bride says come.” It isn’t US – it is the Holy Spirit IN US that is the Bride of Jesus - and only those who have come into the FULLNESS of the Holy Spirit, at that.

Being a part of the “church” does not automatically make us part of the Bride of Christ. We become part of the Bride when we enter into the FULLNESS, PERFECTION, MATURITY of Christ by the Holy Spirit. Since I don’t see too many Christians walking around in “the fullness of Christ” or filled to the full measure of the Holy Spirit as of yet, I have to assume that we still have a whole lot of spots and wrinkles that need to be ironed out of our souls. And it is still not clear who will be willing to undergo that process to its finale. So, in my opinion, I think we should be a little less casual in tossing that title around or assuming that we have some sort of automatic right to “bride ship”.

Not all of the virgins had oil (the Holy Spirit) in their lamps when the Bridegroom came. The old Queen of Heaven likes to try to steal and fit into the true Bride’s shoes as well as mother Mary’s! She can dress up like the Bride as well as the mother and if we are not careful she can also be empowered in that usurped position. Ultimately it is the presence of the fullness of the Holy Spirit that will reveal the true Bride and expose the false. We need to remember that the Bride is chosen by the Bridegroom and many are called but few are chosen. So until we hear from Jesus, Himself, we might want to be careful not to move to the head of the table and get too comfortable.

OF GODS AND GENERALS

And speaking of self-assumed “titles”: I am kind of amazed at the number of Christians in the Lord’s Army these days that outrank Jesus, Himself. Every time I turn around I hear about someone being “promoted” to the rank of “general” by some apostle or prophet. Even Jesus, is only CAPTAIN of the Host. How is it that we’re able to hold a higher position than HE does?

Generals are people who sit around on the hilltop smoking cigars and drinking whiskey, arguing among themselves over privilege and rank, and making up tall war stories to feed their egos and maintain their positions and cover their own butts. Meanwhile, the poor slug soldier is down in the valley getting his butt blown off, fighting and dying.

All this “general” stuff is just the same old Nicolatian B.S. that has been dividing the body of Christ by rank and position for generations. Whether it is dividing people into clergy and laity or generals and foot soldiers, it still is the same old stinking stuff. The ground at the Cross is flat. Our position is to be at HIS feet looking up to HIS leadership and shoulder-to-shoulder with each other.

For the record: If you get a “promotion” in the Lord’s Army it generally means that you will be sent to the front of the line which means the FRONT LINE where you will get shot at and probably killed. It’s the Holy Spirit that promotes men and women to the position of “suffering servant.” It is the Antichrist Spirit that promotes men and women to the position of “general.” Satan would love nothing better than to see the Lord’s Army FULL of “generals”.

THE CHICKEN OR THE EGG

And speaking of warfare…

Some spiritual warfare people tend to get caught up in “pagan symbolism” and do lots of research into their rites, rituals, festivals, etc. in order to expose spirits and get a strategy to fight the devil. That is well and good but it is only the beginning. My firm belief is not that the Church took Pagan holidays and rituals and “Christianized” them but rather that the Pagans took the original spiritual truth that came from the Lord and “paganized” it. So to throw out all myths, symbolism, etc. as being “Pagan” and not from the Lord goes too far. We have to keep digging to find what the TRUTH is behind it all because IN THE BEGINNING WAS THE WORD.

God was here first! The devil has no power of creation. He can only copy and counterfeit. We need to stop being so afraid of the devil and his “stuff” that we forget that EVERYTHING in the earth is the Lord’s and everything belonged to HIM first. I don’t want to give the devil ANYTHING. I want it ALL back. We need to stop being scared of Christmas trees and Easter eggs and take back the TRUTH that is the LORD’S that is in EVERYTHING.

Another thing that some “spiritual mappers” get lost with is that they tend to get too tied to geography.

In other words, they think that if they map an area that what will happen spiritually will also be tied to that specific geographical area. Much too limited. The earth is a SPIRITUAL MAP – a reflection of many SPIRITUAL dimensions and truths that are outside of time and space. And the spiritual is definitely NOT linear but rather is multifaceted, interconnected and “shalom.” Multi-layered. MULTI – MULTI – layered! We really need to learn to think “outside the box” and then think outside THAT box! “Territory” is much more than just physical territory.

The map doesn’t just reflect the “Dark Side” but the Lord’s side also. EVERYTHING has been counterfeited by the enemy so it is not enough to just look at what the map is showing us about the devil. The CRUCIAL part and the part that will bring about the greatest spiritual change is to also see what the LORD is trying to say about HIS purposes. Most spiritual mappers/warriors don’t keep going that far. They think that it is enough to tear down the enemy’s work and they stop there. They don’t realize that we must also establish the LORD’S work. There has to be RESTORATION as well of the original truth. This is what the earth is groaning for!

It is in prophesying the CREATIVE WORD after the enemy’s territory has been taken that we sow the seeds that will begin the rebuilding of the truth in the earth after the warfare. The creative Word must be spoken as well as the Word of destruction and judgment to the enemy. Too many warriors spend all their time telling the devil who HE is and not enough time speaking into existence who JESUS is.

ANGELS WITH ATTITUDE

We should also be careful to remember that we are not the ones who actually fight the war in the Spirit. We often NEED to fight the battle in our minds and souls first in order to obtain the authority with the Lord to go out on the larger battleground, but in the spiritual realm involving territorial spiritual warfare, it is the angels that do the fighting. What we may forget is that it is God’s divine order for angels to be our servants and they are waiting for OUR orders! This is a crucial part of spiritual warfare that is often forgotten. It is our job to release the angels to war and to maintain occupation of captured territory.

We should also be careful not to think that angels are obligated to cover our butts if we put ourselves in the middle of a gunfight we have no business in. They only obey the voice of the Lord so before we try to give them orders we better be sure that we’re speaking with the Lord’s authority. There are some out there who like to shoot their mouths off about what big guns they carry but every good gunfighter knows it’s better to walk softly and carry a great big angel with a bad attitude.

And with that bit of “wisdom” I will conclude this “housecleaning.” May God save us all!

Monday Nov 1

Bob Neumann

Four years ago I had a "vision" the night before the last election. But I did not write it down and pass it on as I was supposed to. Now I have another. These "day before" night visions are intense and I have waited till now to try and put it down. So all this took place before 0500 Monday morning.

I found myself in a large open area. It was paved, but it was not a street. Sort of like one of those places in DISNEY WORLD where "roads"/"paths" come together. There were hundreds of people alone, in couples, and in small groups. All moving along as if they all had someplace they were going to. Now I noticed that there were buildings around this area but that was about it. They were just there. It seemed like everyone, young and old had a destination in mind. Except me...

Then suddenly everything went black. Like someone threw the light switch. It had been bright and I had not even looked for the SUN so I have no clue of what time it was. Now I have had power outages over the years. So I did what I always do. I stopped where I was and waited for my "eyes" to adjust. All around me I "heard" the sounds of fear and panic. Screams, shouts, weeping as I could hear the people who were still trying to move around in the dark.

Just before it went black I had been passing a building to my left. The brief glance I had of it before everything went black was that I thought it was a brick wall. Now standing still I reached out with my left arm and did a slow quiet shuffle till I felt the cold wall and but my back against it. And then I just squatted down and slowly looked from side to side trying to "see" what I was hearing all around me.

Now I know I am getting older and my night vision and depth perception are not what they were, but I knew this was all taking place "IN THE VALLEY OF VISION". Whatever I was to learn from what was taking place was going to be in THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. So I watched and waited. After a "long" while I could perceive movement, but little else. Now I was listening to a lot of people stumbling, falling, and running into other people. I could hear scuffles breaking out as "people" ran into others. Wrestling/fighting in the DARK makes no sense. Especially when you could not tell "friend" from "foe". And as I thought that thought I hard an old and familiar VOICE say "ARE YOU PLANNING TO GO ANYWHERE SOON?" The only thing I could think of was "No, not really."

Someday I will have the perfect answer to one of HIS RHETORICAL QUESTIONS. Witty, humorous, and with exquisite timing. This just was not it. So I leaned back against the wall and sat down on the ground. A moment later I "felt" HIM sit down beside me. No sound at all in HIS MOVEMENT. AND WE SAT....

Now I could still hear people "moving" all around us. People crying, cursing, calling out for help. I did not hear any "praying"...

I turned my head and looked at my companion....and I wondered. Am I with MY CAPTAIN or am I with MY SHEPHERD. Is this THE LAMB THAT TREADS THE WINEPRESS, or is it THE BRIDEGROOM. With those thoughts HE TURNED HIS FACE to me and SMILED. Then I laughed.... I got THE JOKE....

And we both stood up and I followed just behind HIS LEFT SHOULDER....

Many who read this will wonder what any of it has to do with the election today. To those who ask, I regret no answer will help you at this point.

Psalm 27 Selah Bob Neumann

Matters Of Spirit And Soul

Dorothy Hedlund

Matters Of Spirit & Soul & 'New Creation Beings' –,

August 14, 2004

[The following was given directly as a word of the Lord following an experience I can only describe as 'a piercing.' Because 'piercings' deal with things of one's 'spirit' rather than soul, the Lord began an overview of the two. It's not comprehensive, but simply that which He wanted to convey that particular day.]

The spirit of the believer within…

[JESUS]: "Your spirit does not sin. Your spirit is that part of you, even now…pure within. Your spirit has 'no mind' of its own. It operates in conjunction, only, with the mind of Christ. Your spirit was created with the ability to secure itself to Me; we are 'jointly one' for eternity. Your spirit was also created with 'valves & connectors' to hook-up with others to form 'body parts.' Your spirit cannot exist apart from Myself and must come into intimacy in order to function effectively. Your spirit has 'eyes' and 'ears' and finely-tuned senses, all of which are magnified (as from the natural realm) many times over. Your spirit can fly and run and soar. Your spirit can walk on water, or swim into the depths of the sea. Your spirit recognizes My Word and revelation as that from the 'realm of FACT.' It has no need even for faith. Your spirit has throne-room access to the Father & beyond. Your spirit can enter into Him to further bond. Your spirit is not complex, as is your soul. Your spirit as child-like, is simple & free. Your spirit is the first part of you to approach and go through 'new doors.' Your spirit is always trusting, forgiving & gentle, yet bold & full of life. Your spirit received the first of My fillings as a bridegroom with His bride. Your spirit easily recognizes right from wrong and sees with clarity – things that still are chained, in bondage, and things that are truly free.

Functions of one's soul…

Your soul, however, is an entirely different part of you, which gives 'personality' to all you do. In speaking of your transformed soul, that even now I shape & make – your soul is that part of you that gazes into My face. Your soul holds your passions and intellect, your talents and your will… all of your emotions…and the 'love tank' I constantly fill. Your soul is that part of you that must be sanctified. Your soul is also that part of you – that must be crucified. Your soul is that part of you that experiences guilt, and doubt, and shame. The soul is that part of you that is often motivated by selfish gain. Your soul must also be 'connected,' due to need, directly to ME. Your soul is that part of you which desperately needs to receive. Once a soul begins to receive living waters, wine & bread directly from Me, as Lord, never again is it satisfied by what the world once offered it before. The soul of a man or woman is the 'battlefield' where time is spent – by Satan and his minions, causing 'harm' where 'good' was meant.

The soul can often be confused, tossed about as waves of the sea. The soul at times resists My will, but needs boundaries. The soul, presented with freedom, yet afraid of the unknown, often returns to its 'cell-mates' of law & tradition. Apart from one's spirit, the courage would never come, for one's soul to launch out & pursue, what in My will, must be done. The soul is responsive to My every touch, often transmitting information to the other parts of you. The soul IS complex, and yet such a delight, for from this place of 'thunder & lightning' come also 'fire-works' as we unite. Your soul is that part of you that I carry, and that part of you I place in the covenant bed/Sabboth rest. Your soul is also that part of you of 'spiritual produce' sweet…the milk & honey & nectar, too, which in giving I receive. Your soul, however, also tires and easily becomes fatigued. It can get 'self' into many a situation and a mess of things make. If left to its unredeemed ways, it dictates to spirit & body…the course IT wants to take."

[THE BODY] … He continued, "The body's physical functions are most closely aligned with the mind – a powerful part of the soul, that often takes control. But a body con-trolled by the Spirit and one's spirit-being, is equally free, to live as a 'new creation being' as it was meant to be. Full of light and glory, a vessel of honor & life – the body is the temple in which the Spirit/spirit resides. The body is a fragile thing and will obey 'whoever' is in charge, whether it be your spirit-being…or the soul-life, lower part.

Lover of Our Soul & His Dealings to Make Us Whole

"I divide soul & spirit asunder, by My sharp two-edged sword. Your spirit, then released, enters heaven's door, while that of your other (the soul), I 'shepherd' and care for. Your soul is entrusted into My hands, as Physician Friend, that 'surgeries' then begin (circumcision of the heart & cleansing of all parts). When this process has been successful…and your soul, 'the fruit of the Spirit' bears … then the time has come for 'the triune you' to be 'put back together again.

At this point your 'spirit' is placed 'in charge,' and your soul readily takes 'its place' … the body, too, more disciplined, submits to spiritual ways. This, then, is 'a new creation being,' walking in obedience to God…IN the world, but NOT OF IT, governed by higher Kingdom principles of freedom, not 'above'… but BEYOND 'the law.'

'New Creation Beings'

That which 'rules' this NEW CREATION BEING, [every part: spirit/soul/body, too] are the same 'Kingdom principles' as for those who live above: servanthood & sharing things of Word & life…always considering others 'first'…walking as children of Light – Eternal worship & thanksgiving to our Father, the Ancient of Days…standing strong in one accord…united in every way – Growing in things of Wisdom & Understanding & in the Counsel of the Lord…entrusted with Might & Power & Knowledge in order to serve

Him more – ever abandoned to His will, living in the Fear of the Lord. In this place of daily living as 'new creation men & women' (though as yet vessels of clay), they can boldly, courageously 'stand in the gap,' ushering 'heaven to earth' in their day. Their spirits are His. Their souls are His (their minds/wills/emotions/and dreams). Their bodies are His to use as He deems best, to walk in the authority of the redeemed. Their thoughts are His. Their wills are His. Praise and worship is 'the norm' for their day. By fear of the Lord, they instantly resist 'the flood of filth' sweeping the earth, even as it comes their way. They run into their Fortress/Tower, then become 'shelters' of refuge themselves – oaks of righteousness in the land, encouraging the weary and weak. All that they are – and all they possess – is offered wholly to God's use. Obeying His Word as soon as it's heard, they strategically 'storm hells gates' and prisoners loose.

Though not yet 'perfected' as spirits above, their souls 'lean hard on their Lord', in weakness partaking of My strength, to overcome once more. THEIRS is THE BLOOD & TESTIMONY that overcomes the world. Connected to the Lamb and 'one with Him' – they carry 'My standards' unfurled. They march into battle with angelic troops at their side – while emanating from their beings, 'new creation' light. Personal identity is gone. They call themselves "we" – "we" who serve our God, no longer is left "a me."

The restoration of an army of 'new creation beings' …

Jesus continued, "Only a small number of ones such as these, at one time, have ever walked the earth. But those who do now, are about to loose into this realm 'new creation seeds' that will help 'an army' mature. These 'new creation men & women' will first teach others 'HOW TO DIE.' And then they will mentor them, partnered with the Spirit, to help BRING THEM BACK 'ALIVE.'

Many hidden ones/mentors will in sudden brilliance arise as 'torches of great light' – showing the Church the difference between mediocrity and true life. These torchbearers will also carry great authority…beyond the 'apostolic label' of man. These are those entrusted with might, because ONLY JOINED TO ME THROUGH INTIMACY, are they capable even to stand. Many will be women/children/and young adults…but also a great number of men, who topple 'the systems' of Satan & man, at the Lord's command.

How soon will this occur? It has already begun…there's just a generation to go, before I make ALL THINGS new. Even now these 'new creation beings' are being released, coming out of 'furnaces' that were their tomb. Clothed in humility, they'll not be seen – until they grow into an understanding of 'who they are.' Then at the right time, they'll be given command to 'shine' … drawing multitudes in My Church to the Light. They'll

SHOW THEM THEIR GRAVES, PREPARED IN ADVANCE – that a 'crucified army' might come alive.

This process of restoration begins in the spirit, then continues on into the soul & body, too. First, I 'take you apart' to perfect every part – then put you back together again. Yes, it sounds simple, but it requires many years…the purging of fire…death to self…and desperate tears. Those most desperate advance more quickly than those who drag their feet, satisfied with 'who they are.' My greatness, in them, they'll never receive.

Fall Sessions Begin…Don't Skip Class

KNOW WHO YOU ARE – AND WHO YOU ARE NOT. Attend each 'class' I present. In the fall of the year, new sessions begin, in My 'schools & universities' again. Those who advance will be those who 'passed tests,' individualized for each one. It will do no good trying to get answers 'in advance' from someone in your class. Your questions are different, but the outcome the same: only the 'dead to self' make the grade. So if you think you're going to school to 'up your chances' for promotion… think again, this will not be the case. For with such ones of strategy, We begin first with 'select demotions.' There is not time for chatter & talk, flippant attitude nor walk…in My classrooms of this day. If you miss what I say, regarding matters of faith…you'll end up 'off course' and going out of your way.

I WANT you to succeed, and you WILL overcome – as daily you come to Me. I will tutor YOUR SOUL and MAKE YOU WHOLE, to make you a 'new creation being' that's free.

More Victories To Come

Barbara Lynch

(joshua2000@delaware.net)

This has been one of the toughest battles My church had to go through, but the victory is now on the horizon, even at your own back door. Church arise, for the Son has come for His bride. You have been purged! You have been purified! You have been placed through the furnace of affliction over and over again, until you have been tried like pure shining gold.

Now you are ready for the harvest that is coming into your churches. You are ready to meet the enemy face to face, without flinching and defeat him at every turn. Arise and shine for the light has come upon the very face of the earth. Much rejoicing will be heard in the camps of My true disciples. Much jubilation! Much laughter and much joy! Oh how the saints will rejoice, saith the Father. For they will now know that the Father has spoken and the Father has been with them in all the storms that life threw their way.

Yes, the battle did rage and the weapons of warfare they were hurled at My true saints, but they came forth victorious. A little battle weary. Many scars from mortal combat, but they emerged victorious. The battle cry of victory will resound from mountain top to mountain top and all will know that a Mighty God did surely fight their battles for them.

Many more victories to come church, many more victories to come. No longer will the slaughter be in My camp, for now it is time for the slaughter to begin in the enemy's camp. And slaughter the enemy you shall, for your faith has truly been tested and tried. Your weapons of warfare have been sharpened and fine-tuned and you know how to wield the weapons and defeat your foe at every turn. Just as David used his slingshot and brought down the dreaded giant, My church has arisen out of the ash heap of war and are ready to go forth as David and defeat the enemy on all sides. How the enemy will tremble. How the winds will howl. For the truth of My Word will bring My saints many victories in the ensuing days ahead.

Test the spirits little ones. Do not allow the enemy to deceive you ever again. Your spirits have been fine tuned to know My voice and My ways, and the deception that has invaded My houses will dissipate as you go forth under the victory flag.

Tomorrow arises with new triumphs. Go forth mighty warriors, go forth and conquer the land that I have given you. For the battle is not yours, saith the Lord, but it is mine. And I am for you and I will fight for you as I did Joshua as he marched around Jericho.

Midst of Week Follow-Up
Dave Prichard

To all who have read "Midst of the Week":

The LORD has really been encouraging me, through some other saints, concerning the overall calendar of 86 Biblical months that I presented in my essays of April 23rd and May 2nd (rev 2). As I stated, I am not a prophet, but merely a student of Biblical PATTERNS and a reader of SIGNS.

But I have been CORRECTED (by the Holy Spirit, and the witness of a 'word' that the LORD gave to another believer) on ONE WRONG ASSUMPTION that I made about the beginning of the 42 months when the "nations" shall tread down Jerusalem. Specifically, my original proposal was ONE MONTH EARLY, because I did not consider the month of Tishri in 2007 as the 42nd month. (Instead, I wrongly assumed the 42 months ended as Tishri began.)

The Hebrew word that we translate as "month" in English is REALLY "moon", and once the NEW MOON Trumpet Call of Tishri 1, 2007 announces the war against those who had trodden down Jerusalem, THEN the 42nd "moon" has come. Think of it like this: a conference is called from Friday at 7 pm to Sunday at 4 pm. On Sunday morning, you greet the crowd, saying, "Welcome to this third day of our conference." And when it’s all over, you met for less than 48 hours, yet many would say it was a 3-day conference. This concept applies all the more when counting "moons", and that is what the Hebrew prophet Daniel was doing when he prophesied "forty-two moons".

This does NOT CHANGE the time of the altar going up (by July), and being consecrated for seven days, and the morning and evening sacrifices beginning. And the "daily sacrifice" will still be stopped by the 9th day of the Hebrew month of Av (mid-July). The counting of "1150 days" (2300 evenings and mornings") is very easy (plus or minus a day) and the time period from Av in 2004 to Tishri in 2007 yields this day-count according to the Biblical and historical pattern that God gave us for a sign.

I want to share an excerpt from a journal entry by Mary Clark of Marianna, FL, on April 29, 2004. It was posted by the "Seven Thunders" prophetic group that can be accessed on InJesus.com. I believe that she has heard from the Spirit of God. I take this word from the LORD to indicate that the accelerated terror war I see coming to Israel is only a PART of a WORLDWIDE war that is about to be unleashed everywhere that mass hatred is brewing. (The CAPS are mine):

"‘Something of catastrophic proportions is about to take place in the world, and when it does, I do not want My beloved staring off into space, wondering about this thing. I want you looking to Me ‘ looking to Me to rectify anything that comes your way. This is My plan, beloved. Let it be yours.

"MANY PEOPLE on the FACE OF THE EARTH are going to be distraught beyond words. They are going to be WRINGING THEIR HANDS IN ANGUISH. But you, My beloved, I want you focused on Me. I want you conversing with Me. I want you to maintain a constant line of communication with Me. That is an order, beloved. That is an order from your Lord and Master. KEEP THE LINES OF COMMUNICATION WITH ME OPEN. That is an order!...

"‘ Something is about to happen. It is a good thing that it happens. Remember those words ‘ it is a GOOD thing. It will set off a season of events that will establish My beloved in a place of great wonder.

It is a GOOD thing, beloved. Remember these words ‘ accept these words as truth no matter what you see and no matter what the enemy tries to speak to you’." [END of excerpt.]

Another woman, in a private e-mail to a friend (so I won’t include her name) also has a "piece" of the puzzle. The LORD had already spoken to her on April 19th about something coming in June, weeks before she read my essay:

"I felt the Lord spoke something to me yesterday about a change coming in June... part of what I was seeing is a terrible and terribly important war going on in the Heavenlies. He showed it to me in His word and said that this is happening now. It is what I have been so intently praying about in spirit-felt intercessions. That very word said that that particular battle would last 3 and 1/2 years. My first impression that came to me when I was reading that (I felt the Lord told me to go to that passage and read it, as it was what He was doing right now), was that that time period may end in June. The word says in that place that Michael and his angels would have victory and Satan would be cast out of "Heaven" (those "high places" spoken of in Ephesians)."

There are MANY more believers that are receiving "pieces of the puzzle" in their prayer & study time with the LORD. And SO MANY of them are perceiving the time we are in, just without a structured "calendar of events". As far as I am concerned, those who have an "open line of communication" with God have something FAR MORE VALUABLE than the mere skeleton calendar that I am working on. This calendar is meant to be information to those who sense the time we’re in, and a wake-up call for those who don’t. But it is no substitute for the personal relationship with God that only comes through devotional time spent learning to quiet down and hear His Voice.

Finally, these are not just the "end times", they are the days of the "restoration of all things!" Hallelujah!

So in all the drastic change that’s coming, we need to REJOICE in our Salvation and be ENCOURAGED in our Faith. Because God has promised to POUR OUT HIS SPIRIT on the faithful remnant at this time! And those of us who have watched others being fruitful and felt like our own season of fruitfulness was constantly being deferred ‘ NOW is the time when God is about to raise us up, if we are WILLING to answer the "high call of God". Many of us that He has kept constrained and under discipline until this last season are going to be VERY HAPPY that He kept us on such a "short leash" for so long ‘ for it was for our own good! And EVEN NOW we need to allow Him to raise us up ON HIS OWN TIME SCHEDULE, because too many are going to be taken out through one device or another before the seven years is over. But He has determined that a remnant will remain to fight and intercede, until the Day of His Return. Therefore let us not rush to the battle front at ANY TIME until we are directed to do so. A five-hour, five-minute, or even five-second pause, when the Holy Spirit is saying, "WAIT!", can make the difference between life and death in the days ahead.

Most Powerful Force
Ron McGatlin

Mat 22:37-40 Jesus said to him, " You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

The power of evil is an obvious force in the world. A force that can drive mankind from the order of God into the chaos of disorder. Many people throughout history have noted the power of evil and erroneously believed it to be the most powerful force. Some, such as Hitler of Nazi Germany, have attempted to rule all the world with the power of evil. Evil is not the most powerful force and all who pursue it will eventually fail.

The most powerful force in all creation is the love of God. No other force has the power to order the world. It is through the love of God in the heart of man that evil and any other powerful force can be overcome and brought into the order of God's glorious holiness.

Rom 12:21: Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

1 John 4:4,7: You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

God's people are to rule and reign with Him in this life through faith that works by love (Rev 5:10) (Rev 1:6) (Gal 5:6). The ordering of the world to the ways of God comes by what mankind has in his heart. God's love in the heart of man produces purity, holiness, and the order of God. The lack of love in the heart of man produces impurity, evil, and disorder in the world. The order of God that comes through Christ in man is overcoming the world.

1 John 5:4-5: For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world; our faith. Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

Love is the most powerful force in the world and is able to wash away evil, purify and make holy. Knowing and experiencing the intense passionate love of God causes us to be changed from a self centered heart to a heart of love giving of ourselves to the One who loves us so intensely and to the ones whom He so loves.

The love of God flowing by the Holy Spirit is forming the character and nature of Christ in His Bride - his earthly Body. The hope of the glory of God covering the earth is "Christ in you" the "called out ones", the "ekklesia", the true church. (Col 1:27)

"but truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD; Num 14:21

And blessed be His glorious name forever! And let the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen and Amen. Psa 72:19

Pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

For major articles by Ron McGatlin and others, Go Here: http://www.baspub.com/news/

The Most Important

Ron McGatlin

As we consider going about our daily lives a number of priorities present themselves before us. Options of things we feel we must do and things that we hope to do. If you are like me there are usually more potentials that present themselves to you than can possibly be fit into the day. We may feel pressure from the many important things before us to be done. Why does it seem that we are so overburdened with things to do? What is really the most important? What would it look like if we were lifted up into the heavens above the earth and looked down upon our day from God's perspective? What is really the most important thing?

In the western world, social status, creature comfort and pleasure seeking drive us much more than most recognize. We must strive at earning money to provide two cars and a two car garage to put them in attached to our three bedroom house filled with beautiful furniture just to meet the minimum of social status and comfort.

We must see to our children's needs for the just right cloths to maintain social respect in the educational systems they must compete in to be able to someday get good jobs and get their own stuff. Pleasure demands a big screen TV and participation in many type games and social events including expensive tickets and travel expense for the big games. On and on the list of must haves drives our priority list of things to do higher and higher.

Those who are of a religious mind will also seek to add time for prayer, Bible reading and church participation to the ever growing list. School and extra curricular activities for the kids then drives the list out of sight. Lives come apart as the scattered family suffers much pressure and feelings of guilt because they cannot carry the load and measure up to the requirements of the task master driving them.

Who is this subversive hidden task master driving our lives? Think about it. Is it really possible to be as the Word says in 1 Tim 6:8, "And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content." Why are many drowning in a sea of jobs, work, schedules of stuff to do? Why are so many so starved for pleasure that they can never get enough adult play and entrainment? Who or what is this task master drowning people with strong desires for more?

It is the lust of the flesh the lust of the eyes and the pride of life. Lust and pride are destroying the strongest nation on earth. The nation set by God to carry the gospel of the kingdom to the world is drowning in lust for more.

1 Tim 6:9: But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition

1 John 2:16: For all that is in the world; the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life; is not of the Father but is of the world. .

The richest nation on earth is starving for love. The knowledge and experience of God has been stolen from our people as secularism, humanism and other ungodly mind sets have pushed God from the minds of our people. People are left with a great vacuum of emptiness within that must be filled with exciting things that shine like God but are false gods of entertainment, sports, lofty thoughts, beautiful things, wealth and all it can buy, prestige and honor among men - things of lust and pride. All because the love of God is not filling the people.

Today empty lives are filled with lust and pride and all the stress of activities they give birth to. Many are now turning to the reality of intimate relationship with the love of Father through the cross of Jesus. The Holy Spirit is overcoming lives with the reality of the presence of the intense passionate real love of the Father. The driven need for more is washed away by the fulfillment of the love of God pouring in and through our lives.

The real priority is not even about doing. It is about being - being a son in the presence of the love of the Father.

Pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

My Sheep Hear My Voice
George Acason

My sheep hear my voice. (A warning to the churches)
27-04-04.

For many years now the Lord has been knocking on the doors of the church to let him in but they have been shut to him. He is now calling his people out ,those who have ears to hear. To come out of mystery Babylon, The religious system with out God or power. A form of godliness .denying the power of God. The Holy Spirit, The Spirit of truth given to all that believe by the laying on of hands. To teach us and to guide us into all truth. Lovers of this world more than lovers of God, pleasure seekers. Sports, drama, entertainment, concerts. Covetous people, Merchandising the Holy things of God for profit. Selling their understanding of scripture for financial gain.(Books, tapes and videos.) Using TV. and radio and the internet for merchandising the things of God for finical gain. Placing copyrights on what God has given us freely. Deceiving many by their false doctrines. Preaching another gospel, another salvation message. another Jesus. Worshippers of idols and men. Followers of man and not followers of the Lord Jesus.

Ezekiel.22. Vers.23-29.
23. And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
24. Son of man, say unto her, thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.
25. There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.
26. Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.
27. Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.
28. And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.
29. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.
Leaning to their own understanding of scripture, and not by the Spirit of truth. They will rather believe a lie than believe the truth that they may be converted, so God will send them a great delusion (the counterfeit) There is a counterfeit anointing operating in the church today. And there are demons in the church and witchcraft .False prophets, teachers, pastors, Apostles and evangelists. For proof of deception and confusion in the church ,just look at the many denominations and confusion in the church to day, and God is not a God of confusion. It is the devil that is bringing confusion in the church today. The leadership are without fear of God or his word or His name, controlling the people of God. To day god is calling his people out. Those who have ears to hear, and through His true prophets. Heed the warnings of his true Prophets. The Lord is gathering His true sheep unto Himself. His little flock.
Jesus spoke of these things to come in the last days.:

Matthew 13. Ver.31-33.
31. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32. Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air (Deamons)come and lodge in the branches thereof.
33. Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. (False doctrine.)

This is mystery Babylon ,The harlot and her daughters.

For many thousands are beginning to hear his voice and come out. The Lord is calling them to him self. To Zion, The mountain of God. This is the true church. The church that the Lord is building and not man. The true sheep. The woman in Reverlation 12, and out of her shall be berthed the man child.(The sons of God.)These are the 144,000 First fruits to God and to the lamb..

John.10. Ver.14.= I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.
John.10. Ver.27-28.= My sheep hear my voice, and I know them and they follow me. And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. These are the generation that seek his face.(See Psalm 24.)

Ezekiel.34.Vers.2+3.
Son of man, prophecy against the shepherds of Israel, prophecy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be unto the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock.
Ver.6.
My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill:
(Every denomination) Yea, my flock was scattered upon the face of the earth, and non did search or seek after them.
Ver.11+12.
For thus saith the Lord God; Behold I ,.even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scatted; so will I seek out my sheep, and deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

These are the true Christians ,(the woman)and they are hearing his voice and are coming out of the religious system. They are been persecuted by satan and rejected by the religious system, because they will not conform to their denomination beliefs and traditions and coverings of man. They will turn many to rightness, cast out devils and heal the sick and set captives free. There will be no more church buildings for them for the ministry will be out in the streets, market places and homes. Jesus alone will be their shepherd and covering. Persecution on the woman (the true church) is about to increase and many will be martyred. When the full amount of martyrs has come in as in Rev.6.Ver.11.= And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. Then the woman will flee into the wilderness where she shall be protected. When the sons of God are revealed they shall prepare the woman for the days that lie ahead. They will impart the life and light of Christ into those that believe, for it is Christ and the Father that is in them who will do the work.(See John 17. Ver.21 26.)Please seek the Lord for your self For your salvation is between you and God. Jesus is waiting for you to come to him .He desires your fellowship., and he will reveal the truth to you as you seek him. The lord will reveal truth to you in his time. So don't be discouraged if you don't hear from him immediately. For he is still doing a work in you. Seek Him now while he still can be found. Are you of this generation that are seeking the Lord.(See Psalms.24.) The work he has begun in you he will finish it. For he is the author and the finisher of our faith. Be patient as others are going through testings, just as you are. Listen to what God is saying to others concerning the sons of God and his coming kingdom. Continue to seek his face Do not give up. God is preparing us for the evil day, which is about to explode in the earth. That you would be strengthened by his spirit of might in the inner man, to stand strong in the Lord and in the power of his might. Heed the voice of the true Prophets, for the door is about to be closed .The church age is at and end. We are about to enter the kingdom age.

Matt. 7 Ver.20-23.
20. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.
21. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
22. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
23. And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
For by much tribulation must you enter into the kingdom of God.
Which kingdom will you be in.God bless you and be with you all.

Proverbs.Chap.1. Verses.20-33.
Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets: She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates :in the city she uttereth her words saying, How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge? Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, and make known my words to you. Because I have called, and you have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my councel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; When your fear cometh as desolation, and you destruction cometh as a whirlwind, when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early but they shall not find me: For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord: They would none of my council: they despised all of my reproof .Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own ways, and be filled with their devices. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.
Do not be foolish ,but be wise, and redeem the day, for the day is evil, and understanding what the will of the father is. Be aware and awake. Seek the Lord for the truth, and the present day truth and walk in it.
Please feel free to share with others.
In his love.
George Acason. Email Addr:= henry2@dodo.com.au

Molting Season Is Over

Gloria Reid

The Molting Season Is Over---My Eagles Will Soar Once Again In 2004!

Hear now the Word of the Lord all who have ears to hear. For thus says the Lord, I have sounded a clarion call, a clear and distinct sound of my trumpet is blowing throughout the nations of the earth. Incline thine ears for the season of silence has ended for many of my Warrior Eagles. The silence and the stillness is over, the time is past when for a span of time my own were hidden away in caves, upon high mountain crags and even to some afar off, upon hot desert floors. Note these all typify tests, trials and afflictions. This day I do thus declare, those times are past. I now summon my Prophetic Warriors as Eagles renewed to come forth as my voice from the places I had hidden them in for a moment. For though the enemy perceived it not, it was I alone who caused the voices to fall silent, I called for a Holy hush as it were for a season that I might transform-make new again vessels of my own choosing. In the hiding places--I spoke words of life for this season, I breathed new winds (Ruach) into those the adversary presumptuously mistook for dead. I even clothed with new garments and fashioned and equipped these with weapons of war out of my own arsenal, and they shall be quivers and arrows in my hand, instruments of my choosing for my plans and purposes. For many the silence is past and I will once more call forth those to herald my voice to the nations, the bitterness tasted in the hidden places has been mixed with pure honey which flowed from the Rock, the mouths of my chosen have tasted both the bitter and the sweet and it was nourishment and strength to them, in greater measure they now know the infilling of my resurrection power, it's life renewing, life giving properties. These know they have experienced the flow of fresh anointing from my own hands into their bruised, battered and beaten spirits--the many woundings (marks) of a true warrior. This too shall be for an eternal witness of healing unto their own lives and then outward to the nations. The molting season is over, and I have filled the horns of my servants, my mouthpieces to the nations with sufficient oils that you may be carriers of the anointing to my people. My renewed eagles will come forth with my healing in their wings to the lost and dying, I am calling forth visionaries to the nations, I am propelling them to CATAPULT into this new year of 2004. Know my precious sons and daughters, your molting season is over--arise and soar in 2004--allow my voice to ROAR! You will no longer be seen as the fledgling ones (weak, ineffective, cast off ones) --he who has ears to hear, must and will speak again to the nations.

NOTE: Molting: To exchange, to cast off or shed the exoskeleton, hair, outer skin, horns, or features at certain intervals, prior to replacement of the castoff parts by a new growth: e.g...the Eagle

Scripture Ref: Isaiah 40:31

Word through Gloria Reid reid7rg@email.msn.com

Measure The Building
Stephen Hanson

Measure The Building For Its Correctness
April 10, 2004

EZE 40:5 I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man's hand was six long cubits, each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall; it was one measuring rod thick and one rod high.

AM 3:7 Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.

"I am going to raise up a new breed of minister in this hour. I am bringing my prophets to a new level of understanding. I am showing them more and more things about future events. What is it that I would speak about or share with you? I would speak of governments and policies. I would speak of the delusions that have blinded many people in this hour. I would speak of the sins that have risen to a high degree of immorality. I would speak of wars and rumors of wars. I would speak of churches that have left the spirit out of their assemblies. "

"I tell you that a new breed of message is coming forth. No longer will it be bathed in mediocrity. "

(The Lord showed me a man who held a stick in his hand. It was cut and shaped like a piece of wood that has been used in a building. He then took it and broke it in half. He then lifted this piece of wood and began to align it on top of a section of wall. The stick was not to be used, because it would not "fit" the shape of the wall. He then was given a new piece of wood which was a measuring rod. This was then being used to measure the sides of building that he was inspecting.)

"I am giving you a measuring rod to determine the correctness of the building.. With it you will determine where those in the building have gone astray. No one is to measure themselves with one another, but only from Me. "

"Guard the buildings, and I will reveal more to you, my prophets."

Stephen Hanson

What Is A False Prophet And What Is Not
Stephen Hanson

April 11, 2004

I wanted to say a few things about what constitutes a false prophet. There seems to be some misinformation and possibly some "false teaching" going around concerning what is and what is not, a false prophet today. I say this, partly because I hear folks from time to time, say "if it doesn't come to pass then surely this person is a false prophet." Interesting statement, but is it necessarily true? I want to share a few sections of scripture here and maybe together we will arrive at what is true concerning these things.

Below are some identifications of some things that might help us arrive at what is false:

Characteristics of False Prophets

I Thess.5:21
Mat. 7:15

MT 7:15 "Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. [16] By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? [17] Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. [18] A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. [19] Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. [20] Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

1. Those who speak in the name of "other Gods"
2. Those who speak falsely in Jehovah's name
3. The word is false
4. The word does not line-up with the word of God
5. Does not receive Godly instruction
6. Totally unteachable
7. Draws attention totally to himself and not to God

*It seems clear here that one of the main considerations when judging whether someone is true or false, is their character. When Jesus talked about good and bad fruit above, He didn't declare or mention, about whether or not a prophecy or a word from this person came to pass or not.

We also have an example from 2Peter:

2PE 2:1 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them--bringing swift destruction on themselves. [2] Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute. [3] In their greed these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.

True words and False Words

Below are some examples of individuals who gave true and false words. Examine these and see that some of these "prophets" were evidently "true," but the word that they gave was not true. Again does that make them a true or a false prophet?

1. True prophet that brings a true word--II Chron. 12:5
2. True prophet that brings a false word--I Kings 13
3. False prophet that brings a true word--Josh 13:22
4. False prophet that brings a false word--Numb. 23:5-10, 22:7, 24:1

Finally, let it be known and let it be clear, that I am not saying that it is not important for a prophet to not consider the importance of their words from God. I believe that we must be careful and accountable to others when we declare that something is going to happen at such and such a time, and that this is going to happen. "If" it doesn't come to pass, then we are held accountable about the message. That is a heavy responsibility and one that carries with it a heavy burden as well. However, when someone makes a mistake that doesn't mean that that individual is "false." The message, or part of it, at least, didn't come to pass in the manner in which it was spoken. The person hearing the message from God either mixed part of their own understanding, or they just didn't hear it correctly. That doesn't brand them as "false," but their message as "not true." We need to separate the person from the message.

I hope that this message or teaching, proves to be of benefit and that we can come to maturity in our understanding concerning what is false and what is not.

Stephen Hanson

Making Void
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

In last week's letter we shared some of our travel experiences. This week I would like elaborate somewhat on the main topic that Abba had laid on our hearts in the course of the travels.

About two months before the trip the burden of the disunity, division, strife and contention in the Two House movement became heavier, and especially so after someone who had been on my mailing list for a long time requested to be removed for no other reason than our participation at the MIA conference. That this would be cause for breaking fellowship, even though it is only via e-mail, grieved me deeply. That sad (but only too typical) occurrence set the stage for the main message that the Spirit was impressing upon me.

In the last letter that I sent before we left (# 239) I had already shared about the topic at hand. This time, however, I would like to approach this issue from a different angle. In Paul's (Shaul's) writing to one of the Corinthian assemblies he addressed some issues which revolved around similar problems:

"Now I exhort [plead with] you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Cor. 1:10).

The reason for the rise of these difficulties was that the believers were not following their King, Master and Lord - Yeshua; they wanted to follow and be identified with some individual (rabbi, pastor, teacher). Similarly, today individuals identify themselves with movements, organizations or certain figures more than they do with Yeshua. Shaul points out that this engenders strife, contention and division, which renders the cross or the sacrifice of Yeshua void or of none effect. Obviously a very serious matter indeed!

"For Messiah did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with wisdom of words, lest the cross [sacrifice] of Messiah should be made of no effect. For the message of the cross [Messiah's death] is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of YHVH" (1 Cor. 1:17-18).

What was the apostle pointing to when referring to making the cross void? What did the Father accomplish through His Son's death? Yes, He was reconciling the world unto Himself. But what was the apostle really referring to when he made the statement regarding the strife and division in the assembly? Shaul called his addressees, babies, unregenerate men, carnal and fleshly. For Shaul to write in such a manner is an indication that the recipients of his letter were making void the execution stake of Messiah. How could they be fleshly or carnal when according to the good news they (that is, the fleshly carnal man) have "died"?

"For the love of Messiah compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died; and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again. Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Messiah according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new" (2 Cor. 5:14-17).

Here we have the gospel in a nutshell but the question is: do we believe that this is true, not only for ourselves but of all humanity too? This is a very radical gospel, but it is the wisdom and power of YHVH (if we believe it), and it is therefore not surprising at all that man would consider it foolishness (1 Cor. 2:14). Yet, we who believe are to embrace this truth and no longer view any man after the flesh.

We are to consider every man "DEAD"! How then are we to be looking at our lives? "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from YHVH, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by YHVH. These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Spirit of Holiness teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of YHVH, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one" (1 Cor. 2:12-15).

We have had our eyes open to spiritual realities, and therefore this is how we are to view (judge) life. Shaul says that we are either slaves, or servants, of the spiritual kingdoms of this world (sin and death which is the nature of the tree of knowledge of good and evil), or we are vessels and servants of YHVH's kingdom, whose nature is righteousness, peace and joy.

By experience we know that we all are carting a "mixed bag", and that the power of sin can still work in and through our members. However, we should also be aware of the fact that we who have died and were buried are now alive in Him who was raised from the dead, as He is now our life. "Thus we know Him [and ourselves] no longer after the flesh. For you died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in YHVH; When Messiah who is our life appears [or is unveiled to us through revelation knowledge], then you also will appear [will know who you are] with Him in glory" (Col. 3:3,4). Yeshua is the "new creation man"; He is the "One New Man" and we are members of that one corporate body. We are the body of Messiah here on earth and His Spirit life is becoming one with our soul as the latter recognizes that it must partake of His divine nature, which we have been freely given by the obedience of faith. Thus we move from faith to faith and glory to glory (ref 2 Cor 3:18) Our spirit life is hidden in His and, as another apostle wrote, "His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust" (2 Pet. 1:3-4).

Now to return to the point that the apostle was making about strife, contention and division in the assembly, and about those who are so engaged. From the above scriptures we can see how serious these matters are, and therefore we must take the responsibility to repent if we have participated with any unclean spirits. If we make void the sacrifice of YHVH's Passover Lamb, all of the subsequent feasts of YHVH are also made of none effect, especially Yom Kippur (the day of atonement).

May I end this letter by a quote from a bondservant and an apostle?

"To those who have obtained like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God [and Father] through our Savior Messiah Yeshua: Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of YHVH and of Yeshua our Lord [Master, King, Shepherd, Redeemer, and LIFE]" (2 Pet. 1:2-3).

Shabbat Shalom

Ephraim

My Warnings My Glory

Olivia Long

faithbuildersministries@yahoo.com
September 25, 2004
"A man who remains stiff-necked after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed, without remedy." Proverbs 29:1

"For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil." Ecc 12:14

"In the time of My favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you. I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, NOW is the day of salvation." 2 Cor 6:1-3

I have been speaking through My prophets to many of My own who have taken their salvation for granted. You are bold in faith but it has not been to bring glory to Me but to bring glory to yourself. Living for the sake of appearances, all the while saying that you are "walking My walk" but your actions speak louder than your words. Many are twisting the word for your own destruction accepting what you do or do not want, twisting it for your own selfish desires.

I have given a final call, a final choice of "choose ye this day whom you will serve!!" There is no longer any time for a compromising walk amongst My own. You must choose and it must be immediately. There can be NO compromise in a walk with Me, NONE. You must serve Me in Spirit and in Truth, there is no room for operating in the flesh. Choose now while you still have the opportunity to do so....heed this final warning, this final call. As with everything final comes either wanted or unwanted consequences, you alone make the decision.

I have given you ample warning through My prophets to make a turnaround and get back on track but sadly for many of you your heart remains hard for you did not listen to My warnings with your spirit but with your soul. You continue to be unwilling to receive reproof for your walk - now the warnings are over and My prophets will be instructed to say no more!

For My Faithful Ones who continue to be humble seeking no name or honor for themselves, focusing only on Me, you are going BEYOND what has been familiar to you. BEYOND your expectations. BEYOND your comprehensions. BEYOND what you have even tried to figure out.

You are going BEYOND those things for I have called for a vessel that has been broken & cleansed. A vessel that has been willing to speak My words, even those of reproof as well as blessing. This has not been easy for you as you have suffered rejection and ridicule for obeying My instructions. But all works for your good as I have been taking you and others on a journey unto Myself, NOW you shall step into your destiny.

It is with much love that I your God speak to you this day. I say to you, O weary soul, ARISE! ARISE! and take your rightful place in My plan. I AM placing you in a strategic place and it is time to take that place. BEHOLD, I AM with you. BEHOLD, My hand is upon you. BEHOLD, I AM undergirding you with My right arm. You have waited and waited, through much pain and suffering, tests and trials ... NOW hear Me say "IT IS TIME!"

My Blood and My Name is setting the captives free. FREE from all that has oppressed you and held you back. The anointing is breaking the yokes. I have chosen you and called you and have placed upon you the anointing and given you authority to use the NAME above all names to set the captives free. Your life has prepared you for such a time as this NOW I AM sending you forth with a commission and a mission to those who are in bondage that they may be free.

You have been faithful even under the most severest of tests and there have been many. You have seen even those closest to you persecute and reject you. You have tarried and you have waited for the promise that I have given you but still even in this you have reached out in your time of waiting. You have been faithful and you have sought Me. Now is the time for your hopes and desires to be fulfilled as you go forth in My behalf.

You have heard My voice, you have answered My call. NOW I will make the ways clear and will send you forth as I have promised. Nothing, I say NOTHING shall stand in your way again! You will share experiences that only you can share and you will teach and share the awesomeness of your God and you WILL see the Glory of the Lord!

I am bringing to an end the most difficult of times that you have ever been in... Beloved, KNOW that this time has given you wisdom and understanding of ME and Who I AM. I have filled your mouth and heart with wealth and you have much to offer You will touch the masses with your words. GET READY FOR A SUDDENLY! As Barabbas, a sinner had a suddenly and was set free, how much more will My Faithful Ones have their Suddenly and be set free! You will see all obstacles that are hindering you suddenly be removed from your life for it is time to go forth. Keep your eyes fixed solely on ME and be ready, for in a moment, SUDDENLY.... all will come to pass!!!

Move With My Spirit

Sandy Brunson

Jun 09, 2004
Prophetic Word given to Sandy Brunson

"I would have you rested before Me. Do not be so geared up that you do not take time for your rest at My feet. This is the place where the wounds from the past and the present are healed and closed over. It is also the place where you are to receive your instructions for life in the present and for the future. Wait upon Me. Do not be so anxious to get at a task again. Rest in My Presence.

"The spirit is a special part of a person. It needs periods of re-charging and replenishing as does the body. As a result of being in My presence, you may begin anew, stronger than before, My child... more determined than ever to love Me and shine for Me...more committed to do My will.

"The real warfare lies ahead in these last days. My children must be armed and ready, but the King allows His troops to rest before they march. You have been in the heat of the fire. I have tested you, and you have remained loyal to Me. The lessons learned during such times become a part of you, never to be lost...a part of spiritual maturity.

"Remember to stay close to Me in My word and in prayer. Explore there. Dig in. Use the time to read and become thoroughly familiar with Me. Be educated in My Word. Learn to be one controlled by My Spirit, one guided, directed, and motivated by a higher calling than nature's instinct.

"Move with My Spirit. This is to be your motivation. It is divine, and it is from above. Conform to Me and not to people. My way for all is of the same purpose....to do My will and to conform to Me, but how I obtain that in each of you is special and unique. Each of you must grow up in Me as individuals. Oh listen to Me, for there is so much to share.

"I will teach you of My love, for love is patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong. (1 Cor. 13:4-5)

"I will teach you what it means to not even give thought when a wrong is done to you. That is a height few reach, but you desire this. There is real peace there. A calm like no other. It is a place totally apart from self and the world, apart from the flesh and carnality. I am there in that place, for I know that lesson well. The air is rarified there but so clean and pure.

"Think not that you must go out of the boundaries that I have for you. Another may be so led, and at times I may lead you to extraordinary action, but just remain in Me. Wherever I lead, be willing to go. Learn to not be critical of others as they worship more actively or loudly than I have thus led you. They may be ready for that kind of worship or need the release it brings. I will lead. I will direct each. Just listen to Me.

"Be not led by people but by Me. Take your cues and leading from me. Forget the flesh as you worship Me. Direct your spirit, your ears and your actions to My Throne; and as each will be obedient to do that, each, though a member of a Body, has a private audience with the Father. And I miss nothing. No motion, no word, no sound, no thought. When directed to Me and motivated by Me, you and I become One. There is a free interchange. Worship in My Spirit. Pray in My Spirit. Walk in My Spirit. There will be joy unspeakable for those who do. Stay humble before Me, and I will bless you abundantly!"

http://www.volunteersforjesus.com

Mighty Waves of Love

Jack Frost

I hesitate to call the following a prophetic word but do not discount it as one! It is a personal summary and conclusion drawn from a variety of respected prophetic voices, conversations with leaders in the Father Heart movement (Jack Winter, Ed Piorek, and others), as well as from insights from conversations with pastors and missionaries in many different nations.

In 1999, mighty waves of love will begin to roll across the nations in a greater magnitude than ever before. These waves will be the beginning of a paradigm (or way of thinking) shift of what we have known church life to be. They will come with such force that many who have not prepared their life with a spirit of brokenness and humility will be washed aside and their ministries will no longer have the effectiveness that they have had in the past. Others who have been obscure and broken will quickly emerge to the forefront and will see cities impacted through a demonstration of anointing and power that is released through relationship, meekness, and love. (Matthew 11:29; 23:11, 12)

There will be a set of at least 6 waves of love that Father will pour upon the earth:

(1) The first wave will flow over Christians who have been emotionally handicapped because they have not experienced the right kind of love. They are going to be saturated with the Father's unconditional love and acceptance. Fears of failure and rejection will be cast out by love. No longer will they compete and perform for love, identity, and acceptance but they will walk in a deeper sense of security, love, and faith from a new found intimacy with the Father. (Isaiah 66:12, 13)

(2) The second wave will be composed of humility and meekness and will anoint many leaders who have walked in positional authority to arise into the authority of true spiritual fathers. Their life will exemplify Christ-likeness, humility, meekness, and unconditional love. The anointing released through them will be based on intimacy and relationship, not just power, giftings, and position. No longer will they struggle and weary themselves with raising up leaders but they will be at rest fathering sons who will take the Father's healing love to the nations. Many fathers and sons will be set in their destinies to transform the nations in the Father's love. (1 Thessalonians 2:7, 8)

(3) The third wave will release greater unity within the church than ever before. No longer competing for love, position, and identity but now resting in Father's love and grace, pastors and different churches will begin to flow with one voice and one vision within their cities. Their heart's cry will be to make the Father's love known to their city and petty theological differences will fade away in the light of God's love. (Psalm 133)

(4) The fourth wave will bring the prodigal sons and daughters home. These are those who left the church because they have been so wounded by religion, those who felt they couldn't perform well enough, those who were so wounded in their youth and couldn't match up to church standards; they shall begin to return to the Father and to the spiritual fathers who now walk in humility and unconditional love. Joy will return to the church as it becomes a place where the "heart of the fathers is restored to the heart of the sons, and the heart of the sons restored to the fathers". (Malachi 4:5, 6; Luke 15:20 24)

(5) Then, the fifth wave will bring in the lost. They will begin to see the difference the Father's love has made in Christian's lives. Before, their Christian work mates and family members were critical and judgmental of them but now love, servanthood, and acceptance flows from them. Their countenance is different. Their marriages are different. Being in a Christian's presence is no longer bad news to a lost person but like a breath of fresh air. They begin to seek for the source of love and are led to the Father. A wave of revival begins to sweep the nations. (John 17:23)

(6) A whole paradigm shift in church life results. No longer will the church be an unsafe place for sinners and wounded people. No longer will many lead out of a need to be needed and to find identity, value, and self worth in ministry. No longer will many churches be performance based but they will become love based. The church will become the Father's House, a place where the Father lives to meet the love need of His children, and His children will be at rest, comforted in the Father's love.

"The goal is for all of them to become one heart and mind, just as you, Father, are in me and I in you, so they might be one heart and mind with us. Then the world might believe that you, in fact, sent me. The same glory you gave me, I gave them, so they'll be as unified and together as we are I in them and you in me. Then they'll be mature in this oneness, and give the godless world evidence that you've sent me and loved them in the same way you've loved me." (John 17:21 23, The Message)

WHAT TO EXPECT BEFORE EACH WAVE

We can expect to go through many relational and personal trials and tests in coming months. Many of the negative circumstances that will be going on around us will not be demonic but the dealings of the Father which are meant to break unbroken areas and to purify our motives so we find our utter dependence on Him and not on our gifts or position. Otherwise, the Spirit flowing out of us to others is blended and mixed with our unbroken soul. When we open our mouth, it is not pure but flows out of the impurity of a strong will or stubborn mind. Then our effectiveness to touch other's lives with the Father's love is not hindered by a lack of anointing but by the flow of impurities from our soul. (James 1:2 4)

Often, the greatest weakness we have is our inability to truly acknowledge our need for Him. Thus, Father has us in the process of depleting our identity from being in our inheritance found in gifts, talents, and position (the prodigal son) so that He may bring us to the place of seeing that our greatest need is a deep personal intimate relationship with Him. It is difficult giving a gift to a person who has no need. We must first see our desperate need for the removal of limitations of our soul that have hindered us from purely walking in the Father's unconditional love and acceptance. (John 15:4, 5)

The brokenness the Father is leading us into is meant to reveal a supernatural revelation of His love deep in our area of need. Many of the troubles and trials we will experience are meant to bring us to a place of brokenness so Father can pour forth His love deep within our soul. The measure of Father's love being released in our life will depend upon how much we allow the Father to discipline, break, and transform us. (John 16:20 27)

During the trials, continue to stand firm in God's grace (ability). Focus on the Father's love and acceptance for us. Nothing we do will make Him love us more and nothing we do will make Him love us less. We must not seek to blame others when things go wrong but allow the circumstance to be an opportunity for the Father's love to purify our soul and to cleanse us from all resentment and anger. Then we will begin to experience His wave of love flowing over us and washing away the fears, limitations, and hindrances of the past. (1 Peter 3:9 11)

In the Father's love,

Jack & Trisha Frost

REPRINT PERMISSION

Permission is granted to reproduce articles from the Shepherd's Song provided:

1) articles are reprinted in their entirety, and

2) acknowledgement of both Shiloh Place Ministries and the article's author(s) are printed with each copy as follows:

Jack Frost
SPM, PO Box 5
Conway, SC 29528
(843) 381-0007
[email]info@shilohplace.org[/email] www.shilohplace.org

My Witness On the Earth

Carla Rickard

March 10 2004

You have been seeing the signs and the wonders and you have asked what does it mean? Look deep into your heart where I have put My Spirit in you. He will lead you into all Truth. I have displayed for you Many Witnesses in the Stars, and in the Earth of the Times and Seasons.

These are the times of disintegration on the earth. Old things are passing away! BEHOLD! I make them new. Those things that were common, those things which have been ingrained as truth and rightness in your societies is crumbling. I tear them down. But I will not leave it desolate. I am building up the Temple. I am raising up My Father's Kingdom on earth. The treasure hidden in the field will be seen soon. The Pearl of Great Price will soon be available for all to see. Do you understand what I have said?

Old institution are failing. Old thoughts and methods no longer bring desires results. My shock and awe will leave you at the foot of My Cross forever praising Me for the Work I accomplish in the earth.

Fear Not! As the old passes away, I have already laid the foundation for the new to spring forth like the tender leaves on the tree as summer nears. All things appear at the same time. Pray for discernment as these are the times of great reward for My People Whom I know by Name for they have not remained unfaithful. I will make you rulers over much. Those who have assumed they will rule and reign with me but have not allowed me to humble them before the Father as I was humbled at the hands of men, will not share in My Reward, but will be cast out. I have said, have no other God's before Me. The time is now! Turn away from your idols you have raised up in your own hearts and return to ME, your first love and DO the works I have first said.

I have left My Witness on the earth. He testifies of Me, the heavens have testimony of Me. Whose report will you believe?
eastcst@nbnet.nb.ca

Major Worldwide Reformation

Ron McGatlin

As frightening as it may be to those who long for the serenity of never facing change, major worldwide reformation has begun and will continue. There is nothing more dangerous than standing firmly on the past social religious order when God is shaking and intervening to bring a future of change. God does not change but He is changing His people to become as He is in the world. As His people are changed the church is changed.

Rev 3:12-13: "He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. And I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name. "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'"

Rev 21:2 -3: Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God.

Old Jerusalem must become New Jerusalem. There is a maturing way of life coming into our world from the courts of God. Heaven's ways are coming into the hearts and lives of people who are loosing their lives that Christ might truly be manifest in them. There are sons of God coming forth that stand spiritually tall and strong with love and mighty power to give and to change. (Rom 8:14-19) (Gal 4:1-7)

Wisdom in magnitude never before seen on earth is spilling downward from heaven imparting the substance of God to lead and guide a people despondent and broken from the ravages of selfish and sinful living. Hatred murder and uncontrolled violence and rampant immorality are the ways of death unleashed among a world gone mad from the emptiness of soul from being apart from the love of God who created them to love and worship Him.

James 3:16-17: For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

Gal 3:26-29: For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

The world is maturing and ripening. Evil is maturing openly as darkness covers the people but the light is come and the maturing sons of God are coming forth with Godly wisdom. They are of many languages, tribes and nations - they are male and female, young and old, and in every walk of life.

Isa 60:1-2: Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the LORD will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you.

The earth is ripening and harvest is coming. God is not looking for a harvest of babies. Yes, there will be multitudes being born again but farmers do not harvest immature grain but the ripened or mature. The harvest God is going to have is a multitude of mature sons. Mature sons who will lead the world into godliness in every area of life from the church to the schools, homes, businesses and governments of the world - all shall be formed and guided by the mature sons of God and the kingdoms of this earth shall become the kingdoms of our God.

Maturing apostles are in these days continuing to lay the foundation of the "New Jerusalem" "Bride of Christ" "Mature Sons" kingdom of God lifestyle in the world. This is a continuation and fulfillment of the work of the twelve apostles of the Lamb (Rev 21:14). Maturing apostles are those sons consumed by the love of Father and humbled before God and the world. There is no more pride in them and no power of soul or self as they move in the power and full direction of the Spirit of God. Revelation without mixture will flow through them and be received by many teachers who will carry the new order to shepherds across the land - to the emerging churches of the cities.

Pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

For major articles by Ron McGatlin and others, Go Here: http://www.baspub.com/news/

What Does Reformation Really Mean
Ron McGatlin

What does "reformation" really mean? - Is it really happening?

When Jesus came upon the scene, the established Jewish religion led by Pharisees did not readily take to the new higher moral level order that Jesus proffered. After Pentecost, Paul and the other apostles continued to meet with opposition as they brought forth the powerful reality of the higher ways of God's order. When Martin Luther and others began to bring forth a higher way than the perversions that the church had eroded into, the established church leadership was not ready to consider changing to the higher level of truth. In both cases the existing leadership, for the most part, could see absolutely no reason for changing the order of their religion.

Yet, the church moved forward in all cases and continues to move forward today.

Reformation does not mean the destruction of the church but it means its development. God's precious ministers and saints of the church are not being slaughtered by reformation they are being revived. The current move of God to bring forth multitudes of shepherds serving small groups is not demeaning to existing church fathers. It is elevating. An apostolic spirit comes forth in church fathers to train and release multitudes of shepherds (pastors) to care for the small groups of people.

Yes it is really happening. It is happening as the manifest presence of God is consuming men and women young and old. The love and power of God is flowing though them. Purity and holiness leads them into true humility as they are changed in the manifest presence of God.

The current process of reformation means more of God and less of man - more purity and holiness through following the Spirit in love and less trying to keep religious ceremonies and traditions - more prayer for one another and less gossip and strife - more freedom to follow Christ by the Spirit and less dominance and control over one another - more of heaven's ways on earth and less of man's ways.

Yes, there will be honored traditions and teachings that will dissolve in the increased light of the revealed Word by the Spirit of the resurrected Christ. And yes, there will be those who will not receive the change but the church will move forward and we will become more as Christ is in the world.

Reformation though difficult is a good thing - a God thing.

Pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

My Beloved

Roy Resh

Come away my beloved, my beautiful dove, my choice.
I pine for your affection; come to me.
Give your heart to me, Oh hear my soft voice.
Remember the great price I paid for thee.

Jealousy burns when you seek another.
To seek me out or to speak in your stead.
Am I not sufficient? Where's your mother?
She promised to keep bad thoughts from your head.

My heart overflows with such grace and savor.
Speak softly my love, Oh, where have you been!
I'll shower you with wonderful favor.
Blessings that you can never imagine.

I want you, your whole being. My loving heart
Aches for your presence, for your sweet fragrance.
Hear my voice, sing a song of love to me.
Let's laugh and sing together, have a dance.

You bring joy to me, such peace, such rapture,
I'm happy and fulfilled when you come near.
I am waiting for you, you can be sure.
To take you to my home, so have no fear.

More can't I offer than rapt attention,
Of a King who owns all, loves mightily,
And shares everything with you. My intention
Is clear. Do you want to marry me?

Your Loving Suitor
Jesus the Christ. (2004) akingdomwalk@aol.com

My Freedom

Jane Larsen

Do not become so wrapped in the things of the world that they paralyze and choke you. Do not let these things master you, for they will sap your energy and your eyes will be closed to the truth of what I have for you. Do not let the weight of your problems sit on your shoulders, for see, today will last just a little while, and there is much before you.

I have come to set you free and you will be free indeed. The things of the world should not concern you, for have I not said that I am your provider, and that I will supply all your needs? Have I not made promises throughout the ages that have come to be? Why do you concern yourself with these things? The enemy will come to steal and destroy and to take your focus of Me. He will entice with things that are not of Me, that are not from My Kingdom. Do not look that way. That is not the way. The way is clear and pure and true. The way is one of truth and love and peace that will not weigh you down and will not burden you. There is a walk that is a spiritual walk that I have called you to, where you walk with Me and cast the ways of the world to the side. Leave them there. You are in this world but you are not of it. My voice was heard by you, keep following it. I will look after you. I will take care of all your needs, I will answer you, I will protect you. I have not brought you this far to let you go the way of the world.

Remember My promises and lay hold of them. I am with you, even unto the ends of the earth. I will sustain you. You will come through this time. Take your eyes off what burdens you and look upon Me and you will find rest.

Jane Larsen jlarsen65@hotmail.com

My Fire Is Upon My Mountain Once Again

Susan Cummings

My Fire Is Upon My Mountain once again. I am assembling the ranks before Me, and placing them at My Feet. All who are Mine, stand before Me, and are in their places, for they hear My Voice, and the Trumpet that now sounds.

The Time of Gathering has been announced, and the Placement is now underway. For the Time of Battle is before you. The Dread Warriors are now in position and will hold the lines and make the borders sure, for the true lambs to cross over.

Few see My Fire burning, nor hear the Trumpet sounding, for they chose to remain in the darkness instead. They chose not to draw near, and to come to Me, but chose to remain in their tents, or to go among the nations that are arrayed. They will not partake of My Fire or My Glory, but will suffer with the wicked.

I have raised up My Mountain in the earth. My Own see it, and embrace it, for it is My Righteous Government. It is My Place, and My Own submit to Me. No Man will sit in My Place, nor rule from there over My Own. I Am over My House and My People!

My Places of Refuge, My Tents of Meeting, are rising up, and My Own will stand firmly in Me, and will know My saving Power, and My saving Grace, for they stand before My Face. I will be in the midst of My House, and as the seas roar and the nations rage, My Mountain will stand, and be seen, and will be the Truth in the midst of the darkness!

Nations are jockeying for the final positions, and are making their final preparations, and then the final maneuver will be seen. Men have chosen the course long ago, and are now bringing forth the path upon which multitudes will follow. Paths of great promise and allurement, and deadly cost. For the cost of allegiance is eternal death.

My Highway of Holiness is made sure for the True Ones, and they will walk upon it, through the Storm, and will not be seen, but will be known by Me. For Mine are marked by Me, and will be hidden in Me, and will be joined in UNION with Me. Nothing can harm My Little Ones.

My Warriors know their task. For it is given to them at birth, and is now made sure and ready. All will be seen, and all will be known, and all will be as I have shown them. For My Warriors are risen up and among the ranks, and at their posts. For the time of the Great Battle has come.

My Fire burns upon My Mountain, for I AM, have come down. I AM in the midst of the affairs of men once again, and I AM!

Through the darkness will be seen My Great Light and the TRUTH will judge all men.

MY WORD has prepared you, and you know the Truth, now stand in it. Stand firmly IN ME.

Do not give your place upon the wall, but stand and proclaim that which I have given you. For I AM with you and IN you.

Susan Cummings
3-22-04
8:38 am
http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords

My New Zeal Land
Susan Cummings

I am raising up my chosen ones who have been burnished and laden with my heart and burden for my people. I have brought them through the furnace of affliction, and through the valley of despair, and through the caves of brokenness and isolation, and have thoroughly rendered them. For they are to be instruments of My Holy Zeal.

Just as Jehu moved in Holy Zeal, and threw down Jezebel, so shall they speak forth My Word in New Zealand, and shall throw down the high places and the idols that have defiled my people. For I have raised up a people who are set apart, and who are moved with my heart, and who mind the things of the spirit, and who continually walk in my ways without deviating. They are My Zealous Ones who will burn with My Holy Fire. The Islands will once again burn with My Fire!

For you are My Lighthouses that will call the nations back to me. I will provoke them to jealousy by what I will do in you. I will move in such a way in New Zealand, that the nations of the world will be amazed. For you are My Torches that will blaze with My Fury and My Zeal.

I have raised up a Standard with which you will run boldly. No man will carry that Standard, but I will be that Standard, and will be seen among you, and within you, and upon you. You are one of My Tents of Meetings. You will be My Resting Place, and I will be Mighty in your midst!

Prepare yourselves, for My wave has crested and is about to break upon your shores. I have come to you this day. I will perform my work in your midst, and many will call it a strange work, but it will be Me. For you will confound the wise, and bring down the strongholds that have held my people for generations, and they will be set free.

Rise up, my Vessels of My Zeal, for I have come upon you, and have risen up in your midst!

For you are "MY"- NEW- ZEAL -LAND!
-Susan Cummings
1-17-04

Continue On In Me
Susan Cummings

I say to you, Continue on in Me. Do not look around at what others are doing, and what others are saying, and what others are preparing for. What have I told you that I would do? You must remember My Words to you, and only follow them. Stop allowing the voices of the world draw you away from Me, and rob you of your peace. I have given you specific instructions, so continue on.

Maintain your prayer times, and allow no more clutter to come between you and Me. Many things are crowding in upon your days, and causing you to become frustrated and confused at times. Stop, look at your life, and readjust it now. Clear up the clutter, and make straight paths for your feet.

Solidly anchor yourselves in My Word. For it is the only stable unmovable force that will sustain you in the days ahead. The Shaking has increased and all things that are not anchored in Me, will shake from their foundations and fall at My Feet. It is time to get things settled, and firmly established. Either you will fully believe My Word and absolutely trust it as your Life, or you won’t at all.

Every person alive will be confronted with this Truth. Either I Am fully your Lord and Savior or I am not.

There is no middle ground. I Am either everything to you, or nothing to you. Your lives must be completely given to Me or they will be totally given over to satan. There is no other Life apart from Me. Choose this day whom you will serve. You must continue on in Me, or be found in eternity without Me.

I have told you plainly in My Word all things. There is nothing hidden from My People. I give Wisdom to those who ask of Me and who seek after it with all of their hearts. My Word is True, and it is alive. Either you live according to it, or you die without it. There is no other Creator but Me, for I Am the Living Word. I created man and the earth and the heavens and all that there is, or ever will be. I Am. Continue to eat My Word daily. For in it you will find your answers, your daily bread, and your strength. I Am the Light of all Men, and the Bread of Life. No man can live apart from Me. You must begin to partake of Me more than ever, and fully put your trust in Me. For My Word is actively bringing My Word to fulfillment each day as I have decreed it, and I know just what you need each day. So, ask Me for Wisdom, and allow Me to bring My Word to life within you. I Am Faithful.

Continue to walk forward, knowing that I Am with you. I Am in you. There is nothing that happens to you that I don’t know of, or haven’t approved of, or haven’t already walked through ahead of you. I have already made your preparations for you. I know what’s coming, because I have already seen it and walked it out. Trust Me now. Take My Hand. Look into My Eyes.
Now, Continue on…..
-Susan Cummings
1-14-04

You Are The Ones Whom I Have Chosen

Susan Cummings

You are different. You are Holy.

You have been called out of this world, and separated unto Me for My Own Possession. You are My Treasure and My Glory. You have nothing in common with the world, or the things in the world. You were created to live with Me, and unto Me, in the earth.

You were chosen by Me from the foundations of the world, and before I ever created. You have been in My Heart and Mind ever since. You have never been alone, or without Me. I have always existed and always will. Therefore My Word is still True.

There is nothing that can separate you from Me, except you.
There is no man, woman, child, devil, or force that can ever take My Love from you, except you.

You have My Eternal Spirit dwelling within you. You are without sin in My Eyes. For I see you through the Blood of My Son. You are My Beloved, whom is Mine forever. You cannot be called anything else, unless you choose to be. For I purchased you, and have redeemed you from all cords of sin and death at the Cross.

You are My Glorious Vessel through which I have chosen to live upon the earth. You have My Blood upon you and My Spirit within you. You are Holy unto Me. You breathe the breath that I breathed into you from the day of your birth. You contain My Presence and My Wisdom and know My Heart.

You will be My Chosen Ones through which I will reap My Harvest in this last hour. You will be the containers through which My Creative Miracle Working Power will flow, and be seen in the nations. You are the spark that will ignite the fires of harvest. It is you, my child. You are the one, that I will use.

I have chosen the time and the place. I have decreed it. I will do it.
Walk with Me.
For I have already begun the work…..

-Susan Cummings
1-07-04
http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords

My Timetable

Mary Clark

...I want My children to be aware of something important. I do all things well, and according to My timetable. I am presenting something in the coming hour that will catch you by surprise. Be aware of this fact. Be aware that the living God is going to present something to you, His beloved, that will catch you by surprise.

I am presenting many wondrous things in the coming hour. I know the exact moment when they will make their appearance in your life. Be aware that I am in control of the situation. I am not only in control, beloved; I am at the helm of every life that is committed to Me. I am eager for you to know some wonderful things about Me. I am eager to see you walking in all the promises that I have made to you. I am SO eager to see you rise up in the strength of your God, pursuing My will at ALL costs.

So be prepared, knowing that something will SOON make its appearance in your life – something that will be a bit of a surprise, but it will pave the way into a deeper exploration of My great love for you. And know, beloved, that I am the One Who selected the right time for this wonderful offering. I am the One Who called forth, telling the exact hour when this mighty favor of the living God would manifest in your life.

So be of good cheer. The time is approaching. The time is SOON to come, and you will know some things of great consequence, and they are: The Almighty God has paid you a visit, opening His heart for you to peer inside and see something of great wonder. The Almighty told you in advance that the time was fast approaching, and He wanted you to be prepared to receive. The Almighty is washing some areas of your life with His glory in this process, and you are going to glow with His presence. The Almighty is sure to have His way in this mighty endeavor and you, beloved, are sure to be delighted – delighted from the top of your head to the tips of your toes!!!

The Money Chest

Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw an old piece of wooden furniture. It was like a chest of drawers on tall legs. One of the drawers was open, revealing compartments like one would see in a cash register. There were several compartments for dollars, but all were empty except for one. It contained a few rumpled dollar bills. Then I head the Lord say “the money chest.” Here is what He has to tell us about this “money chest.”

This “money chest” represents something that My children will soon see firsthand. It is a signal of sorts, beloved – a signal that should get your attention.

The future holds much for those who will follow after My heart. The future holds sights and sounds that will be welcomed by every heart willing to comply with My will. But to those who are seeking after worldly prosperity, it holds doom and gloom. It holds a time of severe lack.

I want you to know, beloved, that I have called you to come up higher with Me. You have answered Me, telling Me that there is nothing that you would like better. So My advice to you is: “Get ready for the season of going higher with your God – higher than you ever dreamed possible – to occur in your midst. Get ready to see some wonders that will thrill your heart, and know, beloved, that for such a time as this you were born to see and welcome the glory of your God.

I want you to know that many will look on the coming hour with heavy hearts. They will wring their hands. They will pace and lose heart in many ways. But those who seek after My heart will know the truest kind of prosperity. They will walk in the knowledge of My love in such a way that they will literally be walking on air.

This is a promise, beloved. This is a promise. I am moving you up higher than you ever dreamed possible. You will feel the radiating love of your God. You will welcome this hour and all that it contains. You say, “But Lord, am I ready for this? I don’t feel pure enough in heart to be blessed in this manner.” I tell you, beloved, I am getting you ready to view some things that will purify your heart like never before. I am getting you ready for this advancement into My kingdom of love and delight. So get ready, knowing that the time is right.

The time is near for you to view the wonders of your God, and when it comes, beloved, it will come when you least expect it. It will come at My appointed hour. It will come with a BIG welcome from My heart to yours. Yes! It will come, and you will be delighted. You will be surprised. But most of all, beloved, you will be delighted – delighted is not quite the word I want to use. Let Me try again: You will be ECSTATIC!!!

Mary Clark
barnabessie@earthlink.net

My Thoughts On Why Revival Tarries

Meri Burlingame

(burly@tds.net)

Revival has been waiting for us on every street corner, every marketplace and every dark back drop of American experience but we have passed her by on our way to the next meeting... (Luke 19:42-44). From Why Revival Tarries by Chad Taylor

This is a quote I very much agree with from an article "Why Revival Tarries" that I read today. Ok....now I want to add my two bits to the subject without any reflection on the original post. It just is a "taking off point" for me.

Why does revival tarry? Is it because we "lack the fire" that this post suggested? Yes of course it does. But when and how do we get the "fire?" I know many upon whom the fire has fallen, in far greater measure than anything I have experienced personally. And they loved the fire. But it fell on them, it never flowed out of them!!!

When we go out into the marketplace of life, not as an "evangelist" on a "mission from God" but as a grocery clerk, as a doctor, as a school teacher, as a motorcyclist or a bike rider, or a horseman, THEN we will see the power of the Kingdom manifest in our lives and in the lives of others. Today most of us are still looking towards the "church" as the place where "it happens." So why not keep going to church, to get more and more and more. More FIRE, I have heard it time and time again, God I want MORE fire.

Fire as an experience by itself won't save any souls. It might burn up some dross in my life and make me more equipped to deal with the lost, but if I am not out in the world involved with the needs of the lost and the souls that are wandering from place to place looking for happiness, why do I need any fire, why do I need the dross in my life burned, why do I need to do anything but sit in church and have one experience after another, sit in church, content that the structures that be are being satisfied, and that no dirty laundry is exposed for anyone to see?

Last weekend I went to a Celebrate Recovery conference in Vancouver Washington. I left with the awareness that the Body of Christ is very fragile, weak, full of addictions, and physically sick. No new perception. What was new, was seeing that people are beginning to be aware that this is the state of the church!! All the power, the fire, the teaching, and the body is still suffering from sin. Oh my goodness, what a revelation!! lol

The difference in this conference was that for the first time, there was NO JUDGMENT levied on Christians who manifested the weaknesses of an fallen earthen vessel. The emphasis was on Jesus who is the Excellency, He who is our deliverer, and equipper. There was emphasis on the identification one of another in our weakness, therefore in our "righteousness" before and in Jesus Christ!!

I met a young man in church recently as I mentioned in my first Chemical Dependency post, who called himself a "fallen minister." Maybe he wasn't fallen. Could it be that he hadn't ever learned to walk in the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus! Have we ever considered that maybe he only walked in "self-righteousness" or in religion. Maybe he had conformed to the "image" of Christianity, but had he ever let Christ be in him what Christ is?

If not, how could he have fallen? At the conference last weekend, there were hundreds of Christians there who were beginning to let it be known that they had addiction issues.....finances, pornography, sexual addictions, adultery, food addictions, alcohol and drug addictions.....and everyone who shared indicated that these were issues which they had had most of their lives. Isn't not our natural man, fallen?

Then how if we haven't learned to function out of the anointing within us can we say we have fallen? Many of us functioned out of an external anointing, thinking it was what we were supposed to do, and some how we covered up our weaknesses and failures, camouflaged them so they looked acceptable to our fellow Christians. Only the world around us knew that we were like them, but since we had distinguished ourselves as Christians, we had lost that vital identification.

One of the exciting things about marketplace Christianity, is that it requires that we identify with our Adamic nature. Today's world is such that if we don't know our Adamic nature, we aren't going to stand. It takes Christ in us to see our Adamic nature and to gain victory and power over it in Christ Jesus. He becomes the Excellency, an "addition" to my human nature. He becomes the strength, He become my life. I don't any longer have to deal with my adamic nature, I learn that it is what it is.

Years ago I was in a Sunday school class and I remember them talking about not being able to bring anything into our "spiritual" life from our "natural man." I really didn't understand it and I sort of rebelled against the idea. I knew the thinking but I just couldn't comprehend that there was nothing in my life apart from the Spirit of God that had any value. Of course, I didn't understand the term, "apart from." And it was to be many years before I understood...we have this treasure in earthen vessels that the Excellency might be of God and not of ourselves.

So, why does revival tarry? Because there is no one to carry it to the lost! Does that mean we go out on great crusades on the streets and "save souls" and bring them into church? Well, some would say it does, but that seems to be why such "moves" fade and have to be stirred up time and time again. Are we yet ready to understand that when the Kingdom comes in the lives of a group of people, we can trust HIM to work with them THERE and not have to bring them to where we are, to where we worship...but we can worship with them where they are and allow Him to be to them where we found them all that He is?

The indigenous church, not quite what John Moore may have meant when he penned the word is where the key lies. We historically have asked indigenous people to come to where we are while God was interested in building up people where they are. We ask for the fire to go, but did we carry it to light others fires so they can experience the Kingdom of God where they are?

I am working on being equipped to extend my field of ministry and service, believing my confidence level needs built up prior to going out. One of my counselors has said, with success your confidence will grow. How can I gain confidence unless I experience success and how can I experience success unless I go out and begin and see the results? In the body, it is the same way. Yes, we need to train our workers, we need to send them out with trusted ones whose footsteps they will follow in....but there's no confidence without going, without doing. I can have all the power and authority I could ever want and use it within the folds of the body of Christ, but until I move out into the marketplace, I won't really know what it means to "extend the kingdom." I may know about "church" but not "kingdom." Are we willing to take that step?

Meri
Email: burly@tds.net

Making Your Way In The Emerging Church
Mike Woelk

March 15, 2004

Dear church family,

You wrote asking how to proceed as you serve the Lord outside the traditional setting. I hope these thoughts will serve you well.

First, you must stand on your testimony, "which (you) have heard, which (you) have seen with (your) eyes, which (you) have looked upon, and (your) hands have handled, concerning the Word of life." You personally have had experiences and have been given truths in Christ which should always serve as standards of what our Lord is able to be and do. Never let go of those. Such experiences and principles in my own life have served as gauges of God's minimum capability, and I insist on never settling for less when some leader teaches or practices something else. You must realize these experiences and truths are the foundation and essence of your direct call from the Throne Room. This is a Biblical apostolic principle, the way God builds His Church with obedient people.

One such experience for me is how I was filled with the Holy Spirit. I was driving along one day shortly after salvation. I had to pull over as a powerful and totally unexpected sensation flooded over me from above. I started to cry. The farmland around me became brilliantly colored and I began to praise Him effortlessly and almost uncontrollably. After that, for weeks that I could not keep my hands off my new Bible or keep myself away from prayer. I would even neglect my work.

Days later I awoke from a nap and some other language was flooding out of my lips like a faucet. From that day, I have heard churchmen say there was no longer any such experience. I have heard them say that the filling of the Holy Spirit happens automatically at conversion. Or I have watched leaders tell others to "receive by faith and know you are filled whether you feel it or not," or "move your lips and make up some words and it will start coming". But I have experienced what God can do-He can fill us in powerful ways exactly like the book of Acts.

One principle that God sewed into my heart from the earliest days of my walk with Him is this: all believers are capable in Christ of being ministers of the Gospel and must be restored, equipped and released by leaders to do so. To this day I refuse to settle for anything less in the Church around me. I continually see church leaders trying to restore and equip people in order to incorporate followers into the enterprise they are attempting to build. Here is one reason that though today's emerging Church is actually larger and growing more quickly than almost anyone knows, it is not noticeable and is never very large in any specific location. Those unorthodox believers are not being co- opted into high-profile church enterprises, but they are being restored and equipped in non-traditional settings which are not organized enterprises.

As I practiced this principle as an institutional pastor, I experienced great success and little measurable growth in traditional measuring sticks like size of congregation or income. I finally had to forsake the institutional model, which in America has taken the form of business franchises, using such principles as growth plans, sales, marketing, and capital accumulation.

You called yourselves, and you have been labeled, renegades. Indeed you are as you have compared the church practice around you with what the Lord is speaking within your heart. Perhaps in the past you mistakenly subscribed to standards and traditions established by others, and you went against the testimony of your own heart. Now, by acting on this and separating yourselves, you have indeed reneged. That is not bad. Righteous conflict has come to your church life.

Yet at the same time, there is no excuse for not having the same mind as Jesus-such conflict never moved him to anger, personal offense, resentment, or self-pity. He was always motivated by love over the broken condition of the apostate church of the day. Always compare your heart and emotions with His when you experience conflict in the Body of Christ. You are there to love God and the brethren by being faithful to Him and truthful in all your dealings.

Often when we are "terribly wounded" by others in the Body, as you wrote, we have entrusted them with something or have required something of them which we should not. For example, perhaps we have expected them to accept and affirm us. Only the Lord Himself can be the source of our acceptance and affirmation. We are "accepted in the Beloved", not in the brothers and sisters around us. We are commanded to accept and affirm others, but we are never taught in the Word to determine how others should minister to us, including that they should honor us in any way. Had Jesus done that, he would never have died for us. He would have become exasperated and asked the Father to beam Him back to the Throne Room.

Another common offense in the Church comes when people expect to be cared for materially by those around them. Again, I am commanded to be a source of provision to those in need, but I am never commanded to expect those around me to give to me. The Lord alone is my source. If I look to other saints, they will invariably disappoint me. People make terrible gods.

It was God who revealed the "departed glory" nature of the institutional system where you were, and He led you to pursue Him outside the walls, as He has done many others: Moses in Midian, David at Adullam, Daniel in Babylon, Paul for years after his salvation, John the Baptist and Jesus in the desert. But in all these cases, it was God's man who was being developed. Even Jesus Himself "learned obedience by the things He suffered."

When I left the institutional pastorate, I was telling the Lord about all the problems I was seeing in His Church. He said, "You are right. Since you are paying attention, let's start with you." Time away from the crowd is not about the rest of the unclean church; it is about me.

You have present priorities not to be neglected. The first is to follow the Great Commandment above all else: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. 'And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment. And the second, like it, is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Your personal relationship with Him is your priority.

Second is with your mate, family, and intimates. It is the undeniable message of the New Testament letters that love and godly character are the essential and indispensable building blocks of the Church. Unless we are obedient to this command, the emerging church will be no different than the institutional one-saints neglecting these foundations and going on to the trim: emotionally satisfying activities, events and programs. The emerging church can also be rooted in the same self-centeredness and lack of integrity, regardless of a new structure.

God is the Master Builder. If we limit our assignment to the Great Commandment, He will build His Church. He will determine eldership, apostleship, meeting times, ministry forms, and other apostolic and prophetic functions of the structure and growth of His Church ("Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, in whom the whole building, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.").

Remember, because you are no longer attending an institutional church, you are not necessarily "out of Church." As a believer you are a part of His Body. Ask yourself: for the most part are you isolated from other Christians? If so, only you can know whether He has purposely isolated you for a season or whether you have isolated yourself by your own sin and immature responses to conflict. Either way, you must attend yourself to His voice at all cost and be responsive to Him. We are ultimately and undeniably called to Biblical "koinonia," intimate and accountable daily relationship with other Christians.

In Our Savior, Mike Woelk

My Words

Olivia Long

faithbuildersmins@sbcglobal.net
February 20, 2004

> "And the Words of the Lord are flawless, like silver refined in a furnace of clay, purified seven times." Psalm 12:6

The words that I speak to you are full and rich, they are as gold from My mouth. I speak no idle words for My words are alive and will accomplish whatsoever I intend them to accomplish. My Word became life and dwelt among you. My word is truth, so cherish My word, stand on it and walk in it as My sons and My daughters - knowing that not one empty word has ever been given to you. Each and every word has had meaning and is living.... Rely and trust My Words given to you seeing them as from My mouth and My heart.

Just as your hope was beginning to wane, I was there and I came through with revelation with My words. You are experiencing My Glory but from a distance. Very soon you will experience it beyond your comprehension of My Glory. I have given you a taste and it has enhanced your appetite and desire of more of Me. Who can fathom My greatness? Only those I AM revealing it to and I AM revealing it to My Faithful Ones. Allow My greatness and My Glory to be your food. Feed on My Word like never before as you see new doors and new revelations opening unto you.

Although it seems you have been in the hold mold for so long, I AM moving you into the going forth mode. Going forth in My call and plan. Going forth in areas you have never envisioned or dreamed. Going forth to carry My Word. Going forth to be My representatives across this land. Going forth in this move of your God that will bring people to their knees with signs and wonders following.

There is a new and fresh anointing flowing forth touching those I have called. It is an anointing that will empower you to accomplish all that I have called you to do. An anointing that is flowing from the throne and it is flowing with grace, for My grace must accompany any word or ministry performed in the Name of My Son. It is by My grace that all things will be accomplished. You shall go forth in My Love, in My Power, in My Grace and in My Name. I AM giving you an "assurance" of your call and place in My plan as you have never had before! I have placed an exuberance within you in what I AM about to do, an excitement that you can hardly contain for you know the plans I have for you....You have sought to have child-like faith in your God and in My promises to you and as this child, you cry out "Is it time yet Daddy? Can I go now?" I say yes, yes, yes, for you will be fully clothed in My anointing, clothed in righteousness and you shall be ready to go.

Beloved, I have said of a certainty to you that My calling is SURE!!! And now Beloved, I AM calling you today to lay hold of and stand on EVERY WORD that I have given you as it IS a certainty! Clothe yourself with the whole armour of God. I have given you the Shield of Faith to ward off the fiery darts. Beloved remember that none of these darts can penetrate My faith and that your calling IS A CERTAINTY and it IS at hand, therefore - stand steadfast, courageous and strong.

Do you believe My Words are true? Are you walking in My faith? I have given each of you a measure of faith and My measure of faith is mighty and sure. My Words are more powerful than a two edged sword - Walk in My Word and in My Faith... Speak My Word IN Faith. See the mountains move because there is power in My Word.

Like never before I AM moving in My own, My Faithful ones. Like never before you will see Me moving. This is your season and your hour. I will move in your life like never before. You will begin to see the signs and you will know without a doubt that this is your time! Like never before, be ready! Like never before, I will speak words of instructions. All 'authority' has been given you in My Name. All 'power' has been given you in My Name. Use My Name to thwart the wiles of the enemy. Use My Name against sickness and disease. You have been given that Name and you must use it to see the results of the cries of your heart. In My Name, walls will fall and In My Name you shall arise from the ashes. The promises I have given you ARE SURE. As you speak My Words, see them become real, for My Words ARE real. I AM the God who cannot lie for I AM bound by My Word. My Word is yea - as you speak My Word in faith, believe and see it come to pass.

I AM a miracle making God. What I call forth MUST come forth. My Words that I have spoken in your life MUST and WILL come forth. Finances MUST come forth, healing MUST come forth, salvations MUST come forth, ministries MUST come forth because I have called them forth! By My Word I have called forth the season and the season is here. I have given you the authority to speak forth My Word, In My NAME and it MUST come forth.

Know that I AM in control, ALL things are under My control! My plan is perfect and as My plan for you continues to unfold, do not be afraid to step out as I lay that plan before you. I will provide all that I have promised. Your part is to step out and as you step out, the I AM steps in... Beloved, hear My Word unto you, there is an unfolding of My plan this day. My messengers have been released from the throne room with provisions and My plan. "They will come in unexpected ways.' I have been preparing you to receive what I AM about to deliver...celebrate, celebrate your new beginnings for now is the time that I AM unfolding My plan and direction.

This is the time! I have heard your cries. For many of you, you have been holding on by a thread, the thread of faith and hope, but this is the strongest of threads and because of your hope and your faith I will bring forth your desires. The groundwork has been laid and it is time to bring you forth. A place has been prepared for you and it is time to possess the land. Do not allow the enemy to steal any of what I would have for you, hold on My Beloved and hold fast to My Words spoken to you.

I AM a God of Integrity, therefore My Words are sound! I have spoken them over you in MY authority and in My timing now you shall see them coming forth to perform that which I want them to do. Beloved, I see you as you begin to arise... standing straight and tall, carrying the mantle of My presence and My light with you where-ever I take you. I do not lie and I do not waste My Words. What I say I will do, I will do! I WILL DO!!!! Hold fast to MY WORDS, hold them close to your heart for now you will see them come to past.

Not For Sale
Jasminka Diehl

NOT FOR SALE

Christianity is a privilege of the strong, those that have counted the cost and hardships that go along with it ... To have a title of a Christian means to belong to Christ, to be sold out to Him, and to be lost forever to the world and all its influences ... World has nothing else to offer to the ones that are already dead ... Paul so forcefully says in his epistle to Galatians: "I AM CRUCIFIED WITH CHRIST; NEVERTHELESS I LIVE; YET NOT I, BUT CHRIST LIVETH IN ME: AND THE LIFE WHICH I NOW LIVE IN THE FLESH I LIVE BY THE FAITH OF THE SON OF GOD, WHO LOVED ME, AND GAVE HIMSELF FOR ME." (Gal. 2:20)

True Christianity doesn't worry when finances dry out - Christ is still there ... When people leave, He is The One that always stays ... When it seems that there is no way out - He is The Way ... When all we hear around us are lies, He still IS the Truth ...

We have forgotten the power of the Gospel, the truth of its message. We have forgotten that clear sound of Life and Victory, of Living Christ within us - the power of the Spirit that has raised Him from the dead and whose habitation, whose temple we have become ...

The Gospel of Christ is the Gospel of STRONG people. There is no weakness and fear in love. Perfect love cast out ALL fear. When I look at the lives of all the people that have lived in and by FAITH of the Son of God, I see the Champions of Christ, the true Knights of Christianity, proud and bold, standing united in love for Christ, and the passion for people that matches the heart of God.

By going along with different programs and teachings, by allowing the world to infiltrate our churches with its programs and methodology of HOW TO WIN THE UNSAVED, to dictate the way to bring people to Christ, we have become the part of that worldly system that operates strictly as business man do. And by it we have denied the power of the Gospel and the way of the Cross. We have introduced Christ as an entertainer, as someone who has means to make us rich and famous.

What does it take to truly become a son of God? And not in a word only, but in a deed, in our character and our nature!? Are we still able to wear the title of an Christian? For Christian means Christ like.

Would TRUE Christian really make a profit out of the Gospel? Or would he weep for the lost and go out of his way to reach them? And if there is no car to go, would he walk no matter what distance there is? If there is no microphone and the stage with an pulpit, would he than willingly stand on the street and proclaim the Gospel? If there are no big rooms available to rent, for the lack of money, would he go out into the fields and give himself to the poor? ... So than, those that are truly hungry for Christ would be able to come too, and not only those with available funds and money in their pockets.

Christianity was never about money and the profit, so it shouldn't be today either. The only gain we should be concerned about is to gain Christ. And to know Christ and Him crucified is all that we need. For in Him we gain all. All eternity - Alfa and Omega, the Beginning and the End - is living within us.

We need to go back and reevaluate, take a long, hard look at who is really leading this parade. If it is necessary we need to erase from our mind all the fables and stories we have been told as truth, and go back to the one and only saving truth: the power of the Holy Spirit. When we allow the Kingdom of God to reign within us, His Kingdom will manifest on the outside, and no one will be able to stop it. For it is the power of God Himself and His very glory that will saturate this earth and make us His habitation. And He will be our God and we will be His people - we will finally be His HOLY nation.

Jasminka

November and Beyond

Ayman and Hala Mikhail

As we come to the end of November, it was very clear that a lot of events have happened which will definitely have a great impact in the whole picture of the world. Early last month [October] we felt a call to pray to fill the gap. Now it's a mandatory. In November, Sheikh Zayed [of Emirates] & Yasser Arafat died. President Bush re-elected. Rebels in Ivory Coast. Demonstrations in Ukraine. Earthquakes in Japan. Conferences in Sharm El-Sheikh [Egypt], Laos, Chile. Hamid Karzai re-elected in Afghanistan. Iran & the nuclear negotiations. British Muslims want Islamic law. Kofi Annan's son corruption. The Iraq daily blood shed. The Locusts in Egypt. Failed trial of assassination of president Bush in Colombia. Peace talks in Ireland. Tension before elections in both Iraq & Palestinian Authority. Fallujah war. Darfur problem & genocide. China's Mine Blast. Al-Qaida [Ayman al-Zawahri, al-Qaida’s principal deputy] threats on newly released video tape, Muslim extremists preach violence in Europe, Pakistan test nuclear-capable missile, Jordan's King Abdullah II stripped his brother and heir apparent of his title as crown prince,... & a lot more events. It's quite apparent that major changes & shifts are going to happen.

We need to come humbly before the Lord seeking Him & His visitation.
A great expectation that a wave of an abundant Grace is going to come over showing God's Mighty Hand in an extremely shaking world. The Church is going to experience a wave of an increasing revelation of His Mighty Power. It's the time now, before some other tough times will come.

We need to abide in Him. To be always covered with His Mighty Wings.
It's all about Him.

Ayman & Hala
Cairo Egypt

Numbered With the Transgressors

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 13:18

Numbered among the transgressors
Jesus was sentenced to the cross
Hated, reviled and rejected
He counted His death worth the cost
And like a lamb when led to the slaughter
He spoke not a word to His defense
But in submission to the Father
He held His peace and remained silent.

His ways were past their understanding
So men stood fixed upon their claim
That Jesus was not worthy
To bear the title as heir of the Holy King
Their denial would seal their destination
For in Him, God provided men eternal life
And to refuse His gift unto salvation
Was to multiply unto themselves
Death that comes through strife.

Jesus, the Holy One, offered up His precious life
All for the sake of those Who would bear the image of His eternal Light.

Today is a new day
Yet God’s voice remains the same
And if a man should hear the call
It is to their eternal gain
To take the time to think upon
The message of the cross
Of being led out from the darkness
Led away from suffering and loss.

Today is a new day
Yet God’s Word still proclaims
There is healing found in mercy
Peace in His holy name
Those blessed with understanding
The purpose of the Father’s heart
Will rise up rejoicing
Having perceived love’s own desire.

> “Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.” Revelation 13:18*
>
> “For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.” 2 Corinthians 10:12

*Count – 5585 – to calculate; to estimate.

For six days God spoke into existence, the heavens and earth, light and darkness, man and life. The invisible God spoke forth into existence things that revealed and demonstrated His power, glory and love. So that man, who was made in God's image, could understand the nature and power of the invisible things of God, the Spiritual reality of His being, God spoke into existence a physical realm, where mankind would be given the opportunity to look upon the power and majesty of their Creator, able to give Him all glory and praise. No one is greater than the Lord of all creation.

As God brought forth all of creation, it was purposed according to His divine plan, that on the sixth day, God would create man, "male and female created He them", in His image. God took the dust of the earth and formed a human vessel, who would, after God breathed into the earthly vessel His life begetting breath, be able to rise up and walk upon the earth that God had created. God had purposed it from the beginning, that His image would be placed in a vessel that He would form from the dust of the earth. The first vessel, created from the dust of the earth, who would bear the image of God, was given the name Adam, which is the name of man.

Adam, man who was created on the sixth day, in the image of the invisible God, was the first human vessel to contain a living soul. He was the first begotten of God. Adam, the first man created by God, would, according to God's divine plan, bring forth other men after his seed. The first man formed from the dust of the earth, from the natural ingredients that make up the earth, was created for God's good pleasure. It brings God pleasure to see man live according to His purpose and design. And so, on the sixth day of creation God, who raised man up from the dust of the earth, would pronounce His blessings upon man. God proclaimed that man was to "be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth."

But before Adam's seed would multiply, bringing forth a multitude of people to populate the earth, Adam and his wife, Eve, would sin, by disobeying God's commandment not to eat the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God had proclaimed that if man ate of the tree of good and evil then he would die. And not only did God's judgment stand fulfilled within the life of Adam after he partook from the tree, in that he would die because he disobeyed God's commandment, but also those who were born of the seed of Adam would die. Because of the disobedience of Adam, sin entered the world, and the penalty for sin is death.

Man, who bore the image of the invisible God, so that he became a living soul, would die. Adam, who, if he had lived in obedience to the word of God was to have lived eternally, would, as punishment for disobeying God's commandment, have his breath extinguished. The breath of God, which made it possible for a man to rise up from the earth, as a living soul, would be extinguished. This punishment would be passed down to the sons of man. Through Adam "sin entered the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned."

Adam, who had obtained life as God's breath was breathed into his nostrils, who had been blessed of God, would die; and so would the generations of men born according to his seed. Adam's disobedience would introduce sorrow into his life and into the lives of others who would follow. The sorrow Adam and Eve experienced, as they were led out of the garden, would be multiplied as they lived out the rest of their days.

Adam and Eve's disobedience led to the knowledge of good and evil. It would be this knowledge that would cause a multitude of thoughts to be raised up within their lives that were not centered on the goodness of God. And thoughts that were not centered on the goodness of God would lead to destructive behavior, which would increase their sorrow. Adam and Eve could not regain the innocence that was theirs in the garden. Sin had entered their lives through disobedience, and in sorrow over their sin they would remain until death.

> "But this thing commanded I them, saying, obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. But they hearkened not, or inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward." Jeremiah 7: 23-24

Mankind, born after the seed of Adam, would multiply unto themselves sorrow as they continued to disobey the voice of God. Men, who like Adam, possessing a living soul, were born into sin and sorrow, would continue to bring condemnation upon themselves as they disobeyed God's voice. Man's thoughts that knew good and evil would continue to rebel against the Lord on high. Some men, who had the knowledge of good and evil, would justify their sins before God. Some would make excuses before the Lord on high, praying that His blessings would be poured out upon them, even as they engaged in rebellion. And as the days moved forward, many men would begin to deny the power and authority of God. Many would come to believe that it was more pleasurable to live their lives according to what God considers evil. Man did not consider that the sin they partook of today, would be the burden that brought greater suffering within their lives tomorrow.

Through Adam, the man who was born on the sixth day, sin was introduced into the world; sin, which led to death. For those who continued to praise the Lord on high, who sought His will to be accomplished in their lives, God was faithful to reveal His unending love toward them, to offer them comfort in their time of need. But for the majority of mankind, their sorrow would continue to be multiplied as their hearts, which knew and placed purpose in evil, became more hardened against the goodness of God. They would become slaves to evil, held in bondage to thoughts that were aligned with darkness. Their hearts and minds, when flooded with a multitude of thoughts that are contrary to the nature of God, would find that it is natural to seek purpose, pleasure and fulfillment in activities contrary to the goodness of God.

The evidence of God's glory could be seen in the heavens and in the earth, yet man, who bore the image of the natural man, Adam, was born with the sin nature, and would continue to multiply unto himself sorrow, as he denied the Creator's authority within his life. Man transgressed God's divine laws, because his knowledge of evil naturally lent itself toward pride. It is as man engages in pride that he will find it is comfortable to exalt his own natural, darkened desires above the holy and righteous desires of the Lord.

> "And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made." Genesis 2:2-3
>
> "For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, and God did rest the seventh day from all his works. And in this place again, if they shall enter into my rest. Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief." Hebrews 4:4-6

Seven days constitutes a week, according to God's Word. As God reveals His handiwork that was accomplished within this week, He reveals the pattern in which He laid out the heavens and the earth. All of God's works, which include the heavens and the earth, were completed in six days, and yet God purposely informs man of a seventh day. In Genesis, in the beginning, what constitutes completion, God's purpose fulfilled and finished, would not be aligned with the number six, but with the number seven. God reveals to man the importance of the seventh day, which is that on this day, which He made, He rested from all His work. The seventh day, which God had made, was to be blessed and sanctified by God, because on this day He rested from all His work.

The Sabbath day is blessed and sanctified by God. Before Jesus Christ, the deliverer "who tasted death for everyman" so that He could bring "many sons unto glory," the Sabbath day was to be a day where man could rest from his labor. A day set aside where man could worship God. But man, who spent one day a week resting from his toil of the earth, engaged in rituals and worship, could not undo the death penalty imposed upon man, through the disobedience of Adam. Yet God did not leave man without hope. He had prepared a way, where man would no longer have to be dependent on rituals, or sacrifice to be considered acceptable and holy in His sight. A day had been purposed for man, where he could find rest for his soul, trusting completely in the goodness of God.

God had purposed that the seventh day, the Sabbath day, was to be a permanent position, where man could find rest for his soul. Through Jesus Christ, as man was positioned in Him, through the Holy Spirit, the purpose of the Sabbath rest was made complete. Through faith in Jesus Christ, and receiving the Holy Spirit, man could leave behind the realm of toil and sorrow. Man could leave behind the consequences of the choice made by man, Adam, born of the sixth day. Jesus Christ, “who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light” would remove the yoke of bondage imposed upon those born according to the nature of Adam. As man, through faith in Jesus Christ, bore the “express image” of God, the Holy Spirit, he would move out of captivity of the sixth day mentality, and into the light of fullness, purpose and Light that reflects the intent of the seventh day.

> “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.” Hebrews 4:1-3

A man who bears the image of the natural man, Adam, who is born of the sixth day, is a living soul, and until he is born again of the Spirit, so that he bears the image, of the Spiritual man, Jesus Christ, he will not cross over into God’s Sabbath day of rest. It is through faith in God’s beloved Son, the second Adam, Jesus Christ, that God births His good purposes into a man’s life. It is through faith in Jesus Christ that the Holy Spirit, God’s breath of eternal life, will be birthed into a man’s life, so that God is able to lead man into the promised land. It is God’s Spirit moving upon a man’s heart and mind, that will help man understand the purpose of God’s ordained Sabbath day of rest.

God’s perfect works were completed from the foundation of the world. But, until the day that the Son rises in resurrection power within a man’s life, as the Holy Spirit establishes God’s kingdom authority upon a man’s heart and mind, he will remain held captive to the sixth day nature. According to the sixth day nature, a man is a living soul, able to walk upon the earth, but because of unbelief, he is not born again into the kingdom of God’s righteousness.

God, who is invisible, has made manifest through the Spirit, the realm created according to God’s righteousness, power and glory. It is faith, which is able to open the eyes of a man’s heart, so that he can perceive the solid foundation of truth that God has made available to man. Faith is what is required before the heavens will shine down upon a man’s heart, enlightening a man’s vision, so that he rests assured in the perfect goodness of the Lord. The Sabbath rest will be revealed to those who dwell within God’s eternal kingdom of righteousness. The Sabbath rest is a position of trust, where man places his life in the hands of the Savior, knowing absolutely that He is a good and holy God.

> “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” Hebrews 4:10-11

It is Jesus Christ who has opened the door of salvation, so that man could enter into God’s eternal kingdom and obtain rest for his soul. But a man, whose soul has not been embraced by the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, will continue to strive against the goodness of God. He will continue to seek purpose according to the knowledge received through his eyes of unbelief, which denies or distorts the importance of what Jesus Christ accomplished on the cross.

But when the Holy Spirit, God’s Spirit of truth, the eternal Spirit, which no man can extinguish, embraces a man’s soul, he will begin to understand God’s great love and desire toward him. In this understanding, man will be able to place his hope and trust more fully in the perfect goodness of God. As man walks in the fullness of God’s love, he will begin to trust that God’s ways are perfect. As he matures in his relationship with God, trusting more completely in God’s ability to lead, teach, and comfort, his laboring to find purpose in life will cease. As a man rests in the loving embrace of the Father, he will cease striving to obtain purpose according to his nature that was passed down through the sons of men, who live according to the sixth day.

> “All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased. Why criest thou for thine affliction? Thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.” Jeremiah 30:14

A man who walks according to the desires of the natural man born of the sixth day, will continue to rationalize and justify his sins before God and man. Until the Holy Spirit has enlightened the soul of a man, so that he is able to perceive and appreciate God’s eternal kingdom of righteousness, he will continue to find that it is natural to argue and strive against the good purposes of God. A heart that is hardened to the understanding of God’s great love toward man, which cannot comprehend the intimate relationship that is obtained through faith and the infilling of the Holy Spirit, may even become so bold as to demand that his sins be accepted and promoted among men.

A man, who proclaims to know God, but lives according to the desires of the natural man, Adam, may try, for a period of time, to war against thoughts and actions which cause him distress. But, without the Holy Spirit speaking to his heart and mind God’s truth, his attempt to change his sorrow into joy will be futile. He may find, instead of resisting the thoughts and actions that bring him sorrow, that he begins to justify his actions. A man may realize, to a certain degree, that his thoughts that bring him sorrow are aligned to what the Word defines as sin. But because the Holy Comforter has not embraced his soul, the man may begin to justify his sins before man and God. When a man begins to accept and justify his sins, calling darkness, to be light, he will multiply unto himself sorrow and suffering.

For man to willingly embrace darkness, by calling it light, he will multiply unto himself sorrow that flourishes within the darkness. His conscience, which may have once influenced his thoughts so that he sought escape from his bondage to sin, will become defiled by the darkness, so that it will become more and more natural to embrace sin. As his sins are multiplied through his acceptance of sin, so will his sorrow be multiplied. As a man seeks comfort among those like-minded, he will find that he cannot escape the sorrow that continues to cause him suffering. God cannot have any fellowship with the darkness, and any man who willingly embraces darkness, will be left standing outside God’s realm of truth, comfort, and holiness. To stand outside God’s kingdom, is to be overwhelmed with a multitude of thoughts and desires, which are purposed to bring sorrow into a man’s life.

> “For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.” 2 Corinthians 10:12

Jesus Christ was numbered among the transgressors, because the eyes of man were blind to the message God spoke through His life. Men, who bore the image of the natural man, born of the sixth day, proclaimed Jesus was a lawbreaker. Men despised and hated Jesus Christ, because they proclaimed He was not obedient in keeping the rituals or practices of those who considered themselves worthy to be numbered among the tribes of Israel. They proclaimed He was disobedient in His keeping of the Sabbath, and that He taught others to be disobedient. But Jesus Christ knew that the Father had purposed man’s eyes not to perceive the fulfillment of God’s promises being accomplished through His life.

So that God's perfect plan of redemption could be fulfilled, man was kept in blindness. And it was as Jesus Christ was obedient unto death that the way of salvation was established upon the earth. Souls would be redeemed, and lives would be transformed, all through the perfect work accomplished through the life of God's holy Son, Jesus Christ. Those held in subjection to the sixth day nature, who call upon Jesus Christ, would be delivered from out of all their sorrows. As the Holy Spirit was poured out upon children of the earth, men's eyes would be opened to perceive God's kingdom of righteousness. And it is in God's eternal kingdom of Light and righteousness that men's souls will find rest in the perfect knowledge of God's goodness.

666 is the number given to men, who are numbered among those who bear the image of the natural man, Adam. Even though they may profess to know God, they have as yet to receive the infilling of the Holy Spirit. Those numbered among this group have a living soul, in that they breathe and eat, but they do not posses eternal life through the Holy Spirit. Their sins have been multiplied tenfold, and a hundredfold, unto the nature of the first man, born of the sixth day, so that their sorrow has been increased. They may seek escape from their sorrows through rituals, or obedience to laws, but they will find that it is impossible to escape the sorrow that continually pierces their souls. They must turn to Jesus Christ in sincere faith, and receive God's sanctifying Holy Spirit, before they will find the rest that their souls seek.

> "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creation: for by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things and by him all things consist." Colossians 1:13-17

Nothing Comes By Chance

Susan Cummings

To My lost, storm tossed one:

Nothing comes by chance. Everything I designed was created for a reason and a specific purpose. All that I intended for that creation, was placed within that design. All that was given of Myself into that creation, was given freely, and expressed through the life or function of that creation. That is why man is without excuse. Everything that is made, reveals Me within it. There is nothing made that is not without My Witness or Person expressed within it. I AM the Creator, by which all things are made, or will be.

My Word is eternal, and is ever creating, and is ever expressing, and is ever living. There is no time when My Word is not active in your life or around you. There is no time, when there is nothing happening, as you tell Me. I am ever moving in your midst. I am ever bringing forth My Will, My Truth, and My Life into everything around you. You don't see it, because you have taken your eyes off of Me.

You walked away. I didn't. I am always with you. I have never left you or forsaken you. I wait for you each moment, to come to Me, and to spend time with Me, but you are too busy, too distracted, too worried, too tired, too angry, too frustrated, too embattled, too scheduled up to take time to seek Me. You don't want My Input, or you would come and ask Me. You want your way. That is why nothing changes.

Your situation will not change, till you do. When you change, everything else changes. When you allow Me to bring change, it creates a whole release of My wisdom and Life within you and into your situation around you. But until then, you keep death and destruction activated to work it's course, and have given it legal ground to control your future. Being separated from Me, is never without great cost to you. For you were created for Me, and to be with Me, and without Me, you are alone. I cannot bring change, without you embracing Me, and letting Me.

Nothing comes by chance. I know your past, present, and future. I know the day I will take you home to be with Me, if you choose to be My Child. I know the day that you enter hell, if you don't. I know everything about you, for I am your Father. Look around you, and see the fruit of your labors. What are you building? What have you sown and erected that now wars against you?

I AM the only foundation that you were created to be built from. Anything that you build apart from Me, is not of Me, but of the flesh and the fruit of it will affect your life. Return to Me, and I will return to you. I love you and want you to be My Child. I created you for Me. I have loved you from the moment I thought of you, even before I birthed you into the earth. My Love is eternal and is not held back from you. It is freely given to all who want it and who embrace it.

Take heed of your walk, and examine your heart, and change your course. I AM big enough to take care of all that concerns you. There is nothing too hard for Me. My Hand is right next to you, take it, and walk with Me today. I AM the Way, where there is no way. I Am the Door through which all men will enter, into eternal life. I have a future for you, one with Hope and with a Purpose.

Take nothing for granted, not even time. For the time I give to you, is not forever, and you have much yet to do in the earth. This hour is measured, and then it will pass. Soon, time for entering in will be no more, and then I will shut the door. Come to Me.

It is time to take your stand.

-Susan Cummings
9-20-04
11:32 pm

http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords
http://www.xsorbit6.com/users/remnantaflame/index.cgi

Natural Disasters and Shakings

Terry Suggs

Prepare now for the shaking that is about to take place. You must be prayed up and completely ready this time. It could possibly be much worse than I'm saying right now.
There is a great shaking coming soon. People of this world are already suffering in different places around the world. Now, it could get worse for them.
Please pray as if it is happening right now. Pray like you are in the middle of the worse disaster right now, because some of us don't pray for God to intervene until something major happens. Prayer can change everything.

Look Higher! Look Deeper!
Look Farther!
Jesus In Us
Terry Suggs

Because of the way we were taught the Word of God in the years gone by, we have a consciousness of inferiority and weakness and uncertainty. But Jesus spoke to us by His word and His life. He (Jesus) (the Son of God) lived as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, and born of God. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost Jesus came to restore the earth and the people of the earth. His acts of restoration were demonstrated in the times when He healed everyone that was sick. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost He opened blind eyes, He healed lepers, He raised the dead; as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, He walked on water and spoke to storms and made them cease. Jesus did everything by miracles or by just speaking. He spoke the Word only.
His words did the work. When He raised Lazarus, He spoke the word.
Before satan stole our position as the ones with authority over all the earth, Adam was doing the same thing. Adam did everything by speaking.
Jesus has restored us to our position.
Jesus always talked and operated on a higher level than man. His faith was perfect.
He spoke with authority and whatever He spoke came to pass.
He said to Peter to come to Him on the water, when He did this, He was saying: "you see what I'm trying to tell you. I want you to see that you are in authority and dominion over the earth. I'm here to show you that you can do what I am doing. I'm here to restore the position of man that Adam lost to satan. When you are Mine and in Me, all things are possible; just believe. As a man that knew Who He was and filled with the Holy Ghost, and full of power as well as anointed, and overshadowed with glory and honor, He healed the deaf and dumb, the crippled.
When Jesus lived as a man, He could only be in one place are a time.
Jesus said, " I must go away to the Father, so that the comforter of Holy Ghost can come and live in you."
In the last days I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. Now Jesus (all of God in His fullness) lives in the body of Christ. Jesus said; the just shall live by faith. Jesus said, if you have the faith as a grain of mustard seed, (speaking the word in faith is the same as sowing a seed in the ground), you can speak to a mountain and say be plucked up and removed and be cast into the sea and not doubt, you shall have, you shall have, what you say, what you say believing. The mountain will obey you.
Since now faith is the substance and the evidence, then today is the day for what you are expecting. You have it now, today.
Eternity is a place without time. It is the eternal now.
Whatever you are believing for is right now in the eternal now.
God's word is His life. His word is spontaneously creative.
By His stripes you were healed. Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth and you shall be saved. Jesus and Peter were not limited by gravity when they walked on the water, because Jesus word was spontaneously active and Jesus had authority over gravity and water.
Jesus was not limited by weather conditions, by time, by space, or by man-made traditions. These boundaries were not boundaries to Him.
Jesus used two fish and five loaves to feed thousands and afterwards there were left- overs.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. He was not bound by natural laws.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. Jesus spoke with authority when He spoke to the tree saying: No man shall eat your fruit from this day on. Jesus words carried so much power that what He said manifested spontaneously. If Jesus had spoken in the middle of the night and said let it be daylight, the sun would have been shining in that instant.

Jesus is telling us that all the things He did, we will do and even greater works shall we do, because He went to the Father.

Faith dispels fear, faith makes you whole, it produces righteousness, faith justifies, it heals the sick and faith grows. Faith knows no defeat.

Jesus is operating in perfected faith. He has absolute confidence in His own power or being.

Jesus did not come to make you sick or condemn you. He said have Faith in God. Faith manifests substance and evidence. The faith of God is what Jesus used. He said to the disciples and to the believers, have the faith of God. Believe like God believes and have what God would have.

Nothing by any means can harm you. No weapon formed against you shall prosper. The enemy will come one way and flee seven ways. The word will never return empty. It will obtain and manifest what it was directed to and sent to do. He sent His Word and healed them.

Take no thought for your life; what you will eat, drink or wear. It is not by power or by might, but by My Spirit says the Lord.

Jesus is 100% honest, faithful, 100% trustworthy and pure in every aspect of His Being. Jesus is perfect love. Jesus is telling us to do the works that He did.

We have been restored to the Father's household. We are the inheritors of all things. He held nothing back from us. If God spared not His own Son, how much more with Him shall He also freely give us all things.

Do you see what you were restored to? The kingdom of God has no boundaries. Jesus came that we may have life and have it more abundantly. Jesus came that our joy may be full.

In His Kingdom, that now is at hand, there is all faith, all healing, all grace, all love, all power, all wisdom, all spiritual blessing, all light, and all victory.

For the whole creation (all nature) waits expectantly and longs earnestly for God's own sons to be made known (waits for the revealing, the disclosing of their sonship. That nature itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and corruption (and gain and entrance) into the glorious freedom of God's children. We know that the whole creation (of irrational creatures) has been moaning together in the pain of labor until now.

When we pray or talk to God the Father we are talking to the Creator of the universe and everything that lives in it.

When His Word is spoken it is like a missile launched to a target. Nothing can prevent it from reaching its intended result or accomplishing its objective. God fills all things and upholds all things with the Word of His power.

Look farther! Look deeper! Look higher! God is unlimited. Time belongs to Him. History belongs to Him. The universe belongs to Him.

God is in us as born-again Christians. We have the more than a conqueror living in us. Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. He is our righteousness, our wisdom, our provider, our refuge, our peace, and our strength. He is all and in all. Everything that there is in existence came out of Him. He is sovereign. Our inner man is Jesus.

In the book of Ezekiel the 36th chapter, Jesus spoke of a new spirit that He is putting in us.

Our old spirit has been replaced with the spirit of Christ.

It is Christ in you. If any man is in Christ, He is a new creation. We are being changed from glory to glory. We are delivered from being subjected to infirmity, from sickness, from diseases, from poverty, from bondage, from fear, from uncertainty, and the control of satan in our media, our political system, our judicial system, our business world, and the corporate world. The kingdom of God is at hand. The kingdom of God is in you now.

As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.

Every empire that dominated the world outside of God's control has failed and will fail.

They are designed to fail.

God's word declared and established that, of the increase of the kingdom of God, there shall be no end. The kingdom of God is fail proof. It will never fail.

The gates of hell cannot stop or hinder the body of Christ as we operate in Jesus authority.

With God there is no time, so whatever you are saying in faith and expecting already exists. Like healing, and miracles.

We carry the same power and same spirit that Jesus carried on earth. We operate in His authority in this present world. His disciples demonstrated this in their lives after Jesus left.

We are put in a position now where we are all facing the same principalities that Michael fought against in the book of Daniel.
We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against demons of spiritual rulers of t he darkness of this world. There are principalities over cities and nations. In the book of Daniel Michael was one of the chief princes of God. He was one of many.
He was withstood by another that was a prince over Persia.
For this reason we are to wear the whole armour of God. And we are to trust in the God of the armour. We can move these principalities with the armour of God and with our faith. The flesh profits nothing. The only effective method is by following the spirit of God.
Let us not cheapen true Christianity by not living in the fullness of what is given to us freely by faith through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Some are standing on the outskirts of the real life of God. They are content in just looking at the truth from a distance. Maybe in Jesus day, some of the people were watching Him from a distance and were really not getting the message that He preached.
Let us not forfeit God’s best given to us.
Look Higher! Look Deeper! Look farther!
When we look into the scripture, we are looking into a spiritual mirror, we are seeing our inner man. The inner man is the very image and likeness of God.
Look to the hills from which comes our help.
Deep calls unto deep.
Set you affections on things above.
If you make your bed in hell, He is there. If you went to the uttermost or deepest part of the universe, He is there.
We are only at the edge of the glory. But it is beyond comprehension now. In this time in our human history, God is releasing a great increase of knowledge and glory.
Jesus said in John 16:33:
I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have (perfect) peace and confidence, In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer (take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted)! For I have overcome the world. (I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you).

The New Creature
Becoming the Word of God
Terry Suggs

Look into God’s mirror (His Word) and see who we really are and what we really are. Look at Jesus’ life.
When It says that God finished His work in the book of Genesis. The only work that It describes was God speaking things into existence. By the creative word He brought everything into existence. Adam did everything by speaking. Jesus did the works of God by speaking and acting in the Father’s authority. We are doing the works of God by speaking to our circumstances and situations and diseases in the authority of Jesus.
Lean not to your own understanding. Go by what God says about you.
You are a new creation. The new creation came from God. Jesus was the first born of many brethren of this kind. We are born-again by the Holy Spirit entering our spirit after we receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior and Lord. We are also sealed by the Holy Spirit.
The new creation is superior to the devil in every way. The devil wants to deceive and blind us to this truth. Greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.
There is no separation between God and us. We are seated in heavenly places in Christ. That is why we can lay hands on the sick and they recover. That is why we can cast out devils in the name (authority and character) of Jesus.
That is why we can speak to a mountain and it can be moved.
We are eternally new creatures with the ability of the Holy Spirit operating in us.
In Jesus life on earth He showed us what a new creature looks like. He said, these works and even greater works shall you do because I Am going to the Father.

Jesus raised the dead, healed every kind of sickness and disease. He cast out spirits of infirmity and demons that had possessed individuals.
Jesus talked to weather and changed it, and walked on water, having authority over the natural elements. He spoke to fish and animals and they obeyed.
I believe that God created Adam with everything that Jesus demonstrated. The first Adam lived in flesh, the second Adam (Jesus) lived in flesh.
Jesus multiplied food when there was not enough physically to feed thousands. Accept His Word as truth and act on it.
Jesus said that He that has seen Me, has seen the Father. He said I Am the vine and you are the branches. In these words, He tells us that we are connected to the Godhead. There is no separation between us. The world needs to see us as God made us to be. The world may be laughing at us while we are following manmade traditions, ceremonies, and having Sunday programs, but when God gets into church (body of Christ), then the world and the devil will stop laughing.

Terry Suggs
Terry Suggs@yahoo.com

The Passion Of The Christ
Terry Suggs

The movie the passion of the Christ is responsible for countless numbers of men and women making decisions to receive Christ into there lives. This particular movie portrayed the gospel message of our Lord in a very clear manner.
I was thinking of how this movie could touch so many lives in a way that thousands upon thousands of churches in over 50 years could not. What is today's church doing? What are the people busying themselves with? I believe that there are some churches that may be involved in other marketing ventures. As in, marketing it's own organization. I believe that some churches today are presenting a prosperity-centered message. Some are involved in politics.
I believe that churches that present a pure gospel message are bringing more people to Christ and into His kingdom than other churches that are giving people other messages.
The churches have never filled up like the movie theatres did when this movie was released. And the impact was self-evident.
In a number of churches I have observed how the people worship musical personalities and they make celebrities of others talented individuals.
I observed programs that emphasize the acting ability of the individuals and singing abilities of singers. There was no clear gospel message.
I believe that the movie the passion of the Christ is bringing us closer to the end of time.
Jesus said that the gospel is to be preached to all of the world and then shall the end come.
This movie has done what the church should be doing as in presenting a clear gospel message.
I still maintain that to be a true Christian is to do the works that Jesus did and even greater works that the works He did.
There is so much untapped power and gifting available to the body of Christ. The word of God says that the fullness of God dwells in the body of Christ. Not many care or really want to know this fullness in Christ. But God is bringing up men and women from different nations that will walk and are walking in His fullness.
I want to call our attention to why the church that has been around for so long and in large numbers has not achieved what the movie has achieved.
It is something to ponder.

Terry Suggs
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com
Crosswinds.org

Operating in the Holy Spirit
Terry Suggs

This generation is hungry for the living God. The Word of God and the Holy Spirit is the only thing that can quench this hunger of the souls and hearts of men and women. The music needs to have a message, no matter how it sounds. They no longer want music that will stimulate the flesh. There is a divine hunger for God placed into the soul of men.

The word of God says that no man can come to God unless the Spirit draws him or her. The Holy Spirit in us draws people to God. Spirit filled Christians creating music can draw men to Christ through their music.

I Corinthians 12:11

All these gifts, achievements, abilities, are inspired an brought to pass by one and the same Holy Spirit, Who apportions to each person individually exactly as He chooses.

II Corinthians 1:13

For we write nothing else but simply what you can read and understand (there is no double meaning to what we say), and I hope that you will become thoroughly acquainted (with divine things) and know and understand (them) accurately and well to the end.

It is a reason for pride and exultation to which our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world (generally) and especially toward you, with devout and pure motives and godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God (the unmerited favor and merciful kindness by which God, exerting His Holy influence upon souls, turns them to Christ, and keep, strengthens, and increases them in Christian virtues.

II Corinthians 1:18-20

As surely as God is Trustworthy and Faithful and means what He says, our speech and message to you have not been yes (that could possibly mean) no, For the Son of God, Christ Jesus (the Messiah), Who has been preached among you by us, by myself, Sylvanus, and Timothy was not yes and no, but in Him (always the divine) Yes!

For as many as are the promises of God, they all find their yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency) to the glory of God.

Music can be a top of the list tool to win the lost when the message is clear.

Hebrews 4:12-13

For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power (making it active, operative, energizing and effective); it is sharper than any two edged sword, penetrating to the dividing line of the breath of life (soul) and the immortal) spirit, and of joints and marrow (of the deepest parts pf our nature) exposing and sifting and analyzing and judging the very thoughts and purposes of the heart.

And not a creature exists that is concealed from His sight, but all things are open and exposed, naked and defenseless to the eyes of Him with Whom we have to do.

We need to pray fervent and sincere prayers for the lost to be saved. Things are going to become worse and worse. People are going to become worse and worse. There will be natural disasters and earth shaking events coming upon this earth. It is time to pray like never before. The souls of men are the priority now. The Lord is drawing men and women into the kingdom like never before.

Hebrews 5:7

In the days of His flesh (Jesus) offered up definite , special petitions (for that which He not only wanted, but needed) and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him Who was (always) able to save Him (out from death, and He was heard because of His reverence toward God (His Godly fear, His piety, in that He shrank from the horrors of separation from the bright presence of the Father) God hears fervent heartfelt and sincere prayer for the lost to be saved.

The kind of prayer that Jesus always prayed was for the lost to be saved and kept from harm. He always prayed for us to become one in Him and the Father.

The prayers of Jesus are recorded in the book of John.

John 17:9-12, 15, 18, 21-23, 26

Now at last they know and understand that all You have given Me belongs You (is really and truly Yours).

For the (uttered) words that You gave Me I have given them; and they have received them ; and they have received and accepted them and have come to know positively and in reality (to believe with absolute assurance) that I came forth from Your presence, and they have believed and belong to You.

I Am praying for them. I Am not praying (requesting) for the world, but for those You have given Me, for they belong to You.

All things (that are) Mine are Yours, and all (things that are) Yours belong to Me; I Am glorified in (through) them. (They have done Me honor; in them My glory is achieved) .

And (now) I Am no more in the world, but these are still in the world, and I Am coming to You. Holy Father, keep in Your Name (in the knowledge of Yourself) those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are one.

While I was with them, I kept and preserved them in Your Name in the knowledge and worship of You. Those You have given Me I guarded and protected, and not one of them has perished or is lost except the son of perdition (Judas Iscariot-the one who is now doomed to destruction, destined to be lost), that the scripture might be fulfilled.
15)I do not ask that You will take them out of the world, but that You will keep and protect them from the evil one.
Just as You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.
21-23)That they may be one, (just) as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that the world may believe and be convinced that You have sent Me.
I have given to them the glory and honor which You have given Me, that they may be one (even) as We are one:
I in them and You in Me, in order that they may become one and perfectly united, that the world may know and definitely recognize that You sent Me and that You have loved them (even) as You have loved Me.

26)I have made Your Name known to them and revealed Your character and Your very Self, and I will continue to make (You) known, that the love which You have bestowed upon Me may be in them (felt in their hearts) and that I Myself may be in them.
Jesus said that all things and all power are in Him. We are a single Spirit in Christ.
I Corinthians 12:6, 12, 13-14
And there are distinctive varieties of service and ministration, but it is the same Lord (Who is served).
For jus as the body is a unity and yet has many parts, and all the parts, though many form only one body, so it is with Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).
For by means of the personal agency of one Holy Spirit we were all, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free, baptized and by baptism united together) into one body, and all made to drink of one Holy Spirit. For the body does not consist of one limb or organ but many.
Hebrews 7:25-27
Therefore He is able also to save to the uttermost (completely, perfectly, finally, and for all time and eternally) those who come to God through Him, since He is always living to make petitions to God and intercede with Him and intervene for them.
He has no day by day necessity, as (do each of these other) high priests, to offer sacrifice first of all for his own (personal) sins and then for those of the people, because He met all the requirements once for all when He brought Himself (as a sacrifice) which He offerd up.
Hebrews 7:12
For I will be merciful and gracious toward their sins and I will remember their deeds of unrighteousness no more.
Isaiah 55:8
For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways says the Lord. For as the Heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts.
For as the rain and snow come down from the heavens, and return not there again, but water the earth and make it bring forth and sprout, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, So shall My Word be that goes forth out of My mouth:
It shall not return to Me void (without producing any effect, useless), but it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.
Remember that the gospel is being preached to every man and woman around the world. The message is presented in different ways. The Word will not return empty.
James 5:7-8
So be patient, brethren (as you wait) until the coming of the Lord.See how the farmer waits expectantly for the precious harvest from the land, (se how) he keeps up his patience (vigil) over it until it receives the early and late rains.
So you also must be patient, establish your hearts (strengthen and confirm them in the final certainty) for the coming of the Lord is very near.

James 5:19-20
My brethren, If anyone among you strays from the Truth and falls into error and another (person) brings him back (to God), Let the (latter) one be sure that whoever turns a sinner from his evil course will save (that one) soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins (procure the pardon of the many sins committed by the convert).

Proverbs 11:30

The fruit of the uncompromisingly righteous is a tree of life, and he who is wise captures human lives (for God, as a fisher of men He gathers and receives them for eternity.

Proverbs 11:25-28

The liberal person shall be enriched, and he who waters shall himself be watered.

The people curse him who holds back grain (when the public needs it) but a blessing (from God and man is upon the head of him who sells it.

He who diligently seeks good seeks God's favor, but he who searches after evil, it shall come upon him.

He who leans on, trusts in, and is confident in his riches shall fall, but the uncompromisingly righteous shall flourish like a green bough.

Proverbs 10:22, 27, 31-32

The blessing of the Lord-it makes (truly) rich, and He adds no sorrow with it (neither does toiling increase it).

The reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord prolongs one's days, but the years of the wicked shall be made short.

The mouths of the righteous (those harmonious with God) bring forth skillful and godly wisdom, but the perverse tongue shall be cut down (like a barren and rotten tree).

The lips of the (uncompromisingly) righteous know (and therefore speaks only) what is obstinately willful and contrary.

Proverbs 12:5, 8

The thoughts and purposes of the consistently righteous are honest and reliable, but the counsels and designs of the wicked are treacherous.

A man shall be commended according to his Wisdom (godly Wisdom, which is comprehensive insight into the ways and purposes of God), but he who is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

Proverbs 12:19,22

Truthful lips shall be established forever, but a lying tongue is (credited) but for a moment.

Lying lips are extremely disgusting and hateful to the Lord, but they who deal faithfully are His delight.

The Holy Spirit is the teacher and our guide in everything that we say do and in what we think.

We cannot do anything apart from Him.

Philippians 4:13

I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me (I am ready for anything an equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self sufficient, in Christ's sufficiency).

Jesus is now operating in perfected faith. He is now living in us. His spirit is leading us into living by perfected faith. His Word does not return void.

When God talked in the beginning, His Words created what we now see. His Words go beyond time and space. His Word was immediately established when He spoke.

II Corinthians 5:10, 14-15

For we must all appear and be revealed as we are before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive (his pay), according to what he has done in the body, whether good or evil (considering what his purpose and motive have been, and what he has achieved, been busy with and given himself and his attention to accomplishing).

For the love of Christ controls and urges and impels us, because we are of the opinion an conviction that (if) One died for all, then all died;

And He died for all, so that all those who live no longer to and for themselves, but to and for Him Who died and was raised again for their sake.

II Corinthians 6:14

Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers (do not make mismated alliances with them or come under a different yoke with them, inconsistent with your faith). For what partnership have right living and right standing with God with iniquity an lawlessness? Or how can light have fellowship with darkness?

I Corinthians 14:40

But all things should be done with regard to decency and propriety and in orderly fashion.

James 3:8-10

But the human tongue can be tamed by no man, it is restless (undisciplined, irreconcilable) evil, full of deadly poison.
With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse men who were made in God's likeness!
Out of the same mouth come forth blessing and cursing. These things, my brethren, ought not to be so.
The Lord wants to reach every person who has not accepted Him as their Lord and Savior. He is patiently waiting for the Church to get the Message to those that have not heard it.
This is the heart of God.
Let the message be crystal clear to this generation. God's Word will be fulfilled.
Acts 2:16-18
And it shall come to pass in the last days, God declares, that I will pour out of My Spirit upon all mankind, and you sons and your daughters shall prophesy (telling forth the divine counsels) and your young men shall see visions (divinely granted appearances), and your old men shall dream (divinely suggested) dreams.
Yes, and on My menservants and also on My maidservants in those days I will pour out of My Spirit, and they shall prophesy (telling forth the divine counsels and predicting future events pertaining especially to God's kingdom).

Prophesying is speaking the divinely inspired Word of God. It is talking like God or God talk. The prophet Joel prophesied or spoke the divinely inspired Word of God.
Terry Suggs
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

New Dimensions Of Faith

Russell Durose

(fapeurope@msn.com)

I am writing this message during a very dark and not understanding the ways of God personally, but this message is the fruit of a searching personally. Many of you read of my accident last week...nearly fatal, and how God saved me, and looking after many details, in which I was home safe and sound...with just a twisted wrist, back pains...leg pains. But praise God, all in one piece. Today after a week of telephoning the mechanic, who repaired the car, adjusting time schedules, payment details, the damage was such that the bill was huge. Today the car was finished...and waiting on God, I got no physical response...indeed I am living a new experience. That is that NO HUMAN BEING CAN BE OUR TRUST AND SOURCE...the Bible talks about this trust in flesh as a cursed spiritual state. But in the "darkness" of my lack of understanding, I had gone to prayer...but not extensive in time but extensive in depth.

The Lord birthed this message in me. Many of you must receive countless messages in your mailboxes, but I ask you to take to heart what I am writing here as opening my heart to a new dimension, imparting it to you also. For I am sure you will come accross situations that will leave you without solution. Here I want to show you at length, what that solution can be from a prophetic and Biblical perspective.

The ressurrection of Jesus is replete with the misunderstandings of the purpose of God. What we see much in Luke is the disciples completely thrown by Jesus' crucifixion. We see them defeated, and whilst we cannot point the finger, because there are occasions where we too thrown into complete ignorance by apparent contrary circumstances. The Lord took me to Luke 24. He showed me the two disciples. He showed me their walk of complete dismay. Indeed their dreams and hopes were shattered. Read it for yourself and see.

Jesus came to them...in His Ressurrected state, in a way that they did not recognise Him. Their eyes were "holden", which is a spiritual act, temporary blindness of understanding. Of comprehension. They saw the Jesus they knew as a STRANGER. Jesus' question was a observation of their vociferous exchange of affirmations. He asked them what was the motive of their conversation in a manner so intense.

Key verse: v21; "But we trusted that it had been He which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done."

Indeed we see their heart...their hopes and dreams, their trust. All shattered...and even though they were 3 days on, their time HAD STOOD STILL...have you ever experienced that? Has your time stood still when you have experienced tragedy, or some other difficult circumstance? Theirs had.

I want you to notice something here. I may have mentioned it before. V19 shows us how these disciples saw Jesus...merely as a PROPHET. By the time Jesus is revealed HE IS NOW LORD. But what a process they must now embark to receive this REVELATION.

It starts by their eyes being holden. It starts by Jesus opening their hearts. Indeed their hearts were full of confusion, doubts and fears. He causes them to share their innermost thoughts and dreams. ~

Jesus then brings them revelation of His Word. His Word is the only light, is the only guidance. He shows THE ETERNAL PURPOSE OF SUFFERING CHRIST, AND THE FRUITS THEREOF. What a marvelous, wonderful and awesome perspective indeed.

How much more in our circumstances, so difficult and so disturbing, do we need that ETERNAL PROPHETIC REVEALING that comes from a source WE STILL DO NOT RECOGNISE. Indeed the Word comes, indeed the small voice does guide, BUT WE HAVE NOT GLIMPSED OUR GLORIFIED LORD! Not yet anyway. Jesus merely lays a foundation to walk into full revelation. Every revelation of Jesus is backed up in the Word. Indeed we must hear Him reveal the why and the fruit of our circumstances. Our circumstances once submitted to Christ must bring forth fruit. Indeed Christ opened up the eternal aspect of His Ministry.

How much more in us! He must open up to us the ETERNAL PLAN FOR US PERSONALLY. It is to save us, mould us and bring us into His Glory more and more through walking the steps of faith. He opens up former situations and shows us where He moved and what purpose.

Then as He is invited into their home, when He broke the bread and their eyes were opened, opened in covenant, there we see Jesus reveal His Glory...how He fulfils, how He initiates His Covenant in us, restoring to faith and hope. Now He is no longer the Prophet, but indeed Lord, because He that withstood such a proving, such a death, He overcame. How much more us, who come through DOUBT, ATTACKS, PERSECUTIONS will also partake of the same glory.

Nets
Wade Taylor

"Now as He walked by the sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him" Mark 1:16-18.

The "net" is whatever we may use to draw to ourselves the fulfillment and satisfaction that we seek.

Simon and Andrew were casting their net to catch fish. When Jesus came, He used words that they could easily understand. He told them that if they would follow Him, He would make them a "fisher" of men.

Notice that Jesus did not say He would show them "how" to fish for men. Rather, He said that He would make them to "become" fishers. The emphasis was not on methodology, but rather on the Lord's desire to draw them to Himself, in order to change them.

"And hast made us unto our God kings and priests, and we shall reign on the earth." Rev 5:10.

The emphasis is on our being made ready to reign, not on the fact of reigning.

Many place great emphasis on the program (net) that is used to accomplish a certain purpose, rather than seeking to develop the ability to rightly use the program. We cannot give what we do not have. Therefore, it is very important that we spend quality time in the presence of the Lord and develop a strong spiritual relationship with Him.

Only then will we "have" in order to "give."

"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." Acts 1:8 KJV.

The word "witnesses" can be translated "sample."

For example, I once asked the salesperson in a large carpet store if I could have a sample of a huge roll of fifteen foot wide carpet. He cut out a piece and handed it to me.

Because he had cut a piece from the end of this carpet, the entire fifteen foot area was lost. But I had asked for a sample. Therefore, he gave me a piece of the real thing, which was costly to him, rather than something that was similar.

Here, the Lord is placing the emphasis on our becoming a "sample" of Himself, developed through an ongoing personal relationship with Him. Often, the emphasis has tended toward two extremes, either "asceticism" or "activity."

In the early church, there were those who became known as "Desert Fathers." They considered the world to be so wicked that they went out into the desert and lived in caves so they could be separated, and as a result become "spiritual."

But Jesus said that we were not to hide our light under a bushel. We are to be in the world, but the world is not to be in us. Rather, our light is to shine before men. We are to become a "witness" of the life and ministry of Jesus by becoming a "sample" of Him, a piece of the real thing in the place of need.

The president of a Bible school had a reputation for being a very spiritual man. A student decided he would find out if this was true. He went to the president's office and began fumbling with a bottle of ink and then "accidentally" spilled some on the president's suit.

The president began to get agitated, as he had cautioned him to be careful with the ink. But he gained his composure, smiled and said it was alright. Soon, the ink disappeared, as it was made to do this and was harmless. The student then told him he was just checking to see if he were as spiritual as others said, and left satisfied.

In our becoming a sample, or a "demonstration" of the presence and power of the Lord, there will be many occasions in which it will be easy to be otherwise. Jesus said, "I will make you to become." This is a processing of the Lord to prepare us to rightly respond in these situations. Thus, those who are to rule are presently being prepared for this purpose.

As we allow the cross to become effective in our lives, and we die to our feelings and reactions, and allow Jesus be seen through our lives, we will indeed begin to catch "fish."

The other extreme is "doing." To many, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is considered to be "power for service." These place the emphasis on going out to do witnessing, which may result in running without the message.

Peter probably heard the word "fishing" and did not realize all that he was about to experience in being "processed" to become the witness that the Lord intended him to be.

When Peter told the Lord that he would die for Him, Jesus responded that instead he would deny Him. Peter reacted, but soon learned differently. We tend to promise the Lord many things, which we are incapable of doing. But the Lord has provided a way for us to go beyond these cycles of failure - "follow Me and I will make you to become."

As we allow the Lord to do a deep work within our lives in cleansing and purifying our motives, we are changed, as the "power" renovates and recreates our lives to reflect His life. Only then there will be nothing in us to react.

It has been said that no one can "get our goat" unless we have one. As a child, I remember how kids would tease and pick on certain other children. Later I came to understand that these were being picked on because they reacted. The greater the reaction, the more they were picked on, as other kids enjoyed the reaction.

The enemy of our spiritual life also does this. When we react to dealings or problems, and put on a show, the enemy gathers to enjoy our reaction. But if we have our feet on the Rock, and understand that we are being processed, the enemy will be defeated and will leave, as there will be no reaction to enjoy. Jesus said, "for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me." John 14:30b.

In effect, Acts 1:8 reads, "You will receive power...to become." The desire of the Lord is to so change us that only His life will be seen. Therefore, all we need do is to say, "Lord, I am available and willing to receive."

Only then will we become the "message" that people will respond to; our lives so changed by the power of God, that His presence and blessings are evident.

Wade E. Taylor http://www.wadetaylor.org

New Awakening

James Collard

2004 - "I See A New Awakening"

I see a new awakening. His Spirit being poured out upon His people, those He predestinated before the foundation of the world to be His chosen few who would stand and fight for Him in this very hour. THIS is the time spoken of by the prophets. A great moment in history. None like it, nor shall be ever again. Set before Him as precious stones, were we all told of our mission, our glory, our destiny. O, that we were faithful to hear His voice and listen with our spiritual ears!

This day shall we rise to proclaim His Name in victory! The year 2004 shall be one of victory. The lowly shall be exalted, the haughty shall be brought down. Their shame made known to a world once held spellbound by their deeds.

The years of preparation are now at work within His people. In intimacy, has He spoken to me of His desire for me, for the work set before me. "Do not falter little one, for there is a great reward for you, both in this life and in the next...for all eternity."

James Collard
brotherjames@putintowords.com

New Doors In 2004
Chuck Pierce

Leap Forward! New Doors In 2004:
A 29-Day Prayer Focus by Chuck D. Pierce
(www.glory-of-zion.org)
I hope each one of you received my 2003 year end article, “The Year of Revelation, Mysteries, Secrets and Surprises.” If not, you may go to http://www.glory-of-zion.org/news20031213.htm. I wrote this article at the “Head of the Year.” We are currently in the Hebrew year 5764. Do not forget this is the third year of seven years of war over God’s covenant blessings manifesting in the earth realm. This is a year of secrets being revealed, mysteries being disclosed, and surprises from God entering your path. Expect your enemy to be surprised this year. The entire article has much revelation for us to process throughout the year. We are now well into the year 2004. As the Lord began to awaken me at 4 AM during the month of December, the Spirit of God guided me to read all the Chapter 4s in the Bible.

THE NUMBER FOUR (4)

The number “4” is important for us to understand prophetically. Four denotes God’s creative works. This number is related to material completeness, or many resources taking a new form. This is a year that we must relate to the land, the world around us, and especially our city or territory. This is a year that God will be doing things so that heaven will begin to manifest in the earth realm.

Four is the number for the great elements (earth, air, fire and water), the regions of the earth (north, south, east, west), the divisions of the day (morning, noon, evening, midnight), the number of seasons (spring, summer, autumn, winter), and the four phases of the moon. Four also marks division. Four is the first number that can be evenly divided by a number other than one or itself. Therefore, this will be a year that we see division in order to bring about a completeness of God’s purposes by the end of this seven year season.

Because God is dealing with world structure s in 2004, watch for certain religious structures in our present day society to divide. Watch for political parties to become polarized with many accusations. Watch for earth boundaries to be reshaped and reestablished so God’s covenant purposes can be accomplished.

UNDERSTANDING LEAP YEAR

When I was ministering at the beginning of the year the Spirit of God spoke to me and said, “I will extend time so you can win your battle.” I thought, “What does this mean?” Immediately what came to mind was the passage in Joshua 10 where the Israelites battled with Adoni-Zedek, who had formed a confederacy of four kings to attack the Gibeonites. As they are going into battle, Joshua spoke to the Lord and then commanded the sun and the moon to stand still over Gibeon.

This is a great example of hearing God and then commanding the atmospheric elements to align with God’s will. The extended or delayed sunset allowed Israel to have revenge on their enemies. This made me think of 2004 which is a LEAP YEAR. In a Leap Year, one day is added every fourth year in the month of February. This makes the length of the year agree with the course of the sun.

Most years ending in "00" are not leap years, but those divisible by 400 (including 2000) are. The Julian calendar, authorized by Julius Caesar in 46 B.C., assumed that the year had 365 1/4 days, with a 366-day leap year added every fourth year. Therefore, the month of February in a Leap Year has 29 days. In A.D. 730, an Anglo-Saxon monk, the Venerable Bede, calculated that the Julian year was 11 minutes and 14 seconds too long, an error of about one day every 128 years. But nothing was done about it for 800 years.

In 1582, the accumulated error was estimated at 10 days, and Pope Gregory XIII decreed that the day following Oct. 4 would be Oct. 15. To make future adjustments for the error (about three days every 400 years), it was decided that years ending in "00" would be common years rather than leap years -- except those divisible by 400. So 1600 and 2000 were leap years, but 1700, 1800 and 1900 were not.

God is saying, “Leap!” To leap means you will go through a sudden transition. To leap also means that you will become agile by moving oneself suddenly from the ground by using your leg muscles. Leap also means to jump or pass over or cause or force something else to make this move, the act of leaping or springing, the distance covered in a jump or a place that is to be jumped over or jumped from.

The Lord is releasing supernatural grace and favor so we can contend with our enemies and overthrow strategies of hell that would stop us from advancing.

Psalm 18:28-29 says, “For you will light my lamp; the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness. For by You I can run against a troop; by my God I can leap over a wall.” Not only can we leap over a wall, but I keep seeing a door.

And the Lord says, “I can release an anointing in you so you receive supernatural strength, leap over every obstacle and position yourself to go through the door of opportunity that I have for you this year. Fear not the enemies on the other side of the door. For you will leap through the door and tread upon the enemy’s head.”

SEE YOUR DOORS IN 2004

I want to focus on this “DOOR” theme for 2004. In other words, SEE YOUR DOORS IN 2004. As I mentioned in my last letter, I started the year off by reading all the Chapter “4s” in the Bible. In Genesis 4, I noticed the first mention of the word “door.” I liked this word. God quickened it to me, it rhymed with “four,” and I knew it was a word for the year. Also, Revelation 4 began with this word “door.”

A door is an opening for entering and leaving. It is the essential part of the house. A door represents a pivotal place or season. A door swings on hinges, distinguishing this portion of a structure from the entire building. We find in John 10 that the Lord says, “I AM the DOOR.” The Lord showed me these doors for the year by phases.

First Phase: He said this was a time to SHUT some doors. In Gen. 4, the Lord tells Cain that unless he worships Him acceptably, sin will be at his door. We need to be sure we shut the door to sin and certain seasons this year.

Second Phase: He said that this would be a time He would begin to form new doors before our eyes. Watch for your opportunities to enter into new dimensions, investments, and creative abilities.

Third Phase: This is a time to go through the doors. He gave me the verse from 1 Cor. 16: 9 where He told Paul that “there is an effective door of ministry.” He said that this door was wide open and had many adversaries behind it. However, we are not to look at the adversaries but we are to look at the favorable opportunity for our work to expand.

Fourth Phase: Revelation 4:1 says, “After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven, and the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, ‘Come up here and I will show you things which must take place after this.’” I felt the Lord impress me that this year our future can be established.

A door standing open in heaven means prophetic revelation. Once prophetic revelation is released you have vision. With vision a people prosper and succeed and establish God’s covenant plan in the generations ahead. Based upon our faith, I believe He will accelerate time for you through these phases.

This first quarter let’s focus on SHUTTING DOORS. At times, this is one of the most difficult processes of life. Sometimes, I think it takes more faith to shut a door than it does to go through a new door. Many people try to go forth into the new without shutting or bringing closure to certain issues in their life.

Shutting doors is linked with ending a season or relationship, leaving one assignment without really knowing what’s ahead, or the death process of transition. Many times we keep looking at what we lost in the last season and we are blinded to what God is trying to give us now or how He’s trying to illuminate our path leading to our future. And I believe this is what really prevents us from moving into our new place.

Ask God to give you grace to release, let go and shut some doors. Make a list of the doors you need to shut, doors that are in transition, doors that you know the Lord wants to remain open in your life, and then the new doors that you see forming.

It was customary in the Word of God to fasten the “WORD” in a small case to the door of a house. We find this principle in Deuteronomy 6:4-9 and 11:13-21. Let Him show you the Word that is standing at your door. He is ready to illumine our path and lead us in a new way. Psalm 119:105 says His Word is a lamp to your feet and a light to your path. SHUT THOSE DOORS HE IS SAYING TO SHUT AND RECEIVE NEW STRENGTH TO ADVANCE!

GET READY TO RUN WITH THE HORSES

Jeremiah 12:5 in the Amplified says, “If you have raced with men of foot and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses? And if you take to flight in a land of peace where you feel secure, then what will you do [when you tread the TANGLED MAZE OF JUNGLE, HAUNTED BY LIONS] in the swelling of the Jordan?”

This is a key scripture for us to understand this year. Jeremiah was upset because there was much confusion in Jerusalem. Josiah had brought many reforms but had ended up losing his life prematurely. Jeremiah was really questioning the Lord over why certain things were happening. You might have begun the year by questioning the Lord over why certain situations have seemed so difficult. The Lord told Jeremiah that what he had been going through was preparation for the future. If you have had difficulty coping with certain situations this past year to the extent that you have been distracted from pressing in to all that the Lord was telling you to press into, you will never be able to move into this next dimension of conflict. You are on the verge of “crossing over” into your inheritance. Don’t let the roaring lions around you cause you to turn back. The enemy has a roar that would try to prevent you from moving into the portion that God has allotted for you, but you have a ROAR greater than the enemy’s! Let the Lord fill you with new joy and produce new strength within you.

DON’T GIVE UP YOUR VINEYARD! IF YOU LEAP THEN EXPECT TO REAP

In conjunction with the above, this is the time for us to get things into material order so that we can reap a harvest and enter into a new dimension of our inheritance. With that, the Lord quickened the following verse to me from 1 Kings 21. In this chapter, Ahab wanted to add Naboth’s vineyard to his own palace grounds. Naboth refused by saying, “The Lord forbids me that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers.” This caused Ahab to be depressed. Jezebel then rose up and contrived a legal process producing Naboth’s and his family’s death. This vile act was the final judgment blow upon Ahab’s kingdom.

Do not allow the enemy’s plan to successfully take your inheritance this year. Watch for legal entanglements. Know that if the enemy comes in … the Lord will raise up a standard on your behalf. Develop a watch and prayer strategy around that which is under your stewardship. On a national level, the enemy would love to take this vineyard. Let’s stand watch and do our part by voting for righteousness to continue to arise, which is a prophetic act representing our prayer life for this land. Leap up on the wall that has been resisting you! Throw that Jezebel, controlling spirit off the wall, and secure your inheritance!

This is a good year. The number 29 signifies “departure.” A door is a place for leaving as well as entering. There are some things we need to leave behind. Make a list of the doors you need to shut. Then see certain doors in your life that are still forming and indicate a transition. List the doors you know the Lord wants to remain open in your life, and then the new doors that you see forming. He may accelerate time for you.

These phases may occur over and over in your situations like the monthly phases of the moon, or the Lord might just take you through the quarters of the year as He develops His plan for your life. Pivot and go through the door. Develop new strength to run the race ahead. Seek Him like never before, and all things will be added to you. Leap forward this month and you will find yourself moving in the perfect will of God! Blessings, joy and strength all year long! Chuck D. Pierce

29 DAY PRAYER FOCUS TO LEAP THROUGH THE DOOR

Day 1: Read Psalm 29. In these 29 days, hear His voice so your wilderness breaks.

Day 2: Read Proverbs 29, especially vs. 18. Ask God for a window of prophetic revelation to open.

Day 3: Read Jeremiah 29, especially vss. 11-14. The Lord has a plan for your prosperity and success.

Day 4: Read Genesis 4. Worship the Lord in a new way, and shut every door to jealousy and sin.

Day 5: Read Genesis 13. Relationships are changing. Ask God to have you depart from strife and contention so you can inherit the promise God has for you.

Day 6: Read Deuteronomy 4, especially vs. 9. Ask the Lord to quicken a word of obedience in your heart.

Day 7: Read Joshua 1. Ask the Lord to fix your mind (meditate) upon the promise He has for you ahead. Develop a success mentality.

Day 8: Read Joshua 2. Know that the Lord has ‘help’ prepared on your road ahead.

Day 9: Read Joshua 3. Sanctify thyself. That means get rid of anything that could hinder you from crossing over into your promise.

Day 10: Read Joshua 4. Worship and pray for your generational connections. Establish a place of worship.

Day 11: Read Joshua 5. Circumcise your heart and roll away any reproach from the past.

Day 12: Read Ezra 4. Do not allow the enemy’s resistance to keep you from moving toward restoration.

Day 13: Read Nehemiah 4. Find your place in the gap and on the wall. Listen carefully for the Lord’s trumpet. Review your weapons of war and keep building.

Day 14: Read Esther 4. Fast today! (Let God choose your fast.) Ask the Lord to have you commit to find your place corporately and help the Body fight against their enemy. Find your place in a corporate prayer meeting, whether it be at work or in church. Be willing to boldly enter in to the King’s Throne Room.

Day 15: Read Jeremiah 11. Ask the Lord to reveal any covenant breaking plan the enemy has devised against your life.

Day 16: Read Jeremiah 12. Ask the Lord to give you strength to “contend with the horses” and withstand the roar of the lion, your adversary. Let the roar of God arise in you and be determined to cross over your Jordan.

Day 17: Read Matthew 4. Close the door to Satan’s temptations.

Day 18: Read Luke 4. Declare that you are coming out of your wilderness, anointed for God’s future plan.

Day 19: Read Matthew 7, especially vss. 7-12. Ask, knock, seek, and receive.

Day 20: Read Acts 1. Receive Kingdom power to begin a new season. Get to know the Holy Spirit in a new way.

Day 21: Read Acts 2. Ask the Lord to remove everything in your life that would hinder the Holy Spirit from filling you new and fresh.

Day 22: Read Acts 3. Rise up, walk forward, leap forth, change your mind, and enter into times of refreshing.

Day 23: Read Habakkuk 1. Habakkuk means “embrace.” To embrace means to let go and grab hold of something with all your passion. Ask the Lord about certain things that have hindered you in the past, and then receive a watchman anointing so you can peer into what God has for you in the future.

Day 24: Read Habakkuk 2. Review your vision and write it plainly.

Day 25: Read Habakkuk 3. Ask God for a revived heart. Sing the wonderful hymn of faith from verses 17-19. Look down at your feet and see that God is giving you hind’s feet to leap on high places.

Day 26: Read Ruth 1. Be willing to be like Ruth, leave your past, and make covenant new and fresh to follow after the Lord’s purpose. Review your relationships. Make sure you are devoted to those that you plan on walking with in the future.

Day 27: Read Ruth 2. Be willing to glean and serve so you can reap in the future. Look for your redemptive relationships.

Day 28: Read Ruth 3. Be willing to shift so you can secure your inheritance. Leave your garment of grief from the past behind and ask God to take you down to your threshing floor. Submit yourself new and fresh to the Lord.

Day 29: Read Ruth 4. Let God’s redemptive plan begin to work in a new way. “And may He be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher …” In other words, may He retrieve, reverse and return seven-fold that which you have lost.

Note: Whenever you receive this prayer focus, you may want to print it out and date each day. I am including my schedule through February on www.glory-of-zion.org I hope to see some of you at places that I minister. Pastor Dutch Sheets and I continue on our 50 State Tour.

Please pray for our families and staffs. Ask the Lord to keep us focused to His will for each state. I appreciate you more than you will ever know. May His favor and blessings rest upon you. To assist me in accomplishing this ministry, you may send your donations made payable to Glory of Zion International to PO Box 1601, Denton TX 76202 or call (888) 965-1099 with MC or Visa.

Newness In 2004

Shirley Lise

riverpub@sgci.com
January 5, 2004

The up and coming new year will bring "newness" into the hearts and lives of many. I am opening up the Heavens above those who are looking up. I am opening up the floodgates. I am opening doors that no one is able to close. 2004 will usher in the promises given to such a degree that those who have waited upon the Lord for their fulfillment will stand in awe.

2004 will bring in a harvest, that which has been invested in, in 2003. More and more doors will be unlocked and those who have been in captivity will be released. Even prison doors will open, and those who have been behind bars will be ushered out. It will be a year of jubilee for many, where unpaid debts will read "paid in full."

2004 will usher out the old and usher in the new in many arenas, especially those having to do with opportunities to enter the business world. I will qualify those of my choosing for the ministry, for street work, for evangelism, for the arts, and for the marketplace as a creative anointing is released upon those who carry My heart.

Burdens will be lifted as the eyes of many look up to Me. They will see Me as their provider, as the One who supplies all their needs. Those who have wondered where the next paycheck would come from will find that they are ushered into a position of receiving, that doors of opportunity in the work force will automatically open before them.

2004 will continue to be a year of transition for many. Some will leave home to follow the Lord into ministries opening up to them overseas . Others will relocate. More and more will find that they are "released" to go where the Lord would send them.

In 2004 you will see a greater emphasis on mobilization, moving out of the comfort zone and into unity with others headed in the same direction. Like flood waters, I will sweep My troops through the land to occupy what has been enemy territory. I will announce and pronounce judgment upon the wicked. I will bring order where there has been chaos in the lives of many, for I am setting a standard of holiness within their midst. I am entering the camp of the enemy, destroying his arsenal of weaponry, breaking the strongholds, and setting the captives free.

Year 2004 will usher in the "opening of doors" into the homes and lives of those who would be brought out of slavery and into the light of Christ. I am doing a work, says the Lord, that will not be forgotten. In the next few months you will recognize a change in the lives of those who you have stood in the gap for as I move you into a prime position of "being a light" to them in the darkness around them. The light shall overtake the darkness.

Year 2004 will be a year of rejoicing for those who have put their trust in Me, says the Lord, for I shall open the Heavens above them and shower them with abundant blessing, in the natural realm, and then in the realm of the spirit, as the promises long-waited for come into perspective. Expect a great move of My Spirit in your life and in the lives of those round about you. Things will never be the same again after year 2004. Triumph and rejoice!

Press In To Me
Shirley Lise

riverpub@sgci.com
January 9, 2004

Venture on in the things laid out to you. Move forward in the call. Step out of the comfort zone and into the comfort of knowing that I have gone on before you to make a way.

I will build upon what I have already shown you. Your efforts will be rewarded over and above what you could have thought or imagined. I am moving you on and out of the familiar and I will assign projects to you that will thrill your heart. You will recognize that I have called you to new and exciting endeavors, that you are not housebound, but that I have lifted the stigma put upon you by ungodly men and that I am moving you into new areas of expertise.

I have instituted My law within you heart. You need no one to teach you the things of My Spirit. Lo, I am with you and I shall walk you out. Do not grieve the passing away of the old. Do not let it get a grip on you. I am moving you out, away from the familiar, and plunking you into the new. Old mindsets will crumble. Old ways will fall away. All those things that would weigh you down are being removed. I am breaking you away from those things that would command attention and taking you into a fresh stream of My river. Walk with Me and do not turn around and turn back. I am taking you into the promised land, into the fulfillment of all promises made to you. I am leading you on and into the inheritance that awaits you. I am leading you on and into your destiny.

Press in to Me and I will speak life to your mortal bones. I will give you a glimpse of what I have in store. I will show you things to come. I will increase within you till you are able to stand strong through the greatest storms. I will fill you with love and compassion, with fervor and passion. You will not sit idle. I will parade you forward as My vessel of choice, as one I have chosen to carry My heartbeat. Press in and press on to the prize. You will see that I have not denied you access, but that I have opened wide the doors for you to be escorted through and into your inheritance.

Walk with Me. Talk with Me. Spend time with Me and you will see that I have, indeed, prepared you for great things. Those who once rose up against you will no longer be able to hold you back. Rid yourself of worry. Do not look to those who are in your midst. Do not listen to their ill report. Keep focused on Me and you will see wonders.

Bring to Me the full tithe. Bring your whole life to Me and let Me change you into that which will accurately represent Me. I will change your heart and give you My heartbeat.

Now is the Time to Press!

Kriston Couchey

In the time of distraction, weakness, failure and seeming defeat it is time to press on. It is the time of greatest pressure and resistance that perseverance pays off. The enemies plan is to wear out and (dis)courage you. But be strong and of good courage. Do not be weary in well doing, for you will soon reap a harvest if you do not faint.

Set your face as a flint to maintain and stand in the place you have been given to stand. Do not fear the things that might happen. Press in for that which is promised. Then the God of peace will crush the adversary under your feet.

Don't let the resistance from even loved ones deter you from laying hold of the promises. This is a season of testing that will prove your faith(fullness). Don't be alarmed by your own weakness and failure, but look to Me and my ability to be what you cannot be.

The just shall live by faith and will enter the land if they will only believe.

Kriston Couchey kcouchey@juno.com

North Korea

Romy Zarit

North Korea: I Will "Tear Down That Wall" 20 Apr 2004 Earlier Articles:

Within prison walls - North Korea http://www.injesus.com/Groups/ViewMessage.cfm?MessageId=8A0089LJ&UCD=zs3

North Korea: Another Holocaust -- Kathie Walters http://www.injesus.com/Groups/ViewMessage.cfm?MessageId=4B006GGC&UCD=rz2

The Glory of God in South Korea -- Joe Cicchino http://www.injesus.com/Groups/ViewMessage.cfm?MessageId=2B006GGC&UCD=rz2

The Lord Said He Is Going To "Tear Down That Wall"

It was the first time my husband or I had ever been to a Christian Korean fellowship. My husband, Steven, had been teaching, and then he invited the Holy Spirit to come and minister to all who needed a touch from the Father's hand. There was a great sense of anticipation in the room. Each person there, mostly young people in their twenties and thirties, was ready and poised for the Holy Spirit to move upon them. No one left either of the two services disappointed. The Lord came in a tender and healing way and brought freedom to His children.

By My Own Hand

As I sat there worshipping with our Korean brethren, the Holy Spirit quickened my heart and clearly told me that He was going to "tear down that wall." My first thought was to a very vivid picture in my mind of former President Ronald Reagan, using that exact same phrase, while addressing another dictator during his own time in the Oval Office. It came to pass, and when it did, it happened in a day! The Lord spoke clearly to me a second time, just moments later, and told me that He was going to "tear down that wall" between North Korea and South Korea sovereignly, and that the brutal dictator of North Korea, Kim Jong-il, would be removed from power by His Own hand.

A Comforting Word To North (and South) Koreans

You can probably imagine how thrilled and amazed I was when I heard this from the Lord that Sunday morning nearly two months ago. I shared this with the worship leader who said it would answer the ongoing, day-and-night prayers of millions of people. I knew he was thinking to himself, "I pray this is truly a word from the Lord," even though he looked rather incredulous while he was listening to me as I shared this revelation with him.

I pray that this revelation will bring comfort and hope to millions of Korean brothers and sisters in Christ -- great comfort, and even greater hope that the Lord has heard and is going to answer the continual cries of His people calling out to Him night and day to intervene in the desperate situation taking place daily in North Korea, where just being a believer can mean your immediate execution, imprisonment, and unspeakable torture.

Believe and Intercede!

I believe we are going to see this happen, even as we saw the Berlin wall come down in a day and the former Soviet Union fall. I also believe this can be hastened if the saints begin to pray without ceasing for North Korea and believe the Lord that it will happen, even as it did when the saints prayed over the wall that separated Germany to fall and for freedom for the entire former Soviet Union. If we believe that the Lord will save Israel in a day as the scripture says, then surely we can believe the Lord to save these precious people, suffering so terribly in North Korea today, under the rule of another heinous dictator, by pummeling the heavens through our intercession.

--Romy Zarit www.gracemusicgroup.com

No Merchandising

Gaylene Womack

This being the week of celebrating Passover, the Lord showed me a vision (didn't need interpretation) as a word of knowledge or prophecy. The vision was a merchandising table set up at a church and a spark of fire hit it but the sellers ignored that spark and kept selling. Maybe a minute later another spark hit the table and still the sellers didn't respond. Then immediately a consuming fire hit the table and destroyed everything.

The Lord said, My house is not to be a house of merchandise but a house of prayer and I shall begin to come to those that proclaim their houses to be My houses and bring swift judgment when they reject the warning word of the prophets I send to speak forth My warnings. The blood of the Lamb does not protect those that disobey the Word of the Lord. They are speaking forth the protection of the blood, but it DOES NOT protect such ones that have turned My house into a house of merchandising.

April 7, 2004
discipleministries@msn.com

No More Struggling

Patsy Shelton

Your days of struggle are now over, for you have entered into the Rest of your God. And in this place, where you struggling has ceased, I will do untold miracles for you. This has been for you, as season of learning to let go, and allowing Me to be God. I know that it has been difficult to come and walk on the water, but great rewards you are about to see.

I had to bring you to a place and a time, of having no answers and no other avenues of escape, that I might reveal to you the peace that passes all understanding. I had to bring you to a place of not asking Me to do what I have already done, but of knowing that I am not a man that I should lie, and that I am bound by My word to perform it.

So many of My children waste their time asking again and again, for something that I told them that I would do. They have not yet learned, rather to ask, to praise Me for what they cannot see. Truly, I inhabit the praises of My people. It is the highest level of faith.

The days ahead for you will be a season of reaping. You have sown in patience, in stillness, in quietness, and in trusting. The harvest of this season will be far greater than you can imagine. Not only in the things of the spirit, but you will also reap a harvest in the natural.

Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. And your love has been revealed, by your trust in Me. Trust Me more.

Patsy Shelton
pattiluepeacock@aol.com

North and South Korea

Catherine Brown

18 May 2004
"So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him." Acts 12:5

A PRAISE/PRAYER GATHERING IN SOUL

In a vision, I see an open heaven over Seoul. As I look upwards, towards God's throne, the view is clear and magnificent. High in the heavenly realms I see two angels poised over Seoul, one with a trumpet and the other with a bowl full of golden liquid. The first angel begins to blow the trumpet, whilst the second pours out the bowl (answered prayers and the glory of God) on the capital of South Korea on the many thousands of people who are gathered to pray and praise Christ our King. With uplifted hands the believers worship, their prayers and praise being orchestrated from the Throne Room of God our heavenly Father. This releases a wave of glory on the capital. I see this wave has a ripple effect in like manner to a pebble being thrown into a still pool of water. The effects are wide reaching! Praise God!

PRAISE AT THE BORDERS OF NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA

The large gathering I witness in the vision in Seoul is followed by further smaller gatherings along the border between South and North Korea. These coming assemblies (some as few as one and two people) are for worship and praise to Jesus. Many angels are stationed and positioned as the Lord's border control agents. I hear the Spirit of the Lord say,

"It is possible to pass through the borders. Even though mankind has set up blockades and has made passing through them seem impossible, my precious children nothing is impossible with Me. Yet, beloved, there will be some who will lose their lives as they praise Me at the borders but all things are in your Father's hands. Some will not pass through the borders but will die declaring Love and Liberation in Christ and be instantly escorted by my angels to glory. Some will be arrested at the borders, but their praise to Me will ring out boldly despite persecution across the land. Salvation will not be held back and I declare that the prisons of North Korea are a harvest field full of My glory.

Still others will pass through the borders for I am cloaking my children and overshadowing them in my glory. Just as it was in Peter's day when he was safely escorted from prison, so I will cover my children again and my angels will walk with those who are courageous in Grace and called to North and South Korea in this hour. Some will cross to and from the borders, indeed there are those who have been hidden in my overshadowing presence and have made this journey in grace many times, to bring hope, encouragement and fresh vision to those in North Korea.

I am your Father and I have not forgotten you nor forsaken you. I look upon you with great tenderness and my right arm is not too short to save. I will vindicate my Name in North Korea and my glory will release many who currently languish in prisons. They will walk unfettered from prisons and places of persecution. The suddenly of My Kingdom is coming with Light and Liberation and with great power and love. Those who are released will carry my glory to such an extent that there will hardly be a need for words, for they are so close to me, that where they walk, conviction will fall and my Gospel will be lived and preached with love and authority and multitudes will come to a knowledge of my saving grace.

I am coming with consuming fire, and my holy presence will shield the faithful and comfort the broken hearted. I will carry my lambs and heal them in my Love. I am coming with a wave of righteousness and I will pour out miracle upon miracle in the abundance of my mercy. I am exposing corruption and breaking the power of oppression through my Justice. I will answer the earnest prayers of nations on behalf of North and South Korea. Leaders of nations will gather in the world arena and I will mobilise them to assist the cause of Righteousness in this land (Korea). I will release aid. My Righteousness will accomplish this. I am the Rescuer and Redeemer of my people. Pharaoh could not hold my children; Herod could not hold my children and neither will Kim Jong-il keep them from worshipping me."

LIBERTY AND JOY THROUGH THE WARFARE OF PRAISE & WORSHIP

With incredible joy in my heart in the vision, I notice that as the people praise, great waves of worship-filled glory break on the battered borders and nation of North Korea. It is continual and cannot be stopped by the enemy of our souls. I witness a little boy running in a field, and a mother working in a field, and suddenly a small aeroplane appears in the sky. The child and his mother look up. The boy and his mum begin to laugh and run with joy. The plane represents the warfare of prayer and praise and the liberation brought about through Holy Spirit answering heartfelt requests and intercessions both spoken, wept and sung as songs of love and victory in Jesus Christ. It also speaks of the Father's love and of restoration.

GRACE FOR THIS HOUR

I am given an aerial view of South and North Korea and notice the word GRACE is etched across the land. The letter 'G' is planted in South Korea, and the remaining four letters 'RACE' are written across North Korea. Around the borders of the Korean lands are blossoms of tremendous beauty. God is pouring out waves of grace on his persecuted people. These dear saints will know a double portion of the Lord's grace for this hour. They will run and race into the glory of God. God is quickening his work and the growth of his Kingdom in North Korea. His Word and his Kingdom are coming forth as blossoms of fresh new growth in the Spirit. The Spirit of the Lord is saying,

"Great suffering produces spiritual blossoms of eternal beauty. I have heard every baby's cry, every mother's sob, every father's anguish. I have witnessed every terror. Every hate filled blow against the innocent is before my throne of Justice. Every tortured soul, every person abused, every atrocity hidden from the world, every drop of innocent blood shed and every single tear wept, I have seen and I have heard, for nothing is hidden from my sight. I am coming for my Korean bride. I declare her beautiful and reveal my radiance in her to the nations.

I come with recompense for the faithful and retribution against the wicked. I will shake idolatry in a moment of Righteous vindication and the modern day Dagon's shall fall. The higher they reach to the heavens, the further they will fall. Monuments will topple and my children will rejoice. In 2007 there will be a significant shaking of Kim Jong-il's power and his reign of terror will come to an end by 2010. Hold fast to your hope my children, for it shall not disappoint you."

TO THOSE IN CAPTIVITY

"Dear child of God, I am your Deliverer. I weep for you. I draw near and wrap my arms around you. As you sleep my angels are watching over you and also over your loved ones. Fear not for them. I will provide. I will protect. Your suffering will not endure forever. I am coming soon. In your nakedness, I cover you. You are my partner in glory. You are the magnificent passion and holy obsession of my heart. Your silent pleas are heard and answered in the throne room of Grace. I am your friend, your Father and in fellowship, your brother. My heart aches for you. Heaven longs for you. I will visit with you and give you dreams and revelation to sustain you. When you hunger, I am the Bread of heaven. When you thirst, I am your Life giving water. When you are beaten and persecuted for my Namesake I am the Blood that heals you. When you despair, I am your garment of Praise. When you fear, I am your Shield of faith. When you are weary, I am the Good Shepherd who carries you and cherishes you. When you have no love left to give, I am Love, and release waterfalls of Grace upon your weary soul to love your enemy and pray for those who persecute you. When it seems as though there is only darkness, I am the Light of the world, your light and your Source. When you are broken hearted, I am near to heal and remain your steadfast Hope of glory. When you feel alone, know that I Am always with you, for you are my beloved and I am yours and my banner over you is love. Where you see only death, I am the Resurrection and the Life. He who believers in me shall not perish, but will have eternal life."

FOR THE CHILDREN AND THE WOMEN ABUSED

My beloved, I have not forgotten the children of Korea, nor the women who have lost children, husbands and loved ones. I have witnessed embryos viciously torn away from the womb, I have witnessed women disfigured in rage, I have seen those who have been battered, abused and put to death by gas. I have seen the eyes of those filled with hate and rage, who have executed the innocent and it has broken my heart. Those who have been swept away by the hatred of man kind, are now resting safely in Father's heart. I am pouring out healing on the agonised of this land. I will raise up a double portion generation of sons and daughters of righteousness, for the blood of the innocent cries out to heaven. In mercy I am breathing new life into barrenness, new life into brokenness, new life into hopelessness and I am pouring out a resurrection anointing on the children of Korea.

"Now I know without a doubt that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me .." Acts 12:11a

I am releasing a wave of repentance upon the ungodly by my Spirit. This will bring such conviction and with it grace to be forgiven and grace upon my church to forgive. From amongst those who have acted as tormenters against my church, I will redeem guards and use them as I used Paul, to bless and build up my church. Some of those who currently oppress my church will repent, receive salvation and become my 'secret agents', my undercover disciples. I will use them as vessels of blessing and they will help release believers who are currently in prison. They will also smuggle in letters, tokens of love and food, bibles and supplies to those imprisoned for their faith. Some of them will become martyrs for my Namesake."

SEND A WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT TO KOREA!

Lastly, in the vision, I see postage stamps flying in the air. I am impressed that this represents letters of love and comfort and written words of encouragement that will deluge North Korea as believers from all around the world send notes and tokens of love to Korea. If you would like to send such a letter or gift, our small team at Gatekeepers will be honoured to pass this to our friends working with believers in North and South Korea. The address for postal items is Gatekeepers, 18 Castle View, West Kilbride, Ayrshire, KA23 9HD, Scotland, UK. If you wish to e-mail a letter of encouragement to Korea please send to Catherine@gatekeepers.org.uk We will endeavour to have all your letters translated before sending them. If you send a postal letter/card, could you please also include an extra postage stamp to help cover mailing costs from the UK to Korea? Thank you!

Beloved, let us stand in this hour with our persecuted brothers and sisters and believe for a mighty wave of deliverance from oppression and for God's Kingdom to come forth with love, power and signs and wonders, with healings, miracles, salvations and resurrections in Korea. It's time for us to pray earnestly for the persecuted church. Every prayer matters, every tear counts, every act of self-less love is evidence of God's magnificent love at work in our hearts.

I have wept many tears as I have prepared this prophetic article. Some of my prayers had no words, but just rolled down my cheeks as Jesus poured out his heart for Korea into mine. My tears seem such a small thing compared to the suffering of so many, but nonetheless, I offer them in love as a sacrifice of praise remembering those in prison as though I was there with them. In the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ they are enough. I pray that our collective tears, prayers and songs of love to and for Christ become a mighty rushing river of revival for the believers, our family, in North and South Korea.

Humbly yours, Catherine Brown http://www.gatekeepers.org.uk

Now Is The Time

Olivia Long

I Shall Bring Low And I Shall Lift Up

faithbuildersmins@sbcglobal.net

May 18, 2004

> "When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful nature may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast works through the whole batch of dough? Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast, as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth." 1 Cor 5:4-8

Now is the time - I shall bring low and I shall lift up.

There are many of My own who are boasters of your own selves, having a superior attitude of who you are. You claim the Name of Jesus but you claim it as a special privilege to set yourselves above others. You claim His Name in expecting special favor, special protection and special privilege while subtly you trample down what My Son did for ALL !!! You minister to people in My Name but spend more time talking about yourselves and your accomplishments than you do of the Name of Jesus and what HE can truly do in a person's life.

Husbands, you mistreat your wives while elevating others above them and you dare to expect Me to answer your prayers and to bless you in all your endeavors. Husbands who say, Lord, I am not into physical adultery but you exhibit spiritual adultery in your heart and words. Slavery, in fact you treat your wives and other women as a type of slave... you have backed them into a corner and in many cases the church is helping you keep them there. This is an indicator of a much deeper problem, the arrogance and pride of man spilling over in your life and your actions while claiming to be Mine. Arrogance and pride in who you are and what 'you believe' is robbing you of who you are to be In Christ. There is only one way back, to re-order your life in the ways of your heavenly Father. I will not and I cannot bless a man or a church who mistreats any of My daughters. Such pride and arrogance in self I will tolerate no longer.

I have sent many warnings your way, My sons and daughters but still many compromise while saying you put me first. You have deceived yourself as thinking you are wise but it is wisdom by the standards of this age , but your Lord knows and the thoughts of the wise are futile. You boast of what you know and that you can't possibly be in any err of what you believe. You continue to believe you shall walk in My power in the times to come and that you will have My protection. You have put yourself first in all that you say or do and through the steps you have taken you have sought your own power but the results will be to your own peril. You have prepared, though you will disagree even now, 'in the flesh' and you will reap both trouble in the flesh 'and' in the spirit. You have stood proclaiming to be a Christian while your heart is far from it. You have worshipped your own beliefs and you stand in control of your own destiny while giving lip service to Me. I AM shall not be mocked! Yes, I have been long suffering but the time has come for Me to step in and set things right. I have asked you to submit to Me in all things but your arrogance in what you believe, even now closes your ears for you to hear....

You proclaim you lift the cross of Jesus HIGH in all that you say or do. Yet you judge and approve of barriers and divisions between peoples and nations. You judge others rather than seeing each person as someone for whom Jesus died and promised to draw unto Himself. You claim to be His but you use the cross more as a club of submission when you should be using it as drawing people to reconciliation.

I AM that I AM.... Have I not said that judgment begins with My own? You think because you have continued unchecked that My judgment shall not come to you. I have spoken over and over again, in warning but you have continued on your own path of destruction. You have persisted in bringing others low while elevating yourself and you have come to a point in your own mind that you cannot possibly accept this as being true of yourself. You had a slot in time for true repentance but now you have crossed over in your own arrogance and self righteousness. Did you really believe that I would not lift My protection from upon you? Even now, most will not see, even now you will proclaim that you speak My words of truth, but the truth is 'you' are in control of your own words and actions but Beloved, the I AM is and always will be.... In Control!!!! Even now, I say again, you must be holy as I AM Holy, you have heard Me say this before and once again I speak for you to either follow Me according to My Word or you will not be with Me at all. Yet most, even now will continue to be blinded to what you are doing - but a few, I say a few will allow My Words to penetrate your heart and repent and truly follow me in all My ways and you will be part of My greatest move that is about to spring on the world.

For the remainder of you who still do not seek to "see", despite all of My warnings and truly change your ways, you will be subject to one of two actions.... For some, I will take you home before you can ostracize yourself completely from me. For some, My protection will leave you and you will be handed over to Satan so the sinful nature may be destroyed so that your spirit may be saved on the "Day of the Lord." You have put yourself first in all that you say or do and I must take action for My Name's Sake. Yes, I shall be hard on you but it is for the ultimate end of your true and complete return to Me. This is a final wake-up call, there is no time to waste for I AM moving and I AM moving speedily!

> "In the time of My favor, I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you. I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation." 2 COR 6:2

NOW, I will turn to those who are truly serving Me in truth and they WILL have My protection in the dark times to come. I will free them from the current snares and circumstances they have been living under and from those whose ultimate motive has been to rule over them. Yes, I shall now bring complete freedom to those who others have sought to bring low for they have been prepared by My hand and will stand wholly before Me. These are called by My Name and you shall stand triumphant in the midst of all to come. To you, My Beloved, I AM instilling a Spirit of Peace and My Spirit of Peace shall lead you from this day forward. I said I would band you together, that was My promise to you and I will do as I have promised. Even now I have placed some of you together and more will be added unto you.

You shall walk in what I have ordained for you and you will not compromise My word in any way but walk in a true spirit of humility and love. You, My Beloved, shall stand in My love and in My truth and I shall raise you up victorious "by Myself" for you have listened to your Heavenly Father even when being held down by your circumstances. You place Me before all, even your own ambitions and desires, now you will see Me move amongst you and you shall go forth in My Name as My light unto the world while seeing all of My promises to you come to past and receiving blessings beyond what you can contain.

Hear Me now: "Do not fret yourselves any longer because of the workers of iniquity, for they shall be cut off." It is because of the Rock of Conviction, Jesus the Christ, that I AM is With you and In you and I say to you SURELY the gates of hell shall not prevail !!! Some will see Me geographically move them in a twinkling of an eye.... Some will see My blessings surround them and they will be astounded.... Some will see the places of refuge in which I am giving to their trust - raised up in a day.... Every one of My faithful ones will experience the miraculous which will catapult them into their destiny..... I tell you, Now is the time of My favor! Now is the day of salvation ! Now is the time for your to rejoice for you will see the salvation of your Lord in every area of your life.

Now is the time - I Shall Bring Low and I Shall Lift Up!

New Prophetic Trends
Chuck Pierce

New Prophetic Trends Will NOW Emerge: A 10 Day Prayer Focus to Decree & Emerge into Your Promises Ahead!

A Sincere Thank You!

I want to thank each of you for standing, voting, and decreeing that this nation would reflect God's righteous covenant. I want to thank all of you who attended the 50 State Tour meetings. I want to thank all of you who have influence in various structures of society, as well as you who are hidden in your closet crying out day and night. I want to thank those who took the keys of the kingdom and loosed heaven's will into the earth. I want to thank each of you in advance for standing through the next four years of the war season that is ahead.

An Emerging Prophetic Generation Sanctified For War!

Much that has been hidden will now begin to EMERGE! The prophetic voice is going through a metamorphosis and getting ready to emerge. Many have grown weary of a lack of integrity and immaturity in the prophetic. However, I have seen the prophetic since 1986 being like a butterfly emerging out of a cocoon.
When the butterfly emerges there is great beauty. A metamorphosized beauty is linked with holiness. Psalm 96:9 says, "O, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. Tremble before Him all the earth. " God has been renewing the mind of the prophets and breaking their conformity to this world (Romans 12:1-2).
To be conformed means that your outer fashion and appearance is modeled or patterned after world lust. God is removing the old garment from His prophets, transforming their minds and spirits, and preparing them to speak a clear word in season. This is a generation that is arising that will enter into a holy clarity of God's expression in the earth.

We are entering a SEASON OF CRISIS. At any midpoint, it's crucial to continue pressing forward and not go backwards. The Lord has a desire to raise up a generation to bring peace or wholeness into the earth realm. However, this is a generation with a sword in their hand.
Many have resisted embracing the war aspect of this season. This happened in Numbers 14 when it was time for a generation to enter into Canaan to establish themselves in God's promised land. Twelve spies went in. Ten returned with a report of the promises being real in the land. However, they were unwilling to go to war for those promises.

Forty years later, we find the Lord sanctifying a generation that would cross over into the war and possess God's promise. We find the Lord developing a priesthood that would go before the people. We find the Captain of the Hosts meeting the leadership in a way to lead them past "their camps" and into His plan. We find a generation that was ready to BELIEVE and FOLLOW! That same thing is happening now. A generation is rising that is willing to believe, war and follow.

A Faith-Filled Generation Is Emerging!

We have recently entered the Hebraic Year 5765. This is the fourth year in a seven year war season that began in September 2001. This is the year that many issues will come FULL CIRCLE! Therefore, this is the year that a generation must emerge with great spiritual life.
This war is over the manifestation of covenant blessings in the earth realm. A generation is rising to bring forth the next dimension of covenant blessings in the earth. There seems to be ten emerging prophetic issues that we need to be concerned about this year. To emerge means to rise forth and come into view, to become visible, apparent or known, or sudden unforeseen situations coming into full view that require immediate action.

A generation is always linked with the act or process of producing offspring. A generation signifies a stage or degree in the succession of a person or a group of people who are aligned in experience, attitude, spiritual force or product development. A generation signifies a stage that should produce the next level of improvement and quality.
In Biblical understanding, a generation is linked with a revolution of time, or a certain age or lifespan where something happens. The Hebrew words for generation are doar and dur which mean to dwell or circle. Therefore, a generation is not just linked with age but with a heart to enter into the fullness of God's planned inheritance for this time frame. It is a people filled will faith and a different spirit that have a heart cry like Caleb who said, "I've waited forty years - give me my inheritance now." It is a corporate army who is crying, "We will not go around that mountain again! We are ready to break old cycles and enter in!"

In Matthew 24:6-7 the Lord told us, "And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled. For all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet " (emphasis added). If "the end is not yet, " then we must rise up and enter into the "now" of God. The end has connotations of finality. Since we have not reached that final place where the culmination of all things has occurred, we must learn to operate in the now!
What we do now will determine our future. Isaiah 46:9-10 says, "Remember the former things of old, for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like Me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done, saying, 'My Counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure.' "
When we hear the word "war " we have thoughts of destruction, sorrow, grief, loss, conflict, and death. However, the Lord says clearly, "See that you are not troubled. " God is putting a peace in our hearts so a generation that is arising will go to war for all of God's covenant promises. This generation is not just people young of age, but a people with a heart filled with faith, aligned together to bring forth God's plan.
There are many wars ahead: wars over the changing of laws and times, wars over calling good evil, and evil good, wars of compromise, wars of religion wanting us to take a form but denying the power of God. But God! This is a generation who will declare, decree a thing, and watch God bring it forth in the earth.

Declaring By Faith For Cycles To Shift Now!!!!

When the Lord makes a declaration He already knows the end of the thing. Recognize that you are on a path of life. It is set before you. You are urged to press along that path and endure that path until you reach the end. There are big boulders and potholes in the way, and often times, the path needs to be cleared out before you can begin. There may even be boulders all along the way. However, our Father in Heaven is going to watch after you from the beginning of that path until the finish line because He already knows the end.

With this reality we should never lose faith or hope along our path. The real issue along the path is to have a reality of who God is and what His purpose is from the beginning until the end. "I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last " (Rev 22:13). This is simply a statement that says, "I AM. I AM, and I can make you well able to accomplish My purpose here on the earth. " A verse that I want to remind you of is Jeremiah 33:3 from the Amplified: "Call to Me and I will answer you and show you great and mighty things, fenced in and hidden, which you do not know (do not distinguish and recognize, have knowledge of and understand). " Let God show you things that you do not know so you can walk in victory.

---

10 Emerging Prophetic Shifts!

A 10 Day Prayer Focus to Decree & Emerge into your Promises Ahead!

1. A New Passion in God's prophetic people to be holy and separated out of and unto His purposes. Read Colossians 1. Ask God to reveal any unholy, besetting sin within you that could affect your conscience and allow Satan's seducing, condemning voice to speak subtly in your ear. Meditate on Joshua 1-3. Prepare yourself for victory.

2. New emerging strategies that will cause us to have the right word to change legal structures. This is where the real war over our nation lies. Read Acts 3-5. Pray that the spirit of boldness begins to rest upon you. Ask the Spirit of God to deal with all of your infirmities. Ask the Lord to show you your place of involvement concerning legal structures in days ahead. Read Colossians 2. Ask God to remove any religious legalism you might be operating in.

3. New strategies concerning supply and the transference of wealth. Read 1 Kings 17, 2 Kings 4, and Mark 12:41-44. Decree that the spirit of poverty will not speak and deceive you this year. Ask God to show you how to multiply your resources. Ask the Lord to give you favor with your creditors. Ask the Lord to show you how to give. Ask the Lord to break a spirit of greed or covetousness in your bloodline.

4. New warfare strategies of recovery and reversal of fortune. Sit before the Lord and ask Him to give you the mind for recovery. Last month we prayed 1 Samuel 30. Re-read 1 Samuel 30:6-8. Encourage yourself in the Lord. Then read Jeremiah 30. Ask the Lord to give you an understanding of the power of restoration. Then pray Haggai 1-2. Decree that all disinterest, disillusionment and discouragement will break from you. Pray for every building project that God has put in your path – that includes ministries and your church as well as any physical building. Ask God to unlock the silver and the gold.

5. A new release of the seer anointing that will cause us to experience new dimensions of our covenant blessing. Read Jeremiah 31-33. Look very closely at the promises that are recorded with the new covenant. Ask God for any distinct obedience that He would have you do to prepare you for the new. Ask the Lord to open your eyes to mighty things that have been hidden to your understanding.

6. A new miracle mantle upon God's people that produces signs, wonders and healings in the Body and the world around us. Be overwhelmed and encompassed by His supernatural LOVE. Read Colossians 3:1-17. Pray in the Spirit for five minutes. If you do not have a spiritual language then praise for five minutes. Receive a release of compassion. There will be great breakthroughs in the area of blood, the mind, and the endocrine system. Read Hebrews 4 and 9. Pray for everyone you know that has diseases related to the blood, mind or endocrine system. Ask God to bring them in your path so you can lay hands on them. Do not be afraid to lay your hands on the sick and pray for them this year.

7. New prophetic declarations that will cause old cycles to be fully completed, and new administrative methods released. Read Ezekiel 36-37. Read Matthew 14. Make a list of old cycles that have been hard to break. Decree the opposite.

8. A new season of adventure. This will not be a "safe" season spiritually. You must be willing to step out by faith. Read Hebrews 11. Then choose one of the faith characters and read the history of how that person stepped out. Ask God to give you faith to make a bold leap of faith this year. This is a year to walk a FINE LINE in every area of life*. Do not be afraid of falling. Do not try to stay balanced in the flesh.* Do not let your fear of change make you afraid of making decisions. This is a year of the Spirit supernaturally rekindling the power gifts. The war will take a supernatural turn. Read 1 *Cor. 12 &14. Do not be afraid to experiment and be creative. Witchcraft will become very subtle. The Spirit of God will lead us into occult vs. Holy Spirit wars. Ask Holy Spirit to invade your life, church or ministry connections, and your state.

9*. A new season of aligning the generations.* Pray for three prodigals that you know. Pray for a college campus. Read Luke 15, especially vss. 11-32. We must connect the generations. Three generations must learn to war together this year (Isaiah 59:15-21). All three generations should speak the same prophetic declarations. The word generation is linked with circle. If you have time, re-read Esther 9.

10. New watchman strategies. Read Ezekiel 13:5. Prophets must shift from just prophesying to watching and standing in the gap. Our watchman assignments are changing. This will be a year of confusion and mixed reports. The Lord will release great discernment based upon our connections and alignments. Ask God who and what you are watching after. Read Genesis 2:8-15. Ask God to define your garden. Ask Him what gardens you are watching after. Read 2 Samuel 18:19-33. Ask God to give you a sure word over those assignments that you are watching after. Read Isaiah 62. Let the restlessness of God come upon you that you may be watchful and not keep silent over the burdens of your heart.
Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce

Now The Wind Then The Freeze

John Moore

Winds of change and transition have been blowing across the land since the beginning of 2004 and will continue to do so for a season, but the season will have an abrupt end.

First the wind, but then a freeze. This freeze will solidify many in their new positions and enable them to enjoy a season of reaping and harvest. For others this freeze will be a time of anguish as they realize their presumption and procrastination has left them outside the gates while the sounds of ceremony and banqueting resound from within.

The freeze will not be permanent but it will be a foreshadowing of the 10 virgins of Matthew 25:1-12 and the judgment of Revelation 22:11.

In this period of transition many are learning both the goodness and the severity of our Lord (Romans 11:22). Those willing to pay a radical price can expect more than a radical return on their investment. Those who allow themselves to be seduced by comfort will learn the lessons of discomfort. Those nursing spiritual babies must leave the rocking chair and flee for higher ground. The Lord will have mercy on the young and will comfort the children but those of due age will be tested to see if they understand authority and responsibility. Let them first know responsibility for the authority will come.

Many during this time will be moved and repositioned geographically as well as spiritually. Pastors will leave churches for the sake of the Kingdom. Others will leave farm, ranches, family, and businesses. Many who have been misplaced in religious roles will find themselves thrust into marketplace ministry which was the Lord's original intention for them but the religious world was blind to their needs and gifts. The Lord in His wisdom is placing his kings and knights on the royal chessboard to thwart the attack of the Accuser and his pawns.

Look for the freeze to come at the time of natural harvest. When the harvest moon hangs heavy in the sky and the eyes of man are on the shifting and changing of political leadership within our nation the Lord of Harvest will whistle for the north winds. The north winds, for a season, will bind each to that which he has treasured.

John Moore
Miles City, Montana
http://www.johnlmoore.com
sundaycreek@midrivers.com

Now The Wind, Then The Freeze

John L. Moore

Winds of change and transition have been blowing across the land since the beginning of 2004 and will continue to do so for a season, but the season will have an abrupt end.

First the wind, but then a freeze. This freeze will solidify many in their new positions and enable them to enjoy a season of reaping and harvest. For others this freeze will be a time of anguish as they realize their presumption and procrastination has left them outside the gates while the sounds of ceremony and banqueting resound from within.

The freeze will not be permanent but it will be a foreshadowing of the 10 virgins of Matthew 25:1-12 and the judgment of Revelation 22:11.

In this period of transition many are learning both the goodness and the severity of our Lord (Romans 11:22). Those willing to pay a radical price can expect more than a radical return on their investment. Those who allow themselves to be seduced by comfort will learn the lessons of discomfort. Those nursing spiritual babies must leave the rocking chair and flee for higher ground. The Lord will have mercy on the young and will comfort the children but those of due age will be tested to see if they understand authority and responsibility. Let them first know responsibility for the authority will come.

Many during this time will be moved and repositioned geographically as well as spiritually. Pastors will leave churches for the sake of the Kingdom. Others will leave farm, ranches, family, and businesses. Many who have been misplaced in religious roles will find themselves thrust into marketplace ministry which was the Lord's original intention for them but the religious world was blind to their needs and gifts. The Lord in His wisdom is placing his kings and knights on the royal chessboard to thwart the attack of the Accuser and his pawns.

Look for the freeze to come at the time of natural harvest. When the harvest moon hangs heavy in the sky and the eyes of man are on the shifting and changing of political leadership within our nation the Lord of Harvest will whistle for the north winds. The north winds, for a season, will bind each to that which he has treasured.

John L. and Debra Moore
Miles City, Montana
www.johnlmoore.com

Navigating The Waters Of Change

Danny Korakas

Nov 19, 2004
MAPPING OUR COURSE

There has been and will certainly continue to be a lot of writings and discussions concerning the contrast of leadership between Saul and David. The arising of a Davidic order of leadership and authority is upon us. However, our navigation through the waters of change will be essential to the church's health and well-being. The transition from the "Order of Saul" to the "Davidic order" must be navigated through the wisdom and guidance of God's Word.

The issue at hand is not so much the "Saul's" that have abused their authority and mandate, but the RESPONSE of the "David's" toward the present situation that the Saul's have created. I write this in response to the witnessing of many people who seem to delight in seeing the defects in individuals within the church. The blatant disrespect for authority that is transpiring in the church is a prime indicator of our true spiritual maturity. Upon seeing Saul's true colors, David chose not to stay in Saul's camp. We also have this same choice. It seems that many are finding pleasure staying in the "Camp of the Sauls" — judging and criticizing rather than simply and honorably leaving. (See our "Breaking Away" article.) Leaving a "Saul-based" leadership gets the point across with much more impact than stimulating a frustrated and divisive environment by staying.

Even though Saul sought to "kill" the destiny of his faithful servant, David did not curse or gossip about Saul by the words he spoke nor the actions he took. On the contrary, David respected Saul's authority even when he was persecuted under that authority. It would be the spiritual maturity of David that God would find worthy of true leadership and spiritual promotion. Now, before you jump to any conclusions, let's finish the article with a teachable spirit. I am not pardoning or condoning the leadership of Saul, but can God use "Saul's" in the church to fulfill a far greater purpose than we may realize? Can God use the faults and mistakes of those in authority to expose the true condition of OUR hearts?

NAVIGATING THE WATERS

We read in the "Autumn Trees Without Fruit" article that Cain had to plow the soil that God had cursed. Likewise, after the flood, Noah would have to cultivate the cursed ground. The Bible says that Noah planted a vineyard and after drinking too much of his own labor, he retired in his drunkenness to his tent and removed his clothes — passing out naked.

Ham, Noah's youngest son, entered the tent and saw his father's nakedness. Immediately, Ham ran and told his brothers, Shem and Japheth. (We notice that Ham ONLY told "family.") Did this excuse Ham? I suppose that Ham told his brothers of their father's "drunk as a skunk" condition along with this deplorable situation for the purpose of feeling better about his own inadequacies. (Isn't this the reason why people desire to gossip or make others look bad?) I believe it was Ham's disposition and nature to SHOW his brothers their father naked and exposed. How else would Noah have known that it was Ham who disgraced him? He knew because of Ham's nature and the fact that he awoke to a "COVERING" that Ham was not mature enough to have given.

When Shem and Japheth heard what had happened, they took a blanket or a garment to cover Noah and walked backwards so they would not disgrace their father in his nakedness. When Noah awoke from his drunken slumber, he knew what Ham had done and proclaimed a CURSE over his descendants. (Read Genesis 9.) How can we explain the fact that Ham's seemingly minor transgression brought severe consequences, whereas Noah's drunkenness brought none that is recorded in the Bible? This is a question that we must answer as we navigate the waters of prophetic and ministerial change that is upon us. Our true anointing and spiritual maturity hinges upon the understanding and answer of this question.

It should be obvious that the moral shortcomings of Noah became a TEST of maturity to his three sons. Ham was proven through this unfortunate circumstance to be foolish and presumptuous. Shem and Japheth, although not approving of the circumstance, were found to be honorable and would not so much as speak a critical word knowing that Noah was in the hands of God -- The Righteous Judge.

The danger with the "Ham's" in today's church is that they attempt to openly discredit others in spiritual authority when no sin has been committed. This mindset provided Ham with a shallow EXCUSE to disobey his father whenever he desired or when he believed it was contrary to HIS opinion. The same can hold true with us. By openly and personally discrediting authority, we feel free to cast off restraint and demand release from godly submission. We become an impostor of God in our desire to be the Righteous Judge.

STORMY SEAS

Now, with all of the abuses and nonsense that we are witnessing in all areas of ministry, I can understand the frustration and even anger with what is transpiring. I am just as appalled that "leaders" in the church have somehow forgotten the verse that we are to "submit to one another in the fear of the Lord" in their lust for control. I am saddened by the neglect of the Word of God for the fanciful and irrelevant stories of man. However, this does not excuse us to take on the spirit of Ham. We need to prophesy truth and confront sin in the church as prophetic people. This IS our Biblical and primary call: declaring REPENTANCE. However, if we desire to JUDGE another personally, we risk the "Curse of Ham" if our motive is to discredit and damage out of a form of self-righteousness, spiritual insecurity or just simple opinion. Most of the personal criticism that I see in the church is not about doctrinal error or heresy. It is the OPINION of how one feels that church ought to be done.

Noah, as a spiritual leader, did not set a good example for a generation that had the opportunity to start over and anew what the preceding generations had abused. This is tragic when you really think about what was at stake. (Humanity had moved into a type of being born-again to fulfill God's intended purpose for our lives. In other words, humanity was given a second chance.) However, God would still use this event for the purpose of revealing the true heart condition of these three men that would father the future of mankind. Shem and Japheth honored Noah by choosing not to shame him in public and received a blessing from both God and Noah. These two wise sons, along with David, understood that these issues were the Lord's and not theirs to deal with. The same test and opportunity is upon us today as born again believers. How are we going to handle the exposure of misguided authority that will increase in manifestation as we move into 2005? Will we pray or judge?

THE VOICE OF MANY WATERS

"Who are you, O man, that fails to see the log in your own eye? Am I beneath what I have ordained and decreed before the days of your birth? Is My arm so short as not to reach and replace what I have set for a season? Who are you, O man, that takes My place as judge over My church and affairs? You seek to unmask and expose those whom you perceive to preach another gospel, but are you not in need of being exposed yourself for wielding My scepter? Who has given you this authority, My child? Will you avoid the correction that you so easily render to another? Peace, be still, for I am the Lord your God and I hold the bowls of authority in My hand. I give and I take to whom I choose for My good purposes and will not be mocked by another. Lay down your crowns, My dear children, and find rest in what I have called YOU to do — to love one another just as I have loved you. The world will know that you are My disciples by your love for one another. Truly, iron sharpens iron. But are you using the sword of My Spirit to prepare one another for the battle with darkness or to hurt one another?

RED SKIES AT NIGHT

The Scriptures have a lot to say about the "last days." I firmly believe that we are in the last days and that they will be both awesome and immensely frightful. It will be awesome in that the greatest harvest of all time will be received by our generation. (This is why we are experiencing the expediting of necessary change.) It will be exceedingly frightful in that God will judge iniquity (first, in the church) in His righteousness.

2 Timothy 3:1 states that "there will be terrible times in the last days." This warning is brought to our remembrance over and over in the scriptures. It seems that the over-riding analogy to these "terrible days" is not tyrannical governments, but DECEPTION within the church. The reason that so many authentic prophets are calling for DISCERNMENT in the body of Christ, is because the Lord has revealed to them the magnitude of how deception has crippled the effectiveness of the church.

The power of deception severely injures and even kills a person's destiny because they are deceived into believing that they are absolutely right, when in fact they have proven to be wrong. Jesus clearly warns us, "Take heed that no one deceives you."

HIGH SEAS PIRATES

We discussed the lawlessness and curse that comes with unjustified criticism and judgment of the brethren in authority at the top of the article. However, there are always two sides to a coin. Many in authority have become "pirates" of the destinies of whom the Lord has called them to SERVE.

"But be doers of the Word, and not HEARERS only, deceiving yourselves." (James 1:22)

Certainly, most in authority have HEARD the cry in the Spirit for them to equip the saints for the work of ministry. This calls for a leadership that is willing to facilitate and train the body of Christ as their primary call. How does control of the pulpit with a singular vision enhance and build the many visions of what others are called to do? Surely they have HEARD that the institution that so much of the church has become has been built by the traditions of man. (Many people don't come to church because they have already been there once. We must face the reality of this truth.) What is the fruit of simply going through the motions of religious traditions, a few hymns or songs, an offering, and a 30 minute message? Is this building the kingdom of God and equipping people for their spiritual destiny ... and one shot at storing up eternal treasure? Saul was consumed with building an earthly kingdom that resembled the worldly kingdoms around him. On the other hand, David was consumed with people experiencing the presence and power of God's kingdom in a real and tangible way.

Surely they have HEARD that sitting upon platforms on chairs that resemble ornate thrones and looking down on the people they are called to serve is not the posture of a servant. Is this the place of a "servants" call from God? Surely they have HEARD that the "orator – audience" and "clergy – laity" model is corrupt, divisive, and unbiblical. Why do we continue to rebel against the true "Lord's Prayer" in that we would be ONE by our systems of governmental hierarchies that resemble the world's system for power and recognition? Surely they have HEARD that only Christ is to be most revered as "reverend". Why must we continue in the spirit of Saul and cling to our titles that are meaningless? Is it not our function rather than our title that validates our ministry? The Davidic order knows that there is only One who can claim to be "Most revered."

Surely, they have HEARD that those whom they have been called to "lead" have not "led" one person to Christ. Surely they have HEARD that the system they are promoting because of their silence is spiritually bankrupt and ineffectual with little relevance to a lost world. Surely they have HEARD that My Word is not for sale and profit. Yet, deception continues to run rampant "because they did not receive the love of the TRUTH." (2 Thessalonians 2:10) To love the truth of what is really transpiring in the church is not just to HEAR it, but to obey in DOING something about it.

It seems that many leaders (Saul's) in the church love to preach and teach and carry on as if nothing is wrong with ministry today. What it boils down to is this: Many in authority love their own lives and ministry more than the TRUTH of God's Word and will. The Davidic order of leadership that is arising will put their lives, desires, and ministries down for the love of God's truth and His people.

I realize that what I am saying may seem to some like a contradiction from the top of the article. It is not! The disrespect for authority originates in the condition and motive of our heart and is usually personal in nature through past hurt and rejection. The prophetic call for repentance is based on truth and confronts ungodly systems that deceive people. This truth allows us to confront sin and abuse without moving into judgment and bitterness toward individuals. Bitterness will eat her own mother.

THE LIGHTHOUSE

The heart of the Lord as we move toward the Davidic order is that the "Saul's" within the church would come into the light of His love and anointing. (We read and notice that the anointing of Saul was held in a container made by the hands of man, whereas the anointing of David was held in a container made by the hand of God.) David is the only person in scripture to have the distinction of being a "man after God's own heart." Saul had many opportunities to learn the heart of God by David's life, anointing, and example. David held the key for what Saul needed to be an effectual and godly leader. My heart is that none who are presently in authority would fall in a "Saul-like" pride and spiritual jealousy. Change is going to happen and only the "Doers" of God's Word (Those who are obedient) will be left standing in authority. This is the church that Jesus Christ is soon coming back for.

God loves us so much, and those whom He loves, He will chasten and correct. The question is: Do we have a correctable heart? The Saul of the Bible did not and it not only caused him lose his authority, but his life as well. We know in our hearts that many things need to change in the function and purpose of the church. Jesus left us a wonderful model of desiring that we would do "greater works than these." What has happened to the passion and desire of leadership in the church to desire that others would do greater works than THEM? As the church, are we truly a city on a hill with our light burning bright for all to see? Or, are we a shade of grey — a dim and shifting shadow of what the church should be in reflecting the light and love of Christ?

PORT-OF-CALL — OUR DESTINATION

"And when He had removed him, (Saul) He raised up for them David ... I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will do all My will." (Acts 13:22)

"After this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up; so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord, even the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the Lord who does all these things." (Acts 15:16-17)

The Davidic order will have a mandate to rebuild a tabernacle (the body of Christ) that exhibits the manifest glory and love of God. The tabernacle of David was indistinguishable from any other common tent in the area. It was a place that others could feel comfortable and at home. It was a place that was relevant and radiated hope for the common man. There were no sides or hidden chamber to this tabernacle and the Shekinah glory of God would be available for whomsoever would come. Prophetic worship and intercession went on 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and it would be only during the reign of David that the people of God would possess their entire promised inheritance.

Those with the heart of David understand what it means to find "shelter under the shadow of His wings." Many have taken this verse and psalm of David as symbolic imagery. I believe that it was much more personal and real to David. As the hot Middle Eastern sun beat down upon the tabernacle, David knew that he could find shade and shelter under the wings of the cherubim over the Ark of God's presence. I believe that David spent a lot of time here ... close and in the arms of His loving Father.

www.watermarkministry.org
www.watermarkministry.injesus.com www.watermarkministry.spreadtheword.com

Permission is granted to reprint all articles from WaterMark Ministry websites in their entirety.

Healing The Water
Carole Korakas

Nov 15, 2004
2 Kings 2:19-22

Although the account of Elisha healing the water in 2 Kings 2:19-22 is a historical account, it's also a symbolic picture that's applicable to each of us. This first miracle was the beginning of a ministry of credibility and integrity that ultimately brought healing and restoration. When we follow this example, we will witness Christ-like results in our lives and the lives of others.

Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Please notice, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the ground barren." (2 Kings 2:19)

The men of the city spoke to Elisha. A city is usually known for something; we, also, are known for something — our character. In a larger sense, the city can be a reflection of the people who inhabit it. Based on this, we can see the city as being symbolic of the body of Christ – of which each of us is a part.

Elisha was told that "the situation of this city is pleasant." Many of us seem pleasant. This represents what we see on the surface ... and, consequently, is often superficial appearance. I'm not fond of being labeled superficial, but just consider this: How many times have you responded to the question, "How are you doing?" with a trite answer of "Just fine" when in fact everything was not just fine.

For some, the connotation of "going to church" is equivalent to "let's go play charades." We put on our Sunday best ... which often includes a well-powdered church mask. For many years, I had a lot of practice playing this game. In some Christian circles, the socially acceptable thing is to put on an air of spirituality ... that includes having it all together. However, we must move beyond pleasant appearances ... and spend time building close relationships.

The men of the city also told Elisha that the "water is bad." Water is symbolic of Holy Spirit. "Bad water" tells us that it had been corrupted by something and rendered useless and stagnant. This leads to sickness and disease. In addition, stagnant water attracts flies and becomes a breeding ground for the Lord of Flies to establish a stronghold. In light of this, bad water represents the tradition, religion, erroneous teaching, corruption, compromise and sin that we sometimes embrace. These things lead to spiritual sickness and render us useless for Kingdom service.

A common byproduct of "bad water" in a city is a ground which is barren. A barren ground neither produces nor sustains new life or fruit. Life cannot be sustained without reproduction. We must reproduce ourselves, both spiritually and naturally, for life to be perpetuated. We must continually birth new life. This includes new people coming into the kingdom, ministry as a lifestyle, people being equipped for ministry, ministry as a lifestyle, and the fruit of a lifestyle of intimacy and repentance.

A barren ground leads to malnourishment for the inhabitants of the region. Thirsty and hungry people will drink/eat anything that is available, whether healthy or not, out of desperation. We must carefully examine what we feast upon ... spiritually. We must remain in right relationship with the Lord and allow Holy Spirit to teach us (John 14:26) and help us to discern truth (1 Corinthians 2:14).

Elisha had a strategy for ministering to this deplorable situation.

And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him. (2 Kings 2:20)

Elisha requested a new bowl. A bowl is a vessel and represents a person. A new vessel represents one who has been made new by the blood of the Lamb ... and is continually washed by the water of the Word. His Word is the standard by which we must measure everything ... not by feelings, new revelations, or experiences.

Elisha put salt into the bowl. Salt has some unique properties. It purifies, draws out infection, preserves some things such as meat, and makes one thirsty for water.

Jesus tells us in Mark 9:50 to "Have salt in yourselves." We are to be instrumental in bringing about purity, drawing out those things that hinder wellness and healing, preserving the pure Word of the Lord, and making others thirsty for the Living Water. Proverbs 27:17 states this principle another way: "As iron sharpens iron, So a man sharpens the countenance of his friend."

Following Elisha's example, we see what our course of action, as the new bowls and salt, ought to be.

"Then he went out to the source of the water, and cast in the salt there, and said, "Thus says the Lord: 'I have healed this water; from it there shall be no more death or barrenness.' " (2 Kings 2:21)

Elisha went to the source of the water. We also are to go to the source or root of the issue. We must be accountable to one another. We must be willing to go to our brothers and sisters and speak to the source/root issues, but we must also allow them to come to us and speak into our lives.

When God reveals something or gives us insight, it is for the primary purpose of praying. When He shows us anything, we must be faithful to lift it to Him in prayer. The reason He reveals things to us is because He desires to intervene and He does so on behalf of our prayers. He does not reveal things to stroke our spiritual ego or build our ministry of "correction" or so that we can gossip. Only after we have prayed are we to go to our brothers and sisters — with a heart of love and compassion.

We read in Ezekiel 3:18-20 that we are to speak out and warn those whom we see walking in sin; if we do not warn them, we will be held accountable. We have a responsibility to God and also to one another.

This doesn't give us license to look harshly upon one another. In fact, we ought to more seriously work at removing the log jam that's obstructing our own vision. The point is this: we must be responsible and accountable to one another. Proverbs 12:1 tells us that, "Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge, But he who hates correction is stupid." This makes it clear that we must be willing to accept correction in our lives; however, we must also be willing to offer it to others ... even at the expense of risking rejection. We must overcome the temptation to remain thin-skinned and flinch at any uncomfortable prick ... or to think that we are the anointed servants who are above being "touched" in any way (and these tend to be the "annoyed" ones when confronted). We must also overcome the temptation to believe that "it's none of my business." Our love for our brothers and sisters will be demonstrated when we care enough to keep them from stumbling ... and also when we help them up if they do stumble.

We read in the Bible that many will have "a form of godliness but denying its power." (2 Timothy 3:5) Often, one is thought to be "godly" if we perceive them to have a "strong anointing." We somehow rationalize that if signs, wonders, miracles and persuasive words follow their ministry — they must have a close walk with the Lord and have "earned" His trust to demonstrate His power. However, "the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable." (Romans 11:29) I wonder, is it possible to get so caught up in the power of God being manifested through us that we deny the power to work IN us ... and bring about true change, repentance, healing, and transformation in our own lives in a way that brings lasting results?

The Lord desires that we be conformed to His image and walk in holiness. He desires that His work in our lives bring true change. Elisha's strategy in healing the waters brought lasting results.

So the water remains healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke. (2 Kings 2:22)

Perhaps the most important symbol in this account is Elisha himself. As the major prophet of his day, Elisha represents prophetic ministry.

There are many who believe that prophetic ministry is only for edification, encouragement and comfort. It is for these functions, but also for correction and confrontation. We read in Proverbs 3:11, "For whom the Lord loves, He corrects." Jesus, who is the Spirit of Prophecy, very often corrected and confronted people. He "built up the church" as He challenged to "go and sin no more." When the Spirit of Jesus ministers, we may feel convicted, but not condemned. We have no condemnation in Him. We only have condemnation when we choose to continue walking in our own ways rather than His.

Even those who are "called and anointed" need accountability and ministry. Irregardless of titles, heirarchies, ministry responsibilities or functions, we are all called of the Lord and anointed of His Holy Spirit. Therefore, we all need someone who will speak truth into our lives. Every person needs the accountability, encouragement and correction of a brother or sister in Christ. Ecclesiasties 4:9-10 tells us that, "Two are better than one ... For if they fall, one will lift up his companion. But wore to him who is alone when he falls, For he has no one to help him up."

God's heart is for restoration. We see that since the beginning of time, God has had a plan to redeem fallen mankind unto himself. God desires to restore us to right relationship with Himself. He also desires that our relationships with one another be restored. We are His instruments that bring about that restoration within His body. We are the new bowls and salt in His hands. Through us, He'll heal the bad waters.

www.watermarkministry.org
www.watermarkministry.injesus.com www.watermarkministry.spreadtheword.com

Permission is granted to reprint articles from WaterMark Ministry websites in their entirety.

New Zeal For New Zealand

Clemy Gilmore

Sep 4, 2004

> "...The waters of this stream will heal the salty waters of the Dead Sea and make them fresh and pure. Everything that touches the water of this river will be healed. Wherever this water flows, everything will live. Fishermen will stand along the shores of the Dead Sea fishing all the way from En-gedi to En-eglaim. The shores will be covered with nets drying in the sun. Fish of every kind will fill the Dead Sea, just as they fill the Mediterranean! But the marshes and swamps will not be purified; they will be sources of salt..." (Ezekiel 47:8 – 11)

New Zealand, I feel the Lord is saying to you that he is about to pour out His Holy Spirit upon you in a fresh way. It will result in a NEW ZEAL to preach the gospel and reach the lost. Where the pools have stagnated, and become as salt pans, the Lord will flood with new grace and love to wash the salt out of the stagnant pools and into the places where you are called to be salt and light. There will be a new and fresh anointing on those who follow the Lord wholeheartedly and His commitment to fulfill his promises to your nation is unfailing, persistent and strong. Not in your own strength will you boast, but in His Holy Spirit and in His Son Jesus Christ.

Dry Salt Pans Flooded with Freshness

Those who have found themselves in the salt pans, feeling dry and deserted, your prayers are about to be answered, for the Lord has caused your dryness to bring out the salt in you and your cry has reached heaven and reached maturity in the Spirit. The time has come for the dry salt pans to be flooded with freshness. It will be a time of great joy and release into corporate and individual destinies and you will be flooded out of your comfort zones – the temptation will be to stay where you are – be alert and resist this temptation - go with the flow of His Spirit! He will cause you to be salt in new places and places where you never dreamt he would take you to be salt and light. Go with the flow!!!

Some of you will be called out of New Zealand to take this New Zeal to other nations. The Lord will be very clear with his directions – he doesn't want the salt to lose its saltiness. Stay close to Him and be sure to heed his voice. If today you hear him, do not harden your hearts. You are a living sacrifice for His glory! Be accountable and test all things that you may not be wearied with red herrings and loose your saltiness (effectiveness). It is a day of warfare for God's purposes to be fulfilled. Stay awake, alert at all times, and wait for His direction.

Yours in Christ,
Clemy Gilmore (6 August '04)

Oh To Be One In Christ

Yolanda Ballard

Feb 12, 2004

Blessings to you!

Everything is to be done in the name of Jesus! But what upsets me is when there is debate over what is the true name of Jesus, is it Yeshua, the Hebrew name which means Joshua, or is it the Green interpretation which many say is not the true name we are to use. When you have grown up in the Lord, knowing His name to be Jesus, and then you hear these things, you tend to doubt to use the name you are used to. We are never to doubt the name of Jesus. God knows we mean the Son of God! Even if I try to change over, it doesn't feel right, and automatically the name Jesus comes forth.

But you know not all that we have learned in the past is of God and we need to be open and teachable to be delivered of what we have learned from the Babylonian spirit. Oh, to be in unity in the body of Christ. Even to unite the Jews and the gentiles in the messianic movement. So many differences, but God knows our hearts. If something is not impressed on our hearts by the Holy Spirit, then we can't make any change happen, or it will only be works in the flesh. The main thing is that we walk in the light that we have and trust the Lord for more of His grace to walk in His truth.

In JESUS name!!!! Yolanda

Obscure Armies Arising

Barbara Lynch

(joshua2000@delaware.net)

There is coming a day and an hour when all who seek My face will know Me heart to heart. I will no longer be a Father that is far off, but all will know Me for who I am. I have purposed a thing from the beginning of time and this thing is about to explode all over the land. Great salvations!

Great armies arising out of obscure places taking up the sword and following after Me. I know who My true soldiers are and they have been in training for quite some time now, and now is the time of their birth.

They shall be birthed from the isolated places. They shall come forth from the unknown regions. They will be an army that others have thrown away. They will be an army that others have ridiculed and put down. They will be an army that knows what it is to suffer at the hands of the religious ones.

They shall be an army that goes forth with My love, grace, mercy and compassion and they shall bring forth a mighty army of warriors that will not turn back, but they shall go forth into uncharted waters and they shall conquer the regions for Me. All will see this army and all will know that this army has risen from the ash heap of sorrows to overcome and conquer the enemy on all sides.

Take heed to what the Spirit is saying at this given time, for all My people are being led by My Spirit at this given time. All must be aware of the calling. All must be in tune to My voice. All must be ready to supersede all that they have ever known, for I truly am going to do a mighty works throughout this land in this end time hour, saith the Father.

Only Believe
Shirley Lise

Only believe and you will see the salvation of your God. Trust Me. Trust My lead. Walk out into those things opening before you and do not doubt that I have everything in My hands. Every loose end is being tied up, every concern dealt with.

I am for you and not against you. I am the lifter of you head. Put your trust completely in Me and do not waver. Everything you need is available to you. Every promise is a surety. Understand that My ways are perfect. Release those things that burden you into My capable hands. Be confident that I will handle them with care.

You are troubled with things that should not trouble you. I have heard your deepest cries and I shall answer your heart's desire. I shall, indeed, bring all your children under the safety of My wing. I shall gather them in as a hen her chicks. Do you think I would fail you, that I would leave you in turmoil and comfortless? I am in your midst and capable of putting all things into perfection, into harmony with My plan and purpose.

Wrestle not with unbelief, but believe the promises and know that My ways are higher than yours, that they will bring the wanderer home. I am capable of great things. I can turn water into wine. I can take a heart and life and completely transform it. This is not too difficult for Me. This is not out of My range of ability. I am a faithful Father. I will not fail you. I will not disappoint you, but I will give you the desire of your heart, transformed lives of your children, serving the Lord wholeheartedly. This is My promise to you, that I shall raise up each one of your children and bring them into the counsel of God and into communion with the Spirit of God. I shall bring them into the free flow of My Spirit and I shall use them to lead others in the way of understanding.

Be bold. Be brave. You shall enter the land of abundance, for I am leading you on in the mission and I am aligning your offspring as the rightful heirs of My kingdom. Believe that My power is at work to save. Salvation shall come to your house, for I have extended My hand to touch and minister healing and salvation.

Shirley Lise
http://ns1.sgci.com/~riverpub/
riverpub@sgci.com

Sincerity Of Heart
Shirley Lise

My Own Are Marked With Sincerity Of Heart

Do not be intimidated by those around you, but set your sights on the prize! This is a day like no other. I am moving in such a way that no flesh will glory!

I am upsetting the apple carts of many and putting things into right perspective. I am taking treasure out of the hands of one and funneling it into the hands of another. Who is there that is able to confound the Lord and disrupt His plans and purposes? Who is man that he thinks he can override the counsel of the Lord and go on his merry way? I have all things in My hands, all angles covered. No one is able to out-perform the Lord!

I have visited My Own and given them expertise in areas of influence, imparting to them life and liberty in My spirit. I know who they are and who are imposters. I know the heart of every man, so who is able to fool Me? Yes, I have a most wonderful plan for these end days. I have instructed My Own in the Secret Place and prepared them in the desert. They are well-equipped and ready to handle all that I move them into in this day. They have been purged and made ready by the King of Kings and when I open the door to their destiny, they shall waltz into it effortless, for I have removed striving from the hearts of those who are truly Mine and I have removed competition and strife. My Own are marked with sincerity of heart. This is the great work that I have done in their hearts to prepare them for what is ahead. They will walk out in full assurance that it is nothing of themselves that will accomplish the purposes set before them in this day, but the Spirit of the living God moving through them. And even they will stand amazed when they see the great feats accomplished through their hands, for nothing is able to hinder their movement on and into fulfilling their destiny.

Do not be anxious to see those things promised coming into view, for the timetable is set, events are scheduled, and the work of the Lord will be accomplished through willing vessels according to His plan and to His glory. Oh what a day! Bask in His presence. Be filled to overflowing with the love of God. Rest in His arms and be marinated in His goodness, for soon the doors shall open and you will walk out into the promises unhindered!

Shirley Lise
http://ns1.sgci.com/~riverpub/
riverpub@sgci.com

Obedient Passion
Tommy Tenney

God Wants the Jewel of Obedient Passion, Not the Pearl of Public Approval by Tommy Tenney

King Joash, if you had struck the ground five or six times, you would have struck Syria until it was totally destroyed. But you held your passion in check! (2 Kings 13-18).

You were polite instead of passionate, and you missed the moment of your greatest victory! You were more concerned with your dignity than with the will of Deity.

Now you must live and die with the harvest from the seeds you have sown.

Scripture Reading

1 Samuel 15:22–23, where Samuel tells another disobedient king it is better to obey God than to disobey and make sacrifices afterward.

God desires obedience more than sacrificial religious apologies after deliberate disobedience. The first command He asks of everyone is that we love Him with all our hearts, with all our souls, and with all our minds. Jesus expected the twelve disciples to obey with zeal when He launched them on a supernatural mission to the Jewish people. He sent a dozen ordinary people out to do what no other band of people had ever done in the history of the world:

Preach, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

(Later, He said that these kinds of miracles should be typical among those who would believe in Him.) To be honest with you, none of these descriptions or events come to mind when I think of the typical American church service. Passionless religious observance inspires descriptive words such as restrained, respectable, predictable, lifeless, and remarkably un-supernatural.

How could a "restrained, respectable, predictable, lifeless, un-supernatural" church be the empowered church Jesus said would do more miraculous works than He did? (He said, "He who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father.") Is it possible that many in our churches suffer from a modern version of the "King Joash Syndrome"?

Somehow, between the grasping of the arrows and the striking of the ground, disbelief and the fear of man won the battle for the king's heart.

By withholding his passion, King Joash foolishly sacrificed his nation's hope on the altar of public opinion and personal doubt. He would soon learn just how strongly his lack of passion in the unseen realm doomed his nation in the cruel realm of the seen.

The Lord told us to take up our cross daily, not just the day we repented and received Jesus Christ as Savior. He said that if we truly love Him, then we will keep His commands.8 Am I wrong, or is there is a "heat of passion" in the Lord's words that seems to be missing from the average Christian's life today? I don't remember even one command in the Scriptures that tells us to "cool down, calm down, and fit into the politically correct idea of church." (That seems dangerously similar to a description of lukewarm water to me.)

Prayer

Father, I don't want to spend my life seeking public approval or the "easiest way" to do things. My desire is to walk and live in Your approval by doing things the "right way." I have no desire to cool down, calm down, or fit into some politically correct box—help me burn white-hot for You and obey Your commands each day of my life.

God Sometimes Requires the Foolishness of Madmen
Tommy Tenney

After Elisha took King Joash through the prophet's-hand-over-the-king's-hand process of shooting an arrow of the Lord's deliverance, he prophesied, "You must strike the Syrians at Aphek till you have destroyed them." (Notice that God spoke through the prophet before Elisha told the king, "Take the arrows.") . . .

King Joash wasn't really listening to the prophet that day. He was too busy looking for something dramatic to happen. Miracles were common occurrences in the early ministries of Elisha and Elijah, and the king expected to see one on that day.

The last thing Joash expected from his meeting with the dying prophet was a command that made him look foolish right in front of everyone. When Elisha told him to strike the Syrians until they were destroyed, he found it impossible to believe the total defeat of his enemies depended upon a ludicrous action more suited to a madman than a valiant man.

Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 1:25, where we learn that the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and His "weakness" is stronger than men.

One of the reasons many intellectual leaders have rejected the gospel of Christ over the centuries is the "foolishness factor." God deliberately uses foolish things to confound the wise. (He even uses apparently foolish people like me in the process.) His plan continues to work well.

How could God be "foolish" to people? Only the almighty God would invade our fallen world in the disguise of a helpless human baby and wait for thirty long human years before beginning the deliverance process. Only God would think of dying for His creations just to give them life again and restore them to His family—after they rejected Him and disobeyed His will.

The foolishness factor also accounts for the countless Christians who tell the Lord no when He gives them divine assignments. Have you ever told God no because you couldn't understand why He would ask you to do such a foolish thing?

People like King Joash have a problem with the apparent "foolishness" in many of God's assignments because they really don't believe God would make such embarrassing requests.

Do you somehow feel it is beneath God to dabble in the foolish? Remember that the apparent "foolishness of God" isn't foolish at all—it only looks that way to the one-dimensional spiritual perception of mankind. He is not the "God-in-a-box," He is the almighty God, who knows no limit or lack.

Perhaps the problem in many churches is that no one is really waiting upon and listening to God. We get too busy doing "the stuff" of church—we fill our days with an endless round of busy things that don't seem to impart life to very many people.

Life and history would have been much kinder to King Joash and Israel had he listened more closely to God's prophet. What might happen to us if we listen closely and wait upon Him next time we gather in His name?

Prayer

Lord, I have no wish to be "valiant" in my own strength because I know it is useless as a tool to please You. However, I am willing to be a fool for You if my weakness allows me to receive Your strength and boldness. I will wait upon You and do as You ask, whether I appear to be a fool or a madman.

One Church Of The City

David Orton

The Dwelling Of God

"Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth) are God's temple...?" 1 Cor 3:16 (Amp)

God's purpose has always been to dwell with men.

From the beginning of time to its culmination, from Eden to the New Jerusalem, this has been his singular desire.

In the Garden it was God's habit to come down and commune with the first human community, most probably at the close of each day (see Gen 3:8). Adam, in his rebellion, ran from God forsaking this intimate communion, cutting himself off from the presence of God, and plunging his progeny into its present darkness.

With this tragic failure, God intervened, calling Abraham and his seed, to whom he said, "...have them make a sanctuary for me, and I dwell among them" (Ex 25:8). Likewise Israel, rebelled time-and-again, forsaking the devotion of her youth, until finally her house (or temple) was left desolate (see Jer 2:2; Mtt 23:38).

But God, in whom there is no variance, pursues with passion his purpose to dwell with men. Through redemptive history he has lived a peripatetic life, moving from the Garden, and then from one dwelling to another looking for a permanent place to live. As the Lord explained to David, " ...I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another" (1 Chr 17:5).

The God-Man

And so, finally, at the climax of history God declares of his own Son, the true Zion, "This is my resting place forever; here will I dwell, for I have desired it" (Psa 132:14). The eternal word has finally found a permanent repose in human flesh and "made his dwelling among us" (Jn 1:14; 'dwelling' - Gr. skunoo - 'to tabernacle'). God, in Christ, has fulfilled all that the Old Testament dwellings foreshadowed. He is now the "dwelling of God", made without hands, and we have beheld his glory (see Acts 17:24; Jn 1:14). The shekinah (Heb. 'dwelling') glory no longer dwells in temporary tents and earthly temples, but now abides eternally in the God-man, Jesus Christ. The glory of God's own presence has settled into a human breast.

The eschaton (the end) has been realised in Christ. He is God's final word. As the writer to the Hebrews shows, "God in these last days has spoken to us by his Son" (Heb 1:2). In his humanity he has become, "the radiance, the shining forth, of the Father's glory and the exact representation of his nature (Heb 1:3). He is the climax of all God's outshinings and the full manifestation of all that he is - "for in him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form" (Col 2:9). The man, Christ Jesus, has become the "one mediator between God and men"(1 Tim 2:5) - remarrying the human and the divine.

Prototype of a New Humanity

Even so, the fullness of God is not found in Christ alone, but in his union with his body, the church -

"...the church, which is his body the fullness of him..." (Eph 1:23). "And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the first born from among the dead...For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him (Col 1:18-19).

The God-man, Christ Jesus, has become the firstborn of a new creation - in fact, the prototype of a new humanity.

First, in his death as the last Adam. He has terminated, once-and-for-all, the failure of the Adamic race to maintain communion with God.

Secondly, rising as the second man. He is the beginning of a whole new order - a race of king-priests whose redeemed humanity and perfected humanity becomes the dwelling place of the living God. Blazing the trail into the presence of God he has irrevocably joined, in himself, the human and the divine (see Heb 2:10-14; 5:9-19; 2 Pet 1:4; Rom 8:29; 5:12-21; 1 Cor 15:45-47; 2 Cor 5:17).

And so, joined to him, his body now becomes the dwelling of God -

"In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy termple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit" (Eph 1:21-22).

The Temple of the City-Church

This brings us to the unity of the body. As the head of a new humanity Christ is not divided.

The apostolic church knew nothing of denominational division. It was not denominated by theology or celebrity, but only by geography. Gepgraphical boundaries and civil jurisdictions alone determined the church's boundaries. When the apostle wished to address a church he would speak to the whole church of the city - for example, the 'church of God in Corinth' (1 Cor 1:2). Evidently, the church, even in these large cosmopolitan cities, was functioning as one unified whole. (See also 2 Cor 1:1; 1 Ths 1:1; 2 Ths 1:1; Rev 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14; Rom 1:7; Eph 1:1; Phil 1:1; Col 1:2).

Anything less was an aberration, provoking apostolic rebuke. Paul had clearly taught, "...all the parts, though many, form (only) one body, so it is with Christ..." (1 Cor 12:12; see also v 20, 27; Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 10:16, 17; Eph 2:14-16; 4:4, 16, 25; 5:30). And so, when the church of God in Corinth violated this unity he wrote,

"I appeal to you, brothers...that there be no divisions among you...One of you says, 'I follow Paul'; another, 'Ifollow Cephas'...Is Christ divided?...

Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth) are God's temple?...If any one destroys it, God will destroy him because God's temple is sacred, and you are that temple".

(1 Cor 3:10-13; 3:16-17 Amp. & author's paraphrase).

Need we wonder any more at the destruction of the contemporary Western church! The scandal of our denominational divisions has invited the displeasure of God.

Now is the time to return to him - to repent of our pride and false value systems. To dismantle the mindsets and structures that are inimical to the spirit of Christ and the unity of his body. And together we will become a dwelling in which God is pleased to live.

All heaven will then erupt, declaring over our cities and nations -

"Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God". (Rev 21:3)

The Hiddenness Of God
David Orton

> “Truly you are a God who hides himself…” Isa 45:15

The ‘hiddenness of God’ is one of the greatest paradoxes of the spiritual life.

On the one hand, he is the self-revealing God who delights to communicate with man, but on the other, he hides himself.

God is a mystery. One great fourteenth century divine refers to this as, the “Cloud of Unknowing”. The psalmist cries out that he is surrounded by “clouds and thick darkness” (Ps 97:2; also 18:11). God hides himself in the contradiction of my circumstances. He is good, but it is hidden in the pain of where I find myself.

This darkness is impenetrable to the natural or religious man. Human reasoning and religious pursuit cannot open to us the knowledge of his ways – they are past finding out. Not even Bible knowledge is sufficient to penetrate the darkness. He defies our understanding, especially in the face of adversity.

Now, this is not to deny the propositional truth of Scripture. But it is to say that truth without the inner light is not enough. It inevitably results in an armchair knowledge of God. None are immune from this. Belief systems and worship patterns are exactly that – systems and patterns. They are the husks, not the kernel.

And so, how do we penetrate this “cloud of unknowing” and come to a personal and intimate knowledge of God. It goes without saying that we are to be saturated in the Scriptures. From the moment of my conversion I have loved the Scriptures, meditating in them and searching them out. However, in my experience, they have not been what God has used to bring me to him. They now feed me and sustain me on a daily basis, but only because the Spirit of God possessed me first. When I was born from above he entered my innermost being – he fused with my spirit. And now my spirit echoes with the Spirit of God that I am his.

So, it is by the Spirit that we come into the intimate knowledge of God. This is particularly so when the circumstances of life bring us to the end of ourselves. And this always entails pain. At this point head knowledge is not sufficient. Because God is spirit he communicates with our spirit – it is “deep calling to deep” (Psa 42:7). This is why Jesus said, “The words that I speak to you are spirit and life” (Jn 6:63).

While objectively, the Bible is the word of God and is always the rule of faith, subjectively those words are only mine when they come by the Spirit. It is the difference between the ‘logos’ and the ‘rhema’ (two NT Greek words for the English word ‘word’). The former refers more to the written word and the latter the spoken word. When Paul refers to the “sword of the Spirit” as the ’word’ of God (Eph 6:17) it is the ‘rhema’. The cutting edge against the enemy of our souls is discovered in the word that comes straight to the spirit rather than the head.

And so the “thick darkness” of our pain can only be cut through by the revelation of the Spirit. It is from the “mouth of the Most High that both calamities and good things come” (Lam 3:38). Job discovered this through his misfortune and so asked, “Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?” (Job 2:10). This is a great mystery, that both good and evil come from God. While we do not accept that God is the author of suffering, he allows it in his providential dealings to perfect us. At the end of all his sufferings Job could finally testify, “My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you” (Job 42:5). His head knowledge of God was not sufficient. He had heard of him by the hearing of the ear, but now through great perplexity of soul his eyes had seen him. The goodness of God had been shrouded momentarily in the “thick darkness” of life’s circumstances. But our extremity becomes God’s opportunity. In our darkness, the Spirit of God carries to us the revelation of who he is despite the lie of our circumstances.

I recall one of the dark moments of our lives. As a young couple in our mid-twenties Jenny and I had responded to the invitation of a highly respected and senior leader to work with and be trained by him. Believing it to be the fulfilment of the call of God that had come seven years earlier we moved from the city of our birth, filled with our youthful dreams, to another city and people we did not know. Within a short period, without explanation, all the wonderful promises were broken and we found ourselves out in the cold – without a job and without a ministry. God’s goodness was suddenly shrouded in “thick darkness”. Confused and wondering what had gone wrong I recall singing with tears the words of a chorus popular at the time, “He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he” (Deut 32:4).

It has been said that, “God isn’t fair, but he is just!” We feel that our lot is not fair, but our concept of ‘fairness’ doesn’t compute with who God is. And so, it is only by revelation that we can be reconciled with our lot and with God. For me this entailed the declaration of God’s justice and faithfulness in the face of my experience – of injustice and unfaithfulness. It literally tore my soul in half. Would my knowledge of God be informed by my feelings and circumstances, by sense knowledge, or by revelation knowledge? With pain I fell to the side of revelation. Something in the basement of my soul was settled. I was at peace.

He is the one who “forms the light and creates darkness”, who “brings prosperity and creates disaster” (Isa 45:7). But because “all his ways are just” and because “he is a faithful God who does no wrong” we are safe!

God hides himself in our pain. But if we turn to him, he opens our eyes – we learn to see him through tears and “thick darkness”.

He will give us the “hearing ear and the seeing eye” (Prov 20:12).

Lifemessenger Inc PO Box 777 Mount Eliza VIC 3930 Australia subscriptions@lifemessenger.org

Overcoming Discouragement

Francis Frangipane

The Jews had been defeated by Nebuchadnezzar and, because of their long and extended rebellion to God, the Lord allowed them to be exiled to Babylon. Yet, now their appointed time of judgment had passed; it was time for the Lord's promise to be fulfilled. Indeed, He had assured them, "After seventy years...I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place" (Jer. 29:10 KJV).

Initiated by the fasting and prayer of the prophet Daniel, Israel had entered a season of divine visitation: men with both integrity and vision were raised up and financial provisions came. The display of divine grace had created an atmosphere of awe and excitement among the people of God - He was "causing [them] to return" to Israel! Yet, how He brought them back was just as miraculous: Israel's God revealed Himself to King Cyrus of Persia, a gentile king, and actually "Appointed [him] to build [the Lord] a house in Jerusalem" (2 Chron. 36:23). In fact, Cyrus encouraged a national offering for Israel's journey; he restored the treasures taken by Nebuchadnezzar from Israel, and he issued a royal edict, legally authorizing the return of the Jews to Israel.

It was a time of great miracles, supernatural provision and fulfilled prophecy. Yet even as the exiles resettled in Jerusalem and engaged in the work of restoration, we read:

"Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and frightened them from building, and hired counselors against them to frustrate their counsel all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia" (Ezra 4:4-5).

Incredibly, in spite of the miracles, signs and provisions, simple discouragement neutralized their progress. Unbelievably, scholars say that their work stalled for nearly 20 years! Beloved, discouragement is an enemy that is both subtle in its attack and powerful in its ability to stop us. We must discern it when it comes and refuse to accommodate its influence when it speaks.

How Discouragement Enters

Every person with a vision from God will have serious opportunities to become discouraged as they reach for the fulfillment of their vision. Indeed, just as Israel was given a promise from God and provisions to help their return, so the Almighty has given promises and provisions to us. Your vision may be for your personal transformation, or it may be a God-inspired desire to see your family or church brought into spiritual renewal. You may even possess a citywide vision or a holy passion to see your nation turned toward God. Yet, like the Jews, we can be just as vulnerable to discouragement and its effects.

How does discouragement gain access to our souls? The answer is simple: We start evaluating our lives based upon information compiled by our senses instead of assessing our position based upon the promise and help of God. However, I don't mean we are unaware of the difficulties of our faith assignment, but that God is good and He is not hindered by our present limitations.

Consider: when God promised Abraham a child in his old age, the Bible says he "contemplated his own body, now as good as dead since he was about a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah's womb." Abraham didn't deny the facts of life; without growing weak in faith, he "contemplated" his situation. "Yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God." He was "fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform" (see Rom. 4:19-21). Discouragement comes when we only look at our circumstances without looking to the faithfulness and integrity of what God has promised.

Still, discouragement has infiltrated the minds of many. Knowing mankind's vulnerability to discouragement, Jesus taught His disciples a parable that, "at all times they ought to pray and not to lose heart" (Lk 18:1). The parable concerned a widow desperately seeking legal protection from an adversary, but she received no immediate help from her judge (see Lk 18). In spite of his resistance, however, she refuses to be discouraged from her quest; she persists until she gains her breakthrough.

The goal of Christ's teaching was to immunize His followers from discouragement; to "lose heart" is to become discouraged. Jesus assures us that God will hear us as we turn to Him in persistent prayer.

True Faith Takes Courage

We also need to know Christ is not just our Savior, but He also is the "author and perfecter" of our faith (Heb 12:2). In order for faith to mature, it needs situations where faith alone can sustain us. "Faith" is not merely a proper understanding of doctrinal issues; faith is the spiritual "substance of things hoped for; the evidence of things not seen" (Heb 11:1 KJV). We must not only possess accurate doctrines about faith; we must live by faith as well.

Indeed, there are times when, for faith to develop, we must trust God in spite of how things appear. Jesus often told people to take courage, for their faith had saved them (see Mt 9:2; 9:22; etc.). There will always be times when, against the glaring face of a negative reality, true faith arises, appropriates courage and locks into the integrity of God's promise. We must let faith arise in the context of resistance. This is the faith that touches God's heart.

The enemy comes to dis-courage or remove the courage from our hearts, and thus causes us to withdraw into unbelief. To win our fight of faith, we must not surrender to discouragement. Yes, times will come when we will ask God for greater wisdom; certainly, we will adjust our attitudes and become both flexible and wiser as we process the faith assignment destiny has set before us. But we must not give up: "For yet in a very little while, He who is coming will come, and will not delay. But My righteous one shall live by faith; and if he shrinks back, My soul has no pleasure in him" (Heb 10:37-38).

Hall of Faith

The above scripture is part of an introduction to Hebrews, chapter 11, which chronicles the heroic stories of those who pleased God with their faith. All of them had to endure the test of time; often the delays seemed so permanent and the odds against them insurmountable, yet none of these men and women allowed discouragement to dim the brightness of their faith. The persevering quality of their hearts - the fact that they stood in the storms of doubt and circumstances and refused to shrink away from God's promise - filled God's heart with pleasure, and He answered their faith.

Part of the testimony of those with overcoming faith is that they conquered kingdoms, performed acts of righteousness, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight" (Heb 11:33-34).

I absolutely love this scripture: "they conquered kingdoms...put foreign armies to flight." Beloved, a foreign army with weapons named "perversion," "immorality" and "corruption" has invaded our nation and sought to occupy our culture. It has eroded the conscience of our society, and it seeks to carry off our sons and daughters into captivity. We must fight.

You say, "But Francis, I'm weary."

Yes, there are times when we all get weary. But we have the help of God with us. Consider His promise:

"Behold, My Servant, whom I uphold; My chosen one in whom My soul delights. I have put My Spirit upon Him; He will bring forth justice to the nations...He will not be disheartened or crushed..." (Isaiah 42:1-4).

Christ will be not "disheartened or crushed." Why? The Spirit of God "upholds" Him, and the Spirit of God upholds Christ in us as well. Are you God's servant? Then turn to Him and find new strength. You may be wounded or struck, but as we abide in Christ, we too will be neither "disheartened or crushed."

You say, "I live in Florida (or the Southeastern USA or the Caribbean). I've been discouraged by the destruction from these many storms." Yet, even in the most difficult times, God is there with you. Have you noticed the names and sequence of the hurricanes that roared through Florida: Charley, Frances, Ivan and Jeanne? The meaning of these names reveals a message: Charley- man, Frances- free, Ivan- God is good, Jeanne- gracious and merciful. Together, they say, "Man (is) free; God is good, gracious and merciful." If we look, we will see that, in the midst of these storms, God was good, gracious and merciful to many. Those who see God standing with them in the storms are free indeed.

A number from the USA were discouraged by the first debate between the presidential candidates. I heard folks lamenting that their candidate "did poorly. He could hardly speak in sentences." Remember, dear friend, the Lord has used people who were slow of speech in the past (see Ex 3). The issue is not how clever we are with words, but whether God will back up our stammering with His power. Let us pray for our President, and where he has made mistakes, whether in speech or even in administration of the nation, let us intercede that God will work good out even from mistakes.

Dear one, there is a spiritual war raging, whether it is over the future of our world or the future of our souls, we cannot shrink back into unbelief. Let us be strong and of good courage. Let us seek God and find new strength in prayer. And let us never give in to the voice of discouragement.

Vote For the Anointing
Francis Frangipane

To obtain conformity to Christ means we are seeking to serve God with the very same character, purpose, and empowerment (or "anointing") that was revealed in Jesus. Yet, Christ-likeness is not something we mimic, but a life that flows to us from Christ Himself and is worked in us via the Holy Spirit (see Phil 3). This is why our primary focus is not upon the outer form or style of our worship, but upon the Person we worship. Yes, to be conformed to Jesus in all things is true worship perfected.

When we speak of conformity to God's Son, we mean that the very same anointing that rested upon Him, now rests upon us. In the Bible, when one was anointed, it denoted that an individual had been chosen and prepared by God to serve in a role of either priestly, prophetic, or kingly authority. As Israel's Messiah, Christ was the perfect embodiment of these three functions of the anointing. This is not new teaching about Jesus Christ. If you are born again of the Holy Spirit, you have received a living power which is also working in you the manifest life - the anointed life - of Jesus Christ (see 2 Cor 4:7-11). God's goal is not just to bring us to Christ when we die, but to manifest Christ where we live.

Remember, the title Christ means "Anointed One." To truly know the Lord Jesus is to understand His Messianic identity as Israel's Anointed. To be conformed to Him, however, is to walk in His anointing (see 1 Jn 2:6). Thus, as we near the end of the age, the true church will be increasingly identified by Christ's three-fold anointing: we will be given to intercession as a priesthood of believers; we will be prophetic in our discernment and communication of God's word (whether the word comes to teach, comfort, evangelize, or warn); and in all of life's spheres, we will walk in a holy, kingly anointing, as ambassadors of Christ and His kingship in heaven (see 2 Cor 5:20).

Christ's Fullness

Yet, this last arena, the transference of Christ's representative governmental authority to the church, has been resisted by many Christians. While most might accept the authority of Christ to help in their sphere of influence, even sincere believers question the legitimacy of godly leaders being called to serve in government. They ask for New Testament teaching to confirm this doctrine.

The very fact that Jesus Christ sits as king in heaven, and that His expressed will is that we be conformed to His image in all things (Rom 8:29), validates that He will have disciples who will manifest His governmental anointing on earth. For, "as He is, so also are we in this world" (1 John 4:17). You see, God has called His church to one goal: reveal the fullness of Christ.

We should learn from past mistakes, but not limit our potential because of them. Our birthright cannot be measured by the failures of our past, but against the stature of Christ-likeness. Our confidence must abide in the Father's ability to fulfill what He has spoken concerning us. Therefore, let us forget for a moment our current limitations and consider with reverence our spiritual potential. And let us not be staggered by unbelief, but with faith pray, "be it done to me according to Your word" (Lk 1:38).

John writes,

"For of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace." John 1:16

Paul states,

"The church...is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all." Ephesians 1:22-23

Again, Paul says the height of our destiny is nothing less than "the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" (Eph 4:13).

God's will is not that our growth be stunted halfway to full maturity, but that we know and walk in the full anointing of Christ! Consider: the proof that Elisha had truly received Elijah's anointing was that Elisha did the works of Elijah (2 Kings 2:8-15). Likewise, the anointing that rests upon us should, in time, produce the very same life that we see in Christ, our heavenly King (see Jn 14:12). Thus, when someone questions the validity of Christians serving in government, we have only to point them to the prayer Christ taught: "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." Indeed, every time we pray those words, someone is receiving grace to represent the character and interests of Christ in our governmental settings.

The Kingly Anointing

Again, the question arises, "But the realm of kingly or governmental authority is fraught with the corrupting influence of power. Why would God send His servants into secular leadership?"

Hebrews 11 tells us that God specifically sends His servants into world systems to transform them and lead nations toward heaven. Consider: From verse 22 through verse 34 of Hebrews 11, each person given as an example of faith was an individual raised up by God to lead their nation. Who would like to inform the righteous kings of Judah, from David to Josiah, that it was not God's will for them to be in power? Whisper this idea, that God does not anoint and send people into world leadership, to Daniel and see if he concurs. You see, God has always had it in His heart to raise up men and women who serve Him in wisdom and righteousness, whom He uses to bring multitudes to Himself.

Consider God's word to Abraham:

"As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you will be the father of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come forth from you." Genesis 17:4-6

For over two thousand years, from Abraham to Christ, God worked primarily with Israel and its line of kings. However, His promise to Abraham was that he would be a father of "a multitude of nations." He never has abandoned Israel, yet three times in the above promise the Lord mentions that many nations would look upon Abraham as their father. He then adds, "and kings will come forth from you" (vs. 6).

It has always been in God's heart to bring nations to Himself, but it wasn't until Christ came that the grace of God could truly spread worldwide. The fact is, you cannot bring nations to God without turning the government of those nations to God as well. So the Lord tells Abraham, "kings will come...from you." Kings exercise authority over nations. Paul speaks of this, in principle, in the New Testament when he urged "that entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men, for kings and all who are in authority" (1 Tim 2:1-2).

In the Lord's promise to Abraham, the Hebrew word for kings referred to "officials of many levels." This word, kings (Melek in Hebrew), was a "very common term for virtually any magistrate" (Zodhiates Hebrew-Greek Key Study Bible). In other words, among those who were to come forth from Abraham would be a generation of godly leaders whose sphere of influence would be felt in every strata of secular authority.

Isaiah 60 also speaks of "nations" that would come to our light and "kings" to the brightness of our rising (Isa 60:1-3). Again, kings here is the same word that encompassed all levels of secular authority. This promise of God is not only for the millennium, but also for now, during the time when "darkness will cover the earth and deep darkness the peoples" (vs. 2). Just because the cultural atmosphere is charged with demonic darkness, it does not mean the Almighty has abandoned society. God desires to raise up warring priests who intercede for mercy; He has prophets who call His people to repentance and vision; and He is preparing leaders who will rule righteously with wisdom and meekness.

The Gift of Democracy

Only in recent times has mankind been given a wonderful gift from God: democracy. For approximately 5700 years, the entire world order was ruled by kings and tribal chiefs (except briefly in Athens). Even today, nearly half the world does not elect their government leaders.

With democracy, we do not have to wait for a king or dictator to die to hope that his heir will be more righteous. In America, every four years we are given the opportunity to pray and decide who shall guide our nation. This means that we can choose godly leaders to guide us. Of course, no one is perfect. We will always struggle with the apparent imperfections of any candidate; we will never stop needing the priestly role of intercession to redeem our leaders' errors. But in democracies, we have the opportunity to realize the anointing of Christ in governmental systems. It is a tremendous gift from God!

Am I saying that democracy is the same as heaven? No, absolutely not! Not until Jesus returns will we realize the fullness of God's kingdom. Remember, we said that our goal is not to see the church become political, but the political realm become spiritual, where the integrity, wisdom, and justice of Christ - the anointing of the Messiah Himself - manifests in godly leadership.

People say, "The Lord will decide who is elected. I'm not voting." Excuse me, but in democracies God chooses to work through the voting system. We will always have to trust the Lord no matter who is elected, and we should pray that He "stir up" the spirits of godly people to vote, but He will not override the mechanics of our democratic nation. Thus, we must choose our officials with prayer and principled wisdom. We must also encourage others and work to see godly leaders positioned in government; and where godliness does not exist, we must pray for leaders that they might come to Christ.

How do we discern among candidates which individual is capable of receiving Christ's anointing for government? First, we must look beyond an individual's debating skills and ask, does this man or woman bow to Christ as their ruler? You see, to that leader, Jesus must be revealed as the King of kings. Not until a person genuinely bows before Christ, is he fit to rise and lead the people.

One last thing: No matter who is elected, God calls us to pray for our leaders with faith and mercy, trusting in God's goodness. I am not telling you for whom you should vote, but urging you to vote with vision and prayer. Which candidate do you feel can be most influenced by Christ to lead our nation? Vote for the individual who, as best as you can tell, is most open to the anointing of Christ the King.

Web: www.frangipane.org
Email: comments@frangipane.org

Our Desire For Corporate Expression
Cal Werner

Many are questioning the role of church, movements, and renewal. The questions are often of the in-church versus out-of-church, or this church vs. that movement, roman catholicism vs. protestantism etc... These questions originate from an incorrect construct and wrong premise that will inevitably lead to wrong conclusions.

The scriptures do detail the answers, I will let you formulate the correct question. In the great council held in Jerusalem in Acts 15, the apostles dealt with much more than fleshly circumcision for the introduction of gentile believers into the Israel of God. Paul believed that the entrance of the gentiles into the Israel of God (into the true people of God) was through Jesus, the Christ under a New Covenant in his blood. Paul preached the circumcision of the heart by means of a covenant sealed in baptism in water and in the Holy Spirit to enter into the body of the Lord Jesus Christ through repentance and faith. The baptism means our identification in the death and in the resurrection of Christ, being willing to die to ourselves so that the victorious life of Jesus can flow through us by means of the Holy Spirit. Paul preached that there was a new and higher law than the law of Moses, 'for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death' (Romans 8:2). The rites and procedures of the law of Moses were being opposed.

The controversy continued, even after Peter's testimony of his vision and the inclusion by the Holy Spirit of the household of Cornelius. James powerfully resolved the debate in favor of Paul and Peter by citing a seemingly obscure Scripture from the Prophet Amos, "...and will build again the tabernacle of David..." What was the tabernacle of David? and Why were these dogmatic Jews (some were Pharisees) convinced by such a strange argument?

It was a simple tent without an intermediary priesthood, without furniture, without a holy place, without a bronze altar and without continual blood sacrifices. But it contained the ark of the glory of God. The raising up of the tabernacle of David is a perfect picture of the intimate and personal communion that all who have died to their own ways can enter into the Way of the greater son of David and enjoy uninterrupted fullness with God the Father without clergy, rites, structures, organizations or denominations. The simple tent speaks of us in union with Him and the ark of God speaks of our access to the glory, unction, and presence of God the Father.

God did not see fit to give the floor plan, dimensions, or materials of this simple tent. But James resolved the issue regarding what the model for receiving gentiles into the Israel of God would be, leaving no doubt or question in the minds of all who were present that day. The model for the church age is the Tabernacle of David.

God has corporate expressions that are ordained of Him and He will set the proper governments in place to ensure that His work is accomplished. Corporate expression of new testament stature in the majority of North American gatherings is deficient. That said....

In our day and time, man has precipitated horizontal union outside of the timing and ways of God. Leaven has been incorporated into the lump to maintain order and control. The true sheep are then mistreated and hurt but the Lord promises "all things will work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

God has permitted all the human attempts and endeavors to build kingdoms in His name because He is an expert in using adversity and injustice to dress and purify the true living stones that He is planning to use in the construction of His true Temple when the time comes. Man continues with his plans and programs while Jesus the Christ is preparing and purifying each individual stone one by one until the time comes to build the true temple built without hands and without the sound of a hammer.

So let us draw near with a true heart and with complete faith having our hearts purified from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water, holding fast to the profession of our hope.

For a correct foundation,
Cal

The above includes excerpts and summarizations from "The Tabernacle of David" by Russell Stendal.
To all Contact information: Calwerner@aol.com Calwerner@aol.com
(may be freely forwarded):

Open Door in 2004
Doug Fortune

Open Door in 2004 - The Key Of David
I am stirred in my spirit that this coming year is a season of unprecedented favor. The Lord has spoken to me that there is an 'Open Door in 2004'. Let us press into this tremendous opportunity to see the Kingdom advanced on all fronts. I offer the following for your edification and discernment.

"After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven..." (Revelation 4:1)

I don't know about you, but I am intrigued by this door. I love the visual imagery of an open door in heaven. It seems to be such a paradox, as a door is something we can relate to, something we have definition for, yet heaven seems to defy imagination. I don't know that this is a regular door, like the doors in my house, though. The word translated as door, thura in Greek, means a portal or entrance. I believe this is significant, as it sheds a different light on the 'door' idea. I think of a 'portal' as being an entrance to another realm, a change of environment. Also, note that it is not a window that merely bids us take a look into what lies beyond, rather it is a portal that bids us to enter into what lies beyond!

I also find it fascinating that we find this door within the same context of another 'door' we are all very familiar with. "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." (Revelation 3:20) You might be thinking that this door we are looking at in Revelation chapter 4 is not necessarily related to the door in Revelation 3:20. After all, our primary verse begins with the words "after this" which seem to denote a chronological shift, or a passage of time. However this is, in reality, an unfortunate assumption we can make. The words translated as 'after this', are two words in Greek, meta tauta. Meta is a primary preposition denoting accompaniment or being AMID. This word occupies an intermediate position between the Greek ek (a primary preposition denoting ORIGIN, the point whence action or motion proceeds) and eis (a primary preposition indicating the point REACHED or entered). Tauta simply means 'these things'. So, translated literally, the verse would read, 'In the MIDST of, or accompanying these things I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven.' I don't mean to belabor a grammar lesson here, but I believe it is important to see the correlation between the two doors in these two chapters.

You see, the door of Revelation 3:20 speaks of intimacy, as it says, "I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me." The door of Revelation 4:1-2 speaks of understanding and implementing the eternal purpose of God from the higher perspective and authority of the Throne, as it says, "...Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter... and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne." May I suggest that we will never enter the 'door' of understanding and implementing the eternal purpose of God without first opening the 'door' of intimacy? And why is this?... it is because if He can trust us with His heart in the place of intimacy, then He can trust us with His authority in implementing His purpose in the earth.

Intimacy is not necessarily that 'warm fuzzy' feeling we long for and experience as we draw close to Him, although that IS a good thing and to be desired. Rather, intimacy is being ONE in purpose with Him. We can read of this intimacy in John 17:21-23; "That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest Me I have given them; that they may be one, even as We are one: I in them, and thou in Me, that they may be made perfect in one." God's purpose is that there be NO separation, that we be ONE with Him and IN Him!

Now then, we just read in Revelation 3:20 as it says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door..." Personally, I believe that this door requires a 'key'. Let us read as the prophet Isaiah speaks of this key; "And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open." (Isaiah 22:22) We can also read of this key in our context of Revelation chapter 3; "These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth..." (Revelation 3:7) I also believe that we can glean much from a quick study of this 'key'.

If we back up to verses 20-21 of Isaiah 22, it speaks of governmental authority, fathering and Eliakim the son of Hilkiah; "And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah." (Isaiah 22:20-21) The name Eliakim, Elyaqiym in Hebrew, means God of raising. The name Hilkiah, Chilqiyah in Hebrew, means portion of Jah (God). Indeed, He IS the God that desires to raise up those who are His portion! Those who are intimately 'His portion', with no divided allegiances, He will exalt in wisdom and authority.

It is from this intimate place of being raised up in wisdom and authority that we can then understand and appropriate the revealed purpose and plan of God. I say this because in Revelation 4:1 we read, "...Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter." As I discussed in my book entitled "Deep calls to Deep", the word unfortunately translated as 'hereafter' is two words in Greek, meta tauta. Meta is a primary preposition denoting accompaniment or being AMID. Tauta simply means 'these things'. Translated literally, the Voice in Revelation is saying, "I will show you what needs to occur in the MIDST of, or accompanying these things." John is being shown things which MUST BE in the midst presently. In other words, God's stated eternal PURPOSE is that which MUST BE. The word translated as 'must be' is dei in Greek, meaning necessary (as binding), it is the third person singular ACTIVE PRESENT tense of deo - meaning to bind. Deo is the word used in Matthew 16:19, "...whatsoever thou shalt BIND on earth shall be BOUND in heaven..." So to put all this together, John is being shown a vision of what MUST BE, or what is bound in heaven, in order that we may grasp that vision and bind it (bring it to manifest) in the earth by our words and our lifestyle!

In our text, several Bible versions translate it as "a door standing open in heaven." I like this idea of the door (portal) standing open. It speaks to me of an 'open heaven'! This idea of an open heaven ties in closely with the Key of David, as Revelation 3:7-8 states, "These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth... behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it..." Also in Isaiah 22:22, "And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut..."

I think all of us are interested in an open heaven... all of us are interested in the favor of God. In the past I have always thought of an 'open heaven' or the 'favor of God' as resting primarily on individuals. I have seen it operating powerfully in my own life. At times I have even felt somewhat guilty for walking in such 'favor', as I knew I certainly didn't deserve it. However, I am beginning to glimpse the possible immaturity in my thinking. You see, although an 'open heaven' or the 'favor of God' may manifest through an individual, it's really more a matter of the 'favor' resting upon the purpose of God. Yes, I believe the 'favor' actually rests upon the purpose of God and when we align ourselves with His purpose, the 'favor' utilizes US as a conduit through which to flow. You see, His favor really isn't ABOUT ME, it's about His purpose.

As I began writing this, I was proceeding with the thought that intimacy was the Key of David. After all, David is known as 'the man after God's heart'. However, now I am seeing that intimacy is actually the avenue that takes us to God's purpose- God's eternal purpose is the KEY! We must remember that David was not only 'the man after God's heart', but because of his intimate relationship he was aligned with and implementing God's eternal purpose as he set up the Davidic Tabernacle. Think about it for a moment... why didn't David just take the Ark a few miles back to Gibeon where it had been for years? You see, the Ark represented the very presence of God, and not only represented it, but the shekinah glory of the Presence of the Lord literally manifested between the wings of the cherubim. Because of his intimate relationship, something inside of David compelled him to prepare a special place, "And David... prepared a place for the ark of God..." (1 Chronicles 15:1)

Whether he was totally aware of it or not, David was participating in the implementation of the Father's end-time plan. We can read of this in Acts 15:16-17, "After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things." I personally believe that the restoration of the Davidic Tabernacle is absolutely paramount to the fulfillment of God's end-time purposes. However, may I suggest that it is a living and breathing restored Davidic Tabernacle, a Third Day People with no veil of the fleshly self-life to hide the Christ that dwells within them, a people that manifest the presence and glory of God! God's original purpose was and still is, through intimate fellowship to have a corporate Man in His image and likeness, and to exercise dominion (not domination) FROM the Davidic Throne of mercy and justice, THROUGH the corporate Body of Messiah. His purpose is to have a Throne (a seat of authority) in the earth to bring heaven to earth! "In mercy the THRONE will be established; And one will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David, Judging and seeking justice and hastening righteousness." (Isaiah 16:5 NKJV) This ties in directly with our context in the book of Revelation; "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock (the call to intimacy)... To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne (the call to authority), even as I also overcame, and am set down with My Father in His throne." (Revelation 3:20-21 my input in parenthesis)

So many in Christendom have set their hopes on and ordered their lives on the idea of leaving the earth to GO TO HEAVEN, when all along God's eternal purpose is for us to order our lives on the idea of BRINGING HEAVEN TO EARTH! This is the purpose of God's favor, this is the purpose of an 'open heaven'... in order that the Kingdom of heaven that is within us (Luke 17:21) would invade the earth around us! Jesus said it this way, "But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house." (Matthew 12:28-29) The carnal thinking of the world-system is the 'strong man's house' and it is time we enforced the victory of the cross to 'spoil his house'. It is time we believed the Scripture when it says, "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out." (John 12:31) and "...the prince of this world is judged." (John 16:11)

Listen to this Psalm penned by 'the man after God's heart'. Because of his intimate relationship, David truly had a revelation of the eternal purpose of God: "The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. (No mention of escape because the devil is in control!) For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? (The call to come higher and draw near to Him in intimacy.) He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart... (Those who are the undivided 'portion of God'.) Lift up your head, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting DOORS; and the King of glory shall come in. (Once again we read of open doors!) Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting DOORS; and the King of glory shall come in. (And for what purpose are there open doors?... that the King of glory shall come in!... that heaven invade earth!) Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah." (Psalms 24:1-10 my input in parenthesis)

I sense something stirring in the Body of Christ these days, an unsettling expectancy. I believe that many in the church are 'beholding the door' that bids us to enter into what lies beyond, many are standing at the 'portal' right now; "After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven..." And like the sounding of a trumpet ("the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me..."), the prophetic call today is, "Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be..." (Revelation 4:1) Those who respond to this call will be given a fresh vision of the Throne of God, "And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne." (Revelation 4:2)

The Father is declaring, "And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house." (Isaiah 22:22-23) Through intimate relationship, a living and breathing restored Davidic Tabernacle, He desires to give us a fresh vision of the Kingdom of heaven within us, a fresh vision of the Throne of God, and its' invasion of the earth, and its' establishment in the earth. Knowing and understanding His eternal purpose, we become the very CONDUITS, the open doors through which the King of glory comes in, that heaven invade earth! "And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the Tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness." (Isaiah 16:5)

THIS is the day of an open door.
THIS is the day of an open heaven.
THIS is the day of the Key of David.

Doug Fortune www.Apostolic-Prophetic.com

Open Doors in 2004
Rex Burgher

Open doors in 2004
28 Jan 2004
Open doors in 2004 is one of the prophetic phrases that prophets across the country are speaking about for this year.

January is the beginning of the open doors. A door can be both a place of entry and a place of exit. It is a pivotal place of things going and coming. This pivotal year of 2004 will be a determining factor over the next four years concerning your family, ministry, church or business. In short the decisions to walk through the doors that will be before you throughout this year have long-term consequences.

It is important that we stay close to the good Shepherd during the coming months. Stay real close abiding in Him daily, especially during the month of February. Psalm 23 should be the scripture for the month.

There are four things to look for during this coming year.

1. Look for secrets to be revealed. Things long hidden will be uncovered and brought out into the daylight. This will vindicate some and convict others. WMD, 'Weapons of Mass Distraction' will be uncovered and brought out into the light for the world to see.

2. Look for 'woman at the well' experiences. People to show up in your path in unexpected ways and places. There are divine meetings this year that will be door openers and closures for us in the body and it is crucial that we be alert in perceiving these doors of opportunities. Be careful to not pass by your kairos moment.

It will be a pleasant surprise for some and a nuisance for others depending if you are being led by the Good Shepherd or not. Surprise encounters will get us where we need to be!

3. Revelations from the Father will be revealed to his saints. Look for and expect significant dreams and visions to come to you. Write them down!

4. Restoration of those who walked away from God's will be given a chance to have their destinies redeemed. God wants us to be aware that He is the God of the second chance. The enemy came and stole their vision because he knows that without vision we perish, but God is bringing a remembrance of great things to come and is wooing back the prodigals.

This is also the year of multiplication, the year of the loaves and fishes. What you have will be multiplied in the months ahead. Look for the increase to come through un-expectant people and situations especially during the month of September.

This is the year of Cyrus. Cyrus was a non-believer who was used by God to supply the rebuilding of the temple, 2 Chronicles 36:22-23. Even after he died they continued to supply the Jews with what was needed because Cyrus had decreed it, Ezra 5:13-6:14. Look for unexpected supplies to come your way through un-expectant people. Same for the increase in anointing over your gifting(s), look for seemingly insignificant people to come bringing the increase.

There are four phases to this year!

1. 1. Final closure to doors that had previously kept coming open no matter how hard you shut them in the past. There is favor from God to over come old mind-sets and fears. The mindsets or locksets are being changed on the doors. Different keys are being given to the body to lock out the enemy from continually getting in.

2. 2. We must be aware of, and anticipating the doors as they come into view. It would be a great shame to not take advantage of the 'now season' of favor we are presently in.

3. 3. When you go through the doors expect something different! Be encouraged that there will be a change. Remember a door swings both ways, letting you into the good but not stopping you from returning to the old.

4. 4. Revelation 3:19-20, "Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent. Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.

One door will lead to another and another. Saying YES to God will lead to victories, greater revelations and closer fellowship with HIM! And the opportunity to go through more doors!

Revelation 4:1, "After this I looked and there before me was a door standing open in heaven." These doors will establish your future and your determination for victory will give you a new mind-set and the keys to lock out the old ways.

This is a year to travail so you can prevail!

Three anointing(s) to be released during this year.

Three anointing(s) to be released during this year as the anointing of Samson comes upon us. Now Samson was quite stupid in a lot of ways and it is important that we not be like Samson in his stupidity. But in Hebrews 11:32, it mentions Samson in the line of those who had 'great faith.' At the end of his life he had 'great faith' even though he couldn't see he pushed over the pillars and brought about a great victory.

1. Judges 14:28, Be Aware of the opportunity for giving a supernatural push through whatever it is that is holding you back this year. You will come up against the enemy who does not want you to experience the 'breaker anointing' that is upon us this year and will come against you. So by faith, even though you may not be able to see, put you faith to practice and push for the breakthrough. Bitterness, hardening of heart, whatever it is that has held you back from gaining victory over can be removed this year.

2. Jeremiah 12:5, The Lord rebuked Jeremiah, "If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out, how can you compete with horses? If you stumble in safe country, how will you manage in the thickets by the Jordan?"

This is a year of the crossing the river of breakthrough, a year to cross the Jordan and going into the promises of God. This is our destiny and purposes that have been given to each of us through visions, dreams and prophetic utterances. Look for supernatural anointing in overcoming and rise up men and women of God for the time is now to move for the Lord your God is going before you. Re-Dig the wells of past prophetic words spoken over you and declare them to the heavens.

3. 3. Nehemiah 4:5 talks of rebuilding the walls and the fact that the enemy will contend with you and accuse and mock you as well. "for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders." Formerly you succumbed to these taunts of the enemy but God is ready to release an anointing of grace, grace, grace through you.

The closure of these gaps in the walls surrounding us will be crucial in how the next four years of our family, ministry, church and business play out. Do not be surprised if mockers will come and ridicule you during this season.

Look for the open doors of opportunities, surprises to come upon you, increased visions and dreams and new keys to be given for the new locks that are being placed on your mind-sets. Locksmiths are being released this year.

Rex & Lois on the road in 2004! Ministering Feb. 6-8th in Lake Stevens, Washington at the Revelation Church, go to our website for times and location.

Rex Burgher Email: rex@burgherministry.com Web: http://www.burgherministry.com/

Don't ask yourself what the world needs. Ask yourself what makes you come alive, and go do that, because what the world needs is people who have come alive!

http://globalawakening.com

Oh Australia

Mary Lindow

Oh Australia! Land Of Those Once Shamed And Sent Into Exile.

Peoples of all races now surrounding coastal regions. I have seen your struggles and achievements. I have watched with a focused and unrelenting eye as you have grown and have matured into a nation with a unique voice…a unique sound. A sound now being heard as a blast of warning saying...
"Prepare you the way of the Lord make My paths straight!"

And so out of you shall come a fiery and passionate move of apostolic release, which will expose false movements and false doctrines now masquerading as the new wave.

Melbourne, Canberra, Perth, and yes even remote Alice Springs will see manifestations of glory and signs and wonders that will silence your accusers and bring about national waves of repentance for the sake of unity. The rains will begin to pour forth in the natural as waves of rain from the heavens are released in the supernatural upon you.

I will drive the proud and scheming far from my plans for you Australia, and those who would merchandise My anointing will be exposed for thieves in My holy place of Divine Purpose. I give them yet a little time to repent and to turn to a new way, a new wine skin of purpose.

Just as your flag displays my glory in the southern cross so shall I display the glory of the cross in waves of salvations and repentance. Out of you Australia will I Send those of every race and ethnic origin into the nations who once exiled you.

You are my faith seeds for the next harvest field around the globe.

As the Olympics begin to proceed, I will cause Australia to shine like a beacon through it's gifted athletes. There will be a glory resting on them, which I will use to draw attention to your country.

Among your peoples are those who have wept in brokenness and intercession for the promise of blessing I would soon give to them, even when the land still remained destitute and proud.

Watch now as I redeem the land. Your dry desert places will see rain and water like never before recorded in your history.

Behold! Your desert places shall bloom and flowers and plants will spring up from seeds that lay dormant for decades. So shall it be in the spirit. You will see those assumed finished, weakened and buried; now spring up into the destiny of My Glory.

People from all nations will flock to you to taste the sweet and unembellished glory that I will allow to rest upon you if you keep your hand

If you have been blessed by this article why not forward it to a friend: Forward

Reprint Agreement:

Duplication and re-transmission of this writing is permitted provided that complete source and website information for Lifemessenger is included.
Thank you.
www.lifemessenger.org
info@lifemessenger.org
Copyright © David Orton 2004

Occult Influence In The Elections

Jim Chosa

Prayer News Alert from Chuck Pierce
I am forwarding two interesting emails from Jim Chosa, a member of our USSPN National Apostolic Team. The first concerns how he has been led to pray for the presidential election. I think this could have a major influence on the voting process. Many of you will want to use this as a prayer focus. Then below this is an excellent article he has written on exercising our earthly citizenship through voting.

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce
****

Greetings! Several days ago around 3:30 AM, the Holy Spirit woke me up. As I came awake, I realized I was moving forcefully against an occult shield covering one of the presidential candidates. For the next hour I continued to obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit to nail this dark shield and break it wide open so the real spiritual character of the candidate could be seen by those seduced by a high level spirit of sorcery. Then, I called a close friend and high level intercessor and found out she is carrying the same burden in the Spirit.

Because we cannot openly endorse a political candidate as a minister of Christ, we cannot tell you the name of the candidate. However, I can tell you this with respect to how the Holy Spirit would have us understand from Heaven's viewpoint which of the two candidates for president the Lord endorses. It centers on one issue which is a life and death issue: abortion. How our nation prospers or becomes the object of God's wrath and thus is made desolate centers on this, the most important issue. All other issues, although important, become secondary. The issue of abortion is more than just about killing an innocent life. It is about magnifying the defilement of and the continuing of the spiritual pollution of the entire landscape of America through the bloodshed of the innocent. This is the one issue which prevents God from inhabiting the land with His people as stated in Num 35:33-34:

> So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

The rage of the masses which are anti-God in the nation and anti one of the candidates allows the occult forces of darkness to merge with the personal issues of the candidate and strengthen the shield around the candidate. This rage is, in a very real sense, false worship. The door opening spirit for sorcery surrounding this candidate is the spirit of divination or false words; these two together open the way for witchcraft or false authority.

Because the Holy Spirit has given us this mission, we, as First Nation believers in the high authority of King Jesus, give it to you as well to partner with us to break the occult powers trying to influence and ultimately control the future direction of our nation by breaking this shield around this candidate. We also give you the following Psalm to under gird you as we push forward in the power of the Kingdom of God.

> Ps 2:1 "WHY DO the nations assemble with commotion [rage, uproar and confusion of voices], and why do the people imagine (meditate upon and devise) an empty scheme? 2 The kings of the earth take their places; the rulers take counsel together against the Lord and His Anointed one (the Messiah, the Christ). They say, 3 Let us break Their bands [of > restraint] asunder and cast Their cords [of control] from us. 4 He Who sits in the heavens laughs*; the Lord has them in derision [and in supreme contempt He mocks them]. 5* He speaks to them in His deep anger and troubles (terrifies and confounds) them in His displeasure and fury, saying, 6 Yet have I anointed (installed and placed) My King [firmly] on My holy hill of Zion. 7 I will declare the decree of the Lord: He said to Me, You are My Son; this day [I declare] I have begotten You. 8 Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations as Your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth as Your possession. 9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them in pieces like potters' ware. 10 Now therefore, O you kings, act wisely; be instructed and warned, O you rulers of the earth. 11 Serve the Lord with reverent awe and worshipful fear; rejoice and be in high spirits with trembling [lest you displease Him]. 12 Kiss the Son [pay homage to Him in purity], lest He be angry and you perish in the way, for soon shall His wrath be kindled. O blessed (happy, fortunate, and to be envied) are all those who seek refuge and put their trust in Him!" (AMP)

We are not advocating standing against a human personality, but against the forces of evil. The Spirit of God has given us the most powerful spiritual weapon in all the universe: God-Life. Death cannot stand where God-Life is made manifest. It is the believers privilege to release this Life in specific manner to overcome all elements of evil. Therefore, to overcome this spirit of sorcery we must begin with the spirit of divination. Begin to release God-Life to both candidates through the BLOOD judgment of Christ; release God-blessings on both and God-Truth. Through the Blood of Christ break the shield of the occult forces: "I (we) break the occult shield of evil around (so and so) in Jesus name. We cancel and the break the occult power of all divining words sent out in the name of Christ as the Truth of God. We bring into the Light the divining words of evil spoken to seduce the people of America and the world and expose the lie hidden in them."

Be led of the Spirit, but also mobilize others to do this highly important spiritual work; be greatly blessed today in King Jesus looking upward and forward to see His Kingdom coming into our nation in this hour.

****

Exercising Our Earthly Citizenship: A Doorway for the Advancing the Kingdom of God

One of the most important responsibilities we have as citizens of the United States of America is the privilege to vote. The privilege to vote is not free; it has been paid for by the blood of the multitudes of lives given in the struggle for freedom; by the many who have worn the uniform of our armed forces; by the multitudes of African-American and other minorities who struggled for the recognition of their civil and human rights; and by the lives of a multitude of women who likewise struggled for freedom granted to them in the US Constitution.

I am Native American and during the Vietnam War I was one who wore the uniform of the US Army as a point-man for C Company, 2nd Battalion, 12th Regiment, First Air-Cavalry Division; I count it a privilege to vote as a citizen of the United States of America.

Voting or exercising citizenship as members of the nation however, is so much more when Christ Jesus enters the picture. Many true believers in Christ erroneously presume that becoming a Christian somehow elevates them above what is seen as the "dirty field" of politics. Thus on Election Day they refrain from exercising their citizenship privilege to vote. Politics however has become the "dirty field" it is precisely because of this erroneous practice of Blood-bought saints of God.

From our First Nation and the Kingdom of God perspective let us show you what exercising our voting privilege really accomplishes in the Earth Realm. First, we must shift our spiritual heart over to the reality of the Kingdom of God through the Blood of the Cross of Jesus Christ. Through Christ alone we have been translated into the Kingdom or the Domain and Rule of King Jesus. Now we are not just citizens of an Earthly nation, but we are first and foremost citizens of the commonwealth of the Kingdom of God. As citizens of God’s Kingdom, we must walk, live and be led by the Holy Spirit of God. This means that all actions and decisions of our will must be made in harmony with the Will of God made clear by the Holy Spirit.

Our Earthly citizenship becomes for us a doorway to legally express our Heavenly citizenship in the Earth Realm. Our two-fold citizenship, Earthly and Heavenly, connects both realms of the natural and spiritual. Thus the act of voting for the candidate of our choice if first made in harmony with the Holy Spirit becomes a doorway to express the specific Will of God’s Kingdom on Earth. When we cast our vote as led by the Holy Spirit, our voting then becomes an act through which God can legally enter into and influence the social and governmental spheres on the Earth. This makes every vote cast by a true, Blood-bought believer in Jesus Christ, an intercessory act empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Every check mark we make on the election ballot becomes a doorway through which the intercessory Act of God can legally enter the entire arena influenced by the political realm. When these check marks are magnified by all of God’s people, this intercessory act releases the synergized authority and power of God’s into all facets of society impacted by elections.

So please allow through prayer and fasting if necessary the Holy Spirit to empower you to rise up as responsible citizen of the Kingdom of God on the Earth, direct your choice for the candidate of God’s choice, and then help you see your voting act as a doorway to release God into the Earth Realm. After you vote, lift up a high praise of thanksgiving in your heart unto God. May the Lord bless you and reveal to you God’s choices for public office in the election year.

Jim Chosa
Day Chief Ministries, Inc.
Box 7552
Yellowtail, MT 59035

Exercising Our Earthly Citizenship: A Doorway for the Advancing of the Kingdom of God

by Jim Chosa

One of the most important responsibilities we have as citizens of the United States of America is the privilege to vote. The privilege to vote is not free; it has been paid for by the blood of the multitudes of lives given in the struggle for freedom; by the many who have worn the uniform of our armed forces; by the multitudes of African-American and other minorities who struggled for the recognition of their civil and human rights; and by the lives of a multitude of women who likewise struggled for freedom granted to them in the U.S. Constitution.

I am Native American and, during the Vietnam War, I was one who wore the uniform of the U.S. Army as a point-man for C Company, 2nd Battalion, 12th Regiment, First Air-Cavalry Division; I count it a privilege to vote as a citizen of the United States of America.

Voting or exercising citizenship as members of the nation however, is so much more when Christ Jesus enters the picture. Many true believers in Christ erroneously presume that becoming a Christian somehow elevates them above what is seen as the "dirty field" of politics. Thus, on Election Day they refrain from exercising their citizenship privilege to vote. Politics, however, has become the "dirty field" it is precisely because of this erroneous practice of Blood-bought saints of God.

A Doorway Through Which the Intercessory Act of God Can Legally Enter the Entire Arena Influenced by the Political Realm

From our First Nation and the Kingdom of God perspective, let us show you what exercising our voting privilege really accomplishes in the Earth Realm. First, we must shift our spiritual heart over to the reality of the Kingdom of God through the Blood of the Cross of Jesus Christ. Through Christ alone we have been translated into the Kingdom or the Domain and Rule of King Jesus. Now we are not just citizens of an Earthly nation, but we are first and foremost citizens of the commonwealth of the Kingdom of God. As citizens of God's Kingdom, we must walk, live, and be led by the Holy Spirit of God. This means that all actions and decisions of our will must be made in harmony with the Will of God, made clear by the Holy Spirit.

Our Earthly citizenship becomes for us a doorway to legally express our Heavenly citizenship in the Earth Realm. Our two-fold citizenship, Earthly and Heavenly, connects both realms of the natural and spiritual. Thus the act of voting for the candidate of our choice, if first made in harmony with the Holy Spirit, becomes a doorway to express the specific Will of God's Kingdom on Earth. When we cast our vote as led by the Holy Spirit, our voting then becomes an act through which God can legally enter into and influence the social and governmental spheres on the Earth. This makes every vote cast by a true, Blood-bought believer in Jesus Christ, an intercessory act empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Every check mark we make on the election ballot becomes a doorway through which the Intercessory Act of God can legally enter the entire arena influenced by the political realm. When these check marks are magnified by all of God's people, this intercessory act releases the synergized authority and power of God's into all facets of society impacted by elections.

So, please allow through prayer and fasting, if necessary, the Holy Spirit to empower you to rise up as a responsible citizen of the Kingdom of God on the Earth, direct your choice for the candidate of God's choice, and then help you see your voting act as a doorway to release God into the Earth Realm. After you vote, lift up a high praise of thanksgiving in your heart unto God. May the Lord bless you and reveal to you God's choices for public office in the election year.

Jim Chosa
www.daychief.org
Day Chief Ministries, Inc.
Box 7552
Yellowtail, MT 59035

Oil And Water

Mary Lindow

2004 - “Oil And Water Never Mix” ~ Mammon, Narcissism, And The Truth
THE PRESENT EVILS AND PRESSURES OF OUR TIME ARE NOT NEW TO GOD OR...TO THE PRINCE OF THIS WORLD!

The Bride of Christ has been either over stroked with false platitudes or has been allowed to be spoiled with a gluttony of self love, self analysis, and self promotion. All members of the Lord’s Body, leaders and simple followers, have all had the virus of “I WANNA BE SOMEBODY” attempt to side track and infect the human nature side of their existence.

THE CHRISTIAN SERVANT WORLD IS NOT A STAGE!

Matthew 6 :1"Be especially careful when you are trying to be good so that you don't make a performance out of it. It might be good theater, but the God who made you won't be applauding. 2"When you do something for someone else, don't call attention to yourself. You've seen them in action, I'm sure--"play actors' I call them--treating prayer meeting and street corner alike as a stage, acting compassionate as long as someone is watching, playing to the crowds. They get applause, true, but that's all they get. when you help someone out, don't think about how it looks. just do it--quietly and unobtrusively. That is the way your God, who conceived you in love, working behind the scenes, helps you out. (Message Translation)

THIS EVER PRESENT POISON IS STILL SEEPING INTO PLACES VERY FEW ARE WILING TO ADDRESS, FOR FEAR OF BEING USED AS SCAPEGOATS OR SHAMED INTO SILENCE! THE LORD IS BRINGING ALL OF THIS HIDDEN AGENDA STUFF INTO LIGHT AT THIS TIME! After years and yes, decades of patient warning, and gracing us with time to repent and reconcile with those we have used, harmed or, ignored. This includes when He either sent them to us or when we were threatened that they might expose our secret sins.

ANYTIME HIERARCHICAL BEHAVIOR BEGINS TO MANIFEST, IT WILL HAVE THE TONE AND SMELL OF ABUSIVE INTOLERANCE FOR ANYONE ADDRESSING THE ISSUES OF LOVE OF SELF AND LOVE OF POWER AND LOVE OF MONEY. It will also not want to associate in any way with anything appears to be weak, impoverished, or struggling!

PURIFIED AND HUMBLE APOSTLES AND PROPHETS WILL BE MALIGNED, and many attempts to discredit or silence their voices will arise, and have been arising from some of those now claiming to have “arrived” into the high levels they had so justly earned and deserve. As if earning and hark work were any guarantee or promise God gave to acquire any notoriety!

THE TRUE LOVER OF GOD DOES NOT NEED TO BE LAVISHED UPON BY MAN.

THE WORDS “ I AM ON THE CUTTING EDGE OF WHAT GOD IS DOING,” SHOULD SEND US ALL RUNNING IN THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION QUICKLY!

NO ONE MAN OR GROUP SEES ALL. When there is a tendency to be hypercritical or “smug” about the way the Lord uses others in ministry settings around us and becomes the way an organization or group of specific people joined together relate...you can count on the evil presence of Narcissism and Mammon being the fuel that will feed the fires of deception. When the anointing is moving on something on someone we can not own, or control, if we are not understanding what the Lord is presently anointing, I mean in a service, a conference or even a home group, then we will quench the purity of the anointing by yanking back with the reigns of treacherous self imposed authority, if we are in any way worried about losing our place of importance and earned respect.

THE PHARISEES DESTROYED JESUS AND MANY OF HIS FOLLOWERS BECAUSE THEY WORRIED ABOUT LOSING MEMBERS, MONEY, AND.... POWER. JESUS HAD A SIMPLE MESSAGE. STILL SIMPLE TODAY, BUT ALSO STILL, PROFOUNDLY RELEVANT. Matthew 6 19"Don't hoard treasure down here where it gets eaten by moths and corroded by rust or--worse!-stolen by burglars. 20Stockpile treasure in heaven, where it's safe from moth and rust and burglars.

21It's obvious, isn't it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be, and end up being. 22"Your eyes are windows into your body. If you open your eyes wide in wonder and belief, your body fills up with light. 23If you live squinty-eyed in greed and distrust, your body is a dank cellar. If you pull the blinds on your windows, what a dark life you will have! 24"You can't worship two gods at once. Loving one god, you'll end up hating the other. Adoration of one feeds contempt for the other. You can't worship God and Money both. 25"If you decide for God, living a life of God-worship, it follows that you don't fuss about what's on the table at mealtimes or whether the clothes in your closet are in fashion. There is far more to your life than the food you put in your stomach, more to your outer appearance than the clothes you hang on your body. 26Look at the birds, free and unfettered, not tied down to a job description, careless in the care of God. And you count far more to him than birds. 27"Has anyone by fussing in front of the mirror ever gotten taller by so much as an inch? 28All this time and money wasted on fashion--do you think it makes that much difference? Instead of looking at the fashions, walk out into the fields and look at the wildflowers. They never primp or shop, 29but have you ever seen color and design quite like it? The ten best--dressed men and women in the country look shabby alongside them. 30"If God gives such attention to the appearance of wildflowers--most of which are never even seen--don't you think he'll attend to you, take pride in you, do his best for you? 31What I'm trying to do here is to get you to relax, to not be so preoccupied with getting, so you can respond to God's giving. 32People who don't know God and the way he works fuss over these things, but you know both God and how he works. 33Steep your life in God-reality, God-initiative, God-provisions. Don't worry about missing out. You'll find all your everyday human concerns will be met. 34"Give your entire attention to what God is doing right now, and don't get worked up about what may or may not happen tomorrow. God will help you deal with whatever hard things come up when the time comes.

THERE IS HARDLY ANY OTHER SIN STRONGER THAN THE ONE OUR LORD JESUS WARNED HIS DISCIPLES ABOUT, THAN THE ALARMING, DISTRACTING, DISTRUSTFUL CARES ABOUT THE THINGS OF THIS LIFE. This often entraps the poor as much as the love of wealth does the rich. But there is a prudent side to our responsibilities in regards to material things, though we must not carry these law-abiding cares too far. Take no thought for your life. Nor about the length of it! Leave it to God to lengthen or shorten it as he pleases.

OUR TIMES ARE IN HIS HAND, AND THEY ARE IN A GOOD HAND. It’s Not about the comforts of this life; but leave it to God to make it bitter or sweet as He pleases. Food and clothing God has promised, so... we can expect them. Take no thought for the tomorrow... for the time yet to come. Be not anxious for the future, how you shall live next year, or when you are old, or what you shall leave behind you. We must not boast about tomorrow, and we must not care for to-morrow, or the events that will take place in it! God has given us life, and has given us our bodies. And what can He not do for us, if He gave all of that to us ? If we take great concern over our souls and for eternity, which are more than the human body and its life, we may leave it to God to provide for us food and clothing, which are so much less important..

TRY TO IMPROVE ON THIS IDEA AS AN ENCOURAGEMENT TO TRUST AND BELIEVE IN THE LOVING CARE OF GOD! WE MUST SIMPLY AND LIKE CHILDREN SUBMIT OURSELVES TO OUR WORLDLY RANK, AS WE DO TO OUR SIMPLE STATUS. We cannot change the command of God’s Judgments! So! We must submit and surrender ourselves to them. Being painfully concerned for our souls is the best cure of loving the things of the world.

SEEK FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD, AND MAKE TRUSTING GOD TO PROVIDE A LIFE-STYLE! Now don’t say that this is the way to starve! No, it is the way to be well provided for, even in this world! The conclusion of the whole subject is, that it is the will and command of the Lord Jesus, that by daily prayers we may get strength to bear us up under our daily troubles, and to arm us against the temptations that accompany them, and then, let none of these things move us.

HAPPY ARE THOSE WHO TAKE THE LORD FOR THEIR GOD, AND MAKE FULL PROOF OF IT BY TRUSTING THEMSELVES WHOLLY TO HIS WISE DIRECTION. LET HIS SPIRIT CONVINCE US OF SIN, AND TAKE AWAY THE WORLDLINESS OF OUR HEARTS! 20Store your treasures in heaven, where they will never become moth-eaten or rusty and where they will be safe from thieves. 21Wherever your treasure is, there your heart and thoughts will also be. 22"Your eye is a lamp for your body. A pure eye lets sunshine into your soul. 23But an evil eye shuts out the light and plunges you into darkness. If the light you think you have is really darkness, how deep that darkness will be! 24"No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

[IF YOUR EYE IS PURE. IF YOUR EYE IS EVIL.] THE OBVIOUS CONNECTION HERE IS ABOUT EITHER HAVING A COVETOUS, OR A NON COVETOUS MIND. Either way the discussion is concerning treasures either earthly or heavenly, and, verse 24, concerning serving either God or Mammon.

IT' ADDRESSING THE LUST OF THE EYES. 1 John 2:16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

Here is where our Lord and King shows how with such great darkness the mind is clouded and dimmed by covetousness, and too much care of worldly things. Seek ye first the kingdom of God. The promise is made that if we seek it first, and its righteousness, all earthly wants will be supplied. Matthew 6 :33.

The condition demands, 1. That we seek the kingdom first in point of time. Some plan to achieve a skill, and after they have gained it, they will serve God. 2. We must make it first in importance. Everything else must get out of the way before its demands. 3. It must be first in our affections, have our whole hearts. We must "love the Lord our God with the whole heart" (Matt. 22:37). His righteousness. The righteousness that God bestows upon those who are in the Kingdom, Christ's righteousness, the forgiveness of sins in his name.

No man can serve two masters. He cannot give his heart to two services at the same time. He cannot follow two callings successfully. You cannot serve God and mammon. This is the direct application. You can not serve God and riches!. It is here personified as an idol. "Mammon" originally meant "trust," or confidence, and riches is the trust of worldly men.

IF GOD IS NOT THE OBJECT OF ABSOLUTE TRUST, SOMETHING ELSE WILL BE, AND IT IS MOST LIKELY TO BE MONEY. Verse 24. No man can serve two masters,.... these are directly opposite to one another: Either he will hate the one, and love the other; he will have less affection and regard to the one, than to the other;

You cannot serve God and mammon.- riches; which are opposed to God, being loved by some men, admired, trusted in, and worshipped, as if they were God; and which is incompatible with the service of the true God. People whose hearts go after their covetousness, and are set upon earthly riches, who dedicate themselves to them, are eagerly and anxiously pursuing after them, and place their confidence in them; no matter what pretenses they may make to the service of God are worshipping Mammon and all that attaches itself to it. So did the Scribes and Pharisees, who are openly exposed by this expression, both here and in other scripture references, they cannot truly and totally serve the Lord. "Mammon" is the god they serve; Pluto, in that era of time was also called the god of riches, among the Heathens. It parallels today's' attitude among many so-called believers.

THE ATTITUDE OF MAMMON WORSHIP SEEMS TO ME TO HAVE SPRUNG FROM A NOT SO UNDERLYING ISSUE THAT IS RAMPANT IN THE EARTH TODAY AND HAS IN “PANDEMIC WAVES” ... INVADED THE CHURCH.

WHAT IS THIS MASSIVE “GERM INVASION” TITLED?

“IT’S ALL ABOUT ME- ISM!”

OR ALSO KNOWN AS NARCISSISM. The basic trait of the Narcissistic Personality Type is a pattern of grandiosity, need for admiration, and lack of empathy.

The Narcissistic Personality pattern

* Reacts to criticism with feelings of rage, shame, or humiliation; * Is interpersonally exploitive: takes advantage of others to achieve his own ends; * Has a magnificent sense of self-importance; * Believes that his problems are unique and can be understood only by other special people; * Is preoccupied with goals of unlimited success, power, brilliance, beauty, or ideal love; * Has a sense of entitlement: an unreasonable expectation of especially favorable treatment; * Requires much attention and admiration of others; * Lacks empathy: fails to recognize and experience how others feel; * Is preoccupied with feelings of envy.

WHEN NARCISSISTIC INFLUENCES AND MAMMON COLLIDE, THE LOVE OF SELF AND THE LOVE OF ADMIRATION AND PERSONAL SUCCESS IS THE STANDARD PEOPLE BEGIN TO JUDGE ONE ANOTHER WITH. Sadly, our churches are filled with ego, love of title, love of programs, love of growth for power, larger and more aesthetically pleasing auditoriums, larger offerings in order to...increase in prestige and wealth.

IN SECOND TIMOTHY CHAPTER THREE... ALL OF WHAT I HAVE SHARED ABOVE IS BROUGHT INTO TOTAL FOCUS AND CLARITY.

GODLESSNESS IN THE LAST DAYS

1But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. 2People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, 3without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, 4treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God-- 5having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them. 6They are the kind who worm their way into homes and gain control over weak-willed women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires, 7always learning but never able to acknowledge the truth. 8Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these men oppose the truth--men of depraved minds, who, as far as the faith is concerned, are rejected. 9But they will not get very far because, as in the case of those men, their folly will be clear to everyone. 10You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, 11persecutions, sufferings--what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured. Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. 12In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, 13while evil men and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, 15and how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. 16All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, 17so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

MAY THE APOSTLES AND PROPHETS OF THE THIRD DAY CHURCH BE BOLD ENOUGH AND HUMBLE ENOUGH TO NOT FAWN AFTER TITLE, APPLAUSE, OR PERSONAL FAME AND GAIN. All are Forms of mammon, but highly applauded in modern society. May they pursue humility and integrity as they “Prepare the Way of The Lord”... and make crooked paths straight.-

Mary Lindow The International Prophetic Mentoring Council mary@north-gate.org www.marylindow.homestead.com Duplication and re-transmission of this writing is welcomed provided that complete source and website information for Mary Lindow is included. Thank You Copyright © 2004 " THE MESSENGER " ~

One In The Spirit

Terry Suggs

John 1:1-3
In the beginning (before all time) was the Word (Christ), and the Word was with God, and the Word was God Himself. He was present originally with God. All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him was not even one thing made that has come into being.

John 1:16-17
For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift (heaped) upon gift. For while the Law was given through Moses, grace, (undeserved favor and spiritual blessing) and truth came through Jesus Christ.
He is 100 % pure in honesty and trustworthiness. He has no deception in Him. He cannot lie.

John 3:31,34,35
He Who comes from above (heaven) is (far) above all (others); he who comes from the earth belongs to the Earth, and talks the language of earth (his words are from and earthly standpoint). He Who comes from heaven is (far) superior to all others in prominence and in excellence).
For since He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God (proclaims God's own message), God does not give Him His Spirit sparingly or by measure, but boundless is the gift God makes of His Spirit!
The Father loves the Son and has given (entrusted, committed) everything into His hand.

John 5:26-27,30
For even as the Father has life in Himself and is self-existent, so He has given to the Son to have life in Himself and be self existent.
And He has given Him authority and granted Him power to execute (exercise, practice) judgment because He is a Son of man (very man).
I Am able to do nothing from Myself (independently, of My own accord-but only as I am taught by God and as I get His orders). Even as I hear, I judge (I decide, As the voice comes to Me, so I give a decision), and My judgment is right (just, righteous), because I do not seek or consult My own will (I have no desire to do what is pleasing to Myself, My own aim, My own purpose) but only the will and pleasure of the Father Who sent Me.

John 5:43,45
I have come in My Father's name and with His power, and you do not receive Me (your hearts are not open to Me, you give Me no welcome); but if another comes in his own name and his own power and with no other authority but himself, you will receive him and give him your approval.
Put out of your minds the thought and do not suppose (as some of you are supposing) that I will accuse you before the Father.
There is one who accuses you-it is Moses, the very one on whom you have built your hopes (in whom you trust) (the law).

John 14:1,7,10-17,26-27
Do not let your hearts be troubled (distressed, agitated). You believe in adhere to and trust in and rely on god; believe in and adhere to and trust in and rely also on Me.
If you had known Me (had learned to recognize Me), you would also have known My Father. From now on, you know Him and have seen Him.
Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in Me? What I am telling you I do not say on My own authority and of My own accord; but the Father Who lives continually in Me does the (His) works (His own miracles, deeds of power).
Believe that I Am in the Father and the Father in Me; or else believe Me for the sake of the (very) works themselves. (If you cannot trust Me, at least let these works that I do in My Father's name convince you).
I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I will do (I Myself will grant) whatever you ask in My Name (authority, as presenting all that I Am), so that the Father may be glorified and extolled in (through) the Son.
Yes I will grant (I Myself will do for you) whatever you shall ask in My Name (authority, as presenting all that I Am).
If you really love Me, you will keep (obey) My commands.
And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Comforter (Councelor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengthener, and Standby), that He may remain with you forever—
The Spirit of Truth, Whom the world cannot receive (welcome, take to its heart), because it does not see Him, or know and recognize Him, for He lives with you (constantly) and will be in you.
But the Comforter (Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengthener, Standby), the Holy Spirit, Whom the Father will send in My Name (in My place, to represent Me and act on My behalf), he will teach you all things. And He will cause you recall (will remind you of, bring to your remembrance) everything I have told you.
Peace I leave with you; My (Own) peace I now give and bequeath to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. (Stop allowing yourselves to be agitated and disturbed; and do not permit yourselves to be fearful and intimidated and cowardly and unsettled).

John 15:4,6-7
Dwell in Me, and I will dwell in you. (live in Me, and I will live in you). Just as no branch can bear fruit of itself without abiding in (being vitally united to) the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you abide in Me.
I Am the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him bears much (abundant) fruit. However, apart from Me (cut off from vital union with Me) you can do nothing.
If you live in Me (abide vitally united to Me) and My Words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you.

John 6:63
The Word literally lives in us. It is sealed in us and is in us to stay forever. This is not just a memorized Word. The Word is Spirit and the Word is Life has Life in itself.

I Corinthians 3:16-7
Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church) are God's temple (His sanctuary), and that God's Spirit has His permanent dwelling in you (to be at home in you collectively as a church and also individually)?
If anyone does hurt to God's temple or corrupts it (with false doctrines and attacks against God's temple) or destroys it, God will do hurt to him to the corruption of death and destroy him. For the temple of God is Holy (sacred to him) and that temple you the believing church and its individual believers are.

I Corinthians 3:22-23
All things are yours.
And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Luke 17:21
Nor will people say, Look! Here it is! Or, See, it is there! For behold, the kingdom of God is within you (in your hearts and spirits) and among you (surrounding you).

I Corinthians 6:17-20
But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one (singular) spirit with Him.

John 10:38
But if I do them (the works of God), even though you do not believe Me or have faith in Me, (at least) believe the works and have faith in what in what I do, in order that you may know and understand (clearly) that the Father is in Me, and I Am in the Father (One with Him).
Do you not know that your body is the temple (the very sanctuary) of the Holy Spirit Who lives within you, Whom you have received (as a Gift) from god? You are not your own,
You were bought with a price (purchased with a preciousness and paid for, made His Own). So then, honor God and bring glory to Him in your body.

John 10:25-30
Jesus answered them, I have told you so, yet you do not believe Me (you do not believe Me (you do not trust Me and rely on Me). The very works that I do by the power of My Father and in My Father's name or authority bear witness concerning Me (they are My credentials and evidence in support of Me).
The sheep that are My Own hear and are listening to My voice; and I know them, and they follow Me.
And I give them eternal life, and they shall never lose it or perish throughout the ages. (To all eternity they shall never by any means be destroyed.) And no one is able to snatch them out of My hand.
My Father, Who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all and no one is able to snatch (them) out of the Father's hand.
I and the Father are One.

John 17:9-11
I Am praying for them. I Am not praying (requesting) for the world, but for those You have given Me, for they belong to you.
All things that are Mine are Yours, and all things that are Yours belong to Me; an I Am glorified in through them. (They have done Me honor; in them My glory is achieved).
And now I am no more in the world, but these are still in the world, and I Am coming to You. Holy Father, keep in Your Name or authority (in the knowledge of Yourself) those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are one.

John 17:18,21-23,26
Just as You sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. And so for their sake and on their behalf I sanctify (dedicated, consecrate) Myself, that they also may be sanctified (dedicated, consecrated, made holy) in the Truth.
Neither for these alone do I pray (it is not for their sake only that I make this request, but also for all those who will ever come to believe in (trust in, cling to, rely on) Me through their word and teaching,
That they all may be one, just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that the world may believe and be convinced that You have sent Me.
I have given to them the glory and honor which You have given Me, that they may be one even as We are One: I in them and You in Me, in order that they may become one and perfectly united, that the world may know and definitely recognize that You have loved them (even) as You have loved Me.
I have made Your Name known to them and revealed Your character and Your very Self, and I will continue to make (You) known, that the love , which You have bestowed upon Me may be in them (felt in their hearts) and that I (Myself) may be in them.

Matthew 10:39
Whoever finds his (lower) life will lose it (the higher life), and whoever loses his (lower) life on My account will find it (the higher life).
II Corinthians 4:13

Yet we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, I have believed, and therefore have I spoken. We too believe, and therefore we speak.

II Corinthians 6:10
We possess all things.

II Corinthians 6:16,18
What agreement can there be between a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.
And I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Ephesians 1:3,13
May blessing (praise, laudation and eulogy) be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) Who has blessed us in Christ with Every spiritual (given by the Holy Spirit) blessing in the heavenly realm!
In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, an have believed in and adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long promised Holy Spirit.

Our spirits are sealed in Oneness with Christ's Spirit.

Ephesians 2:5-6
Even when we wee dead slain by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; (He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for) it is grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation).
And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together giving us joint seating with Him in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

I Corinthians 15:45
Thus it is written, the first man Adam became became a living being (an individual personality); the last Adam (Christ) became a life giving Spirit (restoring the dead to life).

Colossians 2:13-15
And you who were dead in trespasses and in uncircumcison of your flesh (your sensuality, your sinful carnal nature), (God) brought to life together with (Christ), having freely forgiven us all our transgressions, Having cancelled and blotted out and wiped away the handwriting of he note (bond) with its legal decrees and demands, which was in force and stood against us (hostile to us). This (note with its regulations, decrees, and demands) He set aside and cleared completely out of our way by nailing it to His Cross.
God disarmed the principalities and powers that were ranged against us and made a bold display a public example of them, in triumphing over them in Him and in it (the cross).

Colossians 2:20
I have been crucified with Christ (in Him I have shared His crucifixion); it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in the body I live by the faith of the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me.
Our spirit has passed and now we have the Spirit of Christ Jesus.

II Corinthians 5:17
Therefore if any person is (ingrafted) in Christ (the Messiah) he is a new Creation (a new creation altogether); the old previous moral and spiritual condition has passed away. Behold, the fresh and new has come!

II Timothy 3:16-17
Every scripture is God-breathed (given by His inspiration0 and profitable for instruction, for reproof and conviction of sin, for correction of error and discipline in obedience, and for training in righteousness (in holy living, in conformity to God's will in thought, purpose, and action),
So that the man of God may be complete and proficient, well fitted and thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Proverbs 30:5-6
Every word of God is tried and purified; He is a shield to those who trust and take refuge in Him.
Add not to His words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar.

Romans 5:17
For if because of one man's trespass (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive (God's) overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness (putting them in right standing with Himself) reign as kings in life through the one Man Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Job 22:28
You shall also decide and decree a thing, and it shall be established for you; and the light (of God's favor) shall shine upon your ways.

I John 4:4

Little children, you are of God (you belong to Him) and have (already) defeated and over come them (the agents of the antichrist), because He Who lives in you is greater (mightier) than he who is in the world.

I John 5:15
And if since we positively know that He listens to us in whatever we ask, we also know (with settled and absolute knowledge) that we have granted us as our present possessions the requests made of Him.

I John 5:12
He who possesses the Son has that life; he who does not have possess the Son of God does not have that life (in Christ).

Acts 13:32-33,39
God raised Jesus from the dead to prove that He was the Messiah.
And that through Him everyone who believes (who acknowledges Jesus as his Savior and devotes himself to Him) is absolved (cleared and freed) from every charge from which he could not be justified and freed by the Law of Moses, and given right standing with God.

God spoke and His word was established the second that He spoke it.
Jesus spoke in His Father's authority and his word was established the second that He spoke it.
When we speak in Jesus name or authority, it will be established for us.
This is the manifestation of the life of Christ Jesus in us.

As He is so are we in this world.
Old things have passed away and all things have become brand new. The old spirit has passed and the Spirit Of Christ has taken residence in the place of the old spirit.
Christ is in us and we are in Christ. We have one spirit living in us and this spirit is the very, genuine life of God almighty Himself.
The glory of the latter house is greater that the glory of the former house.

Terry Suggs
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com
Crosswinds.org

Old Shoes

Jane Larsen

Jul 9, 2004
jlarsen65@hotmail.com

A few days ago I had a vision. In the vision were an old pair of worn shoes, like mountain climbing shoes/boots and they were tattered and faded.

They were next to a new shoe box.

I knew there were a pair of new shoes in the box but the box was smaller than the old shoes next to them, so I wondered if the new shoes were for the same person as the old boots belonged to.

As I pondered on this over the days, the Lord then said this in me:

I have told you that there is a time of change, and the time of change is upon you.

See, you have had a weary walk.

You have climbed mountains of stone, you have trudged through valleys and you have wandered over the plains.

All this time you have walked, you have trudged, you have marched, and you have waited, knowing there was a new time to come, and it is come.

See, I have prepared a new way for you.

You have been tested and walked through the fire, you have been refined and purified, you shine as gold and now I will lead you.

Away from the mountains of stone and the valleys and plains that were a time of testing, a time of solitude, and into the new season.

You will walk afresh and take what you have learned with you.

You will comfort, you will heal, you will love, you will teach, in My name.

In the mighty name of the Lord you will do these things because now you are ready and now you are strong and now you are refined.

How sweet are your prayers that are lifted up to me in the silence of the dawn and the darkness of the night.

How sweet your words, even when tried, even when tempted, that it was to me you called for deliverance, for strength to walk the way and walk it right.

I smiled upon you, I love you, and I am setting you in a new place, a place of running brooks and soft earth, a place of sunshine, a place where you will hear My voice and help many.

Cast off your old shoes, for you will not continue in that way.

Now is a new season and a new time. A beginning. Walk. Continue to walk with Me.

I will lead you.

Turn not to the left, turn not to the right but walk straight, it is My voice telling you the way.

Clean Out Your House

Jane Larsen

(jlarsen65@hotmail.com)

I had a vision of rooms in a house. The corners of the rooms were full of boxes and things, all piled on one another that made the rooms seem darker and smaller than they should have been. I was also aware of a lot of dust. As I looked as these messy rooms the Lord immediately laid in me:

Clean out your house. A new season is upon you and this is time to clean out your house. You are to make way for the new and clear out the old.

Why are you holding on to the things that are of the past? Why are you storing up what you do not need? Do you not know yet that these things are worthless to you? How can you receive from me when your house is already full? Make room. Clear out your house and make room. Allow the light to come in and make the dark places bright. I tell you, you cannot move forward into a new season while you are storing up all the things of the past.

Be diligent and start. Now is the time. Now is the time to get your house in order. Start and do not delay for I tell you that a new season is upon you and will not delay. It will come in a flash, in a moment and it will be here, and you need to be ready, you need to be prepared and not weighed down with the old.

Make space for the new. Clear out the old that festers and takes room that it should not have. Open the boxes that store the past and let them go, for a new time is upon you and I will see your house clean, I will see your heart ready to receive all I have for you.

Let us sit together and talk, you and I. Let Me tell you that I know the times have been hard and I know the season you have been in has been tiring. I know the thoughts that were in your head, for I formed you and I knew you before there was time. I know the despair you have been clutching and I know the weight you have carried. I know all these things and now I am telling you, let go.

Let go of the old season and be ready, stand prepared, for the new season. New will follow old, so let go of the old and make way for the new. I tell you these things so that you are prepared, so that you are ready to walk forward, clothed in peace, strengthened with my love, sure of my word. I have not forgotten you and I have never left you.

You cannot see when you stand in the dust of yesterday. You will not see today dawn. Clean out your house and start now. The new season is coming and it will not delay.

One Man Die for the People

Helen Pollack

The priests and rulers of the temple feared that if people believed in Jesus that the Romans would come and wipe out the Jewish leaders and take their place. Much of what they did was not only because they believed that Jesus was preaching blasphemy but because they feared that they would lose their position. They believed that if they killed Him it would end the movement. They did not understand that His death would bring forth an explosive salvation for the masses all over the world. This was a prophesy of the future.

John 11:45-48 45 Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, put their faith in him. 46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. 47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin.

"What are we accomplishing?" they asked. "Here is this man performing many miraculous signs. 48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation." NIV

John 11:49-53 49 Then one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, "You know nothing at all! 50 You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish."

51 He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation, 52 and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one. 53 So from that day on they plotted to take his life. NIV

You Will Not Always Have Me

Helen Pollock

hpollock@bellsouth.net

The Gospels are full of pictures and examples of the fundamental spiritual truths that Jesus taught for our benefit. They are the things that He determines to be the most important. In many ways, if we spent most of our time on the words He spoke and the example He set, we would understand most clearly the walk He desires to lead us in.

Mary poured an expensive perfume over His feet. Judas, whose mind was only on money and not the God in the flesh , who stood before him is the one who brought the accusation.. The scripture states that not only did he sell Jesus out for thirty pieces of silver, but he was known to take money out of the purse for Judas was the keeper of the money.

Jesus pointed out that Mary's act of worship and preparation for Him was that which was of value. The cost of the perfume was not important for what it could do for the poor but rather the value it had as an offering for His burial.

In this world of great materialism and/or great religious tradition, we have become preoccupied with what money can do. Jesus points out that the offering of great price was far greater in His eyes. The price we pay for our offering to Him is to give Him the things which are most valuable. The truth is that this offering is ourselves. Money and material possessions have come before God in our society. The visible transfer of wealth from rich to poor through the church, as a show, means nothing to God. Many organizations pocket a great portion of what is given to "help the poor and needy". Quite frankly, the Lord will spew it out of His mouth. Why? Because the hearts that do this are far from Him.

What is most important to Jesus and His Father? Love of Him and worship of Him above all else. As He said to the disciples, He will not always have the door open and be available for those who have not put Him before their worldly life. This is what it means to overcome the world, the flesh and the devil.

It is long past time to bring our focus back to Jesus so that our priorities become His priorities. Love is the greatest thing we can give, but only through the Lord can we love selflessly.

John 12:1-4 12:1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. 2 Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honor. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. 3 Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

John 12:4-8 4 But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected, 5 "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages." 6 He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

7 "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "[It was intended] that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. 8 You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me." NIV

Operation Mountain Storm

Joni Ames and Bob Jones

The Arrival Of The Winds Of God

This morning, Sunday, March 14, 2004, an article came out in the news that ‘OPERATION MOUNTAIN STORM’ was launched on Sunday, March 7, 2004 by US led forces. It is said to be a "sweeping new offensive" in Afghanistan’s remote southern and eastern mountains, aimed at crushing the Taliban and al Qaeda and snaring militant leaders including Osama bin Laden. I believe the Lord is speaking more (and will) regarding the parallel for us as Christians and the following article. It is time for each of us to launch our own "OPERATION MOUNTAIN STORM" and get rid of the obstacles and articles of terrorism that haunt our lives......

The Arrival Of The Winds Of God
- Joni Ames & Bob Jones

On the weekend of March 7, 2004, the Lord gave me the following set of dreams:

A total of fifty women recently met during two separate retreats at a lodge atop a mountain in Moravian Falls, NC. The Lord poured out much to and through each one. It was life changing, and a time of refreshing and restoration for many.

During the most recent gathering, the Lord gave me three dreams that I felt were significant, and a fourth one for confirmation. Bob Jones also received and gave us insight as we gathered at Jubilee Junction for church that Sunday morning. The following is an account of the dreams and that meeting:

DREAM #1 - FIVE FIRE TORNADOS
I was walking along the ocean at bottom of the mountain we were having our retreat at, and was amazed that the ocean had come in so far, because I knew we were three to four hours from the shore. Suddenly, I heard the faint sound of roaring winds. I turned around and looked up the mountain that the sound had come from and saw five fire tornados making their way downwards, moving in and out of the windows and doors of the homes on the mountain as they came. I was both frightened and fascinated, because they were not destroying or tearing things apart, just making their way through the homes and down the mountain. I could see the colors of the flames in red, orange and yellow.

DREAM #2 - SUICIDE(?) DROWNINGS
Next I saw countless numbers of people, marching down a mountain pathway towards the ocean at the bottom. At first they came two by two, and as the path grew more narrow, they walked in single file. When they got to the bottom of the mountain path, they simply kept their cadence and went directly into the ocean, until the water was over their heads. I hollered, "Lord, help! Why are they are all committing suicide?!" The Lord then showed me that they weren't dead at all! I saw their, with smiling faces, bobbing up and down in the water

DREAM #3 - MOUNTAIN LADDERS
In the third scene, I saw a mountain with a wide plateau, and many ladders all around it, with people in various levels of climbing up the ladders and many others on the ground waiting to go up. Some people were getting discouraged that there were so many ahead of them and started turning away, saying there wouldn't be room for all of them at the top of the mountain, and they probably didn't belong anyhow. I ran to each, putting my arm around them, and steering them back to the ladders, telling them that they did too belong, and pointing to the wide plateau at top of the mountain, saying, "See! There is too room for you!"

DREAM #4 - RE: BOB JONES
I dreamed I was at church and Bob Jones called me forward to minister with him. He asked me a question, and I didn't know the answer, so I just truthfully said, "Bob, I don't have a clue!" I then woke up.

INTERPRETATION & APPLICATION
In the natural, when I woke up and went to church, I saw Bob Jones, and said "Hi." He then said he was going to call me up to minister with him later. I told him, "I was afraid of that!" and told him about Dream #4. He shook his head and said, "Yup! That's exactly what I'm going to talk about! - Answering by faith when the Lord gives the opportunity!" We then discussed the dreams.
Dream #1:

I felt that the five fire tornados represented the cleansing and the Glory of God, coming down from the Mountain of the Lord, through the five fold ministry, to the Church, cleansing the Church from the mystical and magical, and bringing it into the miraculous.

In the natural, at 5 pm on Sunday after giving the word that morning, a "High wind event" hit the Carolinas and Virginias, with winds up to 65 mph - and even 74 mph in the area where I had the dream. It lasted until midnight. When I spoke to Bob Jones about this, he said that it blew his storm door off it's hinges, and was a sign in the natural of the coming of the winds of the Spirit.
(Weather info re: this is at: http://www2.ncsu.edu:8010/eos/service/pams/meas/sco/research/nws/cases/20040307/)

Dream #2:
The Lord gave me Ezekiel 47 - as a result of the blowing of the cleansing and empowering winds of the Spirit, the Body will choose to go above "ankle, knee and thigh high" in the river of God, to over their heads, and into the Glory.

Dream #3:
For those in the valley, it's time to ascend the Mountain of the Lord! "Lift your vision higher" and climb "Jacob's ladder," responding to the Rev. 4:1 call to "Come up here and I will show you things to come." Don't be discouraged by those ahead of you, or by the climb. It's time! And there is plenty of room for all! God is no respecter of persons, and you have not been "left out!"

Dream #4:
We mustn't acquiesce (grow quiet) and disqualify ourselves with our own words and actions when the Lord opens an opportunity for us to allow Him to speak through us. It's a religious spirit and false humility that would try to say someone else can do it better, rather than agreeing with God that He will enable and empower us. We must be faithful with the little and the Lord will release to us even more. - As Bob Jones said, We need to be "Answering by faith when the Lord gives the opportunity!"

FOLLOW UP NATURAL EVENTS & FURTHER INSIGHT

The March 7, 2004 High Wind Event was a sign in the natural of the return of the restoration of the Glory to church, which, per Bob Jones, culminated at 6 p.m. on March 11, 2004, after having been lifted for the past 27 years. The day of the miraculous has begun! He further stated that Judah (praise) is the plow that will plow the stumbling stones (our ways/sins) from our hearts so that the glory can come in.

The Lord is looking for PERSEVERANCE. I looked that word up and it means, "Continuing in a course of action, in spite of difficulty, opposition, etc." - In other words, OBEDIENCE, regardless of any circumstances! - Agreeing with God, rather than the enemy by operating in faith in THE LORD, rather than fear. (Fear is really faith - but it is faith in the enemy!)

By the way...God doesn't make mistakes; He makes miracles! Some of the worst sets of circumstances get turned into God's divine set up to put us in the best position to win and show forth His glory! He works ALL things for our good! (Rom. 8:28)

PRAYER

Lord, we welcome your glory and give honor to you for it. We say, "Let the King of Glory come on in and take His rightful place!" YOU take the throne, King of Glory! take away the stumbling stones, Lord! We say "YES!" to You and to Your ways!
In Jesus' name,
Amen.
- Joni Ames

Joni Ames
P.O. Box 411501
Charlotte, NC 28241
E-mail: JONIAMES@aol.com
Website: http://hometown.aol.com/joniames
Newsletter site: http://JoniAmes.injesus.com

On September 11

Michael Landrum

Michael A. Landrum on September 11, 2001

A personal chronolog as follows:

On the morning of September 11, 2001, after watching live television images of the destruction of the World Trade Center in New York City, I went from my home to my medical office. The room was quiet, most of my patients had cancelled their appointments for the day. I sat down in the chair behind my desk and began to listen to what the Lord would tell me about the meaning of these events and their significance for His people. I turned to my amplified bible on a nearby shelf and opened it at random. Immediately my eyes fell upon the Book of Numbers, Chapter 16. I almost turned the pages away in a conscious attempt to find some solace, perhaps in the Psalms, but instead I had a firm check in my spirit in a sense of direction that I should read this chapter. As I began to do so, I realized almost immediately that the Lord was speaking to me.

The passage speaks of Moses and the people of Israel in the wilderness at the time of a rebellion lead by Korah, one of the great grandsons of Levi with the help of others, including 250 other Levites, which were referred to as "men well known and of distinction." The authority of Moses and Aaron was directly challenged and called into question. The chapter significantly speaks of the fact that the presence of the Lord was able to be visibly observed at the Tent of Meeting. Moses called all of the rebels to come stand at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. When they did, the earth opened and swallowed part of their company and the 250 were destroyed by fire which "came forth from the Lord." Although the entire congregation of Israel was initially afraid and fled at this sight, they returned the next day again to accuse Moses and Aaron again and very significantly (Verse 42). When the congregation was gathered against Moses and Aaron, they looked at the Tent of Meeting and, lo, the cloud covered it and they saw the Lord’s glory. . . and the Lord said to Moses get away from this congregation that I may consume them in a moment. And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces and Moses said to Aaron, take a sensor and put fire in it from off the alter and lay incense on it and carry it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them for there is wrath gone out from the Lord; the plague has begun! So Aaron took the burning sensor as Moses commanded and ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold the plague was begun among the people; and he put on the incense and made atonement for the people and he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. [Verses 42 to 48]

Afterwards, in verse 17, the Lord commended Aaron and promised him a prominent place of distinction and favor for him and his descendants to stand in the presence of the Lord, whereas the rest of the Levites were simply to attend to the housekeeping chores of the temple.

As I considered these passages, verse 42 particularly riveted my attention. The Lord spoke to my heart and showed me the following:

(a) The Lord had chosen up to that time to make Himself visibly present among His people and present at the holy place in the Tent of Meeting. This was so because He has always sought a people for Himself as is reflected from Genesis to Revelations and is codified in the Jewish feast of Succoth, which is also known as the feast of Tabernacles, signifying the dwelling place of God with man; or, retrospectively, the "tabernacling" of God with man as seen in the wilderness with the people of Israel.

[b] That the people, themselves, had become brazenly rebellious and not even the authority of Moses and Aaron and the visible presence of God appeared to dissuade them.

[c] That the juxtaposition and the obvious disparity between the loving God who sought to make His place among His people and a rebellious nation in open defiance of the Lord's rule of order was incompatible. As such, the result was a "flash point" of judgment in the form of a plague against the rebellious people.

The first response of Moses and Aaron was to fall on their face before the Lord. So we, also, should likewise be falling on our face as the immediate response to impending calamity. We should be seeking the mind of God with the kind of burning intensity that such a crucial moment would demand. There is an unspoken sort of "between the lines" implication at the exchange between Moses and God between verse 45 and 46. All we are told is that the obvious result was that Moses told Aaron to take a sensor and go quickly into the midst of the congregation to intercede and make atonement for them. So it is that in a moment of such calamity as this, we must learn to seek the mind of Christ for His leading, and having received it, to act upon it immediately. This case is a "type" of the leading we should expect from the Lord in our own day. He wants us to intercede in the several ways in which He would call us in order to Go Make Atonement.

The fact that Aaron literally ran to the task was all-important. As such, Aaron is a "type" of Christ, who set Himself as intermediary between "the living and the dead" to save us from certain destruction and to make atonement with God for our sins which separate us from Him and bring judgment in the face of our rebellion. That same spirit of Aaron, which is the spirit of the Messiah, is now present in every Believer, so that with that spirit every listening Believer can respond similarly and appropriately to "stand between the living and the dead." In our day, such an intermediary capacity has suddenly become as tangibly crucial as it was in the rebellion of Korah.

The juxtaposition of the rebellion of the people and the nearness of the Lord was the very reason why judgment was precipitated. With this I suddenly realized that the events of September 11, 2001, were not because God is farther away from us than ever but because, on the contrary, He is literally drawing nearer than ever. Jesus promised that He would come again and taught His disciples to pray "thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." For the last two millennia the church has prayed this prayer and almost every meeting of sincere Christian minds has invited the Lord to "draw near" to His people. He showed me on this morning of September 11th that that is exactly what He is in the process of doing; and that, in fact, His drawing near literally precipitates the spark of crisis such as was seen in the wilderness; and that this takes place only when two distinct issues are present face-to-face: The near presence of God and the unyielding rebellion of man. Chapter 18, verse 1 (in the amplified version], describes that Aaron's ministry was to remove the iniquity of the sanctuary which was to include the guilt for the offenses which the people UNKNOWINGLY commit when brought into contact with the manifestations of God's presence. The Lord showed me that it is not His purpose to destroy those who are in ignorant rebellion, but rather to win them back again to Himself and the realization of His love and His desire to dwell with them and to take care of them. In so doing, it is a high honor to act in the role of an "Aaron" so that, once again, people may know their God and be protected from inevitable judgment that would come from simply being contrary to His love and earnest intention for their good.

The issue here and as it involves these calamities of our day is not just that sinful man is coming under judgment from an angry God (although this is so and will increasingly be seen) but more urgently that the love of God is such that He is not willing that any should perish "but that all should come to repentance." The Lord showed me that there would be many in these days who, in the name of the Lord, would seethingly announce the judgments of God on men but who would not run out into the congregation to make atonement. He told me clearly that these are false prophets because they hold to only part of the truth; only that part which would describe judgment for sin, but would not describe the passion of the Lord to deliver men from sin and death. Furthermore, He would beckon to us, beyond mortal imagination, at the prospect that He is in fact drawing near. These calamities are taking place precisely because He is drawing near, not because he is leaving us. His message is one of earnest admonition for reconciliation rather than judgment before it is too late. Any message other than this is less; assigning God merely a police capacity at punishing sin. It is simply not discerning His plan of the ages for "Heaven come to earth."

Just as Aaron was elevated and promoted, Christ also was promoted after He made intercession for us on the cross. He now "ever lives to make intercession for us" in THE PRESENCE of the Lord.

It is the Will of God that we draw near to Him at this precise moment. He has begun answering the prayer of the church that he draw near to us. We must now go forth as the brides with our lamps of oil prepared and ready. We must now go forth to meet Him and faithfully respond as that priestly people He intends us to be to bring the rule of heaven to earth before the eyes of the entire world, for we will shortly see the fulfillment of the promise of God. In Genesis 3.15, "He shall bruise and tread your head underfoot" fulfilled in Revelations, Chapter 21, verses 3 and 4, "The abode of God is with men and He will live (TENT) among them, and they shall be His people, and God shall personally be with them and be their God. God will wipe away every tear from their eyes and death shall be no more. Neither shall there be anguish—sorrow and mourning—nor grief nor pain any more; for the old conditions and the former order of things have passed away."

As we learn to draw nearer to His presence, we learn to love that presence. As we love that presence, we learn to never leave it. This is the very mind of God for His people. He never wants us to leave His presence. It is His design from time immemorial that He should dwell with man and that there should be no impediment to perfect fellowship with this part of His creation. That fellowship comes at a price. Aaron was offering incense in a fashion that was "coloring outside the lines" since he had never been taught to administer an offering for the people in such a fashion; and yet the act was timelessly in keeping with the very mind of God and met with His favor and approval.

The body of the Lord Jesus Christ stands expectant for such a time as this. Revelations 21, verse 7, "He who is victorious shall inherit all these things and I will be God to him and he shall be My son."

One Question
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

May 29, 2004

"WHO do you say that I AM?"

Mark 8:29 Then Yeshua [Jesus] asked them, "But who do you say I am?" "You are the Messiah!" Kefa [Peter] replied.

It is not about your doctrines. It is not what mere men and their religions say of me. It is about ME, Yeshua (Jesus)! Do you believe and follow me? Do you trust me? Do you want to walk and talk with me? Do you have faith in me? Do you know me? Choose Life and not death ... choose ME, choose Your Messiah [Savior]! Ruach (the Holy Spirit) calls and pleads with YOU today.

Acts 2:38 "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Yeshua haMashiach [Jesus Christ] for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

For YOU My love pleads! Do not ignore MY love as evidenced on Calvary's hill by the shedding of my BLOOD--I AM the ONLY WAY. Today, I require of you an answer. What is your decision?

Jesus said: I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh to the Father but by me. John 14:6

Today, I offer you life, eternal life, through allegiance to ME, YHVH, Yeshua haMashiach, Jesus the Messiah, Adonai Elohim, The True and Living God, El Elyon, I AM the Holy One of Isra'el!

John 3:3,5 No one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again. I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.

BE SILENT and LISTEN: Depending upon how you respond to Ruach (the Holy Spirit of God), you will either save or lose your life. You will either gain or forfeit your soul. You will either find approval or disapproval when the Son of Man comes in the Father's glory. You are risking ALL at very high stakes.

Revelation 3:
19 I correct and punish everyone I love. So make up your minds to turn away from your sins.
20 Listen! I am standing and knocking at your door. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and we will eat together.
21 Everyone who wins the victory will sit with me on my throne, just as I won the victory and sat with my Father on his throne.

Do not delay...for we live 'as in the days of Noah'. The great I AM sends HIS Ruach throughout the earth today and pleads with every soul ...

Revelation 22:17 "Come!" say the Spirit and the Bride. Whoever hears, echo, "Come!" Is anyone thirsty? Come! All who will, come and drink, Drink freely of the Water of Life!

Zephaniah 1
1 I am Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the grandson of Gedaliah, the great-grandson of Amariah, and the great-great-grandson of Hezekiah. When Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah, the LORD gave me this message.
Judgment on Judah
2 I, the LORD, now promise to destroy everything on this earth--

3 people and animals, birds and fish. Everyone who is evil will crash to the ground, and I will wipe out the entire human race.
4 I will reach out to punish Judah and Jerusalem-- nothing will remain of the god Baal; nothing will be remembered of his pagan priests.
5 Not a trace will be found of those who worship stars from their rooftops, or bow down to the god Milcom, while claiming loyalty to me, the LORD.
6 Nothing will remain of anyone who has turned away and rejected me.
7 Be silent! I am the LORD God, and the time is near.
I am preparing to sacrifice my people and to invite my guests.
8 On that day I will punish national leaders and sons of the king, along with all who follow foreign customs.
9 I will punish worshipers of pagan gods and cruel palace officials who abuse their power.
10 I, the LORD, promise that on that day noisy crying will be heard from Fish Gate, New Town, and Upper Hills.
11 Everyone in Lower Hollow will mourn loudly, because merchants and money changers will be wiped out.
12 I'll search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those people who sit there unworried while thinking, "The LORD won't do anything, good or bad."
13 Their possessions will be taken, their homes left in ruins. They won't get to live in the houses they build, or drink wine from the grapes in their own vineyards.

A Terrible Day

14The great day of the LORD is coming soon, very soon. On that terrible day, fearsome shouts of warriors will be heard everywhere.
15 It will be a time of anger-- of trouble and torment, of disaster and destruction, of darkness and despair, of storm clouds and shadows, 16 of trumpet calls and battle cries against fortified cities and mighty fortresses.
17 The LORD warns everyone who has sinned against him, "I'll strike you blind! Then your blood and your insides will gush out like vomit.
18 Not even your silver or gold can save you on that day when I, the LORD, am angry. My anger will flare up like a furious fire scorching the earth and everyone on it."

Zephaniah 2

Turn to the LORD

1 You disgraceful nation, gather around,
2 before it's too late. The LORD has set a time when his fierce anger will strike like a storm and sweep you away.
3 If you humbly obey the LORD, then come and worship him. If you do right and are humble, perhaps you will be safe on that day when the LORD turns loose his anger.

Judgment on Philistia

4 Gaza and Ashkelon will be deserted and left in ruins. Ashdod will be emptied in broad daylight, and Ekron [1] uprooted.
5 To you people of Philistia who live along the coast, the LORD has this to say: "I am now your enemy, and I'll wipe you out!"
6 Your seacoast will be changed into pastureland and sheep pens.
7 The LORD God hasn't forgotten those survivors in Judah, and he will help them-- his people will take your land to use for pasture. And when evening comes, they will rest in houses at Ashkelon.

Judgment on Moab and Ammon

8 The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, said: I've heard Moab and Ammon insult my people and threaten their nation.
9 And so, I swear by my very life that Moab and Ammon will end up like Sodom and Gomorrah-- covered with thornbushes and salt pits forever. Then my people who survive will take their land.
10 This is how Moab and Ammon will at last be repaid for their pride-- and for sneering at the nation that belongs to me, the LORD All-Powerful.
11 I will fiercely attack. Then every god on this earth will shrink to nothing, and everyone of every nation will bow down to me, right where they are.

Judgment on Ethiopia

12 People of Ethiopia, the sword of the LORD will slaughter you!

Judgment on Assyria

13 The LORD will reach to the north to crush Assyria and overthrow Nineveh.
14 Herds of wild animals will live in its rubble; all kinds of desert owls will perch on its stones and hoot in the windows. Noisy ravens will be heard inside its buildings, stripped bare of cedar.
15 This is the glorious city that felt secure and said, "I am the only one!" Now it's merely ruins, a home for wild animals. Every passerby simply sneers and makes vulgar signs.

Zephaniah 3

Sinful Jerusalem

1 Too bad for that disgusting, corrupt, and lawless city!
2 Forever rebellious and rejecting correction, Jerusalem refuses to trust or obey the LORD God.
3 Its officials are roaring lions, its judges are wolves; in the evening they attack, by morning nothing is left.
4 Jerusalem's prophets are proud and not to be trusted. The priests have disgraced the place of worship and abused God's Law.
5 All who do evil are shameless, but the LORD does right and is always fair. With the dawn of each day, God brings about justice.
6 The LORD wiped out nations and left fortresses crumbling in the dirt. Their streets and towns were reduced to ruins and emptied of people.
7 God felt certain that Jerusalem would learn to respect and obey him. Then he would hold back from punishing the city and not wipe it out. But everyone there was eager to start sinning again.

Nations Will Turn to the LORD

8 The LORD said: Just wait for the day when I accuse you nations. I have decided on a day, when I will bring together every nation and kingdom and punish them all in my fiery anger. I will become furious and destroy the earth.
9 I will purify each language and make those languages acceptable for praising me. Then, with hearts united, everyone will serve only me, the LORD.
10 From across the rivers of Ethiopia, my scattered people, my true worshipers, will bring offerings to me.
11 When that time comes, you won't rebel against me and be put to shame. I'll do away with those who are proud and arrogant. Never will any of them strut around on my holy mountain.
12 But I, the LORD, won't destroy any of your people who are truly humble and turn to me for safety.
13 The people of Israel who survive will live right and refuse to tell lies. They will eat and rest with nothing to fear.

A Song of Celebration

14 Everyone in Jerusalem and Judah, celebrate and shout with all your heart!
15 Zion, your punishment is over. The LORD has forced your enemies to turn and retreat. Your LORD is King of Israel and stands at your side; you don't have to worry about any more troubles.
16 Jerusalem, the time is coming, when it will be said to you: "Don't be discouraged or grow weak from fear!
17 The LORD your God wins victory after victory and is always with you. He celebrates and sings because of you, and he will refresh your life with his love."

The LORD's Promise to His People

18 The LORD has promised: Your sorrow has ended, and you can celebrate.
19 I will punish those who mistreat you. I will bring together the lame and the outcasts, then they will be praised, instead of despised, in every country on earth.
20 I will lead you home, and with your own eyes you will see me bless you with all you once owned. Then you will be famous everywhere on this earth. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Twins Arise
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

The Twins Arise! Fear Not! Fear Not! Fear Not!

May 29, 2004

YHVH speaks of: Leviathan, Behemoth, Ziz and *Rahab (*the Angel of Death -- not the woman of the scarlet thread in Jericho)

The twins arise. They rear their ugly heads, they arise! (satanic governments and demonic religions)

I AM that I AM, YHVH Whispers Tenderly in Your Ear --- "Ani L'Dodi V'Dodi Li" -- I AM my beloveds and My beloved is mine! -- FEAR NOT!!!

The creatures whom only the Holy One of Isra'el can thwart with HIS sword, they arise. Who, who has stirred them? Leviathan from the sea; Behemoth from the land! And, then the third -- Ziz from the air who will darken the sun with his wings!

The twins will battle one another to the death...Ziz, along with these will be the delicacies that my righteous ones feed upon at the Messianic Banquet, the feast of all feasts, in magnificent light and peace they will feast. Meat will be provided as I did in times past as my own wandered in the wilderness following Me in pillar and cloud....worry not, do not fear...THERE WILL BE MORE THAN YOU WANT, MORE THAN YOU DESIRE, NO LACK FOR MY OWN, quite unlike the circumstances outside of the camp. Show mercy, rachamim!!!

O, call them into the camp NOW! Blow the trumpets, blow and move at My precise commanded timing and in My precise direction. Sell your belongings and give to the poor, upheaval is sure. The Word in your hand, release it as arrows swift and sure. Eternal reward from My Mighty Right Hand promised! I AM El Gibor!

Leviathan arises...the coiled one, the serpentine one rumbles and rises, once again to scour the lands...he stirs, he stirs. Mounds of eruption are appearing in pattern, all across the continents, the islands of the seas, circling, swaying and entwining my straight paths...I call to you TODAY; do you now see?

Behemoth stirs in the grasses he has been hidden, lying, resting and waiting; waiting to emerge for the finale of time. I have surprises, yes, surprises are in line, the mysteries of your God... Line upon line, precept upon precept, every jot and tittle! Have you not read:

Matthew 5:18 Heaven and earth may disappear. But I promise you that not even a period or comma will ever disappear from the Law. Everything written in it must happen.

Matthew 5:18 God's Law is more real and lasting than the stars in the sky and the ground at your feet. Long after stars burn out and earth wears out, God's Law will be alive and working.

Ziz once again to rule the air in complete darkness of day ... soaring and relishing his rulership of the skies. None can defeat him, only YHVH, the Holy One of Isra'el.

Unprecedented events will occur on land, and sea and in the air...Rahab will seek to devour the souls of men...the Angel who commands death. HE ascends, he comes, he storms from the pit.

MY OWN will be sheltered under the protection of My wings, flee to My prepared place, our Secret place, that magnificent garden in which we walk and talk together. All yours--My beauty, fragrance, protection and rest--My name is Wonderful! I AM your beloved...and you are mine! Water and wine, take oil as well, the meat hidden away for such a time as this, bread for each day.

Gather your loved ones together, gather them in confidence and command the safety of yours to protect and defend, My Ephod upon your breast. Miracles galore you shall see!

Great warring angels mighty and strong, swords upright and ready surround your caravans to safe vistas of My desire, by the brook as it flows with living water, to refresh, cleanse, purify and give you life abundant by faith in Yeshua [Jesus]. My Bread and My living water will never have tasted as good.

Feast in the places prepared for such a time as this, follow ME, stay close to Me, listen for MY voice, love one another! Pray for the lost and wandering ones, their hearts to open to MY Light and Love, receive them. I rescue those who call upon My name, Yeshua [Jesus], I am Messiah!

Let Me shine within you as GLORY BEACONS of hope, drawing all men unto ME, unto Yeshua haMasahich, for I AM, and desire all who will come.

Allow Psalm 91 to infuse and resuscitate your spirit with HOPE ... hide it in your heart, recall as Rahab commits his horrors ... retrieve these words from your spirit and keep them in the forefront of your mind.

Look at Me, and no other. Listen to Me and no other. Come to Me and no other--endure until the end.

Legions of angels once again to appear, all eyes will see the King blazing in the Father's Glory! His armies roaring as a Lion, announcing the Lord of lords and King of kings, the Lion of Judah as HE descends astride HIS white steed--in Glory! Tzit Tzit flying in the Wind, HIS name upon HIS thigh, O, Look up, He comes, our Lord comes, our King comes! Praise, sing, dance and shout!!! Halleluyah!

To My Body -- Activate your duty of Love as the two witnesses [a perfected and complete testimony], Proclaim My Kingdom come, joyfully praise and worship ME in spirit and truth; hold the witness of MY BLOOD!

To You My set-apart ones, I send My Mercy, Grace, Justice--My Everlasting Love!

Tell them I Am Coming SOON!

Love, Yeshua

On Track

Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 17th, 2004 12:00 am
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

I am on track My beloveds with all of My plans. I might be off track in your plans, but I am ON TRACK with MY PLANS. Nothing is behind. Nothing is ahead. I am working all things for the good in all who love Me. The days ahead will steadily grow more wicked, but the good news is that you who are called by My name will steadily grow stronger and more filled with My glory.
So even though the world languishes and groans, I am working My character into you and pouring in My love and patience, My kindness and self-control, that you will be looking more and more like ME.

I am a Righteous God and I AM HOLY. I cannot dwell with darkness. I am calling to you to draw near and not to run. I need to do some surgery on many of you who are still in pain, the walking wounded. Some of you have dwelt too long among those who never encourage you or grant you the freedom to be who I've made you to be. For some of you, you are hanging around people you should have nothing to do with, because they only bring you into depression and pull on you in a very dependent way, so that you feel drained of all energy and life.

I need to put some finishing touches on my apostles and prophets that I am calling forth, so I've said over and over, COME TO ME. I am wanting to soak you in My love. I'm wanting to perfume you and rub you with perfumed oil. The enemy has some of you so distracted, that you are finding time going by, day after day, and feel you are accomplishing nothing. Futility is My message to some who are striving. I am trying to show you the lack of fruitfulness in going your own way. I am calling for you to be a disciplined army. Bending to MY EVERY WILL, not your own. So if you feel frustrated, maybe it is because you've been going your own way, and not spending time enough with Me to get MY WAY. Come to ME. LET ME do what I need to do to perfect My LIFE in you, and MY LOVE in you!

Peace and Comfort

Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 22nd, 2004 12: 12 am
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

2 Cor 13:11 NKJV Finally, brethren, farewell. Become complete. Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Acts 9:31 NKJV Then the churches throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were edified. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

"Mercy retreats in the sight of abhorrent things. Rage stirs and drives you to consider what is justice? What is the true way to deal with things? What can we do to relieve this pain we see? How do we overcome what we abhor?
I AM the GOD OF ALL COMFORT!
I AM the God of all mercy and compassion.
I AM the all knowing and all seeing God!

There is nothing I don't see! I see all that is " behind closed doors".

1 Thess 5:14-15 NKJV Now we exhort you, brethren, warn those who are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all. 15 See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all.

Mixed emotions rage, when day after day you are exposed to violence.
Human flesh wants to return evil for evil. Human flesh wants to extract a price for inhuman things done and all injustice. The soul is tarnished by violence seen and heard.

2 Peter 2:6-11 NKJV and delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked 8 (for that righteous man, dwelling among them, tormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds) — 9 then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment, 10 and especially those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. They are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries, 11 whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

Recognize that when you live among lawless individuals, you are going to suffer oppression when there are so many more of them than you. Know that all you are experiencing is NOT of ME. That is why it is so important now to spend TIME WITH ME. Get filled up! Get the healing you long for, because the world is growing darker.

Isa 60:2 NKJV For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you.

The good news is, if you have surrendered your life to ME, then you have access to the throne room! You have access to have the oppression lifted through your praise! But you must come to ME! You must imbibe in intimate fellowship with Me if you want to keep unscathed from all the works of the flesh that are rampant. I want YOU to be so filled with light that instead of the world oppressing you, YOU OPPRESS IT! The light shines in the darkness and the darkness does not comprehend it.

John 1:5 NKJV And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

1 John 4:4 NIV You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

When you walk into a store, a room, another person's home, the light that is ME within you, should radiate outwards to touch others and affect their lives. If the Light that is within you is Christ, then His love and grace and power should emanate from your being that others are affected. Great power demands HOLINESS unto the Lord. Thus, I am cleansing many of you from the taintedness of this world and all the enemy has done in your lives to steal and rob from you, so that you will be able to stand in the day of adversity and not be moved!

Isa 61:1-3 NKJV "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, Because the LORD has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; 2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; To comfort all who mourn,
3 To console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified."

Where there is no suffering, there is no compassion. In order to restore MY compassion to the church, many have undergone much suffering, while others rested in the wings, not really willing to give their WHOLE LIVES over to Me. Pride and arrogance have filled the church and wolves abound in the flocks of My pastures. Suffering will birth compassion that allows the oil of My presence to permeate the lives of others in a way that nothing else can.

Rom 5:1-8 AMP
1 THEREFORE, SINCE we are justified (acquitted, declared righteous, and given a right standing with God) through faith, let us [grasp the fact that we] have [the peace of reconciliation to hold and to enjoy] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed one).

2 Through Him also we have [our] access (entrance, introduction) by faith into this grace (state of God's favor) in which we [firmly and safely] stand.
and let us rejoice and exult in our hope of experiencing and enjoying the glory of God.
3 Moreover [let us also be full of joy now!] let us exult and triumph in our troubles and rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that pressure and affliction and hardship produce patient and unswerving endurance.
4 And endurance (fortitude) develops maturity of character (approved faith and tried integrity). And character [of this sort] produces [the habit of] joyful and confident hope of eternal salvation.
5 Such hope never disappoints or deludes or shames us, for God's love has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit Who has been given to us
6 While we were yet in weakness [powerless to help ourselves], at the fitting time Christ died for (in behalf of) the ungodly.
7 Now it is an extraordinary thing for one to give his life even for an upright man, though perhaps for a noble and lovable and generous benefactor someone might even dare to die.
8 But God shows and clearly proves His [own] love for us by the fact that while we were still sinners, Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed one) died for us.

As you have suffered and will suffer, so My compassion has and will be poured out into you, that you may in turn comfort those who have grown weary and weak. Surely the one who knows suffering , rejection, persecution, and affliction is acquainted with grief and sorrow and all the suffering of others and will be able to more effectively comfort those who endure hardship.

2 Cor 1:3-6 NKJV Comfort in Suffering
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ. 6 Now if we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
2 Cor 1:7 AMP
7 And our hope for you [our joyful and confident expectation of good for you] is ever unwavering (assured and unshaken); for we know that just as you share and are partners in [our] sufferings and calamities, you also share and are partners in [our] comfort (consolation and encouragement).

Arrogance and compassion have nothing in common. Pride cannot comfort.
Haughtiness has no fellowship with the suffering. It only seeks self gratification and self glorification. So be comforted My people who have suffered and endured. Hold on to the end, for you are My OVERCOMERS.
You will be given CROWNS of RIGHTEOUSNESS and will be exalted in the end. You will even now in this hour stand before princes and kings and be transformed by My glory, that the people of the earth may feed at your table and be healed and comforted by the Tree of Life that is within you.
Know that your suffering is GAIN for the Kingdom of God suffers violence, but the violent take it by FORCE. And you will now take hold of the enemy and pummel him through the release of My presence and you will help defeat the forces of darkness that have ensnared My people all over the earth!

Rise up and worship ME in the beauty of holiness, for I am pouring out My glory into you. And though you don't FEEL changed, you will be changed and you will see the results when you REACH OUT TO OTHERS! They will be changed and they will know that I have loved you. "

Rev 3:9-11 NKJV Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie — indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. 10 Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

Luke 17:28-30 NKJV Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

Words: John J. Moment (1875-?). Music: "O Quanta Qualia," Paris Antiphoner, 1681; harmony by John B. Dykes, 1868 (MIDI, score).
God of compassion, in mercy befriend us;
Giver of grace for our needs all availing;
Wisdom and strength for each day do Thou send us,
Patience untiring and courage unfailing.
Wandering and lost, Thou hast sought us and found us,
Stilled our rude hearts with Thy Word consoling,
Wrap now Thy peace, like a mantle, around us,
Guarding our thoughts and our passions controlling.
How shall we stray, with Thy hand to direct us,
Thou Who the stars in their courses art guiding?
What shall we fear, with Thy power to protect us,
We who walk forth in Thy greatness confiding?
http://www.cyberhymnal.org/htm/g/o/c/gocimbus.htm

Out Of Hibernation
Dennis Drewlo

Out of Hibernation, Dormancy & "The Winter of Your Discontent"

I am bringing you from a state of hibernation and dormancy, from a place of inactivity to activity, from death to revival. I will bring you from a discontented state to a place of divine contentment and I will awaken the Sleeping Giant of the Church. I will blow the trumpet to awaken you unto righteousness and bring you out of a state lethargy. I will bring you out of a state of latency and suspended animation, and I will renew the metabolic process in you spirits. I will The trumpet will blow in Zion! I will bring you though the process:

You Will Be Content

I will bring contentment to your lives and Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Meditate on These Things

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy--meditate on these things. The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you (Philip. 4:4-9).

Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content: (Philippians 4:11).

Now godliness with contentment is great gain (I Timothy 6:6).

Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." (13:5 Deuteronomy 31:6, 8; Joshua 1:5).

My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips (Psalm 63:5).

"He would have fed them also with the finest of wheat; and with honey from the rock I would have satisfied you" (Psalm 81:16)

For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things (Psalm 107:9).

You Will Be Confident

For I know whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until that day (2 Timothy 1:12).

You Will Be Comforted & You Will Comfort Others

Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God (II Cor. 1:4).

You Will Be Commissioned

I will commission you and send you forth. You will have power with a purpose. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth (Acts 1:8).

You Will Be Consecrated

I will consecrate you and separate you from My purposes.

"by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh" (Hebrews 10:20).

Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity" (2 Timothy 2:19).

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because He has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and the recovering of sight to the blind. To set at liberty them that bruised. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord" (Luke 4:18 & 19).

You Will Be Called

"God from the beginning chose you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth, to which He called you by our gospel, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2 Thessalonians 2:13-14).

"And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles " (Luke 6:13)

"For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called" (I Cor. 1:26).

"but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct-" (I Peter 1:15) But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; (I Peter 2:9). But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you (I Peter 5:10).

You Will Conquer

You will conquer. You will win. "Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us" (Romans 8:37).

You will have power over the enemy & sickness. "And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease" (Matthew 10:1).

"Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19). Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you (James 4:7). .

All your will be destroyed. What you have lost, you will recover. You will have a decisive victory. It will be such a victory as will effectually break the adversary's power. You will not only have victory, but the spoils of victory. Like Jehoshaphat's army, it will take you some time to gather the spoils of victory. You will not only win the battle, but you will save your territory and do honor to your Captain and your God.

I Will Enable You

You will feed on My Word and be strengthened from within. You will be "able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit" (II Cor. 3:6). You will being forth My Word and signs will follow (Mark 16:20). I will enable you and make you stewards of My grace and you will speak as the oracles of God; you will minister, not out of your own ability, buy by My power (I Peter 4:10-11).

I Will Equip You

I will equip you and you will be blameless in My sight and able to teach others, obedient and ready to do whatever is good. (II Tim. 3:17 & Titus 3:1) I have called you and commissioned you and what I have ordered, I will pay for. You will use what I have placed in your hands (Ex. 4:1-2).

I Will Empower You

You will be commissioned to go forth and make disciples. You will have power with a purpose. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth (Acts 1:8).

I Will Engage You

You will be engaged in warfare and you will learn to fight and endure hardship as a good soldier (II Tim. 2-3-4). You will not fight in your own strength, but in My power, not by yelling, kicking, or taking other fleshly actions. My desire is that you know and please the one who has enlisted you.

I Will Encourage You

Therefore if there is any encouragement in Christ, if there is any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose. Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves; do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others. Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men. Being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross (Philippians 2:1-6).

I Will Energize You

You will be energized and mobilized to do the work of the Kingdom.

And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others (Ephesians 2:1-3).

I Will Establish You

You will be established on the present truth (I Peter 1:11-13).

Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established (Proverbs 16:3).

For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established (Romans 1:11).

For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace (Hebrews 13:9).

I will awaken you. I will anoint you. I will appoint you. Will you be ready?

Out of Obscurity

Nadine Jackson

The Lord woke me showing me that after I have separated, then I will perform this.

The vision opened up like a piece of paper on fire in the middle. As the center widen, I saw a yacht anchored in a picturesque scene. The yacht was in an inland bay setting; sun's shining, crystal clear blue water, surrounded by reddish colored rocks, capped off with full leafed trees. I can see the line of the anchor in the water. The yacht was just sitting there peacefully. I asked the Lord to reveal to me what He was showing me. As I looked closer, I felt the strength and security of being anchored; along with I weathered the storm power. The Lord asked me look at everything, list it and write down what I am sensing.

1. The trees – full of leafs, complete in stature, and ready to provide the shade, shelter and food due to being rooted by rivers of living water. (Ps. 1:3)

2. Reddish color rocks – Jesus, corner stone, shed blood, tower strength (Matt. 7: 24 – 25; Rom. 5:9; Eph. 2:20)

3. Shining sun – Glory high above (Luke 21: 28;Rev. 22:16)

4. Crystal clear blue water – Transparent, authoritative, bountiful life, flowing living waters, depthless, provision, resourceful, forceful, graceful, majestic, tranquility, and eternal. (Gen 2: 8, 10, 15)

5. Anchor line – drawn, visible, straight (Amos 7: 7 – 8)

6. Inland bay – secret place, refuge, fortified (Ps. 91: 1 – 4)

7. Yacht – positioned, sea-worthy, outfitted (Luke 8: 22)

As I wrote down all that was disclosed, I then noticed the direction of the yacht. It was faced outward, fully equipped and ready for launching.

Then the Lord spoke, "Out of Obscurity"; Is. 29: 18, "And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness." I am prepared to launch whom I have hidden: the passed over, the left behind, the excluded, the bruised, the hurt, the least likely, the nameless, the ignored, the lonely, the outcast and the rejected. Whom I have called, my glory will be revealed on them and in them as with Moses and Daniel. (Rom. 8:30, Ex. 34:35, Dan. 6:3).

In 2005, I will send out my own to show the world my redemptive power and grace. 20 is redemption and 5 for grace, "My Hand " says the Lord " And with favor". (Mark 16: 20, Ps. 111: 6)

Nadine Jackson
A Still Small Voice
nadine_jackson@nexpress.com

Out of the Ashes
Angel Dahilig

Out of the Ashes, Shall My Beloved Arise!
By Angel Dahilig
May 7, 2004

I saw myself sitting on the ground in dust and ashes, mourning...

You ask me why I cry?
Because my people heard, but did not listen.

You ask me why I mourn?
Because those I knew, did not have the eyes to see what I saw, and
I was not able to give them my own eyes.

When I lifted up my voice to tell what I had seen, and to give warning to what I had heard,
they turned away and pretended they didn't see me,
they didn't want to hear me.

Sometimes they walked on the other side of the street, not physically, but in their hearts...
I could feel the distance as they passed.

Others still smiled, but conversation was weak, evading, shallow...
like an empty box.

Oh, how I wish they would have probed!
Oh, how I wish they would have asked!
Oh, how I wish they would have seeked!

Then maybe they would have regained their sight!
Maybe they would have seen what I had seen!
Maybe they would have heard what I had heard!

I did not shout,
I did not raise my voice.
Yet, my words were an offense.

They said, "This cannot be!"
"Surely, not we. Surely, not me."
"Surely, you are mistaken!"
"Surely, it CANNOT..."
"NO!... it WILL NOT!... happen this way!"
(Ezek 18:30, 1 Peter 4:17, Jer. 7:4,10)

Oh, how I wished that I were wrong!
So, that they would be right!
Then, I would not have sufferred, and they would not have perished!

"For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem my four dreadful judgments -- sword and famine and wild beasts and plague - to kill its men and their animals!"
(Ezekiel 14:21)

But wait...
Out of the haze of the smoke and the ashes,
I think I see...
Could it be?...

"Yet there will be some survivors -- sons and daughters who will be brought out of it. They will come to you and when you see their conduct and their actions, you will be consoled regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem -- every disaster I have brought upon it. You will be consoled when you see their conduct and their actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Sovereign Lord." (Ezekiel 14:22-23)

"Rise up my Beloved!
It is time to arise and to shine.

I am giving you many children who have not hardened their heart.
They are coming!
I am sending them to you.

Behold! Arise My Beloved!
See, they are coming!
I have sent you the harvest and you shall reap where you have not sown.
You will eat and shall not go hungry.
You shall rejoice, carrying your sheaves with you!"

Isaiah 66:2-24
2 ... "This is the one I esteem: he who is humble and contrite in spirit, and trembles at my word.
3 But whoever sacrifices a bull is like one who kills a man, and whoever offers a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; whoever makes a grain offering, is like one who presents pig's blood, and whoever burns memorial incense, like one who worships an idol. They have chosen their ways, and their souls delight in their abomination;

4 so I also will choose harsh treatment for them and will bring upon them what they dread. For when I called, no one answered, when I spoke, no one listened. They did evil in my sight and chose what displeases me."
5 Hear the word of the Lord, you who tremble at his word: "Your brothers who hate you, and exclude you because you of my name, have said, 'Let the Lord be glorified, that we may see your joy!' Yet they will be put to shame.
6 Hear the uproar from the city, hear that noise from the temple! It is the sound of the Lord repaying his enemies all they deserve.
7 "Before she goes into labor, she gives birth;
before the pains come upon her, she delivers a son.
8 Who has ever heard of such a thing? Who has ever seen such things? Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment? Yet no sooner is Zion in labor than she gives birth to her children.
9 Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?" says the Lord. "Do I close up the womb when I bring to delivery?" says your God.
10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her, rejoice greatly with her, all you who mourn over her.
11 For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts; you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance."
12 For this is what the Lord says: "I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream; you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees.
13 As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted over Jerusalem."
14 When you see this, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like grass; the hand of the Lord will be made known to his servants, but his fury will be shown to his foes.
15 See, the Lord is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.
16 For with fire and with his sword the Lord will execute judgment upon all men, and many will be those slain by the Lord.
17 "Those who consecrate and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following the one in the midst of those who eat the flesh of pigs and rats and other abominable things -- they will meet their end together," declares the Lord.
18 "And I, because of their actions and their imaginations, am about to come and gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see my glory.

19 I will set a sign among them, and I will send some of those who survive to the nations -- to Tarshish, to the Libyans and Lydians (famous as archers), to Tubal and Greece, and to the distant islands that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations.
20 And they will bring all your brothers, from all the nations, to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the Lord -- on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels," says the Lord.
"They will bring them, as the Israelites bring their grain offerings, to them temple of the Lord in ceremonially clean vessels.
21 And I will select some of them also to be priests and Levites," says the Lord.
22 "As the new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me," declares the Lord, "so will your name and descendants endure.
23 From one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all mankind will come and bow down before me," says the Lord.
24 "And they will go out and look upon the dead bodies of those who rebelled against me, their worm will not die, nor will their fire be quenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind."

Angel Dahilig

Food for thought:
"He who handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he.
(Proverbs 16:20)"

Out Of The Boat!
David Orton

Jesus and The contemporary Church

"…they thought he was a ghost" Mark 6:49

Jesus, teaching on the mount they knew. Jesus, feeding the five-thousand, and even raising the dead, they knew!

But what was this new and strange manifestation? The disciples had been directed by Jesus to get into a boat and cross the lake to Bethsaida. When evening came a storm had blown up and they were 'straining' on the oars as the wind was against them (see Mk 6:48).

The Greek word rendered 'straining' in the NIV is 'basanizo', meaning to test, to torture, to distress.

A picture of the western Evangelical / Pentecostal church. With the winds of a post-modern world blowing against her she is 'straining' on the oars. Despite their ability as seasoned fishermen, accomplished in boatmanship and experienced in storms, the winds are too strong. Like the disciples the contemporary church is exerting all her strength, training, and skill to fulfill the commission given her. But with all the resources available she cannot move forward. Over recent times the church in Australia (measured by Sunday attendance) has shrunk by 12% and in the UK by 26%. North America is not faring much better. By any measure the contemporary western church is in 'distress'.

And so, Jesus is coming to her in the fourth watch (between 3-6 AM) – in the darkest hour before dawn (see Mk 6:48). The night has been spent in a toilsome and futile labour. Exhausted, the disciples are at their wits end. But it is the watch when Jesus comes, the watch before the dawn, before the new day.

My question is twofold – from where does He come, and how does He come?

The answer is that He comes from 'outside the boat' through a 'new thing'.

This is, for the church, the worst of times, and yet the best of times. An hour of great testing and darkness on one hand, but on the other, one of great visitation and new beginnings.

In her darkest hour Jesus is coming to her in a new manifestation of divine power and purpose. But she is constrained by her own strength and structures. She is self-reliant and secure in her man-made systems. She is so mired in these and so focused on the storm, on her own effort – on physical and sensate things, that she is caught by total surprise. Jesus appears walking on the water. This is so outside their frame-of-reference they immediately conclude that it is a ghost! How could this be of God? It is outside of their 'boat' – their man-made vessel – outside the design, engineering, and structures of man!

Not only that, it is a completely 'new thing' – Jesus healing the sick they knew, feeding the five thousand was OK, but what was this? It was unfamiliar and impossible, defying all the natural laws on which they were depending for their survival. Boats were designed to float on water and that's where they were staying! And so, they concluded that it was a 'phantom' – a 'ghost' (Gr 'phantasma'). This manifestation was not only not of God, it had no 'substance' – it was not real – it was either a figment of the imagination, or from the ethereal world of the spirit.

Not only do they misconstrue this new visitation of God as having no substance; their response was one of fear. In a moment of time these self-assured sea-salts are reduced to abject terror shrieking for fear! (see Mk 6:49, 50).

The parallels are obvious. There is a new visitation coming to us from 'outside the boat'. A sudden and surprising manifestation of Christ is coming toward us. And it is coming from the storm-tossed seas of people – from the tumult of the nations. The God of heaven is at work in His earth. He is working through the groan of creation – through the almost inexpressible cry of the heart in the arts and media – and through the quest of politics and business for 'the ring of power'. He is coming walking on these oceanic shifts of creation subduing them, as history moves toward the full revealing of His sons and its ultimate liberation from bondage. As He did in the 'Jesus Revolution' of the 1960's and 70's God will again invade the youth cultures and counter-cultures. But this time He will 'leaven the whole lump' – they will be completely captured and turned to serve the King. He will also infiltrate and conquer the wealth of the nations causing it to flood into His house extending His kingdom to all peoples, tribes, and tongues. Every idol will fall – false religions, ideologies, and philosophies will be ground to dust by the weight of the coming visitation. But the visitation will come from 'outside the boat' – from outside the normal structures and patterns of the contemporary church.

At first, those in the boat will claim this visitation has no substance – that it is a 'phantom' – a passing fad, of no consequence. By comparison, their boat with its human design and construction is far more substantial than this mere apparition. They can, feel it, see it, and even row it! They even believe they can control it – despite the overwhelming force of the elements!

They will also respond with fear. Any fear of the storm will be completely overtaken by their fear of the unknown and particularly by their fear of the supernatural. It will drive them to reject this move of God. Even, many of those who are currently networking new movements of mission, of pastoral unity, and even many so-called 'apostolic' networks will react in fear and cling to the boat – to the structures and patterns that offer a more tangible security.

But some like Peter will be stirred in their hearts. And at the word of the Lord they will step out of the boat to come to Him (see Matt 14:28, 29). They will be irresistibly drawn from the securities of familiar patterns and structures to Him. And thus stepping out of them enter a new realm of freedom – of the miraculous. A realm of walking on water where they are no longer governed by sense-knowledge and natural reasoning! They will distinguish themselves from the rest of the disciples by their fearless hunger to be with Him – to come to Him 'outside the boat', and thus step into the 'new thing'. They are willing to "suffer with Him outside the city gates, bearing the reproach outside the camp" (Heb 13:12, 13). A study of revival history and of the coming of Christ Himself eloquently teaches us that the visitation of God comes most often through the least expected avenues and usually through those of no account in the religious system.

And so, through this visitation the church will be purged of human control. The 'out-of-church phenomenon' (a trend being commented on by some where many thousands of mature believers have left the institutional structures of the church) is one aspect of this – of the shifts and changes from the old to the new. In my view, these masses of people are in a 'holding pattern' waiting for the full release of the 'new thing'.

The institutional church will learn that its structures and patterns cannot attract the visitation.

In fact, Jesus 'was about to pass them by' (Mk 6:48). He was waiting for a particular response. And so, it was only as they cried out in abject desperation and fear that He responded. And this He did in two ways. First, He spoke to them, assuring them that the 'new thing' was a manifestation of Himself, and second, He climbed into the boat! (Mk 6:49, 50). Through the coming visitation God will invade the structures of the church and use it to His own ends. But only when she comes to the end of herself and cries out. And so, with a divine impetus the boat is supernaturally translated to its destination (see Jn 6:21). They entered the villages and marketplace where many recognised Jesus and were healed (see Mk 6:53-56).

Can we hear what the Spirit is saying to the church?

A visitation is coming from outside the prevailing structures and patterns of the church. It will challenge us as to whether we will go to Him outside the boat, or stay within the security of man-made structures. Could it be possible that many of us who are 'networking' are only reconfiguring the old – merely re-arranging the present structures? There is a new move coming so radically different we will all need to step out from where we are. It will be a reformation which turns us from hanging on to our structures to the person of Jesus – and to the principle of incarnation – the awesome reality of God manifest in a human body.

We will be faced with the choice of stepping out into His 'presence' or staying with our 'patterns'.

The issue is one of control. Will we hang on, toiling in our own strength – or will we let go, fleeing only to Him?

The choice is ours.

For more articles by David Orton and others, Go Here:

REPRINT AGREEMENT:
Duplication and re-transmission of this writing is permitted provided that complete source and website information for Lifemessenger is included. Thank you. www.lifemessenger.org

Copyright © David Orton 2004

Out Of The Box
Tommy Tenney

God Doesn't Do "Out of the Box Revival"

Aug 9, 2004

God has to break through our programs before He can break out and manifest His presence among us. He has to demolish our artificial intelligence (our dim and sometimes haughty imitation of His omniscience) and artificial spirituality (our programs) to bring in the real thing and take a city or nation.

Unfortunately, it is a rare church that can handle the divine call to self-demolition and re-ignition by the fire of God.

No one seems to know whether our fixation with repetitive formulas and fixed equations stems from our earliest experiences in elementary schoolrooms or from our innate search for unchanging security in our ever-changing world. (It makes me wonder why people don't set their sights on the unchanging God of eternity instead of the lowly world of human repetition.)

In what areas can you see this compulsion for "sameness" operating in your life? Is it necessarily wrong? Does it belong in your times of praise and worship to God?

Professional athletes do it when they carefully tuck a "lucky rabbit foot" in their pocket or wear their "lucky T-shirt" from the 1996 championship season under their uniform for every game. Why? They want to experience the same success they experienced in 1996.

Marketing researchers do it every time they design an advertisement or product package using "tried and proven" colors, shapes, and appeals that worked the year before.

Churches and worshipers do it when they insist on reproducing the exact song, the same order of service, or the prime preaching mode that worked last year or in another city where revival broke out. We instinctively repackage the success of yesterday to produce a program for today in the hope that somehow it will bring revival.

Have you ever seen this "repackage the anointing" mode at work in your life or anywhere else in the Christian world? What were the results? Did God reveal His manifest glory because of these things or in spite of them?

It seems to me that even if our habitual "repackaging and programming" tactics worked, God would go out of His way not to endorse them by showing up. Why? His track record throughout recorded history reveals His ancient hatred for anything that separates Him from His children. That includes anything and everything that encourages us to take Him for granted or act presumptuously toward things holy (and I can't think of a better definition for this bad habit of dressing up memories of yesterday's visitations as today's manifestations).

He wants to preserve the joy and freshness of our encounters together, and equations and formulas do exactly the opposite.

… God wants to "break outside of the box." That means that our hunger has to get bigger than the religious box we've built over multiplied centuries of man-centered religious practice. We must have an uncontainable hunger to entertain our uncontainable God. That automatically disqualifies the religious program.

Are you tired of trying to satisfy your spiritual hunger on the meager feast provided by yesterday's revelations and visitations? Is your hunger great enough to propel you past the obstacles of tradition, rigid programs and lowered expectations? Will you let Him overturn your table of religious trinkets in return for the Real Thing?

Erroneous Assumptions, Presumptions and Misaligned Paradigms

Yet the fact is that rivers are to cross and transition through. The Israelites in the wilderness chose to embrace all the negative reports and the "safe" counsel of men instead of the "riskier" counsel of God. As a result, an entire generation died homeless. They never stepped into the water of transition from the deliverance of bondage to the possession of God's promise. It's time for this generation to dive into the river.

1. For centuries, the church has viewed the twin rivers of "change and challenge" as obstacles to be avoided, and enemies to be feared. Can you name specific instances in your life where a local church has "stalled at the river of challenge" and failed to cross into God's blessings through unbelief or fear?

2. What command of God to individuals or entire congregations does not include a commission to change and a call to meet a challenge? Given a choice, will most people embrace change and tackle a challenge or escape change and sidestep a challenge?

Scripture Reading: John 2:13-17, in which Jesus turns the tables on the religious marketplace and reveals His politically incorrect passion for the Father's house.

13 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business.

15 When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables.

16 And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!"

17 Then His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for Your house has eaten Me up."

Prayer We need the Real Thing, Lord. We need nothing more or less than You. Deliver us from ourselves and from our endless imitations of true visitation by Your presence, Lord. Complete the good work You began in us. Break out of our boxes of presumption, overturn our religious tables, and reveal Your glory to our hungry hearts. We are desperate for You. www.GodChasers.Net

Opportunity Arrives

Joni Ames

Spirit Responds, Opportunity Arrives

When the rover named "Spirit" landed on Mars, the Lord began to stir a message in me, which is below this one. When I heard that the next ship being sent up was named, "Opportunity," MY spirit leapt within me in regard to another prophetic parallel. As the team at NASA has been crying out to Spirit, seemingly without response until recently, I sensed the Lord speaking about some other things as well.

By the way, the term "rover" is defined as: (1) a random or long-distance mark in archery - usually used in plural; (2) wanderer; roamer; (3) a player who is not assigned to a specific position on a team and who plays wherever needed; (4) vehicle for exploring the surface of an extraterrestrial body (as the moon or Mars). (5) another name for dog.

I feel like many of you are like "rovers" - pressing towards a mark, wandering and wondering; willing to play where needed; often exploring unknown territory; yet remaining faithful like Caleb. ("Caleb" means "faithful dog; faithful friend.") - Know that the Spirit is responding, and Opportunity has arrived!

Faith, Works & Communication

When we cry out to the HOLY Spirit for spiritual, business or other reasons, He responds, and He sends OPPORTUNITY for us to walk in. But again, WE have to respond to HIM as well! COMMUNICATION is VITAL! We must not allow communication to be shut down. When communication is shut down, so is progress. By maintaining good communication, anything can be worked out.

I believe the Lord wants to remind us that "faith without works is dead," (James 2:20 & 2:26) and WE must continually be communicating with the HOLY Spirit and DOING SOMETHING towards what we are about if we want action from God. James said, "...But someone will say, 'You have faith, and I have works.' Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith BY my works." (James 2:18)

NASA launched Spirit on June 10. The number 10 can stand for law; order; government; restoration; trial; testing; responsibility; and tithe. It landed EIGHT months after being sent, and eight is the number for new beginnings. Through that I felt it was said, Let us not forget to get and keep things in our lives in proper order, continue to put God first even in our finances, and go forward even during times of trial and testing.

REST IS AS IMPORTANT AS WORK

Spirit paved the way and Opportunity followed on July 7th and landed on Mars just 7 months after it was sent. Seven is God's number for perfection; completeness; day of rest. - Interestingly, they said, "As Spirit shut down systems and 'slept" 124 million miles from Earth, Opportunity made a flawless arrival on the other side of Mars."

Interestingly, it also was stated, "They also succeeded in coaxing the robot to sleep after it stayed up two nights in a row when it should have been turned off to conserve power."

I believe there are some of us that could use some of the same at times! - Shutting down to conserve power! - I'm reminded of Psalms 127:2, where it says: "It is vain for you to rise up early, To sit up late, To eat the bread of sorrows; For so He gives His beloved sleep."

There is an old saying: HALT if you are Hungry, Angry, Lonely or Tired.

Forgetting The Past

One of the things that troubled Spirit was its flash memory, which is similar to the memory digital cameras use to store pictures. They had to shut the flash memory down in order to try to repair it.

Whether there is a need for deliverance or wise counsel, I believe there are many of us that need to get healed of past memories and experiences that keep "flashing" in our spirit and crippling us in order to go successfully forward as well.

> "(12) Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. (13) Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, (14) I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." (Phil. 3:12-14)

Note

Listen, we don't want to get "strange" about these things. Not everything that happens is prophetic! But these were just some things the Lord used in the natural to speak to me in prophetic parallels about.

Also, we MUST stay in the Word. Even though the Lord used these natural events to speak to me, He did so by referring me to scripture. The Word of God has GOT to be our ultimate plumb line, even in areas of the prophetic.

Anyhow, for those of you who didn't get the first article about Spirit, it is below:

Spirit Lands; Begins To Move
- Joni Ames

The headlines quickly caught my attention, "SPIRIT LANDS; BEGINS TO MOVE." As I read the article further, it described how the spaceship named "Spirit" had recently landed on a hill on the planet Mars. The HOLY Spirit began to tap on MY spirit that there was something of significance in prophetic parallel and led me to Acts 17:17. Interestingly, the number 17 had been burning in my spirit for some time.

In Acts 17:16, we find Paul waiting for Silas and Timothy at Athens, and his spirit was grieved when he discovered that the city had turned their hearts to idols. Then in Acts 17:17 it says: "Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there." - Thus began Paul's famous sermon at a place (GET THIS!) called MARS Hill

GREAT MARKETPLACE OUTPOURING

I believe the Lord has truly been (and is) speaking about a great outpouring in the Marketplace. Many are recognizing this - I'm certainly not the only one! Bishop Bill Hamon of Christian International (www.cimn.net) has written an awesome book about it. So - what exactly is the "marketplace?"

The dictionary describes it as: "an open square or place in a town where markets or public sales are held; the world of trade or economic activity; the everyday world."

That's right - conveying to others and helping them get to know the God of EVERY day life personally; not just Sunday church! There are many who have caught the vision for "Marketplace Ministry" and have been seeking the Lord for their part in this.

Marketplace? or Ministry?

In times past, there have been those with a tremendous Joseph/Daniel marketplace anointing who have ALSO felt the call to ministry, but argued with themselves because they thought they would have to give up one to do the other. On one hand, they couldn't justify tossing aside proper support of their family to do ministry, because the Word is clear that those who do so are considered to be "worse than a non-Christian." However, their hearts could not justify forsaking the call of God on their lives to spread the Gospel either! Therein lay the dilemma - "Business or ministry?" - "Ministry or business?" - And the answer is, "BOTH!"

The truth of the matter is, even as far back as this account in the book of Acts with Paul, the Marketplace has always been used as a means to pour out the Gospel. Take a look at most any great metropolitan city in our nation, and you will find a city where there has been a mighty outpouring. Even as recently as Toronto and Pensacola! And yes, Kansas City, too - where, praise God, "things" are beginning to take place once again!

Not that God has to "make sense" - after all, He is God! - But it stands to reason that we aren't going to reap much of a harvest of souls INSIDE the church walls, any more than we could catch any fish if we cast our fishing lines INSIDE of a boat!

A Different Kind of Leadership

The good news is, our God is about His business in this day, bringing forth a new "Gospel Ship" of LeaderShip that will look MUCH different from what we've so far known

I believe the Lord is speaking to the Church, just as He spoke to His disciples in Luke 5:5-6:

> (5) Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net."
> (6) And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking.

The Lord is speaking to us now - in PRESENT time and language - that it is time to "cast the net on the other side!" - In other words, OUTSIDE the church walls, and INTO the Marketplaces - the every day places - of the world.

By doing this, we WILL catch that "big haul" we've been promised was coming! To expect it to come INSIDE the Church walls is ridiculous! This truly is a time when the Lord is sending forth the "hunters and fisherman" to gather in the mighty harvest! - "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks." Jer. 16:16 (N KJV). Truly, a bountiful, net-breaking harvest IS beginning to emerge!

Let Us Begin To Introduce The "Unknown God"

During the most popular Christian holidays, many people sing the songs of the season, and repeat the prayers they are led to speak. But as in Paul's day, they speak to an "Unknown God." They know "of" Him, but do not KNOW Him, intimately and personally.

Even on a daily basis, many seek "God" through a variety of "things." Of note about most any great metropolitan areas in these days is the tremendous amount of humanism, intelligence, philosophies, and a variety of religions and belief systems, from New Age to Old Age - Eastern religions to witchcraft and other cults! - With the birth of so many awesome cities having begun in the power of the Spirit, why would we try to turn to the flesh once established? This was the dilemma Paul faced at Mars Hill.

The philosophers and artisans of Paul's day were great "thinkers" and debaters, always looking for another "bright idea" to follow after. This was to Paul's advantage that day, for they were "ripe for the picking" to hear what he had to say. However, this following set of scriptures very well could be written and told about the day and time we currently live in! Our cities are full of ancient and New Age philosophies - all being sought after and researched as Mankind continues to try to "find themselves" or "find their way" in today's society. - As Paul did, let us help them to find their purpose and destiny in JESUS in Acts 17:

> (18) Then certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them Jesus and the resurrection
> (19) And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak
> (20) For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean."
> (21) For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Notice that Paul did not "put them down;" rather, he met them on their ground, on a level where they could receive:

> (22) Addressing the Areopagus Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious;
> (23) for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Therefore, the one whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you:
> (24) God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands.
> (25) Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, breath, and all things.
> (26) And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings,
> (27) so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us;
> (28) for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.'
> (29) Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising.
> (30) Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent,
> (31) because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead."

> (32) And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter."
> (33) So Paul departed from among them.
> (34) However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

A Time Of Responsibility

In this day and age the Lord has given to us a space of time to reach and save the lost. There will come a time, as the Gospel gets spread throughout the earth, when we will all arrive at a place of "no excuse," as it speaks of in Rom 1:20 to Rom. 2:1. But let us use this time as the Spirit of God is prompting and giving us this kairos moment, to bring in a mighty harvest!

Prayer

Father, help us in this, your moment of anointing, when yolks are being broken and doors opened at the same time, to utilize what you've given us to give YOU to others. Amen

====================================
Joni Ames
P.O. Box 411501
Charlotte, NC 28241
E-mail: JONIAMES@aol.com
Website: http://hometown.aol.com/joniames
Newsletter site: http://JoniAmes.injesus.com
To subscribe to newsletter, send e-mail to:
JoniAmes-subscribe@MyInJesus.com

Open Vision
Kathie Walters

Open Vision For America But 'Not Only For America'

When I got up this morning, it was barely light as I was getting ready to fly to Redlands, California.

All the houses
It seemed as if the whole room was dark and the time was about 4am ... actually it was 6:30am. The very slightest bit of daylight was there .... A tiny fraction of daylight if you can put it that way. I was looking down upon a town and saw hundreds of houses. Suddenly, out of the houses came streams of people ... Christians. They were all carrying candles. The day prior to this I had that old song running through my mind "Let your little light shine," but I had not thought much about it until now.

Waves through the houses, not just in church
Then I saw some huge waves and the waves washed up against the houses, but they washed THROUGH the houses and carried along the people with the candles. When I get these visions, they are not like pictures in front of my eyes, it is like I am really there. I felt I was moving as the water washed me along (very hard while trying to brush your teeth).

Wake up - it's harvest time
Then the Lord gave me this word for America, but not only America, it is going to happen everywhere: "Wake up, I am sending the waves, the moves of the Spirit, but this move is for the lost, it's time to reap the harvest - the fields are white. Church, Get ready , open your heart and look outwards and see the unsaved people all around. You can be a part of it, you can be a partaker of it, you can be a carrier of it, you can receive the blessings of it, but it is not primarily for you, it is for the lost.

The gift of faith released
I will release the gift of faith for you to receive souls saved. Even as Charles Finny and others had the gift of faith to receive thousands (100,000 saved in Rochester NY, 100,000 saved in Wales as Evan Roberts moved in the gift of faith, etc) so I will release the gift of faith. But it is for salvation and healing, and the healing is to bring salvation. There is going to be a release of the power gifts - so that you can reach the unsaved.

Prophets, your ministry is not only to the church, but to teach the people to prophesy to the unsaved, that the secrets of men's hearts may be made manifest and falling down will say, "of a truth God is in the place."

Pastors, send out the people under your watchful care because this wave is to reach the lost. Open the church doors and keep them open. This is for you -- all of you --not just to receive a blessing, but that you might be immersed in it -- the blessing and salvation that is coming to the LOST.

As you go
The Lord is saying, "Wake up - You have prayed and asked ME TO MOVE but I will move through YOU and YOU must go out . Do not say "I am not an evangelist, it is not for me to go out." It is for everyone to go out, and gossip, yes gossip the Gospel. The early church when they were scattered went everywhere sharing or gossiping the Gospel. AS YOU GO I will release the gift of faith, AS YOU GO I will release signs and wonders. AS YOU GO I will demonstrate the power of the Good News and I will not send you in word only. Your light is not to hide under a bushel, your light is not to hide in the church meeting, you light is to carry to light the dark places.

Wake up! You cannot sleep through the opportunities around you.
I AM reaching to the lost, to those not saved as yet.
I AM stretching forth my hand to bring healing and deliverance. It is the dawn of a day of evangelism.
I will send my servants here from other nations to help you gather this harvest.
My people from other nations will say "Why would He send us here to America? There is so much happening here, so much happening in the church. But not all activity is of Me, Look around at the activity of the church, where are the lost ones?"

Religious spirits -Unfruitful spirits
Friends, the religious spirit can be very active but it is unfruitful. You know The Word. You can sing many songs. You can dance and shout, But where is the Fruit of your communion with Him? Where is the fruit of the Spirit? Where are the babes that real fruit produces?

I feel an urgency.

If you know me, you know it is not like me to give these warning kinds of words. It is a gentle warning to "wake up church."

God is sending people from other nations to help reach the lost.
Arise, God will give us light to work during the daytime. There have been many prophetic words of blessings for this year, including words that have come from me, but pass on the blessing --- don't just keep it for yourself. Let's not lose this harvest. The fields are white, God is giving us favor, move out in your anointing where you are. In the market place, in your job.

You don't have to qualify
You don't have to "qualify" to be used by God. You just have to be willing. He is not looking for your ability, He is looking for your availability. There will be no lack for you to accomplish the purposes of God in your own life and for your own city - where the appointment is, where the provision is.

Your testimony - in the market place
Before I was filled with the Holy Spirit, I never had much of a testimony. I was very worldly, my (Christian) crowd was made up of Chorus girls, actors. movie directors. We thought we had to be like the world to win it. We had no power (except David, my husband, who won people to the Lord just about every week). But when I got filled with the spirit I told the Lord I wanted to leave my job with a testimony. I worked for the accounts department of a Jewish Company in London. We were in a revival so I knew I would not be at that company for very long.
The Lord told me, "Just do as I say." I realized HE WANTED TO REACH THOSE PEOPLE THAT I WORKED WITH. He just needed me to be available.

God shows up in the market place.
In the area of London I lived and worked, religion was considered "Personal" and it was thought to be in bad taste to talk to people about "personal" things, so I had to step out beyond my up-bringing and the strong opinions of the snooty West End Fashion house where I working.
God began give me words of knowledge. He began by telling me how the chief accountant was ripping off the Petty Cash big time. He told me how the chief Salesman was selling the company accounts. I thought I was going to get little words to bless people. Golly, this was a bit much, but I had made an agreement and said I wanted a testimony. I told them what God showed me and they were terrified of me. It was funny however because everyone was afraid to tell off - color jokes and cuss in my office . They were afraid God would get them or something. I kept telling them what God was saying and all kinds of miracles happened.

The office was never the same again Over the next few months I did and said all kinds of wild thing things. (The account of this is in my book "Living in the Supernatural.

After I had left the company, the Chief accountant called me one day, he said, "A while after you left, we had a problem. One of the balances was "off" and we need to find the lost difference, can you come into the office here for a day or so? We'll give you any amount of money you want." Well I'm not stupid so I asked for a good amount.

"Him up there"

I asked my ex-boss why he thought I could find the lost balance. "Well you could ask 'Him up there,'" he said. That was a major break through for my fiery Jewish boss to suggest that "Him up there" would tell me how to find this balance.
I went, of course, and when I got to the office they had gotten me a huge desk which was laden with posting sheets, all of which had hundreds of figures on them. You know there's no way in the natural you can look through all that, so many thousands of figures, and find a lost balance, unless you were prepared to be there for a month.

Don't disturb God

Well I sat down with a coffee they gave me. Everyone in the office was tippy toeing around because they didn't want disturb "Him up there." The assistant accountant was standing silently, waiting for me to pray. I didn't have to pray because I already prayed on the way there, but I obliged and bowed my head. I knew there was no way I was going to find this, so I just started turning the big posting sheets over, not really looking at them.
The people in the office were looking sideways at me, wondering what on earth I was doing.
" Lord," I breathed, "I can't do this, but these people know that YOU CAN - so do something."

Suddenly after about 5 minutes, as I was turning over a paper, the Holy Spirit said, "Its right there." I looked down and there it was, right smack in the middle of the page. "Here it is", I smiled. They didn't say too much. I figured that they felt they had already humbled themselves enough by having me come in and help them by asking 'Him up there."
I had a great testimony when I left that market place. You can too - just do as He says. He will come through for you because He wants those people around you to know that He has their number!

Demonstrate - don't just talk

Your job is not just a source of income to pay your bills, it's a mission field. Pray for the people and ask God to give you some words of knowledge and dreams and visions. The gifts of the Spirit are to demonstrate the power of the Gospel, not just to use in church.
Harvest - harvest- harvest time!
- Look and see what God sees right now. Let your light shine. Let this wave take you with it, to the street, to the office, to the restaurant, to the store, to the government, to the prison -
I saw in that vision many Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventists, Mormons and other sects and denominations where there are so many without a real salvation experience. Christians began to talk with them and began to give words of knowledge and prophetic insight - (I don't mean hit people over the head of course) and wow ! - the Holy spirit moved and the Presence of Jesus came and the people began to smile.
There is a harvest right there.

Little kids and drug dealers

The little kids in our church in the south of London would stand outside the worst pub in our area. The place where all the drug dealers hung out, where all the Hells Angels congregated, the place everyone avoided. The little kids, 8, 9, and 10 years old, would stand near the door and as the people went in they would stretch out their hands and speak out words of knowledge. I saw people outside afraid to go in because they didn't want to walk past the kids, because the anointing of God was all over them. I saw people inside afraid to come out because they didn't want to walk past them either. But, I also saw drug pushers - major drug dealers, kneel down on the pavement and the little kids prayed for them. I saw people so drugged out that they didn't know who they were, get instantly delivered by the power of God flowing through these little boys.

A lot of those people became part of our church, part of the revival and some eventually became elders in the church.
So don't wait - move on out. If you have enough salvation to get saved - you have enough to share.

P.S. (Addendum by Kathie Walters to this word)
What I wanted to stress in this word was the fact that the Lord showed me that in this harvest there are a lot of Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons and 7th-Day Adventists that will be affected by signs and wonders and the supernatural presence of God. Christians tend to leave them out as they think they have already made up their minds but it's not so- God is going to move on these people and we have to be ready to show that God is really alive and HE HAS THEIR NUMBER - words of knowledge - words of wisdom and prophetic words to the JW's, 7th Day Adventists, Mormons etc are going to touch them ---
Besides the Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons, a lot of 7th Day Adventists are going to get saved (of course many of them are saved now) in this move and they are going to EXPERIENCE the PRESENCE OF JESUS AND IT WILL BLOW THEM AWAY
by Kathie Walters
email: kathiewalters@mindspring.com web: http://www.goodnews.netministries.org/

A Vision Of Jesus
Kathie Walters

Jan 31, 2004

As I was flying to Ct. For some meetings, I had a vision of Jesus - he was running toward me with his arms outstretched - I began to get this and as I preached it some more came tumbling out of my mouth - print it out and meditate on it Kathie Walters

“Jesus is altogether lovely, He saves us, and keeps by His power, from sin and death.

He has given to us His robe of righteousness, He extends his mercy, longsuffering, lovingkindness, tenderness, healing, compassion,

He is our shield, our defender, our rock, our hiding place,

He is our provider, counselor, great shepherd, our friend, who is closer than a brother, our love. He is the Husbandman, the keeper of the vineyard. He is the source of all blessing,

He restores, rescues, forgives and redeems.

He is our victor, the captain of hosts, He is our banner, and our standard, mighty in battle, He is he King of Kings and Lord of Lords,

Jesus is crowned with glory and honor, He is our savior, sanctifier, redeemer, merciful and faithful high priest,

He is the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the end, He was dead but now He is ALIVE forevermore and He is seated at the right hand of God (seated - it's finished)

He destroyed death, and led captivity captive

He is the great Apostle of our faith, He is the supreme sacrifice, the spotless and blameless lamb

He is our anchor, our strong tower, our shield, our defender, and He was the Ancient of Days before the first day began.

He is the forerunner, the firstborn among many brethren, He is the surety of a better testament and He comes from the unchangeable priesthood, He is able to save to the uttermost,

His presence doesn't cast any shadow because He is the light that lights the heavenly city. He is the light of the world. and the giver of life.

He is the door, the way and the truth. He is the treasure, the pearl of great price, more precious than the finest gold, He was the rock of ages before any mountain peaks were formed. He was the bread of life before there was any grain. He was the lily of the valley before there were any flowers on the earth.

He is the eternal intercessor and He is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, higher than the heavens, He makes His enemies His footstool and laughs at His adversaries.

He is the tree of life, He is consecrated for ever and makes us sanctified forever, by His precious blood.

He is the minister of the Sanctuary, He is the mediator the New covenant.

He is the high priest of GOOD THINGS to come, He's the Lion of Judah, and the Lamb, slain. He is the New and living way.

He was born contrary to the laws of birth. He lived contrary to the laws of life. He healed, contrary to he laws of medicine. He was tried and condemned contrary to the laws of justice and He arose, contrary to the laws of death and the grave. He ascended contrary to the laws of gravity and He is coming back again contrary to the expectation of the world

He is the same yesterday, today and forever. He is the great shepherd of ALL THE SHEEP

HE IS THE HOLDER OF THEY KEYS, HE IS THE AMEN, HE IS THE FINAL WORD...

He is qualified to open the Book, He is the expression of the heart of the Father,

His love has no limits, His grace has no measure, His power has no boundaries known unto men, out of His infinite riches, He gives and gives and gives again

He is our nearest Kinsman, and is qualified to redeem us.

He is THE WORD MADE FLESH, the honey in the rock, He is high and lifted up He is the lily of the valley the bright and morning star, the fairest of 10,000.

He is more precious than gold, He's the glory and lifter of our heads. He is the righteous judge, He is a refuge for the oppressed. He doesn't forget the cry of the humble

He bore our sorrows and our griefs, He was despised and rejected of men and now He controls the destiny of the nations-The kingdoms of this world are going to become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and for ever.

He is our portion and our inheritance, His garments smell of sweet myrrh and His breath is as sweet apples. He is a very present help in trouble.

He hides us under the shadow His wings, and keeps us as the apple of His eye.

He is our high tower, He makes the hills shake, the mountains melt, the heavens bow.

He pulled back the curtain of eternity and stepped out on the stage of time for one brief moment, and then stepped back again into eternity, but in that one bridge moment of time He sealed the fate of every man and fixed the destiny of every man and woman.

He will light my candle because He is the light of life He is the branch, and the root of Jesse.

HE IS THE GREAT WAVEMAKER FROM GALILEE

He makes the crooked paths straight and the rough places plain He split history, and divided the ages,

He is the greatest teacher the world has ever known, He is the Baptizer in the Holy Ghost,

He preserves the faithful, He is the resurrection and life,

He spoke and framed the world, He makes our way perfect and makes our feet like hinds feet, He causes us to walk in high places. He is able to comfort, guide and bless.

He spoke and the heavens unrolled themselves and the galaxies were born. He spoke and the streams and rivers wound their way across the earth. The rose began to blush, and the violets cast their fragrance, and the birds began to sing. Colors wove themselves into a rainbow. He spoke and a handful of dust became a living soul.

He turns our mourning into dancing and, girds us with gladness.

Let me tell you about His voice, His voice is powerful upon the waters, full of majesty, like thunder, it breaks the cedars, divides the flames, shakes the wilderness, makes the hinds to calve, discovers the forests, sets the mountains in their place, It stills the seas. His voice shook the earth and melted the hills.

His voice is as the sound of many waters, He spoke and calmed the storm, He spoke and gave life to the dead, brought healing to the sick, strength to the weak, and forgiveness to the sinner.

Herod could not kill him. The Pharisees could not confound him, Satan could not trick Him. Sickness could not withstand him, Devils could not stay near Him, The waves could not drown Him. The rabble could not disturb Him, death could not corrupt Him. Hell could not keep Him, the grave could not contain Him, Gravitation could not restrain Him and God has highly exalted Him and given Him a Name above every name and at His name every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that He is Lord of all.

He led captivity captive and gave gifts to men, He brought a stream out of a rock, and fed the people in the wilderness, He fed 5000 with two loaves and a few fishes

He is Savior to the lost, healing to the sick, He is hearing to the deaf and sight to the blind. He is cleansing to the leper, and strength to the weak. He is comfort to the oppressed, hope to the hopeless and help to the helpless. He is a brother to the friendless and a friend to the brother less and He is LIFE to the dead.

He is infinite, eternal, glorious and full of majesty.. One day in His courts is better than a thousand, wouldn't you rather be a doorkeeper in His house than dwell in the tents of the world..?

He is the covenant keeper keeping- covenant with covenant breakers..

He is sweeter than all the flowers, He is the lover of our soul and the keeper of our hearts.

He is music to the poet, and a song to the worshiper. His Name has been whispered by thousands upon thousands of dying soldiers on the battlefields of the ages. His name has been the battle cry of those who fought for righteousness and truth.
HE IS THE KING OF ALL KINGS AND ALL RULERS AND EVERY NATION WILL BOW TO HIM,

HIS NAME IS JESUS...”

Kathie Walters.

Open Heaven
Terry Suggs

At this time, there are no set boundaries on what we are trusting God to do in our lives. We can receive the dead raised back to life again. We can receive creative miracles. We can believe and receive the answers to our greatest needs. Our God has given us an open heaven. Nothing hinders our prayers. Only our minds cause us to magnify the problem, the illness, and the situation. In this time we are experiencing a refreshing, a renewal, and a revival.
We are experiencing great favor, great power, great compassion, great fear, great signs and wonders, and great grace. This is a time of great and mighty things.

God will not allow the believer to be put to shame at this time. If you are representing Him and bringing God into a situation, then the victory is guaranteed. God is confirming His word with signs following and with power. When you speak His word now there is power behind it to bring changes to the problem or the situation. It will happen when you speak the word in faith.

An open heaven means that there is nothing between us and our Lord to stop or constrain or restrain our answers to prayers. It means that we are aligned with God's will for our lives. This means that the presence will be stronger and more powerful than we have ever experienced it before. You see like God sees. You speak like God speaks. Nothing is impossible to you. There are no hinderances. Nothing can stop you except your negative thinking and seeing things in the natural.

God is not limited by anything in the natural. We limit our faith because of what we see and hear in the natural.

Remember this does not mean that you should go jump out of a high rise window, or step in front of a truck or train. Use wisdom please. Stay in the will and plan of God.

You can't lose. If God be for us, who can be against us. God overrides, overrules, over shadows, superrules, supercedes and exceeds every obstacle or hinderance or problem that is before us. David ran to meet Goliath, because he was in the will of God. The anointing of the Holy Ghost is what destroys the yoke. The anointing was upon David.

This is a time of fullness, wholeness and completion.
Let us get into the fullness of God through the leading of the Holy Ghost and praying and fasting. The whole world is waiting for the manifestation of the Sons of God. We are to give this world a powerful witness.

Jesus is with you now and always. He will never leave you or forsake.   There has never been a time like this in our human history. We set our on boundaries by the way we see things in the natural. Keep your eyes on the Lord and His promises. He is Faithful and True.

Jesus is our reward. He is Lord over all creation.
Christ In You The Hope Of Glory!

Made A Little Lower Than The Angels
Terry Suggs

Jesus is the central focus of the entire bible. He was God in the flesh or God in an earth suit, reconciling the world to Himself. He was the Word of God (all the prophecies, promises, shadows and types, symbols through out the scriptures) manifest in a body of flesh.

Heb. 1:2-6
But in the last of these days, He has spoken to us in (the person of) His Son, Whom He appointed Heir and lawful Owner of all things, also by and through Whom He created the worlds and the reaches of space and the ages of time (He made, produced, built, operated and arranged them in order).

He is the sole expression of the glory of God (the light being, the out raying or radiance of the divine) And He is the perfect imprint and very image of God's nature, upholding and maintaining and guiding and propelling the universe by His Mighty Word of Power. When He had by offering Himself accomplished our cleansing of sins and riddance of guilt, He sat down at the right hand of the divine majesty on high.

Taking a place and rank by which He Himself became as much superior to angels as the glorious name (title or authority), which He has inherited is different from and more excellent than theirs.

For to which of the angels did God ever say, you are My Son, today I have begotten You (established You in an official Son-ship relationship with kingly dignity?)

And again, I will be to Him a Father, and He will be to me a Son?

More over, when He brings the firstborn Son again into the habitable world, He says, let all the angels of God worship Him.

Heb. 1:14
Are not the angels all ministering spirits (servants) sent out in the service (of God for the assistance) of those who are to inherit salvation.

Heb. 2:4-9
Besides this evidence, it was also established and plainly endorsed by God, Who showed His approval of it by signs and wonders and various miraculous manifestations of His power and by imparting the gifts of the Holy Spirit (to the believers) according to His own will.

For it was not to angels that God subjected the habitable world of the future, of which we are speaking. It has been solemnly and earnestly said in a certain place, what is man that You are mindful of him, or the Son of man that You graciously and helpfully care for and visit and look after him?
For some little time You have ranked Him lower than and inferior to the angels, You have crowned him with glory and honor and set him over the works of your hands.
For you have put everything in subjection under his feet. Now in putting everything in subjection to man, He left nothing outside (of man's) control. But at present we do not yet see all things subject to him (man).
But we are able to see Jesus, Who was ranked lower that the angels for a little while, crowned with glory and honor because of His having suffered death, in order that by the grace (unmerited favor) of God (to us sinners) He might experience death for every individual person.

Heb. 2:11-12
For both He Who was sent sanctifies (making men holy) and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason, He is not ashamed to call them brethren.
For He says, I will declare your (the Father's) name to My brethren; in the mist of the (worshiping) congregation, I will sing hymns of praise to You.

Psalm 8:4-6
What is man that you are mindful of Him, and the son of (earthborn) man that You care for Him?
Yet You have made him but a little lower than God (or heavenly beings), and You have crowned him with glory and honor.

You made him to have dominion over the works of your hands; You have put all things under his feet.

Ephes. 1:17-23
For I always pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation (of insight into mysteries and secrets) in the deep and intimate knowledge of Him.
By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, And how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set apart ones),
And so that you can know and understand what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength.
Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His (own) right hand in the heavenly places,
Far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named (above every title or authority) and that can be conferred, not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and in the world to come.
And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church.)
Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete), and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.
Does this look and sound like what today's Christian's are showing us?

Ephes. 2:4-7
But God so rich is He in His mercy, Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us.
Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; (he gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for) it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation.)
And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in His kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.
God has given us a high position in Christ Jesus. When Jesus came to earth in His body, He operated in The Father's authority and in the power of the Holy Spirit.
We are to operate in Jesus authority and in the power of the Holy Ghost. The presence of God is what makes the difference when we are doing the work of God.
In His presence there is power, healing, joy, peace, wisdom and all of the attributes and characteristics of God. These are all in us. We are Jesus' brethren and joint heirs with Him. We are seated with Him in Heavenly places in ruler-ship.
Jesus had no inferior thoughts of sin or guilt. Let this mind be in you that was also in Christ Jesus.

II Timothy 2:13
If we are faithless (do not believe and are untrue to Him) He remains true to His Word, faithful to His Word and His RIGHTEOUS CHARACTER, for He cannot deny Himself. There is no falsity in Christ, no deception, no negativity, no impurity. He is 100% pure in every way: His love, His promise, and His commitment. He is 100% pure in holiness, faithfulness, and honesty. What He says, He does. He really means everything that was promised.
The world is now looking for the reality and truth that is in Christ Jesus. Satan has deceived the world and blinded the minds of those that haven't come to Jesus. We have to let the world know that Jesus is 100% faithful and real and honest.

Luke 23:4
I find no fault or crime in Him. He is 100% sinless. He is 100% pure. 100% righteous and is pure in His love and commitment to help us.

Rev. 19:11
After that I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse (appeared), The One Who was riding it is called Faithful (trustworthy, loyal, incorruptible, steady) and true, and He passes judgment and wages war in righteousness (holiness, justice, and uprightness).

Rom. 8:31-31
What then shall we say to all this? If God is for us, who can be against us? Who can be our foe, If God is on our side? He who did not withhold or spare even His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, will he not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Rom. 8:38
For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things impending and threatening nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. He is 100% faultless and 100% pure in sincerity. He is 100% faithful to keep His word. He is 100% dependable and whole-heartedly committed to fulfill His word.

I Cor. 15:45-49
Thus it is written, the first man Adam became a living being (an individual personality); the last Adam (Christ) became a life giving Spirit (restoring the dead to life).
But it is not the spiritual life, which came first, but the physical and then the spiritual.
The first man was from out of earth, made of dust (earthly- minded); the second Man (is) the Lord from out of Heaven, Now those who are made of the dust are like him who was first made of the dust (earthly-minded) and as is the Man from heaven, so also (are those) who are of heaven (heavenly minded).
And just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, so shall we and so let us also bear the image of the man of heaven.
That which is born of the flesh is flesh and that which is born of the spirit is spirit.
There is a mind of the spirit in us and a mind of the flesh or carnal mind.
The carnal mind is limited.
The spiritual mind is born of God and inside of our spirit is the Spirit of God. We are complete spiritually. The mind of Christ is in us. Let this mind be in you that was in Christ.

Galatians 3:26-27
For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.
For as many (of you) as were baptized into Christ (into spiritual union and communion with Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah) and have put on (clothed yourselves with) Christ.
Greater is He that is in You than He that is in the world.

Galatians 4:6
And because you (really) are His sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, Abba (Father)! Father!
As a partaker of the life of the Father, you too can do the works of the Lord in His authority.
Jesus said: “ What see the Father doing, I do.”

And whatever Jesus did we can do.
Jesus does not change or contradict or retract any of His words.
He is God and He cannot lie. This is not in His nature. It does not exist in Him. Simply trust Him and trust in His faithfulness.

He is the same yesterday, today and forever. He cannot and will not change.

We are far beyond the shadows and the types of the Lord. We are in the realities of Christ now. We have a life in Christ that reaches far above the previous earthly life. There are no limits in Christ.

Step Out
Terry Suggs

To the Unlimited
Matt. 14: 17-21
They said to Jesus, we have nothing but five loaves and two fish. Jesus said bring them here to me. He gave thanks and blessed and broke the loaves and handed the pieces to the disciples and the disciples gave them to the people.
They all ate. 5,000 men, not including the women and children

Matt. 14:25-29
And in the fourth watch (between 3am and 6am) of the night, Jesus came to them saying, take courage! I AM! Stop being afraid.
Peter answered Him, Lord if it is You, command me to come to you on the water.
He said "Come". So, Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water. And he came toward Jesus.

Matt. 14:35
And when the men of Gennesaret recognized Him, they sent around into the surrounding country and brought to Him all who were sick. And begged Him to let them merely touch the fringe of His garment, and as many as touched it were perfectly restored.
Step out of your boat of limitations, and procrastination, your boat of doubt, fear, unbelief, your boat of apprehension, and uncertainty. Step into the unlimited spiritual realm. Step out to where I AM, where all things are possible. Come to me. It is My righteousness, My Spirit, My word, and My faithfulness, My power, My fullness, My compassion, My Strength, My Grace, My goodness and mercy, My wisdom, My ability and your faith in my faithfulness that causes all things to be possible for you.
Come to me with your weaknesses, your negativity , your procrastination, your weak faith, your uncertainty, your hopelessness, your imperfections, your cowardice and shame.
Come to me and become a son and daughter of The Most High God.
Col. 1:16
For it was in Him that all things were created, in heaven and on earth. Things seen and things unseen. Whether thrones, dominions, rulers, or authorities, all things were created and exist through Him (by His service, intervention) and in and for Him.
17)And He Himself existed before all things, and in Him all things consist (cohere, are held together)

Col. 2:9-10
For in Him the whole fullness of deity (the Godhead) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature.
10)And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the Godhead-Father, Son and Holy Spirit) and reach full spiritual (stature) and He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).
18) Let no one defraud you by acting as a umpire and declaring you unworthy and disqualifying you for the prize.

Col. 3:1
If then you have been raised with Christ (to a new life, thus sharing His resurrection from the dead, aim at and seek the (rich, eternal treasures) that are above where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.
And set your minds and keep them set on what is above the higher things, not on things that are on earth.
10) Clothe yourselves with the new (spiritual self) which is ever in process of being renewed and remolded into (fuller) and more perfect knowledge upon knowledge after the image (the likeness) of Him who created it.

11) In this new creation, all distinctions vanish. There is no room for and there can be neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, nor difference between nations (whether alien) barbarians or Scythians (who are the most savage of all) nor slave or free man: but Christ is all and in all (everything an everywhere , to all men without distinction of person).

Omnipresence Your Whole Life Is Covered.
Terry Suggs

Psalms 139
O Lord you have searched me (thoroughly) and have known me.
You know my downsitting and my uprising, you understand my thought afar off. You sift and search out my path and my lying down, and you are acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue (still unuttered) (every word that I will ever speak) , but behold, O Lord, you know it altogether.
You have beset me and shut me in – behind and before, you have laid your hand upon me.
16) Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book, all the days of my life were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them.
How precious and weighty also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast us the sum of them. If I could count them, they would be more in number than the sand!
The Lord is near to all who call upon Him sincerely and in truth. He will fulfill the desires of those who reverently and worshipfully fear Him. He will hear their cry and save them.

This is what the Lord wants each of His children individually to understand. He has each one of our lives completely covered. He sees our entire life from beginning to end, all at the same time. He said that your days are written in His book before you lived in those days.

He knows everything about you. He knows your uncertainty, your weakness, your fears, your doubting times, your hopelessness, your procrastination, your crying days, your sad days, your good days, your joyful days, your everyday is already before Him.

Just pray and talk to Him and trust in Him for everything you face.
Rom. 10:11
For the scriptures says, no man who believes in Him (who adheres to, relies on, trusts in Him) will (ever) be put to shame or be disappointed.
He sees your past, present and future all together. He is not surprised by what happens in our lives.
He knew before you knew what was going to happen.
He has already provided for you in the time of need.
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

Fear Not!
Terry Suggs

I will never leave you.

Isaiah 54:10
For though the mountains should depart and the hills be shaken or removed, yet my love and kindness shall not depart from you, nor shall my covenant of peace and completeness be removed, says the Lord, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 41:10-13
Fear not (there is nothing to fear), for I am with you, do not look around you in terror and be dismayed, for I am your God, I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties, yes I will help you with my victorious) right hand of righteousness and justice.

Behold all they who were enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded, they who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.
You shall seek those who war against you shall be as nothing, as nothing at all, For I the Lord your God will hold your right hand, I am the Lord, who says to you, fear not, I will help you.

Deut. 31:6
Be strong, courageous and firm, fear not nor be in terror before them, for it is the Lord your God who goes with you, He will not fail you or forsake you.

Hebrews 13:5-6
Let you character or moral disposition be free from the love of money (including greed, avarice, lust, and craving for earthly possessions) and be satisfied with your present (circumstances and with what you have) for He (God) Himself has said, I will not in any fail you nor give you up nor leave you without support (I will not) I will not, I will not in any degree leave you helpless nor forsake nor let you down (relax my hold on you) (assuredly not) So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently and boldly say, The Lord is my Helper. I will not be seized with alarm (I will not fear or dread or be terrified. (What can man do to me?)

Psalm 27:1,5-6
The Lord is my Light and my Salvation. Whom shall I fear or dread? The Lord is my Refuge and Stronghold of my life, Of whom shall I be afraid? For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter, in the secret place of His tent will He hide me. He will set me on high upon a rock. And now shall my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me, in His tent I will offer sacrifices and shouting of joy, I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the Lord.

Romans 8:31
What shall we say to all this? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who can be our foe if God is on our side?
He who did not hold or spare (even) His own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?
Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect, when it is God who justifies (that is, who puts us in right relation to Himself? Who shall come forward and accuse or impeach those whom God has chosen? Will God, who acquits us?
Who is there to condemn us? Will Christ Jesus (the messiah), who died, or rather who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, actually pleading as He intercedes for us?
Who shall ever separate us from Christ’s love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword?

Rom.8:37
Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors and gain a surpassing victory through Him who loved us.
For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities nor things impending threatening nor things to come nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1John 4:18
There is no fear in Love (dread does not exist), but full grown (complete, perfect) love turns out of doors and expels every trace of terror! For fear brings with it the thought of punishment, and so he who is afraid is not yet grown into love’s complete perfection.

Isaiah 53:4-
Surely He has borne our griefs (sicknesses, weaknesses and distresses) and carried our sorrows and pains (of punishment), yet we (ignorantly) considered Him stricken, smitten, and afflicted by God

(as if with leprosy).
But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace (and well being for us) was upon Him. And with the stripes (that wounded) Him we are healed and made whole.

1Peter 5:7
Casting the whole of your care (all of your anxieties, all your worries, all your concerns, once and for all on Him, for He cares for you affectionately and cares about you watchfully.

John 6:37
All of whom my Father gives (entrusts) to me will come to me , and the one who comes to me, I will most certainly not cast out I will never no never, reject one of them who comes to me.

Matt. 11:28-30
Come to me all you who labor and are heavy-laden and overburdened, and I will cause you to rest. I will ease and relieve and refresh your souls. For my yoke is wholesome (useful, good-not harsh, hard, sharp, or pressing, but comfortable, gracious, and pleasant). My burden is light and easy to be borne.

Hebrews 4:16
Let us then fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace (the throne of God's unmerited favor to us sinners), that we may receive mercy (for our failures) and find grace to help in good time for every need.
(appropriate help and well-timed help, coming just when we need it).

Psalm 46:1-2
God is our Refuge and Strength(mighty and impenetrable to temptation) a very present and well proved help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change and though the mountains be shaken into the midst of the seas.
10- Be still and know (recognize and understand) that I am God, I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth.

Isaiah 59:19
So (as the result of the Messiah's intervention) they shall (reverently) fear the name of the Lord from the West and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him and put him to flight (for He will come like a rushing stream which the breath of the Lord drives).

Rom. 10:11
For the scriptures says, no man who believes in Him (who adheres to, relies on, trusts in Him) will (ever) be put to shame or be disappointed.

Philippians 4:6
Do not fret or have any anxiety about anything, but in every circumstance and in everything by prayer and petition (definite requests) with thanksgiving, continue to make your wants known to God. And God's peace (shall be yours, that tranquil state of a soul assured of its salvation through Christ, and so fearing nothing from God and being content with its earthly lot of whatever sort that is, that peace which transcends all understanding shall garrison and mount guard over your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Psalm 145:8-9
The Lord is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and abounding in mercy and loving kindness.
The Lord is good to all and His tender mercies are over all His works.
14- The Lord upholds all those (of His own) who are falling and raises up all those who are bowed down.

Psalm 146:6
The Lord is faithful forever. Gives food to the hungry…sets prisoners free…opens blind eyes…lifts those who are bowed down…loves the upright in heart…protects strangers…upholds the fatherless and the widows…heals the sick…sets the captives free…raises the dead…comforts the oppressed…helps the helpless…fills the emptiness…turns you defeat into victory…causes us to triumph…lives in us and reigns on the throne of God forever…casts out all fear…saves the lost…hears your cry and prayers…leads and guides us into all truth…gives us His unfailing word…strengthens the weak…cares for us.
Remember Fear Not!
Terry Suggs
Terrysuggs@yahoo.com

October Surprise and November Lies
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Oct 19th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

You are aware, My beloveds of the perversity that happens each October and November's beginning with satanic holidays at hand. I have need of you in this hour. The intensity of the battle is increasing and I need you to be on guard. This is not a time to lie down during the battle, but to increase the worship. It is in the worship that I dwell amidst the praises of My people. This is the secret place. This is the place of hiding in Me. This is also the place of sowing seeds in the heavenlies to counter the effects of witchcraft worship.

Sowing in the opposites is a principle of My kingdom. As they worship the beast, I want you worshipping ME. I AM THE KING OF KINGS AND THE LORD OF LORDS. I WILL DEMONSTRATE MY POWER AS YOU SOW INTO THE HEAVENLIES! I will loose My judgments in the earth, and then people will learn knowledge. Then people will seek after the TRUTH. It is a time for sober consideration for all mankind. I will strip the evil forces of their power as you WORSHIP ME! Worship in abandonment the Lord Your God.

When the most evil power that lived in the time of Moses was on earth, I commanded the pharaoh to let MY people go that they might WORSHIP ME!
I am making such commands now to the powers of darkness. I am loosing the chains that bind my people from worshipping ME in the fullness they desire to! Many are kept by so many things that have weighed them down and limited them. BUT I WILL RESTORE THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID AND YOU WILL EXPERIENCE A GREATER MEASURE OF MY GRACE TO WORSHIP AND COMMUNE WITH ME THAN EVER BEFORE! IN THE MIDST OF GREAT DARKNESS, I WILL BE YOUR EVERLASTING LIGHT!

The liar will run amok in November, sowing his lies and trickery. But those who worship Me and those who are IN ME, will discern what is happening and will rejoice knowing the times are shortening. Pray as you have never prayed. Fast and weep between the porch and the altar My priests for the times are upon you that will grieve men's souls. Come to ME and be hidden in the shelter of MY WINGS and you will know PEACE. Call to those who have been lukewarm. Sound the trumpet, sound the alarm from the mountaintops. Speak what you know to those who are lost. Ask ME for what to say to those around you…that your words might effect CHANGE in the hearts of men. REACH OUT TO THE LOST. It will be a time of great fear entering the hearts of men in the days ahead. So be prepared by keeping in the presence of MY LOVE and GRACE so that you have protection from the schemes of the evil one.

Come to me NOW and be prepared to be dazzled by the changes I will wreak as you pray for those you love and those you care for. I AM ANSWERING AS you call, in fact BEFORE you cry out, I am sending answers. Be in expectation for great change is coming and great turmoil lies ahead in future days. SHAKING is coming to all the systems of this earth. For once again I will shake the heavens and the earth and I will lead all men to the Desire of all nations, and I will fill the earth with MY GLORY! Suddenly will I come to My temple.

Hag 2:6-9 NKJV "For thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land; 7 and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this temple with glory,' says the LORD of hosts. 8 'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says the LORD of hosts. 9 'The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts. 'And in this place I will give peace,' says the LORD of hosts."

Church Being Resuscitated
Priscilla Van Sutphin

10/19/04

I had a very vivid dream this morning . In the dream I am beholding a woman in ICU with tubes going in everywhere...parenteral nutrition, ventilator, IV's causing them to be resuscitated and the woman is scared as her IV comes undone. So I pick up an IV to restart it and I am looking at this huge vein in her hand and she wants it reinserted in the same place it was, so I aim it in, and secure it with this transparent material they use now, and the one that had come was the IV with BLOOD in it. [I used to be an NICU nurse specialist]

Interpretation: The Woman is the church, and she is being ministered to and resuscitated and given all kinds of nourishment and reviving to her body because she has been dying and weak. She is in the process of being healed...and has lost her connection to the BLOOD of Jesus [and the CROSS implied].

Application - the prophets/apostles need to bring back to the body the foundation of the CROSS and the power of His blood.

Matt 23:34-36 NKJV Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, 35 that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. 36 Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

Matt 26:28-29 NKJV For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

Luke 8:43-44 NKJV Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, 44 came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

Luke 22:20-22 NKJV Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you. 21 But behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table. 22 And truly the Son of Man goes as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"

Luke 22:44-46 NKJV
44 And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground. 45 When He rose up from prayer, and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. 46 Then He said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation."

John 6:53-58 NKJV Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. 58 This is the bread which came down from heaven — not as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. He who eats this bread will live forever."

John 19:34-37 NKJV
34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may believe. 36 For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, "Not one of His bones shall be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced."

Acts 17:25-31 NKJV
26 And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27 so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; 28 for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.' 29 Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising. 30 Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead."

1 Peter 1:1-2 NKJV elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

1 John 1:6-7 NKJV But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

1 John 5:6-8 NKJV The Certainty of God's Witness This is He who came by water and blood — Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7 For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. 8 And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

Rev 1:4-7 NKJV
5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, 6 and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.

Rev 16:4-6 NKJV Third Bowl: The Waters Turn to Blood Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying: "You are righteous, O Lord, The One who is and who was and who is to be, Because You have judged these things. 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets,And You have given them blood to drink.For it is their just due."

Rev 17:6 NKJV I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

Rev 18:23-24 NKJV And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth."

Rev 19:2 NKJV For true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her."

Rev 19:13-16
13 He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. 14 And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. 15 Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

Rev 6:10 NKJV And they cried with a loud voice, saying,"How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

Rev 12:11-17 NKJV
11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death. 12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time."

13 The Woman Persecuted
Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child. 14 But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. 15 So the serpent spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. 16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Rejoice In The Midst Of Turmoil
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Oct. 24th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

I am determining a sentence against America for all the pornography, for all the murder and witchcraft in high places, for all the greed and pride of man that has ascended to My nostrils. Surely in a flood of great waters I will keep you.
Do not be distressed at the times that lay before you for I AM will be with you in a whole new way. I will, I will, I will never leave you nor forsake you. And he that stands and does not turn back I will make to inherit all the promises of those who overcome. Do not hide from ME now My beloveds. Now is the time for intimacy for soon I will bring My glory and you will be changed in a moment. I am perfecting My bride and you will see the glory of the Lord and declare My goodness to the lost and hurting. I will do startling miracles in you.

Ps 32:6-7 NKJV For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You in a time when You may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters they shall not come near him. 7 You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

Although there will be turmoil and groanings in the earth, MY people who are called by My name, will do wonderful and great exploits in My name. You will no longer walk in the ways of your past. The enemy's strongholds will be laid waste as I come to you. So do not stress over the signs of the times, but know that I have a surprise package coming to you, that will bring great peace and love and joy inexpressible and overflowing to your heart! Hold on for the best is yet to come! Generations have looked forward to what you will see fulfilled in your times. GREAT JOY will fill your hearts as I do my marvelous work inside you!

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad at the persecution you will feel from those who hate Me, for great will be your reward in heaven. Do not allow discouragement and torment an open door. Watch your speech and keep yourself from prophesying negative things against yourself. Prophesy the TRUTH daily over your life and do not give in to the distractions of the evil one. KEEP YOUR EYES ON ME. I am here for you always and forever. I am a God close at hand and not afar off.

Luke 6:22-23 NKJV Blessed are you when men hate you, And when they exclude you, And revile you, and cast out your name as evil, For the Son of Man's sake.
23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! For indeed your reward is great in heaven,
For in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

Release From Bondages
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Oct 12, 2004

Tearsofthefather@comcast.net
www.upstreamca.org

Mic 6:4 NKJV For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, I redeemed you from the house of bondage; And I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

Rom 8:15 NKJV For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father."
Rom 8:21-23 NKJV because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now.

"The Lord is gracious and merciful in all that He does. The Lord is the wise and wonderful Counselor to all who call upon Him in truth and willingness to change. He is merciful to those who do not deserve mercy. He is kind to the ungrateful. He is merciful to all who will come to Him. He is looking for those who will in this judgment on the wicked, be merciful and kind when they start looking for answers. He is not wanting a message of hate and judgment to go forth from the lips of His own, but a message of LOVE and KINDNESS – a message of HOPE and GRACE.

Luke 6:34-36 NIV 35 But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. 36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

If you who are called by His name, cannot even be gracious and forgiving to each other, then how will you demonstrate to those who don't know of His love a heart of mercy and kindness? If you cannot demonstrate a heart of forgiveness to your own family who have wronged you, and show impatience to those who you are supposed to love, then how will you manage under the stress of the times to come to show patience to those I am drawing to you? The only way you will be enabled to do this is through ME, and through spending time in MY PRESENCE. So I am calling out to you a warning TRUMPET! COME, and dwell in MY PRESENCE and ask for gold refined in the fire! ASK for ME to heal and to impart LOVE that you can show it to others and even to yourself.
For some of you haven't even forgiven yourselves for things that I have long forgiven you for. It is only PRIDE that keeps you from the fullness of My GRACE and MERCY. For if you refuse to receive what I give, it is like you are saying…" NO! You can't forgive me, I'm too bad! " – as if you know more than I know and as if you stubbornly adhere to your own opinion of you over MINE!

It is time to ACCEPT MY GRACE. I AM FOR YOU AND NOT AGAINST YOU.
I feel this way about each and every believer. I know the one who has been unable to forgive themselves because of shame. So I AM COMING and I WILL REMOVE the thorns in the flesh that keep you from the fullness of My glory, for the one who really knows MY LOVE, will be filled with MY GLORY.
And the one who ASKS shall RECEIVE. ASK and you shall receive, as long as your heart longs for purity and wholeness…you will receive it as I come and cleanse my threshing floors!

I am about to drive out all BONDAGE to the things of this world, and to the harsh taskmaster of traditions and pharisaism. I WILL have a pure and holy Bride and you will know the tenderness of MY HEART towards you as never before. The lack of truth and love in My church will be eradicated. Many of those caught up in false religion and cults will be saved and whole denominations that have taught wrongly will be redeemed from the curse of the law. I am not going to leave things the way they are. But I will again enter My temples and I will drive out the money changers and those who would keep MY children in BONDAGE."

2 Cor 11:19-20 NKJV For you put up with fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise! 20 For you put up with it if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face.

Gal 2:3-5 NKJV And this occurred because of false brethren secretly brought in (who came in by stealth to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage), 5 to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

“ I need to bring this change because otherwise those who come in the harvest will be brought to the same bondages they have been released from! I cannot bring in a harvest of souls to the church as it is. I MUST BRING JUDGMENT to the house of the LORD BEFORE HARVESTING COMES. I am about to catapult MANY into great change. THAT is why you have been being purged, and tested, tempted and tormented. You are under refinement for the final HARVEST of all time. YOU CANNOT STEAL MY GLORY! I will NOT have a church that takes the glory for themselves any longer! I WILL CLEANSE IT and HEAL IT. Those who resist will fall on the side of apostasy and be given over to delusion. But for those whose hearts are humbly seeking ME and MY will despite inability to be whole as yet…YOU WILL SEE MY GLORY! And YOU will be CHANGED BY IT. I AM THE ALL CONSUMING FIRE! And I will remove bondages of all kinds. Increase your expectations. INCREASE YOUR VISION OF HOW BIG I AM and how powerful is the blood of the LAMB!
Know that things you thought could not happen WILL HAPPEN with the FAITH I am developing in you. Many will be SHOCKED into submission by the things I do. INCREASE FAITH BY STAYING IN THE WORD and STANDING ON THE WORD. USE it as a two edged sword to speak to the powers of darkness!
Your LORD is at hand! ”

1 Cor 7:15 NKJV But if the unbeliever departs, let him depart; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. But God has called us to peace.

Gal 4:3-5 NKJV Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. 4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, 5 to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

Gal 4: 9-11 NKJV But now after you have known God, or rather are known by God, how is it that you turn again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage? 10 You observe days and months and seasons and years. 11 I am afraid for you, lest I have labored for you in vain.

Gal 4:23-27 NKJV which things are symbolic. For these are the two covenants: the one from Mount Sinai which gives birth to bondage, which is Hagar — 25 for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children — 26 but the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written:
"Rejoice, O barren, You who do not bear!
Break forth and shout, You who are not in labor!
For the desolate has many more children Than she who has a husband."
28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise.
Gal 5:1 NKJV Christian Liberty
Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

Heb 2:15-16 NKJV
15 and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham.

2 Peter 2:18-121 NKJV Deceptions of False Teachers
For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who have actually escaped from those who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage. 20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning.

Vision and Division
Via Priscilla Van Sutphin

www.upstreamca.org

Oct 14th, 2004
I saw the president in a vision today. He was sitting in a chair like this cartoonist drew the Lincoln memorial when Kennedy died, head down, hands limp on the sides of the chair, weeping and praying. I sensed that he was in this place much as Lincoln for the division within our nation, just as then, and that partly also because of the judgments that had come on our nation. When this happened I was so moved in my emotions for him. I felt God's heart for him. We think we know people but you don't really know people till you live with them or walk in their shoes. And we are so full of our own opinions. My heart has been so disturbed over these elections, I'm sure like many of you.

The Lord told me this week in a personal word. He is going to shake the west coast just as the east coast till our hair stands on end!!!! We can't HIDE anymore. We need to STAND UP. LINCOLN was not non-commital and yet a true Christian. It was he who instituted Thanksgiving as a DAY OF PRAYER AND FASTING. Was he being a dictator by doing that? NO He was in earnest. WE NEED TO PRAY MORE and do whatever as the LORD LEADS, but certainly He doesn't mean for us to be complacent, or apathetic ostriches.

Essentially from impressions so far the fact is that because CHURCH LEADERSHIP has not repented of THEIR CONTROL, traditions, idolatry, perversion, greed, carnality, etc, etc. We are in this place in our nation! What is in the nation is in the church. THE PROPHETS ARE GOING TO HAVE TO CONFRONT LIKE IT OR NOT - AT SOME POINT, ONLY AS THE LORD LEADS. HE WILL NO DOUBT EMPOWER US BEFORE HAND AND WHEN HE DOES, WOE TO THOSE WHO STRIVE AGAINST THEIR MAKER! I'm not saying this out of some pomposity…It has already been prophesied that HE will come and empower His church and change it, and there will be judgment in the house of the LORD as scripture has indicated.

Prov 29:16 AMP When the wicked are in authority, transgression increases, but the [uncompromisingly] righteous shall see the fall of the wicked.
Prov 28:4 AMP Those who forsake the law [of God and man] praise the wicked, but those who keep the law [of God and man] contend with them. [Prov 29:18.]

I prayed with a friend from Indiana and another friend there visiting her from India and together we prayed for the President and this nation. So later, I asked the Lord if He has something more to say about this and I heard:

" Just as Jerusalem is being divided in the plans of it's nation and the world,
I have caused a sword to divide this nation. My WORD is a sword that brings conviction to the very deepest places in man, dividing the bone from the marrow. A man who hates ME, will hate anyone who stands up for me.
They will hate you because they hated ME. Don't expect to escape the persecution that will come to the whole world and has already come to many in the world! Do you think YOUR LIFE is more valuable than one in Sudan or China? How you boast in your arrogance!

Do you not realize the grief it causes ME to have to allow judgment to come to the earth? My heart is in pain however for the abuses and murders I see every day!

You may not be able to see them. You won't hear of them in your biased news! But I SEE THEM. I SEE. I see the child who is forsaken because his whole family has died of AIDS, alone and afraid. I see the deception in the world that you don't discern! I see the arrogance of man rising to the heavens and I tell you NOW, that I WILL BRING IT LOW! I see the abandoned women, the abused women, the autistic child abandoned to a home instead of loved by his family. I see the one who was molested by their parents and the child who is being taught to kill and is yet in grade school!

I see the lawlessness and excessive drinking and partying in the youth and young adults. I see the lost wending their way hopeless, and the hopelessness of the mentally ill. I carry all this pain every day!

What will it take for you to repent in this nation? I think I am a better Judge than you are, don't you? So I will bring together the true believers and I will exalt Myself in the process. I will truly take over the airwaves…just as in Florida…all eyes were on My handiwork. I will keep their eyes on what I do, more than on the idols they have built for themselves.

Prov 10:25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked are no more, but the [uncompromisingly] righteous have an everlasting foundation. [Ps 125:1; Matt 7:24-27.]

All over the world I am bringing judgments. All over the world, the enemy is also trying to eliminate many to take with him as many as he can. WILL YOU STAND UP FOR ME AGAINST THE ENEMY OF YOUR SOUL? Will you come and worship ME in the beauty of holiness, to sow into the heavens worship of Your GOD, and in the process, defeat the enemy of your soul?

Ps 22:27-29 NKJV All the ends of the world shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations shall worship before You. 28 For the kingdom is the LORD's, and He rules over the nations. 29 All the prosperous of the earth shall eat and worship; All those who go down to the dust shall bow before Him, even he who cannot keep himself alive.

Come and take my hand, I want to dance and I want to draw you close to Me My bride, for I love you. I love you as no other loves you…so come aside with ME. Get alone with the LOVER of your soul and cast ALL your cares upon ME, for I care FOR you! Let me soothe your weary soul and stroke your head and kiss your cheeks! I am not a God of destruction, but a God of mercy and love. But MY JUDGMENTS are my love greatly provoked in jealousy for your souls. I am a GOOD FATHER Who gives good gifts to His children. I will do what is BEST for this nation. You may not see it at first.
But lo, when you see the outcome, you WILL see it! You will see the changes I've wrought and KNOW that I did what was best for you!"

Isa 26:9-10 NKJV With my soul I have desired You in the night, Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early; For when Your judgments are in the earth, The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. 10 Let grace be shown to the wicked, Yet he will not learn righteousness; In the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly, And will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

Ps 119:137 NKJV TSADDE Righteous are You, O LORD, And upright are Your judgments.

Prov 2:22 AMP But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the treacherous shall be rooted out of it.

Prov 25:5 AMP Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness (moral and spiritual rectitude in every area and relation).

Prov 29:12 AMP If a ruler listens to falsehood, all his officials will become wicked.

Ps 59:5-9 AMP You, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, arise to visit all the nations; spare none and be not merciful to any who treacherously plot evil. Selah [pause, and calmly think of that]! 6 They return at evening, they howl and snarl like dogs, and go [prowling] about the city. 7 Behold, they belch out [insults] with their mouths; swords [of sarcasm, ridicule, slander, and lies] are in their lips, for who, they think, hears us? 8 But You, O Lord, will laugh at them [in scorn]; You will hold all the nations in derision. 9 O my Strength, I will watch and give heed to You and sing praises; for God is my Defense (my Protector and High Tower).

Prov 29:27 AMP An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, and he who is upright in the way [of the Lord] is an abomination to the wicked.

Prov 29:7 The [consistently] righteous man knows and cares for the rights of the poor, but the wicked man has no interest in such knowledge. [Job 29:16; 31:13; Ps 41:1.]

Prov 29:2 AMP When the [uncompromisingly] righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked man rules, the people groan and sigh.

Prov 28:28 AMP When the wicked rise [to power], men hide themselves; but when they perish, the [consistently] righteous increase and become many. [Prov 28:12.]

Prov 28:15-16 AMP Like a roaring lion or a ravenous and charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people. 16 A ruler who lacks understanding is [like a wicked one] a great oppressor, but he who hates covetousness and unjust gain shall prolong his days.

Prov 28:12 AMP When the [uncompromisingly] righteous triumph, there is great glory and celebration; but when the wicked rise [to power], men hide themselves.

Prov 28:1 AMP THE WICKED flee when no man pursues them, but the [uncompromisingly] righteous are bold as a lion. [Lev 26:17,36; Ps 53:5.]

Prov 26:23-27 AMP Burning lips [uttering insincere words of love] and a wicked heart are like an earthen vessel covered with the scum thrown off from molten silver [making it appear to be solid silver].

24 He who hates pretends with his lips, but stores up deceit within himself.
25 When he speaks kindly, do not trust him, for seven abominations are in his heart. 26 Though his hatred covers itself with guile, his wickedness shall be shown openly before the assembly. 27 Whoever digs a pit [for another man's feet] shall fall into it himself, and he who rolls a stone [up a height to do mischief], it will return upon him. [Ps 7:15,16; 9:15; 10:2; 57:6; Prov 28:10; Eccl 10:8.]

Prov 24:25-26 AMP But to those [upright judges] who rebuke the wicked, it will go well with them and they will find delight, and a good blessing will be upon them. 26 He kisses the lips [and wins the hearts of men] who give a right answer.

Prov 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is exceedingly disgusting and abhorrent [to the Lord]--how much more when he brings it with evil intention?

Prov 21:18 The wicked become a ransom for the [uncompromisingly] righteous, and the treacherous for the upright [because the wicked themselves fall into the traps and pits they have dug for the good].

Prov 21:4-5 Haughtiness of eyes and a proud heart, even the tillage of the wicked or the lamp [of joy] to them [whatever it may be], are sin [in the eyes of God]. 5 The thoughts of the [steadily] diligent tend only to plenteousness, but everyone who is impatient and hasty hastens only to want.

Prov 18:3 AMP When the wicked comes in [to the depth of evil], he becomes a contemptuous despiser [of all that is pure and good], and with inner baseness comes outer shame and reproach.

Prov 17:15 He who justifies the wicked and he who condemns the righteous are both an abomination [exceedingly disgusting and hateful] to the Lord. [Ex 23:7; Prov 24:24; Isa 5:23.]

Prov 15:29 The Lord is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the [consistently] righteous (the upright, in right standing with Him).

Prov 12:21 No [actual] evil, misfortune, or calamity shall come upon the righteous, but the wicked shall be filled with evil, misfortune, and calamity. [Job 5:19; Ps 91:3; Prov 12:13; Isa 46:4; Jer 1:8; Dan 6:27; 2 Tim 4:18.]

Prov 11:21 Assuredly [I pledge it] the wicked shall not go unpunished, but the multitude of the [uncompromisingly] righteous shall be delivered.

Prov 10:3 The Lord will not allow the [uncompromisingly] righteous to famish, but He thwarts the desire of the wicked. [Ps 34:9,10; 37:25.]

Prov 3:25-28 AMP Be not afraid of sudden terror and panic, nor of the stormy blast or the storm and ruin of the wicked when it comes [for you will be guiltless], 26 For the Lord shall be your confidence, firm and strong, and shall keep your foot from being caught [in a trap or some hidden danger].

27 Withhold not good from those to whom it is due [its rightful owners], when it is in the power of your hand to do it. [Rom 13:7; Gal 6:10.]
28 Do not say to your neighbor, Go, and come again; and tomorrow I will give it--when you have it with you. [Lev 19:13; Deut 24:15.]

Ps 101:3-5 AMP I will set no base or wicked thing before my eyes. I hate the work of them who turn aside [from the right path]; it shall not grasp hold of me. 4 A perverse heart shall depart from me; I will know no evil person or thing. 5 Whoso privily slanders his neighbor, him will I cut off [from me]; he who has a haughty look and a proud and arrogant heart I cannot and I will not tolerate.

Of Spirit and Soul
Dorothy Hedlund

Matters Of Spirit & Soul - New Creation Beings
August 14, 2004

[The following was given directly as a word of the Lord following an experience I can only describe as 'a piercing.' Because 'piercings' deal with things of one's 'spirit' rather than soul, the Lord began an overview of the two. It's not comprehensive, but simply that which He wanted to convey that particular day.]

The spirit of the believer within…

[JESUS]: "Your spirit does not sin. Your spirit is that part of you, even now…pure within. Your spirit has 'no mind' of its own. It operates in conjunction, only, with the mind of Christ. Your spirit was created with the ability to secure itself to Me; we are 'jointly one' for eternity. Your spirit was also created with 'valves & connectors' to hook-up with others to form 'body parts.' Your spirit cannot exist apart from Myself and must come into intimacy in order to function effectively. Your spirit has 'eyes' and 'ears' and finely-tuned senses, all of which are magnified (as from the natural realm) many times over. Your spirit can fly and run and soar. Your spirit can walk on water, or swim into the depths of the sea. Your spirit recognizes My Word and revelation as that from the 'realm of FACT.' It has no need even for faith. Your spirit has throne-room access to the Father & beyond. Your spirit can enter into Him to further bond. Your spirit is not complex, as is your soul. Your spirit as child-like, is simple & free. Your spirit is the first part of you to approach and go through 'new doors.' Your spirit is always trusting, forgiving & gentle, yet bold & full of life. Your spirit received the first of My fillings as a bridegroom with His bride. Your spirit easily recognizes right from wrong and sees with clarity – things that still are chained, in bondage, and things that are truly free.

Functions of one's soul…

Your soul, however, is an entirely different part of you, which gives 'personality' to all you do. In speaking of your transformed soul, that even now I shape & make – your soul is that part of you that gazes into My face. Your soul holds your passions and intellect, your talents and your will… all of your emotions…and the 'love tank' I con-stantly fill. Your soul is that part of you that must be sanctified. Your soul is also that part of you – that must be crucified. Your soul is that part of you that experiences guilt, and doubt, and shame. The soul is that part of you that is often motivated by selfish gain. Your soul must also be 'connected,' due to need, directly to ME. Your soul is that part of you which desperately needs to receive. Once a soul begins to receive living waters, wine & bread directly from Me, as Lord, never again is it satisfied by what the world once offered it before. The soul of a man or woman is the 'battlefield' where time is spent – by Satan and his minions, causing 'harm' where 'good' was meant.

The soul can often be confused, tossed about as waves of the sea. The soul at times resists My will, but needs boundaries. The soul, presented with freedom, yet afraid of the unknown, often returns to its 'cell-mates' of law & tradition. Apart from one's spirit, the courage would never come, for one's soul to launch out & pursue, what in My will, must be done. The soul is responsive to My every touch, often transmitting information to the other parts of you. The soul IS complex, and yet such a delight, for from this place of 'thunder & lightning' come also 'fire-works' as we unite. Your soul is that part of you that I carry, and that part of you I place in the covenant bed/Sabbath rest. Your soul is also that part of you of 'spiritual produce' sweet…the milk & honey & nectar, too, which in giving I receive. Your soul, however, also tires and easily becomes fatigued. It can get 'self' into many a situation and a mess of things make. If left to its unredeemed ways, it dictates to spirit & body…the course IT wants to take."

[THE BODY] … He continued, "The body's physical functions are most closely aligned with the mind – a powerful part of the soul, that often takes control. But a body con-trolled by the Spirit and one's spirit-being, is equally free, to live as a 'new creation being' as it was meant to be. Full of light and glory, a vessel of honor & life – the body is the temple in which the Spirit/spirit resides. The body is a fragile thing and will obey 'whoever' is in charge, whether it be your spirit-being…or the soul-life, lower part.

Lover of Our Soul & His Dealings to Make Us Whole

"I divide soul & spirit asunder, by My sharp two-edged sword. Your spirit, then released, enters heaven's door, while that of your other (the soul), I 'shepherd' and care for. Your soul is entrusted into My hands, as Physician Friend, that 'surgeries' then begin (circumcision of the heart & cleansing of all parts). When this process has been successful…and your soul, 'the fruit of the Spirit' bears … then the time has come for 'the triune you' to be 'put back together again.

At this point your 'spirit' is placed 'in charge,' and your soul readily takes 'its place' … the body, too, more disciplined, submits to spiritual ways. This, then, is 'a new creation being,' walking in obedience to God…IN the world, but NOT OF IT, governed by higher Kingdom principles of freedom, not 'above'… but BEYOND 'the law.'

'New Creation Beings'

That which 'rules' this NEW CREATION BEING, [every part: spirit/soul/body, too] are the same 'Kingdom principles' as for those who live above: servanthood & sharing things of Word & life…always considering others 'first'…walking as children of Light – Eternal worship & thanksgiving to our Father, the Ancient of Days…standing strong in one accord…united in every way – Growing in things of Wisdom & Understanding & in the Counsel of the Lord…entrusted with Might & Power & Knowledge in order to serve

Him more – ever abandoned to His will, living in the Fear of the Lord. In this place of daily living as 'new creation men & women' (though as yet vessels of clay), they can boldly, courageously 'stand in the gap,' ushering 'heaven to earth' in their day. Their spirits are His. Their souls are His (their minds/wills/emotions/and dreams). Their bodies are His to use as He deems best, to walk in the authority of the redeemed. Their thoughts are His. Their wills are His. Praise and worship is 'the norm' for their day. By fear of the Lord, they instantly resist 'the flood of filth' sweeping the earth, even as it comes their way. They run into their Fortress/Tower, then become 'shelters' of refuge themselves – oaks of righteousness in the land, encouraging the weary and weak. All that they are – and all they possess – is offered wholly to God's use. Obeying His Word as soon as it's heard, they strategically 'storm hells gates' and prisoners loose.

Though not yet 'perfected' as spirits above, their souls 'lean hard on their Lord', in weakness partaking of My strength, to overcome once more. THEIRS is THE BLOOD & TESTIMONY that overcomes the world. Connected to the Lamb and 'one with Him' – they carry 'My standards' unfurled. They march into battle with angelic troops at their side – while emanating from their beings, 'new creation' light. Personal identity is gone. They call themselves "we" – "we" who serve our God, no longer is left "a me."

The restoration of an army of 'new creation beings' …

Jesus continued, "Only a small number of ones such as these, at one time, have ever walked the earth. But those who do now, are about to loose into this realm 'new creation seeds' that will help 'an army' mature. These 'new creation men & women' will first teach others 'HOW TO DIE.' And then they will mentor them, partnered with the Spirit, to help BRING THEM BACK 'ALIVE.'

Many hidden ones/mentors will in sudden brilliance arise as 'torches of great light' – showing the Church the difference between mediocrity and true life. These torchbearers will also carry great authority…beyond the 'apostolic label' of man. These are those entrusted with might, because ONLY JOINED TO ME THROUGH INTIMACY, are they capable even to stand. Many will be women/children/and young adults…but also a great number of men, who topple 'the systems' of Satan & man, at the Lord's command.

How soon will this occur? It has already begun…there's just a generation to go, before I make ALL THINGS new. Even now these 'new creation beings' are being released, coming out of 'furnaces' that were their tomb. Clothed in humility, they'll not be seen – until they grow into an understanding of 'who they are.' Then at the right time, they'll be given command to 'shine' … drawing multitudes in My Church to the Light. They'll

SHOW THEM THEIR GRAVES, PREPARED IN ADVANCE – that a 'crucified army' might come alive.

This process of restoration begins in the spirit, then continues on into the soul & body, too. First, I 'take you apart' to perfect every part – then put you back together again. Yes, it sounds simple, but it requires many years…the purging of fire…death to self…and desperate tears. Those most desperate advance more quickly than those who drag their feet, satisfied with 'who they are.' My greatness, in them, they'll never receive.

Fall Sessions Begin…Don't Skip Class

KNOW WHO YOU ARE – AND WHO YOU ARE NOT. Attend each 'class' I present. In the fall of the year, new sessions begin, in My 'schools & universities' again. Those who advance will be those who 'passed tests,' individualized for each one. It will do no good trying to get answers 'in advance' from someone in your class. Your questions are different, but the outcome the same: only the 'dead to self' make the grade. So if you think you're going to school to 'up your chances' for promotion… think again, this will not be the case. For with such ones of strategy, We begin first with 'select demotions.' There is not time for chatter & talk, flippant attitude nor walk…in My classrooms of this day. If you miss what I say, regarding matters of faith…you'll end up 'off course' and going out of your way.

I WANT you to succeed, and you WILL overcome – as daily you come to Me. I will tutor YOUR SOUL and MAKE YOU WHOLE, to make you a 'new creation being' that's free.

Oh Sing of My Heavenly Rain

Patsy Shelton

Joel 2:23-27
Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you he rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you; and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, and none else, and my people shall never be ashamed.

It’s beginning to rain. and oh, this is a heavenly rain. When the rain comes down upon the earth, it causes everything to flourish, and grow. I say to you that this is the season of the heavenly rain.

I will cause the barren places of your heart to soak up this rain, and those that have not been able to hear or receive My word, will now hear and receive. And even those that have not be able to receive My love, oh in this season they will be like a sponge.

This rain will even bring abundance to the dry places of your finances. I will pour out My favor, My grace, My mercy, and yes, even divine provision. The rain clouds have gathered and now will they release all that has been held within them. An outpouring, yea, even a flood. “How will it come, you say?” By My Spirit, for this is the season of my outpouring. Oh, you have never seen these days before.

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for hearts that I could trust. So, I withheld the rain for a season, yea even the nearness of My presence to some. But, in this season of searching, I have found thirsty and hungry hearts. These have cried out “more Oh God, more Oh God.” If that has been the cry of your heart, get ready for the greatest outpouring of My Spirit upon your hungry heart. This rain you have never known before.

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for hearts that trusted Me. So, I withheld the rain of provision in your lives. You stood, and trusted, although it looked liked the darkest night that you have ever known. And I say to you, that the clouds over you are about to bring forth abundance of finances, and supply.

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for hearts that needed to be healed. So, I withheld Myself , although I was near, to cause you to seek Me to stop the bleeding of your heart. Now, My rain will come to your bruised and wounded heart, and this rain of My Spirit will bring newness of life. I will even give you a new heart.

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for those that are physically ill, and needed My touch. To these, I say, I know your pain and that the road has been long. But this rain will bring healing to your life and limbs. This outpouring of My Spirit will bring untold physical miracles, and I will even do creative miracles, not heard of or seen before.

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for those that I could trust with hidden manna, from My Word. Oh, I have a treasure chest of revelation, and in this season of outpouring, to those that I can trust, I will unlock the secrets of the ages. I will bypass the knowledge of man, and My Sprit will pour out to you things I've never shown to man.

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for those that need deliverance; oh this rain will set the captives free. It will bring deliverance from religious tradition, addictions, fear of man, and all that has kept my people bound in the natural and in the spirit. Oh, it's beginning to rain.

On, this is the beginning of the outpouring of My Spirit. He will come as the rain to renew, revive, restore and reveal. He will bring both the former rain, and the latter rain.

So, sing, "It's beginning to rain. It's the rain of the Father, and whosoever will, come drink of this water…" Oh, sing of My heavenly rain.

Patsy Shelton
pattiluepeacock@aol.com

On The Twelve Days of Christmas

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 12th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

I had gotten up, unable to sleep, and at the computer, I started hearing the song, "On the twelve days of Christmas My True Love gave to me" It also occurred to me to find out more about why they say there are twelve days of Christmas in the song which article I've included a link to so you can see for yourself...http://www.cresourcei.org/cy12days.html

Then He said:
"I am a Good Father Who gives good gifts to My children.
I sent My most precious gift to you in the form of My Son Who was willing to lay down His life for you. So it is at this season of commemorating that occasion that I speak to you about honoring. I honor him who honors Me.
I brought you life that you might have life and that abundantly ! But many have twisted what I think of in the way of abundant life to mean having a lot of "things". Abundant life is much more than things beloveds. It is the character of man that is supposed to be a reflection of My character that is his most precious gift to the world and those around him or her.

It IS a time of giving. But there is so much you can give without just giving things. What if you gave a promise of prayer, or a promise of fasting for three days for someone…something that really sacrificed something in your life besides money ? There are things you can give in the way of doing something for someone that requires a bit more than just buying a gift that would impact their lives. So EXPAND your thinking My beloveds and reach into eternity also for some gifts that will count much greater in the expanse of time.

Your thoughtfulness to others instead of impatience would be a good gift to give. Your kindness in considering those who protect and serve you would be a wonderful gift. So many people give above and beyond the call of duty in their lives, but the world gets calloused and impatient at this time, striving to get things for others, and be everything they think people want them to be, when what people want may be a spot of your time, your presence in their midst…to enjoy your company maybe. The best gifts are those you cannot measure.

I want you to know that I too at this time am going to pour out some gifts that are immeasurable. I am coming to bring many gifts to My beloved at this time of year. I have gifts of freedom, healing, deliverance, lights and wonders, visitations and translations, spiritual signs and wonders, miracles, and revelations. I am going to put on a spectacular light show in this time that will capture the attention of the world in the days to come.

Take time to think of the real reasons you celebrate in this season…and reflect on the sacrifice I made to provide for you the life you now have.
I am a generous Father, so pour out MY generosity this year. Do something for someone who can't pay you back. Demonstrate My love instead of your impatience this year in little acts of kindness and patience. Do something extraordinary and pray for a stranger ! Spread the LOVE you have received from Me - to some who don't know Me ! Spend TIME with those you love and with those who need to know My love ! Give and it will be given back to you !

Luke 6:38 NKJV Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."

Matt 7:11-12 NKJV If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! 12 Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

Matt 25:37-40 NKJV "Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink? 38 When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? 39 Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' 40 And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.'

Luke 6:30-31 NKJV Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. 31 And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.

Dewdrops Of Love And Kindness
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 7th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

“I am releasing love and holy kindness as you worship Me in spirit and in truth. As you sow to the heavens, I am pouring down rain. As you worship in the beauty of holiness, I am releasing My Holy Spirit and more will come than you can imagine. Rain, and more rain, will fall.

Zech 10:1-2 NKJV Restoration of Judah and Israel
Ask the LORD for rain In the time of the latter rain. The LORD will make flashing clouds; He will give them showers of rain, Grass in the field for everyone. 2 For the idols speak delusion; The diviners envision lies, And tell false dreams; They comfort in vain. Therefore the people wend their way like sheep; They are in trouble because there is no shepherd.

Do not be concerned about your life. Do not be disturbed by the events of the day. I AM WITH YOU. My rod and My staff will comfort you. I am the Good Shepherd. I search for the one who is lost and abandoned. I look out for My sheep. Nothing shall snatch them out of My hand. I keep My promises to you. I am a FAITHFUL FATHER. I am stirring up desire for the One above all Who can bring peace to this world. I will display My kindness, My goodness, My love in powerful ways. You need to speak forth the TRUTH in LOVE to all around you. Be not dismayed by their faces, their looks. Say what I have put on your tongue to say. Release LIFE to those in darkness.
Bless those who you see every day who don’t know ME. Bless the place where you work. Bless your fellow employees. Bless your bosses, and the owners.

Be one who breathes My life into situations and people. Change the atmosphere around you by speaking LIFE and blessing. Let the kindness of Your God flow through you to those on the street, in the marketplace, in the workplace and where ever you go. Be SALT and LIGHT where you are. Call for the rain. Call for the latter day rain. Be releasers of LIFE to the world.
BELIEVE that I will back you up. You are My sons and daughters. Would I not back you up, even as a parent stands up for their child in daily life situations ? I never abandon you. You are my precious treasures. Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Abiding is integral to releasing LIFE. Apart from Me, you can do nothing. Praise Me in all things. PRAISE and watch how I can turn even the most desolate hearts around.

Seek My wisdom and you will be able to answer rightly anything that is asked of you. Seek My love and kindness that you can give it out to the lost daily.

Be My ambassadors of freedom and liberty ! I WILL DEMONSTRATE MY GLORY. YOU need to trust ME in this fully, then you will see what you have longed to see."

Isa 30:22-23 NKJV You will also defile the covering of your images of silver, and the ornament of your molded images of gold. You will throw them away as an unclean thing; You will say to them, "Get away!" 23 Then He will give the rain for your seed with which you sow the ground, and bread of the increase of the earth; It will be fat and plentiful. In that day your cattle will feed in large pastures.

Isa 45:8 NKJV "Rain down, you heavens, from above, And let the skies pour down righteousness; Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation,
And let righteousness spring up together. I, the LORD, have created it.

Jer 5:24 NKJV They do not say in their heart, "Let us now fear the LORD our God, Who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season.
He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest."

Hos 6:3 NKJV Let us know, Let us pursue the knowledge of the LORD.
His going forth is established as the morning; He will come to us like the rain, Like the latter and former rain to the earth.

Joel 2:23-27 NKJV Be glad then, you children of Zion, And rejoice in the LORD your God; For He has given you the former rain faithfully, And He will cause the rain to come down for you — The former rain, And the latter rain in the first month. 24 The threshing floors shall be full of wheat, And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.
25 "So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, The crawling locust, The consuming locust, and the chewing locust, My great army which I sent among you. 26 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, Who has dealt wondrously with you; and My people shall never be put to shame. 27 Then you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel: I am the LORD your God and there is no other. My people shall never be put to shame.

Grim Reaper or Harvest
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 11th, 2004

grim reaper noun
death especially when personified as a man or skeleton with a scythe

Rev 1:18-19 NKJV I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death.

1 John 3:13-15 NKJV We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother abides in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

James 5:19-20 NKJV let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.

"I said, that he who does not love his brother abides in death !
Many of you still battle because you have not died enough and been raised to life in ME ! You still do not love your brother. You still have not learned that this is the whole of life, to learn to love !

And if you love your brother, you will do whatever you can to prevent his death ! Imagine you see your 2 year old child starting to step off the curb and cross a busy street ! Would you stop him ? Of course you would. You do not want him to be annihilated/crushed, or maimed ! Yet every day there are those in the spirit who are dying. They are dying because they don't know ME. They do not know there is LIFE in ME !

The church has so little power to raise the dead, because you lack compassion and love for your brothers and sisters ! You are not willing to rescue that one from death who is walking towards it ! If you want power in your life, then you will become a deliverer ! You will want to see people set free. I'm not only interested in the church, but all who are made in MY image ! I am longing for the lost to know ME. Are you willing to lay down your lives as I did ? Are you willing to lay down your life and pick up Mine ?
I did not come to heal the well, but those who are sick and dying !
If you want power to raise the dead and do miracles, then you need to be concerned over what is on MY HEART ! What is on My heart is to set people free from the law of sin and death – to rescue as many souls as possible out of the darkness. If you are passionate towards Me, then you will be passionate for what is on My heart, and not just what you want for your own life !

It is time to grow up in Me, to be healed and delivered of the things that hold you back from the fullness of My love ! Therefore, I am testing and trying you and bringing a true maturity to My church. If you suffer with ME, then you will share in My glory ! But so many want to avoid the suffering part because of course that is a great cost. Will you not offer yourselves willingly in the this day of My power ? I tell you the truth, I will make you ready if you are just willing to say YES to MY WILL. I will prepare your heart, mind, soul and give you the GRACE to do so ! You are My beloveds, and I am Your's. I will never leave you nor forsake you. I was the fourth man in the fire, and I will be with you through whatever fire you have to walk through in the rest of your life. I will not leave you comfortless. I LOVE YOU and adore you. This is soon the hour of My vengeance on all who have opposed Me ! Wake up the sleepers and prepare them for what you KNOW is ahead. Perilous times are ahead I've told you. Open your mouths and TESTIFY ! Take the sickle in your hands and reap, for you will reap what you have not sown in these days ! Many have gone before you and now you will reap a great and awesome harvest for Your King !

1 Cor 15:25-31 AMP For [Christ] must be King and reign until He has put all [His] enemies under His feet. [Ps 110:1.] 26 The last enemy to be subdued and abolished is death. 27 For He [the Father] has put all things in subjection under His [Christ's] feet. But when it says, All things are put in subjection [under Him], it is evident that He [Himself] is excepted Who does the subjecting of all things to Him. [Ps 8:6.]
28 However, when everything is subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also subject Himself to [the Father] Who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all [be everything to everyone, supreme, the indwelling and controlling factor of life]. 29 Otherwise, what do people mean by being [themselves] baptized in behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them?
30 [For that matter], why do I live [dangerously as I do, running such risks that I am] in peril every hour? 31 [I assure you] by the pride which I have in you in [your fellowship and union with] Christ Jesus our Lord, that I die daily [I face death every day and die to self].

Rev 2:10 NKJV Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Rev 12:11 NKJV And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

Rev 18:7-8 NKJV In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.' 8 Therefore her plagues will come in one day — death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.

Rev 21:4 NKJV And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.

Heb 11:5-6 NKJV By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, "and was not found, because God had taken him"; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. 6 But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.
1 Cor 15:52-58 NKJV in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."
55 "O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?"
56 The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Ezek 33:11 NKJV Say to them: 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD,'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Israel?'

Song 8:6 NKJV Set me as a seal upon your heart, As a seal upon your arm;
For love is as strong as death, Jealousy as cruel as the grave; Its flames are flames of fire, A most vehement flame.
Song 8:6 AMP Set me like a seal upon your heart, like a seal upon your arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy is as hard and cruel as Sheol (the place of the dead). Its flashes are flashes of fire, a most vehement flame [the very flame of the Lord]! [Deut 4:24; Isa 49:16; 1 Cor 10:22.]
Song 8:6 Darby Set me as a seal upon thy heart, As a seal upon thine arm: For love is strong as death; Jealousy is cruel as Sheol: The flashes thereof are flashes of fire, Flames of Jah.

A Wonder to Behold
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 6th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Wonder: OT:6382
pele' (peh'-leh); from OT:6381; a miracle: KJV - marvellous thing, wonder (-ful, -fully).
OT:6381 pala' (paw-law'); a primitive root; properly, perhaps to separate, i.e. distinguish (literally or figuratively); by implication, to be (causatively, make) great, difficult, wonderful: KJV - accomplish, (arise ... too, be too) hard, hidden, things too high, (be, do, do a, shew) marvelous (-ly, -els, things, work), miracles, perform, separate, make singular, (be, great, make) wonderful (-ers, -ly, things, works), wondrous (things, works, -ly).
Copyright © 1994, 2003 Biblesoft, Inc.

The Lord spoke: “ A Wonder to Behold” and I asked what He wanted to say and He said…
“Surely the Almighty, Your Lord and God is a Wonder to behold !
I AM the Creator of the Universe, the Author and Finisher of your faith.
Nothing is impossible to Me. And I want you to set your expectations much higher. For I am going to do a marvelous work in his hour, and you will certainly be in AWE and WONDER at all that I do.
I am treading and I am wedding. I am trading and I am raiding.
I am setting in place and I am taking out of place.
I am restoring and I am ordering all things in their proper place.
I am waiting and anticipating a mighty and marvelous WONDER.
I will do the impossible.
I will lift Myself up in the eyes of all in the earth.
There will be no excuse for unbelief.

Do not think I came to bring peace I told My disciples. The members of your own family will be against you. I have come to separate and to cause division between what is holy and what is unholy.
For what is holy cannot dwell with what is unholy.
So there is division right now, and there will be more.
You might think it is the enemy causing this division.
But in most cases it will be because of a different level of love and holiness causing this kind of division. For some are only pretenders to the throne and are wolves in sheep clothing, while others are My true flock.
The doubleminded cannot dwell with the single-eyed !
My sword is drawn, and there will be separation from all that is unholy in My true believers, and in the world. I know who will say yes and who will say no.
So do not marvel when you see these things happen My beloveds.
Know that I am in control. I am testing and I am trying for there is much to be done and I am preparing a bride that will walk in GRACE and LOVE.

Do not feel that you have failed Me, because of making mistakes again.
You have been being tested and tried and tried again, so that you will learn your lessons that will take you to the next level.
I am coming and sweeping clean My threshing floor.
I will burn up all the dross in your lives, and you will be empowered for the next stage of your journey.
Do not be anxious for anything. I have made promises that I keep. I will not suffer you to go through anything I have not seen ahead for. When you go through the waters, they will not overtake you.
When you go through the fire, you will not be burned, because I will be with you. I am EMMANUEL…God with you !

I will not allow anything to happen which is not meant for your growth and development in character.
Have you not said, “Lord, I want to be like You !” ?
I am only answering your heart’s desire, though in a moment you may have forgotten you said it. I did not forget. I am making you into a most beautiful bride. I have seen to every detail of your life. I knew ahead what decisions you would make. And I am very pleased with the way My work in you is coming.
This momentary affliction will pass, and you will be catapulted into your destiny as time escalates and leads into a myriad of events that will test the hearts of all men.

Rejoice and be glad, for My time is soon coming. Do not be disheartened or nervous about anything.
Did I not care for Elijah when there was nothing to eat, I sent him Ravens. When the children of Israel were hungry I sent them quail, and manna. They did not go without. Supernatural salvation, and deliverances from evil abounded in the times of the apostles. It will once again happen as then as you walk in trust and FAITH in ME.
Believe for greater things. Believe in the miracle of multiplication. Do not limit Me. But think BIG in what I can do for I am a BIG, BIG GOD !
You will not have to strive to receive what I will pour out freely !
I want you resting in My arms My bride ! Come and fellowship with Me.

Take in My WORD, and eat of it, and be encouraged to FAITH.
For I said, “ When I return, will I find faith on the earth ?”
Encourage yourselves DAILY and sing to each other in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs. Delight yourself in ME, and I will lift you up.
You will rest in the shadow of My wings.

Day and night I search for the soul that longs to commune with Me.
I am not a rejecting God. I love you and love spending time with you, no matter what you are doing.
Keep your MIND STAYED ON ME, and I will keep you in perfect peace. Do not dwell too much on current events, though awareness is good, dwelling on them can cause you to lose focus on what is really important to you ! Keep your eyes focused above all the circumstances. Your longings for ME will be filled My beloveds. I am coming soon to thrill and captivate you with many signs of My manifest love and GRACE. Truly all will wonder at the amazing things I will do !
Be expectant. Walk in FAITH !”

Isa 29:14 NKJV Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work
among this people, a marvelous work and a wonder; For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden."

Isa 20:3 NKJV Then the LORD said, "Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia, Ps 71:7 NKJV I have become as a wonder to many, But You are my strong refuge.

Deut 13:1-4 NKJV Punishment of Apostates
"If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder, 2 and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us go after other gods' — which you have not known — 'and let us serve them,' 3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Isa 29:14 NKJV Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work
among this people, A marvelous work and a wonder; For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden."

Acts 3:10 NKJV Then they knew that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.
NT:2285 thambos (tham'-bos); akin to an obsolete tapho (to dumbfound); stupefaction (by surprise), i.e. astonishment: KJV - amazed, astonished, wonder.

The Secret Garden
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 9th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Isa 30:15 NKJV For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel:
"In returning and rest you shall be saved; In quietness and confidence shall be your strength." But you would not,

“I know a place where the music is fine and the lights are turned down low.

I know a place where we can go…" [old song from the 60's – Petula Clark I think] came to mind.
Then the Lord said:
"There is a wonderful place of reknown, where I meet with My beloveds if they are willing to go. It is a quiet place where we can commune together and talk and just listen to the sound of the birds and leaves on the trees rustling. Where we can smell flowers, and grass and there is a warmth of fellowship there that cannot be found in other places. Serenity is a sweet place of communion. Sometimes the music needs to stop, and the world be blotted out to hear more clearly…so that all you hear is the sound of nature and the senses are fine tuned to hear other things. If you surround yourself with noise and talk all the time, how can you hear My voice ?

I am found in the still small voice. And it is in this place of peacefulness and thoughtfulness that I can be found. A place of quietness and rest ! There is a rest for My beloveds that so many know nothing about. They think they have to strive and perform, and even in the striving, they at least are trying to commune. But they don't know how easy I've made it – that it's in quietness and in REST that you can be restored. It is the opposite place of the world's striving and busyness ! So it is also a place of warfare !

It seems that some would think what a farce that is to think you don't have to DO something in warfare. " You just can't lay down or the enemy will walk all over you !" But that is not the whole TRUTH My friends. REST is a powerful weapon in the striving, quick fix world of this age ! There is a time for fighting, and there is a time for letting ME do the fighting…and allowing you to REST IN ME ! It seems incomprehensible to many. But that is the secret garden. It is a place of REFRESHING and RENEWAL ! So don't think that constantly praying, and constantly striving is the only way to push through. When a woman gives birth, it is not by pushing her arms and legs.
It is by the muscles of the womb contracting that she gives birth. If she strives it actually fights against the birthing process. Then the blood goes to the limbs instead of to the muscles of the womb where it is needed ! The mother has to cooperate with allowing the womb to do it's work, which is a built in natural mechanism regulated by hormones and nerves, not by her striving, except when the pushing phase comes. So NOW is a time for resting in ME. And when it is time to PUSH, then I will catapult you into action !

Come to My garden and allow Me to touch you – to heal and deliver you from all the ravages of the enemy. Let me destroy all the distractions. Give your heart FULLY to My purposes, and all the rest of your efforts will be effort-LESS. I will help accomplish things in fullness of FAITH, if you will just TRUST ME more fully, and trust your EFFORTS less. Self sufficiency is NOT faith ! I know it fights the ways of the world to do this. But how can you grow in FAITH if you can do it yourself ? Think of that for a moment-Selah !

This is a secret that all the mystics of old had to learn. And when they learned it, of course came great opposition, for it offends the natural mind.
Surely one has to meet the Lord's effort half-way is one common idea ! But it is MAN'S idea, not MY idea ! It is lie. TRUST in the LORD with ALL of your heart, and lean not on your own understanding ! I will fight FOR you, IF you will LET ME ! But so many of you strive. Remember what happened at Jericho…All they had to do was march around the city once a day for seven days. Remember what happened with Gideon and his men ? Thousands were arrayed against them. They had only 300 men. They did not use swords even, but just blew TRUMPETS, and dropped the pitchers that held torches! That pitcher represented the flesh, allowed to drop to the ground and be broken. The torches represented the FIRE of the Holy Spirit. All they had to do is blow the SHOFARS – and deliverance CAME, and the enemy turned on themselves and killed each other…CONFUSION went through the camp of the enemy.

And so it will be in these times for those who will TRUST IN MY WAYS.
Come to My garden and let ME share with you MY STRATEGY for what I want you to do. Come and let me share with you My secrets – My love – My JOY - My kindness – My patience – MY self control ! STOP TRYING so hard, and just COME to ME.

Matt 11:30 NKJV For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Eccl 4:6 NKJV Better a handful with quietness than both hands full, together with toil and grasping for the wind.

Isa 32:17-19 NKJV The work of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever. 18 My people will dwell in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places, 19 Though hail comes down on the forest, and the city is brought low in humiliation.

Overcoming The god Of This Age

Doug Addison

People everywhere seem to be drawn to the supernatural. A recent Gallup poll found that 84% of Americans long for spirituality. Though a good number of people are not interested in a traditional form of religion they do consider themselves spiritual. I cant help asking, why has Christianity lost its appeal? After all, Christ does have a great message.

Though God is all powerful too often Christians themselves have lost track of His greatness. Many Christians no longer believe that God speaks to us, gives us dreams, or performs miracles. Because of this, we have allowed people to believe that only psychics and those in New Age can know the future or interpret dreams when in reality, God is the creator of all revelation.

People are looking for a power outside of themselves to bring change in their lives. The Apostle Paul stated in 2 Corinthians 4:4 that The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. It is our responsibility to open their eyes to Gods true light (Acts 26:17-18).

In Acts 1:8 Jesus said, But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. The disciples received Gods power on the day of Pentecost and they stayed in Jerusalem and Judea for a number of years. As they began to venture out from there it is interesting to note what they encountered.

Phillip was the first to go to Samaria where he met Simon, a man who practiced sorcery. The people believed that Simon had the great power of God (Acts 8:9-13). As Phillip demonstrated Gods true power consequently even Simon believed and became a Christian.

Saul and Barnabas were later sent out to take the message of Jesus to the ends of the earth. Immediately they encounter a sorcerer named Bar-Jesus on the Island of Paphos who had even the government believing that he was a prophet (Act 13:6-12). In this case Bar-Jesus did not receive the message of Jesus but opposed it and he was literally blinded as a prophetic act to show the condition of people if they chose to follow his teachings.

Our society today is in a similar condition as in the Book of Acts where people are drawn to magic and sorcery. Since many Christians have not valued or demonstrated the supernatural gifts of God, most people are not aware that Gods power is greater than the gods of this age. As we set out to be witnesses of Jesus Christ and use our God-given spiritual gifts to demonstrate Gods love and power to those in need, it will not be difficult to turn people to the light of God.

On The Road

Lou Engle

Dear Friends,

The past few weeks rank as some of the most memorable and important of my life to date – and that is not said lightly... We have just completed 50 days of 24/7 ceaseless worship and intercession in Colorado Springs for the elections, the Supreme Court, and a massive national awakening!

During this time, I was privileged to stand in intercession alongside some of the most remarkable young adults I have ever met! They have labored on behalf our nation in prayer, frequently for 7 to 12 hours a day, many of them going on extended fasts, as they wrestled for the future of America! Many of them joined us for the full 50 days.

It often seemed we had an open heaven and many young people had profound throne room experiences and much prophetic revelation, some of which I will be sharing in this letter.

During worship one evening, a young crack addict walked in and was immediately translated to heaven!

Afterwards, he remained there worshipping the Bridegroom with language so passionate and descriptive that it could only have been God! This was an unforgettable, holy season. As Charles Spurgeon once said, "Our days of fasting have been high days indeed. Never have we been closer to the central glory!"

Not every day was glorious however... Much of the time we were wrestling and persevering in prayer. By the 44th night of intense, non-stop, day and night worship and prayer, we were all exhausted. Sapped of strength, all we could do was wait upon the Lord in weakness.

The following day, however, we had in incredible breakthrough... The spirit of intercession descended powerfully upon us as we prayed against the strongholds of homosexuality and abortion in our nation. It was as if the Council Room of Heaven suddenly came down among us. We received an explosion of divine strategy as the Lord revealed His purposes to us in a startling way.

Two Mocking Spirits

To understand what I'm about to share, you need to know of an unusual encounter a prophetic friend of mine had. This friend had an actual physical experience. As he was driving from Kansas City in Colorado Springs to join us, a massive tornado touched down behind his car and followed him along the freeway! With a real fear of imminent death upon him, he fled wildly down interstate highway 70, barely escaping. He felt as if there was almost a personality behind this phenomenon.

Two days after this terrifying experience, he received a dream in which two massive tornadoes were pursuing him and with the letters "h" and "a" on both tornadoes. In the dream, he was restrained from confronting the tornadoes until the young people involved with The Cause USA had first gone to a laundry room to wash their clothes. Only after that was it possible to confront the tornadoes.

He understood the two tornadoes with the "ha-ha" on them were two Goliath mocking spirits unleashed against the Church and bringing destruction to the nation. He also knew the "h" stood for homosexuality and the "a" stood for abortion.

We knew God was giving us a mandate for intercession and that a great preparation and cleansing first needed to take place before we could resist these powers. We felt God was laying upon our shoulders the responsibility to hold these forces back, and if we did not, the victory of these two spirits would be manifested in who was elected into national office in the upcoming elections...

As the leaders gathered to discuss the "ha-ha" tornado vision, it was as if a lightning strike of revelation broke in, with even greater authority. We had been discussing our plans to travel to D.C. to join the national fast that is being called. We were looking at a map and had decided to take Interstate Highway 70, when someone felt lead to read Psalm 70 for Highway 70. We were electrified by what it said...

Psalm 70:2-3: "Let them be ashamed and confounded who seek my life (the children in the womb); let them (these two tornadoes) be turned back and confused who desire my hurt. Let them be turned back because of their shame, who say, 'Aha! Aha!'"

We sat stunned and shocked at the revelation as God confirmed that these two mocking spirits MUST be turned back...

PLEASE JOIN US IN A NATIONAL FAST FOR THE LAST DAYS BEFORE THE ELECTIONS. THROUGH Nov 2 (Election Day).

As you read this, we are on a prayer journey from Kansas City, the heart of America, to Washington, D.C. We will be traveling along Interstate Highway 70 and holding gatherings in Missouri, in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida, all swing states. We believe that God has commissioned us on this divine national assignment to resist and turn back these two mocking and destructive spirits of homosexuality and abortion. This is not our task alone – it's the mandate to the church in this hour to cry out to God for mercy, in repentance.

See www.TheCauseUSA.com for more details. The deadlines for voter registration across states are rapidly approaching. If you have not yet done so, please register right away so that you will be assured of your vote.

The 2000 presidential elections were decided by a mere 537 votes, yet 4 million evangelicals never bothered to exercise their God-given authority and vote!

It is not exaggeration to say these could be some of the most important elections in our nation's history. Please set aside time to pray every day between Sept 24 (Day of Atonement) and November 2, which is 40 days exactly!

SUPREME COURT NEEDS SUPREME LEADER
The next President of the United States of America will decide the fate of legalized abortion and whether millions of innocent lives can continue to be taken in our country, 'legally' with the full permission of the law...

In 2000, in Stenberg v. Carhart, the U.S. Supreme Court - by a narrow 5-4 vote - struck down a Nebraska abortion ban. This five-member pro-choice majority would be overthrown by the appointment of just one new Justice, by the next president!

- Chief Justice Rehnquist, appointed 32 years ago by Nixon, is now 80.
- Justice Stevens, appointed 29 years ago by Ford, is 84 years old.
- Justices O'Connor appointed 23 years ago by Reagan, is 74 years old

- Justice Ginsburg, appointed 11 years ago by Clinton is 71 years old.

Any of these Justices could vacate their seats during the next 4 years, due to illness, death or retirement!!

It is clear that the influence of a Supreme Court judge far outlasts that of the president who appointed them. The outcome of Nov 2 will decide the judicial future of America for decades to come, not only in the Supreme Court but also with the appointment of federal judges.

It is critical to be praying for both the presidential race and the 34 Senate races around the country, since this would either aid or hinder the progress of the president's bills, Supreme Court appointments and cabinet recommendations. Control of the Senate is up for grabs and could go either way. Pray for those sixty votes needed to break any senate filibuster. (Amos 5:15a, 24)

Recognizing the fragile balance of the Supreme Court, pro-abortion activists have mobilized a massive campaign to defeat President Bush and thrown their weight behind someone who will advance their agenda. They are confident in their choice, since this is the senator with the most liberal voting record of anyone in the senate, bar none; more liberal than Ted Kennedy or Hillary Clinton on all issues: none other than John Kerry.

Despite being a Catholic, John Kerry has publicly pledged that as president he would appoint only judges who support Roe v. Wade!!

God instituted human government to restrain violence. As Rom 13:3-4 tells us, government should hold no terror for the blameless, since it bears the sword to punish evildoers. However, when governments become renegade, they cross their own boundaries and use that sword against the innocent.

Through legalized abortion, over 40 million American babies have been terrorized in the womb since 1973, yet the church still votes for those who sanction such an atrocity! Through our votes, we are guilty before God of making alliances with governments whose laws enshrine evil, particularly the evil of shedding innocent blood, the ultimate moral offense.

Perhaps it bothers you that I am coming out so strong on this issue and naming names. All I can say is that millions of unborn children's lives are at stake here and we have an historic opportunity to turn the tide. In light of that, I cannot take a different stand. Please join us boldly in an extended fast for out nation's future!

This is not about party politics or political careers; it is about righteousness and justice. God is neither a Republican nor a Democrat and He does not play favorites. He stands alone above all governments of men with Kingdom authority. His throne is established forever on righteousness and justice – it is mightier than the breakers of the raging sea of history. He judges the nations by His eternal law and does not ask kings and judges for their opinion, but calls them to give an account for how they govern.

Will we have a nation governed by the laws of God or the convenient compromise of man? Who is willing to take a stand on absolutes? While he is far from perfect, on issues of moral consequence, such as opposing embryonic stem cell research, partial birth abortions and gay marriage, George Bush has stood firm.

The End of Silence

Did you ever wonder how Jezebel, a foreign Baal worshipper ended up at the royal court in Israel, married to Ahab, the king? The answer is simple: politics, money and convenience opened the door for her deadly influence in the nation. She was a Phoenician princess and in keeping with the custom of those days, her marriage to Ahab was probably arranged as part of a peace treaty and trade agreement with Sidon, a port city that bordered on Israel's territory.

For the sake of "peace" and their economy, Israel was willing to turn a blind eye to the vile worship of Baal that Jezebel aggressively promoted, which included homosexual acts, the offering up of the innocent children on the altars of Baal, and the murder and intimidation of the prophets of God.

In this dark hour on Mt Carmel, Elijah confronts the people of Israel with this burning question: "How long will you hesitate between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow him; but if Baal, follow him." But the people did not answer him a word.' (1 Kings 18:21)

That verse stuns me! How is it possible to remain undecided and passive when faced with such a choice? Yet all around us, political correctness has intimidated the Church into whimpering eunuchs in the palace of Jezebel. How long will we remain silent in this day of trouble?

We cannot waver between two opinions on the moral issues of our day: abortion and gay marriage. In our desire to hold onto our 501(c)3s tax-exemptions, the church has surrendered her voice for economic benefit. This is wrong!

Jesus told us that we were to render our taxes unto Caesar, but we were never to render our voices. Can you imagine the prophet Elijah worrying about the IRS taking away his tax breaks if he anointed (i.e. endorsed) Jehu as king... or John the Baptist softening his words because he didn't want Herod to take away his cave?!

Imagine the many prayer meetings during time of slavery that totally ignored the burning issue of their day... We cannot compromise moral standards for economic benefits or we are no different than those who turned a blind eye to the suffering during the days of slavery prior to the civil war.

Perhaps the greatest sin of the present church in America is that we have succumbed to silence and political correctness. We cannot continue to make alliances with those who legislate evil. The church has become afraid of being called a "troubler of Israel." But this is all coming to an end because the silent screams of 44 million murdered babies that have been heard by God, their cry has gone up before Him and He will not long tolerate this...

Psalm 94:20 is very clear on this issue, "Shall a throne of destruction which devises evil by law have fellowship with you?" the scripture asks. In other words, will you align yourself with a government that sanctions evil through the very laws they pass?

Be careful how you cast your vote in November. To vote for those who support the legalization of evil is to have fellowship with them and we will be held accountable for our agreement with them.

Meeting with Bob Jones

Two weeks before the dream about the tornadoes of homosexuality and abortion, I met with Bob Jones, a father prophet to us. He told me we are literally praying for the very survival of our nation, at this time. Bob prophesied to me that the Catholic vote in Ohio was critical to this election and we need to pray for that.

Bob shared again the open vision the Lord gave him in July 1999, prior to George W. Bush's election as president. In this vision, he was surrounded by water up to the ankle, which became water to the knee. It represented a time of favor and blessing upon the righteous but he also knew this meant a time of "troubled waters" was coming upon the nation. Then Lord told him a "burning bush" would come out of Texas, someone who would incline his ear to the word of the Lord...

Many of you may have read this previously on this Elijah List. However, what is not been widely known is the last half of this vision, which I share here with Bob's permission. In this vision, the Lord showed Bob if George W. Bush got elected to a second term, he would end abortion!!

Bob also confirmed to me what we have concluded from the facts: given the age of the judges on the Supreme Court, three new justices would be appointed during the next presidential term, setting the course of the Courts for decades to come!

The Lord also showed Bob that in his second term, George Bush would open the door to a godly successor who would be in office for two terms and would usher in full-blown, historic revival! America would thus be blessed by sixteen years of mercy and grace. Should this not occur, our nation will surely face the judgments of God in increasing measure for our sins. Bob made the severity of this word very, very clear to me.

It is important to understand the abolition of abortion in our nation and the election of this coming godly president is a conditional promise from the Lord. It's fulfillment rests on the prayers and intercession of the church.

Today, God is offering us the historic opportunity to end the legalized killing of the next generation. Please set aside these last few weeks for fasting and prayer for America. May we not be silent or apathetic in this hour, but let our cries be heard in heaven and our votes counted on earth!!

by Lou Engle
web site: www.TheCauseUSA.com

Our Inheritance

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
The themes of the scroll of redemption, inheritance and the qualifications thereof, have been brought up in recent letters. Last week mention was made of the hope that had been laid up for us in heaven, of which we have heard in "the word of the truth of the gospel" (ref. Col 1:5). The wonderful news is that now this "word of truth" has come to us, as the following verse indicates, "which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and brings forth fruit, as it does also in you, since the day you heard of it, and knew the grace of YHVH in truth" (v.6). Is this good news or what? This mystery of Messiah in us is the hope of glory, and with Him comes all the riches of our inheritance. "Even the mystery which has been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to His called out ones, to whom YHVH would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Nations; which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory" (Col 1:26-27). What are the riches of our inheritance that have come to us, being in us and bearing fruit?

The Apostle Peter points out that we have become partakers of the divine nature: "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these we might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust" (2 Pet. 1:4). Armed with this knowledge of the Word, what are these precious promises that are now in us?

Paul's greatest desire and passion was to share with the believers this incredible reality, and this is why he prayed that the Father of glory would give the believers the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, His calling and the riches of the glory of His inheritance which is now in us, so that we would come to understand the exceeding greatness of His power unto us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power, which He demonstrated through the anointing of His Spirit in Yeshua when he raised Him from the dead (Eph 1: 16-20 paraphrased). Paul wanted us to be strengthened with might through the indwelling presence of the Spirit of Holiness that is now working in our inner man, and that the reality of Messiah's life would dwell in our hearts through faith, so that we would be able to comprehend with all the believers the breadth, length, depth and height of this inheritance, but especially the divine nature of love that is in Messiah, so that we may be filled with all the fullness of Elohim (Col 3:16-19 paraphrased). For our Heavenly Father's nature is unconditional love (ref. 1 John 4:8).

Let us take a look at what is in us; that is at the divine nature "which is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance" (Gal 5:22-23). Reading this list may cause one to wonder whether this divine nature is truly within… If you have received Messiah Yeshua, through the anointing of the Spirit of Holiness, I assure you that this is His nature and these character traits are already in you, to which you may reply: “I don’t see this nature being manifest through me.” Both Paul and Peter help us with the dilemma. Peter writes that we must come to the knowledge of YHVH and Messiah Yeshua (ref. 2 Pet 1:2). He also adds that if we give all diligence to the faith, believing that the life and nature of the Messiah is our life and nature, and add to this understanding through the faith – this knowledge, to the knowledge - temperance, to the temperance - patience, and to the patience - godliness, and to the godliness - brotherly kindness and to that unconditional love, we will bear the fruit of the divine nature in our lives. Peter ends this little list with a very important statement: ”For if these things be in you, and abound, you shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our King Yeshua Messiah” (2Pet.1:8). Paul states that, “you died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in God. When Messiah who is your life appears [or reveals Himself], then you also will appear [you will know who you are as a new creation being] and together be revealed with Him in glory” (Col. 3:3-4). This can only happen if we are walking in the faith, as we move from faith to faith and glory-to-glory - looking to Messiah Yeshua whose Spirit life is resident in us.

Faith in the gospel of the Kingdom and Yeshua the Messiah through the writings of the apostles, as they received it from the Torah and the Prophets, reveal to us some very fundamental insights. If we are to possess our inheritance, that is the divine nature and the riches and the glory, we must continually stand on the foundation stone of the faith and of YHVH’s work through the death, burial, and resurrection of His Son. Paul makes it very clear that when Yeshua died “all men died”, and that we are no longer to judge men by the flesh, nor to even recognize them after the flesh (ref. 2 Cor. 5:14-16). You and I died on that cross once and for all, but are alive because of Him who is our life. (ref. Col. 3:1-4). He is the new creation Man, the One New Man and we are members of His body. “Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Yeshua our Messiah” (1 Pet 1:13). “For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is unconditional love” (1 Cor. 13:12-13).
Shabbat Shalom
March 5, 2004
http://www.1st-born.com

Our Inheritance II
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
To continue looking at our inheritance, we first must define two words that are translated “world”, the reason being is that Abraham our father and we his seed, or sperm, have a promise from YHVH to inherit the world; howbeit, not through trying to keep the law, but through faith. Of the patriarch it was written, “the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world [kosmos], was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith” (Rom. 4:12-13). The word used here for “world”, in the Greek, is from Strong’s 2889 - ko,smoj kosmos {kos'-mos}, described as: “An apt and harmonious arrangement or constitution, order, government.” The Apostle John gives a glimpse into what constitutes this present “kosmos”: “For all that is in the kosmos, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the kosmos. And the kosmos passes away, and the lust thereof” (1 John 2:16-17). Is this the kosmos that Abraham was promised, or is there another, that will not pass away, that was preserved in heaven but has now come to us through the Spirit of Holiness (ref. Col 1:5-6)?

The other word that is translated world is aivw,n aion {ahee-ohn'}, described as: evermore, age, eternal, period of time, a fixed order of time. This is the world that according to Paul we have been transferred out of: “…Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world [age], according to the will of God and our Father” (Gal. 1:4).

In order to understand what makes up this kosmos, we have to return to the garden of man’s delight - Eden. Man was created with an inherent weakness (see 1 Cor. 15: 42-49). Unlike the reptiles, animals and birds, to which YHVH gave natural instincts, smells and colors to govern them and attract like-life forms in order to perpetuate their respective species, man was given faith, a will and an attribute of the heart called desire. He was given these in order to enable him to have a relationship with his Creator, himself, and others of his own order as well as with the creation. Adam/man was to grow into the same likeness and nature as Elohim. The Creator also declared that he was to have dominion and rule over all living things. To the first humans it was given to establish the first “kosmos”, as they walked by faith with their Creator. Adam and Eve were to serve and to channel Spirit-life and light that they received from this divine relationship, to the kosmos of the creation. That was to be the first expression of the Kingdom of YHVH on earth. However, we know that in the Garden there was another tree, which contained a potential spiritual influence over man’s faith, will and desire. Let us remember who placed the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil in the Garden in the first place. And let us also bear in mind that YHVH already had a signed and sealed document called the scroll of redemption. In other words, He was taking full responsibility for His plan.

Satan was well aware of Adam and Eve’s inherent weakness, of which he was about to take full advantage. He knew that they had the potential to believe a lie, and once their faith was diverted from looking toward their relationship with their Creator, he could tempt them through desire (lust), and cause their will to choose his kingdom and express his nature. So when Eve looked at the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil she saw that the “tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise” (Gen. 3: 6). However, the fruit was not congruent with her (and Adam’s) well-being. Instead of eternal life coursing through their being, death began to reign in and through them, consequently affecting the rest of Creation. This may sound tragic, but it was all in YHVH's plan (see Rom 8:20).

Adam and Eve still had dominion over a now groaning creation, but they were being governed by another spiritual kingdom; Satan became their lord, king and constant companion. Satan's corporate servant called "Adam" became his channel of expression through the demonic forces that could now influence, inhabit and give expression to their nature through the usage of lust. Satan's kosmos was thus being manifested through the lust of flesh ("good for food"), the lust of the eyes ("pleasant to the eyes"), and the pride of life ("to make one wise"), and consequently man was trapped in his own prison house; the principalities and powers of this evil kosmos were now in charge. Humanity was thrown into a realm of spiritual darkness so deep that they believed themselves to be like Elohim. Satan's nature of disobedience, rebellion and the pride of life, self-preservation and self-centeredness occupied the mind of man. Deception engulfed him to such an extend that he now believed that the knowledge of good and evil would enable him to take charge of his life and become like God, and that he therefore no longer needed his Creator.

Satan now had a body, which Paul defines as the "body of sin" (ref. Rom 6:6), through which he could express his fallen nature. However, there was a mystery that still smoldered like a spark in the heart of man; a mystery which YHVH, in His wisdom, kept hidden in the depths of His own Spirit-life. It was like an embryo that would have to wait until the seed (the flesh of man) could fall to the ground and die. This happened when Yeshua went to the stake and gave up His life. From YHVH's standpoint, through His Son all of humanity received the penalty for sin, that is death (ref 2 Cor. 5:14-16). Adam the seed, (1 Cor 15: 44) was now planted into the ground with Yeshua, (Rom 6:4) but as Paul relates it will also be raised but each man in his own order. (1Cor 15:23).

As for us, who have been raised in Messiah, in order to receive the promise that our forefather Abraham was given, we must now live in this faith reality of life in Messiah Yeshua. We can only be in Messiah by faith, and it is only faith which will allow us to continue living in this truth. "I am crucified with Messiah: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Messiah lives in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by [or because of] the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me" (Gal. 2:20).

Paul says that "whatsoever is not of faith is sin" (Rom. 14:23). "Let us [therefore] lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Yeshua the author and finisher of our faith", so that we of the Abrahamic seed might receive the promise of our inheritance.

Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

Out Within 35 Days

Kim Clement

http://www.kimclement.com/

Highlights from ministry of Kim Clement on TBN 01/12/04

Talk about stepping out, in Utica, NY, for those of you who don't know anything about my ministry, the Lord has given me very, very clear words about political things that have come to pass, very clear. We've had the Secret Service visit me a number of times and investigate because of these prophecies. They are more interested and they have interpretations for this that I and the church didn't even think about.

Osama Ben Laden said that in 35 days, America, he was prophesying, predicting, that this country would be abolished basically, wiped out, because he has a plan for 35 days. And the word of the Lord came to me... the spirit of the Lord said to me, "You prophesy that the very thing that he said and predicted for this nation, tell him, prophesy, that that is reversed, and I'm going to bring him out in 35 days!"

And then he said this - the Spirit of the Lord said, "There is a resurrection day coming over this Easter. This will be, the Easter that is coming now will be one of the greatest Easters this nation has ever celebrated. Why? Because there will be a resurrection of the dead, speaking spiritually of revelation that has died, of prophetic words that have died and been buried in the ground." "This Easter," says the Spirit of the Lord, "Not only will I bring your greatest enemy out, but I will also bring about a severe judgment against the powers and the principalities that have come against my servants, against my people. There shall be a judgment," says the Lord.

CURES WILL BE DISCOVERED FOR DISEASES

Alzheimer's has come against too many of God's people... The word of the Lord, the prophetic word of the Lord is coming to you tonight. Alzheimer's, diabetes, Parkinson's disease, a rare bone disease and lung, God says, these five things will suddenly come to the surface with incredible discoveries and it will begin this year... God is going to bring it to pass because of your prayers... We declare it is done, in the Name of Jesus...

If you are believing with me right now for your family, I don't care whether it is some disease in their body or whether it is some deliverance that they need, whatever it is God's Spirit is present right now to free them from it. Yesterday is over. Are you with me? I declare the word of the Lord to everyone who is listening to me right now... I release creative truth on them right now. Whoever's listening, whoever's watching right now by television, Lord, I pray that you release them from that thing as well - the forces of death that want to take them out. It's time to live. It's time to enjoy the kingdom of God, therefore, live, live, live in the name of Christ.

A PRAYING PRESIDENT FOR ANOTHER TERM

There's an invasion into the Kingdoms of darkness... He's giving us access into the political powers. Look at President Bush; he prays. We needed a praying president, and we needed a praying president for another term, and there will be another praying president for another term... All over the world, God is sending his young people to invade the kingdoms of darkness and the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of our God and his Christ.

IT'S FOR OUR GENERATION

God says, "There have been prophetic words that have been spoken out that have been buried that have not come to pass," and God says, "This generation that you think are dying, they are going to fall on the prophetic promises that have (been) buried and your children literally will be raised up as children that have life and children that will bring the word of the Lord," in the name of Jesus we prophesy that.

.All of these things that have been prophesied, not just by me, but by many, many great men of God, and those that have even died that were in the 40's that prophesied and predicted the things that have not come to pass, it's for our generation. It's for our time, people - masses coming in, a great harvest...

When I came into the city (of Miami) I got so thirsty and I thought maybe because it's I've been flying... I was so thirsty. Even when I came in here I was so thirsty - unusually thirsty - and God said, "It's what's happening in Florida specifically. There's a tremendous thirst for something fresh and something new, and it's going through out America. The only way we're going to get big churches, if you want a big church, the only way it's going to happen is if there's a hunger in the hearts of people.

THE MONTH OF MARCH

On March the 11th and the month of March has been set aside by God for the Church in the United States of America for something unbelievably wonderful to happen - so powerful... God just said to me, there's going to be one unusual event .. almost like a renting of something, a curtain, a veil for the church. So pastors and leaders... watch the month of March. It's going to be one of the most fabulous anointings that's going to be released, and what you've struggled to get... whatever it is, it's going to be released like that just in one second. It's payback time.

PRAYER BY KIM

"Father, I pray for every man or woman, every person watching right now. You have the ability to change it by God's word. I release you from your present bondage. I command you to see what God is allowing you to see and I free you this very minute from the bondages that the enemy is bringing against you, so that you'll enter this year to your promise and into the Kingdom, in the Name of Jesus."

Overcoming Sin

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

In last week's letter I touched on a couple of issues that generated some questions. The present letter is written in light of some of those questions.

In most of the apostles' writings, or teachings on faith, the latter is presented as an active part of life. Faith must be exercised in order for us to grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Son of the Father (ref. 2 Pet. 3:18). James says: "Faith without works is dead" (James 2:17,20). This is especially true when it comes to sanctification. Nothing is going to happen in this area unless we actively participate with the Spirit of Holiness. Unfortunately, we, along with many others, have been ignorant of this fact and as a result ended up in the condition described by the prophet: "Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge…Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure" (Isa 5:13:14).

What do we do when sin has become so engrained into our being, that it is even reflected in our personality and seems to be a permanent part of our make up? We have heard it quoted many times that we must "cast down every imagination, or reasoning that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bring every thought into captivity to the obedience of Messiah" (2 Cor 10:5). But if we are deficient in our knowledge of Truth, that is the knowledge of who the Father is in His Son, we can be very easily fooled into believing lies, particularly those that masquerade as truth. Scriptures do tell us that Satan can act like an angel of light and his ministers (demons) may be transformed into ministers of righteousness (ref 2 Cor 11:14-15). Thus, if we have been saved out of the ignorance of this world's wisdom, it behooves us to seek first YHVH's kingdom, His righteousness and the wisdom that is from above from the Father of light. We also must renew our minds by the revelation knowledge of our new creation life in Messiah Yeshua.

A question that I have been pondering at various times, after falling prey to the enemy, was: how do we permanently get rid of the power of sin? How do we renew our minds so that it no longer thinks any other thoughts except in accordance with the mind of Messiah? The apostle Paul faced a very similar problem when he confessed through his letter to the believers in Rome: "For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do. If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good. But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me" (Rom 7:19-20).

I think most of us can relate to that statement of Paul's, as there are those things that work in us that we know to be sin but just can't seem to get rid of. So how does Paul deal with this problem? He has a wonderful excuse. He maintains that it is no longer he who was performing these activities, but the power of sin that was "working in his members". Well, I to could say that the devil made me do it (and as a matter of fact that may not be so far from the truth). Indeed, Satan was the originator of it all. However, Paul does say that it is possible to overcome this wretched part called the "power of sin working in our members". "O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? I thank God -- through Yeshua the Messiah our Lord!" (Rom 7:26-27). That is a great answer, but what does it mean? Is it practical advice? What exactly does he have in mind by this phrase "through Yeshua Messiah our Lord"?

"Through" - dia (dee-ah'), a primary preposition denoting the channel of an act; by, through, for, for this cause, because, by the means of, the ground or reason by which something is or is not done; by reason of; on account of; because of for this reason; therefore; on this account. (Strongs)

When we call upon Yeshua, yielding to His righteousness, which releases the flow of His life and nature in us, the power of sin will weaken and ultimately will diminish to nothingness in our life.

Therefore we must willfully stop identifying and participating with sin. There is a fundamental faith factor here that must come into the equation for overcoming sin forever. It will take an actual intermingling of the waters of the Spirit of Holiness with the waters of our life, by living our life from Yeshua's source, that is the Spirit of the Father.

This word "through" means the finished work, act, labor of faith and willing obedience, which was exercised by our Redeemer when He gave up His life on the execution stake/tree. The world of sin, Satan and his kingdom were overcome once and for all when Yeshua the perfect man died. This was the Father's righteous judgment upon the son of disobedience (Adam). But the good news is that Yeshua was not only a man, He had another life in Him, the indestructible, eternal Life of His Heavenly Father. That power raised Him from the dead and transferred Him into a realm of glory so high that He now rules over all principalities and powers in the heavens and on earth. If the rulers of this age had known that this would be the outcome of the crucifixion, they would have never done it (ref. 1 Cor 2:8). They were defeated and all humanity was reconciled to the Father, as He (the Father) through the blood (life) of His Son opened the gate of fellowship that man once had in the garden with Him.

We, who are of the first fruit of the risen life, contain within us the same life and power that raised Yeshua from the dead and defeated every attempt of the enemy to get Yeshua to fail and to fall. The Word tells us that we are seated with Yeshua in heavenly places and that we have the same authority over all these rulers and powers, but not in ourselves; only "through" the lordship, rulership, kingdom authority of the Only Begotten Son of the Father -"Yeshua". There is no other provision made to come out from under and have victory over the powers of sin and darkness. We cannot do it through righteous deeds or dead works. The apostle says "through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah".

Whether we are looking to overcome sin in the form of its temptations, lusts, pride, personality characteristics, or of its programming that is engrained in our minds, it is possible to defeat it through active obedience. Loving YHVH with all our heart, mind and strength binds us to Him in such a way that it releases His life and nature into ours. He is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Not only do we have to come to the knowledge of who He is, but also to become aware of that which He is not. We have to take the responsibility to repent when we participate with that foreign nature of sin, resist temptation, work out and practice the divine nature that is now in us, as the Spirit has given to us everything pertaining to life and godliness. Our true nature in Him is listed as: "love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law" (Gal. 5:22-23). The body of Messiah has been given workers "for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Messiah; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Messiah" (Eph. 4:12-13). Yeshua also said that it is possible to become a perfect man: "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect" (Matt. 5:48).

But thanks be to God [our Heavenly Father], who gives us the victory "through" our Lord Yeshua our Messiah (1 Cor. 15:57).

Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

Overcoming the Beast
Rick Joyner

Jun 6, 2004

Last week, we began our study of the beast, and the "mark of the beast" (Revelation 16:2). As stated, because this beast comes "up out of the earth" (Revelation 13:11) this speaks of it being borne out of humanism, or earthly mindedness. We also know that the "mark of the beast" is an economic mark that enables one to "buy, sell, or trade." Therefore, we can expect the economic systems of this earth to become more and more humanistic, and demanding more and more allegiance to the religion of humanism.

If we are approaching this time, which it seems obvious that we are, one might assume it will become increasingly difficult to be successful in the economy of this world without compromising more and more of the basic issues of our faith. That will be true in many ways, but there is another major factor that we must consider. The Lord is also establishing the foundation for His kingdom in the earth.

There is another economy in the earth! It will ultimately be the most successful of all. As we read in Daniel 2 concerning the statue that represented the kingdoms of this world, a stone is going to strike the feet of this statue, and the statue will come down. That little stone will grow into a mountain and then fill the whole earth.

It is important that we understand how the kingdom of God is also coming at this time or we will overreact to the things that are happening in the world, and by that fail to be a part of God's solution which He provides for every scheme of the devil. Our goal is not to just flee from the economy of this world, but to be a part of establishing one that is greater, having more substance and strength than anything the world has.

It is because of the root of evil, which is the love of money, and the coming of the beast and his mark, that understanding Christian economics is going to become one of the important issues of our time. However, we should not want to study this just for these reasons, but in order to obey God, and do all things according to His ways. For this reason, as we study this beast and the present systems of this world and its economy, we will give even more attention to the kingdom of God, and living according to the Lord's ways in these things.

As we proceed, I think you will not only find these principles interesting, but compelling and life changing. A basic calling upon every Christian is to live in victory in these things, and to do so is not at all complicated. However, to do so does not just include a knowledge of these biblical prophecies and what is happening in the world, but it requires living by and manifesting the fruit of the Spirit. It will require love, faith, patience...

To serve the Lord as we are called to in this time requires that each of us have the following basic economic plan for our life:

1) We live on the unlimited supply of God's kingdom, having an abundance for everything we are called to do.

2) We owe no man anything but to love them.

That is the simplicity of God's economic plan. This is the top of the mountain, but to get there we need to understand where we are, and what is the quickest path to the top. We can actually cover this in just a few weeks. It will take a little longer for us to get to the top of this mountain, but we can get there, and we must. We may think money is not that important to God, and it is not, but how we handle it is. As the Lord Jesus Himself said in Luke 16:10-13:

"He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much. "If therefore you have not been faithful in the use of unrighteous mammon, who will entrust the true riches to you? "And if you have not been faithful in the use of that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? "No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

Our goal should never be to make decisions based on money, but on the will of God. Money is given to serve us, and we must never become the servants of money. Those who are free in this way will be the most free and powerful people on the earth in the times to come. There is no one on this earth, even the antichrist, who is more powerful than one who is in the center of God's will for their life. The least in God's kingdom has far more power living in them than all of the antichrists combined. Our purpose for being here is to live in and represent the kingdom of God in all that we do.

God has another economy, and if our lives are built on it we will not care at all whether we can buy, sell, or trade in this world's economy. Living by that economy should be a basic goal of every Christian. Those who build their lives on God's economy will never fear what is happening in the world's economy. They will not only be adequately provided for in all things, but they will "have an abundance for every good deed" (II Corinthians 9:8).

The Beginning Of Judgment
Rick Joyner

June 14, 2004

Last week we discussed how the primary way we will escape from the mark of the beast is to take the mark of God by becoming a true bond-servant of Christ. One of the principles of the last days that we have not yet discussed is how the judgment of God will come forth. A fundamental aspect of His judgment is to simply let us reap what we sow. In Galatians 6:7-8, we are warned about this:

Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit shall from the Spirit reap eternal life.

The choices we make every day determine most of the future consequences of our lives. If we are sowing to our flesh, we cannot expect to grow in the fruit of the Spirit, or to reap good spiritual benefits. As the apostle wrote, this mentality makes a mockery of God, and is a primary reason why much of the world thinks of His church as nothing but hypocrites. As we also read in I Peter 4:17:

For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

God's judgment will begin with His own household. How could He judge the world for its sin when His own people do the same things? This is why it cannot be forever tolerated. He is patient and He is merciful, far more so than we tend to be, but there are limits to both His patience and His mercy. When those limits are reached, He does allow the consequences of our own sin to come upon us. If that does not cause us to repent, then He goes further, until at the end, we see what happens as we read His explanation of the parable of the sower in Matthew 13:37-43:

"The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, and the field is the world; and as for the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age; and the reapers are angels. "Therefore just as the tares are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at the end of the age. "The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks, and those who commit lawlessness, and will cast them into the furnace of fire; in that place there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. "Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

There is a separation coming to the church. The pretenders or those who have become lukewarm, or have given themselves over to sin, will be separated from the true. His church at the end will be a pure, spotless, bride of which He is worthy. Along with the harvest that is now taking place, there is also a great falling away taking place. Many of these who are "falling away" may still go to church faithfully, and may even go on missions, but their love is growing colder, and their attachment to the world, its ways, and its sin, is growing.

If this has been happening to us now, it is the time to repent, to turn around, renounce the world and its ways, and give ourselves fully to do the will of the Lord. As stated, every Christian is called to be a bond-servant of Christ, but very few truly are. Most go on living their lives for themselves, and not for Christ.

This is also the product of a terrible perversion of the gospel that we have seen in recent times. It has been very basically changed from "He came to save us from our sin," to a gospel that says He came to save us from our troubles. As psychological studies have shown that the way a person is born in the natural can have an impact on their entire life, this is just as true in the spiritual-the way in which a person comes to the Lord can determine the quality of their entire spiritual life. Those who respond to a gospel that promotes self-centeredness and selfishness will remain that way. Those who come because of the deep conviction of their sin, and their desperate need for deliverance from their sin, which compels them to embrace the cross, will be different.

As stated in Matthew 24:12: "And because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold." Christians fall into lawlessness because the sin in their life has not been dealt with at the root. When the cross is preached, and people come to the Lord out of the conviction of their sins, and the desperate need for the atonement of the cross, it begins to deal with the self-centeredness that is the fruit of all sin. When someone comes to Jesus out of the desperation to have their sins forgiven by His grace and mercy, they are bonded to Him for their very life, and therefore begin to live for Him.

Also, when people come to Jesus for deliverance from their troubles instead of deliverance from their sin, when troubles come upon them they believe that the gospel does not work, and quickly fall away. Great troubles are going to come upon the world in these times. In Christ we do have the only true deliverance from the troubles of this world, but that does not mean we will not experience any troubles, but rather we overcome them through Christ.

The whole mind-set that many teachings promote, or at least imply, is that Christians should not experience troubles. This has already been the downfall of many, and it will increase as the troubles increase. This is a major root of apostasy, and the great falling away from the faith.

There is no more wonderful life that we could ever have on this earth than the true Christian life; but that life is a life of profound and daily sacrifice. There is simply no life more fulfilling than serving the King, but it is a life of serving nonetheless. This is not about what we want to do, or what we get, but what He wants us to do and how He benefits from our lives. We have been bought with a price and those who have been so redeemed no longer belong to themselves, but to Him.

For some, service to Him will require the ultimate sacrifice-martyrdom. As we get closer to the end of this age, this number will surely increase until it will likely be that a high percentage of all Christians will die for their faith. This has in fact been the case from the beginning. Throughout much of the world today, as soon as one commits their life to the Lord they know they will be killed. I have met Christians from the Middle East where anyone coming to Christ can expect to be killed very quickly. The elders in congregations there have often been Christians less than two years, but it is extraordinary how mature they can become in that time when they know every day may be their last!

Both the falling away and the increasing martyrdom that is coming does not mean the gospel will be losing, but that it will actually be prevailing. Like the cross, God's victories often look like defeats to those who do not have spiritual discernment. Just as the cross was the ultimate victory of the Lord, every time we lay down our lives for His purposes, it is a victory for us. If we have to make the ultimate sacrifice it will be the ultimate honor and victory. However, those who do not lay down their lives daily for Him are not likely to make that ultimate sacrifice when it is required.

Pseudo Christianity will not last long through the fire that is coming. Those who hold to the faith and emerge will be a new breed that are really of the original spiritual stock that beheld and carried the cross. They will be the most fearless people to walk the earth because they will not fear death, having already died to this world. They will also be the richest people on earth, having free access to the spiritual riches of the kingdom, having been proven trustworthy servants. These servants will have graduated to being friends of God, and from friends, to adopted children. They will be the kings in the age to come, but kings whose very nature is to serve their King, and those they are called to rule over. Authority in the kingdom of God is very different from fallen, human authority. Now is the time for us to build our lives on that kingdom, its ways and principles, so that our lives may be a demonstration of it.

© MorningStar Publications Inc. All rights reserved http://www.morningstarministries.org/

The Great Call
Rick Joyner

Jun 18, 2004
Last week we learned that because of the root of evil (the love of money), and the coming of the beast and his mark (an economic mark), understanding and living by Christian economics is going to become one of the important issues of our time.

Christians are called to be "in the world but not of it." As we progress toward the end of this age, and the beginning of the next, we must extract ourselves from the systems of this present evil age and build our lives on the kingdom of God that is coming. To serve the Lord as we are called in this time requires that each of us have the following basic economic plan for our life:

We live on the unlimited supply of God's kingdom, having an abundance for everything we are called to do.

2) We owe no man anything but to love them.

This is the simplicity of God's economic plan for our lives. But how do we get there from here? This is what we intend to lay out in a clear, step-by-step plan over the next few weeks. This week we will cover how not to take the mark of the beast.

There is a very simple answer to this nearly two thousand year old question. The way we will be sure of not taking the mark of the beast is to take God's mark. So, one of the ultimate questions that we could ask is, how do we take God's mark? The answer to this begins in Revelation 7:1-3:

After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind should blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads."

Such a seal is the mark of ownership. I believe that this is the time we are in right now. The Lord is restraining the "winds of the earth" until His bond-servants can be sealed. If we have God's mark of ownership, the devil will not be able to put his mark on us.

In this text we must note that it does not say that the Lord is sealing all Christians, or believers, but bond-servants. That the Lord is sealing His bond-servants is crucial to understanding how we will be free from taking the mark of the beast. Not all Christians are bond-servants. We are called to be, and may have an understanding of what it is, but in fact very few are true bond-servants of the Lord.

A bond-servant does not wake up each day and decide what he wants to do. His time is not his own—his time belongs to his Master. A bond-servant does not just decide what he wants to spend his money on. What he has is not his own, but belongs to his Master. The bond-servant is a steward who would not make any major purchases without the permission of his Master. To the bond-servant even his family is not his own. All that he has is his Master's, and he is always conscious that he is but a steward of anything entrusted to him.

The truth is that very few Christians are living as true bond-servants of Christ. We may claim to live our lives for the Lord, but in truth most Christians still live their lives for themselves instead of for the Lord. These make decisions based on their own concerns and wants rather than the interests of the Lord. It is not those who have a good understanding about being a bond-servant who are being sealed by God, but those who are true bond-servants. We are not who we are based on our knowledge, but rather on our life.

Being a true bond-servant of Christ is fundamental to the true Christian life. What we do with our time, money, possessions and so on, says a lot about who we really are, and what we really believe. If we really believe the gospel, we will not be so caught up in the temporary affairs of this present age, but will live for the eternal purposes of Christ. This will be reflected in all we do, and how we treat whatever we have been entrusted with. At the end of this age the pretenders will be separated from those who know Jesus as their Way, their Truth, and their Life.

Even if we have "known the Lord" for many years but have not lived as a true bond-servant, this can be changed in a day. It is not too late to repent and become a bond-servant. He is calling His bond-servants right now. Becoming His bond-servant will establish His mark of ownership on us that no one can erase.

Even though it may seem to be a paradox, those who are the Lord's slaves will be the freest human beings on the face of the earth. The reason His bond-servants will not take the mark of the beast is because they will not need to "buy, sell, or trade" according to the ways of this world. It is the master's responsibility to provide for the needs of his slaves, and there is no Master more capable of this than the Lord. Those who are His true bond-servants never need to fear that they will be lacking all they need. In fact, this miraculous economy of the kingdom of God, and the peace that rests on those who are a part of it, will be one of the great contrasts between those who are of the light, and those who have given themselves over to darkness.

In the coming weeks we will study these issues in more depth, making them very practical. If you are hearing the Master's call now to give yourself as His bond-servant, do not wait until next week. As we are told in II Corinthians 6:1-2, and Hebrews 3:7-4:3:

And working together with Him, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain— for He says, "At the acceptable time I listened to you, And on the day of salvation I helped you"; behold, now is "the acceptable time," behold, now is "the day of salvation"—

Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, "Today if you hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts as when they provoked Me, As in the day of trial in the wilderness, Where your fathers tried Me by testing Me, And saw My works for forty years. "Therefore I was angry with this generation, And said, 'They always go astray in their heart; And they did not know My ways'; As I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest.' " Take care, brethren, lest there should be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart, in falling away from the living God. But encourage one another day after day, as long as it is still called "Today," lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our assurance firm until the end; while it is said, "Today if you hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts, as when they provoked Me." For who provoked Him when they had heard? Indeed, did not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did He swear that they should not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient? And so we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief. Therefore, let us fear lest, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you should seem to have come short of it. For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also; but the word they heard did not profit them, because it was not united by faith in those who heard. For we who have believed enter that rest, just as He has said.

Again, there is no greater peace or no greater rest that we could ever experience than being the Lord's bond-servant. As we read in this text, the rest that we are called to live in as believers is even equated with the Promised Land. This is our goal, our destination. There is nothing on this earth more exciting, more compelling, or more fulfilling. Why would we ever waste our time building on that which is sure to pass away when we have such an eternal inheritance made available to us? To not seize this opportunity to serve the Lord, to be His bond-servant, will only insure our place in eternity with the greatest of fools. Those who are wise enough to hear His call and respond will be the most blessed for eternity. As the Lord Jesus said in Matthew 16:24-28:

"If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. "For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it. "For what will a man be profited, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and will then recompense every man according to his deeds. "Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who shall not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

Our War Is Not Over
Victoria Boyson

www.boyson.org

This year's elections have been such a battle, and many of you have exemplified faithfulness in prayer. Thank you!

These elections have created such an intensity in the spirit realm. I have never felt anything like it before. Many, it seems, have been intoxicated by the battle for the White House.

However, it is not a natural passion that drives them, but a supernatural one. What may appear on the surface like passionate opposition for a certain candidate is really a spirit of rebellion that is trying to take control of our nation, and the heart of this nation has been at the core of this battle.

The spirit of rebellion like we've never seen before has been unleashed on America in the form of political passion and it has created war-like atmosphere in the supernatural realm. Many, in the name of politics, have acted unscrupulously. It was not a political passion that drove them, but a demonic desire to rebel.

It has fed into our selfish desire to fight and debate...to be right! It has caused rifts between neighbors, churches and friends. Many feel that if someone doesn't share their political views it is okay to not like them. Honestly, it is like a civil war with no borderline between fighting factions.

Have you ever felt in yourself a strong desire at times to react in the flesh when you see a certain sign in a neighbor's yard or a bumper sticker on a car? Regardless of someone's political beliefs, God still loves them, and because He loves them, we must love them too.

Our political opinions do not give us a license to hate! We are still bound by the law of love that says, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (see Mt. 22:37-40).

Though the elections have ended, the battle for the heart of this nation has not. Our war is not over, friends. When the spirit of rebellion does not get its way, it becomes violent. So, now is not the time to lay our weapons down, but to continue on in diligent prayer for this nation. Now is the time to be on our guard; to be sober and prevailing in prayer.

We cannot afford to give in to our selfish and react in the flesh to the disdainful reactions of others. We, as the Body of Christ, must react with humility showing the love of Christ. Humility and love are our greatest weapons in the war for the soul of America. If we can humble ourselves when confronted and counter attack the enemy with love and blessings for our neighbor, we will see a great victory.

After the civil war ended our nation was left divided; it took generations to dispel the divisions that took root after that great victory. We must not allow our political views to keep us from showing the love of Christ. "Politics" is not a license to hate or act contemptuously towards others.

We must remember, "A soft answer turns away wrath," and I might add, so does a plate of cookies!

We must react in humility towards those of a differing political view. Humility demonstrated in forgiveness and love will win this nation over, one by one, heart by heart. Our soft answers will disarm the demon of rebellion and save our nation.

We must continue on in fervent prayer and come against the spirit of rebellion that has hit our nation so mercilessly. We must continue to seek God for His mercy to be shed abroad on our nation

We must seek God for a spirit of truth to intervene on behalf of our nation and drive back the lies of the spirit of rebellion; and to uncover the deception that has fueled the fire of this presidential campaign. Deception must be exposed and the lies of the enemy dispelled, for only then will we have a true victory!

Pray this with me:
Father, thank You for the leaders You have given us and I ask You to cover them with Your wings of protection. Give them wisdom and discernment, and love for all they lead. I ask You for a spirit of truth to dispel the lies of the enemy. I take authority over the spirit of rebellion and command it to leave our nation in Jesus' name!

Help me to exemplify Your heart to my neighbor no matter what their political views. Make me a bridge builder and a heart mender! Love my neighbor through me and use me to change the world!

God, please bless America! In Jesus' MIGHTY name, Amen!

Apostolic/Prophetic/Global
JOSHUA A/P NETWORK ELIST
Subscribe: Send a blank email to: JoshuaElist-subscribe@topica.com

Hidden but Not Forgotten
Victoria Boyson

www.boyson.org

He has you hidden for a purpose; you are His secret weapon!

"My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place" (Psalm 139:15).

Have you ever felt forgotten by God? Do you feel invisible? Does God seem to be blessing everyone except you? Do your expectations of God seem to meet with cold indifference from Him? If your answer is "yes," then rejoice, because you are at the edge of a miracle! You are on the verge of a breakthrough! The door to your destiny is about to swing open!

The most difficult time of any birth is the few moments right before you deliver your baby into the world. You are exhausted beyond what you can even endure . . . you cannot stand it anymore. You have pushed and pushed and have exhausted all your strength. You want to scream, "I can't do this . . . I can't!" BUT you must! It is at this moment that you must push the hardest and exert yourself the most. You are crying, "I can't," and everyone around you is yelling, "PUSH!"

Then, somewhere deep inside you, strength arises! You have a determination now, where a hopeless feeling used to dwell. Now you cry from the depths of your heart, "I can," and "I will!"

You are at the verge of a breakthrough and perhaps you are tired of believing, but only you can break through to your miracle. Only you can give birth to your destiny! Only you can fight through to your dream's fulfillment. Your God will give you His strength when you have none of your own. When you fall short, He will pick you up because, "He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak" (Isaiah 40:29).

Hidden Miracles
I have felt this way. I have felt forgotten by God. I wondered if the promise would ever be fulfilled - if God would ever open the door. I had been teetering on the edge of a breakthrough for so long that I began to doubt. "Would it ever really happen?" "Maybe God has changed His mind?" I was tired of waiting, of praying, of hoping in faith! I felt like a butterfly in a cocoon, hidden and forgotten. During that time I wrote this poem:

Someday, I'll Fly . . .

I've not been myself lately or for sometime for that matter.
I'm not sure who "myself" is anymore.
I feel like a caterpillar inside the cocoon.
I'm neither a butterfly nor a caterpillar anymore.
I'm not what I used to be nor am I what I'm going to be.
I cannot go back to what I was,

or what was familiar to me.
I can't rush forward and be what I have not yet become.
It's a miserable place to be.
It's much like a baby in the womb;
you have to wait it out and stay where you are.I hope every day will bring the end;
I know God is almost done working.
I rejoice because the end is near,
but still the pain increases.
It's become too easy to not be anything, just a cocoon.
I want to give up, but You won't let me.
I'm not the caterpillar I used to be and I'm not the butterfly I know I am becoming.
Becoming a butterfly is scary, painful and exhausting.
I guess I don't want to remain a nothing, so I'll endure the torturous path out of this cocoon.
And I know, someday, I'll fly!

Years ago we lived in a house with dozens of trees around it. In the fall the trees were covered with cocoons. We would walk by them all the time without taking much notice of them. A miracle was taking place before us and we paid little attention to it. But in the fall, our trees were covered with hundreds of beautiful butterflies. Our children would run through the trees and the butterflies would all take flight. It was a glorious sight to see hundreds of butterflies fill the air, sunlight reflecting off their wings.

Caterpillars are ugly little things, but butterflies are gorgeous. God loves to make something beautiful out of something ugly. God loves to take the ugly things of our past that Satan meant for our destruction, and turn them into a powerful weapon He can use for our construction. "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Death Gives Birth to Life
God takes you through "ugly" situations only to turn you into something beautiful. The cross looked like the end of a dream to the disciples. They expected their Messiah to come, overthrow the Romans and establish His kingdom on this earth. The death of Jesus looked like the end of all their dreams.

Christ tried to warn the disciples of His impending death, but when He spoke of dying, Peter declared, "This shall not happen." Christ knew that this must happen. Like a seed planted in the ground must cease to be a seed in order to become a plant, He knew that His life on earth as it had been must end or He could not bring forth the gift of eternal life for those who would believe in Him.

"In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me, because I am going to the Father" (John 16:17).

His death gave birth to life (see John 11:25)!

The "cocoon" that you are in right now is the "death" that will give birth to your destiny. The painful situation you are enduring right now could be the launching pad for your future.

If you feel as though you are invisible, rejoice, because you are. God has hidden you away to change you in secret, but soon He will pull you out like a secret weapon and show you off to the world.

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:16).

Your heavenly Father will declare, "Look at what My grace has done!" The world will praise Him because they can see what He has done in you. You are His trophy! His reward!

Some may argue then, that you have no right to be where God has placed you. But the voice of your accusers will not even reach your ears, because you have paid the price; you have endured and you have overcome.

And "You will soar on wings like eagles" (Isaiah 40:31) and yes you will fly!

This Could Be the Day

When the expected due date for each of my children neared, I would awaken each day with the expectancy that today could be the day that I would deliver this child. Each day I would think, "Today could be the day." I never thought to myself that it just could not happen today, because I knew my time was coming and that this day could be the day that I would give birth. As each day ended without seeing the birth of my baby, I would feel somewhat disappointed. But once again another morning would come and I would arise with hope from heaven, remembering that this day could be the day. And I was prepared to go at any time; I had my bags packed and gas in the car.

Each day that you serve God and wait on His timing for your destiny's fulfillment is one day closer to its birth. As you near your time of delivery, you feel in your spirit that the time is near. Perhaps today is the day! You look around you and see your Christian brothers and sisters receive the promises of God in their lives - you are happy for them. But when is it your turn? When will your destiny come forth in the way God promised it would? Each day we must prepare our hearts to believe that, "this could be the day He fulfills His promises to me," and then suddenly He does.

The longer you serve God, the deeper you will trust Him to bring the promise to pass for you. As you near the time of receiving the fulfillment of His call on your life, you can know that every day will bring you one day closer. Today could be the day you receive a great blessing from God. Today could hold the answer you have been waiting for.

Wait in faith through each day as a woman waiting to give birth. God does not bring you to the time of birth just to stop the whole process. He did not bring you this far to leave you now. He will not forget you! It will happen! And remember that "He who began a good work in you will be faithful to complete it" (Philippians 1:6).

"God is not a man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act?" (Numbers 23:19).

If He's promised it, He will do it!

Say this with me:

God will do what He has promised. He has not forgotten me, for I am constantly in His thoughts. God is waiting to fulfill His Word through me. It will happen! This could be the day! God cannot lie; He will not change His mind. I choose to believe what God has told me and not the lies of fear and doubt.

Oscar Winning Quality

Priscilla van Sutphin

Words for some of the Lands of the Earth
September 5th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

There are few things that capture the eyes of Americans more than the Oscars, and those that win them. But now I am doing something that will receive oscar winning attention. People have paid more attention to movies and TV than to Me. Yet I created you in MY image as an object of MY love ! Now I will capture your attention. You will see with your own eyes the power of the Living GOD as I exercise MY will over every area, over every system in the earth.

I told you the airwaves would begin to be Mine this year. I am gaining attention now with startling demonstrations of My power. And in the midst of the turmoil and juxtapostioning going on for power in government, will I make MY NAME KNOWN among the peoples of AMERICA !

America you have turned your head like a harlot towards a young man, after entertainment. Now you will see what is really important ! I will bring down
ALL you have idolized. I will exercise the right of MY jealousy for you. You will know there is a God in heaven and you who are humble will turn to Me.

Africa, you have seen great changes and great agony, and I will turn you're the heads of leaders to My will. They will recognize that the gods they serve will no longer be tolerated in My presence. I will do mighty miracles through those who believe for I have seen your tears and have seen the way you worship ME. I will increase that worship and the Spirit of travail that will birth great salvations and escapes from death. BELIEVE that I will heal you of your wounds and oppression as you surrender to My love. There will be many more trials, but the glory of the latter temple will outshine the glory of the former, and you will be carried higher in the heavenly realms in these times to understand the higher principles of My kingdom. I will raise up MIGHTY WARRIORS and DELIVERERS through your sons and daughters that will shock many into submission. So come you priest, come you prophets and weep between the porch and the altar, weep great tears, for I love you and long to heal your land. I will be enthroned among the nations !

Australia, you are known as the land down under. You are also known for your harlotry, your prostitution, your gambling and stealing. But I have a remnant Bride within your midst and she will shine like the stars of the heavens in the midst of you. You will be humbled in not many days time so that you can see also the value of loving one another and not abusing one another. What I value will become what you value in the days ahead and there will be many shooting stars that come out of your nation to bless the nations and sow seeds of love and deliverance and healing.

New Zealand, My heart for you is aching. I have given you many signs and made clear My power and ability. I have graced you with many blessings, and even as the storms have covered the South Island with snow, I will blanket you with My glory. For within your gates I have found many worthy warriors, and though there is much corruption, there will be a PURGING that will bring forth LIFE out of death. And there will be commensurate signs and wonders, miracles and healings that will startle the lost. Your news will no longer be haughty in their reporting as I do My mighty works within. I am stirring up your faith, and I will release you from the grip of poverty as you turn to worship ME. Sow to the nations, sow to the poor, and I will cut off the head of poverty and the invasion from within. And I will loose you from the ancient spirits that have tried to strangle you.

England, how you have struggled and I have seen the ancient paths, and all the struggles from within. I have also seen the many that gave their lives on foreign fields not from domination, but from a heart to bring the gospel to the nations. And I will honor the blood of the martyrs and I will heal the old wounds and breeches of integrity. I will restore worship in your streets, and there will be a fresh wave of evangelists to the world from your shores. There will be more martyrdom, but the glory of this wave will outweigh any fears, where you have sown tyranny in the past, you will now sow LOVE.

South America and Central America, though you have been ravaged by political corruption, I also have held my hand for a time, but in the days ensuing you will see a great revival spread throughout all Spanish speaking nations of the earth. There will also be an enjoining of ministries of the earth with one another so that many of you will go to the nations and be instrumental in demonstrating the love of GOD to those who do not know how to worship ME. I have given you many gifts and I will exalt My name in you from top to bottom and you will see and behold many mighty miracles.

Oh Canada, how I have longed to hold you in my arms but you would not !
But there will be treachery and changes that will catapult you into MY ARMS of love and you will know how much I love you. Watch your borders and pray My beloveds, fast and pray as the earth groans. Holy Spirit groanings will overtake you and those who love me will shine like the stars in the heavens. The earth will be filled with the GLORY of the LORD. And you will see with your eyes the reward of your prayers and abundant sowing in the nations, for you have taken the gospel all over the earth and you will a great reward.

India, my daughter, prepare for war ! Prepare for war within your gates. Put on the armor of God My precious ones. I will cause you to feed many nations with the wisdom I give you through suffering and hardship. Do not think yourself less because of your physical poverty. For I have shown you My grace and humility and for those who will walk in My humility, I will exalt you and catapult you into divine encounters that will take you higher in heavenly realms. You will see great deliverances from death within the tumult of catastrophe and war within.

Cuba, My precious ones who live under oppression, hunger and deprivation are about to see a great resurgence of FAITH within your borders ! The old regime will die out and a new spark of faith will ignite within your borders and many ministries will come to breathe more life into your hearts and I will restore all the locust has eaten. I will resuscitate you and you will see salvation and deliverance soon.

Haiti, even as the floods of water have overtaken you, will I overtake you and bring great salvation from the hand of the enemy within. I will change the tide of oppression that has encompassed you and the impoverished will become greatly RICH in ME ! Ministries there will take on new humility and great grace will overtake you. I will root out the witchcraft and oppression of the enemy as you establish 24 hour worship within your gates.

France, I have seen the agony and the years of the oppression from the vain philosophies of men, and I have seen the corruption and disdain for Me in many. But again, in you I have seen many who love Me with all their hearts and what you thought would overtake you will NOT. For I will bring it down and you will have a resurgence of prayer and worship that will usher in revival more than you’ve seen in centuries. You are RICH in suffering in the hands of vain leaders, but I remember your suffering and I will RESTORE to you a wealth of many generations that suffered. I will redeem your youth and bring them to other nations to sow seeds of love and humility. Where you have been prideful like the Americans, you will become humble and walk in great GRACE. Amidst the great swell of antichrist activities you will blossom and shine as diamonds among onyx stones.

RUSSIA, I have set my eyes upon you and within you will I stir up the seeds of the martyred and you will now see great changes catapulting you into AWAKENING. I will break down the denominational hatred and you will see unity in love for ME. Do not look at how things seem, but see them with MY eyes. For you are precious to Me, and the suffering you have endured is precious to Me. I will heal you of your many wounds and I will RESTORE spiritual wealth that will be the envy of the earth ! I love you My dancing Bride and I will RESTORE. I WILL RESTORE. I will grant to those who want this healing the wealth of the wicked and there will be a great turn around, as you establish prayer and worship/healing centers in cities . Take the music into the streets and dance My bride ! DANCE !

Japan, You are about to experience shakings like never before, but in the shaking I will shake OFF what has encumbered you from giving your all to ME, the LIVING GOD ! You will shine like the sun that your flag portrays. You truly will be the land of the RISING SON ! I love you and I will uncover all that has been hidden of the treasures within you . I will give you REST in ME.

Syria, did you think you could hide from ME, the LIVING ONE. The ONE who walked among you when you were young and foolish ? Do you think you can hide your plans ? I will uncover your skirts and you will see the TRUTH of WHO I AM. I will remove from you the seeds of corruption and murder, and violence until you will again, after some time, fall prey to another corrupt leader. But in the time of redemption within your walls, will I do mighty works of healing and miracles, so there will be no excuse for delusion and deception. You will know Me, and even as you have given yourself to hidden deeds of darkness, there will be young ones who come forth in glory, in the opposite spirit, to invade other nations with the true WORD of GOD.

TURKEY, your origins were not obscured from My view and I am doing a work in you that will restore ancient foundations and TRUTH. Martyrdom will increase, but the glory of My presence will overtake you and you will once again RETURN TO ME. And the Kurds within your borders will be also saved and returned to sovereignty for their own nation in days ahead, and they too will KNOW ME…and will no longer be blinded to the lies of the enemy and his counterfeits. Miracles, miracles, miracles are coming to you !

Archaeological finds will soon unearth much TRUTH to support MY people in the earth, and there will be shakings within Islam that will lead to openness within their nations to the gospel.

KEEP PRAYING My people for it IS accomplishing much in the nations. I AM REESTABLISHING THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID. I AM CALLING TO YOU TO RESTORE WORSHIP. RESTORE FREEDOM IN WORSHIP ! WORSHIP ME and I will fight FOR you !

The Smell of Roses
Priscilla van Sutphin

Sept 3rd, 2004

“I am the Rose of Sharon and the bright and shining Morningstar !
I am a refuge in times of trouble and the only ONE Who knows you inside and out ! I am the Lover of your soul, and I am the JEALOUS ONE.
I am jealous for your love. I have created man with an ability and desire to seek after Me. I have put eternity in the hearts of men.
There is no excuse for not seeking Me. All creation groans in this hour.

Rom 8:21-23 NKJV
For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. 23 Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

Have you not known ? Have you not heard ? I AM THE ONE WHO SITS ABOVE THE HEAVENS. Heaven is My throne and earth is My footstool.
Where is the house you will build for Me ? And where is the place of My rest ?

Isa 66:1-2 NKJV True Worship and False
Thus says the LORD: "Heaven is My throne, And earth is My footstool. Where is the house that you will build Me? And where is the place of My rest? 2 For all those things My hand has made, And all those things exist, "Says the LORD." But on this one will I look: On him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, And who trembles at My word. {also acts 7:49}

I am building within you a habitation fit for a King !
I am building within you a living conduit for My love !
I am bringing you forth as gold. I am going to prosper you. But the prosperity I have in mind is not always the way man sees it. My prosperity is to be made WHOLE. My prosperity is to be made a fit temple for the Holy Spirit, and His power !

2 Cor 5:1-5 NKJV Assurance of the Resurrection
For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, 3 if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. 4 For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

I am preparing a fit BRIDE. She will not be emaciated and weak. She will be strong in the power of My might, and she will be prepared for the battle ahead. But if she is still inhabited by external forces of darkness, and internal resistance of emotional handicaps, then how can she be fit you might ask ? I am coming to remedy all that. For I will destroy the work of the destroyer. I will ready My bride. It will not be by might, nor by power of your own making. It will be by GRACE. For by grace you were saved, and that not of your own works.

Eph 2:8-10 NKJV
8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9 not of works, lest anyone should boast. 10 For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

2 Cor 5:20-21 NKJV For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

2 Cor 5:21 AMP For our sake He made Christ [virtually] to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become [endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of] the righteousness of God [what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness].

I am working through many tests and trials, through much patience and longsuffering to make a Bride that will walk along side of ME – A Bride who will follow My lead. A Bride who will listen to the call of her Lover – A Bride who will respect the wishes of her husband, and who will only have Him in her thoughts, - Not the thoughts of other lovers. The things of this world cannot compare. I do not want an adulterous bride. As I come and breathe life into My Bride and execute My great GRACE, I will loose many signs including many marriages that will reflect the close relationship that I as Bridegroom have with My Bride. Just as newlyweds only have eyes for each other, so will My Bride only long for doing what I want. So I am bringing a death to self in her that will allow Me rulership in your lives. I AM ADONAI…Your LORD and MASTER am I not ? But a Master is in charge. A Master commands respect and honor, and when a master says go, that one who is owned will go. When a master says STOP ! – That person will stop. That is the kind of obedience that will be birthed in My Bride. She will not do what she thinks is best, but will do what I THINK IS BEST. There will be no more independence apart from Me, only dependence on My will, My thoughts, My ways.

Come My Bride and let me love you ! Let me perfume you with the scent of ROSES, with myrrh and frankincense, with cinnamon and cassia. I am pouring into you the essence of who I AM, that you will smell like ME. You will walk, talk and think like ME. You WILL WALK IN THE MIND OF CHRIST. You will walk in the SPIRIT and not according to the flesh.

Song 3:5-11 NKJV
The Coming of Solomon { symbolic of Christ }
THE SHULAMITE
6 Who is this coming out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, With all the merchant's fragrant powders? 7 Behold, it is Solomon's couch,

With sixty valiant men around it, Of the valiant of Israel. 8 They all hold swords, Being expert in war. Every man has his sword on his thigh because of fear in the night.
9 Of the wood of Lebanon Solomon the King Made himself a palanquin: 10 He made its pillars of silver, Its support of gold, Its seat of purple, Its interior paved with love By the daughters of Jerusalem. 11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, And see King Solomon with the crown With which his mother crowned him On the day of his wedding, The day of the gladness of his heart.

Priscilla van Sutphin
www.upstreamca.org

Transformations
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Aug 31st, 2004 2:42 am

Do you believe in miracles ? Do you believe in transformation of your soul ?
Do you believe that I am still working in those you see every day that have not committed their lives to Me yet ?
Do you realize that unbelief alters your prayer life ?
When you don't believe I'll do anything, then you don' t pray. For then you think, what's the use, He won't do anything anyhow….or you'll be led to believe that the person can't change. That is because the mind is always searching for answers, and explanations, for understanding.
My Spirit is the Source of all understanding and Wisdom that you need.
If you will bring those persons to ME and lay your concerns for them down at My feet, then I can show you how to pray. I can show you the effectual way to pray. I can show you what to fast against.

And I promise you that if you pray, I will DO something. When you don 't see it right away, doesn't mean I am not working behind the scenes and changing things. You know not the thoughts of man like I do. So just trust Me, that I am transforming that one you have prayed for and begin THANKING ME for the work I am doing on their behalf. Demonstrate your FAITH by thanking Me for that thing you've asked for. For I AM working and I am changing, and I am answering your prayers. If you will have patience, then you will see the fruit of those prayers.

It says in My Word, that if any man be in Christ, he is a new creation.
In the days ahead that will really mean to you total TRANSFORMATION.
For I am escalating again My work in the lost as you pray for them. And you will see many changes and transformations that will astound the average person. Many people even in My church have a far greater faith in their unbelief than in MY ability to transform lives ! What I am about to do in the lives of the youth will totally astound the world. It will astound the church, and it will CHANGE THE CHURCH. For they are a RADICAL generation. And they will be RADICALLY transformed to reflect My glory and they will RADICALLY CONFRONT the established church with any hypocrisy. So guard your attitudes of heart My church ! For this generation will confront all that is pretense and a lie. They will want UNDERSTANDING for all that is in the Word. And they will want an accounting for all that is not seen done in My church.

This will lead to difficult confrontations. So I am telling you to take up a mantle of humility and TRUTH. Do not rear your back in pride when you are confronted with your own lies and pretense. Humble yourself and you will be saved. For if you only love those who love you, then how are you any better than the Pharisees ? Take My yoke upon you and learn of ME, for I am HUMBLE and lowly of heart. I will destroy all TRADITIONS of MEN that are interfering with My ruling within My church. And I will destroy all that opposes My will. It is a new day, and a time to look to Me for all you need. There is a way that seems right unto a man but it's way leads to death. Look to ME for how to do things and I will give the wisdom and understanding you need.

Prov 14:12 NKJV There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death.

Matt 23:14 NKJV Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.

Roots
Priscilla van Sutphin

Sept 4th, 2004 1:11 am

Jer 17:7-8 NKJV "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose hope is the LORD. 8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters,Which spreads out its roots by the river, and will not fear when heat comes; But its leaf will be green, and will not be anxious in the year of drought, nor will cease from yielding fruit.

Ezek 31:7 NKJV 'Thus it was beautiful in greatness and in the length of its branches, because its roots reached to abundant waters.

Job 18:16-18 NKJV [speaking of the wicked]
16 His roots are dried out below, And his branch withers above. 17 The memory of him perishes from the earth, And he has no name among the renowned. 18 He is driven from light into darkness, And chased out of the world.

See also: Job 8:13-18 NKJV ,Job 28:9-10 NKJV

Jude 10-13 NKJV But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.
12 Apostates Depraved and Doomed - These are spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried about by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots; 13 raging waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

The Lord spoke " Roots" and said:
" I am exposing the roots in your lives. Even as a gardener sees the lack of fruit on the tree and digs around in the roots to see what is wrong, in order to diagnose and treat the lack of fruitfulness, I, your Divine Gardener, am looking at the roots in your lives. I am exposing, and I am fertilizing. I am replanting, and I am debugging !

I am showing YOU the roots in your lives, that you may be convicted of your need for more of ME. That you would cry out to Me to heal and to deliver you. For I AM a FAITHFUL FATHER. I check on the growth of my saplings and young trees, and even my older ones to see if they are healthy and growing. I am faithful even when you are not faithful. I AM able to see the roots even though they may be covered in soil or sand. I KNOW what as the root of every area of unfaithfulness in your life. I KNOW the sins, I KNOW the lack, I KNOW the ROOTS OF PAIN. And I will excavate and fertilize and administer medicinal treatments, and debug until MY Son's BRIDE is made whole and dressed in white linen.

Are you willing to look at your roots ? Are you willing to see the Doctor ?
Are you willing to RECEIVE treatment ?
What is in the natural reflects the spiritual.
You would not leave a gaping wound open without seeing a doctor. Nor would you allow a festering carbuncle to go unchecked. Yet many still have carbuncles spiritually, hidden underneath the surface in your souls that need surgery and to have the infection drawn out !

IF YOU DON"T TAKE TIME TO COME AND SEE YOUR DIVINE DOCTOR, is that not NEGLECT ?

You must care enough about yourself, and your relationship to ME, to come and allow me to do this surgery. For the lives of many are at stake. I have assignments for all of you in this world. SOME 1, some 10, some 50, some 100, some 1000, some 10,000 and many more. EACH role is valuable.

DO NOT LOOK AT THE PLATE OF THE ONE NEXT TO YOU AND SAY I WANT WHAT'S ON THEIR PLATE. BUT ASK ME FOR WHAT YOU ARE TO DO ! ASK ME WHAT YOUR ROLE IS ? AND THEN LET ME TOUCH YOU AND HEAL YOU SO THAT WHAT IS ROOTED IN FEAR AND PAIN, CAN BE REMOVED. WHAT IS ROOTED IN DEFENSIVE PRIDE AND A NEED TO HAVE ATTENTION FROM OTHERS, AND SELF CAN BE REMOVED. IT MUST BE REMOVED. I WILL REMOVE IT IF YOU ASK.
WHATEVER YOU ASK IN MY NAME, BELIEVING, IT WILL BE DONE FOR YOU !

Your roots will grow deep in the soil of My love and knowledge of My attributes, and faithfulness, and you will be like trees planted by the waters of the river of life, whose leaves never wither and whose fruit never fails.
All it takes is for you to humble yourselves and ADMIT what is needed to ME…And I will see to what is needed ! I DO NOT DENY THOSE WHOSE LOVE is for ME. I AM a loving Father, and I will do all that is necessary to heal My sons and daughters. Trust ME to deal with you tenderly as you humble yourselves. But if you wait and procrastinate, the process will be more painful. I assure you, I have your best interests at heart like a GOOD FATHER WOULD ! I LOVE YOU and ADORE you just like a good father.
I love to see you enjoying life and celebrating life and love. I am with you in all you do. BE ASSURED that I LOVE YOU and that you are MY PRECIOUS TREASURE. I am JEALOUS for you !"

Abba

Hos 14:5-8
Mark 11:20-24
Luke 17:6-7

Ezek 17 NKJV The Eagles and the Vine
And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel, 3 and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "A great eagle with large wings and long pinions, full of feathers of various colors, came to Lebanon and took from the cedar the highest branch. 4 He cropped off its topmost young twig and carried it to a land of trade; He set it in a city of merchants. 5 Then he took some of the seed of the land And planted it in a fertile field; He placed it by abundant waters and set it like a willow tree. 6 And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature; Its branches turned toward him, but its roots were under it. So it became a vine, brought forth branches, and put forth shoots.

7 "But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers; and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and stretched its branches toward him, from the garden terrace where it had been planted, that he might water it. 8 It was planted in good soil by many waters, to bring forth branches, bear fruit, and become a majestic vine."'
9 "Say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots, cut off its fruit, and leave it to wither? All of its spring leaves will wither, and no great power or many people Will be needed to pluck it up by its roots. 10 Behold, it is planted, will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the garden terrace where it grew."'"
11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 "Say now to the rebellious house: 'Do you not know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'Indeed the king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and took its king and princes, and led them with him to Babylon. 13 And he took the king's offspring, made a covenant with him, and put him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land, 14 that the kingdom might be brought low and not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15 But he rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape?
Can he break a covenant and still be delivered?

16 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke — with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. 17 Nor will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company do anything in the war, when they heap up a siege mound and build a wall to cut off many persons. 18 Since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and in fact gave his hand and still did all these things, he shall not escape.'"

19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely My oath which he despised, and My covenant which he broke, I will recompense on his own head. 20 I will spread My net over him, and he shall be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and try him there for the treason which he committed against Me. 21 All his fugitives with all his troops shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken."

22 Israel Exalted at Last (cf. Ezek 31:1-9)
Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will take also one of the highest branches of the high cedar and set it out. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it on a high and prominent mountain. 23 On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. Under it will dwell birds of every sort; in the shadow of its branches they will dwell. 24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree and exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree and made the dry tree flourish; I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it."

Obsessed With Sanctuary

Mary Lindow

Mar 25, 2004

WHAT IS THIS OBSESSION THAT IS BEGINNING TO DRIVE PEOPLE AWAY FROM RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES AND STRUCTURAL PROGRAMMING?

Is it fatigue from fleshly efforts? Is it weariness with well doing?

Or!

Is it the beginning of a matter?

THE AWAKENING OF THE NEED FOR SANCTUARY.

Sanctuary. A place of refuge, a safe harbor. Asylum, shelter, a place of safety. A holy place set aside for worship and rest.

THE LORD IS ALLOWING MAN TO HAVE THE JOY AND SHOCK OF COMING TO THE END OF HIS MEANS OF PRODDING AND PRODUCING UNTIL HE FALLS INTO A HEAP AT THE FEET OF THE ONE WHO HAS THE KEY TO THE PLACE OF HOPE AND REST!

He. The King of tranquility and Divine Purpose has the place of Sanctuary carved out in a definite place.

THE PLACE OF WORSHIP.

But the time is coming--it has, in fact, come--when what you're called will not matter and where you go to worship will not matter.

"It's who you are and the way you live that count before God. Your worship must engage your spirit in the pursuit of truth. That's the kind of people the Father is out looking for: those who are simply and honestly themselves before him in their worship. God is sheer being itself--Spirit. Those who worship him must do it out of their very being, their spirits, their true selves, in adoration." John: 23-24

THE CATALYST OF APOSTOLIC ORIGINS BEGAN WITH A "PLACE" OF SANCTUARY.

Those waiting for the Move of the Spirit of God in an upper room. Hiding from the world and its pressures and threats! Waiting, worshiping, asking the heart questions of, "why are we here? What are we waiting for? Who is this all about?"

We are Again in the same place.

AND FINALLY…AGAIN… WE ARE SIMPLY RESTING IN THE KNOWLEDGE THAT THE LORD HAS BROUGHT US TO END OF THE OLD WINE SKIN OF THE PAST.

He is preparing the way of His Power with a place of personal introspection and heart searching until we see that we must be truthful in our worship of Him. We must come into agreement with His Spirit and the way that He desires to move among those who know Him and…among those who do not.

Old things are passing away.

Behold. He does a new thing.

AS WE BECOME OBSESSED WITH THE IDEA OF NOTHING TO PERFORM, nothing to take to task, nothing to self generate…but only to "marinate" and saturate in, we see the promises He has made begin to be realized.

SO OFTEN AS OF LATE, IN PLACES OF MEETING AND GATHERING OF HUNGRY SAINTS, THE HOLY HUSH OF HEAVEN HAS FALLEN with such sweetness and simplicity. All the fancy trappings of "noisy worship strategy" pale compared to this heavy rich perfumed presence that descends on those who will wait upon the Lord…and grow stronger.

HEAVEN LONGS TO KISS THE EARTH AGAIN. The King of Heaven is descending with an unexplainable and definite wave of stillness. It is His manifested Presence.

In His Presence, His sanctuary, is fullness, completion, needs met, and joy.
COME. LET US BE MAGNIFICENTLY OBSESSED WITH HIM.

SELF IS THE BLURRED VEIL THAT HIDES THE FACE OF GOD FROM US.
IT CAN BE REMOVED ONLY IN SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCE, NEVER BY SIMPLE INSTRUCTION.
-- A. W. Tozer

Duplication and re-transmission of this writing is welcomed provided that complete source and website information for Mary Lindow is included. Thank You Copyright © 2004 " THE MESSENGER " ~ Mary Lindow www.marylindow.homestead.com

Open Wide Your Mouth

Chimezie Onyebilanma

Chim'sWRITE
4th May 2004

"I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt. "Open wide your mouth and I will fill it".
Psalm 81:10

I have wondered why Peter asked Jesus to invite him to walk to him on the water. And why the Lord obliged him. Why would Peter who was just only gathering himself from the storm that hit their boat, dare to now step into the stormy water? I think the answer is that after he saw where Jesus was, he wanted to be there too. He throw away fear and dared to break through the walls of limitation.

And of course Jesus obliged him because the Lord loves it when we dare to stretch out of our comfort zone to lay hold of all he has shown us he has for us. He said "Open wide your mouth and I will fill it".

Too many of us are content to go on living less than God's will for our lives. It was not only Peter that caught a glimpse of Jesus walking on the water and heard him say "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid". All the others in the boat received that same revelation. But Peter was the only one that dared to ask to come to where Jesus is.

Is it impossible to come to where Jesus is today? Is our modern-day watered-down version of Christianity truly all that the Lord has to offer? Why is it that we have so much biblical insights today but very little manifestation of these truths in our daily lives? Why are we so content to live as weaklings even though we declare that the Kingdom of God has come?

The Bible says, "You do not have because you do not ask". Leonard Ravenhill once wrote that the reason we do not have revival is because we are content to live without it. Yet God loves it when we dare to ask of him. When we dare to be bold in prayers. We cannot ask God for too much, if we ask for what he has shown us. God longs for his kingdom to come in every area of our lives. But we must ask for it and dare to step out to lay hold on it, even it means stepping out on water.

I believe we are in the days when we cannot continue to play church. God is planting a hunger in many hearts for more of Jesus. More of his purity, more of his beauty, more of his love and compassion, and more of his power. If you listen, you will hear the Spirit saying "Open wide your mouth and I will fill it". Complacency, fear, and apathy seeks to limit us. But God is looking for men and women that would be willing to spend time with him to catch a revelation of him and who will go on to boldly step out in preserving prayers to see the manifestation of that revelation of Jesus in their lives.

Comments? Questions? etc. If these messages have been helpful or unclear it would encourage us to hear from you, please write to caprotogo@laposte.tg

PLEASE are you born again? It is not enough to believe in the existence of God, to go to church, or be interested in spiritual things. Jesus said "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). Jesus died to deliver you from sin so that you can come to God. (John 3:16) If you ask him to forgive you and give you a new heart he will. (Acts 2:38; Romans 10:9-11).Try it. I'd love to hear from you @ caprotogo@laposte.tg Chim'sWRITE are regular articles on Christian living and cross-cultural missions from Chimezie Onyebilanma a cross-cultural missionary with Calvary Ministries (CAPRO) in Togo. CAPRO is an indigenous African non-denominational cross-cultural mission agency involved in reaching the remaining unreached peoples in 15 countries of Africa as of present. CAPRO is involved in missions mobilization, training, and research as well as church-planting and mercy ministries (literacy, rural development, primary health-care, relief and rehabilitation). CAPRO is a faith mission, both the ministry and its missionaries depend on God's provision through the giving of his people. None of its missionaries are salaried. All gifts are used as designated.

Surface Address: Calvary Ministries (CAPRO),Togo. B.P. 14223, Lome. Tel: (228) 221 33 78 or (228) 924 20 75

To learn more about the cross-cultural missionary work of CAPRO send email to caprotogo@laposte.tg
with "information on CAPRO" in the subject column or visit www.capromissions.org

Do you know that your monthly gifts to support a missionary can make a big difference? To learn more about supporting missionaries please visit www.adopt-a-missionary.org or enquire at caprotogo@laposte.tg
To subscribe to Chim'sWRITE please send a blank email to ChimWRITE-subscribe@yahoogroups.com

COPYRIGHT -- It is required that permission be obtained from caprotogo@laposte.tg before these materials can be re-published on a website or in hard copy. However permission is granted to freely redistribute these materials via email, provided that such redistribution acknowledges the source and includes this phrase: "For a free subscription to Chimezie Onyebilanma's weekly Chim'sWRITE, send a blank email to <ChimWRITE-subscribe@yahoogroups.com >".

Obtaining Your Inheritance, Manifest Sons

Robert I Holmes

Romans chapter eight gives us a wonderful view into the mind of God, and covers the subjects of sonship, inheritance and maturity. It covers the process, the results and the roads that lead away from sonship. It outlines for us the fields and farms of our inheritance too.

Jesus leads us through

Paul starts his thoughts by looking at Jesus - our safe harbour from condemnation, the harbinger of the law of the Spirit of life setting us free from the law of sin and death (Rom. 8:1,2). The One clothed in our own flesh, walking just as we do, and offered as a sacrifice for sin, to fulfil the law. That law is not only fulfilled for us, it is fulfilled in us - who walk according to the Spirit (vs 4).

The first port of call for inheritance is "a mind set on the Spirit" which results in life and peace flooding our souls (vs 6). The second portion is that our "spirit is alive because of righteousness" (vs 10). Thirdly, "The Spirit will also give life to your mortal bodies" (vs 11). Living life by the Spirit is the key here. That's good news for those of us in the later half of our earthly lives. more life for your body!

"All who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons (huios) of God". It is possible to have the Spirit and not be a son, because you are not being led by Him. If you live life according to the desires of your flesh, you are not a son, but a slave to sin (vs 12,13). It is possible to have the Spirit, heal the sick, raise the dead and go to hell (Matt. 7:21,22). If we have the Spirit, we must set our mind on the Spirit and be led by the Spirit. Then we demonstrate that we are His children.

"You have not received a spirit of slavery again to fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption (huiothesia) as sons" (vs 15). Yes you have passed through the adoption ceremony, and your spirit cries "Abba father". The Spirit testifies within you, that you are a child of God. "And if children, heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ" (vs 17a). Now that is good news.

Now for the kicker.

Everything has been fine up to this point, but now Paul takes a dramatic turn. He says "if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him" (vs 17b). The Son suffered. It was his path to glory. Death is the path to resurrection. Pain is the pavement to power. Suffering is the road to glory. There's no testimony without the test and the moan!

"The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed (apokalupto) in us" (vs 18). That word revealed is to uncover, to reveal, to unveil. It is a past or present tense. That glory is inside of you, and growing. It is for now, it is for the present time - not for heaven.

"Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled faces, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor 3:17,18 NKJV). The NIV says into his likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord.

This glory that Paul speaks of is not some transcendent glory, some heavenly thing seen only by the Spirit. It is not the glory of an angel, or the glory of a spiritual body. This is a tangible glory, prepared for sons, lead by the Spirit! But it is unveiled, revealed, uncovered by suffering.

Creation is waiting. for you!

"The anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for the revealing (apokalupto) of the sons (huios) of God" (vs 19). Now pause a moment and ask yourself what creation is. Everything that waits for the mature sons of God, revealed in their moment of suffering.

Consider the creation: the heavens and the earth, light and darkness, the waters above and beneath, the seas and the land, plants and seeds and fruit, the stars and the moon, the fish and the birds, the animals and insects and then God made man. Last of all and the crowing glory of the created order.

Consider the commands man was given. "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and rule over it" (Gen. 1:28). A five fold calling: to flourish, to expand, to fill, to subjugate and to have dominion.

Consider the spheres of labour man was given: 1. God took man and gave him a garden to cultivate and to keep (Gen. 2:15) 2. God brought every creature to man, to be named by him (Gen. 2:19) 3. God gave man a partner, a wife (Gen. 2:24) 4. God gave them power to have a family (Gen. 4:1)

Creation is waiting for every son of God to engage in these spheres of labour. The place you will express your portion of the five fold calling is in creation. Your marriage, your family, the things over which you have domino (the power to name) and our sphere of work.

The result of sin

"Creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it, in the hope that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the glorious freedom of the glory of the children of God" (Rom. 8:20,21). Now that is amazing. Man sinned, man fell and so creation was subjected to the same futility not of its own will. But because God wanted creation to be set free by his children!

That glorious freedom is won, is pressed out through work - through suffering. How perfectly ordinary. After the fall, God told the woman "you shall suffer pain through child bearing, and you shall live at enmity with the snake, and your husband will rule over you". To the man he said, "You shall suffer pain as you work the land and it will resist you. By the sweat of your brow you shall work it". We suffer, and creation suffers with us. "Creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now. And we ourselves groan within ourselves" (vs 22,23a).

On into His will

The good news is that in the end "God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose" (vs 28). No matter where we find ourselves, not matter what situation God can work it out for his children - those lead by the Spirit.

Daniel stands for us as a powerful testimony. Taken from Jerusalem into Babylon; taught the ways of Chaldean witchcraft, reared among sorcerers and so called wise men; moving through the courts of a satanic kingdom; surrounded by evil on every side. What do we find the Lord rewarding him with? Lordship over such a kingdom, under a high king who eventually comes to believe in the God in Israel, and who saves the aforementioned evil sorcerers and wise men through his intervention (Dan. 2:18).

Joseph likewise entered slavery, in order to bring salvation and rescue not only to his Hebrew family, but also the entire nation of Egypt: debauched, demon worshiping, idol loving Egypt. The world, in all its "glory" was saved with the wisdom of God expressed through Joseph. This is the wisdom God calls us to be part of - the world on Monday morning, the business community, the fast paced information hungry technologically possessed world we live in. That is our possession and His inheritance!

Bibliography Thwaites, James. "The Church beyond the congregation". Paternoster Press, 2001.

Open Your Tablecloth

Tom White

Voice of the Martyrs

I was born before central air conditioning, clothes dryers, garage door openers and electronic games. While my mother was hanging clothes on the backyard line and visiting across the fence, we learned that a neighbor was sick. Playing outside in the evening with the kids on the block, we ran in and out of our little shingle house on Elm Street like cowboys and Indians. We also went into other kitchens for a drink of water.

Once my mother invited the door-to-door knife grinder inside for bread and gravy. My little brother and I sat amazed, watching him wipe the gravy off his heard. We kept an evangelist in our home during a snowstorm. A neighbor lady two doors clown would ask my mother questions about God. At the dining table, mother would get out her Bible and show her the Scriptures.

My wife Ofelia is from Costa Rica, where the kitchen is a meeting place for many who drop by for prayer and tortillas or at least for coffee. The gospel is exploding in Latin America, Africa, Asia, among the neighbors. In Philip Jenkins' book, The Next Christendom: The Coming of Global Christianity, he describes this explosion and how North America is getting left behind. Do Christians in America think that we do not need each other anymore? Someone once said, "Our greatest need is that we have no need."

The Pilgrims who managed to survive the first winter were forced to depend upon each other, or they died. Is this a spiritual principle for us today? What will force Christians today to depend on each other for strength as they reach out with a common Good Samaritan/gospel objective?

Here at The Voice of the Martyrs, we are thankful for the opportunities we have to be a neighbor to the persecuted church. We are thankful for our faithful readers who have supported his work, some for more than 30

Last week we were neighbors with Iranian Christians. This was my fifth time to work face to face with them. We were with more than a dozen Iranian house-church leaders, all from Muslim backgrounds. The joy overflowed. One young woman described how she would sit on the bus on the way home from work and start simple conversations. (All the women are forced to sit in the back.) After meeting some of the same women every day, she would give them a movie about Jesus and get their telephone number. Her apartment is a

Don't forget that we are as needy for intimate Christian community as someone who is forced to meet in secret..

meeting place where they gather. She hides the pictures of Jesus should a hostile relative come by for an inspection.

An Iranian medical doctor who has been interrogated and blindfolded must move every two years. He and his wife continue to give Christian booklets to his patients. Some have come to Christ and meet in his home at night to sit on the rug, drink tea, sing quietly and study the Scriptures. Most of these Muslim converts to Christ are unable to attend the very few open churches, and the services are not in the national language, Farsi. Many new Christians who visit these house churches describe arrests and beatings back where they live. They pray for one another, encourage one another. Bibles and Christian books must be smuggled in or are found occasionally only in the capital city of Tehran. Some Iranian pastors "above ground" have been killed. On September 9th, police arrested 80 church leaders, men and women, forbidding them to go to church. Then they held all 10 pastors of the Assemblies of God.

Here in Oklahoma, one Iranian friend of mine has made the most of being a free American. As a new Christian, he began inviting dozens of 'Iranians to his home for dinner and began sharing Christ, bit by hit, in the warm, gracious manner of the hospitable Iranian people. Many have come to the Lord and have found a church home. My friend, Amir, has continued his outreach for years. He told me, "What we need to do is not just open our hearts, we need to open our tablecloth."

I am grateful that my wife sacrifices to open our tablecloth. Our four grandchildren, like our children, see our home not as a museum but as a train station, where Christ and the world intersect, coming, going, eating, laughing, discussing and praying.

We have heard the arguments against such hospitality for years. "It costs too much...our house is small...we are not good cooks" (buy fried chicken). What is the price of your child's soul? If your child sees the Body of Christ only as a three-or-four-hour church stop every week, like a fast food restaurant, is it any wonder that they don't connect with "the church"?

This Thanksgiving many of us may invite someone to our table who is needy. Don't forget that we are as needy for intimate Christian community as someone who is forced to meet in secret. We don't have to hide our Bibles or pictures of Jesus when certain people drop by. We can visit in the living room, on the patio or in the yard. We are free to open our tablecloth.

Preparing To Cross Over

Chuck Pierce

Find Three Days to Sanctify Yourself

(www.glory-of-zion.org)

Dear Sanctified Prayer Warriors:

The Body of Christ cannot afford to stand still and embrace any passivity this year. When the Spirit of God visited me and gave me revelation about 2004 being a year of the "DOOR," He instructed me that we were to close doors this first quarter. Shutting doors is important before we cross over the threshold of the new doors that are forming.

There have been several prophecies about the importance of March 11. There have also been prophecies about the capture of Osama bin Laden and the need to pray for the removal of occult forces which are keeping him hidden. I really think the next 10 days are very important in creating an atmosphere for victory in the earth realm. We cannot break through into the new place without fasting. I also think we need to prepare ourselves for the days ahead.

This prayer focus, Preparing to Cross Over, is different from others. This time frame gives us 10 days for prayer, three of which should be set aside for sanctification, including fasting. This will bring us to the beginning of Spring (March 21). This will cause us to cross over. I will explain what this means as you read the prayer focus. Later this month, I will then send out a separate 40-Day Prayer Focus that will begin on March 21.

Crossing Over is Moving Through Transition.

Crossing over actually means to go from one place to another or a transition time where you leave one place and then enter into another. There are several issues in our moving forward into the new. In this transition we are changing forms. In transition you must stay focused on where you are going or what you are birthing. Although you may not have settled in the new place yet or received the new thing, when there is a conception of vision in your heart, you cross over to a new place where the change manifests. There are three specific areas to keep in mind during transition:

1. Move from strength to strength. Psalms 84 is a great passage for today. "Blessed is the person that is on a pilgrimage ... they go from strength to strength."

2. Move from faith to faith. Romans 1:16-17 says, "Do not be ashamed of the Gospel, for it is the power of God to those who believe. . .in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith."

3. Move from glory to glory. II Corinthians 3:16-18 talks about the veil of the law being lifted and the Spirit of God releasing new liberty. "But we all are being transformed from glory to glory."

The enemy never wants us to complete the "from—to" process. He wants to hold us in the last season's strength, faith, and glory. He knows if he succeeds in doing this, we will never see our Lord's plan manifest for the future season. He also knows that he can keep an entire generation from advancing into the riches and blessings of a covenant God.

A crossing over time has three phases linked with transition: Death, Confusion, and New. The Hebrew word abar means "to cross over" or "pass over." This word illustrates a motion. It also refers to crossing a stream or barrier ("pass through," Num 21:22), invading a country ("passed over," Judg 11:32), crossing a boundary against a hostile army ("go over," 1 Sam 14:4), marching over ("go over," Isa 51:23), overflowing the banks of a river or other natural barriers ("pass through," Isa 23:10), passing a razor over one's head ("come upon," Num 6:5), and the passing of time ("went over," 1 Chron 29:30).

As a verb, the word is used in relationship to transgression or sin, such as transgressing a covenant or commandment. One "passes beyond" the limits set by God's law and falls into transgression and guilt. This meaning appears in Num 14:41: "And Moses said, wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the Lord? but it shall not prosper." We want to die to anything in the past season that would hinder us in the season ahead. We want to be sure the power of any besetting sin is broken. Don’t be afraid to go to the CROSS. Resurrection and new life are on the other side.

This is a time of preparation, building the frame for our future. When the Lord is saying “cross over,” He is ready to begin transferring the enemy’s spoils into and under our sphere of authority. Therefore, He wants to be sure we have defined our boundaries properly so we do not get outside of our God-given scope of authority. Dutch Sheets’ book, Praying for America, is an incredible resource that every one of us should read. This book not only motivates us to pray for our nation now, but also explains many important principles for our own lives.

In this book, there are two chapters on crossing over. Dutch begins by discussing Gen 14:13 which uses the phrase, “Abram, the Hebrew.” The word for Hebrew is ibriy, which originated from the word abar. Abraham was a cause minded, history making, crossing-over guy. He then explains how each one of us, through our salvation experience with the Lord Jesus Christ, is grafted into this same Hebrew crossing over anointing.

He shares the following, “Because abar is a transition word, it also means ‘to penetrate,’ as in penetrating territory or even the human heart … the word also means to impregnate.” One significant thing that Pastor Sheets writes in this book is that our crossing over terrifies our enemies. That is what God is trying to get us to do. He has another whole chapter on the fruits of crossing over. I will offer this book now for key understanding of this principle.

Three Days of Prayer and Fasting to Prepare for Crossing Over.

We all have a Jordan to cross over. This is the place of death that releases us from the old and propels us into the new. Joshua 1:11 says, “Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.'"

Joshua 3:2-5 says, “After three days the officers went through the camp and commanded the people saying, ‘When you see the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests, the Levites, bearing it, then you shall set out from you place and go after it … You have not passed (abar) this way before … Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.’”

In other words, divorce yourself from anything that is unclear and devote yourself wholly to the Lord. I feel the need for us to do this for thre e days so we can fling into Spring. Many times this can be accompanied by fasting. Let God choose your fast!

Three, as a symbolic number, often indicated completeness. The created cosmos had three elements: heaven, earth, and underworld. Three Persons make up the Godhead: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Prayer was to be lifted at least three times daily (Dan. 6:10; compare Ps. 55:17) … Jesus said He would be in the grave for three days and three nights (Matt. 12:40).

Below I have given you key issues that are linked with three days.

Prepare yourself with the Word – God’s sanctifying power.

Read Genesis 40:13. Declare your place or position will be restored.

Read Exodus 3:18. Declare that anything that is keeping you from worship will be broken.

Read Exodus 10:22-23. Declare that any plan the enemy has will be overwhelmed by darkness but you will be filled with revelation.

Read Judges 14:14. Declare that any bitter root will be uprooted and sweet water will begin to flow in your life.

Read 1 Sam 30. Trust the Lord to connect you with those who can pursue and overtake your enemy.

Read Ezra 8. Stop and let the Lord show you the enemy that is on the road ahead of you.

Read Nehemiah 2. Let God develop the plan to rebuild that which is broken down in your life.

Read Matthew 12. Thank the Lord for the Cross. Declare that the passion of the Cross arise in you.

Read Matthew 15 and Mark 8. Ask God to release the same compassion on you that was in Jesus that will not only heal the sick but also produce provision for the poor.

Read Acts 9. Declare that any scales on your eyes will fall off and that you will have clear vision for your future.

Meditate on the book of Esther, especially, Chapters 4 & 5.

Prepare yourself and cross over into the Inner Court. As you know, I continue to read the chapter “4’s” through the word of God. This past week I reread Esther 4 (and to the end of the book of Esther).

Esther recognized God’s sovereign timing and placement in her life. She then prepared herself to go in before the king. Preparation produces favor.

Upon entering the inner court of the king, he extended his scepter to her and said, “What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you – up to half the kingdom!”

Prepare yourself and go into the Throne Room.

Replace Queen Esther’s name with your name and make your request known to the King of kings. Remember, Esther had a very specific request. You need to have one also. Declare that one request to the Lord that will bring change!

Cross Over the Tangled Maze of Jungle Haunted by Lions.

Remember that a key verse this year is Jeremiah 12:5. The Amplified says, “If you have raced with men of foot and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses? And if you take to flight in a land of peace where you feel secure, then what will you do [when you tread the TANGLED MAZE OF JUNGLE, HAUNTED BY LIONS] in the swelling of the Jordan?”

The Jordan swelled in the Spring. This was the time for crossing over. Jeremiah was upset because there was much confusion in Jerusalem. Josiah had brought many reforms but had ended up losing his life prematurely. Jeremiah was really questioning the Lord over why certain things were happening.

Even though you might be questioning the Lord over situations that have seemed so difficult, the Lord still has a crossing over plan for you. The Lord told Jeremiah that what he had been going through was preparation for the future. If you have had difficulty coping with certain situations this past year to the extent that you have been distracted from pressing in to all that the Lord was telling you to press into, you will never be able to move into this next dimension of conflict.

You are on the verge of “crossing over” into your inheritance.

Don’t let the roaring lions around you cause you to turn back. The enemy has a roar that would try to prevent you from moving into the portion that God has allotted for you, but you have a ROAR greater than the enemy’s! Let the Lord fill you with new joy and produce new strength within you.

Cross Over, Face Your AMALEKITE, and break the power of his noose!

We have just finished the celebration of Purim. Purim, of course, is the story of how Esther overcame Haman. Haman was an Amalekite. The Amalekites would come behind the army and begin to pick off the stragglers.

This is a time to catch up and cross over!

The word Amalekite means “to toil or work under hard labor”. This is a time for you to break out of legalistic, hard labor. The Amalekites were a nomadic tribe of formidable people that first attacked the Israelites after the Exodus at Rephidim. Amalek, the grandson of Esau (Gen. 36:12), inhabited the desolate wasteland of the northeast Sinai peninsula and the Negeb. They were the first to attack Israel after the Exodus (Num. 24:20).

This is where the Lord revealed Himself as Jehovah Nissi. He declared that we would war with Amalek from generation to generation. The antichrist spirit today is linked into this Amalakite spirit. Israel won the initial battle (Ex. 17:8-16), but later was driven back into the Sinai wilderness by a coalition of Amalekites and Canaanites (Num. 14:39-45).

Because of their atrocities, God commanded Saul to exterminate the Amalekites (1 Sam. 15:2-3). Saul disobeyed, and the Amalekites were not defeated completely until late in the eighth century B.C. (1 Chron. 4:43).

Haman the Agagite (Est 3:1-10; 8:3-5) was thought by the Jews to be his descendant, from whence sprung his hatred toward their race.

Prepare yourself and watch your Haman be hung on his own gallows. Break all compromise. This simply means, during these next few days, your enemy will overplay his hand and you will end up victorious! Cross over and watch your new doors form!

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce

Prepare To Receive All

Dorothea Montague

web: http://www.angelfire.com/in/hislove email: montagud@telus.net

My beloved people, prepare, prepare to receive all I have in store for you as I pour out My Spirit in these end time days. Yes, I am pouring out My Spirit in great measure on all who are Mine and have dedicated their lives unto Me. But, does My Word not say that I shall pour out My Spirit upon ALL flesh...upon every heart the world over. As I do this many of the worst sinners will repent and begin to seek Me. As I accomplish this I shall need you, My beloved people, to draw them into My kingdom. I am pouring out My power upon each of you so that you will go forth under My anointing to guide the people unto Me. Multitudes will come into My kingdom in these last days. Does My Word not say....

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. (2 Peter 3:9)

Indeed, I am sending forth an army of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers who will reach out to all the peoples of the world so that everyone will have the opportunity either to accept or reject Me as their Lord and Savior.

The pouring out of My Spirit has only just begun and shall accelerate as each new day dawns. I tell you, it will change the world and the peoples thereof. Indeed, it will be a time of shaking when everything that can be shaken shall be shaken but out of the shaking much good shall come. It will usher in a time of signs and wonders and miracles.

God also bearing witness both with signs and wonders, with various miracles and Gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will. (Heb. 2:4)

My loved ones, as each of you responds to My call to go into all the world to preach the Gospel to every creature I shall make opportunities for you to touch lives wherever you go. Each of you shall exhibit wonders and miracles wherever you shall minister. Each of you shall receive Gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to My will. My words shall pour forth from your lips with such power that all who hear shall be drawn to Me. Through you I shall manifest such miracles of healing, as has never yet been seen. Know that through your fervent prayers the destiny of nations can be changed and peace shall previal. O, yes, as prophesied by the prophets of old, wars and rumors of wars, famines, pestilences and earthquakes shall be prevalent the world over but your faithful prayers can change the course of these destructive events. Be mindful of My Scriptures for have I not said....

He sent His Word and healed them and delivered them from their destructions. (Psa. 107:20)

Beloved, My love is poured out in great measure upon each of you which shall result in your having a great love for all with whom you come in contact. You will grieve for the pain and sickness in their bodies, you will sorrow for them as they seem to have nowhere to turn in their trials. You will begin to pray with all who have sickness in their bodies and see healing take place. As you speak to them of what I have provided for them you shall witness them asking you to pray for them. I shall provide for all in need as you pray for them. You shall see all dissension in churches go as you pray for them, and peace shall prevail.

My precious ones, even though your prayers have reached me for many years and I have answered them according to My will, the time has now come when the power of My Spirit shall descend upon you and the answer to many of your prayers shall be instant. You shall have a great desire to reach as many people as possible and to pray for their needs.

Go forth, My people, in the strength of the Gifts I have given you and proclaim Me to all the world.

Principles For Harvest In 2004

Catherine Brown

Rejoicing In the Winter Seasons
(John 15:1-17)
Blessings to each one of you, our precious family in Christ. We love and appreciate each one of you!

As we come into a brand New Year, I believe Jesus wants to give us a focus and vision for harvest. Often before the Lord produces fruit in us and through us, He calls us to a season of pruning where He strips away the old and births the new. Pruning is a divine preparation and part of the process of becoming a Kingdom harvester.

My heart is stirred to call the bride of Christ to passionate, holy love expressed in our relationship with the divine Trinity, with each other and with the lost. Let's rejoice in God's goodness in our lives, surrender to the Spirit of God and allow Him to do whatever it takes to prepare us for harvest, to reach out in His love to a lost and dying world.

Always your sister and friend,
Catherine Brown

PRINCIPLES FOR HARVEST in 2004 - Rejoicing In the Winter Seasons: John 15:1-17

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener." John 15:1

Be Rooted and Grounded In Love Relationship With God

Father is described here as the gardener and as every green-fingered person knows, a gardener really cares about what they plant! We are a planting of our heavenly Father's righteousness (Isa 61:3b). Jesus is the Vine, and like Him we are nurtured, tended and cared for by our heavenly Father. Jesus points us continually to relationship with God, and to submission to His sovereignty and authority in our lives.

Being rooted and grounded in the love of God is a wonderful dwelling place of acceptance, of affirmation, and through this intimacy with God, we are moved in compassion to harvest with Christ.

Learn to Trust God - Pruning Will Produce Fruit

"He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful." John 15:2

Jesus allowed Father to shape Him in order that much Kingdom fruit would be produced, and He did so from a position of trust. Similarly, we must choose to trust and surrender to the pruning process as the Lord sifts us from sin and from self (will, ego, fleshly desires, etc) and purifies our hearts and minds. Being pruned can be uncomfortable because we may feel naked and vulnerable before God. Remember his arms are the safest place to be. And just as spring naturally follows winter, we can be assured that bearing fruit is inevitable when we are in right relationship with the Lord, as a God-ordained, spiritual wilderness will produce new growth and fruit (Gal 5:22-26), which glorifies God.

Get Rooted and Stay Grounded In The Word of God

"You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you." John 15:3

God's Word brings us to maturity as we embrace the divine principles of the Kingdom contained in it. The Word of God is our plumb line for right living. God wants to wash us in His Word and teach us His ways, but it's not so much about rules as it is about our friendship with Him. The Bible is a safe and solid foundation and Holy Spirit loves to illuminate the Scriptures and bring revelation to a hungry heart.

Bear Fruit From a Place of Rest

"Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me." John 15:4

Jesus gives us free will, and His heart's desire is that each of us will choose to remain in him. The outflow of intimacy with Christ is that He produces wonderful fruit in our lives and through our lives. It's imperative that we understand harvest doesn't come from striving; it comes from rest and simply allowing God to be God in us. Striving, stress, works, and performance are what result from us trying too hard and not allowing Grace to gift us into God-reliance. Self-sufficiency is our worst enemy if we desire to bear Kingdom fruit. We can relax safe in the knowledge that we produce nothing; it is all the work of Holy Spirit!

SUBMISSION AND HUMILITY - Keys to Kingdom Fruitfulness

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned." John 15:5-6

Jesus loves to lead by example and lifestyle. He demonstrated surrender to Father's will (Matt 26:36-42) and now He asks for ours. As we submit to Christ's rule in our lives it produces the beautiful fruit of humility. The virtue of humility releases God's authority and his Kingdom rule. Once again Jesus re-emphasizes our need of him. Without a close bond to Christ we will end up in works and become brittle, dry, and suffer burn out. We don't have to! God's love is unconditional, and He doesn't require anything from us except our surrender and obedience.

Spectacular Intercessory Promise - Harvest And Intercessory Prayer

"If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you." John 15:7

Remain means "continue to be." Therefore all we have to do is remain in Christ and He will delight to answer our prayers. Under God's anointing our humble and heartfelt prayers and acts of selfless love will usher in the greatest end-time harvest of souls saved, healings, signs, wonders, and miracles this world has ever seen if we will but choose passion for Christ as our priority. It's not about works, it's about the wonder of His love. The first commandment to love God with all our heart, mind, and soul must always precede the second - to love our neighbor as ourselves (Matt 22:37-40), otherwise we will become exhausted and run the risk of losing our God given vision.

Bearing Fruit Brings Father's Glory

"This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples." John 15:8

We need do nothing, we simply need to learn (or re-learn) how to be in God's presence and understand that He loves us because He loves us, not because of anything we think we can produce. Fruitfulness is a free gift of God's Grace.

God's Love - The Highest Motivator

"As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love." John 15:9-10

Jesus was not exempt from obedience to His Father and neither are we! God's Love must be the highest motivator in our lives. When we obey God, it helps us to go deeper in our love relationship with Him. Intimacy with God and obedience to God is a key to unlocking harvest both on a personal and corporate level.

JOY - A Key to the Harvest!

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete." John 15:11

Love and Obedience = Joy. Joy is a key to the harvest. Jesus gifts to us complete intercessory balance as we co-labor with Him. His joy is necessary because when we harvest we may encounter situations that will break our hearts. We need to keep Christ as our focus and respond in the Spirit, and not in our souls, to the needs that we see around us.

Servant Love Is Commanded

"My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this that he lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command." John 15:12-14

Friendship with God results in a desire to be obedient to God. Obedience is the hallmark of a humble heart postured in servant hood before the King of Kings. Obedience is not difficult when it flows out of the reality of love and acceptance by Christ.

Revelation Comes With Relationship

"I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. " Instead I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made know to you." John 15:15

Jesus demonstrates that when we are in right relationship with Him, He releases revelation to us straight from the Throne Room of Heaven. What a privilege that we are invited to sacred friendship, and to partner with Father and "be about his business"! (John 4:24, 12:49) Divine disclosures will flow to us and through us as we prioritize and pursue fellowship with Christ. We are gifted with priestly, precision, prophetic anointing, which will lead to transformation of lives saved, healed, and delivered.

Jesus Christ - Lord of The Harvest

"You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last." John 15:16a

We are chosen, called, and commissioned in Grace by our Lord Jesus Christ (Matt 28:18-20), who is the Lord of the harvest (Matt 9:35-38). We have been appointed to bear abundant fruit - fruit that will last for all eternity. It doesn't depend on us! It's all about God and his glory. The key to being fruitful is in our relationship with the Lord. Harvest is the fulfillment of our relationship in Christ and is also about bringing people into relationship with Jesus.

All Hell Trembles At The Name of Jesus

"Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name." John 15:16b

When we use the name of Jesus in prayer and in demonstrations of love and mercy, all hell trembles. Jesus Christ is Lord of the harvest! When we harvest with Christ we are enveloped in his compassion, which releases miracles. Compassion releases the power of the Kingdom of God on the earth.

"This is my command: Love each other." John 15:17

In 2004 and beyond may we walk in Christ's commanded love and lay down our lives for the sake of our precious Savior.

"And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people, and they will get well." Mark 16:17-18

-By Catherine Brown
www.gatekeepers.org.uk
Catherine@gatekeepers.org.uk

Prayer for Our Cities

Clo DiPilato

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

This prayer was recorded in response to a word that has been circulating regarding a vision of the Empire State Building in NY collapsing. It was sent to the list of the one who originally sent it to me, but I feel the quickening on it, and that I should send it to my whole list.

Blessings in Jesus, Clo

Please pass this prayer onto others, as you feel led of the Lord to do so:

In Jesus Name,

Lord.......even as Abraham prevailed for a city because of the righteous residents, I ask that You would raise up the prayer warriors and intercessors who will prevail in prayer for the cities of our great nation.

God you are PLENTEOUS in mercy. You describe Your mercy as a vast and endless ocean, while you compare Your wrath to only a cupful. That cup of wrath may be full, but I pray, in Jesus Name, that once again Your lovingkindness and mercy would prevail. Let it's torrential force knock over that cupful of wrath that once again Your wrath would be completely consumed in Your mercy. Not that we be free to continue as a careless people, Lord, but because we need more chances, maybe even MANY MORE chances to appeal to those who are lost and dying without knowing Your saving power, Your delivering power, Your cleansing power!!

Lord, the people have not had a chance to truly see Jesus manifested IN His people. Lord, You are purifying us for a purpose, that we might be living epistles, seen and read of all men, and Lord, the people of this nation need more of chance to get to read the true character and nature of Jesus Christ in His people. Lord, they do not need another fire and brimstone sermon unto repentance because those have been in abundance, and yet the fruit is still lacking. Lord, I know Your Word says that it's through the foolishness of preaching men would be saved. God, you know that I love the sound and the substance and the glorious sense of Your presence that truly anointed and powerful preaching of the gospel carries on it's wings into the atmospheres where it is unleashed, and allowed to freely flow. But now, Lord, I pray that all the preaching we have heard be converted into great demonstration THROUGH the lives of Your people so that just our presence in places like the Empire State Building causes people to fall on their knees and cry out to You for Your favor and mercy to fall upon them, even as it has fallen on us! Lord, when will our shadows passing by the sick heal the people even as Peter's shadow healed the people?? Lord, we long for such days to come for Your people. The gospel of the kingdom has not truly been preached until You manifest through Your people to this measure, so please, Lord HAVE MERCY and help us to commit to the fires that You can purify us INTO that place of great trust for Your people so that we will be used of You, and for all the right reasons, and NOT to heap the glory unto ourselves.

God, I know the devil cannot do a thing, except that YOU allow it! In Jesus Name, Lord, I ask you NOT to give him any permission to cause burning buildings to cascade down on the tops of those who have never had a chance to repent because they have never truly been drawn by YOUR Spirit to You because if they had been drawn, they would have come. They would have cried out in repentance, and many of them would even be far more fastidious and diligent and devoted Christians than we find ourselves to be, if only they would get the chance to truly HEAR with the spiritual hearing that only YOU can create within the heart of a person. Jesus, give them yet another chance and especially give US another chance to present the power of the gospel in the power and demonstration of the Spirit, not as tirades of anger because we are immersed in the sense of our own worthiness and self-righteousness but because we have YOUR HEART for the lost and dying people who at times are not even smart enough at times to know their left hand from their right hand, no matter how much worldly wisdom and savvy they may appear to possess.

God it's only by YOUR grace that we are saved, and know the power of Your great Name! ALL WE LIKE SHEEP HAVE GONE ASTRAY, and we have turned EVERYONE to his own way...... We know there is NONE that doeth good, NO NOT ONE, and Lord, except You had been merciful to reveal Yourself to us we would still be dragging around the decaying and corrupted and rotting carcass of the old man. Yes, we would be nothing more than a festering and oozing dead carcass leaving a horrible stench where ever we go, but because You have removed the old and tattered and beggars garments, and giving us Your beautiful and fragrant robes of righteousness to wear we can now come into Your presence, even BOLDLY to the throne of grace to not only pray for ourselves, and our own problems, but to enter into the intercessory anointing of our elder brother, our High Priest, even JESUS, who loved us and gave Himself not only for us, but for the sins of the WHOLE WORLD, and in HIS NAME, Lord, we entreat you once again to stay Your hand of judgment for the sake of those whom You would choose to draw to Yourself because You have promised that YOUR kingdom would be a glorious kingdom with NO END, and that the glory of the knowledge of the Lord would cover the earth as the waters the cover the seas.

I ask that you would absolutely render powerless any word from any proud prophet who would rather see destruction and devastation in order to confirm their gift, even as Jonah did, rather than the mercy and love of God . Lord, help us to see the BIGGER PICTURE than proving our own prophetic gifts and callings. Jesus, give us YOUR heart. You said in Your word that you are NOT WILLING that any should perish, but that ALL should come to repentance!

Lord, all our titles will someday be forgotten. But the Name of Jesus and the Word of God will endure forever. Let our first allegiance be to JESUS and HIS HEART, and NOT to our titles and positions and the proof of our ministerial worthiness. Away with our OVER-concern of those things. Jesus, help us just to be your humble and willing servants desiring YOUR will and the true HONOR of YOUR NAME above all that we are, or think we are, and all we possess. Jesus. Jesus. Jesus. Jesus. Jesus. Jesus. Jesus. ONLY Jesus!!!

God, let this prayer be BIRTHED in the hearts of Your people this day that we might truly see revival throughout this land rather than wasting and destruction and judgment. If there be yet even 1 righteous praying man alone in a city, let his prayers and cries prevail above every other voice, above every other sound, above all perversion and corruption and abomination that is so freely flowing in the atmospheres of our cities. God, we understand as Your people that You are greatly dismayed at these things. We understand that you cannot stand sin and uncleanness. We understand that Your righteousness demands accountability, but I remind You this day of the great price Your very own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ paid that Your hand of judgment would be STAYED, and I ask You once again look at the nail scars in the hands and feet, and the scar of the wounded side of Your own Son, and let those rivers of blood that flowed from the person of Your own Son be the advocate for the world, and for Your people. Lord, You promise in Your word that where sin abounds, MUCH MORE Your grace, and I stand this day on the promises of God, and trust You to give us yet another chance!! And thank YOU, Lord, for all the chances You have given us, because we know they have been MANY!! Only a God full of mercy such as You could have had the patience with the peoples of the earth, and especially Your own people as You have had, and I love You, Lord Jesus, and I ask You to cause me to know your TRUE HEART about things like judgment, and wrath and mercy and restoration that I need to have so I can pray with wisdom, and truly pray as YOU would pray in all these things, and when prophecies come forth about destruction and judgment.

God, finally, I would remind You, and remind Your people through this prayer, that Your word declares in the book of Revelation that there is rainbow around your throne. We know that Your rainbow speaks of Your mercy. When you made covenant with Noah and put the rainbow in the sky for a token of that covenant it was to promise that never again would you destroy the earth with a flood. Well, God, we are not facing any flood in the form of waters of rain, but we are facing floods of perversion and sinfulness in all sorts of hideous manifestations that would like to destroy our nation. God, give Your people HOPE this day that You still YET have power to make this a great and righteous nation, and that these flood waters of FILTH will NOT prevail to destroy us anymore than the flood waters of a hurricane would be allowed to bring to full end our streets and cities and homes and businesses, and all that comprises the elements of our society, even though those things might have a little measure of success in their determination to destruction. You only allow those things to go so far, and then Your thundering voice always declares to the elements, ENOUGH, and those elements of STAYED by the power of Your voice over ALL of creation! It's because You made a promise to Your servant Noah that AS LONG AS THE EARTH REMAINETH.......(Genesis 8, last verses).

You will not allow those waters of judgment because YOU are ever aware of just how pathetically frail people are, and that our frame is but dust, and that we are like the flower that fades and the grass that withers. Our lives are nothing but a vapor except that we have been infused by the Eternal Spirit of the One who loved us, and so freely GAVE HIMSELF FOR US, and so, Jesus, since You know how YOU chose to make us, I pray you take our frames into consideration once again, and have MERCY upon us, and on our country, in Jesus Name!!

Finally, Lord Jesus, thank You so much for the great price you paid because I know that because of YOUR sacrifice, there is hope and that ultimately ALL will turn out okay, and no matter what happens, that YOU will receive the glory from it, and You will keep and preserve Your people through every tribulation that will be released into this earth. We do not walk in fear, but uprightly, and up and down in the land with a conquering tread in Your Name to fearlessly rescue those from the darkness who are willing to be rescued. Lord, show us those to whom we should go. Show us those whom you have appointed to hear the words of Eternal Life. Help us not to just be scatter shooting, but let us go with haste, and with purpose, and TO THE MARK, in the Name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Now, Lord, I thank you for those prophets who are discerning the times, and fearlessly pronouncing that which they have truly heard in the secret place in their times of waiting on You. Let us first always discern the purpose is NOT to see judgment come to pass, but rather that we heed the warnings that we might truly HUMBLE OURSELVES AND PRAY because the responsibility does fall upon the shoulders of your people according to the most quoted scripture by our national prayer warriors, "If My people who are called by My Name........"

Lord Jesus, give us YOUR burden, give us YOUR heart. Give us YOUR burden, and give us YOUR heart. Give us YOUR burden, and give us YOUR heart.

Let it be so, In the Name of the Living Word, our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen and AMEN. In Jesus Name, Amen.

Prayer submitted by Clo DiPilato http://www.heraldofhiskingdom.com

Prepare For Supernatural Grace

Todd Bentley

The following article defines what supernatural grace encompasses, with an emphasis on different aspects of the favor of God, which is essential to the anointing.
Sep 21, 2004

God is imparting and releasing supernatural grace to His people in this hour to empower them to live an overcoming Christian life! As you continue to read and if you open your heart to the ministry of the Holy Spirit, I believe you will receive an impartation of supernatural grace by faith!

Supernatural grace encompasses grace and favor - and great grace: otherwise known as "grace, grace." I want to describe what supernatural grace encompasses in more detail, so that you will have a solid understanding. The Greek word for grace in the New Testament is the same word for favor. Grace is the unmerited favor of God, but it's more than this. The grace of God is the favor and kindness that He gives without regard to the worth or merit of the one who receives it, in spite of what that same person deserves. Think of it as God being kind and good to us, even if we don't deserve it.

Both grace and favor can come as a tangible presence upon our lives. Grace and favor is also an anointing that can be imparted and transferred, although, in the Body of Christ, we haven't really thought of grace and favor in this way before.

God also wants us to understand a higher level of grace He has for His people - Great Grace - which He is releasing to equip us with His supernatural power for the coming healing revival. Great grace comes as a sovereign anointing and is a supernatural function of the Holy Spirit coming upon us to do impossible feats by the Spirit of grace.

Now, in the rest of this teaching, we will discuss, in depth, the biblical concepts of favor, grace, and great grace.

Favor

The favor of God is because of God's love. Another definition of favor is "pleasure, desire, and delight." Favor happens when God turns to us and He is pleased with us - favorable towards something - especially what is pleasing and desirable to Him. It has nothing to do with us. I believe it's possible for God to give us favor even if we haven't fasted and prayed enough, or we haven't given enough. Now let's examine several benefits of favor.

Jubilee Freedom

It's time to come into our destiny! In January, the Holy Spirit began to speak to me from of the book of Isaiah, that it's time "...to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord" (Isaiah 61:2). The word "acceptable year" means the "favorable year." This is the year of the Lord's favor, and I'm standing in faith for this! The favor of God brings the blessing of the Lord. The favor of God brings everything we need in the natural to do what God has called us to do. If we have the favor of God we will have everything else we need. There are times of testing before we come into the favor, but I am saying this is the year of the Lord's favor.

I want to say there is an anointing of God's Spirit to bring us into the acceptable year, a place of liberty and release just like the year of Jubilee. It will come on us like Joseph's coat of many colors - like a tangible anointing when everything in our lives will increase as far as the opportunities of God.

There's an opening for us to come into the Jubilee anointing and blessing. Jubilee is the cancellation of all debt, the release of all our property, the release of all slaves - all the bondage in our lives. Jubilee heralds the return of our sons and daughters, and the release of our investments. All these things! God released them on Jubilee! We love Jubilee and we pray that God will bring about Jubilee.

Scores of believers sow faithfully into the blessing of God and walk in the principles of favor, and yet they cry, "God, I want more favor on my life!" We need to realize that it is possible, under the anointing of God's Spirit, that we can prophesy, proclaim, and decree favor and Jubilee, and everything that comes in Jubilee will come into our lives the moment we speak the word.

With Jubilee, in one instant it's possible to come into a Holy Ghost meeting, and in the next moment receive a tangible anointing called "favor" upon our lives. It can happen that fast! The moment we proclaim: "Favor!" then tangible favor is released. A sovereign anointing can come upon our lives, resulting in increased favor.

Growing in Favor

Jesus increased in favor: "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man" (Luke 2:52). I believe that we have to increase in favor with God first and then we will increase in favor with man. It's possible to walk in a level of favor with God and man that we have never experienced before.

However, today's believers struggle to walk in the favor of God. Many haven't grown in the level of favor and, therefore, are hindered from doing what God has purposed for them, mainly because they don't have the resources. I know of different ministries in a battle; ministries that have been operating for 20 years, but are still on the telephone trying to get meetings and struggling to support one staff member. But God is going to break that Spirit of poverty and lack, and He's going to release His grace. The Bible tells us about the child, Samuel, and how he grew on, and he grew in favor with the Lord and also with man (1 Samuel 2:26). I want to say that it's time to grow on in the favor of the Lord - both with God and man!

More and more believers are going to come into the anointing that brings the favor of God. To give you an illustration - because of God's favor and anointing we've turned away an average of 300-400 international invitations in just six months this year, and hundreds of other invitations in North America had to be declined. I have enough invitations for 300 preachers! That's why I raised up 12 anointed laborers and that's why I want to raise up 100. We'll book meetings for them and send them out, because I can't be everywhere. So why do we have the favor of God? The answer is: the anointing.

The Anointing

I'm going to share several points about the anointing and its influence on increase:
"But my horn You have exalted like a wild ox; I have been anointed with fresh oil...The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree. He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bear fruit in old age. They shall be fresh and flourishing to declare that the Lord is upright. He is my rock and there is no unrighteousness in Him." Psalm 92:10,12-15
The first thing that happens when the anointing touches our lives is a release of vision, strength, and purpose. My horn is exalted like the wild ox. My horn is my strength. When God anoints our horn, it's our strength; our vision, our purpose, and it's our destiny. But people without vision perish! Without vision we become lazy and complacent - we cast off restraint. When we get tired, discouraged, and disappointed, and we don't want to go on in the vision - we stop contending for miracles and going on with the gospel. But not when God anoints our strength. We want to run again...harder and faster.

We're not going to let up or shut up!

With the anointing, we will flourish and prosper like a palm tree. This resilient tree is one of the only trees that can grow in a dry and thirsty land. So, even when revival is over, we are still in revival, we are still blessing others, and people are still getting saved and healed. In a dry and thirsty land we are flourishing! There is fruit and much fruit that remains - not only at a young age - but even at our old age. The righteous shall still bear fruit; they shall be fresh, fat, abundant, green, and flourishing. Isn't that what we want in the kingdom?

What Does the Primary Purpose of the Anointing Empower us to Do?

A primary purpose of the anointing is to empower us to declare the gospel and the testimony of Jesus - that He is upright and there is no unrighteousness in Him. It's a preacher's anointing. And we preachers need a word of encouragement here. I want to say that it's God's will for us to bear much fruit that remains. God is heavily on our side and wants to replace a poverty mindset with a bigger, fresher, fruitful vision. God wants us to succeed, to increase.

"You will grow like a cedar" (Psalm 92:12b). The cedar is one of the mightiest trees in Israel and it symbolizes spiritual maturity, roots, depth, and revelation. We can possess these strengths!

Fruitfulness is another immense benefit of the anointing - followed by freshness...a life-giving freshness that nurtures a new anointing and constant revelation. When fresh oil comes upon our lives, we begin to live in freshness and constant revelation. We can enjoy fresh manna every morning. Hallelujah!

Two Anointings: The Holy Spirit and Power

People love to be around the anointing, seeing the power of God as people get saved, healed, and delivered. They don't want to be dry and thirsty. The ministries that attracted me in the beginning were the ministries like Benny Hinn, because of the presence and the anointing of God, regardless of his style being a little bit older than what I am used to. Some believers get hung up on the different styles and some don't. Even though I look different than most Christians, a lot of older folks say, "Todd, we love you."
And I'm like, "Really? Why?"
"Because we love the anointing!"
They know the genuine. Many believers want to volunteer and help in this ministry.

Jesus was anointed with two anointings: the Holy Spirit and power. It's possible to be anointed with the Holy Spirit - smeared with the Holy Spirit, like having the oil poured on and rubbed in, like a massage. Then some "as it is in heaven" rubs off on us and we carry this realm everywhere we go. That's the anointing.

More than Enough

Real prosperity means fulfilling our vision and having more than enough to do what God has called us do to. Then we are productive and in a place where we multiply by raising up sons and daughters. We're not after the material blessing that favor brings; we're after the favor, and the favor will take care of everything else. It really isn't about success. We're not talking about money. We're talking about favor and we're talking about souls. We're talking about crusades and about having opportunities to preach the gospel. We're talking about fulfilling our dreams.

God's will is to prosper our lives so that we can win souls! Believers need to be out of debt so they can freely go into the nations and win souls. God wants us to acquire buildings and lands where we can facilitate the training of believers for the harvest. Instead of planting one church, why not plant 10 churches? I'm not starting with planting one school; we are going to plant schools all over the world.

(Of course we need to money in order to do this.) God's will is to give us favor so that we will have fruit and a bigger vision.

In Bible times, there were seasons when no one was lacking. People sold their possessions and lands, bringing the proceeds and laying them at the apostles' feet so they could distribute to anyone that had need. "Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, and laid them at the apostles' feet; and they distributed to each as anyone had need." (Acts 4:34-35) Most of us would like to be in a position where people just come and bless us for the work of the ministry.

God Has Favorites!

Let's think once again about the increase of favor. We often don't understand that the love of God and the favor of God are two different things. Let me make this statement: God loves each of us with an unconditional love - but favor is different. God can actually favor someone more than someone else. Two examples of this are when God favored Joseph above all his brothers (Genesis 37) and when God favored Jacob above Esau by giving Esau's inheritance to Jacob (Genesis 27).

God loves everyone in the kingdom the same, but He favors some above the rest. Why? Because God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. So if we're not seeking Him as passionately and diligently as the next person, we may not have as much favor and anointing. I may have Him reward me more, depending on how desperate I am to seek Him. God does respond to the one whose heart is after Him - a heart like David's. God honors intimacy. Even though at times David's life was a mess, he had a heart that was after God. His heart-attitude was that he wanted to be right with God - even though there wasn't always the holiness. When we think of all the ways that we come short, God is saying, "But listen! You have had a heart that has been hungry for Me! Your heart has been hungry for My presence, and if you'll seek and pursue My presence..." That's where the anointing is guys. The anointing is in intimacy.

Preparing for Favor

Now let's look at the book of Esther. She was taken from the safety of her uncle's home and ushered into the royal palace because the King was looking for a new Queen. It wasn't long before she obtained the notice and favor of the official in charge, so her beauty preparations were readily given to her, and an allowance!
"Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women." Esther 2:9

What an example! The first thing that happens when we come into favor with the King is that God will move us into the royal palace - the place of ruling and reigning. The next thing that will happen is God will say, "Give him/her an allowance!" Wouldn't we all like the King of the universe to give us an allowance because we found His favor? "Here is a line of credit!" Her exciting life-story goes on:

"Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the King's palace, across from the King's house, while the King sat on his royal throne in his royal house, facing the entrance of the house. So it was, when the King saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favor in his sight, and the King held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of his scepter, and the King said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you - up to half the kingdom!" Esther 5:1-3

When Queen Esther received favor, the King held out the royal scepter and asked, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you - up to half the kingdom!" Because she had favor with the King, she could ask what she wished. However, let's not miss this: There is a crucial principle that brought this favor - namely, preparation! She prepared herself because she was hungry and desperate to find favor. Initially she spent six months in the oil, and the oil represents death, suffering, sacrifice, and dying to the flesh. That's one of the keys to the anointing. I want to spend as much time as I can in the oil! Then she was in the perfumes for six months; the fragrance of Jesus, the presence of God. She fasted. (Esther 4:16)

Are You Hungry for the Presence of God and for the Anointing?

Many people want the favor and the blessing that comes with the favor, but they're not ready to pay the price to get the favor. We need to be like Esther if we're going to get favor with the King and ask what we wish. If we're going to be moved from where we're living in our Christian lives into the royal palace and given an allowance, if we're going to be moved into a place of ruling and reigning, it's going to take us preparing our lives like Esther prepared her life. She kept herself clean and pure - a virgin, without spot; free from the spots that were in the world. She embraced one thing - she wanted favor with the King. (He was an unrighteous King and maybe she had no choice, but God was moving her into a place of ruling and reigning to save His chosen people.)

It's time to prepare ourselves for intimacy with God. It's time to remain in the house of God and to be friends with God. It's time to have a place of intimacy in His presence and to seek Him with all our heart. It's time to search after Him right now. These are days where God is about to pour out His presence. These are days when God is about to pour out divine visitation. I know that part of what I am sharing is getting us hungry for the presence of God and for the anointing.

by Todd Bentley
Fresh Fire Ministries
www.freshfire.ca

Preparation For War
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

We all are familiar with the (biblical) saying “time for peace and a time for war”. As of late we have been hearing of wars and rumors of wars. However, the present war that we are in, the terrorism war, has really never been fought before, and at the same time we hear “peace, peace when there is no peace. What is all this confusion about? Is this happening for the purpose of bringing together some one-world system? Is it so that Islam will become the only legitimate religion in the world? Is it to restore and bring back the tribes of Israel to their homeland? Or is the Creator judging iniquity and sin? Whatever the reason might be, we who have been taken out of this world’s system and order, and have been transferred into the kingdom of YHVH’s beloved Son, need to focus on what the Word of YHVH says, just in case we should find ourselves in a grip of an even fiercer war.

With this in mind, let us take a look at how one of the kings of Judah faced his nation’s war-woes. It was during the reign of King Jehoshaphat that some of the surrounding nations, Ammon, Moab, Syria and Mount Seir (Esau) were gathered together as “a great assembly” (2 Chron. 20:2) to destroy Judah/Israel. When Jehoshaphat first heard the news of this mighty army he “feared”. Is inflicting fear not the motivation of the terrorist packs nowadays? We can see just how sinister this spirit is, as was illustrated this week when two gunmen opened fire on a car causing it to veer off the road. They then went up to it and shot its occupants at point blank range, making sure that no one would escape death. None of the victims sitting in that vehicle was wearing military uniforms. These passengers were a pregnant mother and her four children, ranging from ages 2 to 11. With this kind of demonic mayhem, is it any wonder that the nations are spending more on protecting themselves from these religious fanatics than on any other military objective?

What did Jehoshaphat do when he faced the same threat of annihilation from his neighbors? Scripture records that he*”set* ‘natan pa’neem’ himself to seek ‘drash’ YHVH”. “Natan pa’neem” means to give oneself, set or put oneself in a position before the face of YHVH in order to “drash”, to inquire advice of YHVH (ref. 2 Ch. 20:3-4). Then he proclaimed a fast throughout Judea. The Judeans gathered from many places to seek - “baqesh” - or simply ask for divine protection. Notice the difference between what the king did in turning to God, and the people. As a leader, he set himself before the face of YHVH and inquired for YHVH’s counsel and wisdom. But before he begins to make his requests, he acknowledges the Elohim whom he is addressing. He then reminds YHVH, by way of questions, as to who He is: “YHVH, Elohim of our fathers, are You not Elohim in the heavens? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the heathen? And in Your hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand You? Art You not our Elohim, who did drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the seed of Abraham Your friend for ever?” (2 Chr 20:6-7). Why did the king address YHVH in this way? Was he himself in doubt as to who He was and what He could do? Did the Almighty need someone to remind Him of His position and duties? In the following statement we can see what Jehoshaphat was driving at. Those questions came from one who knew and feared (revered) the Elohim of Abraham, and knew that what He was and what He did was all for one purpose, to glorify His name: “And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for Your name sake” (v. 8).

The king understood that if YHVH were going to move to deliver him and His people, it would not be because of their worthiness or their righteousness, as the mere fact that those nations were ‘knocking at their door’ meant that YHVH was not pleased with Judah. Listen to the following statements of the king: “If, when evil comes upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for Your name is in this house,) and cry unto You in our affliction, then You will hear and help” (v. 9). This is the prayer of a very wise man, who knew how to get the Elohim of the heavens to respond to his plight and the fears of the people. This confession, and the following conclusion, demonstrated humility and complete dependence on YHVH’s sovereignty, not only over Judah, but also over those kingdoms of the enemies that were about to attack the nation (see v.6).

Here is Jehoshaphat's concluding prayer "O our Elohim, will You not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon You" (v. 12). The king, along with the men, women and children were not looking at their own chariots and horses, at their strong men with their bows, arrows and spears, neither for the shrewdness of their politicians and generals. Their eyes were upon YHVH Elohim alone; He was their only Savior and Deliverer. It was only then that the Spirit came to a priest/prophet and delivered YHVH's response to their supplication, consecration and prayer.

Jahaziel ("God will cause to see") came to deliver the message: "Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but Elohim's. Tomorrow go down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and you shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel. You shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of YHVH with you" (v.15-17). What wonderful words! Now they knew exactly where the enemy will be the following day, and what they (Judah) were to do. But even better news were encapsulated by the statement: "the battle is not yours, but the Almighty's".

This, however, is not the end. Even though they had this wonderful word from YHVH they still had to go to bed that night and wake up to a very unpredictable future. They had to face their enemy, which is something we too must do. As believers, our enemies are principalities and powers in heavenly places; they come to us in the form of evil thoughts and intentions. At that time the only thing the Judeans had to stand and act upon was YHVH's word. So too today - we must face our enemy with faith and trust in the truth of YHVH's word.

The following day, the king, knowing the doubts and fears of his people, encouraged them with these words: "Believe in YHVH your Elohim, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall you prosper" (20). The Hebrew word for "established" is "te'am'nu" - of the root a.m.n, which is "to believe". Thus Jehoshapat addressed the nation with a play on words: "ha'aminu, ve-te'amnu": "Believe and be established, confirmed, strong" and in particular "become credible". In other words, by believing, trusting, giving credit to and having faith in YHVH, they themselves were becoming not only strong and established, but also "credible".

"Praise YHVH; for his mercy endures for ever" (V.21).

Shabbat Shalom

Ephraim

As you perhaps already know some of these articles or combinations of articles of the past are on our website, both in English and now being translated into Hebrew as well:
http://www.1st-born.com

Passivity, Apathy & Malaise

Greg Manalli

greg@folchurch.org

I personally teach the power of the indwelling Christ. It is my desire to practice this truth as much as teach it. More so now than ever, the whole body needs to experience this dynamic relationship of God in man. On the way to that end we unfortunately run into difficulties arising from the lack of this practice and must address them or ignore them to our own detriment. At present the church is experiencing consequences of not living a Spirit led Spirit empowered life. Many lay in the sloth of lethargy, unable to pick up their heads because of passivity, apathy and malaise.

These three human contaminants to the Christ life are like steps descending downward. Each one gives occasion to the next lower level until one arrives at the worst of spiritual fatigue, that of malaise. No one aspires to any of these conditions. They happen gradually, coming upon one like a creeping fog. Once they engulf a person, it's challenging to obtain release, but not impossible. Here are some things I wish to share with you so you can detect passivity, apathy and malaise and receive freedom from them in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Passivity

You and I were not born passive. Something happened to bring on this unresponsive attitude. Maybe the Laodiceans suffered some with passivity. They were neither hot nor cold.....just lukewarm. Passive people lack responsiveness. They don't participate, are not involved and do not act when action is required. They have little resistance to evil and remain unresponsive to positive influences. Something has shut them down.

When one doesn't learn to resist the devil, he or she probably doesn't know much of submitting to God, James 4:7. This leaves one in a no mans land, open not to the advances of God as much as the devices of the devil since we are told to resist the devil. That word resist is the Greek anthistemi, from which we derive antihistamines. We know what antihistamines do to stop the reactions we get to allergies.

But the problem is worse when it comes to obeying the voice of the Lord or responding to the urges of the Holy Spirit. The dullness that overshadows a passive person is increased by the mounting number of times one doesn't respond to the promptings of God. While in a stimulating meeting, one full of the presence of God, they may lack capacity to join in and rather than participate they observe. Their passiveness increases since they begin to feel nothing and sense separation from the rest of the worshipping throng. Separation leads to isolation. Worse, it can spread.

Since nothing is really significant to a person suffering from passivity, all of life's crisis and God's movements are alike. One doesn't need to become involved with either. And so you have it. Some just sit, like a frog in a pot of water with the temperature rising to boiling point. They can't jump out.
How did this come about? Some (not all), are born into families with parents who provide no discipline of any type. They allow for a demanding child to get her way and cave in to the boy who contests all rules of discipline. The child grows as a self-indulgent person looking only to satisfy their desires. Christianity looks like a promising opportunity to a need based individual.

But Christianity is a discipline with a Lord and God requiring our attention and responses. Participation is a must. Learning to be joined with the Lord in Spirit is a practiced thing. However, when the undisciplined believer doesn't get her way, the disappointment becomes too severe and they begin to shut down their responses since the childhood ploys no longer work on their heavenly Father.

Many Christians grew up without loving discipline. Now it is foreign to them. They don't relate to it since all they ever knew was that they would get their way if they put up enough stink.

Then there are the occasions when some make an effort to do the right thing, or resist temptation or respond to the prompting of the Spirit yet fail to receive the results. These easily succumb to disappointment. This leads to discouragement and a lack of interest sets in. They say to those who encourage them, " I tried that and it didn't work."

Apathy

Passiveness leads to apathy. Apathy is a loss of emotion and passion for the things that matter. All seems to be on the same level. They can't be stirred anymore. They become disheartened! Prov. 18:9 says, "he that is slothful in his work is a brother to him that is a great waster." The word in Hebrew for slothful also means a person who is disheartened. Of course, waste is the result of slothfulness. It is a waste of a good life full of gifts and purpose in Christ.

Malaise

Malaise is the last downward step for some. It has a foreboding gloomy outlook. Since nothing makes a difference and all is going to fall down, why should I care anymore or ever get involved? Recently some numbers were released during the business portion of a newscast that stated auto manufacturers recalls were up dramatically. But the statistic was not a true reflection on the industry but rather the lack of response of the auto owners who showed no interest in getting a potentially dangerous item fixed. Burnout and passivity create indifference even to danger.

Malaise hits believer and unbeliever alike. Malaise engulfs a person or a group of people in an indefinite feeling of despair or the thought that it is all going to go bad. But that is really a lie. All is not going wrong. The only thing that is really wrong is that believers are not responding and taking responsibility. How do we get free? Before we can answer this question we need to look at the culpability of the church and its leaders.

The church is stressed! We are doing it to ourselves. If the leaders aren't driving the body with another meeting and another program, then the people have taken on their own increasing burdens. In this world with everybody looking to close the doors behind them and shut themselves in from the maddening pace of life, why is it we mirror society and not Christ?

We are over stimulated. One more prophesy, one more exhortation, one more key solution to get it right and then one more and one more and one more. Is this how the Lord drives the church? Is it any wonder that some are loosing heart? Hope deferred makes the heart sick. After a while, it seems senseless to continue and the believer begins to shut down. We don't see them as often in meetings. They don't give as they used to. They aren't raising their hands as high and their voices aren't as loud.

It is repentance time. Time to ask God to forgive us of hewing out cisterns that can hold no water (refreshing, cleansing), Jer. 2:13. Whenever we forsake the "fountain of living water" we must hew out our own source. Since they provide no benefit we are forced to keep digging new ones in hopes of attaining some little drop.

Ultimately, we are faced with our continual failures. Passivity is the natural result of continual disappointment. Finally, passivity will not respond to the same worn out promises. Here we are. When we no longer practice the presence of the Indwelling One, we are left in our own presence.

God my Father and Lord Jesus my Savior, forgive me for coming to the place of passivity and becoming disheartened. It is not for me to blame others. I am as guilty of bringing this on myself as any leader who wrongly endeavored to stimulate me to action. I forgive them and myself as well and ask for your empowering presence to once again have complete control over my thoughts and actions. May the blood of my Lord be over my head like the blood placed on the lintel of the doors of the Israelites in Egypt.

Lord I pray for the leadership of the church to put their plans down and listen to you. May they have ears to hear and eyes to see what you wish to initiate in the church. If you author it you will empower it. The will surely be no stress to your plans and no disappointment either. Teach me Lord that doing your will is SUCCESS!

Lord we resist the forces of Satan that have sought to bring bondage to our person, our family, and our service to you, our leaders and churches. We humbly submit ourselves under your mighty hand and from that position resist the devil. We are loosed from passive spirits who seek to influence our thoughts, emotions and wills. We will once again delight to do your will. Obedience will come easy. The indwelling Christ is our life. By Him we live and move and have our being. Amen.

Blessings In Christ,
Greg Manalli

Persecution and Glory

Rick Joyner

April 19, 2004
Last week we discussed how persecution and trials are not only to be expected, but are to be embraced as opportunities to enter more fully into the kingdom of God. These are allowed as tests of our faith, and to purify our faith. The fear of God and the fear of man cannot coexist. One or the other will rule our lives. Persecutions, slander, and other attacks help to deliver us from and sift out of our lives the things that would cause us to compromise our most valuable treasure-our devotion to God. Consider again what Paul wrote in Galatians 1:10:

For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ.

To the degree that man pleasing controls our lives, we have forsaken our bond-service to Christ. As Paul also wrote in II Timothy 3:12:

And indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

As Christians we should be much more concerned if we are not being persecuted than if we are. If we are not being persecuted, it is likely because we have so compromised the ways of the Lord that we are no longer an offense or a threat to the enemies of God.

Where is this persecution going to come from? Just as Jesus Himself was not persecuted by the more overt sinners, but by the religious community, who were His own brethren, the same has been the case for all who have sought to follow Him. A reason why one of the devil's main titles is "the accuser of our brethren" (Revelation 12:10) is because one of his main strategies has always been to get brethren accusing one another.

The devil seems to know even better than the church that unity increases spiritual authority. One can put a thousand to flight, but two can put ten thousand to flight (see Deuteronomy 32:30). Therefore, the highest priority of the devil is to create division in the church. If a church in a city ever came into true unity, the devil and his evil devices would all be quickly driven out of that city. If there is unity in a family, the devil will not find a place there. Therefore, it is in our best interest to not let things divide us from one another. Before we get into how we deal with persecution, let us first determine not to persecute our brethren, but always work toward their edification.

As we read in Ephesians 4:29-32 previously, what grieves the Holy Spirit is "bitterness, wrath, angel, clamor, slander, and malice." Now let us read those verses with the one that proceeds it.

Let no unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for edification according to the need of the moment, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you (Ephesians 4:28-32).

If we do not do anything else this week but determine to control our words, by not letting anything come out of our mouths except that which is good for the edification of those who hear, we will likely be much closer to the kingdom and to the King, than we have been before. Let us resolve to do this one thing. The results will be extraordinary.

© MorningStar Publications Inc. All rights reserved http://www.morningstarministries.org/

The Highest Honor
Rick Joyner

The Highest Honor Granted As a Follower of Christ
April 26, 2004

Last week we discussed how persecution is part of the faithful Christian life, and that we should be more concerned if we are not being persecuted in some way because "all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted" (II Timothy 3:12). Even though we are sure to be persecuted if we are living godly lives, we do not want to be the persecutors, which is why we must resolve to obey Ephesians 4:29-32:

"Let no unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for edification according to the need of the moment, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you."

One of the Greatest Opportunities to Grow Into the Lord's Image
Persecution is allowed by God to drive us into His kingdom. It helps to separate us from the desire to please men rather than God. It also helps us to set our hearts on things above, which are eternal, rather than on the things that are earthly and temporary. It gives us an opportunity to grow in love as we learn to love those who do not love us, but rather persecute us. Persecution is one of the greatest opportunities we will have on this earth to grow into the Lord's image. He was persecuted by the very ones He came to save, just as we will be by the very ones that we seek to lead to salvation. As we are told in Philippians 1:28-29 we should:

"...in no way be alarmed by your opponents - which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and that too, from God. For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake."

Paul wrote that this had been "granted" to the believers. Have you thought of persecution as a blessing and a gift? It is actually one of the greatest blessings that we can have in this life! That may be hard for some to accept, especially when they are going through the persecution, but it is a profound truth. Few things can so quickly separate us from the things in our life that are not profitable and lead us to the things that are than persecution. There are few things in this life that can bring a greater honor to the Lord, which is the highest purpose to which we can attain in this earthly life.
The Goodness of God Will Always Prevail

As we have discussed previously, since the Fall, Satan has been boasting before the throne of God. His boast is that man, the crown of God's creation, the one that God specifically created for His own fellowship and pleasure, chose to rebel against God and serve the devil, loving evil more than righteousness. Man did this even when God had placed him in a perfect environment. So Satan's contention is that if even God's crowning creation will not serve Him, but chose evil over good, why shouldn't the rest of creation do the same?

Before the end of this age the Lord will have a people, who in the worst environment, even in the darkest of times, will choose righteousness over evil. Through them good will prevail over evil and stand for a witness for all time that the goodness of God will always prevail. This is our calling, and it is a primary reason why we are on the earth at this time. The more difficult it becomes to live a righteous life, the more blessed we are when we do, and the more we are becoming a part of the eternal witness for the truth and righteousness of the ways of God. This is why it was said of the apostles after the Council had flogged them:

"So they went on their way from the presence of the Council, rejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer shame for His name. And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they kept right on teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ." Acts 5:41-42

This, too, must be our resolve. Whatever persecution or shame we are called to suffer for the sake of the Name of the Lord, we will consider it as one of the greatest honors that we can receive here on this earth. We also must not allow it to keep us for one moment from preaching and teaching in the Name of Jesus.

"Satan Does Not Attack Those Who Are Doing Nothing"

That we suffer opposition and persecution is one of the most basic evidences that we are threatening the kingdom of darkness. Satan does not attack those who are not doing anything. So we take this as "a sign of salvation" as Paul called it. The stripes of persecution that we receive here on earth will be our badges of honor for eternity. Do not waste your great opportunity to take up your cross and to suffer shame for His name's sake when it is required. Rejoice that you have been counted worthy of the greatest of honors.

As we proceed toward the end of this age, persecution will increase. The time will come when there will be no place to run from persecution on earth. It may look like for a time that Christianity is being defeated and wiped from the earth, when in fact this will be our greatest opportunity, our finest hour, and the testimony that will help bring the kingdom to this earth.

We Have A Kingdom That Cannot Be Shaken

It may seem that I am dwelling too long on this one subject, but to make it through the times before us, we will need to have a vision for enduring persecution. We need to set our minds and hearts right now toward the Lord and resolve that we will never compromise our convictions. To be prepared, we need to learn now to seize every opportunity to stand for the truth of the gospel, and count it an honor to suffer shame for His name's sake.

If we have built our lives on a firm hope in Him, and not the things of this world, we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and a joy that can never be taken. These things are coming to reveal anything in us that is not built on His kingdom, His truth, and more solidly establish us on that which is. Do not waste these great opportunities.

Prayer Alert
Eileen Vincent

I am forwarding the latest prayer focus from Eileen Vincent at Operation Outcry. God has sovereignly given us an opportunity to do a work in our day that could change the face of our nation. The Justice Foundation is directly involved in the extensive legal efforts to overturn Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton - the two cases that bought abortion to the America. Norma McCorvey who was formally designated "Roe" and Sandra Cano "Doe" have asked the Foundation to represent them as they return to court to open their cases.

This legal battle is a spiritual battle. While the lawyers go to court, an army of prayer warriors who will be needed to present their case in the heavenly courtroom in persistent prayer. Good arguments and money are not enough; we are dealing with powerful spiritual forces that will not yield except to concerted believing prayer. Blessings, Chuck D. Pierce

****

OPERATION OUTCRY PRAYER ALERT
Eileen Vincent

July 2004

I have settled my justice in the heavens,
I rule in justice upon the earth,
The rule of my justice will bring peace.
Justice and mercy have kissed,
Peace and mercy dance together.

Father we ask You to do miracles, bring Your rule of justice, peace and mercy upon us. We call for You to intervene in the affairs of America.

The new ultrasound scan abilities that have been invented are revealing fascinating evidence of the humanity and personhood of little babies in the womb. It is now known that many of a baby's activities that were previously thought only possible months after birth actually happen in the womb. Prof. Stuart Campbell's published pictures show the baby sucking his thumb, smiling, and even yawning. Pray that the wonder of these images will break loose and change the entrenched attitudes of those who desire the choice to kill.

In the first week of August Sky T.V. will show the first of a series of programs called the "Faces of Abortion." Each will feature the story of a woman who had an abortion, brave women who are "silent no more". This company of people is making an impact upon society with their honest stories of the devastation caused by a "pro choice" decision. They know only too well the painful consequences of that deadly choice for the rest of their lives.

Do pray that these programs will awaken the conscience of America.

On October 22 on the Mall in Washington, DC will be a vast prayer gathering called, America for Jesus. Do go to their web site www. America for Jesus. for further information. In conjunction with this event there will be a "Tent of Meeting" established on the Mall where a week of 24-hour prayer will be hosted by The Justice Foundation.

To facilitate 7 days of 24 hour prayer and worship we wish to invite you to bring your team of intercessors to the Mall in Washington DC. If this is something you would consider doing we will give you further instructions in the next Alert.

Let us Pray!
Heavenly Father we sense the battle lines are drawn for the soul of this nation. Will You supernaturally intervene and pour grace and anointing upon the intercessors to empower them to stand and persist in faith till they see the victory. The moral depravity of our nation is exposed as the opinions of the candidates for the presidency call the nation to take sides. Quicken the conscious of the people so that they know what is right and are determined to do what is right. You are a Holy God and we know that there comes a time when You must act in justice against the backslidings of Your people. Father we ask You to show mercy to us as a nation and hear the cry of the righteous. Turn our nation back to God!

Lord we ask for a government and a judiciary that would protect the life of the unborn. We pray for the progress of the two cases through the courts so that legalized abortion will be overturned. Lord grant favor to congressional candidates who will obey You and serve Your purposes with their position in Government.

We thank You Lord that You have the power to do Your ill, to establish governments who serve Your purpose and raise up individuals who will be Your spokesmen. Lord we praise You for Your faithfulness to hear and answer our prayer.

Here is the news on both Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton

Both Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton remain in court awaiting the judges' decisions. Although there is nothing new to report it does not mean that nothing new is happening.
These delays, which are not unusual, should only provoke us to continue to pray that the deliberations of the judges over these extremely complex cases will be favorable and we will see the progress of these cases to the Supreme Court and to victory. Continue to pray for the judges by name and pray that the fear of the Lord will cause them to make decisions in keeping with His will.
The Doe v. Bolton case is still with Judge Jay Owen Forrester at the US District Court of the Northern Division of Georgia in Atlanta. Pray for the outcome of his careful consideration of this case.
Hab.3: 2 Lord I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds Oh! Lord. Renew them in our day, in our time, make them known, and in wrath remember mercy.
The Roe v. Wade case remains in the US 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans being reviewed by the three-judge panel that will rule on the motion.
Continue to pray for these judges:
Judge Edith Holland Jones
Judge Edward Prado
Judge Jacques L. Wiener

Pray for the judges by name and Pray for God's justice to be done in their deliberations and decision-making.

Ø Give thanks for God's faithfulness to the Justice Foundation. He supplies all their needs. We thank God that he always provides for His work. Bring the staff into new depths of trust and courageous faith.
Ø Thank God for faithful donors and supporters.
